Chapter 278: Prologue

I am Ferdinand. For the last few days, Rosemain sank in the blue liquid medicine of Jureve, sometimes the eyelids opened, the in-focus eyes closed quickly. I knew that the awakening was close, but the body still sitting in Yereva has not emerged yet. During the harvest festival, I came back with a beast repeatedly to see the situation, but my development was lazy enough to get frustrating. Rosemain finally slowly emerged slowly after blinking blinking, the eye focused, and further treatment was impossible.

I put my hands on Yrieve, I helped Rosemain and hit the back of Rosemain who did not breathe well. Juvee which was in the mouth and trachea jumped out, it seems that breathing became easier, after bashfully coughing, the breathing got in place.

"It hurts, the chief priest"

I do not know the reason why such a grudge must be seen with good eyes. Anyway, it was good that Rosemain woke up before the social occasion of winter began. I was worried about whether I could be in time for the House of Peers, but it seems to be manageable.

"When the bath is over, call me, talk about the period you were asleep, if there is a question, do that then."

I pick up Rosemain from Yureva and leave the workshop. When I handed over to the franc who was waiting for the latter awakening now, I returned to my room.

"The chief of the temple woke up, does not this little bill come from the head of the temple?"

The place pointed out by the sidebar is the part Rosemain seized. It has a tight and small bill. I put hands in Jereve and raised Rosemain and hugged him, so the priest's clothes were terrible.

"Lord the priest, let's change the clothes"

"Oh, I beg you."

Whether the side who brought the change of clothes also relieves what Rosemain woke up, relaxes the expression, and raptically abuses a light mouth. She seems to have waited for Rosemain's awakening.

..... When I wake up, I will not be bothered by Ale.

I turned my eyes towards a yellow manast that was collecting in a corner of the office desk with a sigh.

Aldonants who only screamed when Rosemain wakes up, was really tired of being half full this half year.

It was the same with me that I was frustrated by the magical power of Rosemain hard to solve. I wonder when I want to yell how often when Rosemain wakes up, I want to hear it.

I am concerned with the great relief that I was good to wake up safely. It is natural that it was immersed in Jureve, but there is no change in Rosemain. As well as consciousness and memory, the figure has stopped two years ago.

Rosemae was surprised at the growing side by side as well, looked up at me, looking at me, grabbing my cuff with a terribly uneasy face. It is from now on that Rosemain has to keep pace with his circumstances and his own way.

"We are to head to the temple room to explain later in the past two years.

"Certainly yes"

After finishing changing clothes, I headed to the office desk and lightly struck the yellow magic stones accumulated in one corner of the desk one after another with a stapt and pouring magical power. When changing all nearly 20 magical stones to Ordnants at a time, the surroundings were full of white birds. Toward that, I tell.

"Rosemain woke up, and if he does not have a problem in physical condition he will take him to the castle at the time of the 3rd bell after three days, so that he will not come to the shrine because he is not yet in a regular condition."

As I said, swinging Stapt, Ordonants jumped all at once. Incidentally, more than ten of Ordonants is a reply to Mr. Bonifatius.

Because one Ordonant repeats the same message three times, I think that Bonifatius's appearance will be heard 30 to 40 times the same message, I lowered the drinking a little bit. It is a bit of retribution to the fact that I have skipped over Aldanants asking if Rosemain woke up like everyday in the past few months.

But my drinking was going down was only a little. When Rosemain took out the materials that summarized items that must be remembered before going to the House of Peers, Aldonants who brought joyful cries quickly came back.

"Ooooooooooooooooooooo! Rosemain! Wake up!"

Three times I heard a sound that seemed to resonate in the temple, I had no choice but to stop temple. Even if Rosemain is asleep, get up, Bonifatius is bad.

I could not afford to make it anymore, and as I was checking the materials by leaving the Ordonants that I returned to the yellow manastone, a sideboarding voice came.

"The chief priest and the chief of the temple are ready for it"

"I understand, let's go"

"The chief priest, Well, please tell us the story"

Rosemain lying on the chaise lying without power, said so with a glare and told him. Just the gold eyes and tone are fine, but the body of Rosemain, who had been sleeping for two years, seems to be weak enough to support himself.

..... There was no record of those who used Jureve for so long. It may be valuable material.

When I think about how weak I am trying to investigate how weak, Rosemain says "Do you talk?" While speechlessly saying only the mouth, tap the seat of the chaisea with just the tip and fingers. Apparently this seems to be the best protest for Rosemain now.

"..... There is a story that I can not do here, is it OK over there?"

There are things that various events that happened in the castle may not be totally spoken in the temple. When I showed a hidden room, Rosemain fell down first instead of nodding.

"If you go to take me, please take me, I do not have the power to put on my body yet."
"Is it true? Does the sensation do not change at all after waking up, or is it increasing the parts that move little by little? How much do you know how likely it will move as before?"

When I asked, Rosemain says a smiley and smiling smile and said, "The chief priest is really a mad scientist." I do not know what the word mad scientist means, but I understood only the things that are being badly victimized, so play the amount of Rosemain a bit.

Rosemain cried out as "awful!", But usually the hand holding the forehead was not moving at all, and it went up with a dull and slowly heavy movement.

..... If it is in this state, how long will it take for the muscles to recover to the extent that they can move normally? It is OK to resurrect quickly, but if it takes too much time to put in the muscle strength that is not originally there is also the possibility that you can not make it to the House of Lords in time.

While observing the state of Rosemain, I opened the door of the hidden room and let the Francs and the Zam carry a chaise long with Rosemain. I took a chair in front of Rosemain and sat face to face.

When Fran and Zeam left and the door closed, the expression of Rosemain saw it changed to a thing with a lot of dissatisfaction while seeing.

"The chief priest, I am somewhat" Urashima Taro "What!

"... .... What, is that? I do not understand the meaning."

"Before coming out from here, there was only a chief of the bishop who had no change to the glabellar eyebrows, so I did not really feel that I had two years ago, but when I get out of here, Nicolas and Monica will also be adults, I'm raising, the skirt is getting longer, the gill is getting bigger ... .... "

Actually Charlotte and Wilfried are left behind. What will happen if Rosemain, who struggled like an idiot to be Charlotte's "sister", knows that Charlotte is stretched tall?

..... What happens, I can not do anything anything.

Huh, and the moment when I sigh, I felt that the magical power of Rosemain shook unstably. The color of the eyes of Rosemain's appealing apprehension as if it is excited changes from a familiar gold color to a rainbow color like an oil film.

"I'm totally getting stuffed everlasting! It looks like a world I do not know about, and I feel bad!"

"Rosemain, calm down"

"It's impossible! Everyone around is quite different! Other than me, everyone ..."

"The flow of your magical power has also changed during the past two years. If you do not settle down, you will run away."

The fluctuation of the magical power is already visible. As I had predicted that it would be like this, I took out the magic stone that I had prepared in my waist bag and pressed the manaston against the forehead of Rosemain. Magical power accumulates in a blink of an eye in a blink of an eye.

Rosemain saw how some manasts were staining with their own magic in a blink of an eye As if they were surprised, they opened their eyes, blinked several times, slowly took a deep breath and adjusted their breath It was. And I pulled my trembling hand without power and grasped my sleeve as before.

"... .. Please tell me exactly what happened in the last two years, everyone changed too much and I am afraid to go out"

"Well, where to talk from ..... no matter what happened,"

"Has the attacker been caught, was Charlotte safe?"

For me it was over two years ago, but I think that it is the last event for Rosemain. If this feeling is different, filling the two-year blank may be more difficult than expected.

Charlotte's kidnappers were relatives of Rosemary and they were already executed. However, he is not involved in kidnapping or dosing of Rosemain. I was in a hall that was sealed when I was suspicious of the Gerrachova who offered him a cannibal soldier but there was no evidence and that there was a raid. Escort Knights did not make the wrong move, but because they did not protect the Lord, they talked about the fact that he was dismissed.

"It was nice that the escort knights did not have a terrible disposition, so to the contrary, I was giving instructions, what happened to the children's room in winter?"

"About the winter kids room, Charlotte and Wilfried are struggling to operate as you directed, There was a report from the side with the children's room, Damuel who was carrying and lending picture books A similar report was also made from the lower noble family Phyline for collecting and renting the teaching materials. "

The name of a lower aristocrat who seems to be longing for Rosemain came out from Darmel, Vilfriit and Charlotte. Rosemain seemed to have immediately thought of a name, it relaxed a little expression.

"Is that so, Philline ... .."

"Although the story of each place gathered in that child's room, it is said that the child's spoken language was written, and it was said that the book was not very booky, your sideways were lamented."

Rosemain smiled small with a kiss whether it appeared like that.

"What happened to Hasse, was the prayer ceremony done properly?"

"Charlotte who offered that I wanted to take your place as a result of my own hardships served as a prayer ceremony at Hasse"

"... .. Is magical power enough?"

Blinking at eyes Rosemain lightly shrugs my shoulders.

"It would not have been enough to do, Charlotte and Wilfried made a prayer ceremony using your magical powers that I could solve to Jereve, and they got a donation coming back at the harvest festival. You also helped in this year's prayer ceremony, both of whom seem to have become more used to manipulating magic stone. "

"Is that so ... .. you're growing up, right?"

Rosemain fell off his eyes and muttered so terribly lonely.

"Two years have passed"

"... .. What happened to the people in the downtown? If two years have passed, my fathers are very worried, but ..."

"The report has not gone up here as to what your family is doing here. The report has been reported here in the downtown relation that the hand pump started to spread little by little. As for the family, Do not they know something? "

"... Later, I will ask Gill and Fritz, the printing industry is stagnant, what happened to Ircnner's paper making?"

Irukner 's paper making is going smoothly on Rosemain whispers that he marvels that he has made a good progress, and Volk' s sales contracts ended successfully, and at the ceremonial harvest festival this year, he tells that Volk was formed in Volk.

"It was nice that they were stored properly by two people"

"Then, Elvira, who concerned about the stagnation of the printing industry you conduct, began printing in Hartendzell, where his parents live, so that the group called Gutenberg was mobilized totally, and from this spring to the fall Halden Zell There was a report from Beno the other day that it came back after the harvest festival. "

"Well, is your mother a printing business?"

I nodded deeply in Rosemain, which makes my eyes round like I can not believe it. Elvira broke the effort to expand the printing industry promoted by Rosemain as mother instead of me who is going to be busy with work.

As Elvira is a senior aristocrat, he is obviously not familiar with the manner of business. As a result, Beno, who is doing impatiently, seemed quite difficult, but I had a little easier.

"Grateful to Elvira's mother heart"

"Of course, I appreciate my mother ... but ..."

Rosemain looked up at me with a subtle expression. In just a few seconds, Rosemain who had something to say was closing his eyes and thinking something and becoming the face "Well, somewhere".

"... .... What, what do you want to say?"

"No, it's nothing, I just thought that the priest owner had given permission often"

"To be honest, I did not turn to the printing industry, so if Elvira took the place I never had it."

The workload Rosemain had carried in was not for children. As I already knew it, I had to distribute it considerably around me, not the amount that I could carry on by myself.

Even though the calculation clerk disappeared, although it was a pain to me, various ceremonies, the operation of the orphanage and the workshop, and the interaction with the Planetan business participated in my work. It is a workload that makes you want to have a head with just a temple relationship.

Yet, as there is no breakwater named Rosemain, the number of calls to the castle has also increased. There, there is no doubt that not only Jill Vester, but also the criminal is a son of Gerrach, so when you prepare an appropriate trap, say unreasonable things like to raise the evidence of Gerrach's son, let's make Rosemain early, and loud Bonifaceius There was sama.

And, while Rosemain sleeps, training Escort Knight of the Lord's family, strengthening even a little, due to Bonifatius's surprise, I can work my assistant Eckhardt, I can work instead of the Lord It was trained to the escort knight of Rosemain who just began to sort through his work. It is the worst.

"So, did the old Veronica calm down?"

"There is no particular movement within Ehrenfest so far, the Gerrach squirrel is also cleverly escaping so that it can not be caught by the tail. Some people said that it is unreasonable to raise the evidence even if you set a trap, Just doing the previous job, I was doing my best. "

"Thanks for all of my work I have flowed to the chief priest.I thank you for your hard work .. From tomorrow I will return as much as possible ... .. If this body is managed somehow, I am talking about it"

Certainly in this state Rosemain will not be able to help with work. It is not the case when you are observing slowly. I must hurry.

"To prevent the reoccurrence of Georginé, as far as the territory is trying not to have any exchanges with Ahrensbach, there will be no movement to overtake .... But that is right. Next is Lamprecht I am concerned that it seems to be a seed of disturbance. "

"Is it your brother Lamprecht?"

I look back on my move over the past two years and narrow my eyes a little.

At the end of the winter two years ago when Rosemain went to sleep, Lamprecht went to the graduation ceremony of the aristocrat in order to celebrate the love graduation. While Mr. Lamprecht was lower in mind than Lovers, Mr. Lamprech was lower in magical power than her girlfriend, so her father was showing a bad color, but as he taught me how to compress magical powers from Rosemain, it increased a little in winter, but the magical power increased.

"So, did your father admit it?"

"It seems that it was said that it would not be bad if there is still room to increase.Lamprecht came back from the House of Lords and submitted an application for marriage to Karstedd and Gilvestor who are their fathers."

Houhou, and eyes of Rosemain shine and urge you ahead. Why does the woman like stories about this kind of other love affair? I can not understand it at all.

After exhaling a sigh, I keep going ahead. It is not such a thing as Rosemain will be pleased.

"But, as Lamprecht's lover was a senior aristocrat of Ahrensbach, the application was instantly rejected, he probably knew that he was dismissed from the situation of Ehrenfest, He said he immediately sent a letter to his lover.

Even if you are saying that you want to marry a boyfriend, your marriage will not be established unless you have permission of the parent and permission of the lords. Even if you are allowed with personal feelings until attending a liaison ceremony graduation ceremony, there are various restrictions beyond that. Love that graduates from the aristocratic family and the future does not last is not uncommon.

"..... Because the elder brother Lamprecht is an escort knight of Mr. Villefriit's elder brother, it would be difficult to marry with the lady of Ahrensbach indeed."

Rosemain gives a convincing voice while drawing an eyebrow.

"Originally it was supposed to be dismissed, sent a letter of parting, and it would have ended with that, but Lamprecht's girlfriend seemed to be the niece of the lord, so why from Auburnandbach at last spring's lord's conference, I was asked if I refused my application. "

"Wow....."

Jill Vester, who was questioned at the Lord's Conference, said that there are aristocrats desiring to marry other daughters of Ahrensbach besides Lamprecht, in other times the aristocracy nowadays is less than the daughter of the upper aristocrat who produces a strong child There is no lord who wants to put out to Aleans Bach, Eleenfest weaker than Ahrensbach, no matter how much we want to marry, there is no surplus power to give out a man, unequal He says that he could dismiss AUB Ahrensbach, saying why he could not do so, as long as he could think of it.

"But I think that it seems to get involved at this year's Lord's Conference too, so if you go into the House of Lords you have to explore the situation of Ahrensbach often"

"... ... Haa, well, I will try as much as I can"

In reply of Rosemain who seemed to be of no interest at all, I suppressed temple.

"Are you listening, Rosemain?"

"Although I have heard, my brother Lamprecht who is confirmed to be unable to marry due to problems in the territory is OK. What happened to Brigitte and Damuel rather than that?"

"... Are you more concerned about the escort knight's marriage than your brother's brother's marriage?"

"Because the time we are together is different"

I breathed a little on the word of Rosemain. Even Wilfried and Charlotte were crushing hearts, so I thought that I would automatically enter Rosemain's family if I was in a family framework.

However, the consciousness of Rosemain's family is not based on the framework of blood and family, it seems to be superior or inferior by exchanging with himself. Everyone treats himself as a family member, and in Rosemain, who gradually increases his / her family, the first time I realized that there is a clear distinction in my family.

"What happened to Darryl's proposal?"

"It is bad as exciting, but the marriage of those two men was not fulfilled"

"Why, was it both of you!"

Rosemain looks astonished and opens his eyes.

"Because Damiel hoped to keep your escort knight, it would be impossible just to get in touch."

"... There is something wrong with both thoughts, is not it?"

"There are many things such as things that are nothing to do with circumstances, since you have grown up once, have you known that much?"

"There were various things to read in books, but there were no people around me that did not go well with both thoughts."

Oh, I feel breath of conviction that it is so. The world where she was, is a similar world. There were differences in various things. Even in such a direction common sense seems to be different.

"There were two ways for their marriage to be established: Brigitte who is a group of intermediate-level lords aristocrats drops their identity to the lower aristocracy of the aristocracy, or Damuel, the second son of the lower aristocracy, I will go up to a nobleman, either. "

"If Damuel goes up, there is absolutely no problem, right?"

Rosemain says casually that Damuel's status goes up, it seems that he does not quite understand between aristocrats.

"A fool, that Damiel quits the escort knight and enters Ircnor, it would still have been good if an ordinary lower-level knight, indeed, lower middle class nobility continues to be more magical than intermediate escort knights There was also an opinion that it was better for you to give senior knights to you, but Damuel is special, you are too connected with your circumstances, you have been saved and raised by you, you are said to quit you It is a position that I can not quit by my will. "

Not to mention third parties, even Brititti, who has been married, does not know that he has information on when Damiel was a commoner. When Damuel declined Brigitte's offer, people say "wasteful" words. On the other hand, the voice honoring Damuel 's loyalty mind had also risen.

"Well then, if you say you can quit Dermel immediately, can they get married !?"
"It is already late. Brigitte married this third summer of the middle-class aristocrat introduced to Elvira and returned to Irkner."

I murmured with a stupid face that Rosemain was stunned, "I can not believe it too rapidly" to my words.

In order to bless the two, I seriously dismissed Damuel holding my important information and seemed to have sent it to Ilkner. When I saw Rosemain, I sent applause to Elvira 's skill.

"Speaking of that, there was an application for your permission to marry from your exclusive chef, too, if you are not the one who is also the Lord, I can not give you permission, so I have put it on hold. Rather than do this processing earlier than "
"... ... Finally Spring has come to Fugo, is not it?"

I murmured Rosemain as "I am congratulating" with a face that failed to laugh. It is the same face as when I was saying that "surroundings are changing too much and scary."

"For your orphanage and workshop, your side will be more detailed, it seems better to leave the report to the side."
".....Yes"

I showed clear tension and I suffered a lot of time what was wrong with the stiffened face of Rosemain. A lot of people knew who had used Yuree, but it was only one season from the 10 th. I do not know anyone who was sleeping for years and since there is no change in the rosema I saw from me, I do not know honesty of Rosemain's feelings confused by changes in the surroundings.

Rather, I can understand the feelings of the sideways I was worried about for a long time, when I wake up really.

"Rosemain, I do not know what you are afraid of, but all of your sideways were waiting for you to wake up, according to the instructions you left, the temple room, the orphanage, the workshop were cut out I was trying hard to make you get pleased when you awaken, rather than fearing their growth, do them themselves. "

"Yes"

While replying, Rosemain smiled to a grin. It was the appearance of Rosemain as usual as I know.

Chapter 279: Urashima Tarou I

I got up, Urashima Taro.

The chief priest who was in the hidden room had no change at all, though I did not think anything when I got up, but I thought if the heart would stop at the moment when I came out of the hidden room by being hugged by the priest chief.

The more you gimmicky the more everyone is getting bigger. Nicolas and Monica were adults, raised their hair, their chests were conspicuous, and the skirt length was also long. Whether Gill is growing up, my memories were about the height of the fur chest until a little while ago, my head slightly exceeds the shoulder of the franc. Besides, the voice was low like another person.

..... Something is scary.

When I sleep and get up, the surroundings are growing in an instant. To be honest, scary, or creepy. Actually, as I was sleeping for two years, it may not be a moment, but in my sense it seems that everyone is growing overnight.

In the meantime, only myself has not grown up. Or, it is degenerating. I can not move my body as I thought, whether the muscular strength is falling while sleeping for two years. Even though I can not move as I want, I know that I am naked by unknown people, and have them take a bath in full nursing care condition.

Even though I feel terrible fear and anxiety, I can not say "do it myself" or "I want you to stop". I try to open my mouth, open my hands and close it, or try to move my legs around.

While moving a moving body little by little, I was scared of my inner heart while sticking a smile to the surroundings I do not know but I knew.

Now I heard stories from the priest chief in the hidden room, I heard how much everybody was worried and waited for the awakening, I felt a little calm. Still, when I see the flow of time I can not do anything, I feel like there are walls that I can not overcome before myself.

The chief priest who explained the incident that happened while I was sleeping with the digest, hurried as if I remembered something.

"Rosemain, I'd like to take magical tools, but shall we wait here or will we go out once?"

"... Because I am waiting here, please take a book there"

When I showed the book that Gill had stacked up with only the line of sight, the priest owner took the top book and put it on my stomach. Then I will return my heel to get the magician and go out.

"This is a new book."

I moved my hand slowly and touched the book on my stomach. My cheeks loose to the feel of a new book.

Now, with a spirit of reading, I moved my hand. I try desperately to open the page with trembling hands that do not contain power, but I can not do the act just to open the page. It is difficult to pinch a piece of paper, it is so difficult.

"Ah....."

I could not put a force on the hand holding the book, the book slipped smoothly, it made a noise and fell to the floor. I stretched out my hand to pick it up, but even my own arms that fell out of the seat of the chaise lounge were too heavy for me now. As a matter of course, there is no way I can pick up a book.

..... I'm too weak to read books.

I sacrificed it for two years, but I do not feel like I was healthy at all. It is not much that the body is not growing at all, that muscle strength decreases and magical power increases.

It seems useless to paste a smile so as not to worry around it, and at the moment when I took over the force, the bottle and tears got out.

"You kept me waiting ... Why are you crying?"

"I can not read a book because the hand does not move and I can not open the page myself.

Hua, and the sacred priest 's chief priest caught my left hand, I put a decorative bracelet in my arms. The bracelet of the magician changes its shape like a shun, and suddenly sucks up the magical power about the second arm exactly.

"The chief priest, suddenly what ... .. that one's arm moves?"

"It is a magic tool to assist magic of physical strengthening. It was used until I grasped the tips of physical strengthening in old times. Although you have a lot of magical power. I can do about the degree of normal movement I am going to get out of that arm. "

"Yes"

When putting in both arms, the upper body can now move easily. it's amazing. Try turning his arms with gourmands.

"You can read a book with this!"

"... .. Would you be impressed by other things?"

"Huh? I am impressed with the excitement and respect of the highest grade?"

The priest who shaken her head lightly, saying "no treatment," said "I will wear it on my feet later," and put two rings on my hand. I will accept it and tilt my head.

"Is not it okay to put it in now?"

"There is no point unless you touch the skin directly." Are you planning to expose your feet here? There is not much to be desired. What you do not care about whether you have an exposed hobby, at least, Do not stay where you are, I am sorry for getting strangely collateralized. "

I am wearing socks like a hanging tie by a string to the belt of the cloth wrapped around the waist. It is like having a garter with a piece of cheerfulness. From there on, underwear like a drawer is attached. In other words, if you think about attaching a ring with your skin touching it, you have to put it on your thighs and you have to take off your underwear earlier than that.

It is no wonder that I say that it is difficult for me to move my legs by myself, saying that I should put off my underwear to the priest.

Of course, I do not plan to ask the chief priest to do such a thing. I thought that I should catch on my ankle. There is no exposure taste. Nevertheless, I do not have such a hobby.

"What is an exposure hobby?" There is no such thing! The chief priest owes a lack of explanation. I just thought whether I should catch on my ankle. I am convinced that it is not a thigh. Please call Nicolas. "

Have the chief priest hide from the hidden room and have Monica and Nicola put in instead. Then I got pulled off and put a loop around my thighs. If you shake yourself with Bran Bran, you move as you want.

Monica and Nicola have rounded eyes to the appearance that the legs moved only slowly until then as they move freely.

"I lent the priest for the sake of me who can not move, I will stand, so can both of you please help me?"

"of course"

When you put your strength on, you stand as you think. I left my hands with Monica and Nicolas, I walked all by myself and decided to pose with a bishop.

"I feel I finally became healthy"

"... ... The magician of the priest's president is amazing, is not it?"

"Smile returns to Rosemain's face, I am glad."

I laughed and said that Nicola was relieved. It seems that I found out that the smile that I worked hard and stuck was made and it was a smile.

"I am sorry for making you worry, both of us"

I walk by my own feet and leave the hidden room. I did not think that my body is moving so much that I feel comfortable. While realizing the appreciation of health, I rushed to the door with a light foot and opened vigorously.

"Thanks to the witchcraft of the chief priest, see! You can move by yourself. Thank you."

As the chief priest was naturally lightly nodded, the francs rounded their eyes and then faced as if they were relieved.

"Rosemain, after three days we will move to the castle, after that we will do the packing lecture we need to head to the House of Lords and enter the society of winter as it is. If you meet with the Plantin Shogun, do it quickly Keep it. "

"understood"

..... Stuff up to the lords.

I felt the hot-blood guidance of the priest chief, I nodded while dropping my shoulders and shoulders. I finished using it, the priest chief will leave the room.

"Mr. Rosemain, would you like to inform me about the things that happened during the vacation in order?"

"Yes, please"

When I raised my face to the words of Franc, my side jobs were in line.

Frank, Zam and Monica who kept the temple room were in line, and Nicola was in and out of the kitchen for reporting on the kitchen because there were more people entering and leaving the kitchen for the past two years.

Reports on orphanages are Vilma and Rosina. Vilma seemed to be able to enter and exit the temple room unnoticed, waiting for the order of the report.

And for the report of the workshop, Gill and Fritz were at the end.

"There was not a particularly big event in the temple room, because I was an assistant to the priest, I, Zam and Monica were packed every day in the priest's office room. In the praying ceremony and harvest festival, instead of Rosemain, Charlotte Dear Mr. Wilfried, I went around directly under the jurisdiction. The first year was a little uneasy treatment, but in the second year I dealt tremendously with jewelry and gave me blessings. "

"Yes, you must thank them."

"As the two of them traveled to the temple for departure and arrival, the consciousness of blue priests also changed a little, and for those who cared for, several people tried to work seriously It came out"

Speaking of cash, it's cash, but it would be fine if you give a little motivation to work.

"What we were most worried about was the medicine amount of the president of the bishop, like to use medicine as usual, and please note a word from Rosemain. I will be heard. "

I nodded in the nostalgic words of Fran. It is the amount of work that told me to the utmost by doing a priest who regularly used medicine, just finishing my work in front of me. With care, I must not have let go of the medicine.

"... .. I would like to help you with your work so that the priest chief may not take medicine."

After finishing the franc report, next time Nicola has a wood tag and starts reporting.

"Thanks to Rosemain, I was able to practice for two years as a culinary assistant. You can now make all the recipes that Rosemain left, and a cook showdown between Fugo and Ilze There are also new recipes. "

..... Cooking showdown? What it looks interesting!

"I'm looking forward to the new recipe, but what happened to the victory?"

"Now it is a draw with one win and one loss"

"I'm looking forward to seeing what will happen next time,"

"Then Fugo and Ella are applying for marriage. If Rosemain wakes up, Hugo said to me that I would like to hear the most."

..... How! Is it? Hugo's opponent was Ella! Is it?

"Although a nobleman woman seems to quit his job after getting married, Ella wishes to continue, if possible, I would be happy if you can consider it there too."

"I am happy to work even after marriage ... .. But how about preparing your room? I will ask the chief priest, but I will arrange for the next summer to be married."

"Wow, Fugo is pleased. Thank you."

And Nicolas finished reporting, telling the fact that the recipe book was completed. When Nicola goes down, Vilma and Rosina have come forward.

"Then, it is a report from an orphanage. In the two years when Rosemain was absent, three orphans are increasing, two of them are abandoned in front of the gate, the other is Egmont The gray shrine maiden Lily who had been serving as a child was born. "

Speaking of Egmont, it should have been a cautionary figure who broke my library.

..... Next time, embrace the side effects, the child is an orphanage? Huh? Wait a minute. Is this normal here? Do you mind if I get angry? Which one?

I decided not to respond at once, I decided to think about the good and evil of Egmont's actions in a few extra points.

"... .... um, is that you gave birth here?"

"No, no one knew about birth, so we could not deal with this, as a result of consulting with Turi or the Planetan Shokai, we moved the gray shrine maiden to the small temple of Hasse and asked Hassa residents to help us It was. "

It seems that he only said that the chief priest may be born without permission. While thinking that it was such a thing, Virma who was uneasy about it consulted with Turi and Lutz. Then, it seems that ignorance was pointed out to the two people, it would not be such a thing. Both of them are good guys.

In order to move the gray shrine maiden to the small temple of Hasse by instructions of Beno who had a head on the fact that there are about twenty women in an orphanage and no one experienced as a baby as any one It seems he got it. It seems that childbirth was done by calling a woman of Hasse, starting with Nora who had helped the childbirth.

At that time, Beno was scolded by Beno that the head of the orphanage did not know, and Vilma was taken out to Hasse with several gray shrine maidens.

"That was ... .. Was it difficult for Vilma? Well, is that okay?"

Even being scolded by that Beno 's sword curtain, Villema who was a male phobia must have been a considerable fear experience. I can only think of traumatism over trauma.

"... It certainly was very difficult but it was a difficult experience, now I am spending time with my mother and child in a room at this orphanage. With taking advantage of the experience of Dirk, I am taking care of while taking turns "

"What about Dirk? Is absorption of magical power going?"

"Yes, as soon as I could see the signs, I immediately consulted the chief priest through the franc, and immediately responded, so I am spending no particular problems with Dirk."

If magical power gets too much, dangerous dirk seems to have been able to spend a lot without anything more than anything else.

"Music education at an orphanage is also going well. After touching Fespiel, we have educated only children who are interested. When I saw it, only one person is likely to become a musical instructor. However, it seems that I do not like practice so much, so I do not think it will grow. "

Unlike aristocrats with announcements, music education at orphanages is not an obligation. It's just about finding talent and motivated children. Some have talent but can not make efforts and others are not interested in music. If you do not motivate yourself, it is a story until then.

"But, there are children who are likely to become painters, I like to draw pictures, imitate Vilma's paintings, find paint on stones and draw pictures."

"Yes, Vilma, you can buy a pen pencil, so please let me continue as it is"

"Certainly yes"

It seems that Rosina has seriously made the job of educating children at an orphanage. I did not think such a thing is a job of the exclusive musical doctor, though I was wondering what to do if I refused it, but I did not need to worry.

"It is a report of the workshop"

Girl who got taller, lowered his voice, and got closer to the adult as he gets astounding, will report for two years.

It seems that I have borrowed a book by Turi after the manuscript I left behind is gone. Instead, they taught Turley and Lutz in their orphanage.

"Both of them seem to have arrived at the manners to the extent that they can appear in front of an intermediate aristocrat"

Fritz taught to Lutz said so, Vilma taught to Turi nodded.

"We were very ecstatic and were working hard and thanks to the two people going regularly to the orphanage and advising and helping Dirk's parenting consultation and Lily's birth, It was saved. "

"Well then, you must also thank them for me."

In my words Gil said, "Since Turli suggested to make books on behavior manners, I tried printing in the winter last year, and books that summarize greetings with nobles are sold to the richest man Please also thank us for that, "he added.

..... Turi may be an angel indeed.

A book that summarizes the knight stories I left behind, a book on "Mother's Bedding Story" that I handed to Turi, a recipe book with Nicola's paintings, with Vilma painting one book, Turli's idea It seems that there are an increasing number of five manners books handed down by the side, totaling five volumes.

"In addition to these, I also printed a book you got from Elvira, but I have not left it because I printed the necessary number of times as far as the deadline. When I pick up all the failed items, Elvira There is attention from original, finished goods, failed work, no one in the workshop as one "

At a time when Gil 's line of sight was swimming slightly, the contents were found. I can not leave it. If it is a glimpse of finding it, it seems that the angry officer may be destroyed the printing studio with full power.

..... Mother, did you want such a Ferdinand-sama book so much?

In addition, Gil received reports on activities at Haldzell. Gutenberg's big move took place, made a branch of the Plant Paper Association and Printing Association, decided on the profit and the respective part, seems to have sent Gutenberg to the workshop prepared by Giebel Hartenszel and provided the technology.

"We brought parts related to metal that makes printing presses from Ehrenfest because Johann said they do not know whether they can do exactly the same equipment."

"So?"

"It was decided that I want you to tell me how to make it, but there are lack of technology anyway ..."

"I guess"

Johann 's technology is steadily rising, because I only order small orders one after another. It's an unrivaled level.

"Since I challenge the metal type during winter, it is said that I want you to confirm the result."

"Yes, Gill was a tough business trip to a far place,"

"No, because it is for expanding the printing industry"

On the face of Gill smiling nicely, I got a lot of merchandise that I knew, and I also laughed in spite of myself.

"I understood well that everyone worked hard during my absence. Thank you, it is truly my side."

After finishing the report, when you tried everyone, Fran was putting me in bed with a number of wood tags.

"Mr. Rosemain, I will take care of you here today from the president of the priestess. Please rest your body as you read this, so that you do not overdo it."

"But I, a letter ... .."

"Please do not worry - we will keep in touch with the Plantin Shokai and the Gilberta Shokai, leave it to us as long as we arrange for the visit, please stop now, three days later we will go to the castle and head to the House of Lords The stuffing learning begins. "

I nod in the words of Franc, looking at the wooden bill while lying on the bed. The wooden bills prepared by the priest chief were lists arranged in order of priority that must be done before enrolling in the lords.

It was top priority to read books and materials to read the books and materials, such as the geography and history of the country, the ranking of influence of the territory by magical power and economic power, the name of the royal family under study and the name of the lord of the lord. This is good. It seems that you have the chance to read books for a while.

..... Refuge, Fufu, I think there are plenty of books to read. ....Hmm? What is this practice of dedication? Besides, my grandfather and strength training special training? Will not I die before going to the lords?

As Franc said, he prepared the meeting for the visit at once. The afternoon of the next day is scheduled to be visited. Therefore, I decided to do the usual schedule in the temple in the morning.

As I awoke, as soon as the second bell rang, Damuel came to the temple to work as escort knight.

The atmosphere like boys is completely gone, Damuel is also the face of adults. I thought that it was probably due to my broken heart that I was having fatigue on the face, apparently, it seems that it was due to my grandfathers.

"It was everyday for you to say that Bonifaceius will train escort knights of the lord's family so that you will never see Rosemain dangerous eyes again Angelica and Cornelius are surprisingly strong, too."

"Is that so? I am looking forward to going to the castle for a while."

After breakfast, I practiced with Rosina and Fespiel, but I was surprised that my fingers did not move as rusted.

"Three days, if you do not practice, there is a change in sound. It's no use as it has been sleeping for two years, but it can not be helped, but Rosemain has been practicing until the other day in his own sense It is early to get back to the intuition. "

"... .. will I be ashamed to go to the lords?"

My level is at 8 years old. Indeed it will be too lack of exercise to head to the place where aristocrats who practiced exactly until the age of 10 gather.

"No, I'm not worried. I would be fine if I continue practicing as it is, I was practicing raising my degree of difficulty with the policy of the priest chief, so if I return my finger's movements again, I will be ashamed There is no thing. "

Still, it is somehow the level of the point. In such a practical system it is difficult to fill in the blanks, so we have to practice all by themselves.

And after the 3 bells, I will help the work of the priest. When I went to help with Franc, Zeam and Monica, I was pleased with the tears shedding in the head of the priest and I was appealed how the priest executive was holding a bad workload on my body.

"Because I head to the House of Lords, I can only help you today and tomorrow, but ..."

"Still reinforcement is still different"

"Even just a few calls from the castle are enough."

..... Father-in-law!

For the time being, I just calculated to give the priest chief a little easier. As "very good", the priest chief nodded very gently and gave me medicine for recovery from fatigue.

"Thank you very much"

I feel a very subtle feeling, but half of this fatigue restorative medicine that improved the taste is made of kindness and concern of the priest chief. It is a scene that must be pleased.

After finishing lunch, lightly look around the orphanage and the workshop and sprinkle the words of labor that everybody did a good job with the report that got cheerful. The accompanying are Gil and Damuel, Monica and Nicola are preparing for the orphanage headquarters room first.

There were various changes in the orphanage. Many children were adults who were apprenticeships, and the children who were as big as I had apprenticeship apprenticeship. Children before baptism are Dirk and three babies walking from toddot.

Delia who was originally beautiful had become a beautiful girl completely, and Dirk had become an infant without the baby's face.

..... Kamir is also about this.

If I do not keep going and growing in the future, I may be passed by Kamil and Dirk. I felt such a danger.

After going to the workshop and putting words of encouragement, I am preparing to enter the orphanage headquarters room and welcoming visitors. While going through the documentation of the income and expenditure of the workshop I got from Gill, the side workers were busy working cleaning the hidden rooms, preparing tea and confectionery.

"Rosemain, Plantin Shokai has arrived"

"Please pass me by"

Three people, Beno, Marc, Lutz, came up to the second floor. Not as much as Gill, but the back of Rutz is growing, it is about the shoulder of the franc. Because my face is getting cranky because I'm being massaged in my busy workplace I felt like I was approaching the atmosphere of a man I could do.

"Let's talk over here"

After finishing a long serious greeting, we took a guide to the hidden room. It is a usual member of me and the members of the Printemps business, the side gill and the escort knight Darmel.

Closing the door and closing the door, I flew to Lutz for the time being.

"Lutz, I got bigger!"

When I jumped up and hugged, my head, which was supposed to be around the shoulder, was around the epic from the chest of Lutz. The difference which was about 15 centimeters before spreads to about 30 centimeters.

Beno came close to where the mood came down a little bit and tilted my head, lightly clapping my head clinging to Lutz.

"... Rosemain, are not you shrinking?"

"I have not changed, but it is not shrinking, it's terrible, Beno-san, I also like it and I am in such a state ..."

As I was saying, tears overflowed as if we had cut off the weir. What is it, because it is a place where it is permitted even if I give out the feelings I want, I can not stop.

"Oh, bad ... After having someone say something? ... Or did not you cry to cry?"

The latter word fell into himself with Ston.

"To the chief priest, it seemed that I wanted to cry with feelings, although magical powers runaway because I was told not to disturb my feelings,"

"Is it dangerous that magical powers runaway?"

"Now I have four magical tools to help strengthen my body, so I'm fine."

"Okay then, please cry all the time, no matter where you can cry?"

Beno says so, and it keeps going away as I crush my head. Lutz also laughed a little and smacked my back lightly with a pom-pong.

"Yoshiyoshi, cry, weep, I am honest I am relieved you have not changed, because I was talking to Turi what to do if I suddenly became a different person"

"Uh ~, Rutz ~"

I could cry until I felt, I told you to cling to Lutz, tears came out enough to surprise me myself.

I cried for a while, and I felt tired of stopping my tears. I feel like I feel like Iyomoya who has been holding it all along with tears.

I raised my face and looked up at the face of Lutz above the memory. I felt relieved that eyes like Ruth's jade overlooking me had not changed.

"Lutz, I completely different before and feel that threw her arms around. I something is hard and lumpy. Gill also Lutz also too large. In addition, Nante. Gil became really cool both of whom, voice also different. Have in Son, Benno's is aging was "

" Kuora! you, now, what do you say!?"

" tongue sticking out! "

I was to shield the Lutz, Nbe', and put out the tongue, Fufun, and laugh if , Benno, which was pulled discomforts the Hikutto cheek to Guriguri my head.

"Giya-! Tsu hurts hurts!"

"I our does a known trouble you in this just called in about"

"Walne! Its struggling story came I Is not to listen to! Today"

Once "was, hear! Gattsuri tell me I'll " prompted the words of Benno, I sat down. On top of the knee of Lutz. Benno was sitting in the front vomited a sigh.

"Hey, Rozemain"

because not enough is replenishment of the "I, still Lutz minute, now I'm good. Now, packed the study of the two years to go to the castle on the fly, to go to school just to gather the nobility dont do it by. plenty to be kept replenished, "

" Ah, I see. white on the other without permission. here is get to be reported " in the report from the Benno, was aware of the progress and the situation in Harudentsueru. Toward the Harudentsueru also to the next spring, it seems that there are several points that must be confirmed. And, also I heard that some of that my permit is stopped is necessary.

"Go Papatto in was found. Cavalry beast, Let's put away Innovation Papper"
Innovation "..... Papper, Do not. I'd love to believe that. For now, you were relieved to wake up. Tightly gripped around the reins me have. alongside senior nobility Zurarito, shall find business negotiations while receiving a cryptic sympathy to the priests long line of sight, and the other's enough, "

I make my own printing workshop, and all fired up and the mother, really lead to profit, and Think about Benno's surrounded by people of your parents' home of Kakaru doubting mother, it was gently deflect the line of sight.

"Oh, it is the other, was cheers for good work ..... What do I say"

Side Story: Awakening of Tully viewpoint Mine

"Turi!"

It was at the end of autumn that Lutz jumped into the workshop of Korrinna while calling my name.

Recently, Lutz, which has become allowed to accompany the nobility with the aristocrat at the work of the Planetan shopping company, has suddenly grown up. It is too rare for me to jump into the workshop like this, and although I am cheekful, I somehow tilt my head.

"Lutz, what did you do?"

As I looked around and looked around, Lutz looked around as if I was relieved, corrected my posture with a coughing cough.

"There seems to be a story from my husband. If you get a cut in work, please come to the Plantin Shokai"

"I understand. I will call on you soon."

It is unusual for me to be called to the Plantin Shokai. I never recently called up from Mr. Beno.

While thinking about what, thinking around, the surrounding girls gave a gorgeous voice.

"Lutz seemed pretty happy for a long time"

"You wanted to meet Turli by hurting your husband's business at the Plantin shopping company? You should not have seen him for a while since Rutz went to Halden Zell in the spring."

Every day except work is always going to the temple for studying behaviors with Lutz or going back home with Lutz I am totally in love relationship with Lutz It is misunderstood.

While Lutz went to Haldzell, studying behaviors was also a day off, so it was less going out, it seems to be so extra.

It is not allowed to enter the orphanage or Rosemain Studio alone if the Lutz of the Printemps business is not together, and my teacher Vilma is a gray shrine maiden as Ruth just goes to Halden Zell That is why I went to Hasse for birth, but I can not say such a thing to the surroundings.

I also knew that Lutz came back from Halden Zell a while ago, but since I did not bother to go to a meeting, I thought that I should meet Saturday. This is normal among us because Rutz does not come to greet another coming back.

..... There is also one side that we use each other, because they are just right for avoiding love affair.

"Turi, here you go, please go to the Plantin Shokai"

"Kolinna-sama! I work properly"

"He's calling you, see, hurry up"

When the second person was born, finally I was hurried by Mr. Korrinna who was just returning to work with a soft smile, and I finished the removal of the thread in a hurry and headed to the Plantin Shokai.

I was hurried to Mr. Corinna, so I'm in a hurry in my heart, but do not forget the graciousness.

"I have not been to a long time, it is Turi"

"Well, you are welcome, Turi. My husband is waiting in the back. Luz, I will leave the guide of Turi."

Mr. Marc welcomed me as saying with good gesture. I was taken to the office of Mr. Beno in the back guided by Rutz who worked on the face.

"Excuse me, my husband"

"Oh, Turi?"

Mr. Beno greeted me with a soft smile that looked like Kolinna like a bit. Lutz tightly closed the door and glanced at Beno. Mr. Beno also raised the end of his lips and gently nodded to Lutz.

"Both of us can return to my parents' home today, so if one bell rings tomorrow, I will come back as soon as possible"

"Certainly yes"

"... Why? Why?"

I do not know the reason, I compare Lutz with Mr. Beno, but they only smile with grin.

"Change clothes, Turi. Let's go home soon."

Encouraged by the voice of Lutz who is joyfully jealous, I will change to clothes when I return to my parents' house in a private room of the Gilberta company.

... .. Maybe, perhaps?

My heart throbs and stops at the answer that is derived from a happy expression that is not hidden inside Beno and the grin of the luthie.

I wanted to hear the report as soon as possible, and recently I took off the elegant movements I was watching all the time and I jumped out of the room.

"Turi, hurry!"

Running down the stairs, Rutz was waiting waiting for clothes to return to her parents' house. And hand out to me. As I took that hand, Lutz ran up quickly.

Not only I but Rutz 's actions have no usual politeness. If you see such a Lutz, the girls in the workshop should be surprised.

Running towards the house, using the two shortest paths. It is not done for two or three years to run around the city like this. I can understand that the mood is rising as much as I laugh.

"Mom, Kamil, open it! Turi!"

Let's breathe out with two people, rushes up the stairs, hits the door of the door and the entrance. I jumped into the house as the door opened and I was amazed by Mom and Kamir.

"What's wrong, both of us !? Will it be work today?"

"Yes, but Rutz came to pick me up and I came back because I was told to leave today."

When you breathed out a rough breath at all, Kamil put water in. Drink at a stretch and wipe the mouth with cuffs. My heart is in a hurry and I can not keep it elegant.

"Thank you, put it in Kamil. Lutz"

"Yeah, Yes, Lutz"

"Thank you, Kamil"

Lutz sings throat and drinks water, it gently strokes the head of Kamir which looks like Mine.

Kamil likes Lutz who brings a new picture book. Perhaps, I think that I expect a picture book today.

"So, what happened?"

My mother looks to Lutz. Lutz broke away and opened his mouth.

"Yesterday Mine woke up!"

"Huh!?"

My mother rounded his eyes, but I had such a feeling from the look of Lutz, so it was "After all!" But, expectation hits, the face relaxes with nature.

"When are you going to meet?"

"I got in touch from Gill this morning, I was told to come to the temple soon and I went there in the afternoon."

"Huh? Lutz has already met Mine?"

It seems that you have already met if you think only the waking contact. It is a bit sluggish.

"Because I move to the aristocracy on tomorrow or the day after tomorrow, I told you to talk about work with my husband in a hurry, and I was surprised by this sudden talk and it jumped out."

"Did Mine feel fine? Did he grow up like he was saying before?"

I remember talking with Lutz about what I would do if I got so big and becoming like a different person during my two years asleep.

Lutz shook his head as if he were sick.

"I was doing fine, but my appearance and contents did not change at all ... I thought I was so small, I thought I was anxious that Mine is not getting bigger. I wanted to cry because I wanted it. "

"I see....."

..... Mine, because it was originally small, I was concerned.

But it was bad for Mine who was crying when I wanted to grow up, but I was quite relieved by the words of Lutz that I did not change its appearance and content from the one I knew.

"Hey, Rutz, are you going to order a hair ornament?"

"I wonder, but I already prepared vegetable paper, inks and new stationery goods, so no matter when I place an order, there is no problem."

Lutz said so and laughed awfully. Both paper and ink seem to be the one that Mine most consumes among the products of the Plantin Shokai.

"Even if you laugh with so much triumph, it is not a shame at all, I am making a number of hair ornaments for Mine for a year from now as I can get up anytime."

Lutz laughs in my words. I also laugh. In the meantime, tears were torn out by mother's eyes.

"Okay, it's not a dream anymore, really Mine awoke me ..."

As my mother restrained his face in happy crying, my eyes were getting wet. Two years was long. It was really long.

Kamir blinks us in the light brown eyes, looking up at our eyes, looking up with a mysterious face.

"Who is Mine?"

Kamir will be four years old in spring. It is a year of talking and asking anything to anyone. It is very troubling to inadvertently talk about Mine outside.

I looked at my face with Mother and Lutz and frown.

I am glad that Mine woke up, but suddenly it's a hard problem.

..... Ah, how do I explain to Kamir?

In the end, I decided to deceive the spot as "When my father got home," and decided to cast a round to Kamir to a father who cries cheerfully with joy.

Chapter 280: Move to When I handed a letter to my family to Lutz, I was told "What shall I do?"

"what?"

"No, I, I live in the Planetan shopping since last summer and Turi lives in the Gilberto business."

"Oh, okay, Turi is also a dovea ... .."

When Tauri became only ten years old, Planetan Shokai and Gilbertta Shokai just broke up, moving in a shop, moving Beno and Maruko, and the inside of the store was flapping, so I moved in immediately He heard that he did not.

It seems that Beno and Marc moved the house to the second floor of the Planetan Shokai, and Corinna and Otto who lived on the third floor moved the residence to the second floor, a room for Turi was prepared.

"Both of us return home on the soil, so it would be better for Rutz to take it directly to the house at that time. You should keep the letter."

"Okay, husband,"

Tell him to give me a letter to my family and give me the opportunity to meet because I go to the House of Lords during winter and told me to talk with my mum with Gieb Haldenzell, The discussion has ended.

"Gil, bend, I worked very hard and I will stroke it."

Now, reaching out, I kept an eye on Gill as if surprised.

"Rosemain, I am not that kind of years already ..."

"Oh, oh, that's right, that's right,"

Gil refused me with a terribly troubled face, I withdrew my extended hand. I remembered that Gil was at the age of 14 before adulthood and I thought that the contents did not change so much even though it looked like it was at the end of adolescence. It is not a year to be pleased when you stroking your head in front of everyone.

..... Gil who is pleased when he is stroked ceases to exist. It might be somewhat lonely.

Naturally, thought that not only the appearance but also the contents had changed, Gil kneeled ahead of me and dropped his neck.

"Ah, that, I remembered what I wanted to be stroked right now.

It seems that I felt a bit depressed, I can see that Gill was psyched.

It is bad to waste my precious concern, so I reached out to the head of Gil who grew big. While thinking that it is the last to praise and praise in this way, caress his head.

"Gil worked very hard for two years, I was extremely happy that five books were made when I got up. Thank you very much from now on."

".....Yes"

And it turned out to the castle soon.

I prepare the Lesser Bath and put the exclusive Rosina, Ela and Fugo. Afterwards, the head of the priest chief placed a wooden box full of work sets. The chief priest also stayed in the castle for a while and oversee my short intensive course.

"Return to the autumn ceremony ceremony and winter baptismal ceremony, so that you are ready."

"Certainly yes"

Seeing that the chief priest is asking for the side, I also leave the absence to my side.

"I did not have a problem even if I was away for two years, I believe that it is okay to stay in the absence of winter, I will trust you afterwards."

"We are waiting for your early return"

I got on the Lesser bus and chased after the Damiel's coward that runs ahead and ran to the sky. I will head to the castle in the form of being protected by the priest chief in the back.

Arriving at the castle, Norberto welcomed me and Angelica and Elder Cornelius were kneeling and waiting.

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

"I am back now, Norberto"

"Norbert, let this package go to my office"

"Certainly, Feldinand-sama"

When Norbert shakes the bell that he took out of, he goes down and works and brings out the wooden box inside the Lesser Bath.

Eyes were not given to the move there, the chief priest called me.

"Rosemain, pass the materials and books to read, so when you finish changing clothes, come to my office"

"Certainly, I will change my clothes in a hurry."

"No, there's no need to hurry - act with the intention of acquiring the elegance suitable for the 10-year-old to the lords."

..... I do not know the reason. What kind of elegance is suitable for 10 years old?

I shed the things I do not know, I met Angelica and Elder Cornelius.

Brother Cornelius is 14 years old, it seems that boys' likeness is gone, I can see at a glance that it is approaching an adult. It seems that the muscular attachment is not so bad, but my elder brother was stretching as I remember Lamprecht brother. The manifestation that seemed to resemble mothers increased manliness and seems to have resembled my father for a moment.

"I am glad to see you in good shape, Rosemain Mr."

"Cornelius picked up the dropped manastone and wanted to say thank you properly"

"No, there is no need to thank you for an unscrupulous knight who could not keep the Lord and let it go to sleep for two years"

"Oh? Cornelius helped Charlotte that I wanted to help. For me it is the event of the other day. Please let me say thank you. Thank you Cornelius"

"A wasteful word"

My eyes met with Elder Cornelius who raised his face and smiled a small smile.

"I was looking forward to Rosemain's return."

That said Angelica is 15 years old to have an adult ceremony at the end of this winter. Fluid flowing smoothly according to the movement of light blue hair making a ponytail raising the face. The blue eyes of a deep sea-like hue saw me. I feel that polish is going on for the first time in a girl. I heard from Damuel that he was being trained by his grandfather, but he does not look like that much.

..... But, the appearance fraud is from before.

"I was worried very much when I heard that it has already been two years, but have you been able to progress properly?"

"Yes, do not worry - I have taught from my master, Damuel and Cornelius and I am learning with Steinruk and I have not barely failed."

"... .. barely ... it seems that she is doing her best at Angelica, what's more,"

Both of them were quite close to adults. Taking such two people and Damuel, I will step down to head towards my room.

"Rosemain, use cow animals"

"Mr. Ferdinand, I can walk from here to my room?"

"Your body can not be said to be still in good shape, it is difficult to get up with originally just to be able to move with magical tools. If the inside of the temple does not walk much, the castle is vast and the castle is extensive. To use it. "

"understood"

I took a one - seater cud beast and got on, headed to my room. On the way, it stops for a moment just before the corridor where the attacks occurred.

"Rosemain, how are you doing?"

It is only me that the attacked fear revives. The three guys of the escort knight did nothing but round up his eyes.

"... I'm sorry, I remembered that there was a raid"

"For a while Virfriit and Charlotte were walking with a stiff face, and the escort knights had their nerves sharp, too."

My brother Cornelius said so, I went straight to the room with a little confidence that it was not just me. In my room Richarda and Othelier welcome you. With teary eyes saying "I'm glad to see you in good shape", I learned that I was worried too much here.

"Wilfried and Charlotte are hours of study. Today we heard that Princess Rosemain returned, both of us were fidgety."

"Everyone, I'm looking forward to seeing Rosemain returning. The new Lincyan and living goods have arrived from Elvira, Bonifatius is having a lot of fun, the date was mistaken for yesterday I was dropping my shoulder. "

..... I have not touched much until now, but my grandfather is quite a tea.

After finishing changing clothes, I head to the office of the chief priest together with Richarda and the escort knight. On that road also taught me that Richarda was decided to head to the House of Lords.

"The hostage of the princess who accompanies me when I head for the lords is decided by me"

"Well, if Richarda is together, I am reassuring."

I was also managing the study of Villefried, and since I was the leader of my head, I must have been chosen because I could manage the entire management of the Ehrenfest dorm.

When I said that, Richarda laughed as "ho ho".

"I was elected by Mr. Ferdinand in the selection of a person who can take out the princess who will not come out if it gets in the library"

"Oh, I do not want it. When I come to the closing time, I will return to my room without fail." Ho ho ... .... "

In the Lifetime era, although I have not noticed the broadcast of the closed house, I have been reading books all the time in a corner that would be the blind spot of the bookshelf and have been locked in the library, but basically it will go outside during closing hours. Even though I do not have to worry, I do not seem to be so surrounding.

"Excuse me"

When entering the office of the chief priest, the chief priest director went to Richarda, showing two crate boxes.

"Richarda, will you let me bring this to Rosemain's room, better to have Rosemain read through before going to the lords?"

"Certainly, Ferdinand Baby-sama"

"Rosemain, you should already have handed out a list, in accordance with that table, read in order of priority, in addition to my memorial writing and memorandum,

Daniel summarizes it The latest thing is included, and then it is a schedule until this is the lord's house, please look over now. "

"Yes"

I go through the timetable while listening on the back that Richarda began giving instructions to the underwear. There is a schedule for studying, but if it is thought that the majority are reading books, it is not so painful time either.

"Please read this and learn it here before dinner today"

".....What is this?"

Something's name has been written contiguously in the wooden bill. I sat on the chair shown to the chief priest and tilted his head.

"The name of the domestic territory and the approximate ranking of now"

"Well, even though it is within Ehrenfest, when it comes to domestic, I do not know the geography, though,"

"Oh, is that so?"

The chief priest stood up and opened a locked box, I took out two maps and spread it on the desk. As I looked at the written handwriting on a handwritten map, it seems like a map created by the priest owner.

"Here is an old map, this is a new map"

Expanding both side by side, the priest chief will tell you. It seems that there was consolidation and reconciliation due to the big political change that originally occurred in 25 central areas occurred in the center.

Now it is divided into 21 territories, four large territory, nine middle territory and seven sub-regions. As I looked at the map, Ehrenfest was a middle territory in the northeast side of the country in Japan. It is said to be a middle territory that is infinitely close to the sub-territory.

... ... Is the Froebel Tur from the west from Florentia? The south is Georgeene-sama Ahrensbach.

I was watching the map while holding down a familiar place name with a finger, I noticed a serious problem. On the south side of Ahrensbach is the sea. In fact, Ahrensbach may be a delicious area of good fortune of the sea.

..... There might be kelp and wakame! Is it? Maybe you can eat sashimi!

I discovered the possibility of getting Japanese food-like things I was giving up, I made my eyes shine. If you make friends of Ahrensbach at the House of Lords you may be able to get the seafood.

My mind that swelled with dizziness and expectation remembered the reality at the next moment and shrunk.

..... Now in the situation, you can not bear to talk about getting angry. Hey.

"The influence of Ehrenfest is around the middle"

The chief priest pointed out the wooden bill I had as a ton.

The influence of Ehrenfest, which has no special products such as this in the frontier, seems to have been close to the lowest line originally. Thanks to not having been involved in the central political change, it emerged slightly below the middle, but this seems to have never been the capacity of Ehrenfest just because the surroundings were sunk.

However, the chief priest said, the past few years are different.

"It will rise a little more next year"

"Why?"

"Because the results of the lords are going up year by year,"

"Huh?"

"People who graduated from the House of Lords will work in the center or start to work in their own areas. The year that the results of the lords will rise is that it is excellent people gathered and after a few years Often it has influence at a stretch "

"Is that so? It is pleasure for the future."

I wonder if Ehrenfest is going up.

When he nodded, the chief priest also taught the circumstances of the current lords.

"Angelica, Cornelius and Ernesta who taught you how to compress your magical power have raised the results of the knight course and the generation that you learned with your teaching materials began to be present at the House of Lords. The results of the lecture are rising rapidly, It seems that the current situation seems to have been explored from the territory of "

"..... Even so, Ferdinand famously knows the information of the lords."

Indeed, I thought that Justoks would not be able to enter the House of Lords, but where is the source of information together?

When I was inclining my head, the chief priest kept a temple and sigh.

"What was it that you instructed the students to collect information at the aristocrat, what are you talking about now? Because Damuel had sorted out the collected information, I just looked over it "

It seems that the source of information was me. By the way, I feel like issuing such a directive.

But, however, I do not plan to have students engaged in intelligence activities separately. I wanted you to find out what kind of books are in the library and what kind of story you have in other lands. The explanation seems to be missing, I feel that it is in a slightly different state.

Meanwhile, from the president of the priest, "Since Damuel has paid a certain amount for a while, it is said to pay the additional fee to those who brought valuable information." However, I feel a great gap between the information that I feel worth and the information the priest owes value. Regarding the value of information, it seems necessary to talk with the chief priest once.

"Thanks to you now you can also make things that can be special products in Ehrenfest. It is the time for Ehrenfest to raise the strength. Besides, in the era when candidates are in the House of Lords, the morale of the students It will be easy for you to go up. I am sure that you will be motivated by everyone's motivation so that you will increase overall grades as you will have a time for you to have candidates for lord for a while with you, Charlotte, Melchior. Guessing from the point of hearing about the situation at, is it good? "

I told my head as the head of the priests told me. Separately, I do not remember saying that I was good at doing such a thing, I do not even think that I am very good at it.

"No, I do not think that it is good at separating. If I can read letters only by children, more people will read books, and if more people become familiar with reading books, people who write books I just thought that it would come out "

I thought that it would be good to increase the number of people who write books, and I thought that it would be necessary to have a reading population to make libraries with public expense, but I thought that improving the overall performance of the territory and enhancing the domestic influence I never did.

"..... It seems that I was still looking sweetly for the passion over your book. In that enthusiasm it is good to search not only the picture book but also the way that everyone will read hard technical books. Will expect your hard work To do "

"Please choose for me"

Today's lecture ended with this in mind as a campaign to spread reading to everyone. As dinner time is near, I have to change my clothes. I tried to leave the priestly president by directing the material to read by tomorrow.

"Rosemain"

The chief priest calls me as if I remembered something.

"What is it?"

"Today's dinner is your pleasure celebration Karsted family and Bonifatius also come in. Although it was treated somewhat, if Bonifatius did not find you, the possibility that detoxification could not make it in time was also high Be sure to state your thanks. "

In me it was swayed upside down, swayed and blown by high speed lateral rotation, honestly, the impression that I was killed was strong, but it was dangerous if my grandfather surely did not come to help . It would be better to say properly than to say that it was worried about including a dangerous biting.

"Okay, I will write a thank-you note by dinner."

"If you write a letter of thank you also add a thank you for training the escort knight so that you will not encounter dangerous eyes in the future, with all the knight squads around the escort knight of the lord's clan Because we struggled to raise the fighting power of the people "

He seems to have worked hard to raise the strength of Ehrenfest's forces for two years.

"Besides, you better listen to tips on strengthening your body when giving a thank - you notes, Bonifatius has used body strengthening easily to breathe, you should have also taught your escort knight."

..... Grandfather and Angelica? Somehow the brain muscles, I feel very satisfied.

I think that it is frightening or funny, it is a delicate line, I return to my room.
After sending it to the front of the room, Elder Cornelius kneeled in front of me.

"Rosemain, I also have to prepare for dinner, so today's escort mission is this <sup>Turf</sup> The end
I would like to let you excuse us. "

"Well, Cornelius, I'm looking forward to eating together later,"

I was invited to the lords by dinner, so I can not participate in the form of an order knight. Briefly, the aristocratic sleeve has to change into a worn-out clothes.
Outside the door Damuel ahead, I entered the room with Angelica.

"... It is lonely without Brigitte,"

It is a bit lonely that there is not familiar Brigitte, as it was also escorting the temple. There is no choice in considering the age of marriage, and marriage itself is pleasing, but I feel lonely that people who are familiar from around do not exist. Because there was only Damuel who decided to break up with Brigitte in the temple, he was hesitant to spill such complaints.

"Brigitte is a relative of Gieb-ilukner"

Otirie who picked up my misunder taught me with a gentle smile. Irukner replaces it several years ago and he was harassed by former fiancés after Brigitte 's engagement abandonment. The lower aristocrat who served Ircnor was pulled out, and there seems to be almost no noble who supports Irkner.
It seems that all family members keep Irukuna together.

"Brigitte gets Rosemain-sama's back shield and is trying to somehow support Ircnner, which is changing."

"Since Elvira was looking for a good edge, so that the connection with the princess remains in the future, it will not become bad."

In the words of Richarda, I remembered that my mother looked for a partner. If you like romance talks, unlike me, if you are a social mother, you must have been looking for a good engagement for Ilkner.

"If Brigitte is on the road he wishes, that's fine ... I think that the new escort knight is not decided yet."

"In the last time I have escorted knights of the lords of the lord who have not seen yet, and there are few who wish to go to the temple, but few people have hoped for the princess escort knight now So, please choose the person you think the princess will be able to deposit your life with. "

A certain degree of screening has been done, Rhyarda said.

"One person needs an apprentice of a woman knight who can act together at the aristocrat because Angelica is graduating this year"

"Is not it advisable to include those with high magical powers of senior aristocrats or intermediate aristocrats? The adults of the princess escort knight are now only lower classes, as Brigitte left."

Richarda says nothing wrong, but because the current state is comfortable, I do not want to change it much. Damuel is definitely a lower-ranking knight, but as it was said that he himself is a civilian, he is good at teaching studying to the two of the apprentices, hearing opinions and adjusting.

Because the senior aristocrat and older brother of Cornelius and Angelica acknowledge the good points of Damuel and are entrusted with work, the escort knight of ours is getting along well and getting along well. A good person to tame with is good.

"I will decide with consultation with the escort knights. However, those who collaborate and are successfully going to destroy this state, I do not want to be my escort knight no matter how senior aristocracy is strong."

..... I do not like to hurt the atmosphere around me. I do not care about the circumstances, I want an environment that allows me to read books in full.

When clothes are over, I wrote a thank you note to my grandfather, as the priest chief told me.

The paper on which the leaf of leghose like a red clover was spread is a special paper letter for my mother negotiating with Beno.

I rely on the memories of the Lifemo era, when I cut a paper letter into squares and write a thank you inside, I will fold as I was talking about during my school days.

.... Yeah, I remember it properly. Heart shape is similar to the shape of leaves of regrass and it is cute.

When I finished writing "Hey Mr." to the heart-shaped broken thank-you note, I headed for a big dining room where a dinner party was held with a crowd. Today not only the lord's family but also the father and mother eat together.

"Sounds fun, Princess"

"Well, Richarda. When I take dinner at the castle, my father and older brother who is an escort knight are in the same cafeteria, but they would not have had meals together, rituals and banquets. Because we will also participate as an escort knight, it is fun to be able to eat together. "

Especially today is supposed to serve Hugo 's new cuisine and Ella' s new dessert. It can not be helped and it can not be helped.

"Rosemain sama came"

The doors of the dining hall were opened, and in addition to the lords and couple family, the grandfather and the chief priest were present.

"Rosemain!"

"sister!"

Wilfried, who was running up, grew up and looked quite grown up compared to the atmosphere like a mischievous child in my memory. Naturally, the height has been growing over the next two years.

In the past I saw it as a grim school year if I thought that it was slightly larger and smaller, because I was seven years old. However, now, there is a difference in height between the fourth and fifth grade and the first grade of the average elementary school.

..... Whatever you look at, I can not see it in the same year.

"Mum? Was Rosemain so small?"

"I, I will grow up quickly!"

The mass of magical power was able to be solved 7 to 8 percent, and from now on I became a body that will not collapse suddenly even if I exercise. It should be able to grow normally.

"I tried hard for two years, thinking that I could protect the other this time, I think I caught up with Rosemain pretty much"

Vilfried smiled smartly like Hu. I would like to say that I will not lose yet, but I can not say a big deal unless I know how much Wilfried is growing up. I am not yet ready for the House of Lords.

"Even if it does not become big, your sister is cute enough as it is?"

I was expecting it, Charlotte was stretched my height. Beautiful girl is becoming a beautiful girl. Once in line, absolutely I must be seen by my sister. I felt like crying in the situation where my sister's dignity was not at all.

"Since I also wanted to be able to protect my sister this time, I tried so hard not to lose to my older brother."

"I'm useless! I will protect Charlotte, because I am your sister."

Charlotte said "I'm well!" When I declared that I was protecting my sister instead of being protected by my little sister, I looked up at me with a bright blue eyes that glitteringly shouted with a gorgeous voice.

How cute it turned out I saw it with my eyes. It is seen by Charlotte with eyes that a small child works hard.

... It's a shock. I am your sister.

When the shoulder was dropped off with the shovel, the chief priest lay a hand on Pong and my shoulder.

"Rosemain, just accept their enthusiasm, it is impossible for these two to cross Rosemain yet and you should show your sister's majesty in a short period of time before going to the lords."

I took a quick look up when the captain told me that he showed something different.

... ... Yes, studying hard before going to the House of Peers, show your dignity as your sister. As much as two years' knowledge of children, remember soon, please respect Charlotte again.

Good luck with grasping my fist, I decide to make it, at the edge of my sight, Kohon! I saw the old man who cleared his throat several times.castle

Chapter 281: Dinner and short intensive course

The line of sight of everyone who notices the throat cleansing is directed towards the old man. However, considering his status, he must originally greet the lord the first. I proceeded towards the lords and kneeled.

"I am worried about you"

"Rosemain, stand up, I can not see the face as it is"

When I got up to the voice of the adoptive father with a bitter smile, the adoptive father turned to knee stance and turned my eyes to me. It was simultaneous that I was amazed by the surprise and the surroundings. The lord never knees before someone in the territory. I do not know how to deal with it.

However, I did not care about the surrounding noises at all, and my father adopted his grasp on his cheek and gazed at it to look into it, then picked his cheek lightly.

"Well, it seems to be healthy, what's more, as Faydinand did not allow anyone to go to see as Ferdinand treated as a result of being attacked and treated in the hidden room of the temple as it was, everyone was worried"

Speaking of which, the chief priest said, we will exclude those who hinder sleep. It seems that they banned and tried to see the appearance of the aya of words or nothing, it really excluded them.

"Rosemain, I have something I wanted to say to you for the last two years"

While saying that, my adoptive father took both of my hands. I do not know what is going to happen, I am inclined to head while being driven by the urge to withdraw my hand.

"What is it?"

"Thank you for saving my children as a father, not a lord, but a child."

The adoptive father said so, pressed his forehead against the back of my hand. I do not know what is going on, but I think it is probably the most gratifying behavior.

... ... I understood gratitude, let it go! My eyes hurt!

When I pointed my eyes towards a foster mother who is standing behind the adoptive step one by one, he says, "I appreciate it, I think that it is my saint rather than of Ehrenfest," I was put on. My sister just ran into runaway in love, but if I could lower my head like this from my lady and wife, I could not bear it.

"Do it for me, Rosemain is in trouble and it is rigid."
"father!"

Thanks to the father who gave me an assistance boat, my father-in-law got up and returned to usual position to look down over me.

"We heard from Ferdinand that we have to regain the delay of the last two years before going to the House of Peers, I think it's hard, but do your best on your all-out effort."

"Yes"

"Rosemain, you often do too much, so you have to work on your body a bit more"

As the adoptive father stood up, the greeting to the lords was over, so I crossed my hands in front of my chest.

"You should show your face to those who were worried about it"
"I am sorry"

Immediately after I turned to my father and mother, my adoptive father pointed out with a low voice.

"Rosemain, the next is Bonifatius, Bonifatius is a child of the lord, above the Karstedd, do not make a mistake"

..... Oops, it's dangerous, dangerous.

I did not notice until I was pointed out, while I was feeling cold and sweat, I moved forward to my grandfather.

"Oh, my grandfather ... this time .... Oh, oh, two years ago thank you for helping me.If you do not find me, my dear friend Ferdinand asked me that he might have died "

With a thank you letter I wrote earlier, when I said to my grandfather, the grueling face looks like "Rosemain seems to have recovered and it's nothing more than a matter". While being a bit nervous, I will give you a letter in the form of a heart.

"This is a thank you card, but would you please accept it?"

"Oh, of course, ... .. of course it's changed shape"

"Uhufu, it is a form of" heart "Is not it cute?"

"... What is a heart ... is there something meaningful?"

As I am turning round the letter folded into heart, I turn nicely while looking while looking, I nodded big and made the shape of the heart with the thumb and forefinger of both hands.

"This heart is a favorite form"

It seemed frustrating to my answer, my grandfather opened my eyes a few seconds and settled. And the old man who started moving with jerk looks at my letter with a difficult face.

"Well, that ... ...."

The silence around me is heavy while my grandfather is watching a letter.

Perhaps my grandfather did not like the shape of the heart. It is the old man who was active in the Order and still being asked for the act of the Lord. It might not have been cute, it was better to be strong.

..... My stupid thing! To know that a helmet like a boy or a dinosaur may have been pleased, you know a little thought!

Oh, ought to be embarrassed, to be relieved. Origami can be repositioned once it is solved. A slightly strange wrinkle is formed, but it would be better to have a form that would still like it.

"Oh, my grandfather, I will break another form! Please let me make a difference."

"No, no, this is fine, I like this shape, you do not have to redo."

My grandfather says "I'm all right, I do not need it," and lift the letter to a higher position. As I panicked, I dropped a little shoulder as I was concerned about me.

..... I, like I was worried about Gill in the temple, made me distressed to my grandfather.

While thinking that it was again a failure, I pointed to your letter as I decided to take care of my gentle kindness. There is no origami culture here. I probably can not read the contents of the letter unless I explain it.

"Old man, letting this letter open, you can read the contents"

"Yeah? Open up?"

"You can not read the contents with just this, please lend me a little"

When I take the letter from the old man 's hand, which is difficult to keep his eyebrows on, I will unlock the letter of Heart. Then, looking at the old man like "I can read with this, do not you?" While looking at the old man so that the contents can be read.

... ... Well! Is it?

My grandfather looked over my letter with a face like the end of the world. She has a big eye on her face, she said that she can not believe it. No matter how I looked it was not the face of a nice person receiving a thank - you note.

Like the town mayor of Hasse, I wonder why he made a ridiculous failure without noticing it. I blink pale and compare letters and grandpa.

"... ... Hello, did you have any rude phrases or words?"

"No, that's not it! I was only amazed at what I could write very well! Rosemain has good characters."

..... Even if such a thing is told, it was not a face I would absolutely praise. Even though it was a face "What the hell!?"

It is the worst if I intended to give you a thank you letter, if you did something rude. My grandfather is trying to shed praise to repair it, but other people do not. I am in trouble that I do not know what I've done. If I do something rude, I must apologize to my grandfather.

With trembling trembling, someone helped, and looking around with teary eyes, I saw a father-in-law's face desperately laughing.

..... The adoptive father is useless. I am amused by my failure.

The adoptive father who found the face of the giant passed straight and passed and I asked my father and mother for help. Mothers who have noticed the gaze advance their feet to here.

"O, Mother, did I miss something serious?"

"No, I have not failed, Rosemain ... Do not make such a crying face ... I'm OK, Elvira, Rosemain is well done, is not it?"

While compassioning my grandfather, I compare my mother with me.

"Please calm down a little, both of you ... .. Rosemain, let me check if there is no mistake"

"Please, mother"

When I showed a letter to my mother, my mother took a look at it and said, "It's okay, there are no mistakes or mistakes," he said. I stroked my heart with a relief.

"Bonifaceius was probably just surprised because you broke the shape, can you return it to the previous state?"

"Yes, I will come back as soon as I change it."

When I got big nods, my grandfather stroked my chest like I feel relieved. Apparently my grandfather does not suit her appearance and seems to like pretty things.

I redraw it in the shape of a heart on the table. Wilfried and Charlotte looked into his face with an interesting face.

"Does a piece of paper look like that?"

"My sister, please do not forget the letter next time, I am pretty cute"

"Of course, thanks"

It seems that I could gather a little bit of Charlotte's interest and respect. I got happy a bit, with a smile full of hands, I pass the letter of my broken heart to the old man.

"Grandfather, please do"

I received the letter of Heart and looked carefully with a difficult face. And it nods heavily.

"Well"

I do not like that difficult face, it looks like a look when I look carefully. I peacefully looked around the circumference. And I remembered looking at the head of the priest. He asked me to ask him to teach me how to strengthen my body.

"I have a favor to my grandfather, would you please tell me how to strengthen my body and how to do it?"

When I asked, my grandfather grinned his eyes open and he lifted his lips with knee. I hit my chest with Don and ring my hun and nose.

"Leave it to me, I will do the most in Ehrenfest!"

Separately I do not think that I want to be strongest in Ehrenfest, I do not even think that I can become it. I was going to be killed during the training on a grueling grandfather, I felt the danger of death, I added words in a hurry.

"No, I do not want to be strong, I would like to be able to move normally without auxiliary magic tools."

"... Well, can you move normally?"

As my grandfather said that he did not know what he was saying, he twinkled his eyes. Training that had been exempted in consideration of my physical strength so far, but as I become healthy, I have to train in order to put strength.

"Even if you use magical tools that help magic of body strengthening because muscle strength is falling too much while sleeping at Yureev, it can only do a popular movement. So therefore, even without a magic tool I want to be able to move. "

Describing my present situation, I will see my eyes from my head to my toes so that my grandfather strikes my eyes and ascertains that I am really alive.

"Well, that's difficult, I have never taught men who are unable to move, such as the magic of physical strengthening, how can those who can not move move to move?"

"Well, I do not understand."

"Is it really okay to have a special lesson?"

"Please do not die"

When he was worrying about what to do, with his grandfather, the priest who kept the temple as he was amazed sighed a long time, he suggested me. As a result, it was decided to start with exercises to use magic of body strengthening only on the right arm by removing the right arm magic tool.

And a dinner party began, explaining what was a castle during the past two years. It was almost what I heard from the president. All three older brothers are escort knights of the lord's family. It seems that all together was stuck to the old man.

"My grandfather is strong, I was also wrapped in cloth, I could not open my eyes because of my medicine, so I could not confirm the stomach."

"Well, I'm strong, I still can not lose to Karstead."

It was heard from the grandfather sitting next to me that in the last two years there was a big difference in the strength of the knights' ability. The people who taught me how to compress magical power seems to have increased considerably. To be exact, it is still growing. It is said that the growth rate of apprenticeship in growth period that taught how to compress magical power is the largest. At the same time, the number of aristocrats who want to know the method of magical compression is also increasing.

"How about once lecturing magical compression soon? That, of course, you should make Rosemain's physical condition the top priority, but there are many people who can not help it."

I will propose so that my grandfather is glancing at the scene of my appearance.

..... Certainly, if you compare like a grandfather in the same way, if you compare it with a person who stretches visibly, you will want to know?

The compression method was taught mainly by senior knights and intermediate knights, mainly by the escort knight of the lord's family other than the leaders. Perhaps they could have convinced themselves that their ground forces are different. However, there is an example that only one person, lower classes are still slowly increasing magical powers. Therefore, those who were originally of the same degree seem to remember feeling frustrated.

"Is the selection done?"

When I looked towards my lady and wife, my adoptive nod nodded slowly.

"It is over until the stage where we get approval of Rosemain"

"Let's do it at the end of socializing in winter."

"If it's the end! Is not it a long way ago!"

I raised my voice like my surprise was surprised. I looked up at the grandfather sitting next to me and nodded me with a cock.

"I would like to study the growth of Mr. Villefriit's brother, if you would like to learn how to compress magical powers themselves in the first grade of the aristocrat, I would like to consider whether to teach or not, An escort knight can also be included in the scope. "

Suddenly, the voice of joy called Oh, got up from the escort knight of Wilfried who stands on the wall.

When it was decided to teach the escort knight of the lord's family, I rejected that the escort knight of Wilfried is not worthy of credit yet. Therefore, it seems that growth other than Elder brother Lamprecht taught in family framework was bad.

At that time I was right after being attacked by Vilfried and I do not think it would be unavoidable because I was not planning to sleep for two years. However, I taught the escort knight of Charlotte, so it should have been quite different between the lords of the lords. Is not it a less favorable thing?

In my argument, the chief priest nodded.

"If Rosemain thinks to give Wilfried the opportunity as soon as possible, then it will be OK, Rosemain will judge after confirming the deed and growth, Wilfried thinks well as a man standing up To act like that. "

"I understand, on my uncle"

It seems that the relationship between Wilfriit and the priest chief is a little better during the two years. I listened to the girls' special training from their older brothers, asked their mothers about the progress of the printing industry, asked Wilfriit and Charlotte how they studied the area of the children's room, and so on And finished the dinner.

From the following day, a short intensive course by the priest chief was started. After breakfast, I will review the yesterday and if there is contact from Norbert, I will head to the office of the priest. And I will study with the chief priest until noon. A lot of office desks are lined up and a lot of materials are issued, and they are gradually being taught. Especially geographical and historical thoroughly difficult to understand without materials.

After lunch, practice Fespiel with Villefried and Charlotte. It seems that Fespiel was pretty much advanced because the chief priest's officer was going on a tough schedule or because there was a memory of the Reyno period. As Rosina said, if the finger moves, it has reached the difficulty level to go to the House of Peers without any problems.

After finishing Fespiel 's practice, the next day will be a lesson of the Knights and a lesson of the dedication dance will be held. Make special training of magic of body strengthening together with the knights and elder brother Eckhardt. Practice to strengthen and move your arms with your magical powers by removing auxiliary magic tools.

It seems that it can not be said that it has become possible to strengthen the body without strengthening it so that it can make a beast and wield weapons.

In the day of graduation ceremony, the dedication dance is to end the winter and the beginning of spring, to celebrate the birth of a new adult, to dedicate a singing song to the gods.

Twenty excellent outstandings are selected from the knight apprenticeship, dedicated to the sword dance, seven people are selected from the candidate lords. Other people asked me to dedicate music and songs. It is an honorable thing to be selected personally and territorially, so it seems that everyone strives to be managed somehow.

... ... Do you feel like a graduation ceremony?

I understood that I was a bit exaggerated at the graduation song. If it is a selection, you do not need to practice? I was angered when I consulted the chief priest. Alumni candidate graduates are forced to participate, so they seem to be disgraced if they do not practice.

"Can Ferdinand dance as well?"

"Oh, it will be natural."

..... It was probably why she was fainting her girls by showing off the perfect dedication dance with Fespiel.

Demon dancing practice is also done with Vilfriet and Charlotte. They seemed to have been practicing for about a year already, they remember their shapes and they looked like it.

"Men's dance and girl dance are different, but what is common to both is that it is centered on rotation, the fundamentals of Mai are rotation."

That's right, said the teacher. It is not a flying, bouncing or going up and down dancing, but it is elegantly beautiful and rotation centered on lateral movement is the basis of Mai.

"Tension is important for Mai, it is very similar to Clysel."

Crissel <sup>Top</sup> It is like a toy playing with balancing by turning it like.

"When Clysel is turning with a beautiful tension, it will look as if it is stationary? And when the tension becomes weak, the rotation will stop and it stops. Like when it dances in the same way it will be stationary I need a sense of tension to the utmost while I can see it, the axis should not be shaky, it will not be a beautiful dance even if the tension is biased. "

By the way, the Daily teacher of the Rei period had said similar things.

It may be interesting to the mother of the Reyno period, "try everything for three years," Nikka and the ballet were also served. I was given a mother's word to buy a book if I was recognized as improving from my teacher and I wanted to have a book even a little I practiced quickly. While thinking that it was very painful not to read a book during the lesson, it passed perfectly for three years.

..... Now my body does not move at all, so it's totally useless knowledge.

"And most importantly, dedication for dedication is the mind, the heart that prays and thanks to the gods is the most important."

..... If you pray seriously, you mean that there is a possibility that it will be the same as the festival date of the show.

"I understood very well"

Next time I decided to be careful, I was taught the fundamentals of Mai and started with flexible exercises.

... It's you! Body, hard!

After training and practicing, after drinking sweat in the bath and changing clothes. After eating, reading for tomorrow's preparations and going to bed after Ricarda picked up the book.

With that kind of feeling, as everyday you will remember new things and materials to read are accumulated. It is nice to read, but it is hard to memorize.

..... Still, I will do my best. You win Charlotte's respect, you become an excellent and respectable older sister.

It was not too difficult for the schoolmasters of magical relations of the first grade. It is about the foundation of magical power and manastone. Both have attributes, which are also involved with the gods and are related to noble colors. It seems that you should remember which attribute is which color. I was in a position to remember the scriptures, but I could understand it enough simply by listening.

The history of the country is difficult. It's long and similar names come out one by one, and my head gets messed up. For the time being, I knew that talks about the foundation that continued from myths were included in the scriptures.

"Remember the rough flow in the meantime, it is only decades that you need a fine history, especially remember what happened with the political change that occurred in the middle and what made it emerging and where it came. I will also be involved in human relationships at the lords. "

I see the family tree of the royal family spread by the priest. The royal family also seems to have kids compete with each other and kill the little powerful one. The former political change seems to be a fierce battle that divides the country by half, due to the fight between the first prince and the third prince.

The first prince was defeated and the third prince fell in love with the assassin who Daiichi prince released just before his death. This time it seems that the fourth prince and the fifth prince had to fight again with their power as their back.

As a result, because the fifth prince won and the prince himself was exposed to the danger of life many times in a fierce battle, a massive purge to the nobility of the fourth prince and his relatives and back shields It seems that it was done.

"Because of that, because the national strength has fallen apart, it's stupid, is not it?"

"It is true, but you are stupid, you idiot, refraining your mouth, the aristocrat is a place where aristocrats who have been on the fifth prince are walking with a big face"

"And even if you say purgatory, not just a complete enemy, are not you too overdoing if the neighborhood princess and his son were purged?"

While pointing at my family tree, I say so. The family tree of the royal family has been deleted by one horizontal line for those who died normally, but those who were purged in political change are being erased by the bats. Pedigree men, of course, were purged to the predecessor princess and grandchildren who seemed to have little relationship with the contest fight.

"You say you are overdoing ... .. I do not need any more conflict seeds, is not it normal to think so?"

"Although it may be, but if the nobles that support the country do so too much and the country is rough, I think that it is definitely an error, but at the very least the princess that a strong child can born is kept alive It was also nice to have married to aristocrats of my faction or to take over the weakened opponents' territory ... I do not think it is necessary to kill. "

"There is something for your sake, but the princess can not be killed. It is a princess who has flown away with various men as he wants a child with a high magical power. When he leaves it, when he died I do not know if the prince's son will come out. "

I listened to the story and was drawn to full power to the unlimited attitude that the royal family would like to do. Honestly, I do not know exactly what it is different from the blue priestess, as the princess runs out of flee markets and I do not know when anyone will come out.

"Now that royalty and aristocrats are drastically decreasing, it is no use doubtful to increase their own family with power, as well as royalty as well as powerful nobles, in case you are always wearing magical tools to aid body strengthening I think that it seems that magical power is not so high at first sight, but be careful so that it will not be suffocated suddenly. "

"What, scary!"

"That is the reality, absolutely not to let escort knights and Richards go away from the lords."

I shook my head and nodded while repeatedly falling into tears of fear.

Chapter 282: Preparation and ceremony ceremony

I have to prepare to go to the House of Lords between reading everyday everyday, practicing dedication and dancing, and discussing and practicing efficient gymnastics with my grandfather.

What I needed most was a request to create clothes. A lot of cloth was prepared so that clothes could be made at any time, but it seems that it was not made yet because I did not know when I got up. I decided to mobilize the mother 's exclusive handsome and foster mother' s exclusive hands and the Gilberta shop, which is treated exclusively for me, and started clothing making. Therefore, both mothers and foster mothers come to our office today.

"It is truly a Rosemain that it is gathering information on the outbreak of clothing at the House of Peers."

Among the information brought in from the House of Peers which Dermhel had organized, there was also information on what kinds of costumes the candidate lords are wearing. It seems that I was saying that I and the character lady of Brunehilde, the senior aristocratic lady who wrote in detail, wanted to refer to me and Charlotte when going into the aristocrat from now on when making costumes.

I did not intend to collect such information separately, but foster mothers compliment that they are foresighted. It seems to be useful for everyone to have some information somewhere useful with someone and collect each information as it is.

By the way, I did not receive any information on the stories about the places I wanted. Originally I was not planning to use Yureev in the winter and I was planning to explain it properly in my own mouth, so it was a defeat that I only wrote "asking for information collection at the lords." I was bitterly smiled by Cornelius elder brother, if I was caught up with a cry, I could not predict collecting stories from the memorandum of information gathering.

"Princess, the most important thing you have to make is the costumes you wear in this winter social circle"

"Is it okay to wear a costume worn before winter society? Well fortunately I am not growing up"

I was talking with Richarda on the order of the costumes I made from a little while ago. I would say to make Richarda in order to wear, but for me I prefer to take clothes to take outside.

Sadly I have not grown at all in the two years I slept. You can wear it without trouble in costumes two years ago.

"I wear a costume worn through the sleeve for two years or three years ago ..."

"But Richarda: Is it the costume you bring to the House of Lords, which you must prioritize making it? Can not you bring your existing costume?"

My mother who was listening to me and Richard's opinion gave me a light sigh.

"Rosemain, I understand Ferdinand's words that your sense has stopped two years ago"

"mother?"

"Rosemain, going to the House of Peers is that you are ten years old"

"Yes"

"Since the skirt length is different from the previous one, you can not wear the previous costume even if you are not growing up."

Ah, that was right. The skirt length will change.

At the age of 10 the girl changes from knee height to shin length. Originally, because things that should be pleasing with biting your growth are not changed at all, because there is no celebration at the age of 10, happiness has no piece, there is only a sense of incongruity.

"You only have to make a new costume to attend the banquet at the beginning of the society?"

"... .. let's fix the costume to attend the beginning banquet, only the skirt length, so would not it take too long?"

I have Korrinna invited from amongst the needle that I'm holding down on a side by side.

"Kolinna, I'd like you to fix this skirt part. From this part on the back side, attach my skirt of the shin length, pick up skirts like this and put flower decoration like this "

As when I repaired Tuli's costume with a baptismal ceremony at the time of a downtown, I got a skirt part like a balloon like a balloon and decorate it and let me have the skirt of the shin length on the bottom easily With the fix, we decided to overcome the party costume.

Regarding my simple repair, Corinna, who had been explained before by Mr., swallows the place I demand immediately, takes out the needle and thread, it makes it easy to pinch it with a braiding thread to make it balloon.

"How about with this length?" As Rosemain says, if you make it sewn with a new knee length, it will look like this, is it OK? "

Corinna brings cloth to another needle and shows to mother and foster mother how to repair.

"Oh, are not you pretty, the shape is fine, but please use the cloth of the fashionable color of this year for the cloth of the skirt to be newly added"

"Certainly yes"

"If you decorate the picked parts with flowers, is not it good to put the same decorations on this breast?"

"Lady Mrs., if you decorate the chest, make it a small flower, I wonder if it is pretty even if you arrange like this"

"Well, nice"

Corinna writes orders for mothers and foster mothers in the wood basket. Then, from the cloths of the trendy color which Gilberta Shokai had prepared, I chose the thing which the material matched and decided it by measuring the size.

After that we have to decide the costume to bring to the House of Lords. There is no fixed uniform of uniforms at the House of Lords, but it seems that it is decided that the costume is based on black as a rule. It is said that whatever you show respectfully to the god of darkness that absorbs everything, it shows the attitude to greedily absorb teaching at the lords.

However, it is pretty free as it is decided that it is based only on black. According to the information gathered from the House of Lords, there are also people who are colorfully embroidered with black-based clothing, and there is a feeling like a bolero from the top of the clothes that fits the sleeves Some people are wearing a flippy coat and adjusting the length of the sleeve according to the content of the lecture.

"I want a costume that can adjust the length of a sleeve like this than an embroidery."

The long sleeve can not be helped by honest interruption. However, there seems to be a practical skill related to court practice, so it may be necessary for the length of the sleeve. I think that it is easy and very efficient if it can be adjusted by attaching / removing a bolero.

In my argument, foster mother, mother, Richarda all waved their heads.

"Candidate candidates should not wear such sleeve costumes"

"..... Eh? However, candidates for lords will receive lectures as well as practical skills, do not sleeps get in the way?"

"If you do it gracefully, you are a candidate for a lord, Rosemain"

Changing the length of the sleeve with a smile with a foster mother was rejected. it's no use. Let's just prepare the threads for crosshairs properly so that you can adjust your sleeves yourself.

Regarding costumes, my opinion rarely goes beyond repairing, and I decided what kind of outfits to make with the opinions of the three people. It would be better to leave it to three people than to wear costume out of common sense. While watching "I want to read books" how I decide to go on and on, I have no choice but to watch vaguely.

Thanks to the mobilization of a lot of needleworks, my costume was completed successfully by the beginning of winter society.

"Rosemain, about his exclusive chef and exclusive musical instructor ... can I dispatch to the lords?"

I was seated for dinner one day and it was cut out by my adoptive father. Students in the House of Lords will run a dormitory life for each territory. The musical instructor dispatched there will be dispatched with five people selected from among the students, five from experts from the upper class, and the cooks from the castle chefs including the underwork.

Because Virfriit who is a lord liaison student and I become the top ranking, the exclusive musical doctor automatically enters the member. But Ella and Fugo are going back and forth between me and the castle with me and it is hard to call out as a chef in the castle. Therefore, he seems to want to send permission to the House of Lords after obtaining permission.

"Will two people return to the temple while the other is away? In that case, I would like to make effective use of skilled chefs as much as possible"

"Because I am familiar with the taste the best, I do not mind it, but I will not send a new recipe to the chef who goes along?"

I do not mind if the original recipe I thought of Era and Fugo during the past two years is fine, but my recipe is supposed to not shed anything except paying the money.

"... It can not be helped about it"

It was a foster parent who seemed to have expected a little new recipe, but he gave up and nodded.

"If possible, I think that we want you to present the sweets for the recipe I bought from others, at a gathering of candidates and tea ceremonies."

"Does not your father-in-law want to hide?"

You should have been strict with the nobles, not to leave out the teaching materials, picture books, and new recipes outside. I wonder whether it will be lifted.

"Everything that anyone made has great influence, so I thought that it was safe to hide them until one who is a candidate lord came in. From now on We and Wilfried, next year Charlotte will be enrolled as a candidate for a lord, I would like to increase the influence of Ehrenfest as much as possible for this opportunity. "

The face of the adoptive father is the face of the lord. I do not know what kind of future we are looking at, but even if we consider the relationship with Ahrensbach, it would be better to raise the influence as much as possible.

"... As long as you asked Ferdinand, you ought to raise the score at the lords, are not you?"

"Oh, that's right."

"How long is the budget?"

"Yup?"

"There are several measures if you want to seriously raise the results of the entire territory, but it is too expensive for me and the students to bear only. As for the educational expenses how much budget from the territory will be able to do, what I can do I will change. "

It is money to do whatever you do. Then, time. If I could get up earlier one more year, I could do more.

"Since there is almost nothing we can do in the period until going to the House of Peers from now on, full-scale preparations will be done from the spring. This year's Luxury Academy confirms the results of the teaching materials so far and gathered information Comparing the reality ..... We will try our best to grasp the current situation. Then I will issue some suggestions to raise the overall performance of the territory, so please adopt a budget for your adoptive father "

".... OK, I ask Wilfried to do with the lords at the House of Lords, encourage everyone as a candidate for a lord."

In the words of his adoptive father, Wilfried nodded with a severe face "I got it."

While preparations are going on steadily, special training of the magic of body strengthening with his grandfather is also smooth. I began to be able to produce a beast while putting magic of body strengthening on the right arm where I removed the magician.

Angelica looking at it opened his eyes wide and stumbled upon himself and fell apace nicely.

"Why is Rosemain so easy to use magic of body strengthening, I have no confidence as an escort knight"

Over the course of a year and a half, finally Angelica seems to be able to produce a beast while using the magic of body strengthening.

"Fu ha ha ha, because there is so much magical power in Rosemain. Even if we are strengthening our whole body, there is enough magical power to do other things, that's all it is, He raised and trained to use magical power of body strengthening with less magical power. It is not such a thing to compare. Even envying the magical power which it wishes to be adopted by the lord can not be helped more than it is increased to the steady state, Let's refine the art even a little, reduce the necessary magical power and go. "

As my grandfather said so, laughing, "Please remember Damuel as regards saving magical power." Damuel with lower magical power and lower magical power is always kept in mind as to how few magical powers to fight, and he seems to be very keen to research on saving magical power. "We will make a modest battle on a steady side, but there is very little waste".

"As the master of the Lord says, as the Lord of the Lord is not used to the magic of body strengthening yet, there is a lot of waste of magical power. The way of use is much more sophisticated in usage, it is not something that is depressed."

Angelica was recognized as a disciple like a grandfather and became a knight who can use the magic of body strengthening which is not even an advanced knight. And, Stein Luke seems to grow well, and the blade is longer than before.

"Stein Luke has grown too, have you learned a lot of things?"

"Oh, I'm the unfamiliar one, I will struggle."

In the voice and tone of the priest chief, "I feel completely scolded that" you are totally unfamiliar, think of my hardships ".

I recalled the task to be issued to the chief priest officer today, and before the me who felt sorry a long time ago, my grandfather cleared his throat and brought out a dagger all the while. Will you see where a large manastone is fitted in the handle, is this a magical sword, too?

"Rosemain, I'm also raising a magical sword, will you pour out that magical power?"

"..... It is forbidden by Ferdinand that I will devote magical power to the other swords."

"What !?"

It is bad for the old man who was a little sick but I can not pour the magical power without permission. It was banned by the chief priest in the past.

"Mum, ..... Ferdinand's permission?"

The hardest face felt the groaning roaring. I felt the atmosphere that I was going to rush to the priest chief by force, I hurriedly stabbed the nail.

"Even if Ferdinand's permission is granted, I think it would be difficult if I do not get used to handling my magical powers."

I can not use the magical power that I solved in Jureve and the amount that I can use is increased now.

For example, it is difficult to make adjustments, as it is said to have been poured water in a pitcher, now with a bucket. As long as magic of physical strengthening that uses a lot of magical power, <sup>Trough</sup> tub It feels like pouring water on, so it is no problem to pour it in at once. However, it is too difficult to pour in a bucket, as it is a careful way to spell magical power on a devil sword with large sause. I am such a feeling now.

"Besides, it was necessary to have an existence to assist and teach Angelica. It became a devil sword that makes Ferdinand's speech by pointing magical power thinking a person who will guide you severely. But, I can not imagine a part missing from my grandfather, my grandfather is already strong enough. "

".....Really"

While exchanging such information, preparations toward steadily going to the House of Lords will proceed. According to instructions of Richarda, preparation for baggage begins and knowledge is packed by short-term intensive course of the priest. Naturally, movement appropriate for 10 years old was also required, and study on court method was also done.

Winter has come in in no time. Today the opening party is held. There is a baptismal ceremony in winter, there are new children's presentations, a ceremony ceremony is held.

As we have to attend the ceremony ceremony this year, we will leave the bishops and ceremonies to the priest chief. I did not attend as the temple of the temple, I had my hair cleaned up quite relaxedly, I changed my clothes and prepared it comfortably.

"My sister, why do not you come in to the hall?"

As Charlotte prepared for my preparations, he came and visited the room. I immediately acknowledge and leave the room.

"My elder sister is going to a special class to head to the House of Peers, so I do not have time to see dedicated dance lessons and dinner while in the castle, so I was a little sad."

..... Charlotte is as cute as ever.

The fact that Charlotte got bigger was shocking enough to crack my older sister 's heart. But as soon as I received a book from Charlotte because of my apologies for taking the escort and the escort knight, the favorable feeling for my Charlotte jumped up and blown away like a shocked stature Oops.

..... My sister, Maji is lively and it is too cute.

I boarded a cow and entered the stairs while talking with Charlotte. There, Wilfried was also waiting after preparations were finished.

"Do you still use cow animals? Was Rosemain getting better?"

Wilfried made his eyes round, when I saw that I came down the stairs with a beast.

"With the medicine, I became all right fine, but without using magical tools, I can not really walk yet."

"Why! It was said that the knight team was training with Bonifatius, it was suicidal act!"

For Wilfried who seems to have been trained on the side where the escort knight is being treated like a visor, the training with his grandfather seems to be a suicidal act. Actually I thought 'I am going to die', so it may seem that way to everyone's eyes.

"Because Bonifatius has been taught about the magic of physical strengthening, I have not done as much training yet."

"My older sister did not know such a thing, because my daughter 's performance improves so quickly."

I do not speak too extensively about using magical tools. Anyway I will remove it.

"..... If you can return from the lords, if you can afford it, it is a story to remove magical tools and gradually return physical strength and muscle."

Wilfriit and Charlotte walk aside when I move with a cowgirl, and an escort knight hardens the surroundings. It is because the three of us walked this way since that raid, I found that the circumference was a bit nervous.

"I was a little nervous, even though the criminal was caught already ..."

That's what Charlotte smiled small. The tension a little disappeared from the surrounding when it was lured with laughter.

At the last turn towards the hall, I have to walk down from the beast and walk. You can not use beasts from here. And it will be almost standing all day.

..... I am OK, are not you?

Whether such anxiety had appeared on the face, Wilfried anxiously put his eye on me just a little walking, handed me out to me.

"... Rosemain, will you hold on to my arm?"

"No, because I walk slow, Wilfried brother will get tired. You can go ahead with Charlotte and I will walk at the speed that matches my physical condition "

"Naru: It is said that three people are clothed together today."

After all, everyone was supposed to go out with my walk. With the escort knight at ease, we take the front row of the hall. While I was traveling in the hall, I could hardly see me surrounded by escort knights, Wilfriit and Charlotte, and the nobles who came to greet kept their eyes watching over my eyes.

"Rosemain, I was awakened,"

"How ridiculous it is, so I can join Rosemain and the House of Lords, I am very happy."

"I'm sorry to hear you, Earl Grecher, Brunhilde, my sister has already improved a lot."

Charlotte responds to me with a smile with a smile ahead of me.

I remembered that in the winter's winter room three years ago whether Brunhild was over two of them. She has a light brown eyes on crimson straight hair. I think he was a fashionable girl who likes talking. The child who gathered information on the costume of the lord candidate at the House of Lords is Brunhild.

I stand next to Charlotte and smile nicely with Brunhild. You'd better tell thank you properly.

"Brunhild, information on the costumes that you gave me was very useful, thank you."

"Well, that is useful for anything else."

When Brunhild was raising a gorgeous voice, other aristocrats began to gather for greeting.

I slept for two years I seem to be curious and interested, and aristocrats come one after another.

"Please let me say hello to Rosemain"

"Oh, is not it the wife Mr. Daarudoru?"

Before I opened my mouth, Villefried suddenly appeared before me.

"The other one seems to be suffocating, for anything else, I would like to talk to the Dal Dolphen a bit, but do you know where I am?"

"Oh, Wilfried-sama ... .. I am looking for you.

I am hated by the mother of Shikikoza, so Vilfried quickly repelled and I was saved.

I thought so sweetly that I finally noticed that when the aristocratic greetings continued for a while.

..... I'm protected by Wilfried and Charlotte.

When a nobleman is called out, one of the two comes out first. As long as I do not move to talk to me, I do not say a single word and the greeting ends.

I kept an eye on the fact that they were in the opposite position from the two years ago when I was against the aristocrat as I shielded them with their backs.

"Both of you have studied quite a lot,"

"You can not just stay protected"

There was a considerable amount of correspondence with the aristocrat who I was struck by the chief priest. When thinking that it was done by two young people, only a sigh of admiration comes out.

"There are a lot of things to remember, was it very hard?"

"... .... Yes, it was serious, but it does not change much from what the elder sister did two years ago. In addition to correspondence with the nobility, my sister's baptismal ceremony and announcement I thought that I was going to faint by watching the wooden bill for which my older sister remembered at that time. "

It seems that they studied studying the correspondence between the wooden bill and the nobility remembered for the ceremonial ceremony, and the two were confronted by the chief priest. My underwater efforts caught my eyes.

"They helped me to do my job as my temple and I'm sorry I pushed a lot of work."

"My older sister, I am a child of the lord, I understood well how important and important it is to put magical powers on the territory under direct control in these two years. I will head towards the prayer ceremony next spring I can not afford to burden my sister only. "

"Yes, we can finish as soon as we all go through the trouble."

.....What should I do. I have been completely put in these two people.

In the place where I chewed on the growth of the two who are not just physique, the lords and couple entered. I went up to the stage, sat in the seat, looking towards us and smiling lightly. We also return a smile.

The chief priest came in to make a baptism ceremony. The chief priest who went up to the stage wraps around the big room. The voice of "Please greet the new Ehrenfest's son" sounded great, and the doors opened wide, the nobility children who came to the new baptismal ceremony came in.

"Rosemain Mr."

"Anything, Cornelius?"

When I was watching the children going up to the stage for the baptismal ceremony, a voice came from Cornelius standing next to me.

"Although it is Nicolaus to do the show after this, ... ...."

"Yes"

"My father's son, our brother-in-law"

".....Huh?"

In the announcement this year Nicolaus, the son of the second wife Tolderide, appears to be showing off.

Unlike me who baptized with Elvira, my mother as a married wife, Nicolaus who finished the baptismal ceremony as Karstedd and Turdeliede's son seems to be officially treated as a foreign brother.

'I will probably come to greet you with Turdelie de later. '

"Do you have something to watch out for?"

"No, but there was a message from my father not to make an outright favor in the winter kids room, because Rosemain seems to be very younger than younger than myself"

My brothers and sisters I have to adopt first are Vilfried and Charlotte, the next brothers of my mother Ekhard, brothers Lamprecht and Elder Cornelius. As Nicolaas will fall pretty much down, it will be careful to take care of it.

... But, my younger brothers are so cute, do you want to rely on them?

At the end of the show, Nikolaus, a senior aristocrat, played Fenspiel at the end. It was a tone that you can see that I practiced well. It is a bright chestnut hair and a boy with a light blue eyes. I wonder if she resembles her mother, she did not seem to feel like her father very much. However, since the physique is a good one, if I am sure that I am lost, I think that the height is losing.

After the announcement it is a ceremony ceremony. Civil servants are going up to the stage, replacing the chief priest who descends the stage. There were eight civil servants with luxurious boxes. And after confirming that I was ready, my adoptive father walked in the center of the stage.

"Then, we will give a ceremony from this, so new students heading to the House of Lords will go back!"

The crying voice of the civil sounded, and I went up to the stage in a form escorted to Villefriit. Eight people lined up together at the show three years ago. Philiane suddenly saw her eyes smiled. I also return a smile.

When you look around, you can see only the familiar faces that are lined up on the stage, but everyone has grown from the figure in memory. The emergence of my growth is highlighted and my heart is sinking.

"Rosemain"

Called by the adoptive father, I quickly raised my head and moved forward. A civilian came forward, put the luxurious box he had in his hand in front of his adoptive father, and open the lid. From that, the adoptive owner took out the mantle and the brooch and handed it over to me.

"Through a variety of experiences, I hope to learn and grow well, become a noble family that fits Ehrenfest"

"Respecting the god of the darkness, I sincerely and sincerely strive to make every experience possible with my strength"

I have a mantle and a brooch, and line up again as I step down a few steps. When all the members were awarded, there was a notice of the date of movement from the civilian to the lords. As usual, it is said that it will be a move from the highest grade student. Me and freshmen I and Villefried will move to the end of the last day.

Thus, winter life began.

Chapter 283: Departure with children's room in winter

---

After the ceremony ceremony, we had lunch and after the lunch we had socializing with the nobles, but I was told by the chief priest to return to the room. It seems to have already moved too much today.

"But after this, it is said that there is a greeting by the father's second wife and her child, Nicolaus ...."

"From the greeting like that, is not your physical condition important? Do not forget that you are in a state of being moved with magical tools. If you fell now, it will also hurt the schedule from tomorrow Departure to the House of Lords I do not have time to do that, you can understand that extent without thinking? "

I can be caught up with the chief priest who started talking about what happens when I lose my physical condition. The impression that being worried about by the chief priest is decreasing at a stretch in inverse proportion to the time when the priest director repeated words.

..... When I stopped with the first word, it was a really nice person, the chief priest.

For the moment my director is the chief of the bishop. I will quietly return to the room so as to stop the words of the long-ranking priest.

"Okay, Ferdinand, as I said, I will be back in the room today, but since tomorrow is the first day, I will show up in the children's room in the morning There are greetings by the children who finished the baptismal ceremony, Since I would like to grasp the current situation, I will be in the office of Ferdinand from the afternoon so please gather the information providers that corresponded to the materials I gave you the other day "

It seems that it just seemed to the chief priest owner what I wanted to do. Say "hmm" and draw a slight eyebrow.

"Is information fee handed over at the House of Lords?"

"The items that I gave to Mr. Ferdinand are those who have graduated in the two years I am sleeping and those who are enrolled in the House of Lords will pay at the House of Lords"

Materials Damuel gathered information gathered at the aristocratic society were also read by the leaders of Ehrenfest. I thought that some people are pleased with information that I do not need so much, as the value of the information is different from me by the chief priest.

In that case, there seems to be information that seems to have a follow-up report because there is a difference in the information that each seems important and each one is important. I elected those who gave me such important information and I took a firm information fee from the budget of the department of those who were pleased to obtain the information.

A civilian who is not so familiar with me was stunned by being charged with the information fee, but I paid it pleasantly without having to escape by watching the lords and his wife pay generously with a bitter smile.

In this way, I prepared money as originally scheduled.

"That said, I was selling information to various places, I understand. I will arrange for the afternoon to gather."

"I am saved."

"Then, is it only tomorrow that your sister is in the children's room?"

When me and the chief priest delimited the story about the schedule of tomorrow, Charlotte sadly lowered his eyebrows and stared at me. Even though I was in the castle, I remembered Charlotte, who said that I miss it because I do not have time to drink only with dedication and dinner.

"... It may be ... I will do it only with greetings to the children, but I really do not have time to regain the delay of two years."

At the award ceremony, I saw the growth of Vilfriit and Charlotte and everyone in sync, I am keenly aware of my growth and feel a sense of crisis. It is certain that you will be despised because the appearance is not growing at all. Besides, if I can not do what I can for granted by age 10, I am disqualified as a candidate for a lord. That's why, at the very least, I'd like to be able to do things like studying and going around without delay.

Also, if you are thinking about raising the overall score of Ehrenfest, no one will come with me unless I raise my grades. If I can grasp the current situation of the child's room, I would like to spend time studying for myself.

"I understand your sister's feelings, may we prepare rewards to distribute to our children on the first day of tomorrow? Children who were looking forward to the candy made by our sister's chef There is. "

"Well, of course, I will prepare from tomorrow."

I answered with a smile, but I was cursing and sweating inside.

While I was away there was no consciousness that the two exclusive chefs were preparing sweets for the prize, so when I was not good, the preparation was overlapped.

.....Was good. Charlotte pointed out.

Anyway, I think. It is very expensive to prepare sweets. Sugar is high like a fool. Even though you still use cheap honey compared to sugar, it would have been very difficult if you prepared sweetness every day. Regardless of me who is making money by myself, was the money enough for them?

..... It may be strange that I pay money after listening, but as I started it on my own, they are just involved.

Well, as I thought, Wilfried narrowly turned his eyes dark green.

"Rosemain, that person, are you going to do all the operation of your child's room alone?"

"Well, I started doing it on my own initiative, and as long as I am in bed with medicine, I became energetic, so I can not afford to put a burden on two people any more."

When I said so, Charlotte glared at me with a blue eye that had become a stubborn face. Being stared at a cute little sister's eyes, I am confused.

"My older sister, how would you like to be alone with yourself when you are busy preparing for yourself?"

"Huh?"

"Your father said that it is your job to do as a child of the owner to educate in the children's room and raise the score of Ehrenfest?"

"Well, I see."

Charlotte approaching coming closer as she lowered her head slightly above her scolded me with a smile. When my sister knew what to be scolded, Vilfried was hit by a pon and a shoulder.

"That's why, Rosemain, we must do that work as a child of the lord, that we should not monopolize, otherwise we will be treated incompetently. Can you understand if it is? "

Both of them were completely out of existence I had to protect. I am trying to work as a child of the lord on equal terms. Then, I can figure out the range that we can do for two people and allocate the work.

"Okay. Let's share the work by looking at the children's room tomorrow."

When proposing to divide the work, Vilfried brightened his expression. And then, stroking my head cautiously, proudly.

"Well, then, we are off today, so it will be tough from tomorrow."

"It is inevitable if your sister's fallen again."

Was Charlotte also glad that he got a job from me, looked down on his expression. While thinking that they want to work, I head to the door to get out of the dining room.

"Rosemain"

"What is it, Ferdinand?"

I was caught by the chief priest and I turned round.

"Although you need to rest your body, you still have to move your head still, so as to read the materials you are handed over quickly"

"Pleased"

I returned to the room, asked Richarda and Otiliier to help me and took my bath and change clothes, and I got the wooden box of the material being handed over to the chief priest to the side of the couch.

"Indeed, Ferdinando is a baby if you give a rest to the princess that it is not good for your body, you must not ban reading"

Richard said so while being angry, I took the book out of the wooden box and spread it on the bed and spit a relieved breath. It's bad for Rhyarda who is worried about physical condition, but the time I am reading is the most calm. When the priest owner told me that he was reading books, the chief priest was visible to God.

"There are lots of things to memorize before going to the lords. I have to read it."

Richarda is angry with the president of the priest imposing the task while saying, saying, I think that the chief priest probably hid me from aristocracy. In the hall, it was only a gaze that I saw with curious eyes, that I had not grown for two years for two years, a sort of ridiculously objectionable gaze.

Although I intended to have prepared it for a while, I was disgusted with whispering voices exchanged with the amount of gaze beyond expectation. Wilfried and Charlotte were caught up in the thought, but being honest just being on the spot was very tired.

And the next day, I got rice and ot theme to have sweets prepared by Ella and headed to the children's room.

Movement to the House of Peers began today, and Hugo was supposed to move to the kitchen of the House of Lords as the first team.

In Fugo, "I will report to me quickly as soon as Fugo protects Fugo so that Ella can live with peace of mind," it should surely arrange the living environment neatly .

I basically do not want to put a young girl in a place where the eyes of the Lord do not reach. Therefore, Ella is supposed to move to the day when I head to the House of Peers.

Not only chefs and underworkers, naturally, student movements are also done. Today is the final day of Angelica departing to the House of Lords, so the two escort knights I have are Darmel and Elder Cornelius.

"Cornelius also heads to the lords tomorrow, is not it?"

"Yes, I'm going to stay from a familiar senior student and prepare for welcoming the lower class students."

I entered the children's room while listening to Dormuel and Cornelius elder brother from dormitory and promotion ceremony.

"Good evening, my sister"

"Good day, Charlotte"

When I entered, the child's room felt bothersome. Regardless of the students, I have not matched any of the children who finished the baptismal ceremony in the two years I am sleeping, so it looks like "I heard it in the story, was it really?" Some girls have children, others are watching themselves with strange faces such as who they are not known in the first place.

Meanwhile, Vilfried stood before me in front of everyone, pulling my hand and raised his hand.

"Because I slept for treatment for a long period of time for two years, there will be people who do not know their face. I introduce, my sister, Rosemain, Charlotte's older sister, used here. If you are a yearly man you will know that you have created picture books, cards, playing cards and other sweetness. "

..... な な な な な, What are you referring to !? Is it?

Hiiiiii! As Charlotte is breathlessly breathing in and I will add more with a lovely smile that was nicely done.

"Rosemain's older sister is a saint of Ehrenfest who gives a lot of blessings to Ehrenfest with a lot of magical power even though he is asleep. Even if you have not seen him, everyone hears the story. I wonder, I respect her sister very much. "

... ... Stop it! Eyes that shine with the expectations of the children who believe it hurts! Do not raise any more hurdles!

I absolutely wanted to deny and run away, that he was no longer a saint. However, there is no escape place in me that is sandwiched between Villefriet and Charlotte and surrounded by the escort knight.

I was hand drawn by Wilfried, I was sitting in a chair prepared by Richarda, pulling my cheeks down, only smiling for the time being.

"Allow greetings to Rosemain"

By Wilfried's word, I have a line for greetings in front of me. That said, it is only children up to the aristocrat, so even if we receive greetings of all 30 people is a little. There is Wilfriit and Charlotte next to me, children just recently finished baptismal ceremonies began to greet themselves in front of the two.

"Please allow me to pray blessings for a rare encounter with severe sorting by the god of lives AVILIEVE"

"I will forgive you."

While receiving the light of a small blessing, I answer greetings with a smile. Among them, there was a figure of a brother-in-law Nicolaus who saw at the announcement yesterday.

I kneel before me and cross both hands. Bright chestnut hair moves swiftly.

"Please allow me to pray blessings for a rare encounter with severe sorting by the god of lives AVILIEVE"

"I will forgive you."

"I am going to meet you first, I am Nicolaus, the sister of Knight Head Karstedd and Tolederie, and then I will keep you an oath."

"Thank you too."

After finishing the routine greeting, Nicolaas leaves that place. As a sister, as soon as I thought ... .., the older brother Cornelius was called "Rosemain Mr."

Brother Cornelius who smiled like her mother looked down over me. I also smiled back to the smile asking, "Have you forgotten yesterday's attention?"

"... .. I remember"

"I'm relieved"

After the greeting, Moritz started a simple test of how basic characters and calculations can be calculated, as stone boards were distributed to newly entering children.

At the same time, Karuta and playing card game started with the last team division last year, centering on Wilfriet and Charlotte. It seems to investigate how much skill is put on from spring to autumn.

I will look around like that while sitting on the chair. During the two years I made ingenuity and understood the fact that the children's room was operated without problems.

"Today's prize is a sweet prepared by Rosemain for the first time in two years"

In the words of Wilfried, children who never ate Ella's sweets only tilted their heads with a blank face. It was the students who saw the prepared sweets by changing the color of their eyes.

"Wilfried-sama, I will seriously serve you here."

"There is a fight absolutely can not be defeated."

"Hu, I will not forgive you for picking me up"

Every time a boy who became serious about Karuta, everyone takes a piece, the scream of everything rises.

"Mr. Rosemain, about the children's room in the past 2 years, will be the material I summarized.

"Of course, Mr. Moritz"

I received the results of the past from Moritz and read through the materials.

"As far as I saw, it seems that it has been successfully managed, so it seems that the foundation has been thoroughly done from these materials, so calculation problems seem to be a little more difficult to raise."

"Can you give it up yet?"

As I was surprised, I nodded with Moritz watching eyes.

"I received the life to raise the score of the entire territory as much as possible from Aub Ehrenfest, I would like to ask Mr. Moritz for your cooperation."

"Certainly yes"

"Even so, I bother trouble Mr. Moritz, because I was not planning to sleep in the winter, so I left only the memorandum regarding the child's room, was not it hard to have detailed instructions? "

I heard that the memorandum of understanding that only the bullets of what I have to do in the winter must be made and what I want to do is given as my direction by the chief priest. I think that the receiving person did not know what to do and what to do, it was serious.

"..... To be honest, the first year was crowded in various places, it was serious. The trial and error was repeated when this was noticed to Rosemain's fine preparations and care. By improving it I was able to make a flow for the children's room to move "

I was confident that Moritz 's efforts for two years were confirmed. It seems that there is no problem if you leave it to Moritz in this amount.

"I will not be able to come to the children's room from tomorrow, because I have to fill in what I was sleeping for two years, I will ask for the rest."

"Surely, I received it"

Moritz kneels and crosses both hands. At that time, it seems that Karuta got a game. The winner pushed up the fist "I won!", I saw Wilfried being hitting the fist on the floor with disappointment.

Call the winner for each team and hand me the sweets that are prizes. While everyone was watching over with envy, the winner who said in his mouth trembled like a feelinglessness.

"Cuff! Another match!"

"Wilfried older brother, team division is ahead"

"GOOD!"

Wilfried who seemed to have forgotten in the game stood up while making a mouth, and the team division of students from victory and defeat, Charlotte renewed the team division of the children.

It seems that they are doing well and it seems that children's rooms are divided into Wilfried Schools and Charlotte schools, even from the state of the children who help them.

"Rosemain Mr."

Meanwhile, Phylline calls me while trying to hear what she is like. As I looked at the wooden card in his hand, I immediately understood what Phylline had.

"Phylline, will you show me?"

"Yes, Rosemain sama"

With her face shining, Philene showed us a collection of stories gathered up by herself. Though I wrote early, it is written in a spoken language of a child and it is hard to read, but I'm getting used to writing in the past two years and my character improves steadily. Every effort of Philene was packed in the wooden bill at a glance until the spontaneous language became the written language, I felt the cheeks loose.

"I wrote a lot of things,"

"Rosemain has made a story of the knight who told my mother's story. The other aristocratic people were also very happy about reading the story of my mother and being pleased. It is."

The collection of the knight story I made made a few stories collected from the children. The children of the lower aristocracy who found their story in the book rented out in the children's room after I fell asleep seemed to be very pleased.

..... It seemed like that.

"No wonder Rawdelich, who did not think that what he talked about as teaching material would become a book is desperately talking about it from that point."

"I have read the story of Rodderichi, it was a lot of fun, I will rewrite it to written language and I will make it a book, did Philene write all my mother's story?"

As a result of my question, Philly sadly turned his eyes down, and shook her head as she walked.

"I could not write everything ... There are stories that I forgot some ... .. It is very lonesome."

"Philene, there are several fixed types in the story, there is a story that resembles mysteriously in stories of distant lands. The student gathers from various districts to the lords. While listening to various stories, there may be times when I remember it."

Why do not you ask the various people for a story? When I suggested, Phyllene made a rounded eyes like young leaves, and then giggled and laughed.

"Rosemain, maybe, are you going to gather stories even at the lords?"

"Well, is not it a great opportunity to gather stories other than Ehrenfest?"

As I stretched out my heart, Phyllie knelt on the spot and crossed his hands.

"I will promise to give Rosemain a story of various places as an apprenticeship for citizens gathering information from various places."

"I am looking forward to it"

At the next moment, the ups and downs ran into the room. A strange tension is instantly filled in the room. Some of the students spread their eyes wide and headed for this as if in a panic.

"Dear Rosemain, did you welcome Philene as an aide?"

"... A close distance?"

I do not know the reason, I turned my eyes to Cornelius elder brother. His Cornelius elder broke up and shook his head.

"I was watching it next to Rosemain's sama, but I did not have such a word, just because Phyllyn accepted Rosemain's request, maybe it may be taken as an aides afterwards It may not be at the present moment, although it may be "

As soon as Cornelius brothers told us to quibble everyone, breath of relief leaked in some places. At the same time, Phyllie is holding backwards with a face that does not have a place to put down and goes backwards.

A girl opened her mouth like I decided to do something.

"Does Rosemain still have not decided the aides?"

So, finally I understood the circumstances. Wilfried already has a good group of people to say surroundings. It is also in Charlotte. Naturally, I have to decide my aides. Considering from a child who is unlikely to become an associate of two, my aides will have to appoint them in a hurry and it must be aim.

But behind the child there are parents. I can not decide an aide easily without my preference.

"Of course, we are going to need a new aide, we will consult with Richarda, the leader's side, as well as those who need aide, so it's natural to decide newly around those who serve at the aristocracy?"

"... ... Have you decided yet?"

It is not an exaggeration to say that if you are a student at the House of Peers and give priority to those belonging to the faction of your mother, it is roughly decided.

..... I do not know who is the candidate, though. I laughed, strangled and enlarged, and I had to ask Richarda and my mother.

"Candidates have been decided, it is from the entrance to the official announcement."

Strange tension in that word melted and disappeared and the students scattered.

Is that so, Akira? I have to think about it.

Four bells rang and it was lunch time. When I take lunch, this time Richardda brings money and heads to the chief priest's room.

"Richarda, my candidate has been decided as a candidate, is not it in that faction ...?"

"Well, of course it is."

"Please tell me later, as factions have changed a lot during the next two years"

"Certainly yes"

As a result of hearing various things along the way, it seems that only my escort knights, Richarda and Otilie can now say my aides. Because I am missing, I heard that he left his apprenticeship once. Then you can serve Charlotte.

"Because the dormitory at the House of Peers is a place to live, it can not be done with the attitude that has been fixed for a long time, you can see the figure of that person, it is not bad to make it a place of selection"

..... Conversely, I can see the appearance of element. I was in trouble.

When I went to the officer's office, information providers had already been collected. It was probably because it was called by the chief priest who is a mother-brother of the lord. Young people who seemed unlikely to find their place and those of age who seemed to be their boss were in a set, lined up with bad complexion.

"My face is bad, but how did you get it?"

"Did you let him tell you to come as soon as lunch is over?"

..... If such a way is called, that's fine, lunch does not go through my throat, my boss will fly together!

The stomach here is getting stiff. I am sorry.

"It is not for reprimand that I call you, rather it is for putting compliments for labor, so please do a little easing"

As I said so, the young people stroked my chest as I was relieved and my boss saw me interestingly as to what would happen.

"I appreciate that you have worked hard to gather information at the House of Lords while I was with a long sleep, although I am late, I will hand you a reward."

Young people raised their faces with facial expression that they had already forgotten such things.

"The deputy head of the Order was pleased."

"Aub Ehrenfest was impressed by the point of view"

I called each name, I apologized for the late repayment and my thanks and thank you very much for your encouragement and handed over my money.

"It is a talented person who can obtain information of which Ehrenfest's leaders are paying attention. I look forward to everyone's success in the future."

"To make unremitting efforts"

Studying immediately starts as soon as you leave everyone who left you with a motivated face. There is really no time before going to the House of Peers.

"Mr. Ferdinand, are you OK for me towards the House of Lords?"

"All the studies you are going to do is all for myself, although you will pass, you need more than that, there is only one reason why I educate you, do you understand?"

The severe golden eyes of the priest watched me. While my work is accumulated, there is only one reason why the chief priest is clearly telling me about studying.

"Is not it to be ashamed as a child of a lord, is not it?"

"... Well, that's it."

And, it came packed up to the last minute, and it came day for me to leave for the House of Lords. In order to head to the House of Peers, I wore a yellow cloak with a cloak color close to Yamabuki and a brooch in a costume based on black headed to Richarda and a room with a transition team.

In the dark room without the window, the transition team appears to float up. A lot of baggage packed with personal belongings were working downwards and men were laying on the transition team.

It is the lords and couple who came to see us off, Charlotte, the grandfather and the crown captain and couple, the crown priest and the escort elder brother Etshardt. As Vilfried moves next to me, there are also Vilfried and Lamprecht's older brothers. It is a family group.

"Rozemain, I watch the body. Lady is to come back, I because we have to look forward to the day that can tea party"

"I'm looking forward to Watakushi also, mother."

"I because there are Cornelius is in there. Although not much to worry about, is the body to "be careful do not because there is" I trained. if there are angelic and Cornelius, would be all right. between其方is absent, safety because Damueru is kept trained firmly Kokoroshite and may "go to the House of Lords seems to have Damueru is scared to the words of Ojii like, but can also be what I have.

..... Good luck, Damueru.

"So that the life be careful to Ahrens Bach directed the civilian apprenticeship when you want to get. Information, I like其方itself unexpected though carelessly"

"Certainly yes"

Nod to the words of the father-like, is said to be "Say hello to Wilfried" from the foster mother like. If you look at where recent growth, but I think more of me being Regards, keep nodded.

"I have been looking forward to talk with your sister like the House of Lords,"

"I Charlotte, a children's room Best regards."

"Please leave it to me"

Finally, I am to have been multiplied by the voice was a priest length.

"In, Rozemain. As in until the dedication expressions come back and passed all of the test,"

"..... Ferdinand like, it a little or not there is a reckless? Is" dedication formula's the middle of winter. I think I have too reckless ready have also sleeping for two years is not enough.

Priest length to my words were floated a fearless smile.

"While my work is gradually accumulated on and on, on earth? Are thought to have carried out a short-term intensive course for what"

"Certainly the other day, I think this study has told us it for yourself, and?"

"Yes, their's for " the priest length nod and smile in the smile, such as containing the poison, I will cause discomforts pull the Hikutto cheek.

"That, I myself in this case, by any chance, do you thing of Ferdinand sama!?"

When the priests length put a sparkling smile of the more dubious, he declined to say about the answer.

"I can be if you, and I finished with that. As soon as possible test that believe, to come back for sure before you perpetrate that unnecessary. The answer?"

..... Fun'nu!

I also should avoid is expressly answer, I got into the transition team cast a smile only.

Chapter 284: Dormitory and Aides

The magical team for the transition is filled with magical power, and shot the light of black and gold. At the same time, the manastone set in the brooch glows. The space before my eyes fluttered swayingly, and I felt like a dizzying stance for a moment. As you noticed the head swayed, Richarda reached out a little and let me lean on myself. In the next moment when I was able to support and breathe in relief, everyone standing in front of me was distorted.

I am surprised that the sight is distorted, I blink several times and blush my eyes. Just a few seconds later, when the view in front of me was clearly visible, there were no people who saw off who was supposed to have been there.

"Welcome to the lodging house Ehrenfest Dorm, Rosemain Mr."

There was a wide open door on the front, and there were two knights to monitor the movement of the magic team. The transition team at your feet is the same, and it closely resembles the room before departure. There are things like a chair for two knights to sit and a small magical tool, so you know that there is another place because there are no people to see off.

"Princess, if you feel uncomfortable, let's leave the room"

He was pushed lightly and urged Richarda to come out of the transitional room. It seems that Vilfried can not be transferred unless the underworker brings the baggage to my room after this.

When I got out of the room of the transition team with Richarda, there was a waiting room as it was also in the castle. When you transition, the next person's baggage is packed and it is room to wait for turn. Angelica and Elder Cornelius came to pick me up there.

"Rosemain, I have been waiting for you"

When I left the waiting room with Cornelius elder brother and Angelica, there were corridors and doors very similar to the castle. It closely resembles to doubt whether it really transited to the House of Peers.

"I feel that it is really a lordsman and does not change from a castle."

"Since the dormitories of the aristocrats were made by the lords by the magic of creation, the dormitories of any territory basically resemble the castle in essence"

Richarda has its own distinctive features and has taught us that there are various kinds of buildings, beautiful buildings, rugged buildings, polished and elegant buildings, squared buildings that gave away all waste .....

Brother Cornelius also nodded.

"Each dormitory in each area has its own distinctive character and it is fun just to watch it, because people in other territories can not enter inside, we just look at the exterior."

The brooch given by the lords at the award ceremony seems to be a magic tool for screening, it seems to separate whether it is a ruler or not. It seems that it is possible to distinguish between the people who are registered with medals by the magic peculiar to the lord and others. Therefore, I took away only brooches, it seems that I can not enter the dormitory of other territory.

"Well, both of you will leave the princess."

"Please choose for me"

In front of the stairs Richardda left Cornelius elder brother and Angelica to go up the stairs quickly.

"Please go to Rosemain for us, tea is ready."

"Angelica, Cornelius, which side do you head?"

"It is a place to welcome new students"

Everyone who has transitioned from a castle to a dormitory will not be able to enter his room while the side work prepares the room, so he will wait in the hall until preparation is complete. Senior students who have finished arranging the rooms say they will welcome the lower class.

"Rosemain arrived"

A senior student from a side apprentice took some tea, put out the sweets, and held it. Looking around, I saw a freshman who was in sync with me getting nervous and picking up tea.

"Rosemain, please come here ... its costume, it's pretty nice, you incorporate the epidemic in the lords and you are also using flower decorations that you were devised"

"I made it based on information of Brunhild, I was saved because I am not familiar with the epidemic of the lords."

Brunhildt, who was at the age of 7 at the age of 7 when I showed off, should be 12 years old and 3rd year this year. Crimson straight hair flows with Sararito. My candy eyes narrowed pleasantly and saw me.

"I'd like to extend costumes and hair accessories designed by Rosemain from the center, I would like to disseminate epidemics from Ehrenfest, because I can do it once at school."

Brun hilde, fashionable and fashionable, says he is humiliated as a senior aristocrat of Ehrenfest, who believes that Ehrenfest is an area where there is nothing to see in the countryside in the country's standards.

"The epidemic that Rosemain sent for several years is surely acceptable in the center. I had asked the lords and couple to send a fashion once before, but Rosemain goes to the House of Lords It was forbidden to spread it without permission so it was forbidden to wait for Rosemain's now or now, this year's lords will not be pleased. "

Bruni Hilde smiles at a candy colored eyes that resembles her mother when he was considering delivering a new epidemic within Ehrenfest with sweets and flower decorations.

Because I am thinking myself or making things only because I want it, there is no enthusiasm for dissemination of fashion. I was listening to the story while being breathtaking by the momentum of Burunhilde who appeared hot.

"Bruhn Hilde, do not insist on such things like that, Rosemain will not relax."

From the back of Burunhirude divided the hair of the emerald green into two, carefully knitted, the girl who further gathered the three braids that were made behind got back quietly. It seems a bit smaller than Brunhild, but I do not remember having a conversation, so when I showed off I think that he was already in the House of Lords.

"Rieserator ... .... Sorry, Rosemain-sama, I seem to have lost myself in so much joy."

"No, the enthusiasm of Brühn Hilde, who wants to strengthen the influence of Ehrenfest, has been well conveyed, I think that it is an important qualification as a senior aristocrat"

As Britney Hilde descends, as if relieved, a girl called Rieserator instead replied, "Rosemain-sama, do not mind relaxingly." After holding a low-keyed smile, quietly leaving I will go.

The hair of the riser was arranged tightly so as not to get in the way of moving, the dark green eyes had an intelligent light. Although the coloring is different, it seems that the face of Rieseleter looks like Angelica. I wonder if she is a sister, a cousin, or a family member.

"The Liselaer has a face very similar to Angelica, is not it?"

"Yes, my sister."

Rieselaer seems to be eye-warming when preparing a cloth to wipe dirty hands by plucking sweets and pointing out tea replacement to new students sitting nearby, and it moves around. I never knocked down, but I remember smiling and remembering that my parents' education is well received from a discreet work.

..... Is the blood line of excellent sideways condensed here?

Angelica and Liselaer look similar but their behavior is totally different.

"Unlike me, the Rizerator is excellent and my honor is my parents."

"Oh, Angelica is not suitable for the side job, just as a knight, is not it?"

"That's right, Rosemain-sama"

As I was blinking at the defense of Angelica who came in suddenly, Angelica called "Yudit" and the name of a girl as if a little troubled.

Yudith has seen it three years ago in a winter 's children's room. Certainly, was it over me? I made a fluffy bright orange hair like a ponytail like Angelica, Violet<sup>violet</sup> The eyes of the color were sparkling shining.

"Angelica is an intermediate knight but you can master the magic of body strengthening, you can be apprenticed by Mr. Bonifatius and you can apprentice it, it is very wonderful. And recognized by the Lord Rosemain and the magical powered devil Sword Stin Luke is a special magical sword that has a will and can talk but I think that I will grow a magical sword, but magical power is missing, and body strengthening is also I can not do it. "

I was listening attentively to the words of Yudit who appealed Angelica's astonishment hard. It is nice to be praised by your escort knight.

"Angelica who has become able to strengthen the body is very amazing, I asked Bonifatius that I grew up in the two years in which I was asleep"

"That's it! It's enough for Bonifatius to recognize it, I want to be strong as well. Angelica is my goal."

..... Yudit appears to be an Angelica follower.

"Yudit, please stop already"

"Well, I do not want to be noisy Rosemain says something I do not want to remember. It must follow up on a detailed care for the Lord. Rosemain, I'm sorry."

I realized that Yudit received Angelica 's words arbitrarily and interpreted it.

When I glance at Angelica, Angelica is looking away from Yudit as troubled, Brother Cornelius makes me laugh. Angelica who was chased after by Yudit, never being praised as usual shy and was in trouble to respond.

"Yudith is a good girl who enjoys Angelica."

"... No, not a good boy, but a weird child, Rosemain sama"

I am gazing at Angelica's correction, making me gaze into the room with a smile. Warm carpets are laid in the room and tapestries are hung on the walls, but the same color as the mantle is used in any of them.

"Use the color of the territory for decoration as well"

As I said that, I found myself sitting in a position to be isolated. Due to the downsizing of everyone, a dark atmosphere is drifting and occasionally I see regret that seems not to be able to mix even if I want to mix with gaze.

Among them, there was the appearance of Rodrig, who had gathered stories hard, and I narrowed my eyes a little.

"Cornelius, why are they in such a far position?"

"It is the children who have a former Veronica parent parents that are settled there, some of whom have sinned Virfriit sama in a hunting tournament two years ago. It is dangerous to Virfriit and Rosemain In this way distance is taken like the distance does not go out "

The number of veronica groups who were originally the largest factions was large. It seems that it has not completely collapsed two years ago, even a student at a lodging house seems to be an alarm target for about a quarter. In that situation, it is difficult for 15 people out of 65 people living in the same dormitory to cooperate and improve the performance of the whole Ehrenfest.

"Can I manage to manage them so that they can stand on this side?"

"Factions are like this," said Ferdinand, who was spared out by Veronica, who was a child of the lord, he said that he was put in such a position, from an older brother Eckhardt until he enters his brother It seems that there were only a few people closely ordered by the former lord. "

".....Is that so"

I thought that the chief priest also saw the biggest faction in such a gaze, but I could not imagine the composition.

..... It looks like I had a hard time at the castle, but as long as I heard the story of Brother Eckhart, it seems that he was alive at the aristocrat.

It is good not to be misunderstood, but I can only think of the way that I will be happily walking the path to the mad scientist steadily. Using all excuses and excuses, I guess I must have lived in a free environment and I must have stayed at the House of Lords.

..... It is decided that we should move around like "this for me" this time.

"Vilfried's arrived"

"Sorry, I made you wait"

Wilfried comes in with his own escort knight apprentice and civil apprentice he seemed to have met. Preparing tea and sweets seemed to be an aides, and while several people moved small, Vilfried sat down to a chair that was prepared next to me.

"This is the dormitory of the aristocratic house and it is very similar to the atmosphere of the castle."

Suddenly an answer came back from Wilfriit's word like a solitarian saying, "Oh, that's right."

Looking back, a slim woman who looks serious is there with a gentle smile. I wonder if it is about the early 40s in the latter half of thirties when I was older.

"I'm Hill Sur, I am serving as the dormitory manager at the Ehrenfest dormitory."

Hill sur was originally an aristocrat of Ehrenfest, and since he was outstanding in grades, he was going to work in the center, and now he seems to be a teacher at the House of Lords and giving lectures on magical tools.

"The other day I received a letter of thanks to Mr. Ferdinand. Rosemain is like a Ferdinand-san's disciple. Lord candidate, knight apprentice, civil apprentice, disciple of a genius child who gave the best result in all, I will not be looking forward to what kind of thing it will do. "

..... Genius's disciple? Did I get into that sort of thing? that? Is there really something wrong with hurdles?

Before I could reply anything, Hill Sur laughed at the center of the room when I laughed nicely and started explaining the dormitory for new students.

In this dormitory there are rooms to be used jointly such as girls' room on the third floor, men's room on the second floor, halls and cafeteria on the first floor. It is legal that boys rise to the third floor, it seems that the knight apprentices will watch over the stairs in turn.

The innermost of each floor is a room of the lord and his wife and it is supposed to be used at the lord's meeting.

"If you do not take the exam and you will be left in the nobleman family in the spring, you will be able to remember your face and name to the lords in a bad way.

..... Oh, Angelica.

Three lords for the lords are prepared on each floor, and the aides are used by the rooms prepared around them. Apart from the aides, the back is a senior aristocrat and the room closest to the stairs is going to be a lower aristocrat. Lower class aristocrats and middle class aristocratic rooms are used as a shared room for multiple people, but it seems they can also be private rooms if they accumulate money.

It seems that everyone seems to take the meal, and was taught the opening time of the cafeteria. It seems that the bathroom is supposed to prepare in each room in the same way as the castle.

"The promotion ceremony and the social gathering ceremony will be held two days later and the lecture will start from the next day. Please prepare the lecture for new students to become accustomed to the dorm life and to prepare for anything. So, is there any question? "

"Yes!"

I cheerfully raised my hand. Not to mention Hill Sur, all gaze is directed towards here.

"Where is the library in this dormitory?"

"There is no library in the dormitory because there is a library in the lords."

"When will you be able to enter the library? Will it be possible to go from now? From what time to opening hours?"

My heart is rising with the echo of the library, not the library. I felt like I wanted to rush right now, as I was excited and asked, Hirschle laughed in a troubled way.

"The library opens after the lecture has begun, and there is explanation of how to use the freshman in order for each of the lands, it is afterwards that we will be able to enter and exit the library."

".....Is that so"

It is disappointing that the library will deposit until the lecture begins.

"As long as you are studying diligent candidate lords, everyone gets tangled and you will be studying. I'm expecting you, Rosemain."

... That means that if I am reading a book that is a candidate for a lord, everyone gets tied and will read books? I must do my best and read!

By the time Hill Sur explains, Richard has finished arranging the room, I came to the hall.

"Rosemain Princess, the room is ready"

I told Richarda, I headed for my room for now. Because the corridor was long, I was told to use a beast, and I took a coward and got on.

"Here's where I can accompany"

The man who can accompany the man Cornelius is up to the second floor. Only Angelica will be the escort knight.

When I got up to the third floor, I saw the doors lined up on both sides of the long corridor. My room is in the back. Pretty far. If you go up the stairs to the third floor and walk down the corridor to the deep, you may collapse on the way without a beast.

"This is the princess's room"

The inside of the room was prepared with an arrangement that is not much different from that of the castle. It is a consequence that I thought to be able to live without discomfort, and that Richarda could work with the familiar flow line.

"Then, Princess, let's decide the aid quickly. Here there anybody in the eyes of the princess in the hospitality today? Please choose from here and have to announce it today From Office desk, no, here is a study desk. Several sheets of paper had already been prepared on the study desk. For students who asked Elder Cornellius to create a list of students who created me, those who may be close to me can not understand their status and position, but depending on my opinion,  $\Delta$ , because it is a warning target, those who have stopped should be given a  $\times$ . And those who became the aides of Wilfriit and Charlotte had two initials.

"Bruhn Hilde is  $\circ$ , Lieserator is also  $\circ$ , Yudit is  $\circ$ , Philiane  $\Delta$ , Rodelichi  $\times$  ..."

I will mutter while looking at the list about those remaining in my memory.

"Rodrig is a person who fells Wilfried as a hunting competition, so it is not suitable for the princess's principal"

"Even if you do not feel like getting into yourself, if you acted as told by your parents, it is highly likely that you did so, as I gave Wilfried your opportunity to rehabilitate, I want to decide by looking at himself. "

My opinion was rejected by Richarda. It is impossible for you to put in your aides almost unnoticed like you are now. Sure it is.

"Those who remained in the eyes of the princess other than Rodelichi will be treated as an aide. Burun Hilde and Rieserret in the side apprentices and Yudit in the apprenticeship of the escort knight If you wish Rosemain, it is a good idea to put a filledge in the civil penguin apprenticeship not"

Richarda will decide the aides one after another based on my opinion.

"But, you need an apprentice of advanced civil servants who can support and guide the lower aristocratic phillyine, if there is no objection to Rosemain, let's add Hartmut to your aides."

"Who is Hartmut?"

"It is the youngest son of Otilie, it seems like a friendly friend to be involved with people, it's very good to collect information."

"Let's also add Hartmut."

It seems that I entered the House of Lords before I baptized the ceremony, so I do not know Hartmutt well, but I think that it is no problem if Richarda is the son of Otilier and recommends.

"Afterwards, that's right, it would be better to choose a knight apprentice that can succeed Cornelius, how about a traumgot? It is a child born between my daughter, Bonifatius son and second son's son"

"My grandfather and grandson of Richarda ... It seems to be very strong just by listening."

"It is still much more, it is not compared with Cornelius who was taught Rosemain's magical compression method and trained by Bonifatius as an escort knight."

It seems there was a story saying that Traugot becomes an apprentice of Wilfried's escort knight, but it seems that he was reluctant because Vilfried got my forgiveness and I do not know when to escort the magical compression method to that escort knight.

Wilfried, who was descended from the position of the next lord who had mostly decided on, seems quite a hard time to gather the aides.

"Then it is OK to put Yudit as a successor to Angelica, but Angelica is not suited for succession guidance."

"Richarda's way you are right, sorry, Rosemain sama"

Riyarda sighed to the voice of Angelica that he did not think he was too bad.

"Even if you ask Cornelius for education, there are also difficult things to say unless you are a woman of each other. It needs a women's knight apprentice that can be taught in collaboration with Cornelius, Do you recognize it, Angelica? "

Even if asked by Richarda, I asked "Do you have an apprentice for a woman's knight who might think variously instead of Angelica" in Angelica who just tilts and tilts his neck? As soon as that, Angelica started thinking with serious eyes.

"... How about Léonore? I am friendly with Cornelius and I think that I am good at thinking."

"Angelica herself basically has no idea to think at all"

"Yes, that's right"

.....What should I do. I feel that Angelica has abandoned thinking two years ago.

"Hey, this is not a good thing to reply with excitement, as the Lord gets to rely on feeling more and more every time he receives a teaching from the master of the Lord, so that you can acquire more thoughts"

Since Anglicana 's magical sword St. Luke has begun to preach, the curtain that I will appear will not appear. Let me leave a few words to Stein Luke who speaks the same as the chief priest.

"If you consult Léonore and you get a good reply, let's add it to the escort knight."

"Certainly, Princess"

This is a decision for now.

Chapter 285: Grades improvement committee

---

"Princess Him, I got acceptance from everybody pleasantly, I've already started moving the room. After this, my aides will come to greet the gentleman can not go up to the 3rd floor, so after announcement after dinner It is a meeting after. "

Ricarda who went to tell him to announce the announcement after the awards of the aides and dinner came back.

It seems that the person who became a close aide must move to the room for the aide. The other side of the door began to clatter. Perhaps the mobilization of the aides has begun to a large extent.

"Mr. Rosemain, can I pass through my aides?"

"Well, please pass through."

Angelica who was holding down before the door asks permission to open me a door. When the door was opened, the children who became my aides came into the room one after another. It is said that while talking about their rooms and underwork being prepared, we will talk about greeting and work sharing here.

Brunehilde came in first and kneeling in front of me.

"Mr. Rosemain, I'm very happy, I'd be very happy. Please leave it to me for fashionable outgoing calls"

"I am planning to ask something about socializing at Brunhild, as you know, I have been sleeping for two years, so it is not very detailed about the details of domestic factions and connections between factions and territories. In addition to my assistant, I hope to collect various information. "

"Please leave it to me"

After the greetings of Brünhild, the Rizerator quietly touched me before me.

"To Rosemain who rescued her sister who had been forbidden even for the promotion of the House of Lords, I am thankful to all my family members, my family, I would like to thank all the family, I would like to thank Rosemain for the best of my ability I want to do it. "

"I heard from Angelica that the Rizerator waited for the awakening to serve me. I am pleased with that feeling. Please continue your favors."

"Yes"

If basic letters can be written, unlike civilian apprentices who can start work from helping with reference books and tasks, side workers can not serve as an exclusive person unless they train for a year so as not to make the Lord uncomfortable.

It seems that I fell asleep as soon as I finished my one-year training that the Liselator who was a first year student at the Buddhist ceremony at the Baptismal ceremony will serve me. I was stunned by the bad luck but it seems that I was inspired when I saw Angelica being tempered more and more while I slept.

"Princess, I will teach about the work in this room to the two of the side apprentices"

Since Richarda is taught to Brunhild and Rieselter, there is no problem. When I nodded, Richarda started talking about the room's explanation and the day's schedule.

I turn my eyes towards the knights apprentices in line. The kneeling Yudite was excited and looked up at me with an unbelievable face.

"I am happy that we can serve Rosemain, I want to be strong as much as possible and I would like to serve you."

"I expect from Yudit's hard work"

Leonore kneeling next to that <sup>Grape</sup>grapes It was a girl with a calm atmosphere with color hair, an intelligent indigo pupil. Because the atmosphere is calm or whether development is good or not, it seems to be very grown up.

I do not know unless he is told as a knight apprentice. It is a look that I think as an apprentice civilian.

"Rosemain, thank you for your patronage with an escort knight."

"I think that I have requested a lot of work for Leonore, I will cooperate with you if there is something wrong, so while consulting Cornelius, I will assist Angelica and Yudit and lead them I want it. "

After turning his eyes on Angelica and Yudit, Léonore tightened his expression and slowly nodded.

"... .. I will try my best and good faith"

I stroked my chest, I thought it was okay not to be refused, and in the same way, I was gladly glanced at Angelica, saying, "It was nice to have someone to think about entering."

"Angelica, please talk about the explanation and sharing of work in this room"

"Certainly yes"

Even though the explanation of Angelica is bad, I think that Sutin Luke will do something for sure, but as for Angelica's thought abandonment, we will have to take some measures.

Mamma, I kneeled as Phyllie nodded in front of me who made my lips sharp.

"Oh, Rosemain, I'm glad that you are able to complement your aides, but are you sure you can make a first-grade lower aristocrat like me like a close associate?"

Anxiously Philline asks. Lower class aristocrats are rarely taken up by lords, so you will understand the concern. However, Philline swore me that I will collect stories from all over the place for me. For me it's one another.

"I want to ask Philiane is basically a collection of stories and there is also an apprenticeship of the upper aristocratic citizen to support and guide the Filinet. What above all, I feel bad about being a lower aristocrat If there is, be sure to talk to us, I will deal with the filledge we collected. "

"Thank you, Rosemain sama"

While everyone began an appointment as an aide, I decided to talk about Physical performance committee with Philline.

"What is the performance improvement committee?"

"When entering the House of Lords, the candidate for the lord was ordered to raise the score of Ehrenfest from Aub Ehrenfest, and we must raise grades while I study. It is a committee for improving grades. The president is I and Wilfried's older brother, but all the students of Ehrenfest are allowed to belong. I will not miss as anyone. "

As I said so, I spread out information on the information about the House of Lords that Damiel put together. In the 21 territories including the center, Ehrenfest wanders around the center. He seems to be 13th last year.

Although it is barely still in the middle, it seems that Eleenfest, which originally had a battle with the subspecies in the lowest rank, emerged only when the priest owner was enrolled and fell to the right as he graduated .

In other words, it is not good just to have a genius. We have to make a system to improve the overall performance of Ehrenfest.

"How do you improve your grades? I heard that you got much better with cartoons and picture books,"

"I went up with a cartoon and a picture book is a grades of the lower grades. The results of the upper grades will not rise by just the cards and picture books as expected."

"Is that so?"

The grades for the lower grades were only visible to the students. After that the skill of practical skills might have been strengthened a little.

"It seems that Elder Cornellius became an honor student in the two years when I was sleeping because I was teaching to Angelica for Degree and I was studying a year later. In addition, I remember magical compression, my grandfather ..... It was because I was trained by Bonifatius. "

Whether it was hilarious because the team worked hard to improve Angelica's promotion, the results of other knights apprentices also rose, but there are quite a difference from how Cornelius brothers go up. And while being able to reach out to everyone, there is no choice but to bear in mind the results of Angelica whose bachelor studies barely pass.

"Certainly, Rosemain was thought about how to compress the magical power, right?"

"Well, once you come back from the House of Lords, you will have a lecture once again. Because the magical compression method requires the permission of the leaders and money, now you can not teach at this place Philene knows how to compress the magical power If you want to, you should gather stories and information from within and make money for yourself for yourself. "

Because I buy stories from various places, when I say, Phylline made eyes like young leaves shine.

"I will do my hard ... .... I have a period to earn money, I am saved, but can not you immediately raise magical power after returning to Ehrenfest?"

"Well, it is effective for all the students here, and what you can do right away is to improve your school's grades."

At the House of Lords the first and second graders are all common subjects, they are taught the basics, and from the third grade they are to be divided into specialized courses to learn.

Regarding the first year and second grade studies, I have already been daunted by the chief priest already. And it is said that "You have passed the examination on the first day". More than anything, unless there is such common sense, it seems that we can not accept a bad response at the tea ceremony where higher aristocrats gather.

I heard that Villefried has already ended. Those who are candidate lords, senior aristocrats, older siblings seem to have passed the exam for the lower grade examination on the first day.

And I heard that we must take time to practice and socialize after that. I want to give time to the library as much as I can. To do that, advance preparation is necessary. Because I can not go to the library until lecture starts anyway.

As my synchronization is studied with carto and picture books, I think that something about school sessions about magic through until about 3rd grade will work. There is no problem with mathematics. However, regarding the history and geography, I think that individual differences are intense. The most common thing that I do not know is history and geography.

"People who have older siblings often have reference books of wooden tags and materials that they made or taught? They let them out and made an atmosphere to raise grades by everyone I want it. "

Regarding the knight apprentice there is Effhardt's brother's data, so I think that everyone can study if Cornelius elder brother gave it. Just like other courses, I think it will be easier to study if you put together the materials that everyone holds.

"I'd like to raise the overall score of Ehrenfest, including the former Veronica school children."

"I think that it is best to be able to raise grades regardless of faction regardless of age and faction, in the winter kids room where Rosemain came, giving assignments according to their progress All of us were trying hard to award prizes for sweets.I liked that atmosphere very much. "

Philene smiles with a nostalgic look. Among the two years I have not been in, the first year was fell into an alumnus at a hunting tournament and it seems that Vilfried who was attacked exposed the hostility to the older Veronica school children. Charlotte took the training that did not put out such emotions and seemed to seem calm on the surface.

However, in fact the old Veronica school is also placed a distance to make seats even now, and it is an atmosphere in which it is easy to put on a heavy use, not to mention it to the aides. It is urgent to manage this.

... .. Is it best to compete with everyone aiming for prizes? Afterwards if you make another enemy, maybe you will feel a little bit organized?

I would like to make the atmosphere of the winter 's children's room somehow even at the lords in the winter who said he likes Phyline.

"Please do not leave after dinner, because we have to announce our aides and pay information fees for two years, then we must tell everyone the words from Auben Ehrenfest"

After saying to everyone in the dining room I got a seat.

The table is roughly factional. Me and Wilfriit are sitting with their aides in a large table where 12 people can sit and other friends seem to be eating together among other good people, they are divided into 4 tables and sitting.

..... I already announced who the aides are already, but I do announce it.

"God bless us as thousands and tens of thousands of lives as our foods, Supreme God who controls the expanse of the sky, the five great pillars of the Great Earth, widely administering the Hirohiro Earth, appreciation and prayers for the gods, Let's eat"

Following Wilfried's prayers, everyone prays and handles meals.

By the way, only me and Wilfriit are different menus. Everyone else is on the same menu. Although it is a different menu, only desserts are attached.

Everyone who is eating at the same table is astonished by the surprise and seeing meals.

"It became much more delicious a few years ago, but this year it gets even more taste ..."

"The fun of the lords is this meal, I am surprised when I first ate last year."

It seems that since the castle chef is being sent to the House of Peers, the quality of the meal has increased a lot since three years ago. It is said that it became more delicious as this year has Hugo and Era. It is interesting that the opinion is different in the lower grade students who were able to eat delicious food from the time they entered the senior student who knew the old days.

"This year, my exclusive chef was also sent to the House of Lords, so it seems that they practiced well in the two years in which I sleep. Or so, the recipe books that my sidebook gathered together I plan to release it at the end of winter. "

"Well, how about a recipe, do you mention it?"

Brünhild restrained his mouth and was surprised with elegance. I also have to emulate this elegance a bit.

"It will be more expensive than picture books, but I think that it is worth it."

"Well, Rosemain says you are right, the recipe has a lot of value, do you also consider sales in the center?"

"It will be next year or next, to spread the recipe book at the House of Lords, this year I will show off only one or two kinds of sweets at the tea party and keep it interesting in the surrounding area I think that I change so much rapidly because the reaction is great. "

Brünhild was saying that he wanted to make a trendy sharp lips a little disappointingly. I laugh a little to such Brunhild.

"It would be better for the trends to be dispensed little by little, Bruhn Hilde. I sure is a candidate for a lord, but there are differences also in candidates for lords. If you think that you are a nobleman, we are middle-class aristocrats in the middleland Ehrenfest, what do you think of advanced aristocrats if intermediate noble suddenly sends a lot of trends? "

Bruti Hilde lifted his face as if it was relieved.

"We have to carefully examine what kind of upper aristocracy you can communicate as an epidemic as weaponry and connect us to influence ourselves and it will not be necessary to expose all of our hands suddenly So, let's put out information little by little. "

"Certainly yes"

When I finished eating like this, I announced my aides. Because it is on the same seat, you can understand it at a glance, but it seems to be important to announce it officially.

"Now, I will present my aides, Liezerator and Brunehilde as apprentices, Angelica as apprenticeship, Angelica, Cornelius, Leonore, Tragot, Yudit, ceremonial apprentices are Hartmut and Philiane."

The girls looked at the room in the room, but the boys were close to meeting their face for the first time at dinner's table. Although I greeted our first meeting at the child's room three years ago, I have said that there are too many people greeted at the same time and honest stories say that they do not remember almost anything other than those on the blacklist correct.

"I am honored to serve Rosemain."

She came out before me and kneeled and said that, at the age of twelve, he is a senior in the apprentice of a senior knight. I was told that it was a child born between the daughter of Richarda and the son of a second lady of the same grandfather, but looks do not look like old man or richarda. With dark shades of blond hair and ultramarine eyes, the facial expressions did not move much, and it looked like a silent atmosphere.

The next tragot came out is Hartmut.

"Since we received an order to collect information at the lords, we were waiting for Rosemain-sama's awakening. I am pleased that we can serve you."

It felt like saying something like Justoks. However, unlike Justkus, characteristic vermilion hair is not suitable for intelligence. There is a bright eyed like orange that feels a sense of calm in a calm atmosphere that smiled. It is said that he is the youngest son of Otilier, a fifth grade student at the age of 14 at the apprentice cabin of a senior aristocrat.

When I finished my greeting, I got Richarda bring me a bag full of money.

"While I was asleep, I thank those who gathered valuable information and will pay for the information fee from now on."

I call the name of the information provider and give me the money. Information on Brunhild 's costume and fashion was highly appreciated by foster mothers and mothers, and the information of Hartmut was very pleased with the priest' s official. With a single word on who was evaluating, everyone gleamed their eyes shining proudly as they handed the money.

"Two people, Rhodderhi and Philiane, gathered a lot of stories for me, and thanks to that I can make a new picture book again."

They are not two members who belonged to the House of Lords, but they gathered the information I wanted most. Proper handling of information charges. If you do that, there is a high possibility that new stories will increase for money.

Philene came forward to me in a pleasant way, but Rodrig had a very confused face and compare money with myself with me.

"... .. can I accept?"

"Of course it is, this is what Rodderich worked hard"

I did not think it was acceptable. Roderich looked at me with such a face, distorted her face for a moment as she cried.

"I am sorry"

"I'm expecting Rhodderichi from now on. Please also collect various stories in the lords."

"... .. sure, I will show you according to expectations"

Wilfriit, who saw Rodrig tightly grabbing money in his hands and watching returning to his seat, looked at me with a sharp eye.

"Rosemain, the other, do not you know?" Rodrig is ...

"We should evaluate the conduct fairly, brother Wilfriit, who gathered a lot of stories for me, I just evaluated it. To evaluate the accomplishments, factions It does not matter. "

What frowned upon my words was the table where the former Veronica school gathered.

"Rosemain, then, do you do fair evaluation of the information I gathered?"

"Of course, each person has a different sense of value, although Bruhn Hilde placed emphasis on trends and costumes, Hartmut put a greater emphasis on the relationship between the territories, and those who were pleased with the information Each one is a different person, so if there are people who are pleased with the information you brought in, it will be appreciated. "

".....understood"

Since I did not bring information at all from former Veronica schoolers, I thought that it was banned from my parents. However, it seems that it was because it was because it was not prohibited by factions but because I thought that evaluation could not be obtained. If you look at the attitude of Wilfried, it is no use doubt to think so.

"Well, I would like to tell everyone the words entrusted by Aub Ehrenfest from this year, and I will be enrolled in this year from the lord of the lord, after which I will refrain from entering Charlotte and Melchior."

Vilfried also stood up in my words. And speaks with a clear voice towards everyone.

"We will raise the influence of Ehrenfest as much as possible in the nearly ten years when the candidate lords are enrolled, so that they all want to be together and cooperate"

"Let's first think about how we can improve Ehrenfest's grades"

My opinion soon came up to my words.

"If you tell Rosemain-sama's magical compression method, I think it will improve considerably alone, please tell us to improve grades."

Actually Angelica and Elder Cornellis, and Charlotte's escort knight apprentice Ernesta were visible and the magical power increased. More than anything, it seems that it is a well-known fact that the lower knight Damuel is still growing magical power little by little in the knight team.

".... My intention is to expand my magical compression method little by little to those who I trust in. In this winter, I frequently see the work at the House of Peers, I choose the teachers, the lords stop After doing it, I will give the lecture after taking the permission of the leaders. "

"is that true?"

"Yeah, but we also need permission from the leaders for personnel selection, and we also need expensive money."

Those who shine their faces with expectations, those who become expressions of giving up, can see various faces.

"So, it is a story after spring that we will raise magical power with the method of compressing magical powers.I think that I would like to raise the classroom this year. It is for myself to raise the results of the classroom, It is for Ehrenfest, let's raise the grades of everyone regardless of the faction etc. "

Everyone raised my face to my words. I slammed a little shoulder and opened my mouth where there were vigilant faces about what to say.

"First, I will divide the group."

"Grouping?"

"First-year students and second-grade students who have only common subjects are divided by grade, and third-grade students who are divided into specialized courses are divided into courses, first grade team, second grade team, knight apprentice team, civil apprentice team, side apprentice team"

There are variations in the number of people in team division, but it is around ten people. Considering reference books and information sharing, I think that this method of division is the most efficient.

However, the voice of dissatisfaction soon came up.

"Rosemain, are you insane? If you divide the group, who made it for each faction ... ...."

"Yes, we can not cooperate!"

"Please think about the position of those who are spared"

Vilfried as well as the former Veronica factions gave negative opinion, but I want to manage the atmosphere of this faction. If you divide it into factions, it makes no sense at all.

While raising opinions with the young man, I shook my head with my arms folded full of amazing facial expressions.

"Everyone seems to like faction fairly for a long time, but you know that Ehrenfest itself is in a country house, especially in the country, it is thought that there is nothing to see especially, it is not the case when you are struggling inside of it Shou? "

"Well, that is ... ...."

"On the other hand, have you forgotten that yourself was attacked?"

I breathed a sigh in response to Wilfried's point. I thought that Vilfried was a matter of a faction for a long time, apparently to protect me.

"I have not forgotten, I am frustrated, but I do not have a parent to rely on in the House of Peers, but in other words, there are no parents who will monitor and enforce our actions. It is enough to go back to Ehrenfest, etc. It is good students in other territories that we have to do. First of all, please understand that, if you are a nobleman, consider the benefit of that time So you have to be able to hide your emotions and pair your hands with your enemies, did not you tell me so?

Indeed no one told him that he was also small in size, Vilfried, as well as other children, had silenced.

"Even if you are told to study hard at first, you will not be motivated right away, so I have prepared prizes to bring out the motivation of everyone. The team that all the teams passed the exam first and To the team with the most outstanding people, I will present the recipe of sweets I invented, Cuttle Carre. Please come back to Ehrenfest and let me cook at home. "

I told Frida that I could publish the recipe and I taught it in places and places, but everyone tries to keep it confidential, in fact the recipe of Katkar currants has not expanded widely even now.

At the moment, Cattorcur is coming to a nobleman district of Ehrenfest and purchasing it at a guild-length store or being unable to eat unless invited to a foster mother or a mother's tea ceremony.

If that recipe becomes a prize, you will be able to eat it at home. It will be free to offer as a cafe for visitors. The color of everyone's eyes changed.

Wilfried and older brother Cornelius have a face of saying, oh, but let them have patience with Ella's new sweets.

"Although it may be early to pass all lower grades, it will be difficult to be chosen as an excellent person because of its low difficulty, and higher grades may be able to get more outstanding people if they work hard."

"Rosemain-sama!"

Hartmut of civil apprentice pointed out with a hand raiding his hand.

"There are multiple escort knights who know the method of compressing magical powers in the apprenticeship of the knights and I think that it is too advantageous because there are good reference books given by Mr. Eckhardt."

Yes, that is the case, another group of voices are coming up from other teams. It is interesting that the voice rises regardless of factions at such times.

"Although reference books may be obtained if brothers and sisters are present in other teams, there is nothing to do with magical powers, but it is certainly necessary to adjust the degree of difficulty ... .. In Angelica We will prohibit the use of Stuttrooke in the school at the university. "

"eh!?"

"Then the difficulty level is too high!"

A screaming voice came up from the knights apprenticeship senior students, but I looked straight at Angelica who was breathtaking and pale.

"In the past two years Angelica has not decided to think more than before, depending on Stin Luke, do not do this, remember thinking and using your own head. It should be possible this year. "

"Such, Rosemain-sama ..."

It is not good to make a face that seems to cry in a humble atmosphere. It is becoming a beautiful girl grieving with a sad face, but do not be fooled by the appearance of Angelica. This is the face when I do not want to use my head.

"Does Rosemain hate me?"

"No way, I will not do dislikes as escort knights, I'm hoping for the growth of Angelica, I heard, I will not allow misconduct."

I saw that Angelica was stroking the Evil Stone like asking for help, and I talked to Stin Luke. Sting Luke who copied the personality and tale of the priest's officer returns a clear voice as "I know".

"It is not a thing to do as a knight, such as fraud, more than anything, the same as mine is wishing for the growth of the Lord"

"It seems that Stuart Luke also got me understanding, it's the most important thing."

"Such, Sutin Luke !? Rosemain !?"

While encouraging Angelica with a screaming voice with a smile, I looked around the inside of the dining room around the corner.

"Then, please devise measures for each team, cooperate and challenge lecture ... ..
Well, Wilfried brother. When will the first grade begin council meeting?"

Wilfried who stared at the table where Rhodderhi and the former Veronica group gathered gotari and stood up.

"Tonight everyone, check the content of the lecture heard from his older sister, and reference books that I have, tomorrow morning, we will hold a countermeasure meeting immediately after breakfast, victory is ours!"

In this way, the Erienfest grading committee was established and struggle to achieve results began.

Chapter 286: Advance ceremony and social gathering

And a new life began.

I am the leader of Richarda, so it's not much different from life in the castle.

However, when I got up, Rieselaer and Brünhild have already finished dressing and are in the room. Although I want to get up early when everyone is awake when I am awake, I want to get up early, but when I get up early, who takes care of me, because the servant must get up earlier, I need my own weight It is.

Breakfast is supposed to be taken in the dining room. After finishing changing clothes, not only Brunhild and Rieselator, but also escort knights, each side moves together to the dining room together. It seems that a forerunner is doing, and when I came down to the second floor with a coward beast Cornelius older brothers were waiting.

"Good morning, Rosemain"

The aides of the students are supposed to take meals with me, and we will leave the waiters to each side. When the lecture begins, it seems that it is difficult to shift the time in a timely manner and eat. In other words, I will be serving Ricarda and eating.

When I finish breakfast, I got the data when I was crushed by the priest, and moved to a multipurpose hall. First-year student council meeting begins.

"There is Richarda as a side, and since Philine is an apprentice civilian apprentice, leave the escort knight alone, if there is a strategy conference for the other person, please move on to that side"

"The guard is too diluted, Rosemain sama"

Brother Cornelius and Villefried gathered their eyebrows together.

"In the dormitory it's okay, Cornelius. Because Mr. Ferdinand gave us a lot of talismans"

"Amulet?"

"It is a dangerous magical tool that makes you feel sorry for the attacking opponent"

If I do not have a Stap, I can not attack attacks like attacks unless I cast prayers or skip your reasons to anger. When talking about two years ago at the time of campaign it told the chief priest that he could not do anything by himself, the chief priest supplemented magical powers arbitrarily by attaching themselves to their hands, and as soon as they received a raid You gave me a magical tool to activate.

"It is told that we should never tell how they are wearing and how they are wearing because we are in embarrassment if measures are to be devised, but it is a very magical instrument that seems to be very Ferdinand-like "

My Cornelius brother and Villefried got together to distort the expression in the word "very magical instrument like Ferdinand". I wonder what happened between the chief priest while I was asleep.

"... OK. OK, let's leave Rosemain's escort to Leonore."

"No, Cornelius. Please escort me by all means"

Angelica goes forward with a motivated smile. Brother Cornelius also faced Angelica with a smiling face with a spirit.

"The measure against Angelica is the key to the victory of the Knight Apprentice team, a study meeting at the Meeting Council, neither Angelica would start if not both?"

Angelica is being pulled as he smiles with the smile Cornelius elder brother. Both of them are growing in appearance, but what you do as 'Angelica's scorers' does not change at all.

I gazed at Yudit who was seeing dragged angelica with a stunning face, laughing, smiling.

"Youudit, you may also be coming, we have a second grade talking on the table there."

"Yes, I am going."

Maybe I suddenly broke my illusions to Angelica that Yudit had. Though it is poor, wounds must be shallow if you know the reality as soon as possible. Just a bit hard to study, Angelica's strength is genuine.

"Is Leonore OK even if I do not study?"

"I am not worried, I have already got the data from Cornelius and already have eyes about the fourth grade studies."

"Well, Leonore is excellent."

I remembered the figure of Damuel who was struggling with Angelica, and when I murmured, Leonore laughed like a trouble.

"Rosemain asked from Cornelius that it was the content I remembered two years ago, but ..."

"To teach Angelica, we just put together the materials together with Damuel, I did not remember it completely, I forgot it anymore."

"Also such humility, Rosemain is modest, is not it?"

... No, it is not a humble fact, but it is a fact.

Certainly there are many things I learned as "Angelica's scorers", but I already forgot about Pokopotto. We will not go into the topic of the tea ceremony, such as how the knights fight and tactics involving magic, so do not worry where you forgot.

"Where is Wilfried's older brother struggled in the classroom?"

"History and geography. Other than that, Moritz has said that they can pass adequately within the range studied in the winter's children's room. In regard to everyone too, let's focus on history and geography, even a little practical skill I think that I must start training. "

Vilfried shows me the educational plan that he thought of himself. There are mathematics, theology, history, geography, schools of magic, but history and geography are marked largely.

"What kind of subjects do you have for practical skills? I, the school was beaten by Ferdinand, but I did not have time to do the actual skill."

"Practical skills related to magical relations performed by first-year students are handling and compression of magical powers, creation of cow animals, acquisition of Stap, who will be knocked down not to need practice? And dedication dance, are not you doing it normally? "

..... Oh, I actually seemed to be knocked down variously about practical skills as of two years ago. The chief priest, I am afraid.

"Have you reached the passing point? I think that donation dance is not done at all."

"Since the first grader can not be offered to the dedication dance, there is only a practice, and for any one, the passing score has been exceeded, it is impossible for the uncle to overlook it if it is not obvious."

As Wilfried says. The chief priest who was doing his best "for myself" can not overlook anything that is likely to fail.

"Then, until all three bells ring, everyone studies about history and geography, after that I will start practicing fespiel."

While teaching with me at Wilfried, I will teach history and geography. Some of the senior aristocrats have already been taught.

Although it is within the range of expectation, lower class aristocrats do not seem to be blessed with good teachers, knowledge difference is intense with respect to history and geography which are not taught in the winter's children's room. Phyllene with no brother 's sister seems to be particularly tough.

"First let's start with a rough history flow"

"Yeah, the first part of the foundation has the same parts as the scripture picture book, and it will be easy to remember a little."

The first grade team has the smallest number of people. Only the first grade team has less than 10 people. That is why I'd like to aim for victory with the speed of passing all.

"Oh, well, this year's students are keen to study hard"

"Hirschle teacher"

Despite being a dormitory superintendent, the job as a teacher seems to be busy, so Hill sur was not visible in the dormitory so much that he entered the multipurpose hall and rounded his eyes.

It would be surprising if everyone gathered in the multipurpose hall, divided for each team, and devising exam preparation. I have not started lecturing yet, because it is not a crisis at the end of the school year.

"I will be busy with studying, but please pay attention to this, tomorrow's promotion ceremony will be held in the auditorium for 3 bells, then there will be a social gathering for lunch. This year's number in Ehrenfest is 13 Please do act with that in mind. I want to advance my research by the beginning of lecture, so I am in the main building. To avoid causing problem behavior that bothers my hands, Please manage your candidate firmly. "

Hill sur leaves quickly as soon as it told office affairs only. Wishing to prioritize my research rather than management of a dormitory is a teacher that the chief director is still contacting, as expected. It must be a mad scientist colleague.

"You're a strange teacher,"

An evacuation knight named by Wilfriit who refrains at the misunderstanding of Vilfried nods.

"Yes, Mr. Hirschle has changed a bit, but until now I have only seen it when I open the keys of the dormitory room at the beginning of the House of Peers and when closing the keys at the end Even so, it is those who are showing in attention to the candidate lords. As long as I am aware, because I was finished with Aldonants, such as administrative contacts "

Last year, senior students informed that all freshmen gathered together by Aldonans, after which Ordonants for the office contact came back. When Wilfried heard the story, he blushed eyebrows.

"That hill suru gave us a knee from the first meeting and I did not say hello, is not it strange not only as a teacher, but also as an Ehrenfest nobleman?"

"No, Mr. Hirschle is not a nobleman of Ehrenfest, it is a nobleman in the center because it is transferred to the center, and since the teacher is in a position higher than the students on the premises in the aristocratic center, students I do not think there is any teacher who kneels at him. "

".....Is it so"

For the time being, we confirmed the scope of the lecture in a day and identified the weak parts of each person. It will strengthen it based on that.

"When I looked at the results of the day today, it seems that Fespiel 's practice in the winter' s children 's room has been effective, in which case it will not be difficult for lower level aristocrats .... If that is the case, Is not it better to add geography and history to studying in the children's room? "

"Well, for that I think that we must create a picture book that can be used as a teaching material - in no condition Mr. Moritz is serious."

When I gripped the fist and tried to make a book for children, Wilfried lightly raised his hand and stopped me.

"Wait, Rosemain. If you make teaching materials, make it from the second year student reference book so that we will be advantageous next year"

I am planning to let everyone study this way next year anyway. Wilfried smiled smartly.

That's right. Even though I am in the library, I need an environment that can achieve results with mutual cooperation, so I am going to do the same next year if I do it well.

"I understand. Let's make it from the second grade."

"Well"

And after dinner we have a bath, but tomorrow we have a promotion ceremony and a social gathering, so we will use Lincian to carefully clean our hair. When asking for Lintian 's preparation, Brunhild looked bright.

"This is really wonderful, is not it Rosemain made this too?"

"Well, I asked Gilberta Shokai to make it."

Enjoying the scent of the new work of Lincian, which Brunhild is having, I breathe a heartfelt sorrow. It was said that Brunhild was also a favorite of Lincian.

According to Brunhild, female fashion and beauty etc seems to be different. Unlike two years ago, it seems that women of senior aristocrats mostly use Lincian regardless of factions.

"If the girls at Ehrenfest, if everyone is beautifying their hair, will not they make a casual fashion episode?"

"I think that it is rare for this gloss to appear, it will not notice a gentleman who is not interested, but if it is a woman you should keep an eye on me."

"Let's divide little by little into the children who do not have Lincyan on the third floor and we will clean up tomorrow and attend the advancement ceremony."

As I and Bruhn Hilde were talking, the Rizerator who was preparing the bath with Richard came to call.

"I will go to divide the Lincian and Rosemain will go to the bath."

Because the children of the other rooms are shared with the bath, there are a few Lincshans really necessary. It seems that the Risaizer brings Lincian and tells us how to use it. It is a child who notices well.

"It may be good to put all your hair ornaments next year for everyone. The colors are aligned to the hair of each hair, aligned in shape."

By deciding to send out fashion little by little, Brünhild was already thinking until next year.

"It's nice, but can we buy the same thing as a lower aristocrat?"

"... It is difficult to arrange shapes, but it's bad for you to get the colors together. The color of your hair is different from each other, so the color that suits you is different"

"Let's think about it by next year"

When Brühnhild and Richarda helped me out and took a bath, the Rizera had already come back. While listening to the fruit juice prepared by the riser, listen to the reaction that gave Lynxian.

"The girls I've never used were curiously using Lincian."

"You can use Lisera and Philiane, so please make it clean"

"I am sorry"

I was studying with Philihine until the time I went to bed after bathing. While exactly teaching Philiane to study, as Wilfried told me, I gathered a reference book for the second grade. A reference book for everyone to study is absolutely necessary next year.

And the next day.

Men are surprised at the breakfast table and eyes are rounded up to the fact that all the girls 'students' hair is becoming slippery all over the night. I laughed at Wilfried, "What on earth are you thinking about?"

"It is a casual argument of fashion outgoing"

"I do not care crazy, I'm saying so much!"

"Since I do not have any plans to do so at the moment, I think that it is casually disagreeable, but next year we are planning to put together a hair ornament of your choice."

For individuals, I would like to start sending books from selling books, but when I think about raising grades, I feel like keeping it a bit more secret. I would like to sell a book if the activity of the Erienfest's performance improvement committee goes well on track.

It is better to go out fashionable from Ehrenfest little by little from beauty, clothing and gastronomy. As Lincyan was accepted by women regardless of factions, this field must be easy to accept.

"It's fine if you are thinking about it all the time, but do not do much flashy things, even though it's noticeable by its appearance."

".....Yes"

After breakfast, you have to head to the auditorium by 3 bells, so arrange your grooming, properly put on your cloak and brooch to make it look like you can leave the dormitory. Without cloak and brooch it seems that we can not go back to the dorm.

"Rosemain, social gathering is basically done for each class because of the large number of people, please select three escort knights, one civil servant and one side member from among the aides"

For each class, a social gathering means that me and Wilfried will visit a social gathering with lords candidates and royalty. It is safe to consolidate it with senior students who know the way in advanced aristocrats and lords as much as possible.

"Then the escort knights are Angelica, Cornelius and Leonore, the civilian is Hartmut and the side goes with Brunhild."

"Certainly yes"

I finished preparing as usual I entered the beast.

When arriving at the entrance hall of the dormitory, it is said to Cornelius elder brother to get off the cud beast. It seems that it is not permitted to ride a beast in the building of the House of Peers. The House of Lords is a very large site, so it seems that there is no problem for riding outside.

"If a freshman who just enrolled is on an unfamiliar shaped beast, it will be prominent."

"Oh yeah, Rosemain has a young appearance, but it would be better for him not to distinguish himself any more."

"But, if the distance to the auditorium is too long, can not I walk very much?"

I think that it will be noticeable that being carried away by being carried by one's side and carrying it.

"It will not be a problem as it is close to the lecture hall, so it will be fine as the lecture is initially done at the auditorium or in the large classroom close to the auditorium. If it is impossible to do so, Haltmuth or I will carry Rosemain. It's less conspicuous than a coward beast. "

Everyone assembled in the entrance hall. Even if the design of the costume is different, the sense of unity is given as it is because the cloak that is based on black has a matching cloak and brooch.

I opened the entrance door of the dormitory and I started walking with the surroundings surrounded by my aides.

The other side of the entrance door was not outside, it was like a corridor. Looking around, there is a door a little away from where the children with light blue cloak are coming out.

"This 13 door, this is the door to the Ehrenfest dormitory, please be careful not to make a mistake. It will not open doors of other territories and will be forgiven by mistake once, but open too many times. If you do, you may be harassed or considered as an attack and be caught. "

In the words of senior students, freshman nods with subtle faces. This number 13 is the turnout from last year's results and the influence of the territory, it changes each year, he seems to be closely involved in life in the lords.

"With regard to the order of greetings and placement of seats, this ranking will say things."

While walking in the corridor, the number of people coming out of the door has also increased. Every time I walk, the door number gets smaller. And it seems that we have to give way to small number of students, and they are kept waiting until all of them come out of the door.

..... The cloak here is deep green.

About 2,000 students walked through the corridor and gathered in the auditorium. There are not 70 Ehrenfest in the middle tier near the small school in all grade, but the large territory has more people and there are also more than 150 people. Conversely, there seems to be a place where 50 people are not present in the smallest place.

Stand at the designated place and wait for the advancement formula to begin. I am buried in the surrounding aides, so it is inconspicuous, and I can not see the surroundings except the cloak of Ehrenfest. Perhaps, from the upper side, it must be clearly distinguished in color.

"This year also a place to learn about children who will be responsible for the future of Jürgen Schmidt was held, so as to be recognized as a nobleman of Jurgen Schmidt, so as not to neglect efforts to increase the influence of each belonging territory"

It is likely that the same thing is being said each year. Senior students are getting fed up.

After the word celebrating promotion, the notes on lecture etc were stated this time. It seems that acoustic magic tools are used, and I can not see anything like a teacher who is stating variously, but only the voice sounds firmly.

Since it is a common lecture during the first grade and the second grade, it seems to be done collectively at this auditorium. First graders hold lecture using the auditorium in the morning, another classroom and teacher is attached for each status from the afternoon, they are going to practice. The lower grade passed the exam and the number of people gradually decreased, so it said that the classroom would change if it decreased.

Advancement ceremonies end with explanations from teachers. The important thing is that it is a social gathering after this. It is a place to interact with the students in the remaining territory. It is the same as going out to society. Failure is not permitted.

"From now on, you will be moving to the venue of each social gathering party, but as much as possible to act with the people in the area firmly act, so please visit the senior students at all the venues for freshmen. Because I do not know, I will obey what the senior students say. "

"Yes"

Replying to the words of the highest grade students, they divided into lower noblemen, intermediate aristocrats, senior aristocrats, and neighborhood candidates. It seems that it is in descending order from the auditorium, and leaves from the group of large numbers.

When we left the auditorium, we were divided into each venue by the leadership of senior students. It seems that it is the small hall that the candidate lords head for.

"From the 13th place Ehrenfest, Wilfried-sama and Rosemain san went"

Along with the voice of a civilian who stands in front of the door, we were passed through to a room called a small hall. There is a slightly bigger table in the front, and if you see it there is only a special one, you know that it is the royal family that is sitting.

From here I can not see the face well, but surely, the fifth prince who won the political change crowned, the second prince enrolled as the highest grade student, the name should have been Anastasiusu .....

Because the period of enrollment will not overlap for only one year, it will be unlikely to be involved. The priest chief told that it would be fine if only remember the name.

..... The chief priest says simply by name, but the names of royalty and aristocrat are all too long to remember! Already!

When complaining about in the mind, looking around the hall, tables of four people were prepared at equal intervals. Looking at the place where the seat is buried from the front, this is also in order.

"... What the heck is that small?"

"Your child seems to get lost."

Voices like curious eyes and fun concentrated towards me. I can see that Wilfried who stands next to me bitterly chews the back teeth. All that is in this is a person who has a position higher than us. I can not complain. It is an opponent who has to stand in silence.

"Is not he in the wrong place to come?"

I can hear such a ridiculous word, I head to my table. Brünnhild drew the chair and I sat there. A civil servant is sitting next to him, and a side street and an escort standing behind me. The other tables are the same.

"Mr. Rosemain, please go here, it will be necessary at the time of greeting"

When I arrived, Hartmutt said so with a loud voice that I heard only by me, gently gave me the folded paper. If you drop your line of sight, you can see that it is a cheat sheet that contains the order of the territory of this year, the color of the cloak, and the name of the lords.

I knew the color of the cloak and the name of the territory, but I did not know the exact order of this year's territory and I did not know the name of the freshmen's lord candidate in this place and I was honestly saved.

"I am saved, Hartmut"

"After this, Rosemain will greet the royal family, greet himself to the upper territory, and the lower rank will come to greet you, if you look at the people you do earlier, You will understand. "

When all the landlord candidates are complete, the door is closed. And greetings began.

Candidate candidate of the large territory Klassenburg, which is considered to have the most influence, stands up, greets the royal family with an aides. When that is over, I arrive at my seat.

Next up was Dunkel Ferger in the Large Domain. They greeted the royalty and the lords of Klostenburg and returned to their own seats.

"..... Ahrensbach is the sixth largest territory, is it?

"Influence has fallen in the last few years, although it seems to be hard to do inside, it is hard to get information."

Hartmut muttered so. It seems that it is quite difficult for subordinates to explore the superior situation.

Aleandsbach's wisty cloak cloak began to move. It was a fluffy blond girl who was at the forefront. Is that the last daughter of Georgin? I gently gaze at the cheat sheet that Hartmut delivered.

... .... Dietlinde.

Dietlinde who finished greeting to the royal family turned this direction. The atmosphere is different because it is blond, but its facial features and eyes are very similar to georgine.

I felt that my eyes met for a moment.

Chapter 287: Royalty and other aristocracy

When there are multiple lords for candidates in the same territory, we head for a greeting at the same time. The senior aristocrat of the highest grade greets greetings on behalf of the territory without candidate lord.

While I was reading the unwritten law while watching the surroundings greeting, the order of Ehrenfest came. I get Brunhild from the chair and Vilfriit stands up.

"Let's get it down from the chair ..."

The scum and ridicule leaked from the surroundings.

Wilfried's face stiffens to the words which are exchanged in such a small voice as to reach us. When I saw a hard expression and a tightly held fist, I heard that the words of the girls who are coming and going around in the area are damaging Wilfried more than me.

..... Because Virfriit's older brother is said to be unfamiliar.

I have been told that it is small, small since the commoner era, and there are many things that I wanted to say to the aristocrat who wore a status to the shrine. In addition, I do not think anything, even if I am a close friend, I was told a stranger to be messed up by strangers. However, Wilfried does not seem to be.

"Wilfried brother, if I am an unknown person, no matter what you say, I have plenty of friends."

Taking Villefried 's tightly held hand and saying it was small, Wilfried started and Akari gently nodded.

"... ... That's right, let's go, Rosemain"

Together with my walking speed, I accompany the aides and go straight to the seat of the royal family.

Regardless of what you say, keep in mind, dignifiedly, do not forget a smiling smile, never go down. This is souring my mouth and keeping being told after I came to see a nobleman. Again, I moved my legs with a smile as I was told.

When walking to the front of the royal seat in front of you, you kneel and cross both hands in front of your chest. Then, you have to hang your neck and give a greeting for the first time.

It was a beautiful prince of gray eyes on luxurious gold hair that overwhelmed us while nodding. If I misunderstood somehow, "If the prince is ugly, it is disappointing if you are disgusting," he asked from the chief priest, "Because most beautiful people make a wife, those with a high rank are many beautiful people", but indeed they appear nodding I am doing.

"Please forgive me for praying for blessings to a rare encounter that has received rigorous screening by Prince Anastigius, the god of life, Avilibe"
"forgive"

I and Mr. Villefried with permission spells magical power on the ring and gives blessings. I devoted myself a little bit carefully so as not to overdo it.

Good.

Villefried's greetings continued as he was relieved with his inner heart to be given the blessing of a size that is not different from Wilfried.

"I am seeing you at the beginning, Prince Anastigius, from Ehrenfest, Wilfried and Rosemain went to this place to learn the way as a nobleman suitable for Jürgen Schmidt.

Anastasezus who heard our greetings raised a voice saying "Lift up your face." When I slowly raised my face I found out that I narrowed my eyes and looked down over me. Looking at from the top to the bottom, Anastasisusu sounds "fung" and a nose.

"Did you say Rosemain? Rumors that that is the saint of Ehrenfest, rare beauty and intelligence, rich magical power enough to be brought up as a foster of the lords, and possessed a loving heart Was it ... but where? "

..... I'd like to hear what happened to such a time!

"Rumor is quite easily distorted for convenience and convenience. I got such a rumor for the first time, I heard it for the first time, mixed with rumors of another person, funny and exaggeratingly Are there many people? "

If such rumors were flowing among aristocrats, I think that it is natural to look at my figure and make me laugh. Whatever you think, it's an excessive compliment for young children who finished the baptismal ceremony.

Was it that I felt shed lightly, was not it interesting, Anastigius narrowed my eyes.

"Ah ... .... Ehrenfest is quite astonished that it is necessary to make a child with a little magical power to be a saint."

"That's right, Anastaseuusu"

As might be expected the Prince, wisely came, and raised it appropriately, I laugh with smile.

"Wow?"

"As you already know, Ehrenfest is an insecure territory that has nothing special to see, even if you tailor a child like me to a saint she is short of magical power so that she must adopt her as a adopted daughter It is enough to hold in my heart the wishes that do not come true, whether the flowers I dedicated to God will not return to this hand. "

..... Although it is the territory of the underlying area that is still in pain, it is because of your family's extraordinary political change caused by the magical power gathered around us and becoming more difficult. Even just the priests who took them to the central temple, please return them.

While spitting such poison in my mind, I was in trouble, I put my hands on my cheeks and tilted my head and head.

As we gratefully purged the center and raked away the lacking aristocrats and priests from the rural areas, it seems that the operation has been continued without any problems, but the region taken was serious. When I get ridiculed by the original crowd who got into confusion about various territories, I am a little angry.

"It is said that he became a saintly gathering to compile the territory, but when the other became a saint, it seems that Ehrenfest is gathered separately, is not it because he was hit by a nobleman of his own country? "

"Well, when power goes on, there is a big difference and small differences, but confusion happens, I was fortunate to have done with only my sacrifice"

"Hmm"

Anastasis was lightly raised his eyebrow, and waved his hand to be uninteresting. Me and Wilfriit stood up to the sign "going down" and left the spot.

... ... It ended safely. I'm glad that was good.

However, the Prince alone did not end the greeting. Rather, the future is real. I decided to spirit and go to greetings.

The 1st and 5th big territory and the middle territory did not seem to have put Ehrenfest on the tooth really, only blessing was done without saying anything in particular, and it ended without much exchange of words.

Then I headed to greetings to Arens Bach 6th. Dietlinde who looked like Georgine gently smiled and greeted me.

"Please forgive me for praying blessings for a rare encounter that has received the rigorous screening of Dietlinde, the god of life, Avilibe"

"I will forgive you."

When I and Wilfried gave blessing with magical power to the ring, Dietlinde smiled with Nicole.

"I am glad to see you, Villefried. You two years ago invited my mother to Ehrenfest? Because I would accompany you to go to Ehrenfest I was looking forward to it very much. "

There is little opportunity for you to see relatives of other territory in the lord's child. And Dietlinde has an innocent smile.

"But, was Rosemain stopped heading for Ehrenfest as it fell asleep as a result of the raid, I regrettably missed it, I am delighted to see you at the lords. Please get along. "

"Nice to meet you, too"

When Wilfried answered with a sociable smile, Dietlinde also made a smile.

"Wilfried, I do not have to be like any other man behaving like that. I am a fourth grader, so please depend on me anytime."

When I answer with Wilfried, Dietlinde puts his hand on his cheek and tilts his little head.

"Hey, Wilfried. I heard that you have been poisoned and slept in Jureve, there are things that do not fit in with your parents medicine. I have to sleep for two years is very rare, Is there no abnormality in your body? "

Dietlinde worriedly told him that he would have been seriously tough, but his eyes are not directed to me.

"I do not have to worry about Rosemain, I'm recovering to such an extent that I can come to the House of Peers, I am delighted by Dieter Linde's kind words."

"Thank you very much for your concern, Dear Linde, I am accustomed to sleeping because it is not originally robust in nature, so it's all right now."

"Well then, can you go to Ehrenfest this summer and I'd like to get along better with Wilfried?"

I noticed that smiles facing Wilfried never turned to me, I instinctively brought my eyebrows.

..... The attitude is somewhat outrageous, but what is the aim?

However, I only hope that I do not like it, but there is a possibility that there is something aim. And I do not know how much Dietlinde knows.

"In order to put aristocracy of another territory, first I need permission from Aub Ehrenfest, so I can not reply with anything by my own existence"

"Well, I will expect that Wilfried has a thank you"

My presence is almost ignored, the greeting with Ahrensbach is over and I will head to the next. While rising quietly, I think.

... .. It seems that Prince also knew that I fell down when I received a raid by a self-senior aristocrat, but where is the information flowing?

Is it a well-known fact that I fell asleep in aristocratic society? Or perhaps the word of Dietrinde is whether it is a sense of detention that you know anything about Ehrenfest?

I do not know at all I decided not to give unnecessary information, I asked everyone whatever asked to ask all questions to flow with ambiguous smile.

The small and medium-sized territory of the 7th to 12th is the territory where the ranking is fiercely competing with Ehrenfest. As the position may change over the course of a year, the hit is the most intense, and the story is hot in many places.

Everyone says that everyone says they did not think that it is this kind of child rumored to be the saint of Ehrenfest. However, in the shadows of this ridicule, there seemed to be a fear that the rank was overturned, and I was able to see the relief for not being a saint like me being rumored.

"Because I am sick, I can not push yourself."

"Let's get together and work hard"

"I am glad to see you as such opponent"

With these three, I got ridiculed and ended my greetings.

I do not know how much influence the order change will have, but I do not know yet, but if you spit out a bitter word so far, I will want to try hard on the contrary to raise the ranking.

..... Ehrenfest grading committee activities, do your best.

When we finish greeting, next time you will receive greetings from those below you. It seems that those who are close in ranking are still hostile to this place. There was a candidate for the lord of Fleebeel Tur on the west side in that.

The ranking of Fröbel Tak this year is 15th place. It will be the lowest as the middle territory. Before I got to sleep I was lost by political change and it was supposed to rebuild my territory. I have been helping to fill the small sacred cup of Frabel Tak for two years. Yet, it seems that I still have trouble rebuilding the territory to be still 15th.

..... It may be because I refused to fill the other sacred cups of other territory.

For the adoptive father who underwrites every year, I rejected it in the winter three years ago, "This is the last. I will not do it again."

Besides, I got to sleep at Jereve. It is unlikely that he had taken over Villefriit and Charlotte and had to take over the territories of direct control and underwrote the Holy Grail of another territory. Even if I underwrite it, I will not have enough capacity. Fleevelt Tak who has become unable to rely on Ehrenfest for magical power must have dropped further in the past two years.

"Please forgive me for praying for blessings to a rare encounter that has received rigorous screening by Villefriit, Rosemain God of the Life of Avilibe."

"I will forgive you."

"It is Ruediger of Fleebel Turk and I am enrolled in the fifth grader. At this way, my parents are brothers and sisters, so I feel a connection of Very Fleet and a very strong blood."

It was Ludiger who kneeled and blessed. Just as the principal says that the connection of the blood is dense, the gaze resembles Wilfried very much. Hair color is similar to Wilfried, eye color is the same indigo as Charlotte. If Wilfried and Rudiger were lined up, they really looked like brothers.

"I hope I can build a close relationship like our parents."

"Hello, I beg you to do my best."

After a long greeting, lunch was brought. What I eat with me is Hartmut and Elder Cornelius and Leonore. Brunhild is serving my servant and Angelica will escort.

I smoked a cigarette and took a bite. It is an ordinary noble food. As Ehrenfest was a country house, I thought that the central meal was more sophisticated and tasty, but once there is a lord conference once a year, if there is such an exchange at the aristocratic center, culture like meals can be taken in as it is Maybe. There was no taste like noteworthy.

However, there were foods I had not seen in Ehrenfest, so I would like to see various ingredients. It is difficult for me to go to the food cabinet, so I will not have the opportunity to see it.

"..... The taste is normal"

"I thought that there was no more delicious food until some years ago."

Hartmut bitter smile. It seems that the dorm's meals have changed three years ago and then the taste improves every year. It would be great that chefs are getting used to new cooking methods.

"I can not afford to talk much about cooking,"

After that, we talked about today 's greetings, and received attention from Hartmut that the attitude that Sarali shed was good. In fact there are many things I'd like to think or ask about relationships with other territories, but I can not talk here. It will be a story after returning to the dormitory.

"Let's keep socializing after meal safely in this condition. This year I will pass as it is sick and weak, so please do not move around Rosemain sitting here, because I turn around to collect information."

"I understand, I'd like to ask Hartmut."

While having a meal while doing such a meal, desserts were brought. To the Galette with jute lettebee, it looks pretty lovely little sugar confection of candy.

It looks glittering and glittering, it was served pretty neatly. There is neither Fugo nor Ella a sense of such a serve. I want to take it as it is and show it for study.

"It is inconvenient to break down,"

As I said that, I ate a bite of a red jammed gullet. At the next moment, I will make my eyes black and white with too much shock, I lose my words. It was a heinous sweetness.

I dropped out of dessert with two mouths to the sweetness that it is better to say that expensive sugar was used a lot for the time being.

... .... Wow, my mouth will feel grin.

When I placed a cutlery and told a drink, the surroundings also said, "First bite or two mouths are delicious," but they mimicked and had similar faces. Everything is the best. I softly got a cup down and I relieved.

"Is my recipe book popular in the middle? It might be difficult if I think it delicious."

"I think that it will become popular, I think it will take quite a long time until the chef has the technology and the taste improves. The chef of our house seems to have had a hard time"

In Cornelius' s words, I nodded slowly. As soon as the recipe has flowed, the technology will not catch up. Perhaps, until then, whichever tea ceremony you invite you, you have to fight against such an evil sweetness?

..... The tea ceremony became even more scary.

"Although it is good to spread recipe books in the middle, I think that it is better to show Rosemain-sama recipes at once, rather than showing them all at once. In addition to recipe books, Rosemain's hands Is there any recipe or information that you can say? "

As Hartmut tried me, I lightly raised my eyebrows. I placed the cutlery once, wiped out my mouth, then smiled and answered.

"Of course, information that can be taken out of the territory, information that can be shown to the leaders of Ehrenfest, information that was conveyed only to the guardian, information that is held only by me ..... I'm breaking apart. "

Hartmut made her eyes shine so as to be interesting.

"It's fun, so how do you plan to build a legendary saint?"

"..... Eh? There is no need to make such a legend as a saint, I want to be buried as a general student."

It is an atmosphere that the surroundings are "not a big deal, even if it is said to be a saint." I would like to live a peaceful and stable life as buried as a general student like this. I decided to stay in the library at the House of Lords.

But Hartmut who heard my hope narrows his eyes a little and raises the end of his lip. Although it looks calm, it turned out to be a smile with or without presence.

"Unfortunately it can not be done, because the existence of a saint must be indispensable to raise the influence of Ehrenfest"

"Hartmut?"

.....that? Is there something strange switch in it?

From there, Hartmut began talking about the encounter with the first saint legend.

It seems that Hartmut was brought to my baptismal ceremony after being brought to Othelier. Othier, the mother, pointed to me as a young baptismal crowd, "She will be my lord in the future."

Hartmut is said to be disappointed by her mother who will serve her daughter of the same senior nobility, even though he becomes a child of mind, a younger child than himself, and even the lords.

"However, Rosemain gave blessings to all the guests by returning the blessings of the baptismal expression. The blue light overflowing from the ring greatly pours down in the hall is the blessing of the scale that I see for the first time. It was the first time I was impressed and impressed. "

My blessing seems to have been engraved deeply in the heart of Hartmut. But that is the saint legend planned by the guardians. Hartmut is completely deceived.

"That was a conspiracy by my guardian, it was that I did not complain to the nobles but to adopt a female attorney, I am not a saint."

"It is not the only reason why I certified Rosemain as a saint."

Hartmut who heard from my mother about the situation of me acting to rehabilitate Wilfried in the autumn "I thought that it would be better to kick it off as it becomes a competitor to compete for the next generation as it became an adopted daughter" That's it. When I was an aide, I thought about how to get rid of Wilfried, saying advice to Othier.

But to Othier, "Rosemain does not want to do that, he is the only mind to raise everyone, it is more effective to raise Rosemain as a saint while raising everyone It seems that it was dismissed as "It is refused.

"Then, I thought how to make a legendary saint is effective, and as a result I could not think of going beyond Ferdinand's thought."

Meanwhile, in the winter announcement I have caused a rarity that gives God blessings while dedicating music. It was a blessing that I was surprised and stopped in a hurry but it seems that it looked different around me.

"The light of blessing that fades away from finger piercing fingers was really beautiful. The blessing for Leiden Shaft spread to the hall while slowly flowing towards the ceiling, did not it?"

Is that so? At that time, "I did it, I do it, I do not know what to do" and my head is full, I do not remember at all.

There are only surprises that are blessed arbitrarily and memories that have been forcibly exiled by the chief priest.

"At that time I was convinced that Rosemain's way to go beyond the plan of Ferdinand would be a saint, and I would like to acknowledge Rosemain as a saint around him."

I was told that I would not spare no efforts to do that, I pulled my cheek up, hikiki. I thought that Hartmut was common sense Justocx, but it seems that it was not the case. As Hartmut is talented enough, I do not know how much my saint legend will accelerate.

..... I seem to have somehow gotten away from me.

Chapter 288: The treatment of arithmetic / theology / magical power

Lecture starts from tomorrow. That said, it is said that the first time is orientation, and there are explanations about lectures and facilities for new students.

I asked my aides by dinner.

"Which bell does the lecture begin with?"

"The number of times the bell rings changes at the aristocrat on the day of the lecture, half of the bells ring between the two bells and the three bells, which is a signal to start the lecture."

Breakfast begins with 2 bells, morning lecture begins with 2 and half bells. And as the 3 bells rings, the subject of the lecture changes, and the subject will change with the 3 and half bells.

Four bells return to the dormitory for lunch and be the start of the afternoon lecture with 4 and half bells. Lecture till 6 bells, then dinner. The bell of 7 is locking time, the entrance door of the dormitory is closed.

"In other words, after lunch, is not it a free time up to the 4 and half bells, I, the lunch break is in the library ..."

"It's not free time, Rosemain, it's time to prepare for the afternoon lecture."

Brother Cornelius deepened his smile and saw me. I also deepen my smile and fight back. The libraries during lunch break have been decided from the Reyno period that it is an indispensable reading time for school life.

..... It is impossible to have no reading time even though there is a lunch break with the library!

"Since we prepare for the whole day before departure in the morning, to the library ...
...."

"Is useless"

"Going over ..."

... ... I will not lose! I will never give up until I win the reading time!

"Please let me go to the library! I will go back when the afternoon lecture bell rings"
"So, you are saying it's no good, at the point where the bell rang, Rosemain is not hearing anything, will not you come back?"

I was hit by a painful place. That possibility is very high. The Lian neogene was also being driven out of the library by the librarian teacher as well as the bell.

"But I, I would like to deepen friendship with the book even a little. Even at just what kind of books are in the library, it's okay to slow down lunch,

"It's not good, it's not good for health, and if Rosemain lacks lunch, we can not eat all our aides."

"Well, that ... .. My library is ... .."

In the lords I go to the library, it is decided within me. Still, Brother Cornelius is terrible to not let him head to the library.

Wow, it was a tearful eyes while staring at Cornelius elder brother, the sighs of Wilfriit who had eaten dinner at the next table broke between my brother Cornelius and came in.

"Rosemain, keep it around that side, because it looks like a young girl, you can only look as if the child is really getting into it when you knocking like that"

.....Huh? I am a useless child! Is it?

Shocked by Wilfried's point, I looked around. Certainly, I was rejected many times by my 14 year old Cornelius brother, and I was told that it was not good, but I can not accept it, I am a 6 to 7 year old child, It is.

"Because Rosemain is young in appearance, if the behavior is more careful than ourselves, we should not give a gap to attach to others."

"... .... Yes, I give up for lunch and I go on a daily basis after school."

I nodded while I was going down with shoby. Wilfried is growing in two years, and indeed I have become my sister. Two years in children are big.

"You successfully stopped the princess, Vilfriet Baby-sama"

While Richard smiled and praised Wilfried, I smiled and kneeled before me.

"And then, although we are entering the Princess' s library, we have ordered from Ferdinand that the ban is prohibited until all exams are passed, so that we can return to the dedication ceremony, It is as if to pass the passing of the top priority. "

"No ... .."

..... Kuh! Shinto priest long!

How far will my library withdrawal plan be disturbed? My greatest enemy may be the chief priest.

"If you want to go to the library, you have to pass all the exams, Princess"

"Okay, you ought to pass the exam?"

I cheeked up and looked at Ricarda, Wilfried shook his head.

"Not only Rosemain, but all first-year students have to pass, it's in trouble to be left in the library and to abandon the activities of the grading committee, because that is a candidate for a lord."

"... OK, I understand. Let's go with all your power."

Uhhhhhh, and I will laugh and remember the schedule for tomorrow. And I looked around the first grade in the dining room.

"Tomorrow, tomorrow's lecture was briefing, arithmetic and theology, I heard that arithmetic and theology passed all the first day in arithmetic and theology last year and before, even those who experienced the winter room in the winter, that is, this year You ought to be able to pass all of them, I will not allow imitation like falling down. "

"Wait!"

Every time my eyes meet with me, everyone in the first year students correct their posture while doing barely. In a nice reply I was satisfied and nodded one.

"Practice in the afternoon is handling magical powers. As soon as you finish, immediately return to the dormitory and study to be able to pass the history, geography, magical examinations that will be held the next day. Let me reinforce each one, I will study the study of all of them. We will aim for everyone's passing. "

"If it is a pass for everyone!" Rosemain, is it sane? "

Villefried got up and started standing up, but what are you talking about now? If the library will be accepted until all of them pass, do not they have to pass all of them fastest?

"I should have said that I will go with all my power, my brother Wilfried, I will endure the library for everyone. Naturally, as much effort as I can withstand the library We will ask everyone. "

Hartmut smiled happily happily in the silence enough to hear the sounds of swallowing and spitting.

"It seems to be the beginning of a new saint and legend, is not it?"

Until dinner, until seven bells rang, the first year students studied history and geography. Some children have already played well, but although the lecture has not yet begun, the fight is not enough at all.

After the bell of 7, after going to bed after finishing the bath, as soon as 1 bell rings, I get up early and summarize weak point reinforcement materials for 5 people who are missing on the passing line.

"Rosemain, why are you awake?"

Riyarda who came to prepare the room before raising me raised astounded voice when I saw me heading to my study desk while in a sleepwear.

"I do not have time to test,"

"Princess, I have too much roots, it's not good for my health."

"I am not overfilling, compared to the preparatory period for Charlotte's baptismal ceremony, there are few things I do, etc. If you are only me you can pass it easily, but how to move others It's very difficult, is not it? "

How much can we pack in one day today? Mum, and I groan.

When I went to breakfast place with the materials I put together for each, they distributed to five people.

"Learn with this, I have written where I can not remember yet"

".....Yes"

I will hand over the materials one after another to the first year students with poor complexion. Wilfried who was watching it brought his eyebrows.

"Rosemain, do not drive too much for your library"

"why?"

"Why, hey ... .."

"Since I wanted to pursue and hunt down, I wanted to pass all of them fastest, so I thought that all first-year students passed the conditions, I should have said that I will start with full effort."

When I finish breakfast, I'm preparing to go to the lecture right away and study at the multipurpose hall.

"Phyline, the name of this king is different"

"I'm sorry"

"Rodrigue, here and there, the name of the territory is opposite"

"I will fix it soon."

As long as Sparta special training is carried out against five people of intermediate level and lower level, it becomes time of lecture immediately. While looking at the progress of the progress of the five people, I brought a light eyebrow. It does not go well well.

"... It's time .... Today's exams are not a problem, so be sure to pass."

"Yes!"

Five people beat the power as I felt when I called out.

"... .. Princess, is not it a bit too strict?"

"It's not a bit, Richarda, it's really tough for me to have to endure the library until all of the first-year students pass, but I will never give up, but I will not complain from anyone I will go to the library fastest. "

When I grabbed a fist and declared, I heard Vilfried's voice saying "everyone is sorry" in the corner.

I had Ricarda carry my study tools and headed to the same auditorium as yesterday. Aides came to the auditorium as well. After sending me, the escort will be replaced with a central soldier in front of the door.

"Never leave the auditorium until you come to pick me up."

Together with such attention, Richarda and other sideways leave. I entered the auditorium with everyone of the first year students and sat next to the seats with 13 numbers.

"I will start explaining from now. Listen carefully and use it for the life of the lords."

In a big auditorium, an explanation about the lecture at the House of Lords began. Every subject has a test on the first day, it seems that it is a form that only lecture is taken by those who did not pass.

"As for the first year students' lecture in the year, many people pass the first day, but it seems that it takes time to practice"

Common lectures are held in the auditorium at any grade level, but since the practical skills are different depending on the amount of magical power, they seem to be divided for each class. Each lecture was held at the place where a social gathering was held yesterday, and it seems that classroom will be changed if the number of people decreases.

And since there is an explanation about the library, since we have opened since today, we went to each library and taught that if we do the procedure we can use the library. As the administrator of the library named Sorangje, that is, when the librarian teacher was in the table, it was not possible to register, so it was told to go to registration after making an appointment.

I made an appointment, the reply came, then the same day .... It will take a long time before I can go to the library.

..... I have to make an appointment booking when I return to lunch.

In addition, it was also noted that candidates for lords and upper aristocrats in each region gave jobs to lower aristocrats because money is necessary to register in the library and lower class aristocrats often do not pay.

Let the lower aristocrat manuscripts of books not found in the library of the castle, so let's.

After that, it is a good thing to have exchanges with other territories, so it was said that to encourage socialization from now. Because it can not enter the dormitory of other territory, the room for tea ceremony is numbered and it seems that it is decided.

A long explanation took place, 3 bell rang. This is an arithmetic test. A brief time for teachers to change is a break.

"Then, please come from one of the territories, pick up a test form"

Rohderich, an apprentice civilian representative, went to pick it up. It looks like a parchment. Recently I only use vegetable paper, so I feel a little fresh.

"Please prepare the writing instrument. I will read the problem, please fill it in. The problem will be repeated three times. Please write down the question and think about the answer"

Writing utensils are magician's pens. It's a wonder pen that you can write with your own magical powers. Regardless of the note in the lecture, it is said that the examination of the House of Lords is to receive with this magic tool. It is said that when attached to the liquid which unravels the magical power, the letter disappears and the paper can be reused. It is quite interesting.

Put the paper that Rhodderich brought in front of me, everyone took out each pen. The examination was extremely easy. It is addition subtraction of two figures. The teacher ends up repeating the problem three times repeatedly. As I looked around, I found that everyone at Ehrenfest was working on the test with a comfortable expression. It seems that there will be no problem in this amount.

"What should I do when the exam is over?"

"Please wait quietly until all the people in the territory are over"

"What if you all are done?"

"..... If you submit the test paper for all the territories, you may study for the next examination, but please be quiet."

I instructed you to send the test paper next to me from the edge, gathered eight of Ehrenfest and handed it to the teacher. And I instructed in a loud voice so that I could start studying. Of course, I am studying history and geography of tomorrow. While everyone was desperately studying, I was thinking about the further exam.

"Ehrenfest, I passed all people"

It seems that the grading was done soon, and the voice of the teacher sounds in the auditorium. Voices reassuring that "I was good" and "I was doing" sounded better than the pleasure. And I immediately return my consciousness to studying subjects that remain anxious.

Ehrenfest passed all with excellent results, but since lectures of first graders are not very difficult, there are many who go through in the same way.

The next theological exam also finished the exam with Ehrenfest the first time and all passed the exam. It is not so rare to pass all but it seems that I got a little bit of attention as I finished both first. When 4 bells rang and Wilfried returned, Wilfried said that.

"Rosemain, on the other hand, did you not notice the surrounding eyes?"

"If you think about the exam of tomorrow, there is no room to look around, the important thing is that everyone will pass and go to the library as long as the grades are bad, if it is okay, Is not anything anything wrong? "

"No, it's not good, the surrounding reaction is important"

"Well, we will leave the surroundings confirmed by the older brother Vilfried, because my older brother seems to be able to pass all the subjects, please take care of the surroundings."

Leaving the job to Villefried, I looked at the lunch break for five studies, I wrote a letter to the library librarian Sorangju asking for an invitation and asked me to deliver it to Brünhild.

..... I hope your reply will arrive soon.

From the afternoon, the second grader uses the auditorium, so the first grade is divided according to the class and the practical skill is performed. Because there are few candidates for lords, it is supposed to be done with senior aristocrats.

Today it deals with magical power.

Hill suru stands in front of a large room and puts a wooden box in Don and a desk.

"Each manastone is contained here, take each mana stone in your hand and dye it with your own magical powers and let the magical powers flow towards the magic stone. If you dye it perfectly, show it to me After that, completely remove the magical power from the magic stone, if it can do, the task of today is the end. "

Incorporating and extracting your own magical powers is a necessary ability to do anything, and it is required to do it quickly and accurately.

"It is necessary to dye magic stones with magical powers also to make a beast to do next"

I go to take manastones in the order of the territory. I also took a magic stone in my hand. But when I got to the seat, there was no manastone in my hand. I only have a piece of golden powder.

"Oh, that?"

... ... Manastone has disappeared!

When I looked in my hand and blinked my eyes, Wilfried looked like a strange face.

"Did not you bring Rosemain, that man, Manastone?"

"No, I brought it, you should have grasped it in your hand, but ..."

After everyone went to take it, I picked up a magic stone side by side again. Now it gently places it on the palm of your hand and went back to your seat while watching for it not to disappear.

Staring still, before the return to the seat, the transparent manastone stained dull yellow in a blink of an eye. And once it glows small, it breaks shape and changes to golden sand.

I recognized this change. It is the same as when the former chief of the temple was aimed at a black magic stone and kept pouring magical power steadily. The size of the stone is also different, and the attributes are different between transparent and black magic stone, but the phenomena that have occurred must be the same.

But ... why? I have not done anything. Even though I never thought of putting up magical powers, the magic stone arbitrarily smells magical power and collapses.

I stared at the golden sand and I brought my eyebrows.

"Then, please turn on magical powers"

As Hirschle taps bread and lightly, everyone concentrates on manastones. Wilfried sitting next to me seemed to have gotten used to handling magical power considerably in the past two years, soon I could dye a magic stone.

"Okay, I can do it ... .. Rosemain, what about that manastone?"

"I failed"

I am at a loss as I stare at the golden sand in my hand.

"It is unusual for others to fail, how about if you get another manastone again?"

".....I agree"

Perhaps, I think it will be the same result. I have no meaning unless I do not plan to put on magical power, but I have to do something that sucks magical power arbitrarily. Wilfried goes to show Hilsur with a magical stone, unexpectedly, unlike me who wears eyebrows.

"It's very fast and well done, it's wonderful."

Wilfried, praised for Hill Sur, came back full of joy and immediately totally plucked the magical power to empty the magic stone.

"I never thought that I would finish my skill faster than Rosemain."

Wilfried was good at saying so, so he ran away with a brisk footstep, went out of the classroom first.

I struggle to restore the golden powder to the form of a magic stone by casting a bit of magical power and "sticking, pulling, rolling, rolling", but the golden powder does not change at all .

Because there are enough magical powers for senior aristocrats and lord lords candidates, everyone hardly struggles, dyes manastones, extracts magical powers, and finishes the practical skill.

"Lord candidate students stay in practical skills"

By the time such ridicule started to be aimed, there were only students remaining to count with one hand, soon I became one person.

"Rosemain, it is not so difficult to put magical power into a magic stone, is not it so difficult? I can not do this degree ... Oh, that's what it was. I forgot it completely."

Hill suru came to my seat with a sound amazed, but I saw the golden sand on my desk and gave a convincing voice.

"What do you mean, I'm not conscious of putting up magical powers, but I can not understand what to do with manic stones dyed and crumpled arbitrarily,"

"From Ferdinand, I heard that Rosemain has a magical tool for body strengthening, which is the cause, because it is wrapped in a large amount of magical power, so in this small manastone It will soon exceed the capacity. Please remove the magician only on the left. "

Hill suru said that while setting another magic stone in front of Koton and me. And, with a smile that looks nice and smiling, I gather golden sand and go.

"Oh, Hirshur, I'm sorry, I have broken the manastone ... ...."

"I do not mind, because the golden sand that the magical power becomes saturated is valuable material,"

... ... It is precious. So, what happened to the sand where Majika of the former temple collapsed? I wonder if the mud scientist's priest captain collected it?

While thinking about such a thing, remove the magician on the left arm as told by Hill Sur. In the next moment my left arm gained weight with the cuckoo, and it stopped moving freely. Lift by supporting with the right hand holding the magic tool.

"At first it only touches manastones, please check whether you can touch without magical power, please do not touch with the right hand with magical tool."

I do not move as easily as I move my left hand, I softly touch the Evil Stone. Being careful not to let magical power flow, I put my finger on a manastone.
Even if you leave it for a few seconds, the color of the magic stone will not change.

"It does not seem to be problematic, so please be magical"

"Yes!"

In order to dye manastones, I pour the magical power into my own will. That moment, Pang! And manastone flew away.

"Ha ha!"

"I suddenly put too much magical power in a large amount. Less few, polite ..."

"Yes"

As Hill sur was saying, he put the next manastone in front of me. While putting my heart back to the unexpected situation, I put the trembling fingertip on the manastone again.

.....Just a bit. It's just a bit.

I will shed magical power soon. As a consciousness of mine I was going for a while,
Pang! And again the Manastone flew.

"Wow!"

"It's redoing"

Pang!

"Wha!"

"Yes, next"

After all, I succeeded in dyeing manastones and returning magical powers after sacrificing ten magic stones.

"Since magical powers are so large as to be enough, it is up to Rosemain's future task to be able to fine-tune control, yes, please change this all into powder"

Hill sur was able to play and put scattered fragments of the magic stone roughly before me and said so. I reattach magician's bracelet on the left arm and touch the fragments. Then small pieces quickly turn into golden powder.

"Hirschle teacher, how can I get better control?"

"I think that it would be good if you ask a question to Feldinand who is your teacher, who also had too much magical power at the beginning of admission. At the way, students who challenge how much they can increase by learning magical compression. The person himself is compressing rapidly with a flat face, but the one who is looking at it is strange. "

..... Actually, even now I am taking medicine and restoring magical power and doing things that are dangerous with the danger of trying a new magical compression method.

"Mr. Ferdinand has not changed, I still do something similar - research fool."

"Well, I used to say that life in the aristocrat was better than in the castle in the past, but I feel relieved as it seems to have been stretched out."

Hirschle said narrowly with narrowing eyes on nostalgia.

Chapter 289: History · Geography · Music

As a result of doing a long story of Hill Sur and the chief priest a little while ago, it was asked whether the warrior could repair the magical tool he made in his school days. However, I declined it as "unfortunately" instantly. I am in trouble if you look at me the same as the chief priest.

"What is it from a letter from Ferdinand? That seems to know a lot of information being told to keep it secret ... .."

"It is a well-known fact that you have been attacked by self-domination and sleeping at Yuleve, according to the view of the exclusive doctor who sees the situation, you can not wake up until the winter, and enroll at the House of Lords There was a possibility that there was a possibility of being late. It was an application from Ehrenfest that I want you to submit materials on the standpoint of exclusive doctor and apply special measures at the Spring Lord's Conference "

A child of a nobleman who came 10 years enters the House of Lords and learns until adulthood. Otherwise, it can not be recognized as an official nobleman. That is why, there are special measures when there are circumstances and you can not enroll.

The special measures are to enroll not only in winter but throughout the year, and finish the process decided by adults. To do that, you need to have a teacher in the House of Lords, so the lords must apply in advance.

The most used was after political change. In order to compensate for the drastically reduced aristocracy, an apprenticeship of the blue priest who ordained and a blue maiden apprentice entered the House of Lords with special measures.

"The information I personally know about is that you are a guardian of you, that you are awkward to move your body as soon as you wake up, so that you are wearing magic tools, and that's because of the magic-related practice Because there is a possibility of struggling, I want what to pay attention to, and since I am thinking quite creative, I might get an interesting idea ... or that much? "

..... What is an interesting idea? It is appreciated by the priest chief, but I can not appreciate obediently.

"I have heard from students that suddenly the result of the lecture in Ehrenfest started to rise in the last few years, and I heard from the students that there are words of Ferdinand, so actually to make a magician I'm looking forward to a lecture since the second grade. "

It took me a long time to handle magical powers, waiting at Richarda waiting in the waiting room in front of the classroom and Elder Cornelius who had already finished the task were waiting with a very worried face.

"It was late, since Rosemain can not have trouble handling magical powers, I was extremely worried that something had happened."

Like Wilfried, Cornelius's brother seems to assume that I should not have trouble with the treatment of magical powers. I shook my head slowly.

"As I can move freely, because of the magical tool I attach with, the control of magical power is not bad."

In fact it is correct to have the magical power which I could solve with Jureve, but it is also a magical tool that failed to control today.

"Oh, are there such evils, since Rosemain is moving normally, I did not think so deeply, did you talk to Mr. Hill Sur, about the countermeasure?"

"It seems they can only get used to it"

"... Well, let's go back to the dormitory"

When returning from the door of 13 to the dormitory, angelica rushed over the blue eyes and came running around.

"Mr. Rosemain, let me escort myself also, I went with my lord and went to the lords, and the time I could escort was increased, but I have not worked for myself"

It seems that a beautiful girl who has compelled herself not getting a job from the Lord appeals for the change of the present condition while tearing, but I can not be fooled. Right now Angelica's phrase is "Rosemain came to the House of Lords so much that you want to escort mission and reduce study time."

While everyone is desperately studying, Angelica is thinking only about escaping study. When I looked up at the glimpse Cornelius elder brother, the eyes of Cornelius'

s ice cream saw me and nodded and nodded. "Give guidance to Angelica" and it is written on its face.

"Well, I will command Angelica primarily, please pass the examination as soon as possible, it is my duty to do top priority. I am also looking forward to Angelica's escort mission."

"Rosemain-sama ..."

"It is an order from the Lord, Angelica, you should give priority to anything as a knight? Well, will you study, Léonore, bad, will you have Rosemain sama?"

"Yes"

Léonore attached to me so that Elder Cornelius would replace it with catching Angelica and pulling it. When I ride a coward and get on, I head for my room to change my clothes once.

As I climbed the stairs, I heard the angry voice of Angelica. Leonore who looked back at the glance turned his gaze downstairs.

"Both Rosemain and Cornelius are quite proud to Angelica, which seems to be tightly touched, but desperate to keep Angelica from failing or dropping out"

"Angelica is my escort knight, so I will not let you imitate you as I'm in the lords at the Lord."

When I said that, I kept my mind, Léonore stared at the downstairs with a facial expression that seemed to be very bad once and fell down.

"The things that everyone is cherishing are rumors that Angelica is a disciple of Mr. Bonifatius and you marry to some of Karstedd's siblings brothers, is not it?"

"... .... I heard such a rumor for the first time"

..... Angelica as someone elder brothers? It does not connect at all.

"Angelica is an intermediate aristocrat, although it has a lot of magical powers, even if Bonifatius is hoping for a relationship with a relatives, like the traumigot, the second wife and the third wife's line are more likely candidates Will not it be? "

If my grandfather presses down, nobody can oppose it, but my father 's son, who is the head of the knight, honestly speaks that Angelica is struggling with his identity. Especially, angelica is not good at thinking, he is a type man who acts at intuition.

"Rather, the second wife or the third wife would be fit for Angelica"

"If you are the second wife or the third wife, what kind of person do you think Rosemain is suitable as the first wife?"

"My older brothers are escort knights of the lord's family, they support the husband deeply involved with the lord's family and can act for social occasions while socializing, instead of husbands who are absent. A woman like a mother is the best. Our mother is amazing. I want to be a big woman with a vessel like a mother either.

Listen to the husband's complaints and circumstances that brought a child unknown to any horse's bone as my son, receive a baptismal ceremony as your child, give education suitable as a senior nobility daughter, treat it as a female owner. It can not be done by anyone.

"My mother does not compromise my hobby while securing the profit as a nobility, contributing to society that is suitable for senior aristocrats, getting praise from the surroundings, I want to model from the bottom of my heart "

"Well, I will also target Elvira."

Leonore smiled. Together as a noble woman, aim for your mother.

I changed my clothes and headed to the multipurpose hall where everyone was desperately studying. It is a first-year student who is desperately in shape, but as other people are with us as if it were obsessed with that feeling. I am impressed, admire.

Vilfried who looked at everyone's study lifted his face.

"It was quite late, Rosemain"

"Well, due to the unfamiliar magical tool attached, we had a lot of trouble in controlling magic, how much did it proceed?"

When I turned around looking at everyone's progress, Philline said "I am doing my best." No one is staring at the material to reinforce each weakness that I handed out.

..... Wondering if I can work as hard as I can?

"By the way, Mr. Villefriit, are all students pass the classroom only, do you include practical skills?"

First grade turned all over to Wilfriit in my question. Vilfried who got the eyes of everyone trembled shoulder and shook his head as he panicked.

"Well, it is only a classroom! It was only school discussion that Rosemain sought to strengthen this year, and if there is a difference in magical power, practical skills tend to be inevitable when trying to teach. It is sufficient that we only have discipline. "

I will put down my shoulder as if my first grade relieved to Virufriit which repeats that it is only a classroom. I seemed to head to the library more quickly than I thought, and I relieved the breath of relief.

"If you are just a student, you probably can not go to the library as much as it takes days, so let's do our best to pass everything tomorrow."

When I taught him with Vilfried and taught me, Brünhildt came back. And I gently give out my wooden bill against me.

"Rosemain, I received a reply from Professor Sorangej of the library"

"Well!"

I am willing to accept an appointment booking appointment, I will read wooden bills at once. As an answer, since registration is done for each territory, it was written that they want me to bring all the freshmen of Ehrenfest at lunch break after four days. Then, the necessary registration fee is written. The deposit necessary for borrowing books seems to be different. I feel that there are not so many students who can use the library.

"The registration fee for the library seems to be a small gold coin per person, it is quite expensive."

"It's too expensive ... I can not pay it."

It became the expression that it was saying that Philiane was hopeless.

"Since I will lend the registration fee, Philene needs to collect stories and send back a manuscript.

"Rosemain, do you buy me even if I make a manuscript?"

Asked if Rodrigo was awesome. I noticed that the gaze of other grades who were in the multipurpose hall was also suitable for this, I looked round all around and nodded greatly.

"Naturally, even if the factions are different, there is no sin in the book. I want to collect as many stories and books as possible while I am at the lords. The manuscript of a book that is not in the library of the castle is steadily growing. However, it is natural that the beauty of the letter and the little mistakes are important. "

It is money I have earned so far to increase my book. If it is to increase the number of books, I intend to spare time.

"For manuscripts, we will also supply paper and ink, but both paper and ink are expensive so do not get clothed or crossed somewhere, so who to whom you brought it, We will confirm details exactly as a manuscript. "

I heard that tools for manuscripts will be lent out, and the eyes of the lower aristocracy shined glitterly. It seems that there was tremendous power in the cash I handed out on the first day as a story or information fee.

"How do you judge whether Rosemain, the book that you are about to photograph now is in the library of the castle?"

"Since I am making catalogs of the library of the castle library, it is good to refer to it."

"On the other hand, before you do it?"

"Is not it obvious that you should refrain from reading the books in the library, I have a copy of the catalog of the temple, the castle and the head of the knights, to create the Rosemain decimal classification method. It was also necessary. "

When I chewed up, Mr. Wilfried misunderstood, "I was sleeping for two years indeed, was it really working secretly?", It became a shocking face.

As Wilfried said, how happy it was if you had secretly spent two years just to read a book. The reality is something that is not bad.

"Let's try hard to allow all first-year students to pass the lecture by the day of the library registration four days afterwards"

".....Yes"

After listening to Cornelius elder brother, it seems that the eyes of the senior student who sees the first grader studying desperately was a very pityful eyes. At the same time, Angelica said that he thanked God that he was not synchronized with Rosemain.

On that night I also studied up to the 7 bells, got up the next morning, studied after breakfast as well as the last confirmation, the first year students will be examined. Somewhat lack of sleep and congested with redness, red appearance, the appearance that the name of the king and the name of the land got stormy leaking as it is swollen eyes does not look like heading for the first lecture. It was not the appearance of a freshman who was excited about excitement in the first school life whatever he saw from, apparently only the first grader of Ehrenfest floated from the surroundings.

"Today is a critical point"

"Yes"

If you pass the exam of history and geography, magic theory will concern the attributes of the magic stone and its color, so the exam is not too difficult.

"Everyone studied hard, they ought to be managed."

"I will do my best"

In front of the exam paper in history, the exam to determine the fate by taking the pen of the magician has started.

I write it as crispy and submit it all together, but today is the end of Phyllie and Rohdrich late. It seems that there are problems that are pretty annoying.

"Here, I will withdraw!"

It was when Phylline went to submit the test form until the end when the closing time was close. However, even in the surroundings, lower class aristocrats are still confronted with the problem while most of them bother their heads. Phyllene and Rodelich are early ones in lower aristocrats.

"Phylline of No. 13, please come in before"

The voice of the teacher came from the sound magic tool, and Phyllie was called by name. What is said, Phylline makes his face pale and walks to the teacher in front.

"What happened?"

"I do not know"

Talking with the teacher somehow, I saw Phyline waving his head.

While worrying about it, if you are gazing at it gently, it will come back holding down the chest with a look that Phylline relieved.

"I'm back"

"What did the teacher say, Phyline?"

"... It is embarrassingly that my score seems to have been quite acceptable."

After receiving a lecture properly, Phylline seems to have told the teacher that he may accept the exam. However, Phylline seems to have desperately refused.

"Thanks for your thought, but that score is fine, so please pass it. If you do not make it in time for the library registration three days later, you are in trouble."

Teresor to Phyllin 's desperate appearance, he said, "Because it seems that there is a deep situation, I will pass it once, but I do not mind getting a lecture."

"It was really nice to be able to pass"

In the middle of Phyline 's words, the teacher' s voice resonated greatly from the sound magician to the auditorium.

"Ehrenfest passed all."

A roar of winds takes place from the surroundings. Arithmetic and theology have passed in all the past few years and it was not so surprising that the passing rate was high even in the surroundings. However, the passing rate of the lower aristocracy is remarkably low in history and geography. It is not an exaggeration to say that lectures are prepared to teach lower aristocrats.

Everyone including a lower aristocrat in such subjects passed one pass. There is no reason not to be noticed.

"... ... It is quite conspicuous"

"Well, it's not realistic, but it's no use for the library, it can not be helped, I will accept your line of sight, next is geography. things are going well, let's do our best not to be distracted"

Rodderich who is not good at geography draws lips tightly and nods, it goes through the material just as it drives the last sport.

"Rosemain, that person, I am surprised that only the library is mindless"

"Is there anything more important than the library now?"

A library that has never entered yet. According to the chief priest, the Library of the House of Lords has the second largest number of books in the country. I do not have anything more important than reading this book here.

"My uncle said that the library is too toxic to drugs, is this?"

"Did Ferdinand know something again?"

"The extent to which you give a library to others is as difficult as medication, and the damage will be enormous if inadvertent inadvertently touches the usage, I am biting that word now."

I brought my eyebrows to the words of Virfriit that I had realized.

"What do you mean, Wilfried brother? Does not everyone have successfully passed, do not have the best results, it is rude of the damage ....."

"..... Is not it magnificent, you see, you should also review the last one, because that is distracting attention and making a bogus mistake"

Everything passed the examination of geography, whether there was an effect of studying with a looking face. As for Geography, Rodderich passed the examination, but like Phylie, "I also receive a lecture, but I want you to pass, if the score is enough, I asked you to pass it."

"Ehrenfest passed all."

And, all the members passed the trial examinations on magic, without problems. All the first grade students finished classroom in the first exam. While receiving amazing surrounding eyes, everyone is delighted to hold a fist.

"It is likely that you can eat rice deliciously after a long absence today!"

Roderich who overcame the poor geography somehow took hold of the fist and said so. It seems that if only myself with different factions failed, thinking about what life would become like after this, they were frighteningly scared.

"Everyone did their best, so let's ask my chefs to have desserts for everyone in the first grade at dinner tonight."

"Is it true, Rosemain-sama !?"

"Well, the library came close, thanks to everyone's hard work"

Although I was doing my best by driving with full effort, I did not think that I could truly pass. I thought that it would be impossible for a lower aristocrat if I did not challenge once more. I would like to act as much as you want desert.

"We passed all of them!"

When I returned to the dormitory for lunch, I kept breasts on the senior students and all boasted that I passed the first exam. As all the members passed the lecture, the fastest team decided to be a first-grade team, but everyone else's team does not want to envy another, just honestly praises a good fight.

"Good, you guys did a lot of hard work"

"It was good that we were able to pass everyone, I was deeply impressed."

"The first year student did their best so far, we also can not lose."

I was deeply impressed by the labor words that my heart felt from the senior team that should be hostile.

After lunch the skill of music is done. Fespiel was also practicing in the winter kids room, so there are reasons that it is easy to relax, but for the first year students who cleared the examination of the lecture, everyone who eats lunch has a smile full of accomplishment It has become.

"Phyline, since the practical skill is still left, you should not overstrain"

"Yes, Rosemain sama"

"Practical skills in the afternoon is music ... .. Rosemain, I am amazed at the surroundings of all the first-year students, so please do bless at the same time with music of Fespiel and let me say that you are around. I hope everyone recognizes it as a saint. "

Hartmut shines bright orange eyes pleasingly.

"I will refuse, it is completely different thing that Ehrenfest's evaluation goes up and I individuals cause such a disturbance, I will not pray for God when I play."

"I regret not being able to understand. Although it is a great opportunity ... ...."

I refuse to be told to bless persistently in Hartmut, ask Rheshilda to take Fespiel and head towards the small hall where music lectures are held.

To bless in the current state that you can not grasp or control your magical power, I am afraid that I do not know what will happen myself. I can not do it.

Just like practicing magic, practice of music is divided by class. Music is too hard to do with too many people, the quality of teachers and musical instruments is clearly different in the class.

"Today I want to see the skill of each person, please show off my own favorite songs one by one"

Everyone plays songs one by one in order of the territory. If the skills are similar, it seems to be to select the same song, and I will compare it by all means. If you can, people with few people who know may be able to listen to your teacher with fresh feelings.

And what I thought, listening to everyone's performance.

..... The priest leader, seriously Sparta. How tight I was packed! Is it?

Both the priest chief and the adoptive fellow were good at Fespiel, and even the gray shrine maiden 's Rosina and Vilma liked Fespiel and they played it easily. Therefore, I thought that it was the standard of nobility, I was practicing quickly, but it was not so.

The chief priest who sings and faints women is completely different, and adoptive father who can perform alongside such exception also was a little inferior to the priest chief. Christinen who was devoted to art so much to have a different name as an artistic shrine maiden is also exceptional, and it seems that Rosina and Vilma who were favorite shrine maidens were also exceptional, receiving the tranquility.

..... When I was able to play alongside the priest chief, I did not realize why neither adoptor nor rosina was normal! Is it? Be aware, I!

It will be appreciated that the two-year blank will manage somehow. I think I was really saved. However, if you think that there was enough time to read more books, it is frustrating and it can not be helped.

..... I wish I could get out of hand!

While I stepped down on Daigyo with the inner level and the level I was aiming for, the order of Ehrenfest came. A senior aristocrat begins to play first.

"Next I will go, the other is the last."

Wilfried stood up and stood up. Since I did not have to do anything in particular, I nodded and saw Wilfried.

And when Wilfried began to play, I held my fespiel and went forward, the next player sat in the waiting seat.

"Can music be popular?"

"Because I have been sleeping for two years using Jureve, it is not what I say like that, it is not enough if I can do what I see, I must warmly watch over you."

It is a part of Ahrensbach that tells me to hear it as a whisper. Just a little listening, surroundings <sup>Taste</sup> 着 It sounds as though it follows me, but he says, "Because the contents are not growing as well as the outside, it is useless as you expect."

..... I can say anything else but have Dietlinde also extended to such a grade in such circumstances?

My turn became without knowing the intention of Dietlinde.

I do not know so much else, I play the most familiar song. Briefly, it is an animation song arranged by the chief priest. Although I taught him to laugh at the priest, he is getting used to earnestly being the easiest to play.

..... Here, no one knows the original songs, thanks to the arrangement of the crown president, it's alright because it looks like a different song. No one can laugh.

Being careful not to be blessed, I played Fespiel.

"I was told that I had been asleep for two years, but I was surprised by the superior hands beyond expectations. If you practice as it is, you may be able to become a master of Fespiel."

"I am sorry"

..... Just because the surroundings were a master of a different level, I do not feel like doing such a thing at all.

When I laughed and smiled and received compliments and tried to go back, my teacher called me "Mr. Rosemain".

"I am nearly two decades after becoming a music teacher at the House of Lords, but it was the first time I heard this song.

"Summer song dedicated to Leiden Shaft ... there is no more name"

Wilfried smiled a smile if I tried to lure it, which is one of the practice songs that anywhere an unnamed composer made.

"This song was composed by the saint of Ehrenfest with a prayer for Leiden Shaft, I know a couple of other songs, but Rosemain makes all the songs devoted to God."

..... Ambush in this place!

My eyes are wide open, my teacher shone my eyes and saw me.

"I'd like to listen to other songs, too,"

"If the goddess of time Drepphan Goa's spinning threads overlap, do not miss it ..."

... ... Willfried's stupid stupid!

Chapter 290: Creating a cowardly creature and magical compression

---

The classroom in the morning has ended. I want to go to the library because the morning has been free, but it is not yet a promised day with Sorange. I do not like the attitude of doing things in order of the results of this lords in such a time. Because it is kept waiting for as much as I want.

... ... Two more days are long! Someone, give me a book!

Oh, lamenting, I called out to the first year student, and together I started making reference books for next year. If you prepare in this way, everyone got on the word that next year you should not have to struggle so much.

"Please do not gather it carefully, as we also buy it if done here"

"Yes!"

Intermediate aristocrats and lower aristocrats reply better, but senior aristocrats are all bad.

"Because Rosemain's request, I will help you, but do not want me to think that I liked lower-ranking aristocrats who would save money by themselves."

..... Ho Ho! Is it lower class aristocrat to make money on your own? Does not it seem like you like it?

"I am earning money even if I'm a female borrower by myself?"

".....Ah"

"Without that much we could not distribute sweets in the children's room, and we could not prepare multiple printed materials for the children's room. You know that you are going to spend money Also, do not know the difficulty of earning, just use the parent's money? Those who studied money a little more are better than me. "

".....I'm sorry"

I apologize in my mouth, but their eyes and expression say, I am not wrong. I wonder if this is the standard of an advanced aristocracy.

I saw Wilfried.

"Wilfried's older brother, are all senior aristocrats such a way of thinking?"

"..... Yes, I think that I do not have the idea of earning by myself, because I live by revenue from the land and annual salary from the lord. I talk about the distribution of the budget to be given to myself from Oswald of the leader's side. However, if you do not operate a winter kids room instead of Rosemain, you would not have thought that Rosemain is making money by himself and increasing the budget. "

When Wilfried went to ask the burden of the sweet fee to the priest president who is managing my budget, even if I was asleep, that Wilfried could not keep preparing sweets all by their own budget alone. It seems he was amazed at the hearing that the budget that I can use is increasing. Until then, I heard that I had never thought about increasing the budget.

"However, a shameless imitation that plunges to earn money does not match the senior nobility"

"Gibe Haldenzell who is profitable by expanding the paper industry and printing industry that I am doing in the territory is a senior aristocratic but do not you know?"

"Giebe · Hartenszel?"

My mother's family home is a senior aristocrat. There is no way I do not know. To a senior aristocrat who opened his eyes like a frightened chicken, I nodded naked.

"Running the land is to earn money by moving the commoner rather than yourself, which seems to deny from the head that you earn money, etc. It can not be a noble aristocrat. We must be able to think about how to make money. "

"Move someone else, not myself ...?"

"Well, actually I do not print by myself and are not making books. Ink, picture book, carta, cards, cards and pumps are all made by those who work at the studio, but they make it. Every time I sell it, money comes in. Therefore, even if I am asleep I will increase the budget, let me make sweets with that budget, buy information, ask the manuscript a copy of the book I can put it in. "

I intend to have information and manuscripts by paying the compensation, but with the consciousness of the senior aristocrat, the information of the advanced aristocracy may not be easy to gather in this. Before that, it is troubled if you can not decipher a manuscript or information gathering as obscure. The number of people who cooperate may decrease.

In order to get as many manuscripts as I can, I must manage my consciousness or I will have to actively earn money.

..... I need to have a need to earn money for senior aristocrats.

Mum, thinking, I will do my utmost to make reference books. While summarizing hard, the 4 bells rang and a senior student came back.

..... It is not only freshman but also senior students want manuscripts to help.

It is more efficient to move more than 60 people, including senior students, rather than copying with eight first-year students. And I would like the senior aristocrat to work more than just the lower aristocracy. If so, you must demonstrate the benefits of working. Is there anything that I think I would like to get even if a senior aristocracy earns by oneself.

"What did you do with a quite difficult face, Princess?"

"Richarda, is there something I think would ardently want senior aristocrats in what I have?"

"Is not it a method of compressing magical powers? Danmel of an adult lower classic knee is stretching out magical enough to make a spectacular mystery. Angelica of an intermediate knight apprentice who learned how to compress the princess during the growth period strengthens the body. The more you become Bonifattius' s disciple, Magical power is increasing enough to try to line up with Karstedd if Kornelius, an apprentice of a senior knight, is merely magical, I think that students at the aristocrat desire to know even soon I guess. "

I heard that magical power is increasing, extending, but I did not think that it was there. This is going to be a very good bait.

I was a lunch meeting where everyone gathered, I declared attention and gathered, saying a major announcement.

"For those who want to know how to compress the magical power of myself, you can earn by themselves whether you are a senior aristocrat or a candidate for lords."

"What?"

Beginning with Wilfried, the senior aristocracy of the same faction that should be taught how to compress the magical power settled with a surprised face.

"As you gather information, manuscripts, collecting manastones and materials and selling them to someone, there are various ways to earn money at the aristocracy As a consideration to teach the compression method, the senior aristocrat is two large gold coins The intermediate nobleman is scheduled to pay eight small gold coins and the lower aristocracy pay two small gold coins. Although half the price will be paid from the second person of the same family to half the parents Let's do it better. "

"Well then, is not it too strict for senior aristocrats!"

After seeing around like looking around, the senior aristocrats object to me.

"Senior nobles have a lot of magical powers, are tied to home teachers, are advantageous both for practical skill and lecture and also for defeating monsters and obtaining magic stones, is it more advantageous to have more magical power? Lower class aristocrats have to pay even the registration fee of the library by themselves, so I think that it is a reasonable amount difference. "

Among the students who changed their complexion to a sudden declaration, Cornelius' older brother who already knows how to compress the magical powers caught eyebrows.

"Rosemain, why did it happen suddenly? Did something happen in the morning?"

"Because the senior aristocrat seemed to be unaware of the difficulty of earning money, I thought that I would actually experience it, not for those who do not know the difficulty of earning money, I was not being angry with being told that it is amazing"

While someone said that, as searching for the perpetrators began, I suggested that "manuscripts should be done in order to actively earn money."

"If you can write money and earn money, is it intellectual and likely like a senior aristocrat?"

Hartmut, who seemed to understand that I did not intend to change his opinion, gently shrugged his shoulders.

"If you feed on the magical compression method, the senior aristocrat also has no choice but to move, you can return yourself to those who violently sent out, you can change your consciousness about the senior aristocrat's money, and at the same time, Mr. Rosemain, you do not do anything, you can put all the things you want in hand. "

After saying that, Hartmut narrowed his eyes.

If you reduce the price by using ink for vegetable paper and vegetable paper rather than parchment paper and you mobilize students as a manuscript with money or a method of compressing magical powers, you can write the number of books you get crowded on your own, Compared to buying ordinary, it is inexpensive and many books are available in a staggered manner.

"Well, I will also collect information and manuscripts to show loyalty to Rosemain"

"Hartmut, are not you feeling evil to earn money?"

"It is a sense of getting legitimate consideration rather than earning because I only gather information by making full use of the relationship I have accumulated as a senior nobility, as I have ever been, and hiring man and sending a manuscript I will not do anything like myself desperately to make money. "

Hartmut says senior aristocrats should make money like a senior aristocrat, complaints are no more.

After finishing the turbulent lunch, there is a practical skill of making a cow beast from the afternoon. Women have to change their clothes so that they can cross over the beasts.

After lunch, I was changed by Ricarda and Risera. It is the first cavalry wear. It is a culotte with a flat skirt and a long hem and looks like a skirt if standing normally.

"Because the princess' s cud beast can ride without changing clothes, although the cavalry clothes are not essential, I used it at the lords, so I made it."

"While everyone is changing clothes, we can not just go skirt alone, is not it?"

I have to change clothes, hold a magic stone for the beast and head for the afternoon practical skill. I caught the metal decoration of the manastor with the belt fastened from the top of the culottes and lowered it to the waist.

The room to be learned is different, but Philline, who creates a beast in the same freshman first, has also changed into a cavalry clothes. And, on that waist the leather bag containing the manastone has been lowered, and it strokes over the bags so important.

"It was hard to dye a magic stone?"

When I was making a beast, I had a lot of magical power taken away by a magic stone. I think that it was quite a hard work for Phylline, a lower aristocrat who has not yet compressed magical powers.

Phylline skimmed my head to my words.

"Why is it so hard?"

".....Huh?"

According to Phyllie, the aristocrat is awarded witchcraft and manastone when he was born. That magic tool absorbs magical power and seems to be a magic tool to put in manastone. It is a magic tool that accepts only magical powers of those who first registered, eliminating the dangers of parents as well as brothers and side work touching the magic stones. If you do not use it, there is a high possibility that the magical stones will be mixed with the magical powers of others.

It seems that every time a magical power is about to overflow, I will gradually accumulate the magic stone put in that magic tool and use the stained Demon stone at the House of Lords.

..... It requires a magical tool for one child, and it will accumulate for more than ten years, so even if a magic stone is needed for each person it is necessary. It costs money.

I knew it for the first time. How will ordinary aristocratic children do the magical power overflowing in the growth stage? A nobleman who can not prepare magical tools puts a child in the temple.

"Is Rosemain sama different?"

"Because I was brought up in that temple, magical powers were basically dedicated."

"Well then, how did you prepare a magic stone for the cuddling?"

It was brought up in the temple until the baptismal ceremony, and Phylline makes his eyes round.

"I poured magical powers directly into the magic stone that Mr. Ferdinand gave, and dyed it up."

"... That was a tough one, because it is a senior aristocracy Rosemain, you can do it, I can not do it."

.....I see. I am insufficient common sense of aristocrat like this though. Let's keep it as silenced as possible.

When I leave the dormitory, when I separate from the Filines, I head to the small hall with escort knights. Given usual attention as "Wait until it came to pick me up", I went inside with Vilfriit and a senior nobleman.

Everyone gathered in the small hall has a mana stone dyed in each and it shows what kind of manastone it has become. Wilfried also took out his own magic stone with good control.

"Rosemain's manastone is light yellow, but my magic stone is light green."

"Wow, it is true."

Attribution of magical power is greatly involved in the difference in color. I am a color that can not be yellow or gold, probably the attribute of wind or the attribute of light is the strongest. Wilfried has the attributes of some of the attributes that water has the strongest.

And the more attributes you have, the thinner the color. I have seven attributes, I am light yellow, with six attributes Wilfried is somewhat darker than me. There is a memory that Damuel's magic stone which has only the aptitude of the wind was quite dark yellow.

"Yeah yeah, quietly!"

Today seems to be taught by female teacher about Frauerelm about mid 40s. It is characterized by a slightly higher kinkin voice, it is thin overall, has a high level of mood, and the atmosphere is tingle. Apparently it looked like the dormitory manager of Ahrensbach, showing a fairly friendly face to the students of Ahrensbach.

"Today I will start with practicing to devote magical powers and deform the magic stone, pour the magical power into the magic stone and change the size"

Just as I was taught by the priest, it seems to start from changing the size of the manastone.

For me it's easy and simple to change the size. However, since it is a big opportunity, in order to practice controlling magical power, sneak out the magician on the left arm and change the size while pouring it into the manastone.

It is difficult to pour the magical power little by little.

..... It's a bucket! Not at least, I hope I can make it from the faucet to the pot.

Practice to be able to adjust the amount of magical power, with your fingertip as a faucet of a tap. Also, as I am used to dedicating, I am not used to recovering my magical power in a magic stone, so I will also practice collecting magical powers from magic stones.

While practicing around changing the size, I was practicing control exercising hard.

"People who have become able to change their size freely will change it into the form of a cowgirl, often using animals that are used for the emblem of your home, and ease of riding. Considering it, there are also many horse-shaped cow animals. "

Children struggle to struggle to make the form of a coward began to appear in the words of Frauerel. Villefried seems to be pretty accustomed to the handling of magical powers in two years, and the progress of practical skill regarding magical power is fast.

"I will make a lion, because I am the son of a lord, but a soft coward be like a rosemain's cod beast"

Wilfried pouring magical power while drawing eyebrows, Mumumu. It took me a lot of time but it was in the shape of a lion.

"It closely resembles Ferdinand-sama's beast,"

"If you try to refer to the father's beast, you will become three lions, so it was easier for the university's cavalry to model."

"By the way, the adoptive father of a father-in-law who has seen it once was a lion with three heads, and his adoptive father used an unusual beast, did not he?"

"I do not think it would be told that my father is probably the other one"

As Wilfried says, my Lesser Bath may be slightly different from the standard here, but I think that it is cute and convenient and the best.

"No.13! Do not talk and make serious creation of a beast!"

I was staring at my manastone as a witty voice with a kickin 's anger. I wonder if we can hang out the cud beast which is said to be changing here.

When I was suffering, it seems I thought that I was skipping, Frauerelm came here to cut the wind with his shoulder, raised his jaw and jaw.

"Now, make it soon"

As I lightly shrug it, I ordered a one passenger bus as usual. I looked at the lesser bus that I was able to get on and laughed after the nobility in other areas rounded my eyes.

"What, what?"

"I can not get on if it's so expensive. How do you plan to ride?"

"That it is a quite unusual coward"

"Oh, it looks pretty, I can not feel practical."

Although the Lesser bus is laughed as a funny cowgirl, it is primarily about the shape, it does not come up with the name "Grün" that came out among the chief priests and knights. The word "Why did you make a devil be a beast?" Does not go up.

"... .. until now I have often been said to be monsters"

"I do not know because first-year students have not exterminated monsters, I do not know."

Indeed, when he nodded, only one, Frauerelm changed his complexion and muttered as "Grün". As expected, the teacher seems to have known Grün.

"... Rosemain-sama! Creating beasts is not a fun, do it seriously!"

I was screamed in spite of being scolded by the voice that kickin 'caught my ears. I do not know the reason for being shouted. I do not mean to play separately.

"I am seriously serious,"

"Where is serious? At the time of making Grün a cow beast, I can not fancy a piece of seriousness, I will not accept such a cowgirl. Please disappear immediately."

I was breathlessly being told that it was going to disappear. Although it may look different indeed, I am satisfied with the task of making a beast, and my Lesser bus is amazing. There is no such thing as I am planning to erase.

"Mr. Fraulem, I am speaking, but my cud beast is much better than the other cow, so I do not intend to erase it."

"Where is the better of a cow beast imitating such monsters !?"

"Even if you do not bother changing your clothes, you can ride and you can put a large number of people"

I said so, I changed the single passenger bus to mini bus size.

I can see that everyone in the surroundings opened his eyes wide open to the lesser bus which changed its size suddenly. The same is true for Wilfriit and Ehrenfest.

Thinking carefully, although the one-seater Lesser bus was riding both in the castle and the dormitory, I feel like I did not show a big size.

"My cud beast can change the size freely"

I try to change the size freely with too much magical powers. Fleurreum stared his eyes when putting up his mind to Fraulemus who was staring at the lesser bus without words.

"How do you fly in the sky with such a beast? Do not have feathers!"

"My Lesser-kun can fly neatly"

I got on a Lesser bus back to the size of a single passenger. While surprising voice rises, run through the small space with a lesser bus and run through the air.

"Him, that's insane!"

As a result of Frauerelm who shouted so blown with bubbles and collapsed, the practical skill created by the coward beast was forcibly terminated. Frauerelm was carried away by the knights and Hill Sur declared the end of today's lecture and carryover to the next time narrowing his eyes sullenly with calls instead.

While students are leaving the small hall, I will be called to Hill Sur. "We just listen to detailed circumstances" and let us return Wilfried, who seems to be worried, and Hill Sur recalls me last.

"Now, please show me thoroughly, Rosemain-sama-like cowgirl that made Fraulemu stupid. I failed because my preparation was interrupted by receiving a call, so please allow about that much, is not it?"

"Well, of course."

In a smile that closely resembled the smile of the priest owner, I felt that "Ah, this man is definitely the priest of the priest."

And the practical skill the next afternoon is magical compression. Because a lot of teachers are mobilized for magical compression, divide the first-year students into two, one will be court writing, one will compress the magical power.

I am a magical compression, but Phyllene will perform the court practice skill.

In a row of nearly ten teachers, Fraulem which collapsed yesterday also resurrected and Hill sur was also lined up.

"As the body grows, the magical power increases rapidly, and of course the size of the instrument that stores magical powers will also change, and at that time by accumulating as much magical power as possible in the vessel, We will be able to promote growth. If everyone growing bigger to become an adult can memorize magical compression, we will be able to promote the growth of vessels. "

When the explanation of Hill Sur was over, Fraulem came out.

"The magnitude of magical powers is the most important factor for nobility. It must increase magical power as much as possible until the end of growth. The effect of compression of magical power has a time limit, seriously facing We have to! "

I highlighted the magical tool my other teacher had in my hand.

"First of all, use this magic tool to examine the intensity of everyone's magical power, measure the value of the first magical power on the wrist, challenge compression, how much compression could be done If you can compress even a little bit, then the lecture of magical compression is over. In future we will have to do our best to compress and compact. The only way we can teach is the first way. "

..... In other words, do I have to compress it more than I do now? Ooooo.

While I was holding my head, the teachers in front of me began to mention each compression method in turn.

"Well, I feel like I am draining water from fruit juice, I feel like I'm going to reject extra things from magical power."

"I try to gather magical powers that are spreading in the middle in the middle"

"Compressing magical energy is like reshuffling chemicals, is not it?"

"Press it, press it, push it down."

Although how to compress each one is described one by one, I think that it becomes unnecessary confusion with this. The students who were actually taught had become frightening faces.

"The important thing is to find a method that suits you, absolutely not to force it, because it will lead to the danger of life."

"But if you do not do it for a while, you can not compress magical powers, you must overcome the magical powers inside you."

Wilfried who was listening to teacher 's explanation briefly misplaced eyebrows.

"What's wrong with what I am talking about? After all, what should I do?"

"I hear in a miserable way, but if you really want to compress magical powers, you have not said anything wrong, it's efficient to push your magical powers in a way that suits you, If you do not do it by force to force it, it will not be compressed, but if you do not do too much to overcome yourself, you will lose your life. To reduce danger even more than one teacher I asked Mr. Ferdinand when I arrived. "

In my words Vilfried swallowed Kokuri and spit. I grasp my hand and look at me.

"... How do you do that one?"

"Well, if it is the first step, there is no problem even if you tell me There is a device to store magical power in myself, pack the magic power crying over the inside of it so that the lid does not close, forcibly cover it I'm stuffing it with the feeling of locking so that magical power does not come out. "

"Wow ...."

"The compression method after that is a Rosemain formula, it's a secret"

Ufufu, and laugh at me, Wilfried strikes, "What is the first stage? What are the stages?"

"Three levels, Ferdinand says he tried a third step, causing a magic sickness and feeling sick."

"Well, do you think your uncle gets sick?"

When Wilfried's face stiffened, I and Wilfried were called.

Chapter 291: Magical compression four stages

"Mr. Villefriet-sama, Rosemain-sama"

Well called me, Wilfried and I rose up. I will walk to where some teachers are waiting. Ten teachers came into pairs and saw the compression, and they were called in order by candidate lords. It seems that it was earlier that the candidate lords of the large territory were somewhat accustomed to handling magical powers, and they could be compressed. The two who started to be able to compress magical powers begin to put effort into the eyebrows to return to their seats and compress even a little.

If you look around the line of sight, you can see the three lord-line candidates carving wrinkles between the eyebrows while trying to compress the magical power while surrounded by the teacher. One teacher is watching carefully the state of the student who is compressing with something magical tool and the other teacher stares at the magician who wore the wrist instead of the student.

It was in sight that Fraulem stared at the magic tool. As a body that fainted yesterday, I feel a little awkward so thank God secretly that Fraulem did not take charge of me.

..... Now, compressed, what shall I do?

If you need more compression than ever, you have to think about another compression method in another step. But what more can you do with the magical power compressed by the futon compression bag?

..... If it is done with the image of compression on a machine, it will be even smaller.

The thing that comes to mind when it is compressed by a machine is that the aluminum can is firmly squared in a square. Although it becomes small, I can not release magical power when I want to use magical power afterward. I can not do it when I think it is impossible. If you do something that accumulates magical powers that you can not use by yourself, you will need Yuri Ve to solve it as well.

..... I do not want any more Urushima Taro!

Is there anything that seems to be helpful for something new compression method?

I recall that the teachers had previously stated their respective images about how to compress.

I have already done "pushing, pushing and pushing" to "gather magical powers that are spreading in the middle". Then, can you do a new compression from the hint of "feeling of draining water from fruit juice" or "similar to boiling down the chemical solution"?

....., ... As Mr. Hirschle boils down the drug solution, you can simply boil down the soup with the dish and boil down it, you can easily do it?

When the soup is boiled down, moisture evaporates, and when it becomes a feeling of slump, the bulk is decreasing. Why do not you bring that boil down image to the first stage of compression. The boiled magical power is further compressed by the Rosemain formula.

... ... OK, let's do it.

I stood in front of the teacher with a spirit of having successfully won the passing. Hirschur and another one, probably a teacher with a strong muscular man who seems to be a teacher teaching knight apprentices. I heard that the teacher muttered, "I heard rumor, but it is small."

"It is Hirushuru and Ruffen that will help you compress Rosemain's magical powers."
"It's okay with me, pushing, pushing, pushing and pushing down and suppressing magical power is not difficult to compress, so I'll do my best to support you."

The smiling face on the face is refreshing like a physical education teacher, but I think it is a hot-blooded teacher of a hot type that I am not very good at predicting from words. During the Lifold Age, I could move my body without reading only books, and I was dragged out during the holiday time, I can not worry about being bad at all difficulties.

"Well, Rosemain, please take out the wrist on your left and I will attach this magical tool."

As I told Hirschle, I rolled my sleeve until I saw my wrist, and presented my left hand to Hill Sur.

I put the magical tool that Hill sur held in my wrist. A magical tool like a big wristwatches like something like a shrunk and a belt part changed in size and it fits perfectly with my wrist.

..... Heavy!

Hill suru was supporting the fall of arms and arms, and gazed straight at the magician.

"I am ready for this, Rosemain, please start compression"

"Okay, put the spirit down, keep the magical power down, let's push it a lot and overcome your magical powers"

I nodded with an ambiguous smile on a little noisy cheering for Ruffen, and I closed my eyes lightly. Focus on the magical power in your body.

"Good, do you feel the flow of magical power !?"

Because I can not concentrate, I want you to keep silent for a while, I open the lid of the back packing magical power.

..... In order to compress magical power so that it can be boiled up, you must first open it all at once. I can do it because there are lots of magical tools that the priest chief gave me.

I opened the lid completely and released the magical power that had been pooled deep down. And, as well as hands and feet magic wigs, as well as magical tools borrowed as amulets, we will continue to pump magical powers more and more.

Now I can put magical power into magical tool of physical strengthening as much as I can put on as much as I can, the body is very light and I feel like I can fly fairly high if I jump up.

..... I bet, maybe this moment may be stronger than the old man.

If you open your eyes slowly, your eyesight is being strengthened, the face of the student who is fairly far can be seen clearly, and the ear picks up the noise as much as possible.

"That's how it is, the magical power is moving, you can push it in the back as you please! Go for it!"

Not only the magical tool of body strengthening but also all the charm received by the priest chief, pouring magical power into your eyes, the magical power remaining in your body has become considerably diluted. I will compress this remaining magical power in a new way.

Pouring magical power into the pan with the image in the brain, I turned on the fire.

... .... Let's boil down this magical power to about half of the umbrella.

In my brain, the music of the cooking program which my mother often watched during the Rei period is flowing. "There is a boiled magical power here" It is a feeling that even such a voice is heard.

Once it is possible to boost the magical power, the rest is the same as the compression method so far. Make sure to fold down the boiled magical powers carefully, pack them as closely as possible into the bag as closely as possible.

... ... If you fold and pack it down, it's compression with weight. Purely! Yes, it became flat.

After that, return the magical power packed to the magical tool of body strengthening towards him. I am accustomed to releasing magical power, but it takes a bit of time because I am not used to absorbing magical power so much.

I succeeded in recovering a little of the magical power poured into the magical tool, and it compresses it the same way.

While closing his eyes and concentrating while compressing, Vilfried who was working on magical compression nearby heard a voice to be passed.

"It's passed, Wilfried-sama has good lines, it's good to compress it frequently and increase magical powers with this condition."

"Thank you very much"

Vilfried's voice, which sounded good, I also made a big effort on my body.

..... I have to work hard as well.

I will compress it as hard as possible. If it crosses even the first stage of boiling down, since it is compression of the procedure that is used to afterwards, compression could be done without much time. Increasing the speed for compression will likely be a future task.

When I opened my eyes I called Hirschle who was staring at the wrist's magician with a difficult face.

"How do you think it could be compressed from the beginning?"

While I was excited, as I was hearing Hill Sur 's reaction, Hill sur leaping my eyes slowly breathed my breath, staring at the magician attached to my wrist. Leuven tends to head that the voice of passing does not come out.

"Hill sur, are you going to start over?"

"No, that's not true, it's fine, Rosemain-sama passed."

While removing the witchcraft of my wrist, Hill sur was told with a slightly tremoring voice so saying "I worked hard" and it will work. Although Hirsur's labor was almost scratched out by Ruffen 's voice saying "Well done! Well".

"It would be a good idea to increase magical powers steadily as it is, as the body is small, the elongation rate may be the best, only with effort.If you compress too much at once, you feel bad. You should compress it little by little everyday. "

"I will try hard as much as I can.

When I thanked Hirschle had already turned his back and had touched the magical tool. Prepare for the next child? There are still many students waiting. I went back to my seat quickly so as not to disturb me.

"I was praised that the line is good"

Wilfried is gladly saying that, I will look at me and report it. After that, while everyone practicing magical compression, I found that they are quietly compressing.

"Wilfried older brother, do not make magical compression so modestly, if you compress it too much, it will cause magic sickness and you will feel sick like Ferdinand."

"But I memorized it at all. I wonder if I want to compress it quickly."

Because there are always students who make a sickness by doing it, the two teachers watch the child who has finished practicing.

"It is embarrassing when it comes to feeling sick and compromising while squirrely receiving attention from teachers, and falling like falling down."

When I took attention to Wilfried, the other lords of the other lords sitting around were also wiggly like Wilfried, and the teacher who had been looking around smiled a little.

After the guidance of the candidate lords is over, the senior nobility starts to challenge the magical compression next. As soon as that, the falling students started to appear frequently.

"Ruffen, please carry me to the seat"

After Hill Sur's voice resonates, you can see a ruffen carrying a student sitting on the spot suddenly to the seat.

"Magical powers are runaway! Hurry up and use magical tools!"

Another teacher hurries the magic tool in a hurry to Frauerel 's high voice crying so. The student 's body in between crumbles down on the spot.

"Are you okay?"

Candidate candidates were able to acquire them relatively quickly, so I did not realize that it was too hard, but the senior aristocrats do not seem to be so, and the circumstances that it is rare to finish themselves are rare.

When I was worried and looked at the surroundings, Wilfried slowly shook his head.

"I think that it will be a big difference whether or not you are accustomed to moving magical powers, probably with the experience of supplying magical power to foundation magic."

As Wilfried said, the lords of the lords, after completing the magical compression on their own, returned to their seats by themselves, but senior high school students who sit down like a villfleet who supplied magical power for the first time and can not stand up There are many.

"Even if you do not worry, you will recover if you rest, both I and Charlotte"

"..... It is a senior nobleman and in this state, the lower aristocracy is worried."

"The greater the magical power is, the heavier the burden is, so I have heard from Ozwald that lower class archer is easier"

"You know so well, Wilfried brother?"

Wilfried saw me with a complicated look in my words.

"I am rather surprised by those who do not know anything, seeming to know everything, two years is a big surprise"

"I do not see it in books, it seems to me that the thing to learn naturally is lacking completely in order to live. In particular, I grew up in a slightly different situation from the nobleman's life until the baptismal ceremony"

In my case, the period of living as a nobleman is less than two years. It is not an exaggeration to say that common sense and knowledge are totally insufficient.

"I have made an effort for two years, I think I can be a part of helping others."

"I'm expecting you"

Most of the senior nobles did not pass. I wonder how I will get used to working on slowly moving magical powers from now on. Dissolution is ordered by the teacher and we return to the dormitory.

I was able to clear the task today as well, after I returned to the dormitory I was continuing to make reference books. While listening, listen to the first grade students of intermediate and lower aristocrats about the subjects of court practice, speak of the senior nobility who was not accustomed to moving the tips and magical powers of the first stage of magical compression instead of rattling and falling instead .

"I am excited to hear such a story."

"Wilfried's brother said that less burdens are ones with less magical power."

"But, to that extent, is that it is hard to increase magical power?"

"Yes, magical power will not increase very much unless it is desperate to be desperate at the boundary of life and death"

A voice rises in my words "It is scary to put a life to increase magical powers". Hill sur was entering the multipurpose hall when it settled to the conclusion that it would raise in a reasonable range.

Opening the door, you can see the purple eyes gleaming glancingly around the inside, capturing me.

"Huh Hulsur teacher!"

"Did you do something !?"

A multipurpose hall flutters over rare dormitory supervision. Originally, there is no mystery even if the dormitories are in the dormitory, but in the Ehrenfest dormitory it is normal for the dormitory not to be present.

While staring at me, Hill sur leaves the footsteps and goes to me with elegance, but terribly fast speed. The questions of the students being thrown in the middle are completely ignored. Perhaps, it is not in sight.

Were you surprised by too much speed, was it inspired by the gaze strength and spiritual atmosphere, Leonore took out the Stap and Brother Cornelius stood before me.

Angelica who came out to protect me with a light movement puts his hand on the magical sword Stin rook with a lively face.

Because I was not accustomed to the occupation of the escort knight, because of my low school age Yudit and Trauggot brought me to Pokan and then ran to me as if I was relieved.

"You have quite a few excellent aides,"

His surrey who smiled and smiled looked around the escort knight and said so.

"Greetings, Rosemain, I have a haste to Rosemain, may I visit Rosemain's room?"

I have a smile with a smile, but the strength of my eyes does not change. I could never refuse, I nodded.

"Well, of course I do not mind."

It was at the edge of sight that Ricarda and Riesela revolve as I acknowledged and headed to the room to prepare for greeting. And the remnant apprentice Brunhilde who left in this place moves the chair so that I can stand up.

As Ricarda and Rieselaer were ready, I slowly rose up and looked around the hall filled with a tense atmosphere.

"Hartmut and Philine should continue making reference books here, then escort knights should be women alone."

While giving directions while smiling gracefully, the inner heart is spiraling without knowing the reason.

..... I feel somewhat offended. why? What did I do?

Perhaps it was a story that caused Fraulem to faint yesterday. I was pleased when I showed a Lesser bus yesterday to Hill Sur and I was told something I was impressed with, so I thought that I had avoided sermons. However, there may have been any complaints from the resurrected Fraulem.

..... I am afraid just thinking as the master of the priest chief.

While holding down the hard and painful stomach, I lead the escort knight and return to my room at the lead of Brünhild. With Richarda and Rieselator who had returned to the room ahead of the other, they were preparing to meet the guests.

I have tea in Richarda, I will talk about tea and sweets one by one and recommend to Hill Sur. Hill sur was eating a cup of candy placed in the dish and narrowed his eyes a little.

"... What is this sweets?"

"Sweets called cactus curls, it is a sweet that is prevalent recently at Ehrenfest"

"Well ..."

I heard the matter while relieving that Hill Sur rounded his eyes and the atmosphere was relieved.

"What is the matter of hurry?"

"I would like to talk about today's magical compression, please do not pay us"

Stories about magical compression are often confidential. I nodded and waved my hands lightly. Aides got out of the room roughly.

On top of that, Hill sur laid a witchcraft to prevent wiretapping in front of me.

"This is a magical tool to prevent eavesdropping"

"I know, because Ferdinand is often used"

"Oh, are you in good relationship with Ferdinand and the magical tool to tell a secret story?"

The next moment when I thought that the eyes of purple shimmered like hypocrisy, huh and Hirsch exhorted and shrugged my shoulders.

"I think that it is prepared for the same reason that I thought it was necessary ... .. but it is immediate, but please explain what you did at today's magical compression"

Even if asked to embark oneself with eyes of purple eyes like to be awkward, I am honest. I do not do anything but magical compression. There is nothing to explain.

"No matter what I say ... .. I only do magical compression, what should I explain?"

Hirschur tightened my words and closed my eyes, I heard muttering that he was "unaware?" Apparently she seems to have done something.

"Well, Magical Compression was passed, right? Is I missing anything?"

"No, it was not enough, rather it was too short, I just want to uncover the abnormal situation encountered for the first time in a long teacher's life."

"Are you in an abnormal situation?"

"Oh!"

Now, I understand that you are pressed to explain, but was there any unusual situation? I still do not know.

"What is an abnormal situation? Maybe I did something that was not normal, but I do not quite understand what I did."

As surprised as Hill Sur curled his eyes, I removed the magic tool I had lowered from my waist and put it in front of me. It is what I was wearing on my wrist when magical compression was done.

On the side Hill sur was staring at that time there was a scale and a needle like a voltmeter, now the needle points in the middle.

"This magic tool used this time is the thing that measures the intensity of magical power. If you put it on your wrist, you can check whether the magical power at the time of attachment is the standard and then whether it was compressed."

It seems to investigate whether compression has succeeded by whether the needle moves or not, instead of digitizing the concentration or quantity.

"When the compression is successful and the concentration gets deeper, the needle will swing to the right. If you remember even how to compress, after that the person will only have to work hard, basically if the needle can swing to the right basically Become"

If it can be compressed for the time being, it is a place where the individual makes efforts to improve the efficiency and compress the large amount, so it seems that it is not within the scope of the teachers involvement.

"The magic tool attached to Rosemain was a special thing, it is a thing that I made specially for measuring Ferdinand-like magical concentration"

During the House of Peers, the priest president who was said to be a genius seems to have been compressing the level easily like shaking hands with ordinary magic tools. Therefore, it seems that Hill sur was remodeling the magic tool so that it can observe a large swing width. This time, I heard that the magician for the priest chief was used. "I fainted Fleurreum with a beast, so I do not know what will happen," he said.

.....I'm sorry.

"And what do you say as the best guess, you say it is more than expected, something unexpected happened, right after I told you to start compressing to Mr. Rosemain, the needle was shaken out to the left I saw it for the first time, such as the concentration of magical power drops so much that the needle of a magician made for Ferdinand will fall off. It is a movement of a needle that children can not do any compression though it is impossible. "

... Ah, I see. Since it opened to compress it, the concentration got thinner once.

"And then, as if you were accustomed to compression, the needle returned to its original position as I looked at it, and the needle fell down to the right side."

"That is, it means that the concentration has gone up from the initial state, right? Is not my mistake that my compression was successful?"

"There is no mistake"

Although it was batting in production, it seems that it succeeded successfully to make the Rosemain type compression method four stages. I did it, and I was dancing inside, Hirschur said, "I guess it is Ferdinand's pupil, too," he said.

"Well, Rosemain-sama, please explain exactly what you did"

"Yes, when I got an explanation about magical compression, I measured the strength of magical powers and I was told that I could accept more compression, so I thought that I had to compress more than before. For that, after releasing all the magical powers that were being compressed, I aimed for further compression and recompressed. Oh, Mr. Hill Sur's advice was very helpful. "

When I explained my actions, Hill sur dropped my shoulders and shook my head gently.

"It was like, but like Rosemain, if you were able to compress it so far, you could just dilute it first and restore it to the original?"

"Ah!"

... ... It was a blind spot.

"I normally do not think it is going to compress it any further."

"I am sorry, I did not come up with it at all"

I looked at me with Hirschur's exhausted face.

"Even so, it is a Ferdinand-san's disciple, is it called out of the standard, or is it unexpected .... Is it time again for the era when the name of Ehrenfest came up. Rosemain was unaware, Though it seems to be more troubling than Ferdinand. "

After muttering so, Hirschle raised his face quickly, as if he had taken care of himself, and shining purple's eyes as interesting.

"Rosemain, I told you that my compression method was helpful, did not you? I would like to refer to Rosemain-san's compression method,"

"..... I am very sorry. The way I compress it is the secret of Ehrenfest and it will not be taught without the approval of the six leaders."

"Well, that's disappointing, who are you with the six leaders?"

I am sorry, but I have not given up Hill Sur's facial expression at all. I am thinking where to get information from where I am thinking.

"Is there a lady couple and the clubs and couple in the vicinity? If you are a guardian of Rosemain, would you also include Ferdinand? No one else can come to mind. This is Richarda who was at the head side of Zilvezter's head or Bonifatius Is it? "

Hill sur leaves from Ehrenfest seems familiar to internal circumstances. I hear cold sweat, I hear Hirschle's words.

"It is easy to get permission from the lords of Ehrenfest, it is easy for Karstedd and Elvira to lend themselves, so we are able to capture even if you are strong.

Saying that, Hill Sur raises the edge of the lip while gazing at me.

... .. Wow! Dr. Hill Sur, the secret and weakness of the Ehrenfest leaders, seems to be holding a lot! Hmm, help me, the chief priest!

With the mind of a frog stared at by a snake, looking back at Hill sur, the small laugh at Hill Sur got standing up.

"Ridiculous beast, magical compression, this sweet ... .. I am looking forward to see what kind of change Rosemain will bring"

Chapter 292: Library registration

"Ufufen, Fufen"

I was in a good mood from the morning. Today we are supposed to register users at the library during lunch break. You can enter the library of the nobleman for the first time.

Actually, since last night's sleeping, I know that I am excited and excited about the library registration, looking around the side I can not tell about the height of my tension, bitter smile.

"Rosemain really likes the library to be looking forward to last night, is not it that his taste does not suit at all with his sister who has never entered the library?"

In the breakfast room where the aides are gathered together, the Rizerator informs the attendant's aides who do not know the state of me in the room.

Angelica was heartily proud.

"It is good that the master and slave supplement the place we are not good with each other," said the head of the knight. "Rosemain says he is good at studying and can not move his / her body, I am good at moving his body because he is not good at studying. He is a very good mastermind. "

"In that matter, if Rosemain learns about body strengthening and you can move your body, your sister will need to study in order to balance it."

Angelica barely opened his eyes to the giggle and Laiserator who laughs. Everyone smiles laughing at Angelica's reaction and finishes breakfast.

He raised his face as Brunhild was relieved.

"Like Rosemain, yesterday Mr. Hirschle came, I was told that I was telling you, but there was a consultation from teachers who teach music to teach Rosemain to a tea ceremony."

From that senior student to that word "O O" was raised. Although senior students are excited about it, they seem to be happy, but first and second graders do not understand the meaning of the reaction and are inclining their heads.

"Third graders had a practical skill of music yesterday afternoon"

In the practical skill of music, "It was said that Rosemain played a new song in the practical skill of the first grader but is well-known in Ehrenfest?" He asked. As a result, the children who practiced the musical scores sold by the Planetan Shokai in advanced, intermediate, lower class, all classes were to play according to their degree of difficulty.

As a result, it has spread to the surroundings that there are already many songs I made.

Bruhn Hilde, who is an apprentice behind my side, was called after the practical skill and said, "Since the freshman of Ehrenfest finished all sessions, I heard that you have time in the morning?"

The songs that I showed off have been relatively famous in Ehrenfest since two years ago because what was played at the Festspiel Concert of the priest, and being sold as music.

It is said that a music teacher is interested in the suddenly many songs full of creativity completely different from the one which the culture of all the territory gathers at the aristocrat, and it is told that it is my A question arises in the head.

"There was a period of about two years since I sold the score, but did anyone not play at the lords?"

"Because everything that Rosemain-sama was made, there was an intention of Aub Ehrenfest that it gradually spreads with Rosemain's entrance."

The things I made are basically made of temples and downtowns. Acting in the temple, the civilian officers are not involved at all and even the priest chief only received reports on sales and finished goods.

Even if it comes up to the topic at the Lord Conference, there is no one who has enough knowledge to answer the details or encourage outside the territory, so there must have been a pilfering decree so as not to spread out in advance.

"Can you accompany the tea party, Brunhild?"

I thought that going alone by myself, thinking to Brünhild, Brunhild looked great with a shining candy eyes.

"Of course, I will accompany you. The invitation from the teacher is that the center is interested in the culture of Ehrenfest in the middle. The opportunity to accompany such a sunny place for the first time is"

It is an honor to be invited to tea ceremony society, it seems that Ehrenfest was never invited as far as Brunehilde knows. I finally found out why the senior student raised a surprise and excitement to be invited to the tea ceremony.

"Because I will be the first tea ceremony at the House of Lords, I will leave Brühnhild with familiarity with the teachers and exchange preparation with the teachers and prepare necessary items. Do you know the date? ? "

"No, I have not heard yet, I will reply to you after hearing Rosemain's intention. It takes a few more days for me to finish school sessions, so please give me an invitation letter formally. Would you mind replying if you think well answering with your sideways? "

It seems that Brunhild is going to finish schoolchild by the tea ceremony. It is pleasant that I will push forward towards the purpose, so I will support you.

"In my reply, I do not have any problems. It will be tough for you to prepare for the tea ceremony after finishing classroom but thank you."

"Please leave it to me, I have to prepare the costumes, hair ornaments, music, souvenirs, everything in perfect by the tea ceremony, my arms will ring."

When Brunhild is invited to a teacher of music, I will count the preparations necessary and enumerate. Naturally, it seems that it will be accompanied by the exclusive musicalist Rosina in that place.

"The date of the tea ceremony has not been decided yet, but please do not practice. I think that it is better if there is a new song."

"I will think about a bit about a new song, Rosina, and even if I come up with a song, I can not play myself right away."

I basically can only sing with a humming song. It is job of Rosina which is exclusive musicalist to wake up to score or arrange for fenspiel to play.

"Because I will visit the library during my lunch break, come back as soon as possible"

After breakfast, I saw a senior student leaving to go out with a smile, I was talking to Rosina for a new song while a first year student made a reference book. Rosina is delighted with the work of arranging new songs.

"Rosemain, please sing immediately"

Prepare Fespiel, White Paper and Pen and write down several bars each while checking the main melody that I sing with Fespiel. I am presenting it to a music teacher this time, so I tried picking songs not so long from classical music.

"Which god is it for this god?"

"In commemoration of the first library registration, let's dedicate it to the wisdom goddess Mestionora"

While looking interestingly at the first grader making reference books, while looking at the process of songs, Rosina picked up the main melody and started arranging.

After finishing lunch I was attracted to all the first year students and me and Wilfriet's aide and headed for the library. Richard with registration fee is also with.

I felt that my tension rose steadily while Wilfried's aides confirmed whether they were all in the entrance hall or not.

"A lot of libraries, libraries, books, a place of happiness, Ruru Ran,"

Because I have been playing music all morning, singing comes out without permission.

"This is the song that Rosemain had previously written, does not it already have songs?"

Hartmut's eyes are rounded, so I smiled nicely and nodded.

"Now, I got it, how does God create it in the paradise on the earth?"

"Wait, Rosemain. Even if you listen to that song, the teachers will be confused. Is not it better to think lyrics a little more? It is not the library but the wisdom goddess Meztionola's song "

Richarda stops sighing that Wilfried's small face is smiling and its surroundings are small and I am floating.

"Princess, today is registration only, there is no time for reading, because in the afternoon it is a practice of court practice"

"I know"

I nodded in Richard 's words that has been told many times since the morning. Of course, if you do not pass, including practical skills, you are told that you can not enter and exit the library freely, so I have not thought about the nail 's intention to skip.

"... but, is it good to take a walk in the reading room until the last minute?"

In addition, just for a moment, if you can taste it with dishes it is good enough to see what kind of books are glimpsed to the extent that you taste it? ... Ricarda narrowed down the black eyes and glared at me.

"Princess, I've mentioned it many times, but I do not have time for reading,"

"Of course I understand"

A bitter smile of a first-year student leaks into words repeated many times between me and Richarda.

"Everyone has got it, let's go on"

When you leave the Ehrenfest dormitory, you go out to the corridor in front of the auditorium. And, as I pass the small hall which I always use in practical skills, it is my first place for me. Walk through the corridor and pass by the hall used by intermediate and lower aristocrats in practical skill.

And, when heading south from the center part of the main building where there are many large classrooms such as the auditorium and the small hall, it went out to where it is a T-junction. The corridor is stretched to the left and right, and there is a big door at the end.

"Turning to the right here will be a specialized building where civilian apprentices will use and a specialist building where side apprentices learn will head to the left."

I listened to Cornelius elder's explanation, I tilted my head.

"Which is the special building of the knight apprentice?"

"Because it is on the north side, it is just opposite, it is the furthest from the library in the special building. It is still thinking that it is thought that the knight apprentice does not use the library so much"

While watching Angelica, Brother Cornelius said so. Despite what Angelica is the final grade, I discovered the fact that I have not registered the library yet. It seems that I have never entered the library until now. Incredible.

When I asked for library registration, Angelica himself said that there is no use in the library and since it is a waste of money such as registration etc. in the final grade, it is not necessary. However, it was scolded by Stin rook, "What will you do when you have to go to the Lord to pick up the Lord's Lord!" This time, it was decided to register.

"There is a library at the back of this door"

The senior student who finishes registration is put in, but if we do not enter with the librarian, Soranju, unregistered us seems not to enter the library.

"Rosemain, please put the wooden cards delivered by Professor Sorangju here"

A mouth like a newspaper is open at the door. If you put an appointment wooden card there, it seems to me that Mr. Sorangju knows our visit.

After a couple of seconds after putting a casket and a wooden card, the door slowly opens. Beyond that open door there was a bright corridor where the sun was well connected, and there was a door at the end.

And an elegant grandmother of blue eyes on thin purple hair waits with a gentle smile with the door behind. It is somewhat plump and, as you can see, a good grandmother of men is this librarian.

"Mr. Villefriet, Rosemain, this is Mr. Sorangej"

"I am Sorangju, it has arrived in my ear for this year's first-grader in Ehrenfest, it was truly amazing that we will finish schooling earlier than using a library "

While smiling with a relaxed tone, Sorangju said so, slowly moving a bit of a plump body slowly, showing the door behind.

"The other side of this door is the reading room"

Sorangu said so, showing the door by hand, showing the location of the reading room. After leaving the main building of the House of Peers, if you walk straight to the south straight just seems to arrive at the reading room of the library. This is good. I heard that they will not get lost.

My shoulder who tried to run towards the reading room was crisp and my brother Cornelius stopped and turned round and round. At the same time, Soranju turns to the right while saying, "Today we are going to register, please go here."

..... Oh, the reading room is calling me.

With desire to be haired, I followed Sorange.

The door of the room which is close to the reading room can be opened. That was the office of the drawing room and Soranju.

Thus, it was a rather large room so that I could register for a new student. Slender windows are evenly spaced, spreading to the left, long beside the long room is the same as my room.

As soon as entering it is a space for reception and tables and chairs are prepared where light comes in from the window. There was a pen stand on the table, and a pen of a magician writing with magical power was set up.

At the wall of the room there are several chairs on one hand and a wooden box that can be used as a chair are lining up and you are instructed to wait in turn there. Vilfried and I, then the senior aristocrat sitting on the chair, the intermediate aristocrat and the lower aristocrat sitting in the wooden box chair. Although it is a chair of a wooden box, the decoration is fine, and the seating surface is a gorgeous thing with cloth stretched.

On the far side there was an office desk across the window, with a number of writing boxes and bookcases around it so that you could work with the light of the window. But, none are tightly locked and the back cover is invisible.

In the back where the office desk is located there is a screen for blindfolds. There seemed to be a private space of Soranju, I could see that my stature was about to be sitting side by side with clothes of black rabbits and white rabbits of likely size.

Although it is a stuffed toy, it is not a roundly deformed one in the Reyno Period but rather quite a real figure. I thought of Saranju, a grandmother, cherishing the stuffed animal's rabbit, and loosened my cheek to that smile.

While I was walking around the room, Sorangju brought several sheets of paper from the office desk. It seems necessary for registration. After putting it on the table of the reception space, I stood before us sitting on the wall.

"The library is a place where valuable knowledge crystals gathered by our wisdom goddess Mestionola were gathered, respecting wisdom goddess Mestionora, paying close attention to the book I can not enter without a person who pledges to touch. "

"I fully agree with the words of Professor Sorangju and the library is the ground paradise God has given us."

Sorangu collapsed my mind in my words. I personally think that I can get along very well with Soranju.

"Is registration fee prepared?"

Richard took out the bag with money in the words of Soranju. Sorangju who was counting money tilts himself "Oh?"

"There should be eight first graders of Ehrenfest, but there is a charge for nine people."

As I said so, Sorangje counted the number of people sitting side by side for registration, narrowing my eyes on the appearance of Angelica sitting side by side with the first year student.

"There are some senior students who are newly registered, so students who were not registered in the first year are rarely registered before that, so it's a pleasing experience."

Registration fee is necessary, so it seems that even freshmen will not always register in the library. And it seems that students who did not register for first grade will always graduate as they are.

After paying the number of people, there was explanation of how to use the library.

"The books on the first floor are mostly reference books used for lecture studies, so if you are inside the reading room, you can carry around, read at your favorite places, copy it, etc. To bring it out of the reading room I need procedures and deposit for lending. "

The deposit seems to require money equivalent to books. And it seems that the borrowed book must be returned by the day before the graduation ceremony. It seems to lend me much for a long time.

"On the second floor precious books that are not used in the lecture of the aristocrat are connected to the chain. It's just reading on the spot. We do not have to leave the chain even in the reading room as well as lending."

Some notes such as eating and drinking inside the reading room, opening of two and half bells and closing 6 bells were mentioned.

"Only those who swear to treat books with great care and without violating these will be allowed to register"

"To swear!"

When I caught my hand, Sorangju invited me to the table at the window, saying "I will register from Rosemain sama" while narrowing the blue eyes happily.

In Ehrenfest it is the first registration. I asked Wilfried once "Would you like to register me first?" Wilfried gently shrugged his shoulders and allowed him to waggle his hand "unconscious".

"Ufufen, Fufen"

I face the Sorangee across the table. Soranju handed me a piece of parchment paper with nothing written on it, handed me a pen writing with magical power.

"Then, please write in this paper that we pay homage to the wisdom goddess Mestionola, strictly adhere to the rules of the library, pay close attention and touch the book."

I wrote as I was told. And, after the wording, I was told to write my own name and wrote it.

Soranj confirms it, signs approval, and at the same time the paper burns with a golden flame. It is like contract magic with the library, which seems to have completed magical registration.

"Who is the next one?"

"It's me"

I switched to Villefried and I will sit down in the chair and wait for everyone's registration to end. And as soon as the registration of all of them finished, I stood up with a smile full of face.

"Let's immediately go to the reading room"

"Princess, it's only registration today, have you said so many times?"

Richarda turned into a scary face. In this situation, I will return to the dormitory without even having the ambition to take a walk in the reading room.

Paradise not entering, once again ... it is close to the situation, disgusting! I breathed a lot.

"Ricarda, I can just look at the reading room so do not let the library enter the library!"

"Once you go, the princess will not come out. It is hard work to separate the princess and the princess. After the afternoon practical afternoon practicing will start soon, we will not enter the reading room."

"And the library ... .."

At the same time as the ban on Richarda, tears rise in a moment, as tears are cut off, tears fall down. It was said that the nobleman 's daughter should not do something like tears, but such attention was blowing away from the head as much as possible. Despite murmuring as "library, library", the surrounding people panickily for me to tear off the tears and tears.

"Richarda and Rosemain have passed all first grade students to come to the library, so is not it good to look around the reading room a bit?"

"Because there are so many people, if you come to time, if you take off with the book and take off Rosemain-sama, you will not be late."

In the words of Vilfried and Cornelius' s brother, a first grader packed with the seat for library registration helps "Please forgive me." Richarda who heard the appeal of everyone gave permission with a bitter smile saying "If you like it so much ...".

"But, the princess, are you really just looking at the reading room?"

"Thank you! Thank you, everyone"

As soon as I tried to scrub the eyes and eyes, the Rizerator stopped my hand and wiped my tears with a handkerchief.

Sorangju who was watching such interaction smiled with couscous.

"I will show you the reading room because it's no problem. I am glad that I am a rare student who wants the library so much."

"Thank you, Mr. Sorangju. Well, I was really looking forward to seeing encounter with paradise on the ground given by God Gratefully thank the encounter with the librarian of the House of Lords, the wisdom goddess Mestio Let's pray to Norah! "

I can go to the library. I was forbidden by Richarda, once I fell into despair, I raise my hands and hands and moved my left foot up.

"Pray to God!"

The moment of blessing from the ring, the moment when you gratefully thank God for grateful prayers, with the emotions of joy! He blew out vigorously. Because I was dedicating prayers for the wisdom goddess Mestionola, the yellow light fills the room.

As Sorangje stares spectacularly and looks at the light of blessing, Wilfried sighs as "Was it this way?" Hartmut said, "It is truly Rosemain, you do not have to make himself a legendary saint," I laughed happily.

.....I goofed.

When I gently stared his line of sight and turned his eyes towards the back of the room, a stuffed animal of black rabbit and white rabbit stood up a little far behind the screen. I thought that it was a big stuffed animal, but I walked toward here with two halves and two.

"What?" Rabbit "moved."

"Well, well, is not it Schwarz and Vice!"

Sorangju rounded his eyes and called them two. Black and white, the name is as it is. Two rabbits with sizes up to my shoulder passed by Sorange and stood in front of me.

"Hime-sama, what do you mean?"

"Do you want to go and see?"

A rabbit with a deep golden manastone on his forehead points the golden circular eye to me. I did not understand the meaning, and I asked Sorange for help.

"... Sorangju, is this it?"

"In the era when several senior aristocrats served as a librarian, it is a magic tool that has helped the library's work as is natural, it is a doll that will help the Lord with magical powers. Rosemain's blessing makes magical power I got to move and be able to move, so for them they will be Rosemain. "

It seems that it was impossible to move with the magical powers of Soranju who is an intermediate aristocrat. I am touched by the tears that "I can see the appearance of Schwarzs and Weiss moving again ...".

"So, Schwarz and Weiss, please two please help Professor Sorangju"

If these two are dolls to help libraries, it would be best to let the library help you. Two rabbits nodded in my words as I thought.

"Okay, I'm going to ask for Sorange."

"What do you do, Sorangei?"

Overlooking Schwarzz and Weiss, Sorangju narrowed his eyes narrowly.

"First let me show you Rosemain."

Chapter 293: Black Forest and Weiss

---

"Dear Mr. Hime, why do you want to die"

"Do it like that"

It is the two rabbits that will guide me. While saying that, Schwarz and Vice tries to head to the back of the Soleange's office. Whether Eleenfest 's line was looking upside down whether or not it could go back as it was, Sorangje stopped two animals with a bitter smile.

"Schwarz, Vice, there is no door to guide you."

Apparently, behind this office there seems to be a door directly connected to the work space of the library.

Schwarz and Weiss are routinely used doors but they are not an entrance to guide guests, says Sorange, Schwarz and Vice walk to the door we came in a long way I came. And it opens the door to a large extent.

"From here"

"Hime-sama is a chef"

Because Blackwater and Weiss are magical tools that are made on the premise of working, the clothes on which the two are dressed are puff sleeve short-sleeved dresses. Black Rabbit's Black Footstone is based on White, White Rabbit's Weiss is a different color clothing that is based on black.

And on top of the dress, he was dressed in a complicated embroidered vest of various colors. The sparkling and glowing stones used for buttons looks like a magic stone. If the decorative button is a magic stone, clothes alone seems to have considerable value. Besides, I have never seen the magician working in this way even in the House of Lords. Perhaps the existence itself is not valuable.

"Dr. Sorangju, will not Blackberg and Weiss suddenly be taken away, or will it be peeled off? I am very worried,"

"Schwartz and Weiss are magical tools made to work in the library. <sup>There</sup> owner You can not work outside of the library except when acting with them. Besides, I do not know well, but seems to have various defense so that the successive lords with similar kind of grief are not brought out. As long as you are in the library, there is no worry. "

That would be fine, but as I was a little relieved, I left Sorangue's office as urged by Schwarz and Vice.

"Hime-sama, here"

The two go across the corridor at the beginning of a line. While swinging his head and ears, the figure of walking with a cauldron is very cute. I do not know who made it, but my hobby about cute is going to match.

When I was thinking about such things, I could hear the sigh of admiration that I understand being enchanted from behind me.

"Huh, how lovely you are"

When I looked back, it turned out that the Rieselaerr who was settling for the year rarely shines a dark green eyes, staring at Schwarz and Vice.

At the moment the lines of sight match each other, the Rizerator tightens his facial expression as if he did it. Still, the appearance of the two animals seemed to be very bothersome, and I found that the line of sight was looking at two fliers.

"When I am praised by Black Forest and Weiss for the Rizerator, my Lord is also happy."

"Is that so ... .. that, I keep a schmir at home, and it seems that it has gone a bit since it was the first time I saw Sumir's magical tool that I can talk big and talk like this"

The reliser who smiled as he was relaxed slowly turned his eyes to Schwarz and Vice. The line of sight tells eloquently that Schwarz and Vice are cute and it can not be helped. The enthusiastic Rieselator is pretty, but there were words that are more anxious than that.

"... .. Sumil, is that?"

I have heard it somewhere. Where did you hear it? While searching for memories, I saw Black Foot and Weiss. While I can not remember at once, the Rizerator will be happy to tell you about Sumil.

"A real schmir is a little smaller than my knee and a monster kept as a pet for a nobility. Of course, unlike a magical tool doll, words do not speak, it just crows apart

But Rosemain has not seen anything, it is a favorite food and it's very lovely to eat hard. "

... ... Do you cry?

Finally I remembered that word. The memories of my first meeting with my adoptive father who was not very pleasant revived, I frown.

"..... I can not say anything specifically, but I was told that I resemble Sumiru."

"Well, if you are told, Kim's pupils are similar, and the schmir I know is lustrous dark blue coat, I remember Rosemain's hair color, probably Rosemain It will be a compliment that Mr. is pretty lovely. "

..... No, I thought that it was not a word of praise because I was "Purely, crying" for the first time.

At the same time, when I made a Lesser bus for the first time, I also recalled to the chief priest who told me, "Why do not you do me a smile." If he knew that he was a rabbit at that time, he might have made it into a rabbit.

Since the image for the beast has already been settled, it is difficult to change to the schmyl type from now, so I will continue to use the Lesser bus from now on.

"Hime-sama, here, everutsushin"

While saying that, Schwarz and Weiss open the thick door of the reading room, which has become a double doors open.

From the open entrance, I saw a wooden bookshelf lined up at even intervals in the center, slightly away from the wall. A large and thick pillar on the wall is lined up at even intervals with a vertically long window in between and a wooden plate decorated like a waist wall is stretched around the inside of the reading room until the height of my shoulder There.

..... Ooooo! A lot of books! There are really many! happy! I am too happy! I am going to cry!

It is much more than the bookshelf of Ehrenfest. There were a number of shelves around the library of the big citizen library, such as the library of the town that is not so big in the Lake Ono era.

My heart is fluctuating in the library of the scale that I see for the first time in this world. Unless it is said that it is only to see it, he must have caught reading from the end straight to the bookshelf.

"I am too happy, I'm about to cry"

"From before entering !?"

Vilfried's surprised voice came up and Elder Cornellius struck my shoulder as "blessing is forbidden." At the same time, from Richarda, "It's only a tour, please do not read" and is stabbed again by a nail.

She was looking up at the golden eyes that Schwarz and Weiss cooked such an exchange done in front of the opened door.

"Hime-sama."

"Yes, I will excuse you."

When I went inside while looking around and looking around, I saw a piece without a window on the right side, and I saw an office desk that would perform a counter work. Even if there is no window, there is a door, so probably that door and the office of Soranje are connected.

And on the left side there was a wide staircase, and it turned out that the library continued to the second floor.

..... There is also a library on the second floor! Oh, too much crush, my heart hurts!

It is not only the first floor, but also the second floor. It is likely to be expected for the number of books. I want to read from one end.

Where is the most easy to read books, where the light is not popular, where is the light, and is it from the bookshelf? I look for reading space and look around the reading room.

Since the House of Lords is built with the same material as Ehrenfest dormitories and castles, the walls and pillars of the library are white. It seems that many long narrow windows are attached for the purpose of improving daylighting, and when light is inserted from the window, it seems to be surprisingly brighter in the library, because of a pure white building.

There are carvings on the pillars and walls, so they are decorative, and it is not a simple feeling for pure white.

..... Maybe a bit like the temple.

"Hime, what are you looking for?"

"Are you questioning?"

Black Schwarz and Weiss called out whether I noticed what I was hanging around.

"Where can I read this book? Is there a place to read books?"

"Here, here."

Schwarz and Weiss walk towards the back so that the library straight through the door. Continuing after the two, I turned my eyes to the book on the bookshelf.

What lined up on the bookshelf was not a book wrapped in a beautiful leather cover that looked like a castle, it was a simple making spelled with a string sandwiched between thin wooden boards. It is rather a book collection rather than a book. Because it is a library of the House of Peers, I thought that there were lots of more luxurious and scattered books, but that is not the case.

"Unlike imagination, it's quite a simple cover. There are books like this <sup>Mainly</sup> owner Are they on the shelf? "

"Now, the books on the first floor bookshelf are all reference books written by students"

It is Sorangju who answered my question. Every year the library seems to have bought a reference book for those with good grades and those with beautiful letters for the relief of the poor nobility. There are a lot of numbers, damage and replacement are many, so it seems that it is impossible to attach leather covers to everything. I see, looking around the bookshelf while I nodded. In that case, I wonder if there are no particular problems even if I put the books I made.

I came as far as the wall at the back, leaving me guiding the two. At the end of the wall I spread out my hands and finally a thick rectangular pillar where hands reach both ends and alternately long vertical windows of about the same width. Whether to study with the light to insert from the window, there is a simple wooden desk and chair between the pillar and the pillar. When looking at the back from the entrance the plate which only looked at the waist was actually a role like a door rather than a waist wall. The lock is locked so that the door does not open for the time being.

.....Wow! There is a character carefully!

I saw the space of about 1 meter between the pillars and pillars as a self-study space like a small private room or a reading space, and my tension goes up with Gun. Apparently Charles here seems to be used almost like a room. Even though the user is not in Charles, books are clogged on the desk, and ink and wooden bills are piled up.

"Here, Charles, I will pass the key to the person you want"

"I will study and do my best."

..... Certainly, after lunch, if a warm light is plugged into the window from the window, you will be sleepy.

I looked around as if there were some people taking a nap, but there was almost no sign of a person in the reading room. Several people are using Charles, but no one is walking in the library.

"There are quite a few users at this library, are not you?"

When I murmured thinking that it was wasteful because it was such a library that there was such a large amount of books as Carrel, Schwarz and Vice shook their heads.

"Different, Princess"

"Little, now only"

There are still few senior students who pass the examination of classroom at this time yet, so newcomers who pass the exam on the first day are many who have not finished registering, so Sorange will add and tell us that there are few users in the library .

"From around mid-winter, students will be able to enter and leave a lot of characters so that they will run out of chars. Every year, the most before the final exam is the most"

According to Sorange, senior aristocrats often take deposits and bring books to their own rooms rather than studying with narrow characters. Lower class aristocrats and intermediate aristocrats who can not afford the deposit seem to have to read in the library, and as a result, Carrel becomes a study place for lower aristocrats and intermediate noblemen. For that reason, it seems that the students who frequently sit between lectures and go to the library will be occupied almost like a room.

"I am also an intermediate aristocrat and I have a hard time studying, so I can understand their feelings well, but I am a little troubled to keep the book on Charare for ever"

Soranjū said so, with laughing, I wish to secure it until the end of the copy.

Carrel on the sunny south which the outside of the window leads to the outside is popular, and even if there is a west side carrel and windows troubled by the west day, Charles on the door side of the entrance with a small amount of light on the aisle side seems unpopular .

It seems that ranking and status are involved in the relationship of this character, and it seems that it is usual that the lower aristocracy of the small province is pushed into the door side and the west side character.

..... I also want Carrel.

It is wonderful that there is an environment where you can sit down and read slowly near the bookshelf. I would like to get my own carrel at the same time I passed all.

While walking in front of Carrel, Schwarz and Vice walk to the desk to do the counter work.

Noticing the signs of the Ehrenfest line that the user who had only a few people walked apart, looked up, looked back at Schwarz and Vice, I realized that it was astonishingly impressive.

Before the political change, Schwarz and Weiss were usually helping the library, so I think that if the person of the year as the chief priest leader knows. However, from this surprising way, it is not unusual that the moving magic tool itself is unusual.

"Mr. Sorangju, I have not seen it yet, but are magical tools like Schwarz and Weiss moving a lot in the aristocrats?"

"No, it is a very rare one, since it is normal to conceal the research results, I have heard from my predecessor librarian that the manufacturing method itself is lost, it is said that it was an old royal family made So for Schwarz and Weiss, <sup>There</sup> owner Everything seems to be the princess, "

Sorangju said that the librarian of the founder also called "Hime-sama". Imagine the face of a male librarian called in the library "Hime-sama", a small laughter leaks from Ehrenfest's line.

"How is Mr. Sorangej, how is the arrangement of books on bookshelves in the library? Please tell me about classification method"

"The placement of books is in order of acquisition, because everyone likes new things."

Naturally, as the book on the first floor is just a reference book for lectures, it seems that new things are preferred over older ones. Therefore, on the first day of the lecture opened by the library, it seems that competition for reference books will arise between senior students.

Besides, it seems that Sorangju which manages to be hard is seemingly there seems to be a case that candidate lords and senior aristocrats take deposits from the library and bring them out as they are each year.

"Can you please return the book? How about calling out a reminder letter in Ordonants and asking for it?"

"When I got a librarian of a senior aristocrat before, I returned when I contacted him, but now I often hear it even if I make a complaint."

For senior aristocrats and candidates who can bring out security deposits, it seems that there is little effect no matter how much Sorenju of the intermediate aristocracy says. It seems to be completely heard. Then it hinders library work. This is not good.

"Why has not the librarian of a senior aristocrat left?"

"Because it was distributed to another job by political change, I was committed to my predecessor that Schwarz and Vice would be okay, but I could not move with my magical powers."

It seems that lending, returning, and management of Charles were work of Schwarzs and Weiss. For a while the magical powers of my predecessor remained, so the two who were moving stopped moving in about a year.

It seems that Soranju has worked while arranging the two in the back of the office room, with the mind that a colleague working together stopped working.

"Do it here"

"Return here"

The two who arrived at the workspace climb on the chair as if they contend with one another.

Rather than a counter, rather than a desk for office, I'm going to do procedures there. Schwartz and Vice taught me at the desk.

There were several shelves around the desk, and there was a tool necessary for materials and work. Just watching them makes me excited.

"By the way, not only students to use but also other librarians are missing."

"... .. yeah"

Soranju fogged his expression and nodded. It seems that Soranju is entrusted with the management of the library, as people are steadily decreasing and registration and deletion of students is now possible.

"In the case of a librarian, how are things going on together, although there are many other jobs?"

"Basically, since the House of Peers ends ..... I do other work from spring to autumn when students are almost gone."

What hardship is it going to be? My head shaved. I wonder if this is where I am going. I would like to work in order to facilitate library work. Because students can not become a librarian, this only has to be a library committee member.

"I, Mr. Sorangju's help ... .."

At the moment when I said "I will become a book committee member to help you", light of various colors like those passed through a stained glass came in the library. I am surprised at the fact that red and blue light falls though I am not fitting the stained glass in the window, I look up on the top. Just looking like a white ceiling and walls with colorful light, there is nothing special.

In a matter of seconds it disappeared.

At the same time, it seems that several users have closed books and get up.

"What is this light?"

"It is light that urges you to leave for the afternoon lecture. Students who are immersed in books so that the sound of the bell does not fall into the ear also seems to notice that the color of the book at hand changes, and before the bell rings in the library There is such news by light as it is. "

As I read the book, I heard that Richard was saying "I heard a good thing" behind me when I nodded deeply that I could not hear surrounding sounds.

"Sorangju sensei, the key ....."

"Yeah yeah, it will be a practical skill from the afternoon, please do your best"

While students are concerned about the existence of Black Forest and Weiss, they hand out Carrel's key to Sorange and go out of the reading room in a busy condition. While looking at the situation, Richard smiled nicely and showed the door.

"Well, Princess. Because there was a signal to leave, let us go to practice in the afternoon"

"Since I was in the reading room, I'm satisfied, after I passed everything"

"I will be late for the afternoon practical skill"

To everyone's word, I looked up at the second floor where I could not go this time and lightly sigh. I'm very sorry that I have not even visited the second floor and I have not read a book of books, but for today I have no choice but to give up.

..... I will pass all the exams in a hurry so that I can be caught in the library all day this time absolutely. Yo! I will try my best!

I will hold my determination in my fist and I will leave the reading room with everyone. When Schwarz and Vice, who came as they watched, left the reading room, I pulled my sleeve lightly.

"Working, worked"

"Princess, praise"

Schwarz and Vice lined up in front of me and lightly closed his eyes. I do not know what is being asked for, and when I looked up at Sorange, it giggled and Sorangje laughed.

"Please pet a manastre of forehead and pour a little bit of magical power, so these kids can work well again."

"understood"

While stroking Black Mana Stones of Black Forest and Weiss' s forehead, I pour a little more magical power. I have to work hard and work until I pass all the exams.

"Schwarz, Vice. I was saved because it showed me. After this I listen carefully to Mr. Sorangju and I will help you."

"I understand ... Soranju's business"

"So, Hime-sama, a new wipe"

To the request of Vice who is too short to understand well, I also headed back again. Sorenju narrows his eyes to search for distant memories, hits his hands.

"When Lord changed, Schwarz and Weiss gave new clothes, Rosemain would like to have new clothes as well"

"..... I do not accompany a handsome to the lords and I do not have cloth ready, so I think that will be next year, is it OK?"

It seems that it will take time to tailor two people. I can not do it very much during winter. In my words, Black Forest and Weiss nodded greatly.

"New clothes take time"

"Know"

If you wait, you will be able to tailor your cute clothes. I thought so, I was relieved.

"... Sorangju, are there gender in Schwarz and Weiss?"

"Well, Rosemain, there is no gender in the magical tool, it is important that any garment that you gave it from the Lord"

It seems there is no gender in Schwartz and Weiss which are magic tools imitating the appearance of Sumil. It seems that it was various, depending on the times, being made to dress up for girls, being brought on by the boy's appearance.

..... What kind of clothes do you wear? Whatever clothing you wear, you need an armband of the library committee, do not you?

If you give an armband to Black Forest and Weiss, I also want my armband. When you return to Ehrenfest, let's ask Turi.

"Well, I will end the lecture as soon as possible and I will come to the library. If you miss the spirit of Schwarz and Weiss, please do not hesitate to contact me soon."

I told Sorangee and waved to Schwarz and Vice, he left the library.

Chapter 294: Court practice and Hill sur visit

---

When you leave the library, there is a corridor that leads to civil servants and side specialty buildings. I will go to the center of the main building roughly and comprehensively with Richarda and the knights apprentice and I say to go to each expert building in the apprenticeship and civil apprenticeship of the witnesses of Wilfriit and me.

The Filines arrive in the classroom used by the lower aristocrat, and Rodrigues enter into the classroom used by intermediate nobles.

And although the candidate for the lord was a usual small hall, the senior aristocrat headed to another classroom. In the Court Gymnasm, the things required for each class are different and we see the details, so today the classroom is different for senior aristocrats and lords.

"I will pick you up again later."

After reaching the small hall, apprenticeship of the knights and Richarda said so and left. Me and Wilfried entered inside.

"It is quite a motivated face, Rosemain"

"In order to go to the library, I have to pass the lecture as soon as possible, so I will accept this courtroom practice today as well."

Just by observing the library, I could not read a book. I win everything and pass it through the library.

"I will do my best to lecture."

"..... Well, it's a good thing to do your best."

Villefried sat while sitting in the 13th chair while murmuring, "I do not think it will be so successful."

"What you are required for the first year student court practice is a greeting and a behavior at a tea ceremony. As you finish various lectures, tea ceremonies will be held to have exchanges with other territories. ? It is required to acquire common courtesy so that each other will not feel unpleasant at that time. "

Even though I have learned a whole way of practice in education so far, they are loosely broken in their respective territories, and candidate lords may not be accustomed to doing thank you for being the top. Therefore, Professor Primèver said that at the House of Lords the invitation to the tea ceremony of the royal family higher than himself, confirmed the method of practice at the court and use it for the future.

Since the practice of court practice simulates a tea ceremony, various contents are checked by the three teachers, such as the contents of conversation, expression, eating, and how to drink, as well as a greeting to the teacher of the organizer 's royal family . In order to make a detailed check, it was decided to be divided into top 10 ranked candidate lords and 11th rank lower lords candidate students.

"Let's start with the top ranked candidate first"

In the words of Primvaler, the top ranked candidate came up. At first it was a greeting to the organizer who invited me to a tea ceremony. It must start from the superior. Everyone has experience. Always lining up in order, there was no appearance of being particularly enthralled, and greetings began.

From Phyllie I heard that "teachers of court court methods are getting relaxed and there are many gentle people, and there was not anyone who failed so much", so I sat for the first time in a relaxed mood, I was watching lord candidate students.

"Please try again"

".....Huh?"

At the time of the first greeting, we will be rejected one by one. Prim veil receiving a greeting opened her mouth with a laughing smile with an amicable atmosphere with no presence or absence.

"A candidate who is likely to be invited from a royal family to a tea ceremony will be in trouble with such a posture, in particular the next lord will surely have a dinner with the royal family and a tea party at the lord's conference. No, "

What I am talking about is not wrong, but it is likely that one pass will be more severe than expected. I stretched my spine and I put myself in and looked at the top lords. To be honest, I do not know at all what kind of formal greetings are bad and dropped. After at least one person is made to do over again, a tea ceremony with a somewhat jerky atmosphere starts.

... It's like a pressing interview.

I remembered the viewpoint of the interviewer of the employment examination in the form of Primvaler who let me do over and over again and seeing the reaction of the students quietly.

..... Because candidate lords are located at the top in the territory, are they also looking at the reaction when they were unreasonably swayed by the royal family?

Since we were watching from a distance away, we did not understand the content of the conversation at the tea ceremony. However, I understood that the child who was forced to do over and over at the point of greeting has contracted. He seems to be uneasy as to whether he is said to be rejected, and I am watching the surroundings with no eyesight being busy as to what I do is wrong.

"It's tough"

Voil Fleet muttered with a small voice. After the greeting, you can not hear the word "please try again" at all. Instead, those who served behind the teachers had written down something. It seems better to think that it is like an interviewer as well as other side jobs, as you can see from that situation.

"The goddess of the day Drefan Goa's today's thread spinning seems to have taken place very smoothly"

Primèvere tells the end of the tea ceremony with a word meaning "It's a fun time to pass so quickly." Greeting goodbye, the top ranked candidate students come to the chair where we were sitting with a tired face and sit down.

Starting preparations for new sweets and tea one after another so that the people of the role servant cleaned up the tea ceremony and we were able to practice our lower ranking candidate.

Meanwhile, the teachers hold the wooden bills that they had written for their side servants, and will state the evaluation to the top ranked candidate students.

"No. 9, do not forget elegance, please be careful not to move your fingertips."

"I'm sorry"

"Do not only do yourself talking about number 3, but listen to the story of the surroundings as well"

"No. 2 is a candidate for a lord of the large territory, please have a little more dignity"

"Number 7 is ... ...."

I heard that it is important not to lose the nobility likeness as long as I hear the evaluation given by three teachers one after another. It seems to be said that it does not become atrophy at compression interview.

As I have always been told since I came to live as a nobleman, I always stretch my heart with a smile that I can afford, never go down. Remember elegance, see the surroundings well.

..... If you do as you were taught by your mother, you surely okay.

"Mr. Villefriet-sama, Rosemain-sama"

Exams have already begun when called. In the employment examination it was said that waiting time and entrance were in the scoring range.

I stretched my spine so that my posture was as beautiful as possible, and smiled and smiled Nicoli towards Wilfried and handed him out. Wilfried, who had rounded his eyes for a moment, looking at the hand stretched out like "Escort, now, wait," but immediately take my hand and escort him.

If you do not have an escort, now I can not stand from the chair gracefully.

I escorted to Villefried, I headed for greetings before Primèvere. Wilfried is the one to greet first. I kneel, I crossed my hands in front of my chest and hang my neck.

"Please forgive me for praying for a blessing to a rare encounter that received the severe sorting of the life god AVivive"

"Please try again"

Wilfried lightly lowered his eyes, and so on, as he said again. While Primvaler quietly looks at it, let's do it twice more. It turned out that Wilfried chewed his back teeth like a chagrin.

'Wilfried is like you already'

Instruct the Prim Veil to wiggle with a light sigh and shake hands and retreat from the spot. Wilfried gently stood up and retired from the spot.

When Wilfried retires, next I will step forward. Align your eyes with the Primère looking quietly, once you show a smile and smile, carefully kneel. Then I crossed my hands in front of my chest.

"Please forgive me for praying for a blessing to a rare encounter that received the severe sorting of the life god AVivive"

"Please try again"

"Certainly yes"

I will deepen an amiable smile like sales smile, I will greet you more carefully once more.

"Please forgive me for praying for a blessing to a rare encounter that received the severe sorting of the life god AVivive"

"I will forgive you."

I grabbed the passing with a single redo, and I headed for a tea party. Wilfried who waited as an escort role whispered in a loud voice with a loud voice, "I was able to pass with the redo once," I mutteredly regretted.

"The trick is to think that the opponent is not a teacher, but a royal family"

"Do you think?"

Looking forward, I advise Wilfried in a loud voice without breaking the smile. Wilfried tilted his head like I do not know well.

Wilfried, who is rarely in contact with someone above himself, as Primère said, seems to be a royalty and he does not know even if he thinks he knows it.

"Villefriet's seat is here"

Wilfried tried to head there reflectively, a voice caught by a teacher.

I grabbed Wilfried's arm a lot and deepened my smile with smile. It seems that the silent question of "Are you going to release an escort?"

As I showed up to the seat, I grabbed hands towards my teacher, Wilfried began to advance his feet.

Of course, not only teachers, but also those who serve as side-talkers can not talk about knacks with a loud voice while everyone is shining their eyes on their surroundings. I wonder if there is a way of saying to Wilfried as short as possible.

Wilfried repeatedly failed many times, unlike those who were truly upper ranking candidate students who had little heads to lower their heads, and began to be able to thank the priest who was disliked at the beginning at the beginning . I think that it is not too difficult to clear this practical skill if that can be done.

"Villefried older brother, this tea ceremony is watched over to Ferdinand."

The moment when I whispered smallly, Virfriit's spine stretched out tight. The line of sight is fixed in front with a smile, but there is a sense of tension that explores the surroundings.

It seems to have been quite effective.

"This seems to be my seat, Thank you Virfriit older brother."

I thank Wilfried for escorting to my seat and smile with Nicola as "Please do your best with this condition." Wilfried returned a self-confident smile, different from the previous one, headed for her seat.

"Rosemain, please do"

Caterpillar and servants served their seats. I looked at the height of the chair and narrowed my eyes slightly. If you do your best you can not sit down, but you can not sit graciously no matter what you think.

I look up at the serving role, put my hands on my cheeks, and tilt my head "Troubled." It is using francs and other places in various places. It can not be understood by those who received education as a side job.

However, the side role also did not try to raise me to the chair by just tilting his neck.

..... Is this also a kind of exam?

I think with the pose of "troubled" as it is. What is the optimal solution here? It would have been nice to raise it up to the chair smoothly, but apparently it seems to be seeing a reaction to the unwilling side role.

It is completely out to climb the chair here and it is not appropriate for the lord of the lord to request that she "honestly raise it in the chair because we can not sit alone" honestly. It is not good to say "I can not do it".

..... Is it right to find a way to find out somehow, or is it right to say a complaint to the servant's role? The other party is set as a royalty, is not it? Well.

After a while staring at me, I noticed that I was the only one not sitting on my seat. Not to mention the candidate lords who are at the tea party, of course, you can see that the top ranked candidate students who have already completed the practical skill are also staring at this place.

"What's wrong, Mr. Rosemain?"

I looked back at the voice of Primèvere, the organizer who asks for the situation, as I was in trouble "pose".

"Primevale, I heard that this tea ceremony is supposed to be a royal tea ceremony, is not there a mistake?"

"Well, there is no mistake"

While saying that, Primèvele made a smile with interesting intelligence and made her eyes shiny. This is probably the most important problem for me.

Then, keeping the likeness of the nobility, it is correct that you are standing upright. I am a guest invited to the royal family. For the sake of serving, I do not need to be conscious.

"Dr. Primève, I wonder if this side is still unfamiliar, I am a little surprised, but please do not scold me very strongly"

It is rude thing to say that the organizer does not know about invited guests, so please never do it. Who is invited, what is your preference, what to do with your seat, how you should respond to individuals, every time at a tea party your mother said so many times and prepared the necessary items, He carefully taught attention to the side workers who worked on the table. The failure of the side contact to the customer is equal to the loss of the Lord.

It is information that the organizer must know in this tea ceremony that my body is smaller than around and it is difficult to sit on a chair. I have to make sure that there is no inconvenience on that.

"I am unfamiliar to the side" I said is a word that points out that the organizer neglects information gathering, inadequate contact with the side staff, or lacks the power to arrange high-quality side jobs. It is equivalent to saying "This tea party is a bit handy."

Prim veil said, "Well, what is that," and told me to go down to the side role that is pulling my seat, ringing a small bell at hand. Soon another party serving came and made me sit in the chair.

Simply by ringing the bell all the correspondence was done, Primèver got the information gathered properly and was also in touch with the side work. It seems that the quality of individual side workers seems to be bad.

"I'm sorry for being a really unfamiliar side, Rosemain."

"I do not mind. Recently it is difficult to get a quality side job"

I had you sit in a chair and I laughed gracefully. I noticed that the role serving standing behind Prim Veil wrote something.

Then the tea ceremony began, but I thought that this was a group discussion including eating and drinking, I responded. I tried hard to shake a subject that does not hurt to a child who is drinking tea in silence, to strike a child to appeal by waving a spit, try lifting the organizer with the topic of sweets and tea.

There is a part where you can see that you are watching small hooks and ability to deal with things on the way, and I look around and think about what I can do.

There was a scene where Wilfried was provoked, but unlike greetings, she smiled and surprised it. It seems that there was considerable effect in one word "The chief priest is watching".

"This successful candidate is Mr. Wilfried and Rosemain of 13. Even if you are invited to a tea ceremony at the lords, there will be no problem."

I and Wilfriit were the only ones who passed the practice of court proceedings. He got a success from Primvale.

I ended up jumping and wanted to pleasure, I stopped deepening my smile.

"I am sorry"

I still feel Primève 's gaze. In my mind I repeatedly said, "It is an exam until I return home," and I moved back to the dormitory with a keen sense of movement.

"I passed the court martial arts!"

At the same time as the entrance door of the dormitory closed, I reported to the Richarda with a full-open smile. My voices, my aides close to my surroundings gleefully say that Wilfried's aides closely watch their lord care.

"Wilfried sama ... ..?"

"I also passed, thanks to Rosemain, it was probably failed, without that single word."

Wilfried said that with a stormy tone. Richard blinks several times whether it is interested in that situation.

"What did you say, Wilfriedt baby?"

"I just said that Ferdinand would be seen."

"Well!"

For two years, Wilfried took charge of the winter kids' room and worship ceremonies and harvest festival occasions instead of me. Meanwhile, Richard who knew the hardship of Wilfried, who had no choice but to go with the priestess chief for disgust, smiled.

"Boy, I told you that anything will be brought up, but it seems that it was quite early."

"Well"

After finishing changing clothes, I saw everyone's reference book making at the multipurpose hall and refrained from buying information etc. When I make a reference book, I will deprive the work of the lower aristocracy, so I will leave it as much as possible. It is about pointing out messy characters and funny wording.

I decided to take measures for future lectures in the midst of trial and error that everyone managed to make money somehow. How can I go to the library as soon as possible?

Because I cleared the puppet law, the remaining skill is the acquisition of dedication dance, music, cud beast and stap.

For dedication dance, this year is only practice anyway, I think that so much level is not required. Since we can dance one way, I will review it for a moment whether I forget it or not. It is important to be careful not to pray to God so as not to cause extraordinary noise.

Regarding music, teachers are also invited to tea ceremonies, so it is no doubt that the standards are clear. Would it be okay to negotiate whether you could get off the passing in exchange for a new song's showcase?

The cow beast will start from the last time because Fraulem has been brought down and has been interrupted. According to Hill Sur, I finally went outside with a beast and I told that I could pass around the premises' premises, so I think there is no problem.

... ... If Mr. Fraulem did not collapse, maybe, it's okay.

Even more worried about Mr. Fraulem who collapsed last time, I think that it will end easily if Mr. Hirschle comes to the lecture of a cow beast as an aid. However, I do not think that Hill Sur who wants to be in the laboratory will hold such extra work. If you are asking for it, it is necessary to present appropriate merits.

... ... And tomorrow is the acquisition of Stap .....

All first grade students are supposed to be in the place called the innermost. So he seems to have to take a manastone called "intent of the god" to become the stone of the stap. I was worried whether I could collect it, but Elder Cornelius said "I am OK, I can never get it." It seems to be "I know by going to the spot."

However, it is not only an end to collect gemstones. It seems that you have to make a Stap and learn basic usage. It seems not to be so difficult.

"Is Rosemain sama?"

Hill sur was jumping into the dormitory where it was possible to pass the lecture to a certain extent. Apart from saying that senior students are "dorms supervisors who only come to the dormitory at the beginning and the end", I feel that I often come to the dormitory.

I caught my eye when I saw Hill Sur entering the multipurpose hall.

"What is today?"

"I heard from a student who was at the end of the lecture before, but did you revive Schwarz and Vice? How did you do it? Those who were not the main person could not touch them carelessly I suppose. "

Hill suru said so to fold with an excited look. Apparently he touched carelessly and seemed to have been repelled by Schwarz and Vice. I knew the effectiveness of amulets in an unexpected place.

Even so, students who were in the reading room would not have understood who the Ehrenfest had resurrected. Why did I think that I resurrected?

To my doubts Hirschle shrugged his shoulders with a normal face.

"If first-graders of Ehrenfest watched the library collectively and heard that the big black and white Sumil was walking like to guide you, you do not immediately know who's work, such insane It is decided by Rosemain to do what I do, and I have not received reports on Aldanants. "

"... .. I did not think that moving Mr. Schwarz and Vice was troubling Mr. Hirschle's hands and I was not thinking that there was a reporting obligation at all."

As far as Hirschle's somewhat excited purple eyes are concerned, rather than wanting to grasp the situation as a dormitory official, it seems more appropriate to study Schwarz and Vice.

Newly, I have to defend Schwarz and Vice.

"Schwarz and Weiss will not come out of the library"

"... .. If it's with the Lord you can leave it?"

"I hate it because it seems to be broken down by Hirschle teacher."

When I narrowed my eyes narrowly, I smiled as Hirschle said, "Oh, I do not want it."

"Do not say something bad about listening to disintegration, you can just take off some clothes."

"... .. Does Mr. Hill Sur have a hobby that can remove magical clothes?"

Hill survived a bitter expression as I was worried that I was a pervert.

"I am a teacher who is making magical tools exclusively, is not it natural that you want to know more about magic tools that have not passed the manufacturing method. In the information as far as I can know, Black Forest and Weiss covered in clothes. There seems to be something related to the manufacturing method in the part which is being done, I would like to confirm it with this eyes. "

I say with a crisp look like a teacher, I just want to remove it. My concern was hit.

"I have an obligation to protect mainly Schwarzs and Weiss, and it is hard for Professor Soranju to do library work without that children."

Hill suru narrows his eyes and distorts thin eyebrows. And as the doctor ordered, as I often do, I began to beat the temple lightly with Tonton at my fingertips.

..... The chief priest probably moved Hirschule's habit.

Inside, when laughing with fluttering, what hit it up, Hill Sur raised his jaw a little and raised the end of his lip.

"Rosemain, certainly ... .. Has the new Lord had to give new clothes?"

"... What is that?"

I do not know how far Hill Sur in the House of Peers knows how long. Although I sneaked with an amiable smile, Hill sur was deeply smile, whether I got confidence in a momentary puzzle.

"Please do not accompany me to the place of measuring or changing clothes. Of course I will not touch you or remove it"

Hill sur was deeply smiled when I felt a perverted odor like I said not to take off with my own hand but to accompany the bathroom.

"If so, I was able to be in charge of Rosemain sama in the practical skills of the magic relation that is left."

"Huh?"

"If you do not pass everything, you will not be able to enter the library? In the current situation where it was spoiled by Frauerelm, it is a passing thing in the practical skill of the beasted animal"

... ... It's a devil! Here is a demon that invites students to a bad way!

After the battle for a while, I was defeated by the devil 's temptation that it would be convenient until graduation.

Chapter 295: Obtaining Stap

In the morning I am practicing Fespiel and making reference books. In the temple in the temple after the breakfast three bells were practice hours of Fespiel, so it is quite difficult for everyone to practice because the rosinna told us to practice and somehow gathered in the multi-purpose hall with fespiel became.

For the tea party with the teachers, everyone else is practicing according to their level. Even in other grade students, the number of people who have finished school enrollment is increasing, and in multipurpose halls everyone is practicing fespiel until 3 bells ring. Those who wish to study at this time are supposed to do in their own room, but someone who comes with Fespiel for some time came out because the sound was concerned and could not concentrate

"In the past, I did not take the exercise time of Fespiel so that I actually reduced the amount of practice, as the number of praises praised by the skill of music gradually decreased every year."

"Then, it may be good to decide the time to practice music every year"

Rosina was correcting the lyrics of the new songs while practicing the songs I will present at the tea ceremony.

"Like Rosemain, a song that honors the wisdom goddess Meztionola, is not it better to be happy with the Gurritris Height, not the library?"

Gurtris Height is the oldest scripture of the wisdom goddess Mestionola, and it seems that the first generation king who seemed to be selected as a god was allowed to photograph the Guratrishite.

The enthusiasm related to myths has been added to the lyrics more and more, and the enthusiasm for my library has been steadily abated by the lyrics, changing to lyrics honoring wisdom goddess Meztionola himself. Ultimately my lyrics are almost missing.

Well, well, my thoughts on the library are not accepted by people around me.

"Is not it wrong, is not Rosina doing songwriting from the beginning? When I write lyrics and make it a song that honors the library, I do not know when blessings will jump out."

"Oh, since it is a song that honors God, Rosemain playing Fespiel, praying and dedicating a blessing seems to be no problem at all?"

In the house of God called the temple, the former artistic shrine maiden, my purely cultured musical practitioner seems to have a slight misunderstanding about blessing. When you bless at the aristocrat, it makes a lot of fuss, but I think that I do not understand it much.

"I want to make sure that blessings do not pop out as much as possible"

"... OK, I understand. Let's avoid lyrics about libraries."

After the bell of 3 rang, after completing the practice of Fespiel, he helped Hartmut who is making reference books of civilian officials, and was preparing for the civil service course.

"Is Rosemain going to receive lectures on civilian apprenticeship?"

"Well, I want to be a librarian, so I also take lectures on civilian apprentices in parallel with the lecturer of candidate lords."

While talking to Ferdinand, I will tell you what the third grader is doing.

"Is not Rosemain aiming for Aub Ehrenfest?"

"I never wanted to take such a troublesome position. I want to be a librarian librarian. The future future dream will be to stay in the temple as a saint of Ehrenfest, We are burning with the ambition to personalize the library of the castle while we are going to materialize or help the lord's work. "

If possible, rather than becoming a librarian, it would be great if you could live without having to leave the library, but you can not talk about such a dream to your aides as expected.

"So, if you think that it will not lead to the future even if you become my aides, please do not hesitate to contact us at any time.

The afternoon's practice is getting Stap.

The best tool for handling magical powers within you as efficiently and as you want is Stap, you can get it and finally become a formal aristocrat.

Many researchers seemed to have tried challenging up to now whether it is not possible to make tools that are more user-friendly than Stap, but the director general has said that such tools are not yet made. It seems that the material quality is wrong.

About ten years ago, it seems that the acquisition of Stap was carried out when it is divided into a third grader, a special course of the lords. However, in order to remember how to use Stap, it is considered convenient for those who acquired it as early as possible, so it seems that the current king has changed so that it will be done almost at the same time as admission.

The acquisition of Stap is an important event in order to become a single serving. A light excitement appeared to the face of the first grade gathered at the entrance hall to head to the auditorium.

And the senior student who goes to the afternoon lecture seems to be feeling excited about the first grade's excitement while calling out "Calm down".

"Are you all present? Well, let's go."

First grade departed by Villefried's order. Today all freshmen get straps, so they are gathered in the auditorium.

"... Was there only this for the first year students?"

"Because Rosemain is no longer in the classroom, I feel that way"

Philene, who is participating in geography and historical discussion, smiled. Since I passed, I have not been to the lecture in the morning, so I saw a lot of first graders gathering for the first time in a long time.

The auditorium who was bothering herself also revealed the teacher and quietly quieted. Primvale advanced forward, looking round the inside of the auditorium.

"Everyone seems to have gathered, so we will guide you from the top lords candidate to the back, but there is something you always want me to protect before that."

Today's practical skill, once you find the "intention of God" which is the raw material of Stap, will be collected and returned.

"There is only one thing to pay attention to.If you finish collecting, please be careful not to touch other people.If you want to make it a good quality staple, you have to dye it with your own magical power Do not get away, walking with distance away so that it will not hit you, and so that the day of tomorrow's soil is filled with magical power all day long carefully "

Primvale stood ahead and began to walk as the lord president candidates lined up. There is a door behind the auditorium, and it goes into the back room.

..... Worship room!

In a pure white room, columnar columns are arranged at even intervals on the left and right. On the innermost wall, complicated patterns are drawn from the ceiling to the floor with colorful mosaics, and in the center of the back wall, stairs of about 40 steps from the floor to about the third floor level continue like a dresser It was.

On that staircase, not only the offerings for God, but also statues of God were displayed. The goddess of the god of the highest God, the goddess of the earth holding the Holy Grail a little, dropped further, the goddess of water, the god of fire, the goddess of the wind, the god of life lined up.

..... How are the shrine servants doing?

I looked up at the familiar altar and felt like I was going back to the temple somehow, I felt strangely a nostalgic feeling.

Because I was entrusted with my absence for two years, I understand that I do work properly even if I do not exist, but I want to meet Frank something quite unexpectedly.

Looking up at the altar, I felt the loneliness like home sickness seemed to be only me, and everyone else gave me an admiration of admiration on the altar that I have not seen much.

"There is only one opportunity to collect per person, closest to God, and we have only one opportunity to collect. Please pay close attention so that you do not hit other people after collecting"

Since there are two roads so that those going and returning will not hit, Primèvele touched some mana stone while saying that he always goes through the road on the left side.

At the next moment, there was a sound like big things moving with Zuzuzu and a part of the altar's stairs moved. A dark hole is opening a large mouth so as to put it in the back of the altar.

"Hopefully the gods will protect and guide you"

Inspired by Primèvere, with a nervous look, the first lord candidate takes a step and goes inside. Me and Wilfried also followed it.

The altar seemed to be made of the same white stone as the aristocrats and the dormitory, and it was an entrance that was tightly maintained in a square. Walking in order while sounding loudly with footsteps. It is not that narrow avenue, there are about three people as if they could walk side by side.

As I was about 5 meters ahead, the tightly square path was suddenly broken. Although only the white road of the walking part is still as usual, the surroundings seemed like a natural cave with exposed rocky rocks. It seems that only the white road for going and returning emerges with light light.

"There was such a place in the back of the worship room,"

While looking around, for now, keep going forward.

The white path continued so as to bend the cave considerably, and it seemed that it gradually rose upward. There are several stairs on the way and as you go for a while it is also a staircase. I can see that my position gradually goes up like that.

..... I will be able to breath shortly with a walk.

Even if I use magical tools of body strengthening I also have a difference in height from the surroundings, which is about the same level, and walking is slow, so gradually the distance and distance have been opening.

"As you can see, there is a difference in height from everyone, so it is hard to adjust the walking speed."

I tried to give way to the lord of the lord who walks behind. Immediately Vilfried said "I will go with Rosemain ... .." and tried to walk with me, but I refuse it.

"I can not return home anyway on the way home. Please do not go ahead of me, Mr. Villefriit, please tell me beforehand and, if possible, if I can cross the way, how much further we have to walk."

".....all right"

While looking dissatisfied, Wilfried will step forward with the lord of the lord while looking back over several times.

I started walking at my own pace and I was relieved. If I do a little bit I will do my best and fit around, but it is hard to walk while showing elegantly the way I do not know how far I will continue.

Candidate candidates gone, and footsteps approached little by little. A senior aristocrat came. I talk to the senior aristocrat who seems to be wondering what I call on me walking alone, and ask them to go ahead. The senior aristocrat of Ehrenfest proceeded ahead looking back and worriedly like Wilfried anxiously.

While walking through, I will walk at my own pace.

When the senior aristocrat goes, the next is an intermediate aristocrat. While being directed at a strange look, I will have you go ahead as well.

"Do you like Rosemain?"

"Oh, Rodderichi, please give me a go"

When I explained to Rodrich as well, suddenly a boy from a middle-class aristocrat who was walking a little ahead raised a voice that "was there!"

"Huh?"

I do not know what happened. In my eyes I see only the rock of the cave that follows in the same way. I do not see anything strange.

But the boy, while staring at a single point, departed from the white road and headed towards the wall of the cave, reaching out to the wall by touching his hands. I can see that something is visible to him with no hesitation.

Something seems to be held in the hands of the boy who turned round and round. The shape of the finger is rounded like having a cylindrical object.

"Sorry, could you open the road a little?"

By saying so, the boy happily looked down on the road and crossed the way where everyone stopped, jumped on the way back and started walking with a quick pace. The boy's eyes have been pouring into his hands.

"... What did you find out? Did you know Rosemain?"

"No, I did not see it"

As someone who found "the will of God" for the first time got excited, the circumference became excited and carefully started looking around and slowed down the traveling speed. It is just right for me to accompany, and I will advance my leg while talking to him about Rodrigue and "the will of God" as a manastone.

When I walk a bit, I heard the voice the girl bounced as "I found it!" From behind. Even in front of us, I jumped out of the white road and I can see the appearance of a boy going to the wall.

Because those who find it will go without hesitation, it is certain that there is a magic stone really called "the will of God".

Because the surrounding people have found their own 'will of God', Rhodderich begins to look around. It is a foolish look that I want my own stuff.

"Ah!"

Rodrigh's line of sight with a sharp voice stared at a point in front. I do not see it after all, but it seems Rodrich knows.

"Have you been there?"

"Yes! It is very beautifully shining."

Proudly laughing, Rhodderich got off the white road and ran away. I reached out slowly towards the wall of the rock and found that I gently touched it.

As I was surprised once, I kept a close eye on him, holding Rhodrich in his own bosom, holding a magic stone that I can not see.

"Rosemain, I will excuse you in the future."

"Please be careful not to drop it or hit anyone"

Rodrigh went up to the way back and I walked in the opposite direction.

Around the time the voices came up one after the other, as the people began to leave the distance so that they would not hit each other, a senior aristocrat who came walking on the way back towards us began to appear.

The fact that an upright aristocrat comes out from the back, perhaps that there is my manastone must be far behind.

..... You walk to the end.

I keep on walking down the road where people have gone down. It is very easy to walk because the surrounding people get out of the way to collect more and more. I can walk easily and the field of vision is getting better. But, as everyone is gone, I feel somewhat lonely.

This neighborhood seems to be a place where many intermediate nobleman 's "will of God" can be harvested, and it is seen that a senior nobility comes back from quite ahead.

When I walked down the stairs, as I climbed the stairs and walked further, there was no one on the way to go, the way back was getting filled. Because nobody walks with a space so that he will not hit, it is a strange matrix.

Lord candidate will begin to mix among the senior aristocrats coming back. It became only the face that I knew in the practical lesson. There was Wilfried in it.

"Were you still in such a place, Rosemain. The place where the manastone of the candidate lord came was still far behind"

Wilfried, who was amazed at the image of me walking alone with himself, had something important.

It is told that Vilfried is still ahead and I will put magical power on magical tools of body strengthening little by little. Doing this will make walking easier, but if you push the magical power too much, there will be a reaction afterwards. The next day, my muscular pain is so terrible that it really makes me move, so I can not use it for too much time.

I raised the speed a bit and I aimed at the back alone.

There was no candidate for a lord who walked on the way back so I really became alone. In the cave where I caught my eyes, I keep walking with the crowd.

I go up the stairs and walk further. Leave the stairs without leaving anything. The scenery without substitution and the state where no one was there is getting boring.

"..... Where are you ~, my magician, I am tired already ~"

I call, but there is no reply, my voice will echo in the cave. As I walked on the white street there was a staircase again.

It is a spiral staircase that must be raised for the first floor, unlike the stairs that had only a few stages.

"Wow, again the stairs, I am willing to walk to where"

I complain about mumbling, I go up the white spiral staircase. The surroundings are steadily getting brighter as you go up.

"Wow ..."

It was a white square where light entered. It seems to be a dead end, there is no way to go there.

The white floor was circular and there was a big tree like white sculpture of the same material in the middle. The trunk extends to the ceiling, with white branches spreading on the ceiling. A large hole seems to be open, and light like thin sunlight is thin and a few lines are falling down from between the white leaves grown on the white sculpture tree.

There was a manastone shining in the rainbow color at the base of the tree. It protrudes straight from the ground. It was a hexagonal prism like quartz, extending near my stomach.

..... This is my stone.

As everyone said, I understood at a glance. It seems that it will change to a mysterious color when it falls on sunlight through the sunlight falling down.

Being a godly feeling with a mysterious sight and a stone, I will stretch the spine and walk to the front of "the will of God". The stone gleamed with Kirari.

"I will receive it"

I kneeled before God's will and gently stretched out my hand. At the moment the hand touches, it comes out sparingly from the ground and emerges in front of me as much as to say.

With the rainbow-colored "will of God", I gently breathed a satisfactory breath.

"Well, let's return"

I have to take this and go back. With "the will of God", I shed magical power to strengthen my physical strength.

"that?"

All the magical powers pouring in newly are sucked by the magic stone which is carried. I do not seem to be able to further strengthen the body.

"... .. In other words, can you return home on your own without further strengthening?"

I remembered the way I had done so far, dropped my shoulders and turned my back against a white big tree and began walking with the guts.

I have to go back a long way again. Now I am alone from beginning to end.

As his hands are occupied with magic stones, I am frightened descending the spiral staircase and this time I will walk on the way back. The only thing that echoes is its own thing. It will be easier to go on a return because it is going down on the way home, but my usual exercise shortage caught me and I got drunk.

"Just a break, it's hard to be tough"

With a stairway on the way, I decided to sit down and take a rest while holding a magic stone. I do not even know myself, because the same scenery will continue as to how far I have been back. "I wish I could have another exit a little more" I misled and leaned against the wall and breathed out a lot.

I felt the eyelids come down desperately and I went to sleep while telling myself "I'm not sleeping".

"I will sleep in such a place! I will die when I go to bed! Get up! Get up and stay still better, life will come!"

"Yes!?"

Sudden large sound echoes in the cave, and the ear makes a sound with Keen. As I was surprised and jumped up, the face of Ruffen who grabbed my fist and calls me hotly was nearby.

"It was good, consciousness seems to have returned"

Ruffen said that and pulled a little. Then, there were several teachers there. I proceeded forward to Hirschle replacing Rufen.

It seems that a search group has been issued because it is too late to come back. Although it can not get lost as it is a single road, saying, when Hill sur was searched, it was going down on the way.

Although I found a figure, if you already have "the will of God", do not touch it. I can only speak out, but no matter how much Hill suru talks, I have no response.

The impatient Hill Sur returned to the worship room once and came back with several teachers. It seems that I regained consciousness by calling by the most loud roofen.

"I was told that my body was weak, so I was really worried that he was dead."

"I am terribly sorry"

"I had heard from Ferdinand that I was not completely recovered yet, but as long as I saw the state of activity at the lords, I was forgotten because I did not seem to have any problems."

As he says so, he urges me to stand up.

The saint of Ehrenfest, going to acquire "the will of God", to rise to the height to the greatest possible at the very end.

I seem to have carved a new legend in the history of the House of Lords, unwillingly.

Chapter 296: The first Saturday day

Finally I reached my room. I was told to put a magic stone in the bed, and I put a manastone in the bed, as I told Richarda.

"Even if it does this, it may affect the manastone, so I do not feel like going on ....."

Rhythur who wore gloves that do not pass the magical power shoots off my clothes as quickly as I say with a sigh.

Originally, taking a bath is about to finish running the magical power on "the will of God", but as I was sleeping leaning against the bare rock wall I was not in a state to go to bed. Riyarda told me that it is impossible to put it in the bath as expected, but I am relieved to be able to wipe it with a towel wet with hot water.

"Princess, please drink here and take a good rest."

Richeda was a priest owner, preparing a special heavy razor medicine, a little descended and waiting for me to drink the medicine.

Thanks to the magical tool of body strengthening, I feel that my body can move cheerfully, but the cold is bad and the head is cranky. While aware of a completely high fever, I compare Richarda with drugs I do not want to drink if possible.

..... With this condition, I do not want to drink a ruthless drug that does not have fragments of kindness.

The priest who is not taken into consideration about the taste at all is issued, and when I am fierce, when I am frightened, Richarda makes a really dexterous expression that makes the eyes triangle with a smile and looks at me.

"If you fall asleep in a cave like the far end in this season, ordinary people will catch a cold and if you do bad, you will rise to a far higher level. If it is the princess, is not it strange that I live like this now! "

"... ... I am worried about you"

It was Ricarda who was the most hurried at my castle in frailty.

Ricarda, who was worried about my return not coming back easily this time, exposed the weakness of the past to teachers such as Hill Sur. Because of that, the recognition of the teachers went to get "the will of God", became a child who fell over and died from the recognition that he was a physical fitness who was tired and resting.

"Come on, Princess. Drink overbite"

"Yes....."

I picked up a bottle containing a bland green medicine with one hand and drank it. You must not hesitate to take this medicine. If you do not drink at once, the painful time will only be prolonged.

"Wow!"

I drunk hard medicine after a long absence, I pressed my mouth so that I did not get out and hit me with my eyes. However, while suffering, the physical condition gets better as we see it. Really the effect is high. I just feel like being called to heaven at the moment I drink.

"Well, please take a good night off."

Richarda went out as soon as I cleared the room.

"It got quite small"

While lying down on a bed with a trolley, I stared at "the will of God" which was as big as it could be held with one hand. The more you grasp it, the more it flows with the magical power, the smaller it becomes. It seems to be absorbed in myself, blending with magical powers.

When I went to sleep in the innermost room and were surprised by the small mana stone when I got up, Hirschle said, "That's what it is, please do not force magical power well until you assimilate with myself."

In other words, until they take "God's Will" into myself, they will spend the Manastone like a parent bird which warms the egg.

Every year, it is decided that the real day is the acquisition of Stap, and the day of the soil where the lecture is closed is decided by the magical power, because most of them can pour in their magical powers and assimilate if they hold them all day and night.

"Well, but it was nice to return home safely, right?"

I thought of the uproar so far, I breathed a sigh. Although it was good that it was woken up by Roofen 's loud voice, then it was serious.

While sleeping, the magical power which was flowing a little more to the magical tool of body strengthening was returning to normal. And my muscular pain has already begun, and I have a feeling that my legs will be pulled up in order to stand up. Besides, I felt as if I had caught a cold while I am in bed, my head hurts, I feel cold, but the body is hot.

Even in such a state, the teachers can not touch me but can only watch as they roll off.

"Hirschle teacher, just for today, is it okay to return to the dormitory with a cowgirl?"

In the castle of Ehrenfest, he gets permission from Aub Ehrenfest and is riding a beast. Because the dormitory at the House of Peers is also belonging to Aub Ehrenfest, you can ride with the permission of your adoptive father.

However, the House of Lords is a facility managed by the royal family. To be able to ride around a cowgirl in the hall, permission from the responsible person is required. I looked around the surrounding teachers and asked for permission. Primvale shook his head slowly while frown with a good shape of eyebrows.

"You can give permission, but you can not have a beast while holding a magic stone."

As I told you, I thought about strengthening my body, I remembered that all magical powers were sucked by "will of God". But if you bring a magic stone for the cuddling in your hand and push the magical power consciously there, you may be able to make a cow.

"... .. I will try it once"

I grasp the magic stone for the beast and try to pour the magical power. Half of the magical power we shed was taken to "the will of God", but somehow I got a lesser bus for one person. I got on going all the way and grasp the steering wheel when I roll the "will of God" at my feet.

I do not know if magical power is flowing into "the will of God" through a Lesser bus, or whether magical power is funny due to blurred head. The lesser bus started moving at a slower speed than usual.

Even though it is slower than usual, as the teacher moves properly, the teachers seems to be a little relieved. Teachers began to express their thoughts as they walked around the bush and around the moving lesser bus.

"Well, this is rumor ...?"

"Ho, this is a cow stone that caused Frauerelm to faint, it certainly seems to be strong."

..... It is not strong! My Lesser are cute!

I wanted to dispute the words of Ruffen, but I was bullshit to open my mouth, so I kept my lips sharp and I did not complain.

"Would it be nice to be able to ride even in a skirt? I, I think I will try to make this type of beasts this time"

It was Prim veil that I caught on Hirsch 's word. After all, it is troubling that it is necessary to change clothes in order to get a coward.

"How are you going to do?"

"Even if Rosemain explains, things like handle and accelerator did not understand well. So, let's sit in this way and let us sit in the same way as the previous cow animals I'm thinking about attaching it. "

Frauerell cried out that it was insane in flying without feathers, but as Hirschle said in front of him, he said that if he knew that there were some who could fly, he could fly without problem .

"Frauerelm is a bit hard-headed, is not it better to ask for convenience than elegance with a cowardly beast?"

To treat strange things that my Lesser bus is not beautiful, the chief priest who uses it as a luggage carriage is floating in my mind.

..... It is like a teacher.

And, I was surrounded by interested teachers, I was peeped into the beast, and headed for an exit with a one - pass Lesser bus. The speed is steadily faster than I walk, and it was very impressive that the teachers were breathing out of relief as they returned safely.

I was crying Richarda, who was waiting for the rest of my life and Wilfried, "I was alright safe" and sent back to the dormitory at Hill Sur, saying "I can not do my research even if I die at a lecture" It is.

Today is Saturday 's day. It is the first holiday since I came to the House of Peers, the lecture is a day off. First grade students can not enjoy holidays. As we have to keep pouring magical power on "the will of God" which we collected yesterday, we have to hold a manastone like a parent bird.

In order to make it a good quality staple, it is better not to mix the magical powers of others. For this reason, meals are also brought to individual rooms by side work and are supposed to be eaten by themselves.

"How do senior students spend their holidays?"

I asked Ricarda, who brought breakfast. Senior students go to the library to read reference books, open tea ceremonies with friends in other territories, gather information, participate in the training of apprenticeship of the knights, and they each likes to act.

"I also want to go to the library"

"The princess cured his physical condition and since I finished all the lectures,"

"I got a medicine, I felt better, and also manastones became quite small"

"Yes, yes, but today it's a day's bed."

As I told you, I got an improved version of the medicine. As soon as I took the medicine, I was driven to bed.

"Please, bring me the book at least"

"Today is the day to face Manastone, Princess"

As I told you, I tried to get rid of my bed, and I realized I was trying to force magical powers on a small mana stone that got smaller enough to fit in the palm of my hand.

"If you remove the magical tool of body strengthening, you can make magical power flow more easily?"

While holding the magic stone in the left hand, I try to remove the magician on the left arm. As the magical stone became small, it disappeared completely.

..... You noticed earlier, I!

After spectacularly looking at the palm where the magic stone disappeared, I breathed out a lot and breathed out a lot and refreshed the magical tool of physical strengthening while comforting myself a little with "I had no choice because there was a fever".

Although "the will of God" has completely been solved, I seem to have no change in myself.

"Well, is this really possible for you?"

I recall the shape of the staple that adults have and think about the state where I held the staple on the right handedness.

Next moment, familiar glowing tact appeared in my hand.

"I can do it! It's amazing! I am a witchcraft!"

While excited about the first staple, I waggle the boom and the tact-shaped staple while lying down.

"... ... Can I do other forms?"

If it were to be a wand of any wizard, it might be good to have a long and stupid cane like the wand of the goddess of water Fleet Lane.

I thought of the staff of Fleet Lane in the temple, I tried out Stap.

"Ooooo, you made it!"

I was relieved to try to swing it like the tact-shaped Steap just before. This length is hard to use. The way I use Stapu that I often see is to strike Manastone to make Ordonants. With this long cane, it is also difficult to swing around and hit a magic stone.

"There was once a reason why Stept was short"

If you strike a manastill and pour the magical power, if you think that this length is just right, it will be as long as the staple that adults have. Try deforming the shape a little for easy holding, decoratively attaching things like a sword's collar, trying to shape it into a book, trying to shape it in a variety of shapes I tried playing.

However, this is also inconvenient. Deforming shapes and adding decorations requires a clear image, so it was unstable that the shape changes slightly every time. As long as the books and pens are just shapes, it makes me feel wonderful. However, I can not do it very much, as I hesitate to actually use the book or pen to actually strike a manastone, or to deform it and use it like a priest chief who was hitting Jill.

Eventually I settled down like a command stick used by adults.

"I hope there is something interesting to use,"

I will tell you the basics in the next lecture on how to use Stap for the time being. It seems to be only looking forward to it.

"Princess, we held a lunch."

Even after lunch I was told Richarda, "There is nothing wrong with leaving the room and walking around." The heat has already cooled down completely, and although I say that the manastone was also melted, I will not forgive you.

"If you are doing good until dinner, you can take dinner in the dining room"

Richarda leaves the room to clean up the dishes for lunch. I saw it off the bed and I gently slipped down from the bed after I confirmed that Richarda was leaving.

I have no books, I can not sleep for a day, I am free in my free time. I secretly took out the key from my desk and opened the box, I took out the book and jumped into the bed.

"It's time to read." Uhufin

When I started reading books, Ricarda, who finished cleaning dishes, came back. Look at me reading a book in bed and lift eyes.

"Princess! I should have said that it is a day off today!"

"So, is not it right now, are you off?"

"No matter how many times this princess really tells you, I do not understand anything about the book at all! The stubborn place is exactly like Jill Vester and Ferdinand!"

Richard was angry and took up the book from me and said, "If you are fine, there is a story."

"What is it?"

"The princess is not aiming for Aub Ehrenfest, is not it?"

I tilted my head, "Why such a thing?" To Richarda's words. I have heard the same question yesterday.

"Because the princess is an official lady's husband, it can become Aub Ehrenfest, unlike that when Wilfriit was the next lord, if you feel that right now, Rosemain sama You can gain status. "

As Karstedd's daughter has drawn the blood of the lord of the late generation, Richarda said that there is no particular problem in the pedigree, too.

..... Just because everyone does not know there is a problem.

"Originally the lord was considered to be the most powerful person, but men are more preferred than women, but the princess has a title of Ehrenfest's saint, so that's why Rosemain says There seems to be an aide to think to the lord. I want to ask the princess' s will before I am hardened the way around. "

... ... Ah, Hartmut says something.

It seems that Haltmuth is moving quietly as of today's yesterday. Perhaps, in the direction to accelerate my legendary saint.

"I do not think that I will become Aub Ehrenfest at all, I manage the library while assisting the future Aub Ehrenfest"

"Well, it seems like a princess"

Richarda laughed at the couscous and pulled out the power of his shoulders.

"I will obey the princess's saying that I do not intend to become Aub Ehrenfest"

Richarda leaves with a clean face. Richarda will prevent it to some extent being able to harden the surroundings.

I confirmed that the footsteps of Richarda had gone away, took the book out of the writing box again and crawled into the bed.

"Princess!"

When Richarda came back I planned to hide it in futon, but I fell asleep as I went to bed while reading a book. Failure, failure.

But I slept well, so I completely recovered. If I read secretly a book, I will change clothes to Riyarda who is angry that it is better for me to deepen exchanges with other people in the cafeteria, and I will leave the room.

Far from sleeping for two years, I have not enough exchanges with aristocratic nobles, not from other territories. Although I was able to have some exchanges by teaching solidarity and studying that confronted both the first grade students and the trial of passivation of the lecture, senior students are still more.

To be honest, even my own aide does not have an exchange with him.

I got on the Lesser bus with the body of muscle pain and headed to the multipurpose hall with Richarda and Angelica who was escorting outside the room. Now that the dinner is approaching, the students who went out also seem to come back and seem to be thinking intently.

"What was Angelica doing all day today?"

"In the morning I was invited by Cornelius, Leonore and Traugotto to practice Ditta, who wanted to go to Yudit, but since she had an escort mission, this time again, is not it?"

When I was talking about such a thing, the traffic awaited on the second floor. The traumigot also joins and heads to the multipurpose hall.

"What kind of competition is Ditta?"

I heard that it is a knight apprentice game that I often did at the aristocrat home from my brother Eckhartt. Angelica briefly answered my question.

"Demonic hunt"

"Angelica, then let's not talk to Rosemain."

The traumgot frown and told Angelica, I explained to him in detail.

"There are also several types of Ditters, competing for the strength of hunted monsters, competing for numbers, competing for speed, the victory conditions will change according to that time."

The biggest thing is that it is a treasure stealer who starts with hunting monsters protected by his Order. Ditters who decide the number of people from the apprenticeship of knights in all territory, respectively, will form a team near the dormitory. And they hunt demons for treasure that should not be deprived by other territory. It seems to be a point that we should just weaken it, and should not change to manastone.

And while protecting that monster from attacks of other territory, he seems to take away the demons of other territory while paying attention so that they will not be attacked. By the way, it seems that there is no problem even if you change to a magic stone when you take away the monsters of another territory.

"In the past it seems that Treasure Stealer Ditters were a flower form against a territory competition, but as a whole the number of people decreased and the treasure steal ditters became difficult, how quickly we can defeat the training demon that the teacher creates Ditters who compete for it are adopted. "

"Well, I'm looking forward to fighting against the territory."

"I will do my best to show good points to Rosemain."

I have not seen it, so it is difficult to imagine, but I'm looking forward to fighting against the territory. I have not seen the fight of Angelica and Brother Cornelius who seems to be getting stronger yet.

"Since Angelica and Cornelius are in this year, I am thinking that I will go on a good line even in opposition to the territory."

The trauchot voice said so, the expression looks unsatisfying.

"I'm saying I'm going to a good line, but the expression of the traughgot does not seem happy at all."

"To be honest, I regret, next year I also want to know Rosemain's compression method, extend magical power and become stronger and participate."

When arriving at the multipurpose hall, it seemed that the girls face each other around the Rieselaer and Brunhild, and they wrote something like that.

"What are you doing?"

"Rosemain-sama!?"

As soon as I got a voice, I raised my voice "ca!", Hiding in a hurry, I tilted my head.

"Is not it troublesome to be seen by me?"

"No, that ... .. Because we were excited over Rosemain, our Lord, so it was a little very <sup>Can</sup> I just felt like I was bad. There is no fault. "

A smile like Brunhild is troubled, the Rizerator and the surrounding girls also nods.

"Since Schwarzz and Weiss were so cute ... .. If Rosemain was prepared for costumes, we were talking about what kind of trends to incorporate and talking about, in a place where Rosemain's not coming, Oops, I am sorry. "

"I do not care, why do you show me what costumes are proposed?"

While exciting, when I withdrew my hand, the Rizera gently gave me a piece of paper. Black ink is drawn much better than Schwarz and Vice.

Unlike the current state where both were wearing differently colored dresses, they seemed to make them look like men and women.

"I want floral decorations, and if possible, it is better to let them look like men and women ..."

Look at the various costumes drafts written.

There are also plans to say that Vice is pretty in the race, there is also opinion that it is cool and cool for Schwarz. If you use flower decorations, it is considered to what extent you use and how to use it.

"Rosemain was considerably pretty because the skirt portion of the costume that he was called for at the beginning of this year was pretty, so I thought that I could not adopt it."

As the riser makes her eyes shine, I start talking about the balloon-like skirt I adopted to devastate the length. Although I did not hear much about the reputation of the surroundings, I heard that it was a reputation that it is elaborate and cute.

It seems that there was an evaluation that not only the dress of Brigitte two years ago, but also his own costume creates new things. I knew it for the first time.

Angelica smiled a little when he saw a little surprisingly about the Rizerator who speaks more bluntly than usual.

"Rieselator loves cute things from a long time ago, and it is sometimes dressed in self-made clothes also at school that she keeps at home."

"sister!"

Legerator inflates his cheeks at Angelica's talks. Such a figure is suitable for the year and pleasant.

"..... If I finish all lectures, I can enter the library, so if the lecturer's session has ended by that time, will you accompany me with the measurements?"

"Is it OK?"

"Is it fun to think about everyone, would anyone want to join us?"

When the Reiselator gladly looked down and looked around, other girls who did not accompany the library said they wanted to accompany the measurements.

"You actually see the Schwarz and the Weiss and you can see what costumes would look better if you measured it."

"I'm looking forward to it"

"By the time I finish the lecture, everybody should finish the lecture, because when I start to do something fun studying is inevitable."

"That's right! I will do my best!"

I laughed at the girls who started to get excited to finish the lecture with everyone, I smiled nicely.

In order to protect cute Schwarz and Vice, it is best to take another person who can stop Hill Sur. Even so, people who like Schwarz and Vice are good.

..... I do not know how to measure the big Sumiru in detail, and there are many people who stop Hirushuur sensei who is likely to run away. I absolutely can not do it alone. I am glad that many good qualities were found.

Chapter 297: Dedicated dance

---

There were several first - year students who did not come out for breakfast, but at lunch time all the first - year students got together. Apparently, everyone seems to succeed in assimilating "the will of God" safely.

"I thought what to do if I could not make it for lunch."

Together with Wilfried and his aides saying that with a sunny look, I head towards the small hall where exercises of dedication are performed.

Candidate candidates have lessons of votive dance, and apprentices of upper knights have lessons of sword dance. Other than that it seems to be music practice. It is difficult for everyone to play Fespiel, so it seems to practice another instrument like a flute or a drum.

"... .. Angelica is a practice of sword dance?"

"Yes, Professor Ruffen recommended, I'm happy because I am not good at music."

According to the information Cornellus elder brother later taught, Angelica has the magical power as much as the senior aristocracy, doing brilliantly the sword fighting that moves the body, if you do sword dance because it is a beautiful girl, there is flower. It seems that it does not feel like learning musical instruments, does not improve progressing, recommendation that involves various reasons.

"Even if you said that music is not good, have you also had fellowship practice?"

"Fespiel has been trained since childhood and I practiced with my mind at the second grade to gain permission to have a magical sword Tin Luke, I have not improved much since that time, It is a feeling that survives it "

It seems he tried hard to get him to acknowledge being a knight apprentice with a devil sword by tying up with his family when choosing a special course. Angelica is a very hard-working child if it is for your goal to do this. I can understand that feeling.

"... Well ... it was a good teacher for your convenience."

"Yes, because the sword dance is so much fun, I was glad I recommended it."

If angelica is motivated, that is fine. I was consciously thinking about it and I was amazed at the words of Yudit.

"Angelica is really exceptional and amazing, Rosemain-sama."

"Huh?"

"No one will be chosen as a swordsmanship in any senior aristocrat, especially those who are chosen as swordsmen from Ehrenfest are not so numerous even when looking at the graduates of the past. In the meantime, despite being an intermediate knight, Angelica is really wonderful. "

<sup>violet</sup>
Violet Yudit taught me with the eyes of the color to shine with good pleasure, that it was that screening was done at the end of the fifth grade, both dedication dance and sword dance.

Ernesta, an escort knight of Charlotte who knew the Rosemain type compression method just before the fifth year student 's aristocrat began had not enough time to stretch the magical power and he was not really chosen as a swordsmen on a barely line. It seems that it was badly regretted that it seems that magical power was enough enough when it was the final grade of the next year.

"I am an intermediate aristocrat and there is no strength like Angelica, so it will not be chosen, but Leonor and traogot have a possibility"

At the end of this winter, if you can remember the Rosemain compression method and extend the magical power before the selection is done, the two aristocratic people are likely to be chosen as swordsmen.

The tragot gleams the ultramarine eyes.

"I also want to be selected as a swordsmith like Angelica and Cornelius, remembering Rosemain's magical compression method"

"I am glad when you choose from my escort knight, please do your best"

"Well, both Wilfried Baby and Rosemain Princess are also concerned about refining and practicing ... .. Today all the grade gathers"

Me and Wilfried slowly nodded in the words of Richarda.

In the small hall, candidates for lords of all grades are supposed to practice dedication dance. We are from the freshman to the highest grade. It is the first time since the social gathering meeting face-to-face with senior students, so I feel a little nervous.

"First-grade students take a tour of the first half practice, please carefully look at the dance of senior students, and in the second half we will show you how much we can dance and actually dance"

The teacher told me that, the first - year lord 's candidate candidate was sitting in the side - by - side chair. Looking around the inside of the small hall, you can see that you are practicing separately in each grade. It seems that it is the first lesson to confirm how much progress has improved between spring and autumn.

Looking at this way, everyone in the second grader seems to have a similar ability, but in the upper grades the difference in skill of individuals stands out. The hands of the wrist and the movement of the fingertips are smooth and beautiful, and there are several eye-catching people.

The highest grade students who have already been selected are fewest in number, and the dancers of three men and four girls were dressed in gods of noble colors of God. A thin cloth is put on the head and the silver band is tightened. It seems that it will be a golden belt as it celebrates adults on that day.

..... The design resembles the ritual clothes of the temple.

Unlike ceremonial clothes, it uses thin materials that are transparent beyond the other as if it is crawling and swinging when it turns, whether it will be easy to move, whether it will spread when rolling, whether waist to hem There are some notches on it.

When the girls who finished dressing swung their arms and turned around, the long sleeves spread widely like kimono, and at the same time, the cloth of the hem fluttered with soft movement.

And you can start practicing the best student. Seven people wearing costumes and men and women without costumes. Perhaps it is supplementary, watching with the eyes that enviously enviable anything, the swinging sleeve and the shaking hem according to the movement.

"We are the ones who create the world and pray and thanks to the gods"

What started with words that I have gotten into earlier was the words of praying for the end of winter and the arrival of spring and thanks to the adults who gave them up to their adults and praying for future protection. Seven voices echo in the small hall.

In Ehrenfest there was no time and I practiced only the type of dedication Mai, it was my first time to listen to such a beginning word, I was listening with eyes wide open. It is a mysterious feeling that the celebrations in the scriptures are not priests, but come out of the mouths of the nobles who are despising the temple. It may be that the position of the temple was falling in a long history, and originally it was in the same status as the royal family.

"Pray to God!"

Dedication dance began from the pose of prayer raising both hands and left foot. The sensei teacher of Ehrenfest's dedication dance said that it is difficult to balance beautifully in this attitude, but as I was used to praying in the temple, I was desperate enough to memorize the choreography.

I did not have much time to think about dedication myself carefully, but just by watching this donkei dance, I can see that the power of the temple was stronger in the past.

In line with the relaxed movement, long sleeves like seven wigs roll like a kimono. Although it was for practice, it looked like a dance that the long sleeve fluttered like dancing in a costume like this.

..... Even so, Prince Anastigius prays a prayer to the god of darkness. It seems that the influence of the territory will surely be involved in being chosen as such a role

With that thought, I was watching the dan of Anastigius. It is clearly losing the skill of girls studying prayers for the goddess of light. The skills of the two who pray to the supreme god are not balanced.

..... If she dances next to her, everyone will not be as bad as it is, but it may be tough for the prince to go wrong.

Girls who prayed for the goddess of light were exceptional in this. It is graceful and beautiful enough to moisten to the movement of the fingertip and the line of sight. I kept staring and just staring at her who prayed for the goddess of light.

"Well, Wilfried"

"Dietlinde ..."

At the same time as taking a small break, raising the ornate voice, Dietlinde, a candidate for the lord of Ahrensbach, came closer with a smile. Pay off the gold hair on the shoulder and shake up the green eyes that looks like Wilfried happily.

"Have you heard about the activities of Villefried and Ehrenfest, I am proud to be a cousbone. It is not something that can be hard to do, such as passing all members on the first day at the school discipline"

"Sorry, but it's Rosemain ... ...."

"Oh, when we give way to other people like that, it makes little sense for everyone to know the truth, only the humility of Wilfried is emphasized."

No, he interrupted Wilfried, who says it is different, Dietlinde smiled like pampering Wilfried and stretched thin and white fingertips, Tatsuto caressed the vicinity of Wilfried's temple.

"I worked hard, Wilfried. You are my pride."

Vilfried stares at him like he was surprised, Dietlinde said so with a gentle smile.

"What's wrong?"

"No. ... anything, nothing"

It was Wilfried who turned his eyes and shook his head, but the expression had no suddenly touched discomfort, rather it contained a smile that felt nostalgic.

"Hey, Wilfried. I have few opportunities to meet this way, so I'd like to talk with my cousin slowly, so I can invite you to a tea ceremony."

To glance at this and emphasize the place where my cousin and his younger siblings are each other, I know that I am not included in my brother 's brother on my blood. However, I can not let him down here with air reading. Whether it is said to be dull or to be careful, I must watch Vilfried.

..... As a matter of fact, it is inevitable if a disasters like the one before happens again.

"Well, it's a tea party, I'm looking forward to it, Brother Wilfried."

"Oh, Rosemain, you may not have noticed, but you are not my cousin?"

When I attempted to accompany the tea ceremony with a swing without noticing it, I was refused with clear. It is the same for Dietlinde who does not feel like reading the air and withdrawing.

"Officially I am also the daughter of Aub Ehrenfest?"

"Officially, I am planning to make it a private tea ceremony.

When me and Dietlinde got to see each other's attitudes and smiled at each other, a big Vilfriet came as if she had to break in and let it in. It looks like a big Villefriit because it looks alike, it is Ruediger of Freiber Tak.

"Well, could you invite me as a cousin, Dietlinde?"

"... Well, that's right, if it's a Ryder, it's surely a cousin, so please be patient."

Although I do not know what I thought to silence for a few seconds, Dietlinde smiled and smiled.

"That's why I am sorry, please refrain from Rosemain."

Dietlinde said with a smile so that he triumphantly tried to start a meeting of a tea party with three people.

Indeed, it is not a blooded family, and it pretended to be insensitive, and it fell considerably, but if I refuse refusal so far, I will not enter anything more. After that we have to leave it to Villefried's hard work.

I took a distance from the three people who began the meeting of the tea party and looked round the round in the small hall. While chatting with good friends with each other, while having a break time, a girl student wearing a noble goddess of light was practicing only one person.

I am glad, attracted to her expression that seems to be fun and unavoidable, I approached and I took a distance that did not get in the way and sat down.

When I was watching enthusiastic, a voice caught from behind.

"Small of Ehrenfest"

The squirrel and surroundings flirted.

It is a rude remark, but the owner of this voice is pardoned so much. I was angry about where I could not ignore it, as I was able to speak to the royal family.

I took an eyes off her from a frustrating mood and looked back at the same kind of smile as I did during the court practice.

"... .... I am terribly frightened to call out, Prince Anastigius"

"Hey, you seem to be doing something quite interesting, I want to hear the story, come here."

As I commanded, I tilted my head as I walked toward Anastasis.

I was told that he was listening to various things, but I do not know exactly what he is listening to and from whom. At least I do not remember doing things such as interesting things.

"What kind of story is in the ears of Prince Ana Sturgis? I do not remember doing something that is said to be fun, but ...".

As I kneel and answer in front of Anastasius, I do not have anything to remember at all, Anastigius, who has kept several girls around, gently raised one eyebrow.

"Were you attacking Frauerelm with a strange cowgirl simulating a monster?"

What rumors are flowing? It is as if I am a dangerous character in the grass. I rush to deny the fact. It is thought that if you denied it only when you deny it as clear, if you made it ambiguous, you affirmed it affirmatively.

"I am not sworn to God, such as doing dangerous imitations that would hit the teacher ... .. It is true that my cud beast is a bit different from the others."

When I say so, Anastasius narrows his eyes a little and looks down on me and makes my eyes watch over to think about.

"Huhumu, if the two sides seem to be different, do not you understand the truth ... If it is OK, show me the other cock, I will judge whether I am dangerous or not"

..... It is extra care. I do not want you to be judged by a teacher.

I pushed the voice of my heart into an amiable laugh, and I said "I am afraid" and crossed my hands in front of my chest.

"Well, I will go outside."

I was frightened at Anastasium, who stood up with the momentum of being up. I do not want to stand out in such a way as to get out of the way.

If I could not come back before practicing, my teacher got me angry that I was not royalty Anastasiusus, but I should have been swayed.

"... .. Is not it good after Prince Anastigius, after practicing dedication mai is over? As opposed to seeing things insignificant to take like a cuddled beast, the practice of dedication mai is important."

I want a passing as soon as possible. To do that, you can not do something like skimming the first day lesson.

The break time seems to be about to end, and Anasutasuusu who saw teachers who are in charge of dedication dance come back are lightly shrugged.

"Oh yeah, I will come back later ..... I have a young figure, but it's a pretty planner, even if you feed on an unusual beast, I will not catch it so easily"

"... Are you fishing?"

..... Well, if my memory is certain, you were ordered to "show me", are not you? Why did you say that I invited Prince Anastigius?

While I could not understand the thought circuit of Anastigius, I decided to deny it as clear. If it is ambiguous, it is rumored that as soon as I enter the university, I was strangled to the royal family for a long time.

"Please do not worry, I will not fish or invite Prince Anastigius, I will show you a cow bear later than I promised, but I swear I will never come closer from here "

".....Really"

It made me look like a mysterious face, but it is important to deny it exactly so that it will not be misleading strangely.

To be honest, I am afraid of the eyes of my sister surrounding anastasis. Perhaps, it must have been a fierce woman fight with a graduation escort. It seems that it is a fierce battle to devote enmity to me who apparently does not covered the appearance. scary scary.

The teacher 's voice caught me when I was allowed to resign from the front of Anastasis. Wilfred Wilfried is waiting, I reported "I will show a cud beast to Prince Anastigius after practice."

"Rosemain, be careful not to fail never"

Wilfried is worse than me and her face looks nervous. I nodded as Kokuri, the second half of the lesson began.

"Well, let me show you how much you are practicing."

If it passed the passing line, it seems that the first year student is over. As the teacher gives priority to lessons to the final grade, it was to practice on their own territory. They say that they will show you how much they practiced until the second grade.

... ... Absolutely, I will pass it today.

Everyone lined up and showed Mai as they practiced in their respective territories until now. I think of her dance who prays to the goddess of light that I saw earlier, and dance as carefully as possible to approach that dance as much as possible.

... ... libraries, libraries, libraries are waiting for me!

The dedication dance which I thought with all the thought seemed to have reached the passing line, and the teacher gave me the word "very fine" with a smile. With this, I do not need to come to practice of dedication. Everyone of this year's first graders seemed to have passed the passing line, and everyone passed.

"It is free to come to visit, because seeing senior dancers is also a study."

The teacher said so, but the library is more important to me than the practice of dedication. I do not feel like using time for the tour.

..... After that is a cow and beast. It is a little more.

As for the beast, back trade with Hill Sur has been done and I think that handling of Stap is not too difficult if it thinks within the range that I was idle with alone.

..... a little more to the library.

I got acceptance at the dedication dance, and I was excited in the morning, I left the small hall to go back to the dormitory. Immediately afterwards, Wilfriit changed his complexion and he was caught in the neck and yelled at a loud voice.

"Were not you forgetting the promise with Prince Anastigius?"

"... ... I'm coming out entirely"

"Because it is this, he is ... ..."

Saying sighs Wilfried back to the dormitory saying that he is waiting with Richard outside the small hall. It is said that Willefried who is not invited can attend.

... ... It is dangerous and dangerous.

While wiping the cold sweat of my heart, I was waiting for Anastasiusus to come out at the exit of the small hall. Anastigius, who came out with a number of girls students, found me and laughed as if I stupidly make noise as I stroke my hun and nose.

"What was waiting in such a place? It is bad, but it was urgent, I can not go out with anyone else."

"You said Prince Anastigius would associate with us, sorry."

Girls laughing with couscous felt obvious hostility. I do not want to get involved in the troubles of my older sisters who are competing to get the affection of Anastigius. I decided to have the spot free soon.

"I am seriously aware that the royal people are busy. Please do not hesitate. Come on Richarda. Let's go back to the dormitory early."

I talked to Richarda, whose expression is a bit steeper than usual. Perhaps, I think I am angry about what I treated lightly.

"I want to read the continuation of this morning's book earlier."

As I laugh and say so, Richarda walks down with his shoulders down as it can not be helped.

I did not look back at the fearful gaze of the female students and I did not look at the expression of Anastigius at this time at all.

Chapter 298: Successful codex creation

Although I tried saying that I want to go to the library because I have not had a whole day lecture, as expected, I was rejected by Richarda, I was deliberate on making manuscripts to print next. The story which was the spoken language of the child is corrected to the written language. With this, printing from the spring is not troubled.

The next day, there was a skill of music in the afternoon. If a problem song was issued from the teacher and it played, it was a passing. Since it was a song that I had already practiced with the task from the president, I practiced several times while watching the score and then I played in front of the teacher and got passed soon.

"Rosemain has not practiced not only his own song but also many other songs, is not it?"

"I just practiced my musical practitioners and teachers,"

"Will you bring that musical instructor? I am looking forward to the tea ceremony."

"Neither myself nor musical instructor is pleasure, honor and can not sleep to be invited to teachers' tea ceremonies"

"Well"

With such a conversation, I finished practicing music. Indeed, it seems that Rosina, who is engaged in lyrics, arranging and practicing new songs, is getting a little sleeping time. It seems that he is looking forward to the tea ceremony, and his facial expressions are exciting and sometimes exciting.

"Rosemain has ended so soon."

Wilfried seems to be a song that I never played, and I am struggling hard. While staring at the score with a stroke, Vilfried struggling strikes off and passed the test and saw me returning to his seat, lightly shrugged his shoulders.

"Whoever plays anything easily, he will have Fespiel's talent"

"No, Ferdinand is going to accumulate more and more difficult tasks because I was made to practice this song just after the announcement."

"Is it right after the show?"

Willefried played on the show, it was a song with a level of difficulty for the child of that age to play. Wilfried blinked his eyes as he seemed to realize how much difference there was at that time.

"If you want to be a master of Fespiel, do you take a Ferdinand-san lesson? As the seasons are handed out 5 to 6 songs of work and when you can say that you want to play it, with rosina I desperately try to practice. "

When the end of the season approaches, you will spend it while practicing everyday while being excited about when it will be said "Come with Fespiel." And, when a passing score comes out to the performance, a new problem song whose difficulty level has gone up is issued again. As I said, Wilfried lightly closed my eyes and shook my head.

"There is only one thing that I can follow with my uncle's requirement lightly. While I do not care about magical powers and magical tools, music does not want to receive education on my uncle, so I can stay as it is now."

"I am never light at all, but ...."

And the next day.

The reference book for the second grader is gathering as soon as possible. Originally, since it was mostly to summarize the reference books borrowed by depositing money to those who can go to the library and those written down by the brother Eckhardt and the priest chief, It did not take so long.

"There are many lectures that have changed quite a lot compared to the priests president and Eckhardt's older brothers."

Until now, while I was watching only the materials to carry out the classroom of knight apprenticeship in the activities of 'Angelica's scorers', I did not notice, but compare the materials of the first and second year students with those of the last few years. Looking at it, there were several lectures that have changed significantly.

Philline lightly shrugs on me who said while comparing the manuscripts of reference books that everyone made.

"Since it seems that teachers have been exchanged after the political change, it is not surprising even if the content of the lecture changed significantly."

In the majority of cases, if an assistant is present and retired or died, the assistant will become the next teacher and give lectures with similar content.

However, if there is a political change and there is a large-scale purge, since the teacher and the assistant basically belong to the same faction, they are dismissed together. Then, there seems to be a break in the lecture content.

"I would like to check the reference book for the previous year in the library and give a lecture ....."

"I think there is a researcher's self-respect for researchers, I do not want to be a lecture that is totally unchanged from those who were dismissed in political change?"

Wilfried says so in the same way compare the materials. Respector's self-esteem is also important, but I'd like you to be a little more concerned about the difficulties of students' learning.

"Is not the reference book of the previous year useless?"

For students like me who aim for one pass, the lecture which the reference book of the previous year becomes useless at all is not annoying extremely. When Myself complained that the way to the library surely goes away, Philene laughed a little.

"... Then, if you think that reference books with new lecture content will increase to the library, will not Rosemain's anger relax?"

"Philene is clever, now I just wanted to thank a bit for political change"

"Everything depends on your way of thinking"

Wilfried, yeah yeah, he nods.

"... ... The end of the reference making has approached, but what does Philene do after this?"

"Next time, the lower aristocracy who wish to apprentice civilian gathers is supposed to play a tea ceremony."

After finishing making the reference book, Phyline seems to embark on an exchange with the lower aristocracy of another territory from now on. He reported that he would take a social occasion to gain useful information.

"Indeed it is nervous to join the tea ceremony of senior high school teachers and it is now a story to practice with everyone .... So, what about the topics at that tea party, do you have to be careful ? "

"That is something I have to think carefully as well"

"I also have a tea ceremony between my cousin and my sister, I think I have to talk slowly once including senior students about how far I can give out information."

Well, when I am worried about it, I received a lecture passed today in this morning, so Hartmut, who had come down to the multipurpose hall, gave me advice if I could afford it.

"I definitely will be asked about the performance improvement of Ehrenfest, Phyllin"

Hartmut said, I have quite a lot of questions as I have different grades. According to the activities of the Ehrenfest Performance Awards Committee, Ehrenfest, who has a large number of early passengers who have passed the class as a whole, and has brought out the results that all the first graders passed, seems to be the focus of attention at the moment.

"Vilfried is prominent in the excellent excellence, but Rosemain stands out in various ways"

Magical power control lost a number of magic stones and stayed to the end, such as attacking the teacher with a beast simulating a demonic beast, going among the deepest, collapsing and dying, disgraceful prominence It is only in the direction.

"Rosemain is not just a disgraceful way to stand out. It is making something new with music, such as having the school passed almost perfectly, passing it at the court way, passing a good prominence I am also working. "

"So, what does Hartmut answer to surrounding questions?"

When I asked Hartmut, I answered with a really good smile, while I fell into my unwilling attention.

"It is thanks to the saints of Ehrenfest that our grades are going up and I am saying that next year will be more surprising."

"Hartmut!?"

"It is not a fact, the Ehrenfest Achievement Committee is what Rosemain thought, and the pleasure of a first year student is also the gift of Rosemain's passion for a library. The next year we will use the Rosemain type magical compression method. People who have extended their magical powers are more active, so I have not told a lie."

Hartmut says so with a sunny face.

"You do not have to tell the details to another territory, you should make it ambiguous but never tell a lie. If you do not start with getting credit you can not even deceive the enemy."

Phyllie watches Hartmut with a smile saying "I will answer like that" with respect to respect.

"What's going on, the rumor about the strange exaggerated Ehrenfest's saint was due to Hartmut!"

"... Rosemain, it's a misunderstanding, it's not my fault alone, because Ehrenfest is spreading together as a whole"

"Even more, it is bad! At least, please let me say as the idea of Virfriit's older brother who is likely to become the next lord."

I insisted that I would be buried in general students and go to the library, but not only in Hartmut, but everyone in the multipurpose hall was told that "Even though I think it is too late already".

"And it's not good for Wilfried-like growth to get used to getting Rosemain-sama's hands"

"Well, I will do my best for what I can do."

I was convinced that the two people told me so, I did not realize that the Eliefest saint's legend accelerated.

From the afternoon it is a practical skill to create a cowardly beast. It seems that I am outspoken to rumors that it was hit by a beast imitating a demonic beast, which caused Faurellem, the dormitory manager of Ahrensbach dormitory to be fainted in the last lecture.

..... I do not care about being spoiled, but I am in trouble that I can not pass.

I think that it will manage somehow because I made a back deal with Hill Sur, but a little anxiety still remains in Hill Sur.

... .. Do not you remember to come to the lecture properly?

If you are immersed in research, you will easily forget such promises with me. Hirschle is like a person who boiled down the mad scientist ingredient of the priest, so I will be worried.

However, my worry seemed to be frustrating, and Hill Sur came to practicing to create a beast. That, too, with several teachers.

"Well, the teachers, how have you done?"

"Because I had fainted last time, did I end up with discontinuing formulation? It is too hard to be called again, so I thought that it was better to visit from the beginning this time."

While laughing, Hirschle gleamed the purple eyes shining.

"I am not grudging so much that I failed to waste the material.

"Well, well, it should be charged to the dangerous student who struck me with a cowardly beast"

"... .... I wonder, what do you think that it attacked, as far as I saw last time, there was nothing to be attacked, is not Fraurelm just making a stirring exaggeration?"

"What, is that !?"

It seems to be calm as Frauerelm gets stuck, but it was almost the same as a girl with a sharp eye of eye broke in between them.

"Calm down a little. As it is a rumor that students attacked with a beast imitating a monster, it is better to put another teacher in order to avoid danger? Proof of the validity of Fraulem it can"

We put several teachers for safety and rumor confirmation, said Grandpa. She seems to have accepted Fraulem which seems to have rumored that it is "dangerous" from himself.

"Well, it would be better for you to check how dangerous it is,"

She told me that in a tone of sour taste Fraulems stood at the center of the student as if to cut the wind with his shoulder, to put out a magic stone to be a coward. I will also move near Hirschur for my safety and take out manastones. Then, several teachers began to change their standing position to surround me. Even if I do not worry so much, I think that Hill Sur laughs with laughter.

"..... Everyone is interested in Rosemain's new form of cowgirl, because I'm enthusiastic about researching people and I like new things."

In other words, I am not wary, but that I am staring at curiosity and curiosity close to seeing research subjects. In order to show that my lesser bus is not dangerous, this time seems to have to be quietly watching this time.

..... If you get a passing, I will endure a spectacle.

According to Hill Sur, the few teachers who saw the Lesser bus when going down in the deepest say that it is unusual, unusual, the quiet and dull movement, it did not seem like Grün very It seems that there are several teachers who were interested, as I said.

"Because I also want to take a closer look again to make a new cud beast"

He prepared a magic stone to make a new cud beast, Hirschle laughed happily with his manastone in hand.

"Those who can make the shape of a cowgirl please make a shape"

Simultaneously with the voice of Frauerelm, I was urged by teachers around me to say "Well, early," I put out a Lesser bus for one person.

"Ho, this is ... .. It looks like he looks a bit dull, but it is certainly a grunge."
"I have a chair, but how do you ride?"

I was pulling a step back from the striking busy bus and I was watching a lesser bus that is being touched by the researcher.

"You said you can change the size of this crocodile, are not you?"

Told Hill Sur, I changed the Lesser Bus to the size of a family car with a high car height.

When opening the entrance so that it can ride, Hilsur who was delightful enters into it and makes contact with them. Since I was doing the same thing last time, there is no piece such as hesitation on Hill Sur's movements.

"Do you ride like this?"

It seems that a researcher who likes new things is not a mistake, and several teachers come in one after another, looking around here and there.

"Rosemain, what is this?"

"How do you move it?"

"Oh, this is comfortable to sit"

The teachers who should have come to check the danger of the beasts imitating the monster began to get on a lesser bus, looking at the excitement while looking around, the surrounding students became stunned facial expressions.

"Take a look, Professor Hill Sur was on board with the skirt as it is"

"By the way, I heard that you can ride without changing clothing for cavalry" ...

"If this is Sumil, it might be pretty,"

Whether it was a bit of an interest, the girls students are discussing each other while closing the distance little by little.

Although it is a lesser bus that resembles Grun, first graders who have not recognized Grun as a monster yet do not seem to be scared, leaving it to curiosity and coming closer little by little.

"It's dangerous! It's close to such insane things!"

Frauerellu desperately screams, but the thing that is not particularly dangerous is obvious in the form of teachers who get in and get around with various things.

"Well, let's try making a new cowgirl with reference to Rosemain-sama's cavalry, I thought that it would be nice if there were a beast to safely carry materials and tools."

"Is it easy to create a new cud beast? My escort knights told me that it is impossible to handle two ..."

"Although it may be difficult to distinguish between the two by the judgment of the knight, if you have time to think slowly, you can make it by switching thoughts. I can not use the previous cud beasts I think that it does not matter, so there is no problem.

While watching the Lesser Bath, Hill Sur got a magic stone in his hand and began making a new coward. Maybe I'm accustomed to handling magical powers, it makes quite easy to create new cow animals.

"Wow!"

When Hill sur created cavalry, cheers rose from surrounding students. What was able to be next to the Lesser Bus is a single-person cock with Sumir's head.

Unlike a lesser bus, it has a reins instead of a steering wheel, it seems that we do not consider taking other people, one chair, but there is a place to put the luggage. It is exactly a cow for Hill Sur.

When Hill Sur moved the hand a little, the entrance opened like a Lesser bus. Hill sur leaves the skirt as it is. And when I sat on a chair made just like my cow, I grasped the hanging bow instead of the handle.

When Hill Sur rushed magical powers and manipulated the reins in the same way as other cow animals and started moving the cud beast, the Schmir type coward began to move and was able to run through the small hall. It seems that Hill Sur was able to image properly until I could run through the air without wings.

..... It may be more adaptable than the chief priest.

"You can move it without problems with a reins. The way to move is the same as before. I can sit back on a chair slowly, so I can ride a beast with elegant feeling"

Hirsur coming down from a cumulus cuddly nodded with a smile as if satisfied with ride comfort.

"Teacher Hill Sur, please tell me how to make this cod beast"

"I want to know"

The appearance of familiar reins and Sumiru seemed to be easy to accept, girls students wanted to imitate Hill Sur. Hill sur was the popular female student who made a schmild type cock suddenly. No students gathered on my Lesser bus.

"... ... Lesser you are cute too"

"Although not cute, it was quite interesting"

My grandfather, who told me to comfort me, went out of the small hall, saying it was a nice harvest.

"If you can go round the sky above the aristocracy with the beasts you created, you can pass the creation of beasts."

That said Hill Sur and I am an empty drive. As the number of cow animals increased in the small hall, it became small, so the student who had got used to riding had told me to go out once to return to the magic stone.

As I went outside, I felt my body get pulled into the cold winter air. I quickly got out a lesser bus and got in, I grasped the steering wheel. The wind is not hit inside the Lesser bus, it is still warm.

..... But, compared to Ehrenfest, the aristocrats are not as cold as usual.

It's cold in winter, but it's cold, but Ehrenfest is colder and snow is deeper. By feeling such a difference in climate, I realize that the place I am really in is not Ehrenfest.

"Let's go over"

Following the preceding Hill-Sur's Schmir-type cowgirl, I run through the sky with a lesser bus. It seems that Fraulem looks at a slow progress student inside.

Several cud beasts run along the sky above the aristocrat.

For the first time, I decided to see the whole view of the lords. Until now, we had transferred to the dormitory, we arrived from the dormitory to the corridor in front of the auditorium by opening the entrance door, so neither the aristocratic house nor the dormitory looked at the exterior.

The aristocrat was on a high mountain. It was surprisingly surprisingly surrounded by the slopes of the forest and surprisingly oversized sites caught my eyes. A place with an auditorium called the main building is the biggest building immediately under, and there is a white building to take in a small mountain.

A coniferous forest like a fir tree that does not drop the leaves in winter, as the snow is wearing like a costume, all of the sight seemed whitish. I think that white buildings scattered with poppies in such a forest are each dorm. While there were many buildings around the corner of the aristocratic grounds, although honestly, I do not know which dormitory of Ehrenfest is. However, as I heard before, I thought it was fantastic to have dormitories of various architectural styles.

..... If the building resembles a castle, is it me, this one?

The circumference of the House of Peers was surrounded by slopes and deep forests, surrounded by the sea of clouds, and the state of the bottom was not seen at all. I wonder if the weather is nice.

As far as I ran around and looking down, it seemed that there were only lords and dormitories in this area. At least not like the aristocratic city of Ehrenfest, there seems to be a town of commoner and a field in the immediate vicinity. It is as if the lords are themselves big temples.

..... Holy land?

The starting land where the gods in the scriptures got down and gave the king power to govern the people may be this place.

Considering such a thing, I look around the premises grounds.

The premises of the aristocratic society covered with snow were mysteriously surprising even if the gods descended.

"Creating a cowgirl is a success"

I successfully won the passing of a lecture created by a cowpea.

And thanks to Hill Sur, a ride - on coward will become popular among girls.

Chapter 299: Stap's foundation

I had plenty of days to practical day on basic stap usage. I was living every day while preparing manuscripts for picture books and preparation for second graders.

If you master how to use Stap, you can go to the library with sunshine. I counted some practical skills that taught me the basics of how to use Stap and waited for one day.

"Rosemain-sama's excellence is saddened now for now."

"truly"

I'd like to set up a tea party with teachers of music as soon as I can go to Brunhild or I and the girls who are planning to go to the library and measure the Schwarzs and Weiss, desperately to study all the passing studies doing.

"Rosemain, you do not have to pass in too hurry,"

"In this way, I might not be able to go to the measurement of Schwarz and Vice."

Girls are studying in desperate fashion like a freshman who was aiming for one pass. As can be expected to follow it, the boys whose schools remained were also enthusiastic about their study.

Looking around such a multipurpose hall, I shake my head with a smile. I will not wait any longer to go to the library.

"I will pass in a hurry and go to the library in a hurry. I want you to start the lecture of Stap as soon as possible"

Hartmut laughed a little when he was absolutely thrilled to pass at once.

"It is not so easy to learn the basics of Stap, Rosemain, a lower aristocrat really learns over a period of time, even the candidate lords are rarely to talk about those who passed the first day."

Haltmut said that it is impossible to do, but when you say so it makes me want to pass even on the nature.

"I will make every effort to pass as much as I can, so I can make as much effort as possible to head to the library."

"Yes, Hartmut. Rosemain, who is in front of the library, can not stop this pleasure, keeping in mind that we will pass the fastest, our aides, we have to schedule "

When that momentum is taken in the library, Mr. Brune Hilde murmurs on the reference book whether it is difficult to make a schedule for the tea party. If Brühn Hilde passes the lecture of the reference book which he holds now, it seems that the lecture is over.

"To be sure, if it's for the library, do not cut anything, is it to stand up with all your strength?"

"That's it."

"Well, I am looking forward to seeing Rosemain's new legend."

I received the encouragement of such Hartmut.

..... New legend and library? .....What should I do?

To be honest I want to avoid rumors any further. A buried, peaceful life is essential. However, a library is essential for a peaceful life. Which one should you take? This is a very difficult problem.

"Let's make a new legend by all means"

"Rosemain, if you want to avoid being conspicuous, is not it better to postpone the pass once more?"

Sent to the voice of such an aides, I headed for a practical skill to teach the foundation of Stap. To the usual small hall, I will enter with Wilfriit and senior aristocrats.

Hill suru and Rufen came in. Today 's teacher seems to be the two of us. Ruffen grabbed his fist and began explaining Stap.

"Stap is the tool that can only be used by aristocrat who will be able to use it only after incorporating the will of God into myself"

"It is the stone that is most suitable for me, the one that I got among the back is the most familiar with my magical power and it will be able to use magical power very efficiently if I can get it properly."

In order to be recognized as a nobleman, it seems necessary to have enough magical power to acquire "the will of God". It seems that the screening confirms the amount of magical power done in the baptismal ceremony.

One of the things God gave to the first king is this stap. The king who had been holding his magical powers until then was able to handle his magical powers freely with Stap given to God ... written in the founding myth of the scripture. I do not know whether what is in the scriptures is a complete fact, but now it is obedient to think that there were events that could be the source of the story.

"At the beginning I start from the point of making the shape of the stapes, each one to create a strap that is easy to handle. In order to see if it can be put out stably, put out a stap and remove it three times I will go repeatedly. "

Hill suru said, "If you can make shape steady, please come to me."

"Well, I'm going to make amazing stapes."

Everyone thinks the same thing. Everyone began to put out their own staples as they stood to the shape and size of Stap. Candidate candidates who are accustomed to handling magical powers to some extent think about what kind of Stap is suitable for them, and are raging to create the best stap. A senior aristocrat who can not be said to be accustomed to handling magical powers was already struggling to move his magical powers to make the shape of Stap.

"I am making cool staples, what kind of straps are you going to do for Rosemain?"

Vilfried looked into me looking happily while shining the dark green eyes. I played all the way while rubbing in the bed on the day I took in "the will of God", so I am not planning to stick to the design of Stap. It has already reached the conclusion that simple is best.

"..... I am a normal staple like any other adult has."

"What is it, it is not boring, is not it better to be a bit more elaborate, is that the beast has changed like that, its staff has changed, no one will be surprised"

"The stap does not need to get stiff."

I prayed for Wilfried's good fight while muttering in my mind that it would be fine to convince me, I headed to Hill sur.

"Oh, Rosemain, what have you done?"

"I will make a staple, please look."

"... .. I secretly practiced"

I was prompted by Hirsur who gently shrugged his shoulders, and I formed Stap. Move the magical power, make three times the same shape of the same shape properly, Hill suru slightly rounded eyes, huh, and breathe out.

"It is a wonderfully stable condition, so it does not seem to be a problem at all even if you proceed to the next stage. The next step is to use the Stap to put magical power into the magic tool. The preparation for Ruffen and Manastone is done?"

"Oh, Hill Sur. I am done."

Ruffen walked towards a few distant places of the students while lightly hitting the leather bags that were lowered on their waist. While watching the situation, Hill Sur will tell me the next task.

"Rosemain, leuven will teach you how to make Aldanants over there, please try to fly Ordonants to me"

"Yes"

When I nodded with Kokuri, Hirschle hid his voice with a smiling smile.

"Ordonants has been chosen as a teaching material because of its ability to make shapes even with a small amount of magical power. Please keep the magical power pour out as much as possible"

"understood"

I learned from magic-related lecture, but the magic stone to make Aldonants is not ordinary manastone. It is a manastone whose use is limited once it has been formulated and once made. Because the shape is a magic stone, everyone calls manastones, but strictly it is a kind of magical tool.

Similarly the application is limited, and it is said that it is a green manastone that is often used in life. It seems that this is a thing commonly used by the side, and it is used to connect a water bottle and a jug. It seems that water will come out all the time when you stap with the manastone set in the bottom of the jug. It is used exclusively to fill the bath with water.

Go to Ruffen and you will be given a familiar yellow manastillon. When I saw the magic stone in the palm of my hand, Ruffen opened my mouth.

"If you do not remember how to use Ordonants you will not be able to deliver voice to others. This will be used by anyone regardless of specialties in the job, so if you can not use Ordonants you can learn the apprenticeship I will be in trouble even at work. "

"Yes"

"The reply is small!"

"Yes!"

When I answered as hard as I could, "It is that spirit", Ruffen laughed satisfactorily. However, I am a little uneasy about how far I can follow this hot-blood condition. Even without magical problems there is a big problem in physical strength.

"First of all, while striking lightly with a staple, spell magical power on this manastone to make Ordonants"

While watching Ruffen's example, I put the handed manastone on the palm of my left hand and grasp the staple that I made to appear on my right hand. And, as noted by Hill Sur, I poured magical power as little as possible.

It seems to be true that Stap is able to use his magical power efficiently, it seems to be true that the sensation so far was a bucket, but it was like pouring at once, as the amount became adjustable by the faucet in the tap feel.

When lightly hitting Con and Manastone with Stap, the yellow manastone changed into a white bird with remembering.

Bathing and white birds spreading their wings once caught in my arms and folded their feathers. I feel little weight. To a mysterious existence, I opened my eyes wide.

..... Wow, I feel very witch.

Stap which is a tool for handling magical powers freely with one's own will come out, and when you hit a yellow stone, it becomes a white bird. Before I knew it, I became a completely fantasy existence.

"Well, you can do it well, so when Aldonants opens your mouth, please put your voice."

I waited for Aldonants to open my mouth, and I called out.

"Rosemain, Mr. Hill Sur, I have an Ordonant"

When I break the words, Aldonants closes his mouth. With this, OK, if you tried to fly Ordonants toward Hirschle, Ruffen gently shook his staple like an instructor.

"If you still have something else to say, if you hit a beak again with a stap, you will open your mouth."

I knew it for the first time. I nodded, I tried to hit Aldonants' beak once. Or Aldonants opened his mouth.

"... .. How do I close it?"

"Close if you call out ... .... Here."

"Well, how do you do with cancellation!?"

I do not want to send it with Ordonants for the first time until stupid communication. As my question Leuven laughed, "If you absorb magical power with Stapp, you return to the former state of magic stone," he told me. I carefully absorbed the magical power at the Stap and re-recorded the voice again.

"When you put a voice, thinking to fly to Hill Sur, swing Stap to extrude with magical power"

Please do it! Ruffen said, but if I shake all the hards, I think there is too much magical power. Especially because it fly to Hill Sur that is visible soon, I think that magical power is almost unnecessary.

I shook the staple to gently push it out.

Aldnant flew to Hill sur, and he repeated the same words three times as he said, talking.

After that, Aldonants with Hirsch 's message came flying and said "Thank you Rosemain, please move on to the next task" three times, I returned to the yellow manastone.

I will return that manastone to Leuven.

"What is the next task?"

"It is a training to strike magical powers with Stap. Although it is possible to simply exploit magical powers to make an attack, this time it is a matter of launching Roth.Rot is a red light to seek relief. You can call for relief when you are in. The knight should come over. "

Saying that, Ruffen will show you how to launch Roto with his staple out.

"In this way, you will collect magical powers ahead of the Stap. From the body much more ..."

As Ruffen said that, it seems that magical power is flowing ahead of Stepp, and the light of fist big gathers at the end of the Stap. I began to hear crackling and static electricity immediately.

"Roth!"

Ruffen so crying, swooping up the big top upwards, at the same time red light is hit against the ceiling and disappears after a while. There is nothing left on the white ceiling.

"Creating magical buildings do not get scratched by magical powers, nor do Roth penetrate them, so reassure themselves to hit themselves."

"Well, Mr. Ruffen, I do not mind bumping everything, but today's practice ends with this task?"

If you hit it all, are not you worried after this? I asked a question and thought about it, as I was surprised why Ruffen somehow caught my eye a few times.

"There is still a challenge, but you certainly do not want to finish all the tasks today?"

"Yes, that's it, but is there something wrong?"

"... No, I just thought that it would be better to keep the magical power."

"Well, it is strange to hit everything on this subject, do not you?"

"Well, yeah ... well, that's OK.

..... I do not know the reason. Do you do your best to the extent, that is, what do you do?

For the time being, since I found that there are still other problems, I want to listen to the words of Ruffen appropriately and I want to go with the magical powers preserved.

As Ruffen did, I slowly flow magical power to the tip of the staple and accumulate magical power to the size of an adult 's fist. The magical power that gathered at the tip of Stap slowly grew steadily and gradually.

"Okay, that's fine! That's it! It is bigger! Pour much more magical power!"

..... But, this stap is truly amazing.

A tool that can handle your magical powers most efficiently is not an exaggeration, nor anything. My magical power which was unstable and difficult to fine-tune is quite handy. It is as if you can handle magical powers with the same feeling as before using Yuleve asleep.

"Well, launch! Shout out with Roth and shoot all the way to the sky!

..... It's a ceiling, though.

I raised the right hand holding the stap high, and launched the light which became a fist toward the ceiling.

"Roth"

The red light stretched straight towards the ceiling. It seems that the adjustment of magical power is done properly. I breathed a sigh of relief that I had finished my task without any problems.

"Okay, I am passing ... .. but are not you going to have enough magical powers soon?"

Ruffen looked around and said a little worriedly. I am also faced with a gaze towards the surroundings.

Apparently, senior aristocrats are already tired of magical powers to create Stap. And the candidate lords who were absorbed in making cool myself only a staple seemed wasting magical power considerably, and they are sitting tired like they are.

Wilfried tried to make a good deal of staple, he did not move a step from the first position, and it was a tiring face.

Only the one who made a simple staple is challenging Aldonants, not to be concerned with the shape of original yourself only. Still, there is a considerable fatigue feeling, some people have quitted before challenging Aldonants, others seemed to be suffering after composing Aldonants.

..... I really, the amount of magical power is out of the standard.

You can understand it by lightly closing your eyes, but my magical power still has plenty of room.

"What will you do to challenge the next task?"

Choosing who is going to burial with the surroundings or choosing who goes to the library as quickly as it is told that it is out of the standard or just a moment.

"I will challenge the next issue"

As I said so, Ruffen lightly watched. After that, I will tell you the next task with the eyes that burned enthusiastically with "enthusiasm, it is necessary for life to challenge my limit."

"Last task, transform the staple so that it can be used as a tool containing magical powers"

My first deformation was to change Stap to a weapon when knights fight. However, the problem of the first year student seems to change the staple into a knife, a pen and a mixing stick.

When I heard that, "Hmm," I see Hirschle walking towards here. Apparently, the other students did not go on and everyone seems to have retired.

Look around the students who are busy with excessive use of magical power, Hirsur opens his mouth.

"Training to deform the Stap is very important, next year we will learn the foundation of the formulation of magical tools, but at that time unless you can use the knife, pen and mixer that deformed Stap, the success rate of formulation drops greatly Because it is. "

The students tightened facial expressions in Hirschle's words mainly for preparing magical tools. It is said to have to cut the material with a knife, write with the pen the magic team, and stir the mixing pot while pouring the magical power with the mixing stick.

However, I knew that I made Yuree. Even if you do not have a separate staple, you can formulate if there is a magical tool that can be substituted.

"How can I deform it?"

"Let's start with a knife, I will draw a staple and draw clearly how to change it in my head"

As Hill sur was told, I left Stepp. And, I imagine the knife that the priest chief was using at the time of compounding. I also chanted "Messer" so that it could be taken over by Hill Sur, who called out "Messer".

"Ah....."

Stap changed shape and became a knife and was held in his hand. Looking at Hill Sur, a knife very similar to his hand is held.

"Very well. Please cast Ryuken and release the deformation"

I grabbed the knife and chanted "Ryken". There was a Stap that returned shape all the time.

Oh, and the voice that admired from the surroundings rises.

"Then, please make a pen and a mixing stick like a knife"

As he taught by Hill Sur, he says "Stillo" to call a pen, and "Baimen" to cast a mix stick.

"... .... I certainly did not think that I will pass all the tasks on the first day, it is a great achievement since Ferdinand, it is truly a disciple."

In the words of Hill Sur, who was sick of sorrowful, the students looked as if they were surprised. Begging to make it irritated, a part of that voice arrives.

Speaking of Ehrenfest's Ferdinand ... is that famous?

"Well, surely he was famous for treasure stealer Didger? I heard skillfully by the militia. Only the year there is, my estate has been handed down that I missed the victory. Of themselves are not there I was fortunate to hear that. "

"No, it must have been a genius who invented magical tools one after another. My uncle is definitely buying a large amount of magical tools from him, so there is no doubt"

"I heard that it is a battle frenzy collecting materials with the momentum of hunting the surrounding demons? I heard that quality material was mostly taken by him."

"Did not it be a master of Fespiel? My aunt said it was a wonderful performance ..."

"Which one is correct?"

..... Everything is probably right. I was a candidate for a lord, I am a knight apprentice, an apprentice of a civilian, I heard that it is excellent at all.

I twinkled at the feat of the priest who is being talked about in another territory again. It seems that the superhuman evaluation of the priest chief was not merely a favorite of indwelling.

"If Ferdinand's disciple exists as a candidate for a lord, I can be convinced that the results of Ehrenfest suddenly rose"

The subjects of the surroundings move to those of the chief priest and begin to tell the legend of the priest chief who everyone knows. By the time the rumors were serious enough to think that not only the chief priest but also the legend of many people began to mix up, the gaze pouring to me was decreasing.

..... When there is a genius who has already done something, I hope I can not stand out.

Hill surreal voice caught me while surroundings were excited not only by the chief priest chief, but by the talk of legendary students of the past.

"Close your eyes one by one, even if you do not imagine that shape, please familiarize yourself with dealing with spells soon."

"Yes"

..... I did it. I passed everything! Now I can go to the library!

Chapter 300: Meeting of tea ceremony

---

"Rosemain passed all the lectures today"

That night when I passed all the lectures, Wilfried said in a dinner seat where everyone gathers.

"Wilfried's older brother, ... .. what do you mean by what has been passed?"

"It means that it was okay, even a little more slowly."

The girls who desperately studied in that word nodded as clown. Seems that there are still few children who have not finished classroom yet.

It was like I closed down the library before I passed though I tried my best to go to the library for me because the goal that I've been trying hard in the past has disappeared. In my place, it was a very bad situation.

... .. Although I am passing a bit more, it is not like that the library is closed!

I looked around the girls while I felt my chest being crushed.

"Regarding the measurement of Schwarz and Weiss, both Hirschle and Mr. Hirsch must match the schedule and I will not be heading to tomorrow sooner, there is still a grace before I make arrangements and decide on the date."

I have decided that I will head to the library tomorrow, but when I told that there is no plan to do the measurements, the girls show a kind of relaxing look. However, Wilfried turned his head to a difficult face on the contrary.

"Regardless of the measurements, Rosemain has gone to the library and there is something we have to discuss properly before it gets more floating."

..... Hat? Have you had anything to talk about?

"As we finish the lecture, we are going to socialize from now on. As Ehrenfest, it is better to have a common answer on what kind of information is transmitted as a trend, and frequently asked questions I think, how is it? "

"Recently I have a lot of questions to answer, so I am saved."

On Wilfried's words civil apprentices gathered their heads together. Apparently, the apprenticeship of civil servants seems to be flourishing in information and it seems that they are being questioned recently.

"Ask the person who has already contacted with another territory." What kind of questions were asked and how did you answer? I would like to think based on that, from now on down to classmates also to socialize I will become it. "

Answers came out one after another to Villefried's question. It seems that there is also an effect that made it possible for students to study together for each special course at the performance improvement committee, and opinions are coming out regardless of factions.

Some of the senior students have already gone on a tea ceremony on the last Saturday, and seem to be exchanging information vigorously during the lecture.

The topic is still the secret of improving the performance of Ehrenfest. It is rumored that it is also rumored that two lords of candidates are listed as candidates for outstanding grades in addition to passing the examination of the first grade student.

"I will be asked about the fact that the results of the lecture arrived at a stretch, but the answer at that time is already decided. It is the achievement of the Eleenfest's saint's achievement, which will be more surprising next year As Hurt answers, "Hartmut is giving instructions."

I have not issued any instructions, but it seems like that.

"As far as I am going up, it is basically only a seat, so this year it will not be a problem this year. How much will the men who know the Rosemain type magical compression be extended next year, so Ehrenfest's evaluation I think it will change greatly. "

It seems next year will be even more troublesome. I do not want to think about it anymore.

"Let me know the information on education in the winter's children's room, picture books, cartoons, cards, I want to keep an advantage over the results of the lecture yet." "understood"

Vilfried nodded heavily nicknamed "It would be fine for improving grades."

"I was asked about the gloss of the hair at the tea ceremony, I answered only that Rosemain lent Lincyan the day before the promotion ceremony. Where I sell it, how to make it, etc. I was asked. "

It seems that the effect which glossy hair with ginseng student in promotion ceremony with Lincian was also coming out. I did not know it because I did not hear such a voice so much around me.

"How did you answer?"

"Because I just borrowed it, I do not know the details." I just answered that it started to become popular in Ehrenfest. "

"About Lincian, that's fine"

Basically I transfer goods from my own territory to the House of Lords and live a life. There are no shops in the facility of the House of Lords and no people.

Children of the aristocracy simply collect rumors and trends, and full-blown buying and selling talks will be held at the Lords Conference. If you want to sell it widely, you can advertise on this occasion, but if you want to keep ahead, hide it.

"Lincian, flower decorations and cactus curls may bring real things or talk about it when you participate in the tea ceremony It may be good to tell them that they are starting to get popular in Ehrenfest, Please keep the name of the company that you are doing. If there are pull-outs, manufacturing theft etc. before the trade meeting is decided, the value goes down at a stretch. "

Recently these days, I use my head about earning money on my own, so the students who are a bit sensitive to the value of information and up and down the value nods with a godly look. Show only the real thing, I will give out the information, I want to lift the value.

"Mr. Rosemain, I was asked today about the cowgirl of the form of getting in. Rosemain and Mr. Hirsch riding around the aristocrat, and it seems that many of the knights apprentices have witnessed them."

"Hirschle teacher made a schmir-shaped cowgirl in practical skill of making our beasts"

I explained that I was a practicing skincare creator. Explain what multiple teacher came to verify the rumor that I struck Flauherm with a coward that imitated a demonic beast.

"So rumors of Mr. Frauerelm were denied, it would be easy to negate bad rumors if multiple teachers' testimonies could be obtained."

"Well, yes, some of the first-year students are creating a ridiculous beast."

When notifying the fact that girls of candidate lords were making Schmir type cow animals, the Rizerator broke away.

"If it is a schmir, it may be prevalent, so it is very cute."

"The advantage of not having to change clothing of Rosemain is very big, because the cud beasts are now familiar, it will be a bit painful, but will I change the beasts from now on?"

In order to play the leading edge of the trend, Brunhild says to change his cud beast.

"..... consumption of magical power will increase but if you make it bigger you can carry your luggage. It is convenient to prevent the wind and rain but this is not suitable for the knight apprentice who will fight with weapons. I ' He was saying that."

In my words Yudit regrettably lowered his brow. It seems that she wanted to make Yudit a riding type beast.

"Also, if you are going to get into the form of a cowgirl to get into, the more rounded animals are cute than horrendous animals .... Ah, no, the animals who can make a bigger part can be made more easily."

For the time being, we advertised it so that it could be extended to Ehrenfest as well. It is good to increase the cute beasts among them.

"It seems that rumor has not been so rumored that Rosemain is being invited to tea ceremonies of teachers of music compared to the first day passing of the lecture."

"Although it is rare for Ehrenfest to be invited, is not it because teacher's tea ceremony itself is not unusual?"

To such a senior student's interaction, I turned my eyes to Brunhild.

"Did you decide on the date of the tea party with the teachers, Brunhildde?"

"Today, my lecture has ended so we will decide to consult with Richarda from now on. We will prepare things to prepare here, so Rosemain will remember information on teachers."

Brühnhild says that it is better to know in advance who is the tea party to join.

"Okay, then, this is something I'd like to ask everyone, but please check how much Ferdinand-sama's influence and legend is in the House of Lords"

"... Mr. Ferdinand, are you?"

"As I heard, it seems that I was making legends in various ways in the House of Lords, some people will be happy if they talk about it at a tea party ... .. There are also some people who hate it I want you to investigate. "

As the president himself said, the chief priest is rather not personally favored personality. There is also one aspect of overprofection, but it is exercised only with respect to opponents who have recognized their values within themselves, there are many things that are cold and tough, their stories and attitudes are cold, they do not give a good impression I think that it is overwhelmingly overwhelming.

..... It seems to be good at irony 's reward with a noble comedy smile, both legend and enemy seems to be many.

"Because the music that is popular in Ehrenfest is also the addition of Ferdinand's hand to my composition, I will be saved if it gathers to a certain extent before heading to the tea ceremony of teachers of music."

"Certainly yes"

While the civil apprentices make a fantastic face, the knights apprentices do not seem to be getting very much enthusiastic.

"Keep track of Ferdinand-sama's legends firmly for those who apprentice Knight, it seems that they are not losing in treasure stealer, because this year there will be attention of Ehrenfest's ditters as lord candidate students Please, train with care and train. "

"..... I heard that it was a temporary glory, and now it's a Ditters competing for speed, so it is different from then."

To the bearish words of Cornelius' s brother, I gather eyebrows. Treasure stealing Ditter is a tough competition that skillfully has to use troops while other knights are in. However, if you only compete for speed, you probably do not think so much, so you should have a win.

"If so, is it enough to analyze the enemy so that you can beat as soon as possible? If you defeat the devil created by the teachers, are not that many types?"

"There are quite a lot, but ..."

"If you are Professor Ruffen, you may go out with a spirit or totally, but it's going to be said, but it is not good if you truly receive it and attack it with everyone."

As the knights apprentices were surprised, they looked at each other. I wonder if they were doing attacks that would surely hit everyone.

"As well as grasping the weaknesses and attack methods of all demons so that any demons can be handled, as well as who is responsible for attacking, who is preventing how, how much is done about role sharing is done Well, do you regularly change it and are you sure that it fits your aptitude? "

"... .... Oh no ... ...."

"It's not necessary for everyone to jump around, it's also necessary to have an overhead view from the surroundings, and if we do not keep the fighting strength to earn time to recover when prolonging, we will not be able to replace it."

In my words traumgot turned a bad face.

"I do not think that Rosemain, who is a candidate lordsmen, knows about knight apprentice, so there is no prolonging battle that requires recovery, so no matter what demons come, you do not have any problems and weak points It would be advantageous if you had the training to raise the offensive power if you had time to investigate. "

Angelica, who is not good at finding out and remembering, nods as clown as it agrees with the opinion of Torugotto.

"It is the traugot who is not able to see the end? It is the knight team to beat the Lord of Winter at Ehrenfest. Every year, we do not know which demon will become the main winter, but do not know so study the demons There is no knight who says not to do. "

A knight apprentice can not participate in the subjugation of the winter lord. However, I should have heard only that harshness. Apparently all the knights apprentices saw me.

"The upper division of the Order is trained to knock down whatever demons come, as well as washing out the weaknesses of the monsters, thinking how quickly they will beat the Lord of Winter every year, how quickly you can destroy a mighty enemy It is meaningful to fight while thinking from now on how to be able to be knocked down, please clarify each role and always train while thinking. "

I do not want to think, turning his eyes to Cornelius elder brother with a bitter smile at Angelica, which had become an annui look.

"Cornelius, what kinds of demons hit each year, how much did it take, how much time did it take? If there is information of all the territory even for one year, information on 21 demons gathered If it accumulates for several years, there will be some territories that are defeating the same demon, and I think that we know more precisely weak points and advantageous fighting methods, but accumulation of information every year in knight apprentice Are not you doing? "

"Most of the information that can be conveyed by mouth is most, so I do not particularly write things like that."

While being trained, it is transmitted orally, it remains as each experience, it seems that it is not left as material. Incredible.

"Now, please write down from this year, just remember the past, please write down with everyone, please write out the monsters and their weaknesses as long as you remember. The book is to store and transfer knowledge If you write, leave it and tell it, Ehrenfest will be more advantageous as you substitute. "

In my words, a side apprentice raised his face before the knight apprentice.

"If the knight apprentice leaves such information, we should write down and share the information we absolutely need to open tea ceremonies, such as the type of tea preferred by the teachers and the type of sweets. Then you will soon know the information you need to investigate newly. "

"It is our job to leave it as a document, Shall I compile my oral remedy?"

Apparently there seems to be various things that are communicated to civilian apprentices by oral message. Everyone agreed to organize oral music and share information.

"Well, let's put the bookshelf in the multipurpose hall, so that everyone can view the materials we made"

"... Rosemain, are you going to make a library in the dormitory too?"

"I'd like a library, I can not show it in other territories, but there are materials that everyone in Ehrenfest wishes to share"

While affirming Phyllie 's words while laughing giggly, Wilfried shrugged his plan to make a book corner in the brain.

"Rosemain, why do not you say something, would you please advise me?"

"What is it?"

"It is a matter of tea ceremony with Dietlinde and Rudiger, so we have to think about measures from now as we have been eliminated"

If you see Wielfleet's expression is stiff, you will find that you do not consider that tea ceremony between cousin and younger brother will be comfortable at all.

"Both Ahrensbach and Fröbel Tak are ranked down ranks. Does anyone have good information? I will buy it."

According to the information that civil apprentices have gathered so far, Fleevelde Tur seems to be in need of magical power more than ever as the assistance of magical power from Ehrenfest is gone. One person said, I wish for the resumption of assistance.

"Assistance of magical power, did you do such a thing?"

"Well, I was passing the magical power of Mr. Ferdinand to the Small Holy Grail and deliver it."

Wilfried who experienced filling the direct jurisdiction and muttering, "I do not have such a room in Ehrenfest". I would like you to tell your parents that word.

"As for Froebel Tak, it is a watchful eye, if you get a subsidy, in Ehrenfest, please say that the lords are so distressed that they will spell the magical power around the land under direct control"

"What?"

"If you think that you are going to do so, you may advise or assist you, but if you are an opponent who mocks the priest's work as a priest's job, I will continue to assist you further I will not do it. "

Wilfried nodded and took it.

"Is there anything about Ahrensbach? Because Aub Ehrenfest refused to interact with nobility, there is not much information."

"It is not easy to be stared at Aub Ehrenfest, so I do not know well because I have not gathered much aggressively here as well."

I asked Wilfried to attend the civil engineering apprenticeship so that they could collect it.

"In the meantime, please do not be alarmed about Ahrensbach, but do not be deceived by yourself even if you feel nostalgic."

"know"

"Please take good care of the people who take you."

"Yes!"

Wilfried's aide is informed that he was a hunting tournament two years ago and he knows that he was removed from the next term candidate. Because he is serving on it, there must be loyalty.

Wilfried smiles bitterly at the aide saying that everyone will protect it exactly.

"... Rosemain-sama"

Rodderich opened his mouth with a face decided.

"Why are you wary of Ahrensbach so much?"

Eyes gathered as if I was relieved by the question raised with trembling voice. Wilfried and my aides are what got me looking at what I am talking about now, old Velonica schoolchildren seemed to agree with Rodelhi.

Rodderich who took the eyes of everyone grasps hands trembling.

"Ahrensbach is a large territory, my first lady Georgine is not my sister of Aub Ehrenfest, I do not know why to be alarmed so much, sir Wilfried siblings, And like Rosemain and Charlotte, we can build a good relationship with Ahrensbach, my father said that he wanted to build a cooperative relationship with Ahrensbach and want to improve Ehrenfest better. "

Rhodderich said so and we could adhere.

Even if one of the hunting tournaments where Wilfried was settled, Rohdrich was left notified of the details, leading the villfleet to the white tower, and as a result, it was able to get away from Villefried listening.

I think that it seemed to be treated as good for the surrounding adults, but it is an irrevocable blunder for intermediate and lower aristocrats who are weak in their position to be wound by strong people. It means that Rodrig has committed a blunder in the following year when it came to baptism.

Like Rodderich, parents tell us to rub against Ahrensbach, so there may be some children sending this information. Although I think that I would like to put together beautifully only in the dormitory, it seems to be quite difficult.

Still, I opened my mouth that I could not be satisfied without knowing any circumstances at all.

"Rodderichi, you might not know because it was before baptism, but I was raised hidden in the temple, just being a magical abundant blue shrine maiden, being swept away by the nobility of Ahrensbach And, even in the winter attack two years ago when I got poisoned and sleep, the one used was a soldier owned by a noblemen of Ahrensbach "

Perhaps they were not told young, the children of the lower grade saw me as if they were frightened.

"... I did not think there was such a thing"

"Besides, the criminal who was executed under Charlotte and who was made to drink poisoning is different, it can be said that I am close contact with both is a different person, another culprit is still caught Who can tell you who is unable to communicate with Ahrensbach? If there is even a little danger, I think it is natural for me to be wary of the attacks Is not it? "

"think"

Considering from the poor complexion of the children, it is understood that even the information for judgment is not given.

"I think that it would be nice if we could make friends with other territories, if possible, but in the present situation where Aub Ehrenfest is wary of various events, it is hard to take a cooperative structure with Ahrensbach I will not get it. "

".....Yes"

It seemed to be convincing, I nodded with the old Veronica children as well.

"There are lots of things that you can not understand if you do not know, so it is good to have yourself polished so that you can obtain various information from various places as a civil apprentice. Fortunately, you can rely on the House of Lords There are many senior students who will become "

As Rhodderich relaxes, raise your face and slowly look around.

"How much benefit is in Ehrenfest after gathering information from all territories and getting along with Ahrensbach, whether there is a more advantageous territory than Ahrensbach, well examined well Please do it. "

"I'll try"

Along with the reply of Rodrigh who had improved his complexion, it was the children of the former Veronica who nodded with Kokuri silently.

I broke up everyone and I tried to go back to my room. I was called by Villefried and invited to a small room where we could talk with them. Even though it is small, it is the size that both aides are included.

"..... Rosemain, that person is too sweet, it is better for those of former Veronica to keep it down."

"I know that I am sweet, as I often say, but my brother Vilfried, I give them opportunities as I have given Wilfried's opportunity for atonement and growth, I want it. "

Uh, Wilfried and its surroundings packed in words.

"What sort of strange thing is that a young child who just finished the baptismal ceremony totally swallows parents' opinion? The sins they committed are the same as those of Wilfried's brother. Their sins committed without knowing Do not you have a feeling? "

"that is....."

"Is it not possible to not know, is it two years ago, did you forget? For two years ago to Villefried's older brother, my sense has not changed for the season one minute, I clearly remember the expression I regretted at that time and the words of my reflection. "

Wilfried was touched as much as to say that he was upset.

"It is impossible to trust all of the old Veronica's children suddenly, but if you listen to various opinions at the lords who have little influence from their parents and build their own ideas and information networks, Is not it possible to change relationships? It is not for the future to truncate all the former Veronica factions ... .. If you say black black intention, even if parents are truncated, children are here I would like to incorporate it into the camp of the United States and make the futures of the future even bigger. "

I think it is difficult to capture the parent's generation. I can not imagine being able to change the idea of those who eat so easily. But the child may still manage to do something.

"While taking precautions, you can capture where you can capture, it's difficult."

"Well, I think it is difficult, but it is my duty as a lord of the next lady to nurture a vassal that supports myself and the territory, at least not the role of my next lord."

Kikari and I declare to Wilfriit and his aides "not to become a lord". Recently, it seems that the surroundings are getting exciting, it is best to keep it in check.

"Then, what is the role of one who does not become a lord?"

"Since I am the temple, it is the most important task to do the shrine without delay and to operate the temple, then to organize the library of the castle to assist the next lord as a child of the lord "

"... .. I think that assisting the lords and organizing the library are different jobs"

In the words of Vilfried who shrugged his shoulders, laughter leaked out showing the consent from the surroundings.

Chapter 301: Let's go to the library

---

I passed all lectures. Finally you can go to the library freely. It is the first free movement in the library, stretching out heartily with everyone.

It was earlier than Ricarda 's coming to the room that I flew up so much for fun. I floated floating I shouted, "Today is a library, pray to God!" In a dark room, pretending to go back to bed and sleep.

But my servants seemed to have made arrangements for today, when I blew off the blessing in a room with equipment already used by the side. Rikuja who entered the room as soon as he got into the bed and got into the room with a shameful face with a bitter smile, "Princess, even if you pretend to sleep, the blessing light will not disappear" is raised, I saw it with my eyes.

At breakfast, people accompanying my library are screened. Basically, after the lecture is over, people with hands are accompanying. Brother Cornelius asks breakfast and asks for the schedule of everyone today.

Brünn Hilde, who just finished the lecture, says he wants to begin preparing for tea ceremonies of professors of the music, and the Risaizer said that there is a last lecture to accompany the measurements of Schwarz and Vice . Hartmut also seems to have a lecture today, and most of the knights apprenticeship seems to be a lecture.

"Well, if it is so, the accompanying to the library is Richarda and Phyllin, the escort knight has no one with Leonor only available"

"I am worried that Cornelius, Rosemain's single escort knight is one person, so even if I give priority to escorts rather than lecture ..."

"Angelica has received a lecture firmly"

With Léonore blocking Angelica's words and saying so, Leonore turned to Cornelius elder brother.

"Rosemain who blesses with praying from the morning with the pleasure of going to the library, can not say I can not wait any longer, just me."

"Certainly, it seems impossible to say that I can wait any longer, so it can not be helped, I asked Leonore"

"There are few students who have finished lectures yet, so it's OK, Cornelius"

When Léonore smiles, Elder Cornellius nods once and then looks at me and takes notice with a face and tone that makes it unfamiliar to an indefinite child.

"For Rosemain, for safety, promise to go to the library after everyone's lecture has begun. If you do not seem to be able to keep that degree, you will be on standby until the escort convenience will come from next time "

"I will absolutely defend!"

..... I can not wait to see Angelica's convenience!

I saw everyone heading to the lecture and after the bells of two and a half rang, I waited with a rush to forgive Richarda and headed for the library.

Since the lecture has already started, there is no sign of a person in the white corridor at all and a lecture will be held beyond the closed door, but the voice will not leak out and it will not be heard. It is only our footsteps and singing voices floating in a quiet corridor.

"Library, library, place of happiness, Ruururu, Lararan"

"... Rosemain, did not the musician attach a different song to that song?"

"That's it, this is fine for this"

The library of the House of Lords is much wider than the library in the castle of Ehrenfest, it has a lot of volume and it is worth reading. I can do my first reading at the library. I think that there is no more song to sing such joy.

By the way, the lyrics I made were "to pray for God, then thanks," but since it is dangerous if blessings pop out arbitrarily, delete them autonomously and deceive them with "Ruru" or "Lara" There.

"Leonore"

Among my escort knights, I looked up Leonore, the only one recommended by intelligence. The intellectual indigo eyes are shining brightly on the appearance like a civil apprentice.

"What is it, Rosemain?"

"As far as I saw, the knight apprentice apparently seems to be only those who are not good at reading, but is Leonor not good at reading, too?"

Looking at the state of the knights of yesterday, it seemed not to be a very knight who likes reading very much. Is it because those who are good at moving the body choose a knight course?

"Based on Rosemain sama, I can not quite say that I like it, but I am not that good compared to other knights."

"Then, do you seek out in the library whether there are books about strategies and tactics before the political change, about books written about monsters, can you tell everyone through eyes again?"

In my words Léonore blinked with curiosity as "everyone is summarizing the content of the lecture?"

"It seems that the content of the current lecture is less for strategy and tactics than for Ferdinand and Ekhardt's books that I kept. The book that the summary of the weaknesses of books about Ditter and demons is gathered in the library. There may be, I will search for books that might be useful for apprenticeship of knights. "

"Even if you do not bother Rosemain, do I try to find it on the day when there are other escorts?"

Léonore tells you, but I want to find it. I want to soak in the librarian's mood because it's fine.

"Do not mind, Leonore, it is the librarian who searches for books in the library ... Ah, no, it is the work of the library committee members"

As I stroked and said so, everyone seemed inexplicable, including Leonore.

"... Rosemain, what is a library committee?"

"A student who will help librarians in the library of the school building"

After all, the surrounding inexplicable face will not change. Philene put his hands on his cheeks, Well, tilt his head.

"Is it like a civil apprentice?"

"Well, I am a candidate for a lord and it is an apprentice of a civil servant."

In my mind that taking a lecture on both classes in order to be a librarian, I kept my eyes closed once everyone lightly.

"I would like to say that such a serious thing can not be done, but ..."

As Philine follows a richarda that said so, she can not say anything but a vague smile.

"If you know the passion for Rosemain's library, you can not do it."

"I will be really getting accomplished like all the first year students passed, so I am at a loss for words."

Léonore smiles bitterly while turning his gaze towards sympathy with Philine dating.

"Because Ferdinand also advises me to advise so that both lectures can be taken, so it's okay, I will take both!"

"Dear, you came"

"Himself, welcome"

When I entered the reading room of the library, Schwarz and Vice gave a lot of attention and went out of the work space. It seems that you noticed that voice, Sorangju got a big eyes from the office room and got a face.

"Well, Rosemain-sama!"

"Good morning, Mr. Sorangju, Schwarz, Vice"

Come here and crouch on the forehead of Schwarz and Weiss, which lightly closes your eyes as "praised" "praised, prince", and poured a little of the magical power on the magic stone, Sorangje also got out of the workspace and came out of the workspace, I I came walking towards those of us.

"Good morning, Rosemain, did you say you never come here until you pass the lecture?"

"I passed all yesterday."

When I caught my heart to read books at the library, Sorange was breathlessly breathing after turning his eyes on confirming to Richarda and Philiane with an unbelievable face.

"... I was surprised by the unexpected excellence. I am convinced that there is a main character of Schwarz and Weiss."

Since the lecture has already begun, there are few signs of people in the library. This seems to be enjoying reading slowly. While staring, I looked around the library and stopped watching with a wide staircase on the left.

"Since I could not get up to the second floor last time, I also look forward to going upstairs,"

"Do it like that"

"You are the best, Princess"

I am glad that I am able to do my work, and Schwarz and Vice start to walk with their heads shaking lightly to the side. The stairs going up to the second floor was made of the same white material as the building, there were widths about five adults could line up side by side.

"How many books does this library have?"

"Yes, it is about 3 to 40 thousand if it contains no old material that was no longer used and was transferred to the archive for storage"

Shorubuto and Weis shook their heads as they nodded in the words of Sorange.

"Ahhhhhhh is a cub ... Nyanmura"

"Take care of the people, everyone reads."

"As the two say, as books, there are many things that are managed as reference books on the first floor. As all subjects are left with pretty old things, as Schwartz said, It will be about. "

Among the 20,000 volumes, there are things spelled on parchment, and there are things of wood baskets. Soranju said that the thing that spelled parchment was the one that the individual wrote to the library, and sometimes there were a few subjects in one volume.

"What are you going to do with a mix of subjects?"

"How is it? It is set as a book that he created, so it is rare that an outstanding one will leave the book in the library,"

"..... Because it is possible to prepare a reference book for several subjects, it is an excellent one, but classification is difficult if there are several subjects in one volume, and there are multiple people who are troubled if they are taken Is not it? "

When I asked if it was something people needed for another lecture wanted to read the contents of this lecture, Sorangju gave priority to the borrower Laughing with a feeling of being, with a feeling.

"If the final exam is approached, the number of users will increase, and neither Charles nor books will be enough, so it would be good if they could be stored separately, if possible, but .... It is hard to reach such a place."

"I'm going to look through all the books, so if you can divide it by lecture, shall we separate it?"

"Oh, is Rosemain going to read all of this book, is not it hard?"

Sorangju smiles with a grandmother 's face, saying to her child' s dreams "It would be great if you do not care" as if you were not seriously doing it. I am serious.

While echoing the knockoff and the shoe sound, I went up the stairs. Sighs of admiration leak into the sight which spreads before that.

On the second floor the pillars and windows were evenly spaced like the first floor. On the first floor there was a desk and a chair in the recessed window between the pillar and the pillar and it was a character, but on the second floor there are two bookshelves lining up in the pillar, back to back, like a writing desk There is a desk part where writing is possible about the bookshelf itself. And the desk part was supposed to hit the light from the window.

The bookshelf was divided into three stages of a shelf that could reach an adult if stretched out if it stretched out, a shelf that would reach if it did not stand up, and a shelf of feet under the desk, the books were piled up. The book has a chain and you can see that it is hanging down.

"How wonderful!" Chain Drive Rally "!"

"... Rosemain, I could not catch you"

"I just came out of emotion, I do not care."

Although the temple library is also a chain drive rally, since the number of books is small, it is installed on a reading desk where the tabletop is inclined, as it is opened, and the book is connected to the desk.

However, in the reading room on the second floor of the House of Lords, it was connected to the bookshelf with chains and was stacked in the shelf. I am moved by the fact that there are books that can be piled up.

.....Wow wow! I feel like a time slip now!

Rather than standing the books upside down, stacking up is because there are metal rims and studs on the leather cover. If you stand side by side, when you take out from the bookshelf, the cover of the book placed next to the rivet rubs and the leather of the cover becomes full of scratches. By lifting it and putting it next to it, it is protecting the book from scratches by taking a book.

And parchment swells with moisture. To prevent this, books are often fitted with leather belts, but by stacking books, they do not inflate with weight.

..... Even though I know it with knowledge, I saw it for the first time! It's so much fun to dance! What should I do.

If you can do the library members here, I must be able to share the problems with old librarians, which I have read only in books, and think about the evolution of libraries. Tension rises steadily.

..... In the chain drive rally, if the number of books increases, it is troubled by the chain of the bookshelf getting tangled, or is it troubled to get in touch with books and reading desks depending on sunshine?

The desk at the east to the south seems to be easy to read, but I can not move a book connected to a chain with my present time. If you want to read in a bright, easy-to-read environment, you just have to go and read yourself at a good time. Therefore, it is not uncommon for people who think that they want to read the same books are crowded with each other at the same time, and it seems that there was a case where they fought depending on which one they read.

"What shall I do? What do you do at that time, Mr. Soranju?"

Sorangju gave me an extremely casual answer to me who inquire with excitement.

"Because it will be decided by your identity, it will not happen, etc. If you are in the same class, the top territory will take precedence"

... What is it! Is it?

This is serious. I have not had much interest in the ranking of the territory so far. I was raised because I was being told various things, so it was about degree of concern. However, if the order of the territory is related to the priority of the book or the reading desk, the story is different.

"You have to raise the ranks of Ehrenfest anyway."

At the moment that I tried to seriously involve the whole Ehrenfest dormitory, Richarda lightly hit my shoulder.

"Princess, please calm down. There are few people who take precedence over principal candidate's principals, and senior aristocrats and lordlist candidates often borrow books and read in their own rooms. There is almost nothing. "

"Is that so ...?"

Seriously and motivated to quiet. However, for the sake of emergency, it seems better to raise the ranking of Ehrenfest.

The eyes were stuck to the chain drive rally, but when I looked around all over the second floor, the books that are in the form of books are about thousand books, piled on a bookshelf with a desk installed along the wall It was only for that.

In the center part slightly away from the bookshelf at the side of the wall, there are shelves with scrolls, shelves with wooden kits, and containers like a barrel that holds scrolls that are a little bigger and extend beyond the shelves. At the same time, several book holders for reading scrolls were lined up, and there were even sideboards for placing inks and pens.

After seeing the book shelves lined at even intervals on the first floor, I get a bit miscellaneous impression. While walking in it, Sorangju explained it.

"Here are some of the research results of the teachers of the past, there are a lot of collections in old age, such as scrolls and chestnuts, which are not in the form of books"

Basically it is secretive, so there seems to be no teacher who wants to release it much. After the death of the teacher, it seems that the material which became unnecessary by the assistant is often donated often.

It seems that scrolls are still increasing little by little, but that seems to be due to a teacher who is troubled to make materials into the form of books. It takes money to make it in the form of a book, it takes time and time. Therefore, it seems that it is hard to get in the form of books easily.

Hirschle probably wrote it as if it wishes to write, and it feels like a scroll school which rolls and winds around it.

... .. Scrolls are easier to compare than booklets, but it's hard to read back.

It takes time and effort to locate pages and rewind and clean up after reading. It is different from a book in which you flip and flap, close the pattern and close the belt.

"We try to arrange research results that were recognized by royalty as books as possible, but it is difficult, is not it?"

"The budget is limited ..... Sorangju, is that statue? I have never seen it in the temple."

When I looked to the stone statue between the bookshelf and the bookshelf, Sorangje broke away. Like a building, the statue of white statue is holding great importance on a book decorated with gold and magic stone.

"This is a stone statue of the wisdom goddess Meztionola holding a Gurtris Height in his chest, since the library has a blessing of the wisdom goddess Mestionola, the manuscripts of the students gather."

Like the library at the House of Lords, the Royal Palace Library seems to have an image of the wise goddess Mestionola. It was not in the library of the castle of Ehrenfest. Should I set a statue of the wisdom goddess Mestionola in the castle's library as soon as possible, and pray every day for more books to increase.

"Which book will Rosemain read?"

"... .. Well, first we start from the book on the first floor, since there will be many books with similar content, it will be easy to classify and organize."

"Is it classification or arrangement?"

Sorangju blinks her eyes. I nodded a lot.

"Yes, in order to make it easy to use, we would like to organize by subject, per year, chronologically, etc. If possible, there are subjects whose lecture content has changed greatly since political change and pre-political change, so Is it possible to classify bookshelves, ... Like ... ?. Do you mind if I classify them? "

"It is OK, but ... ...."

While reading from one end, I would like to summarize bibliographic items and think about taxonomy.

..... Oh, but I want a seal if I want to classify it.

Once classified, I want to put a classification number. For that, a seal is necessary.

Gyoza
glue Although it is available, it is made from pigs, so mold may grow or rot.

I want a good material for more books.

..... Once you go home you should ask the chief priest.

By next year make a seal and classify it according to the Rosemain decimal classification method.

"Oh, Rosemain, it seems that you are burning enthusiasm to organize the library, but I can not make such a thing to a lord candidate. When you say what you want to divide, here I will consider it. "

Classify it with my head. Then, I can not let that work to be Sorangej. I will do for myself, even if I have permission.

"No, I'd like to be a library committee, so please do not do classification work by all means"

"What is your name?"

"Dear, do not know, tell me"

Schwarz and Weiss lightly pulled my sleeve.

"We call a student who helps librarians at the House of Peers as a library committee and I will help Mr. Sorangju."

"Hime-sama, Toshioin"

"I will give you a job"

It was Soranju who became pure in the words of Black Forest and Weiss. Spread his eyes lightly and shake his head like a hurry.

"No, I can not let such a thing to Mr. Rosemain, I am an intermediate aristocrat and Rosemain is not a candidate for a lord, I can not let you help me, etc"

"But I also take lectures on civilian apprenticeship to become a librarian, so it is also an apprenticeship of civil servants."

"... but still I can not make such a thing to a lord of merit candidates."

Rifida came out in a sigh of breath before Sorangju shaking his head, and he saw me.

"Princess, do not annoy Mr. Sorangju with your own wishes"

"..... Yes, Mr. Sorangju, I am sorry"

I did not think that helping as a library committee would be strongly dismissed so far. Because Sorangju is crowded with libraries by himself, I thought it would be nice to increase the number of help, but it seems not to be the case.

"I will only have a gentle feeling of wanting to help Rosemain sama"

..... It is not just gentle feelings but pure underpinning that I want to try various kinds of libraries.

As I was rejected, I decided to go down quietly and read a book on the spot.

Ask Schwarz and Weiss to prepare me for the character of the Phyllée, prepare the paper, pen and ink for the Richarda, and begin reading. There are many, so it is worth reading.

Most of the material used in lectures lies on the first floor of the Library of the House of Lords. Many books have the same contents, but there are considerable differences in precision, character beauty, and drawing accuracy depending on the person who copied. Some frequently used precision books are written with comments and memoranda, and there are plenty of information.

While reading while summarizing bibliographic items, it was lunch time. The page of the book is lightened with light like a stained glass.

"Let's go back to lunch, princess"

"Yes"

I had Schwarz and Weiss pick up the book and returned the key of Charles. Then, I will stroke the manastone of the forehead of Schwarz and Weiss, supplement a little magical power and decide to go back to the dormitory.

"Please come back again, Rosemain Mr."

"I will come back in the afternoon"

"I am looking forward to it"

Greeting also to Sorange, I walk toward the dormitory.

... ... How can I become a library committee member?

I have been dismissed by Soranju, but I have not yet given up to be a library committee member. Well, he was suffering, Richarda sighed deeply.

"There is really enough study of socializing for the princess, is not it?"

".....What do you mean?"

"It is a request in the library at the time. Such way of asking is not suitable as a candidate for a lord"

... ... How to make a request for a candidate for a lord?

As Richarda said, it is desperately desperate to think about the ways of asking for a nobleman, as evils of two years will come out like this. How is it good to ask?

I thought variously, I suddenly hit the hand.

"Let's invite Richarda, Mr. Sorangju to a tea party"

"... What did you do, suddenly?"

Laugh at the eyed Rigida, hey hey.

Although I had not thought at all when I made an Italian restaurant, I thought of surroundings that they are trying to pass a request in a favorable position to themselves by holding up adoptive fathers and priests chiefs and drawing attention to themselves It was being done. Since the chief priest was admired that it was quite possible to be able to do things like aristocracy, we should apply it this time.

... ... Have a tea party, welcome Mr. Sorangju with delicious sweets, I will definitely become a library committee member!

Chapter 302: I want to be a library committee member

---

As soon as I got back to the dorm, I invited Soranju to a tea ceremony, welcomed me, I told the students that I would like to say that I would like to become a library committee member. It is because you have to work on your side to open a tea ceremony.

"So, we want everyone to cooperate."

"If Rosemain holds a tea ceremony, of course we will cooperate, but ..."

As the Rizerator and Brunhild were confused, they looked away and turned their eyes towards Richarda. As usual, I immediately answered "I gave you a secret" and discussion should start about the setup, but the reaction of the two people is dull. I was not quite sure why such a reaction would be, and I saw the state of Richarda.

"Rosemain Princess"

When my eyes met, Richarda turned into a steep face and called my name. I feel uncomfortable, feeling the atmosphere of a precursor that thunder falls, like a reaction like when I was scolded by Beno or the priest chief.

"What kind of intention did you say that you are going to have Mr. Soranju? The princess that I have been looking at has been trying to keep things as uneasy as possible, without compromising the things. Does it make sense for the princess? Does Sorenju feel how you feel if you ask such a brutal request with little knowledge of your opponent in the very first meeting? "

I do not understand why it acts like cooking etc. to welcome why it leads to forcing the opponent to obey by force, I will tilt my head.

"... .... It is a nobleman's way to describe your request by holding the harvest and I was told that when I served cooking for the adoptive father and Ferdinand before, I heard that it is a noble way But is there something wrong? "

Richarda closely closed his eyes and slowly sigh.

"Not everything is wrong, but now it's completely wrong."

"I'm sorry, I do not understand."

When I slowly shook my head, Richarda looked around not only for me but for Rieseleiter and Brunhild.

"Unlike its appearance, the princess has very knowledge, he is also excellent at the lords, and he tends to forget because he normally spends his days, but he did not have enough knowledge of socializing because he spent two years in the blanks. The weight is biased towards packing knowledge in Ferdinand and Bobby's education too, so now you know well well to the two of them?"

Rieselator and Brunn Hilde nodded and nodded.

"You mentioned that Rosemain Princess, Ferdinand Baby and Jill Vestar were held and accepted your request?"

I did not intend at all, but it has been such a result. It became a serious thing due to the difference between the common sense of aristocrats and their common sense.

"In that case, it is not a mistake to hang out and appeal to the two of you. The princess you request is a subordinate position for both of us, whether the princess hails or not, It is because the person with the highest decision right has it, but the princess who is in the upper position holds Sorangju sensei and confronts the request will be confronted with an absolutely incompetent order. "

It is only meaning that the lower level persons hospitality is "meaning" thanking you ", but the top people hospitable at the tea ceremony asking" I am a top rank I have crushed my heart so much. It is obviously a threat that you must know what to do, because you know what to do? "Or" Be absolutely acceptable. "Be sure to declare your way of taking decisions by saying" It seems to be.

"I do not mean such a thing ..."

I wanted to accept it with delicious sweets, accept it as much as I want, and I thought I'd try to appeal as much as how useful it is, but I did not mean to threaten power with shields.

"Princess likes heart books, I just want to engage in the library, I will not intend to threaten Mr. Sorangju ... Although I understand it, but to Professor Sorangju and the surrounding people the princess's I do not know the real intention, etc. Rieselaer and Brynhild are confused because they know the usual princess, but if this is a side to do the command of the Lord as it is, a tea party where Mr. Sorange will never escape It would have been set up. "

I was breathless and breathless in the words of Richarda. I was relieved that I did not have to do such a thing, on the other hand, was that? I learned a little bit stuck.

"..... Um, Richarda, I heard that the teacher is higher in position than the students at the House of Lords, but is not it applied to Professor Sorangju?"

The position of the teacher should have been above. Then, I wonder if I could request it at the tea party. When I asked, not only Richarda, but also Rieseleter and Brunhildde shook their heads.

"Rosemain says as you are in front of you."

In the words of Brünhild, the Rizerator added the words.

"Well, if you are a teacher who is constantly lecturing on students from the standpoint of the above, there may be some people who can apply to them."

Especially if you are a teacher in another territory, the position and position of each other in each territory are not known, so the position of teacher and student may have a big influence.

"But please remember the princess, Mr. Sorangju said that even a request to return the book would be heard." Mr. Sorangju, who was honored by the princess, who is a candidate for a lord, Do you think that you can refuse the request of the principal once it thinks that the position is above? "

Speaking of which, Soranju was also a seriously troubled face in the library at the previous time, refusing to help me. I remember being stopped by Ricarda who did not see my behavior.

"I was embarrassing Mr. Sorangju so much that Richarda had to look out and talk."
"Originally, there is no side story obscuring at such official places. In truth, I thought whether I should hold back and take home before the princess anymore Soranju sensei."

It seems that Richard has returned back to her private room, Richarda.

"Besides, Princess wanted to help Mr. Sorangju, but this is not good either."

"Huh?"

I've always helped you. Although I sometimes got on the table, such as Lutz, Otto, Beno, the head of the priest, mother, lady and wife, but the other person who has moved the basic thing is another person, who I am helping There was much. There is little that I can do.

"It is hard to do jobs for those who are in a position to work, so please imagine ... Princess is told that Jilvestor will help her job, What is it supposed to be like to be overhead, and how would it be if you could start a totally different way from your own way? "

Wandering around at the workshop by the adoptive father, thinking about printing, touching each other every time, thinking of the circumstance that is said to say, ohhhhhhhhhhh, in the mind. Please do not come again. When.

"... I understand well ... My presence is a great inconvenience for Professor Sorange."

"I have not meant to say so far, but for Princess Jilvestor is such a thing."

As I was pointed out by Richarda, I realized that I misunderstood the adoptive father who is Abu Ehrensfest as having a bad thing to do, and I hurriedly rephrased.

"No, I do not have such a thing, I am very thankful to the adoptive father, I do not even imagine that it would be troublesome if I was helped, I would do my own work"

While shaking my head as I shake my head, Richarda laughs, "I think that Mr. Sorangju will feel such a feeling." I was depressed on my own annoyance.

"How does Gilvester get around, does the princess feel comfortable leaving the job? It is important to think about it."

I can not do a pleasant job by being hung around by my adopting father. It impossible.

"... OK, I will give up on the library members."

"There is no need to give up, as long as the princess is not Jilvezer, it will be Ferdinand Buddy."

"Huh?"

"Does Ferdinand Buddy take care of the work of the princess and helping it? It will be advised in various ways and it is easy for him to do the work of the temple. Perhaps it may have changed a lot, and how does the princess think about it? "

Let's imagine how the warrior of the priest wanders at the workshop and instructs gray priests in the same way. By the way, there were things that changed without permission, including putting Jusutx in two years, deciding to dispatch Gutenberg to Halden Zell. However, I do not think that it is annoying at all.

"I think that I will be saved, but rather if Ferdinand does not help me, I'm in great trouble."

"There is no guarantee that it will not always be a problem for people who are in a position higher than themselves, but in order to be helpful you have to think about the opponent. The princess now If you can offer valuable assistance to Professor Sorangju, will not you leave your job to me? "

I was admonished by Ricarda, and I nodded a little as "yes".

"I understand. Let's stop the tea party with Professor Sorangju."

"No, the tea ceremony is important, like Rosemain. I find it better to go to the tea party itself with Professor Sorangju."

"Brunhildde?"

When I caught my eyes, Brunhildt smiled and smiled at me.

"There is a tea ceremony to know each other, as opposed to being asked by those who do not know at all, those who are notified are easy to accept. The first thing is to start with deepening exchanges. I will prepare a tea party for me, Rosemain. "

"Brunhild, please wait a while and think well."

The Reiselator lightly raised his hand and saw me and Brunhild.

"I agree with opening a tea ceremony to deepen the relationship, but will not you be burdensome with Sorangju? Is it one of Sorangju sensei that the library is managed? During the tea party, How is the library doing? "

Following the remarks of the Reiselator, my head that was floating and floating in the library has cooled all the way. Although information about soleju has been introduced so far, it has not been considered at all. There is a degree of solitude as well.

Thinking carefully, Sorangju is managing the library by himself. I invited him to a tea party and there is no way I can participate. I could not believe that the Schwarzs and Weiss would be left with the library, so there was a possibility that a situation would have to happen that we had to close the library with my wisdom and participate in a tea party.

"Sorry, my opinion was insufficient"

"Once you understand it, you only have to think carefully about what to do next, and princess, the most important thing, please do not talk to us about it. Why does the princess want to do that I'd like you to tell us what you want and what you wanted to do. "

Richarda said so, with his knees in front of me, he gazed somewhat from below. And I took my hand and fell down my eyes once in a troubled situation.

"Originally, even though we do not talk about everything, we have to act and take actions of the Lord, but the time we served the princess is too short."

After the baptism ceremony, I moved to the castle as the adopted female owner, but there were many people who are still in the temple even after becoming an adore. Besides that, because there is also a blank time for two years, even in Richarda who is serving the longest, the actual contact time is not so long.

"In connection with the princess, I received a lot of attention from Ferdinand regarding physical condition management, I keep medicine, but I do not yet know important things to serve."

"I think Richard is well serving?"

I am preparing everything so that I do not have to worry about living. In my words, Richard slowly shook his head.

"As a principal's principal, I have only been able to do a third-part job yet."

I caught my eyes, I did not know the reason. If Richarda is third-tier, who is the best? Richard stares at me with a special outside serious black eyes.

"It is a minimum work as a side work to be able to arrange the surroundings without inconvenience in life It is the 3rd generation that moves without being able to judge the intention of the Lord as ordered, to instantly observe the intention if commanded It is second class, it is first class to move before you are ordered to be aware of your intention. "

"... On that basis, is Richarda the third tier?"

I was surprised by the attitude towards the job of Richarda's side job. However, Rijeltaar and Brünhild are listening to the words of Richarda very seriously.

"I served a number of people, who was the first to serve by Mr. Greathuen, then Gabriele, who also served Veronica, who asked Mr. Bonifatius to serve Karstedd I also did something for Georginine, and I also served Jill Vestar. "

Some names Richarda mentioned include names of strangers. For that reason, Richarda would have seen various aristocrats.

"Aside from being an apprentice until adulthood, I am proud that I got a first-class job since I was an adult, but I can not possibly have such a pride so far, but the princess grew up in the temple Because of that, the way of thinking that is the basis of action is different from the lady of any aristocrat who I served and touched so far. "

Even though I think to compare my intention with my common sense and experience, I do unexpected things, and Richarda says there is something I do not understand even if I hear it.

"Passion that gives priority to books rather than your own physical condition, thinking about performance improvement, action against tea ceremony .... Anyway, I do not know the idea of the princess, I serve various people for many years I tried, it is very difficult to serve the princess. "

I saw from Richarda that it is very imbalanced and mysterious. Even adults can do things worrying Sararay, sometimes they treat the field well, sometimes a child who has finished the baptismal ceremony knows nothing about anyone but is going to the right.

"I know what the princess knows, what I do not know, what is missing, how I should fill the shortfall, I am in a state of fumble."

I did not think there was a burden on Richarda there. I look back on my actions since I came to the House of Peers, and I will reflect on my mind.

There used to be people who knew that I would rush in books until now. Lutz and the chief priest knew that I had walked a life other than Mine and stopped as soon as I tried to do something different from common sense.

Neither is here, there is no one who will fix it even if I am misplaced. Finally I noticed such a matter. And the blood caught. I know from experiences that the rash and trouble that arises due to differences in common sense grows in proportion to power.

"The most scary thing about me is to make things in line with the words of the princess, which is a totally different result than what the princess intends to do. The side that will assist the Lord to make it easier to move I can not do a good job unless I understand the intention of the princess, so please be sure to consult the princess. "

By the way, because there was not a person who says "Please report" here, it seems that even the news, consultations and phases did not work properly recently.

"Then, Richarda, I would like to be a library committee member, but what do you think I can do, please tell me how to make a request that is suitable for a candidate for a lord?"

Richard made a difficult face in my words.

"First of all let's clarify what Princesses ask for Mr. Soranju. I do not know something about the library committee. What kind of existence is the library committee, it becomes a library committee member What does the princess want to do? "

If it helps, it is enough with Schwarzs and Weiss, Rhychan is said. During the winter students are registered and deleted, lending and returning books, and managing Charles make up the majority of work. Other jobs are turning to different seasons, so if you have Schwarz and Vice you can do most of the work. There is no need to assist the lord of lords for winter.

"In the morning of today, I heard the words of the princess who talks with Mr. Sorangej in the library, but from the end of the word it seems that the princess seems not to want to simply help you I was speaking a lot about the position of the book, are not you? "

As I was pointed out by Richarda, I sprang up in words. Certainly Richarda is right. I do not want to help by Soranju, I would like to bring the Rosemain decimal classification method to the library of the House of Lords, create a catalog to make it easier to find books, and organize bookshelves accordingly.

"I do not like the fact that the books in the library are not settled and they do not like being placed appropriately. I want to sort them so that they are easy to use and clarify where which books are and where they are missing I'd like to collect books that I've become. "

"It is already beyond the area of assistance,"

As raped, Rigida suddenly shrugged as Rikyadda said it was more of a library management than helping.

"Mr. Rosemain, I think that Mr. Soranju was very troubled if it is said to be helping it."

The Rizera is facing an incomprehensible face, and it is in tune with Richarda. Apparently, what I was thinking was very reckless and unreasonable.

"It is difficult to reform the librarian at the House of Lords, I thought that if I get along with Mr. Sorangju, I will manage somehow ..."

As a member of the library and helping you, if you could upgrade to a casual tea drink friend, the Leno period had a lot of flexibility in the library. The request had a good time giving priority to the books he wanted, having a book that was returned to be secured so that he could borrow it, but he did not go in the same way in the House of Lords It is.

"If you would like to be involved, it would be better for Professor Sorangju to ask you to administer it, because I would like to operate and manage the library, mainly for Schwarz and Vice, who manage libraries It will be easy. "

".....Huh?"

"Please negotiate so that you can mainly get involved with the library at Schwarzska and Weiss, negotiate so that you can receive permission from the center through Sorangju sensei. If you have permission from the center, even if the princess freely spends at the library, I do not have it. "

Richard said so easily.

I feel that it is quite different from the library committee members I am thinking about getting permission from Sorangju's boss and moving the library as I like.

"Do not you think that the princess wants to cooperate with Professor Sorangju with a favor or interest instead of an instruction?"

"That's right"

I would like to think about how to best classify books for librarians and how to manage books while speaking with Soranju. I do not want to order.

"If it did, Mr. Sorangju would have to go as far as to apply in the middle and proceed with socialization for that."

I nodded greatly in the words of Richarda.

"I will start at the library where I go to the library everyday so that I can make friends with Mr. Sorangju so that I can have a tea party!"

"... .. Princess, even if you read only books you can not open a cup of tea, please also look beyond books."

It seems that we need a fairly long way to be officially becoming a library committee member.

..... For a while, I am a self-registered book committee.

Chapter 303: Toward a tea party with Sorange

After being scolded by Richarda, I also went to the library this afternoon after I finished lunch.

For the time being, I remember what was noticed variously. We decided to talk about the content of conversation in a day so that we could not get too far from Sorangee by runaway with emotion, just let me talk about only the topics that passed Richarda. And, as I returned to the room, I decided to study the conversation and socializing among the aristocrats by paying attention to Richard's concern about today's conversation.

As a good question to ask Sorangee this afternoon, it was told me to check whether there is time to participate in the tea ceremony and whether they are participating in other tea ceremonies. It seems that we should not shorten any more distance today.

"Dear, you came"

"Welcome, Princess"

"I've read the continuation of the previous question, will you give me the key to Carrel?"

I will be greeted by Schwarz and Weiss and I will also greet Sorangi in the work space.

"Sorangju sensei, thank you. I was sorry I was bothered by my wisdom so I finally came to the library and it seems I got too embarrassed, it is ashamed."

"I do not like it, I'm happy to know how much Rosemain has a lot of libraries."

Sorangju who was doing something wrong raises her face and smiles awfully. I breathed a deep breath into accepting an apology.

"From tomorrow I will not be able to come until 3 bells ring. Today it was my first library to allow my musical practitioners but until tomorrow it will be until the end of Fespiel's practice, It is said that we should not go to. "I'm sorry."

After the breakfast, after having a meeting for the day with the aides, or summarizing the results of the performance improvement committee 's activities together with Vilfriit from the passing of the lecture received reports on the previous day etc, practice Fespiel It is supposed to do. It is the same as when you are in the temple to practice until the 3 bells ring, before you go out.

By the way, Mr. Sorangju asked that the library is managed by one person, but are not you going to participate in the tea ceremony or holding it? "

"Well, since there are few users at this time of the year, I have a little time to spare, but as students begin to spare, next time I will be busy, so it is obvious that I will join the tea party There is no way to hold a tea ceremony. "

In the days when there were multiple librarians, we may have taken turns, but while saying, Sorange will look at Schwarz and Vice and relax their expression.

"Now that Schwarz and Weiss are helping us, the work has become much easier and loneliness is lost.I am grateful to Rosemain."

.....Was good. It was not only trouble.

It is the byproduct of the blessing that came out floating and flew out of Schwarzs and Weiss, and it is Schwarz and Weiss that are useful for Sorange, not myself being particularly useful.

Still, because I was thinking about what to do if I left only a bad impression, I was relieved that even a little helped Sorange.

"I'd like to talk to Soranju slowly, but do you have time? There are things I'd like to talk about, such as Schwarz and Weiss, or the book I'm about to make."

"Are you making a book? ... .. Rosemain really like books, do not you think?"

I nodded to Sorangju with a blue eyes round with a smile.

"I am putting together the story that the bard singer singing and the story talked from mother to child at Ehrenfest in a book."

As for the story of the knight, it is already done, it prints and it also sells, but it is not a lie because it is gathering talks in progressive form now. For the time being, in order to have interest in tea party with me, I watched a topic that Sorangju, a librarian at the House of Lords, is interested in.

"Well, Rosemain is not only a reference book, but also a story is favored? There is not much in this library, but there are books of stories, too"

"Is it true? I definitely want to read it."

"Let's guide you."

In the shelf where the reference books on the first floor line up a lot, Sorangju walks slowly to a corner where older materials that are not read so much are gathered. While teaching, most of the students who read the reference book for the final exam and get money by copying it for the higher aristocracy were taught that there were not so many students reading the story.

Because the lords are only in winter, most of the students are schedule due to the curriculum and socializing, and there is no time to afford to enjoy the hobby reading for a long time.

"There is a story in this neighborhood, since there are things that copied the scriptures, please have a look, if very well"

"I am sorry"

When I called out to Black Forest, I borrowed Charles for himself and Philline, I had Richard carry a book with a story and started to look through it. And we summarize bibliographic items and synopsis.

Because it is a knight story, the outline of going to defeat demons is the same, but there are friendship stories of the Order and there are various story stories against which the Order of the Small Target, desperately targeted by the Large Territory, desperately strikes. However, the words are old and difficult to read. And whether you wrote it while listening to the minstrel, there are some parts that are difficult to distinguish since the letters are a little broken.

"Rosemain, it's a bit difficult for me, I do not have enough study."

Philene was trying to put it in the same way, but it seemed that I could not read the text a bit. I have read a scripture that is even more difficult than the knight story, so I did not think it was so difficult but I started studying from a scripture picture book that I rewrote easily and still have not got used to the book of the old phrase, I guess it is difficult.

"All of the books I make are corrected to easy-to-read words, but from now on I need a book that I can study to be able to read even old words. It seems that civil servants can not read old materials, it will be a problem in the future when I work thing"

"Yes, I will do my best."

On this day I read the knight story and the day finished. I will borrow one knight narrative and go home. I would like to make a new story on this subject.

"Vice, please do this loan procedure"

"I understand ..... Hime, our husband, we do not care"

"Richarda, please."

"I got it"

I first heard that it is equivalent to a book, but it is still expensive. I am touched by the wonderfulness of the library of the Reyno period that lends us free of charge. I would like to give thanks and prayers to the great Ranganathan that established the five principles of library science.

..... In order to be able to borrow it for free, I have to extend the printing. A way, far!

The next day, along with the library, Brother Cornelius and Hartmut were to join. When we told that the knight story was in the library, they were surprised. Apparently, it seems that she did not believe that there was a book other than the reference book and the research result of the teacher.

"Because the materials necessary for work are stored in the library of the castle of Ehrenfest, should not the librarian of the House of Peers be gathered in the library of the House of Lords? I think that the reference book to use is only placed in an easy-to-use place on the first floor, in fact the story was in the corner of the first floor. "

As I told you, Hartmut says that he would like to see if there is material on the fight against the territory. Leonore makes his eyes shine with Cornelius elder brother heard Hartmut's word that karate and demons may be refrained.

After completing Fespiel's practice, after 3 bells rang, I took the students who were interested in the library, and headed for the library.

"Good morning, Princess"

"Good morning, Schwarz and Weiss"

"Is the Hime blessed?"

"Because I love it, I will visit the library as much as I can, as I will return it, please proceed."

Schwarz and Weiss also worked hard and stroked the manast of the forehead, students of other grade who did not accompany at the time of registration raised a surprise voice.

"Is it true that it was rumored that there was a big schmir in the library?"

"How pretty, I have to put efforts into making new costumes,"

While listening to the conversation being exchanged in a loud voice, I leave the procedure to return to Schwarz and Richarda and turn to Sorange.

"Sorangju sensei, good morning"

"Good morning, Rosemain, we have a lot today."

"Because I have the material I am looking for, I want to ask Professor Sorangju where I am."

"What is it?"

Hartmut is moving in front of Soranju who tilts his head.

"Is there any document about Ditta? I want a material that seems to be ahead of what territory won the demons."

"Since Ditters are also often done in training, there is no document written about all Ditters, but before the political change there was a lecture on the strategy of Treasure Stealer Ditters, so it says that it is somewhat on the old reference book In addition, there is a description about the top of the game against the territory in the materials summarized about the outstanding achievements every year. "

Oh, and Hartmut and Elder Cornelius looked away and made their eyes shine. I think that old reference books are enough for Eckhart brothers and the president of the bishop. What I want is a statement about the top ranks against the territory.

"Mr. Sorangju, please show me the material of the battle against the territory to us. Where in the bookshelf?"

"Rosemain wants an unusual piece of material, so students look only to manuscripts to earn money and reference books for lectures."

Saying that and laughing, Soranju turns his back.

"Since the reading room prefers the reference books frequently used by the students, the materials for recording and preservation are put in separate archives. Please wait a moment."

From the warehouse for materials located in the back of the office, not in the reading room, Sorangju brought me materials that was carefully bound. Looking at the material clearly treated separately, I look up at Sorange.

"... ... Is this a possibly prohibited item?"

"Well, I'm prohibiting renting out, since it will be a problem if I can not return it, but there is nothing wrong with the way I see it in the reading room."

"I am sorry"

As soon as I was about to receive the material I was getting thicker, Hartmut came out from the side and got it.

"Mr. Rosemain, I will copy the information here, there is information I want also besides Ditter"

"Well, I'd like to ask Hartmut."

"I will borrow Phyllie to help you"

It takes time to reflect everything alone. It seems that Hartmut decided to copy it, handed it out from Phyllie.

After looking around inside the library, Hartmut shows a troubled look at Sorange.

"Sorangju, I'd like a little wider table to copy with multiple people, but are there desks other than Charles?"

"..... If it is the second floor it may be possible to move side by side, but since it is a prohibited document, I would like you to copy it at the reach of your eyes as much as possible Lend a table for registration in my office Let's give it to you. "

Sorenju will guide Haltmuth to the office, saying that freshmen in all territories have completed the registration procedure, so it's all right.

"I am saved, I will hurry and photograph it"

It is guided by Soranju, Hartmut, Philiane and the other two go into the office. As Hartmut roughly examined the materials and decided on sharing, the Filines were preparing paper and ink that I brought quickly.

Soranjju came out of the office while looking at the looks of the four people, and noticed us who are still in front of the work space, looking around with a smile that looks like a fun.

"Is there anything else you need?"

Léonore once took a step with the older brother Cornelius and took a step forward.

"Well, do you have any data on monsters? It's a great help if the surrounding monsters are hunting, strength and weaknesses"

"If you are looking for a book other than a reference book, it is in the scroll of the second floor, it is written in detail written by a teacher who specialized in making magical tools, although it is old. It seems that it was created when collecting. "

Saying that, Soranjju goes up to the second floor with a relaxed movement. There seems to be really few students watching the materials on the second floor, and Soranjju laughed, "Because I am rarely asked for information on such materials other than teachers, I feel strange."

A student who seems to remain as an assistant at a later lordship is conveniently used as a teacher 's assistant from the time he / she is enrolled, and he / she is told to help with the carrying of the materials and to read the book from here on. If you are watching the movement in the library, it seems that Sorenju will understand that this student will remain in the aristocrat as it is.

"There are many students who do not try to know that there are books other than reference books because there is a tendency for society to prioritize socializing at students in the lords."

If you study alone, you can do it in each of the territories, but you can not do it unless you are a lords. It seems that socializing is given priority by all means. In the past, since Stap was given at the time of graduation, it seems that there were many students keen to study more than now.

"Even so, there are a lot of excellent students in Ehrenfest who have not come to the lecture for this number of people as soon as the House of Lords has begun and the month has not passed yet," he said.

Sorange headed to the desired shelf without hesitation.

The scrolls stacked on the shelves resemble the way the cloths wrapped around the handicraft store are stacked. Like the price tag on the cloth, since the small wooden bill dropped from the scroll, it seemed to be even more similar. A little bibliographic matter is written in the tree's tags, so that the content can be determined.

"Here it is."

Sorangju who confirmed the tags in a shelf one after another picked up one scroll and pulled it out. And it will set on the bookstore for reading scrolls. Since scrolls roll round and can not be copied, the bookshelf for reading scrolls is holding down.

"Because the picture is also attached, it is very easy to understand"

In the scrolls written by old teachers, not only monsters, but also magazines were written, and there were also pictures that could never be good. I want to read this later as well.

As we unfold the scrolls, we saw two descriptions of demons, so we decided to copy them on the left and right of the scroll board of the scroll. Information on monsters requires knight apprenticeship, so one knight apprentice will begin preparing paper and ink.

"Does Leonore photograph it? Because the picture is more beautiful than I am,"

Cornelius elder brother told me to leave work to be taken by Leonore. Léonore said "I do not care but ... .." after he murmured, I looked up Cornelius elder brother.

"Is Cornelius not good at drawing?"

"To be honest, I'm not very good at it"

Looking at Cornelius's older brother who looked a bit shyly, the facial expression of Leonore smiled gruelly was badly soft.

.....that? Perhaps Leonore likes Cornelius's brother, do you?

So at last I remembered the conversation with Leonore who was concerned about the rumors about Angelica's married woman, I hit the hand with Pon.

..... Leonore does not want to be a lady like a mother, he aims to be the first wife of Cornelius's brother!

I softly cheer Léonore in my heart. I may say that it is strange, but the clan who starts from the grandfather is very influenced by the man side. Since I am a family that trains my body before I think about it, I definitely would like Lorenore to do its best and also emphasize intellectual activities.

It seems that everyone has found a book of purpose, so I go back to the first floor and decide to read from the continuation of the story.

From the afternoon of that day, Phyllie is heading for practical skill, escort knight is also replaced with Leonore and traogot. In which way he copied the demon, brother Cornelius and Trauggot had a little dispute, but brother Cornelius decided to do.

I caught a glimpse of what Cornelius elder brother will draw, but I was not so poor at all. If that is not humble then my drawing level may be quite low.

"Rosemain, I want to talk to you slowly once again"

On the way back from the library, I was stopped by Sorange. I was satisfied with reading books as many books as I was about to talk for a moment, and I felt relieved to tilt my head. By the way, I was saying "I want to talk" from me.

"Since Mr. Sorangju can not leave the library, how about doing a tea party in the office? If the teacher does not want to do, prepare tea and sweets so that they will not be burdened, bring them with you Though, "

"..... I am very saved, is Rosemain something good?"

Sorangju looks surprised to Richarda who is a side who is busy with tea ceremonies rather than me. Richard gently nodded.

"We have heard stories from the princess. It is the result of thinking to the princess how to reduce the burden of Sorangju. When you do in this office, I am supposed to do it. "

"I really wanted to invite Dr. Sorangju to my tea party, but the teacher is busy with the library being managed by yourself, so prepare tea and cake like preparing a picnic , I thought, "How about holding you here."

At first I was surprised by Ricarda. I took tea and sweets and borrowed only a place, I was told that I would not normally do. Still, I explained to Richarda carefully what I thought about what to do to reduce the burden of Soranju, I understood.

"I only thought that Sorangju is busy, so I ... ...."

"No, I'm sorry. Would you mind speaking to Rosemain's words?"

"Yes!"

As the number of users increased on Saturday, we decided to have a tea with Soranju in the afternoon of the day after tomorrow according to the convenience of Soranju saying that the day before that would be better.

I immediately returned to the dormitory and informed the students about the schedule of the tea ceremony, "I did not think that the schedule of tea party with Mr. Sorangju will come before the tea party with music teachers," Brunhild I rounded my eyes.

"It matched to the circumstances of Professor Sorangju, whether Schwarz and Weiss are concerned, because more students are using it than usual, I would like to have a tea party as soon as possible"

In Richarda, it is said that this time not to appeal as wanting to become a book committee member, but to aim at becoming a friend.

First of all, at the tea ceremony, we have to decide when to schedule the measurement of Schwarz and Weiss. Then I would like to take handwritten manuscripts to make and ask about Sorangu's hometown and stories I know.

"Because Rosemain does not seem so tense, it may have been good to have a tea party with Mr. Sorangju first, depending on what he thought."

I inclined my head to the words of Brünhild, who is trying to disseminate a fashion at the tea ceremony. Soranju seems to be in a form to take in the library during the winter, so it seems that there is not much interaction with other teachers. I think that tea ceremony with Soranju has nothing to do with fashion outgoing.

"In the winter, it is not that there are also exchanges with the teachers in other seasons even if they are in the library. Soranju actually got information about the grades of Ehrenfest's first graders. So, There is no reason not to have any exchanges. The reaction of the central aristocracy can be seen in front of the tea ceremony participating in tense while many teachers, and opinions on costumes, hair ornaments, sweets can be gotten maybe"

In the sense of the central aristocracy, something about the culture of Ehrenfest could be obtained, so it seems that some measures will be set up for the tea party with the music teacher, according to Brünhild.

"I'm going to make Mr. Soranju a story about the story and book about Blackwater and Weiss' costumes,"

In my words, Brühn Hilde narrowed his eyes a little. After turning his eyes on Richarda once, Brünhild bends a little, and keeps his line of sight so as to admonish me. By talking about not having knowledge or experience about social intercourse, the side workers began to pay attention to me.

"Mr. Rosemain, we will prepare as much topics as possible, and Rosemain says she will have finished the tea ceremony just by talking about the book unless we consciously prepare the topic. Please do not forget the story. Soranju sensei is an intermediate aristocrat, so you will listen deeply with a smile in Rosemain's story. So therefore, you have to be careful with your opponent's reaction well. "

".....Yes"

In attention of Brunhild, the Liselator nodded with anxious eyes.

"As Rosemain says, there is a tendency that the surroundings tend to be invisible when it comes to books, Mr. Wilfried says, we will be able to act reasonably without forgetting the elegance as a candidate lord ... .. It's okay There is no impossible for Rosemain who led her sister to graduate. I believe in Rosemain. "

"I will be careful"

The eyes filled with the expectation and trust of Rieselator hurts. I think that I would like to face a tea ceremony after having prepared enough measures so as not to fail.

Chapter 304: The first tea party at the lords

And the day of the tea ceremony.

I brushed my hair gently with Lincyan and had her tied to Brünhild. Hairstyle and costumes incorporate the epidemic of the House of Lords, but it is attached so that the flower decoration stands out. There are hair ornaments and ornaments of flowers on the chest, so that even if you are drinking tea, you can see it.

The sweets brought to the tea ceremony, of course, is a kettle curl, and this time I do not understand the preference of Soranju, so I got plain things prepared.

"There is really no information on Mr. Sorangju. It seems no mistake that no one is going to have a tea party. We do not recognize Mr. Sorangju as a partner of a tea ceremony until Mr. Rosemain suggests Since the"

"If I had time, I went to the library and got information slowly from him, but I could not afford that kind of thing, but as Brunhild said, it is not regarded as a person to interact with, I think I was very sad to spend it. I hope the tea party with Rosemain will be comforting. "

As a side job, it was Bruhn Hilde and Rieserator who tried to obtain information on tea party partner, but it seems that inside the Ehrenfest, side apprentices in other territories also did not have information on Sorange.

"We are preparing to put the kettle curl on a dish, cream and honey, jam and rumutopu of rutrave, so that you can eat it with whatever taste you like, so you better get the information little by little from now on."

Once you know the taste, you can also make a tailored cuttle. Tea also had items prepared according to the cuttle curtain prepared this time. I have to listen casually in the conversation of the tea ceremony. It seems that it is also my role.

Richarda saw me while confirming what I was doing during the tea ceremony.

"Princess, are you mad about topics?"

"Yes"

"And then, I should not use the writing board today, because I will take the apprenticeship of the citizens to refrain from conversation."

It is Phyllie that is standing with much more nervousness than me. Philline is to be charged for the first time as a clerk. Haltnut is supposed to help, but there is also a place where men are forbidden by the tea party that will go ahead. Phylline must do its best.

"Phylline, it will be hard, thank you."

"Rosemain, I am the first time to have such expensive paper, my hands tremble."

Philline hands the failed work of the workshop which I am using as a memo paper. I think that it is effective use of paper which did not become a product, but Philline seems to be unlikely so.

"..... But, I need paper and ink to write down, you can lend me a letter board, but I can not decide the size of the letter and the word to write down unless I am familiar with it"

I use the handwriting board with one hand and use it to take notes, so I can not write so many things.

At the original tea ceremony, there is no such thing as civilian officials taking memoranda, but this time we will schedule the measurements of Schwarz and Vice, I will bring the manuscript of the knight's knight's story and bring it to Soranju's It is supposed to be accompanied by a civilian official because it is in the main subject to get impression.

It is in the prime, the real purpose is to make Philline experience experience as a civilian apprentice, and to write down the reaction of Sorangue at the request of Brünhild.

Based on the reaction at this tea party, at the future tea ceremony, how the students of Ehrenfest appeal to the trends, how to be seen by other people, Civil servants, sideways to think both.

All of my aides and I will also bring Rosina to play music. Since it is a tea ceremony at the office connected to the reading room, I decide whether to really play with Sorangue's opinion, but it is disrespectful not to take me.

"... ... Do you have something left behind?"

I will check again in front of the entrance. The wagon pushed by Richard is packed with items necessary for a tea ceremony such as sweets and tea. Brühnhild confirms by seeing me whether there is no problem with my position or costume, and Philline reviews whether there is a shortage in the stationery I have.

Escort Knight and Hartmut who knew that they had been reviewing again many times had looked at each other and were shrugging their shoulders.

Wilfried loosely shook his head when I saw me checking my finger.

"Since Richarda has confirmed, it will be okay, I am worried about whether one can socialize better than a lost article"

Wilfried seems to be stinging, I am watching over me. The cousin's tea ceremony for which Wilfried is decided to participate is because it is after the cousins have finished lecturing to a certain extent, so it seems to be a long time ago.

Wilfried told Richard that it is my weak point that the surroundings are invisible for the book, and that there is no social experience with two years of blank space, today's tea party and tea party with music teachers , It seems to be more nervous than me.

"Because Villefriit older brother, the content to talk about is decided, it is OK."

"I think that it is okay if you do, but be careful not to be really careless"

"I understand. Please do not worry because there is Richarda."

Ready for sweets and tea prepared well. It departs when the 3 bells rings.

"Welcome, Mr. Rosemain"

"Thank you for inviting me, Mr. Sorangju, I look forward to it very much."

I was sent to the office of Sorange. Tables and chairs that were used for registration are arranged according to the tea ceremony specifications. On the spot there was Sorenju and another woman who seemed to be Soranju's side.

While me and Soranju greeted, the servants quickly began preparing tea ceremonies. Philene is talking to Hartmut and is discussing where to place the ink and how to make notes. The escort knight moves and moves around the door and those who are behind me.

"Dear, you came"

"How about today, are not you?"

Schwarz and Vice came into the office from the door connected from the work space. The golden eyes turn towards me and tilt my head.

"Well, today is a tea party with Mr. Sorangju, so we may decide on new clothing for Schwarz and Vice, so please work hard during that time"

"Work hard"

"A new landscape"

When giving magical power to Schwarz and Vice, which are approaching greetings, he went back to the reading room while shaking his head. The situation was seen by Sorens with a smiling smile.

"Oh, Sorangju, if you care about the state of the reading room, you can still keep the door open, but ..."

"No, Rosemain, now there are only a few users, so people who smell sweets and tea in the reading room will be anxious."

While laughing with couscous, Soranju sent off Schwarz and Vice, closed the door and the door.

"What do you do with the music? Will not the sound leak into the reading room?"

The white building is basically excellent in soundproofing, but since the normal tree is used for the door, the sound leaks by all means.

When I saw Rosina and Fespiel, Sorangju, who had been heading a bit, felt delightfully narrowing his blue eyes.

"... .. Do you play a rare song that Rosemain was made? I'd like to listen to songs because I can not join other tea ceremonies."

I misunderstood with modest elegance that it is the longest time for my heart to bounce, I will glance at the glance to the rosina.

"Let's show the songs that I was planning to show off at the tea ceremony of teachers of music at a later date to Professor Sorangju at a later date."

"Oh, are you OK?"

I smile and nod in Sorangju which makes my eyes round. Apart from teachers of music I did not promise to show off new songs.

"It is a song dedicated to the wisdom goddess Meztionola, I assume that the library is better for the first time to show off."

..... The lyrics that I originally attached are correct because the library hymn is better.

The aides who knew the lyrics that were floating and singing on the things that I could go to the library became a face that could endure laughing together.

"If Rosemain is okay, please let me hear the song after having a cup of tea."

"Oh!"

Sorangu's side preparation prepares the chair for the rosina. Rosina also began preparing for Fespiel.

Richarda tea for me, and Brune Hilde will line up creams and other items to accompany the cuttle curl to the plate one after another.

While trying to compare the cattle curl placed in front of himself with the sushi lining up quickly, Sorangju blinked out to wonder.

"Rosemain, what is this, is not it?"

It seems that sweets like cuttle curl are rare in the center. The eyes of the candy in Brunhild are shining brightly. While I pay attention to Brünhild's feelings of reactions at the edge of sight, I will explain Cuttle's curl.

"It is called cott curl. I was a sweet which I started doing recently at Ehrenfest. I am happy when it matches Mr. Sorangju's mouth. Since it's a bit different from the central sweets ....."

If you are accustomed to the sweet sweets in the middle, you may feel crispy about the corkscar.

"I will add cream and jam with my own preferences like this, I prepared fresh cream, lettebean jam, honey, rumutopf"

"Rumutopu? Is that also unique to Ehrenfest?"

"Because it was soaked with sake to preserve fruit, there may be similar things, just in Ehrenfest it is called Lumutopf."

I looked closely at Lumutpuff and Sorangu nodded several times. It seems that in the hometown of Soranju it is time to prepare soaked fruit like lemon in honey in the winter preparation.

"You should eat the first bite as it is and add a taste of your choice"

I eat tea and sweets one by one, I recommend it to Sorange. Soranju drinks a bite of tea and carries a cork curl to his mouth.

When I was curiously watching how central aristocrats could be received, Sorange gave a smile with Nicolle.

"It is very easy to eat with a casual taste."

Cuttle curl is a pound cake that uses plenty of butter, so it is not a sweet snack that was nothing else. However, the sweets in the center are sweet with a mass of sugar enough to feel cheap cheap curry.

The central tea is slightly bitter. Today's tea is made soft tea tea according to the kettle curl.

"Because the sweets in the center are very sweet, if sweetness is not enough, you should add jams and honey"

For the time being, when I eat every mouth at every preparation I prepared, I got fresh cream and Lumutopf.

"I'd like to try out each taste. I'm looking forward to how it changes."

Sorangju's side sticks cream and jam little by little. Sorangju ate each mouth, she felt happy.

The sweets in the center are very beautifully crafted, but when you pinch one, it seems better already.

"You seem to be able to eat as much as you can"

What Sorangju liked was honey and jam. Again, it seems that there is not enough sweetness for the central nobility. Cuttle curl with honey may fit your mouth.

"Rosemain has always changed his hair ornaments, but has it also started being popular in recent Ehrenfest?"

Soranju said that he had never seen the students of Ehrenfest attach them. I gently touch my hair ornament with my fingertips.

"My exclusive hands are making for me, it was my first baptismal ceremony to show off to the nobility of Ehrenfest the first time recently not only the hair decorations among the nobles, It seems to be hard to make it, as it is being used as a decoration for costumes, it seems that the number does not increase too much. "

It is in a state that the Gilberta Shokai is monopolizing, so even though it began to become popular several years ago, it can not be said that the number is increasing so much.

"Very cute, something like the lady who cares also in the lords."

I am bringing as much hair ornament as possible for appealing hair ornaments. It seems that I was able to fulfill the role of the advertisement tower successfully by attaching various hair ornaments at frequencies close to daily.

"If there are a lot of people who are interested, will they rise to the topic at the Lords Conference?"

Regarding trading of goods, basically it will be a discussion of the territory and the territory, so it is rounded at the lord's conference. It will not be easy for children to decide what they want, so it is about the advertisement tower of new products that we can be a student.

Show us the real thing through the tea ceremony, or just offer a bit for free, and just appeal. The actual purchase will be after the story of the lords has been decided.

"It is definitely going to be a topic of the Lord's Council. It is the first time that I saw a three-dimensional flower decoration. I think everyone will keep an eye on Rosemain-sama's hair gloss and flower decoration Oh, is there any secret that gloss of hair? "

"I am using Lincian at the time of washing my hair because I seem to have spread to a nobleman woman interested in beauty in a blink of an eye, so I think that it would be a special product of Ehrenfest where there was no special product to be noted "

It is different from Ehrenfest so far, it was said that Aub Ehrenfest is working hard to make good places.

"Of course, I will support Aub Ehrenfest as much as I can as a candidate for a lord."

As the conversation while eating the sweets settled down, I asked Rosina to play Fespiel.

Singing high and clear sounds with a pin, the song dedicated to the wisdom goddess Meztionola is played in Fespiel and is sung in a beautiful voice of the rosina.

As a result of leaving the lyrics to the rosina, the word library completely disappeared.

... ... It is becoming an ordinary god praise from library praise.

However, Sorangju listened very pleasantly because it was a song to the goddess deeply related to the library. Gently moisten the blue eyes and stare at me.

"It's wonderful, Rosemain-sama, there is almost no song dedicated to wisdom goddess Meztionola, I was impressed very much."

"I am delighted by Professor Sorangju, I am also happy"

There are several songs like songs dedicated to the god of the highest god and five pillars, songs dedicated to the goddess of art, martial arts inspiring at the time of battle, but there are really few songs devoted to the goddess of wisdom.

Because Sorangju is very pleased, I'd like to quickly decide what to decide during that time.

"Soranju is a measure to make costumes for Schwarz and Weiss, but when is it convenient for the teacher? Is it better for you as early as possible?"

"..... If you consider my circumstances, it is certainly easier for people who are earlier to use it, since recently there are ladies who come to the library to see Schwarz and Vice."

Sorenju has a gentle smile nostalgic about old days. It seems that Black Forest and Weiss have been popular libraries since long ago.

"Where should I make the measurement? If it is better not to move Schwarzs and Weiss so much, I thought of doing it in this office ..."

"There are a lot of expensive magic stones used in Schwarz and Weiss and there are also many amulets so as not to be taken out. If you do not do it here, You'd better go. "

In the words of Soranju, I got into a word for a moment. I am afraid to take Black Forest and Weiss to go around, but if you are told that you can do it mainly under exactly control, that's right.

"Well, why do not you take it to Ehrenfest dormitory?"

"Well, of course, these two lords are like Rosemain. Please make a new outfit that will suit you."

"Actually, there are a few costumes, what do you think that costumes go well with Sorangju?"

When I turned my eyes towards the Risaizer, the Rizerator gave me the paper that summarized the costume plan.

"I'm going to make a dress of a boy in Schwarzu, we are going to make a dress of a girl to hers. Although it is usual to attach flower decorations and attach armbands like me ... .."

While watching the costume draft, Sorangju made his mouth fainted, none of this is pretty. Sorangju said that he wanted me to be careful about overdosing of accessories so that the two were easy to work.

When Sorenju was newly appointed, when he first saw that Schwarz and Vice costumes were renewed on behalf of the Lord, it seems that costumes were pretty well packed with hats and brooches. It seems that the sleeve was a long flutter of matching with the Lord because it is cute.

"But whenever Schwarz and Vice moved to work, the hat would fall and it would have been a big deal to lose the gold coin, which is a security deposit, on the sleeve due to the loan procedure."

"Well!"

"Since Schwarz and Weiss did not try to remove the costume that he gave the new costume until I got a new costume, I let him make a new costume in a hurry, but during that time I need a librarian to watch the two It was such a mistake ... Since such an uproar, two clothes have been decided as sleeves to elbows. "

I was told to pay attention to the fact that it did not get in the way of my work, and I reviewed the costume plan. As emphasis is put on cuteness, it seems better to rework a bit.

"By the way, I told Mr. Hirsch that I would not touch Schwarz and Weiss except the Lord, but is it OK to measure it?"

"It is okay if the Lord has given permission in the place where the Lord is in. If you touch it, please do not judge the partner who will give you permission. To touch Schwarz and Weiss is stolen or broken. Because it means that you can do it."

"Well, well carefully."

..... especially to Mr. Hill Sur!

I set the measurements of Schwarz and Weiss three days later, in order to change the topic, I took out the story of the Knight who wrote me.

"I am summarizing the story that the bard poet speaks like this and the story that my mother tells my child. Please let me hear the opinion of Mr. Sorangju who saw many books"

When I handed out a bundle of dozens of paper, Sorange was surprisedly talking about the eyes only saying "I bought this well well as I was surprised."

"How was it tough to gather this story? How did you do?"

"Everyone helped, children will grow up listening to stories, so if you talk to each one, quite a few will gather together."

As expected, I can not say that I lumped the lease of teaching materials as bait. I pass away with a smile.

"Can you sell these stories?"

"... How about you? It is a story that a young child likes, but if you oppose a high school year or adult of the lords, it may be better to have a different story."

"It is certainly better to think about books for adults soon. Let's propose to Aub Ehrenfest as well."

Until now I have made picture books in accordance with the growth of Kamil, but in order to make a child who can say "Hobby is reading" at the House of Peers, a book for adults who can read children of this age a little bit is also required.

Even if it is a story of the knight, based on the information of the demon obtained in the meantime, I will explore the scene of more fighting, interwoven information that seems to be a hint of Ditters' strategy, and a story specializing in romantic relationship for girls Why do not you try making it.

As I was thinking about it, Sorange returned the manuscript of the knight narrative that I finished reading. As a huff, I received the manuscript, and handed it to the Rizerator who was on the side.

"Rosemain, there are lots of strange things in Ehrenfest"

"I do not know well because it is the first time to get out of Ehrenfest, but if you are saying that Mr. Sorangju, the nobility of the center, there may be strange things. What kind of things have changed Do you think? "

When I asked for the desire to hear the opinion of another territory to appeal the future Ehrenfest, Sorangju slowly looked at me from my head.

"Gloss of hair, decorations of flowers, sweets ..... There are many things, but the most interesting thing about me is the paper which the civilian apprentices of Ehrenfest have, which is not ordinary paper, right? "

"Yeah, it's a paper made from a different method of making parchments using animal skins, I am in the process of raising it as a new industry responsible for the future Ehrenfest, which can be mass produced more than parchment It is a feature, I want to know that everyone has new paper this year. "

Of course, my job is appeal only. Contracts concerning trading are rounded to the lord conference. For the time being, it only informs us that there is paper other than parchment. The adoptive father said that he wanted to know how much response it had. I inform the existence of vegetable paper and ink, but the existence of printed matter is still concealed.

"New paper can be mass-produced at a cheaper price than parchment, but ink is also different, so it's not that cheap yet"

"Oh, ink is also different?"

"Although it is not impossible to use the ink used in parchment, it is better to change the ink in consideration of long-term preservation. In case of a memorandum, there is no particular problem with either ink"

She seems to be interested in vegetable paper, so silently about manufacturing methods and materials, explaining the advantages and disadvantages of introducing vegetable paper, Sorangje opened his eyes as though it was a frustrating thing.

"Do you use paper for the memorandum!?"

"... .... I will use paper at the workshop managed by Aub Ehrenfest so I can use it in various ways."

At first, I was surprised at the beginning that Franc as well as Richarda was "a mottainai". However, as I am using it without worrying about, the surroundings seem to have gotten used to it. I was surprised after a long absence and I was surprised.

"It is the parchment used for formal contracts, and this new paper is used instead of the wooden bill. If you write on this paper instead of the wooden card, you can create a lot of space on the bookshelf."

"It's nice, securing a bookshelf is a big problem in the library."

"If Mr. Sorangju seems to care, I'll give you several pieces, so if you do not consider long-term preservation in decades, normal inks can be written without problems"

I handed a few sheets of paper to Sorange. Sorangu touching the paper interestingly. While watching while thinking that vegetable paper seemed more interesting than sweets and hair ornaments, the 4 bell rang.

Oh, and Soranju raised his face and turned his eyes to his side.

"Well, have the other four bells ring?"

"Yes, Soranje-sama, it's time."

"Today's goddess Drepphan Goa's today's thread spinning seems to have been carried out very smoothly, but I am sorry but I will have time."

The tea ceremony is over.

If we do not return to the dormitory as soon as possible, the aides will not be in time for the afternoon lecture. While the servants are elegant, but while quickly picking up, Me and Sorange will give a farewell speech.

"It was such a fun time for a while, I thank Rosemain."

"I have heard valuable stories about Schwarz and Vice, I think that it was a fruitful time, it would be difficult to take time but I would be happy if we could have a cup again."

"Well ... I wonder if Rosemain will finish the lecture earlier next year,"

I was satisfied because Sorange was delighted that the tea party after a long absence was fun.

It seems that there were places for each of the aides to think about how Ehrenfest's epidemic is received. However, as there is not enough time to talk with a long time, we decided to set up a place to report again, and we decided to return to the dormitory in a hurry.

Chapter 305: Tea party with music teachers

From the afternoon I also went to the library to indulge in reading, but everyone did not forgive me. It was said that countermeasures to the teacher's meeting and the tea party after tomorrow were ahead.

If I prepare this afternoon, I would like to finish as soon as possible because I was told that I could stay in the library one day tomorrow.

"The central aristocrat seems to be accustomed to sweets with a lot of sugar. The kettle curl that brings to tea ceremonies with teachers of music is not good for those with sweetness mixed with honey "

"Well, it would be better for you to change tea slightly based on information from teachers."

Our reflection group was held at the multipurpose hall in the dormitory, and Wilfrit and his aides and those who wanted to gather information also participated.

"There was some reaction also in the decoration of Lin-shan and flowers, but it seems that Plant paper was the one that Professor Sorangju was most interested in."

"Plant paper, it will not be as easy to use as Rosemain"

Even though I understand that it will appeal as a new industry of Ehrenfest, Wilfried is blurred that he does not know how to become an appeal.

"I think that it is enough if you use paper paper when the Ehrenfest is a manuscript in the library. I know that there is a way of communication for teachers in a conversation with Professor Sorangju, The story will spread as it is. "

What is more important than that is not to call the "paper paper", which is a material and manufacturing method, but also to call on the opponent 's interest by calling it "new paper." I will also explain together that I will not talk about printing yet.

I started talking about how I was talking to Soranju, based on memorandum Philline made my own note. And Halmut adds some explanation.

"The teachers who are doing research seem to have an obligation to pay a part of the research results to the library. I think that they can sell if they know the existence of cheap paper"

I heard that there are many teachers who make troublesome bindings and make them scrolls. Then, if you arrange the sizes of the vegetable paper and prepare the cover of paper like a file or a binder beforehand so that it is good enough to write it. A book with a uniform height should be easy to store. I take out the writing board and write a note immediately.

"Rosemain, what are you writing? The situation of discussion is written down by civil apprenticeship ... .."

"Because it is a new item plan, please do not mind"

"... .. why are you writing a draft of a new item on reflection of the tea ceremony?"

Wilfried muttered, but if you do not write down when you come up with it, will not you forget?

"I always have a writing board because I do not know when I will come up with it."

"Rosemain's writing board seems to be useful, is not it?"

"Would you like to introduce it to the Plantin Shokai? Because it is a thing that pours wax into a wooden plate, if you do not get into sculpture it is very inexpensive and you can get it."

"Thank you very much"

Were you interested, celestial apprentice soon bite it. Even though it is cheaper than parchment paper, vegetable paper is still expensive and it seems that hands will not come out for notes.

"We have to inform Dr. Hirschle to let us know the schedule of the measurement of Schwarz and Weiss, to make the most of the points I noticed at this tea party next time, Ricarda, please."

"Certainly yes"

I was talking about the topic at the next tea ceremony while Richard left the room and contacted with Aldonanz.

"After all, is it a topic about music?"

"Would not it be variously asked about composition?"

"..... Will it be okay? Honestly, I do not know much about music."

I only know the practice songs played on the problem songs and I do not see much in social occasions, so I'm not too familiar with well-performing music.

"Because musicians will know, there is no problem with music, but I've heard that not only music teacher but Egrandine will come"

I tilt my head to the words of Brunhild. I feel like I heard it somewhere, but it is the name of a person who can not remember clearly.

"..... Who were you? I think it is the name of a candidate for a lord of powerful territory, but it seems I have not been able to match the face yet."

"Egrantine is a candidate for a lord of Klostenburg in the large territory, with excellent grades of the highest grade, this year's dedication dance is given the role of offering prayers to the goddess of light, so that it is similar to the goddess of light Sometimes it is about to be done. "

In the explanation of Brunhild, I remembered her face which was pretty good at the exercise of dedication dance.

"You are a very good dancer, do not you think I was impressed with you in the practice of dedication mai"

I am looking forward to that person coming. As soon as my mood began to rise, Hill Sur rushed into the multipurpose hall.

"Rosemain, the date and time have been decided!"

"It is quite early, Mr. Hill Sur"

"I was flying away directly from a coward because I was at a distance from the main building."

I am at a loss for being told to be good at such a thing. Hill sur violet 's eyes shined, full of expectations.

"It's been three days later, according to Professor Sorangju's schedule."

"After three days ... let's do it in the morning, because there is a lecture in the afternoon"

"understood"

It is a bit scary of Hill Sur's eyes and it is only visible to exclude the possibility that Black Forest and Weiss are already attracting attention, that there is a danger of being stolen, the possibility of being stolen or destroyed In any case, I made it clear that I would not touch other than my own side.

"There is no choice, I will keep it only for seeing."

"Keep an eye on the escort knights to keep close cooperation and not to bring people in other territory closer"

While I say so, I will turn my eyes toward Hirschle who is transferring my enrollment to the center. Brother Cornelius seemed to understand the meaning, gave a hand lightly.

Because I experienced tea ceremony once, I feel that my mind has become a little easier. I had Brunhild to arrange hair and costume today as well.

It is said that ceremonies are not necessary for tea ceremony today, but Phyllene is supposed to accompany you to become familiar. As shown by teachers of music, you are supposed to have a role to play music. This score is a print made by Rosina with a freshly made wisdom goddess Mestionola's songs, not printed.

"Phyllene, please prepare paper and ink along with the score"

"Why, is not it?"

"My aides should not forget the writing instruments at any time."

Will it be troublesome if the writing board alone is missing? As I said, Phylline smiled a little as "I got it," and began preparing writing instruments.

Today's sweets is a cactus curl with honey making the best use of my previous reflection. There is a strong sweetness compared to the plain one. I got them to be prepared just as I did in the meantime.

"Should we face soon? Rosina, it's okay if you do not feel so tense"

Rosina has become extremely nervous. I wonder he is not going to put it on his face, but I know that he is stiffing a little more than usual with a long relationship.

"The tea ceremony teachers are also nervous, even with those who are looking up in the lecture, the musicians are also nervous, Rosemain sama"

Especially today is tea ceremony of teachers of music. The fact that I'm interested in the songs I made is that my dedicated musicalist, Rosina, gets the most attention. A former gray shrine maiden 's rosina plays in front of teachers at the aristocrats. I think pressure is not hesitant.

As we finished preparing, we started at the same time the third bell rang and headed towards the specialist building of the apprenticeship who had the music teacher's room. It seems that the third floor of the special building is a room of teachers. It seems that Hill Sur's room is on the third floor of a specialist building on apprenticeship.

"Since Professor Hirschle is a dormitorial superintendent, he originally lives at the Ehrenfest dormitory as it is supposed to be living in the research, but as he was absorbed in his research, he seemed to have been staying in the assistant's room since he was a student because he spreads off offensive odors and noise around her in preparation I have heard that Ekhart Older said that way. "

Effhard brother seems to have heard from the president. If you prepare it in a dormitory and make inconvenience to the surroundings, it may be more secure to stay in the room of the special building.

Brunhildst will guide us to the room where the tea ceremony will be held. When I went there, there were three music teachers, Egranthine praying for goddess of light in dedication dance, and why there was Anastasiusus.

..... I have not heard that the prince is present!

When I looked back to Brühnhild in spite, Brünhild was also surprised to see a candy eye. It seems that he did not know Brunhild.

One of the teachers seemed to notice our surprise and saw me and Anastasis alternately while lowering my eyebrows as troubled.

"It seems that Egrantine told us the story of today's tea ceremony, and Prince Anastigius said that he wanted to attend, and suddenly we also had a good time, but Rosemain, are you OK? "

"Well, of course, it's a pleasure to be with Prince Anastadius"

For a moment a smile caught me, but I think I could return the answer to the point if it was only for answers. Of course, as my true intention, "Do not face the tea party that has not been invited!" I am afraid that failure is scary, so it is better not to have a royalty.

"Come to here, Rosemain sama"

I am teaching music to lords and upper aristocrats, that is, my teacher showed up next to me. My teacher and students are lining up alternately on a round table, my both sides are teachers, and it is honest that I have a cushion with the prince.

While greeting the Prince and the teacher, I headed to my seat. Egrantine, half-up making complicated blond hair that can be convinced of being compared to the goddess of light, narrowed the bright orange eyes softly.

"I got a greeting at the social gathering, but it is the first time to speak like this, Rosemain, I'm really looking forward to your music, I am delightful to be with you today."

Egrantine was a student with a profound knowledge of art and said that he wanted me to attend, knowing that I was invited to a tea ceremony from teachers of music.

"I thought that I would like to come with you once from the time I saw Egrantine's dedication for dance performance"

"Do you know Christine who graduated three years ago? She is also a master of Fespiel and I have been together at a tea ceremony several times."

Although I bother expressing the topic of Ehrenfest as I can tell you, I can not say that I do not know Christine.

"As you all know, I have been sleeping for two years, so I do not have any direct contact with Christine, but my exclusive musical instructor liked Christine very much, it is my exclusive If I do not have it, I've heard that I wanted to be exclusive to myself. "

"Well, it seems wonderful that Christine wanted a dedicated musical performer, is there a lot of music talent in Ehrenfest? Will you listen immediately?"

Encouraged by the Egranthine, the Rosina looks at me while heading to the prepared chair. I sat on my prepared seat and smiled and smiled at the rosina.

While everyone's eyes are paying attention, Rosina takes a deep breath and sets Fespiel.

"I was composing the songs I will play from now, but it was Ferdinand-sama and my exclusive musical Rosina, so that I could arrange it for easy playing. Rosina, I play a song dedicated to the Leiden shaft of fire Please do it. "

"Certainly, Rosemain-sama"

It seems that Rosina playing Fespiel is listening to Anagramistus as well as Egrandine. The teachers are also looking at the rosina looking interesting.

..... Because my rosina is amazing.

While the line of sight is gathered in the Rosina, the servants on the spot promptly prepare sweets and tea.

"It's very wonderful, it's a good deal of satisfaction that Christine liked it."

A word of praise pours in the arms of Rosina. Praised with the former Lord, Rosina laughed like a shame.

"Can I leave the rosina with today's performance? I want to listen to other songs."

An aggressive usus and teacher nodded on Egrantine 's proposal.

It was taught beforehand in Brunhild or Richarda, but by having it be played by the rosina, he lets his musician remember the new song with his ears. And when you return, it seems to write music.

You can spare your songs and lose value, but already students in Ehrenfest are playing in practical skills. It is said that there are prince here, so do not be lazy even in the sense of making a connection.

"Rosina, everyone is looking forward to it, please play other songs, next time ask for a song devoted to the goddess of wisdom"

When I said that, I felt a little easier by playing a song, and Rosina naturally smiled and restored Fespiel.

"Oh, I do not want to. Tea has been postponed."

The teacher smiles embarrassedly, teaches cakes and sweets one by one, acts on everyone. I also ate a bite of a cott curl that I brought and recommended it to everyone.

"It's a cactus car with honey, please accompany me as you like"

"... .. somewhat poor sweets"

Anastigius watched Cuttle Carr and so reputed. Certainly there is no flashy in the appearance of the cuttle curl, but I think it is more delicious than the central sweet like sugar compacted.

"Oh, it looks simple, but it's very tasty, it's moderately sweet, it's easy to eat ... .. I like it."

"It is rare for Egranthine to say so"

I put a single mouthful of anastaziusus, and muttered as if it were a mother. However, it seems that the taste has fallen into the category of liking, even though the movement of the hand later became faster.

"I rather liked it"

It seems that Anastasisus liked to eat it with lumptop. Perhaps, I think that the flavor of liquor wins sweetness, I guess.

..... Cut kart with Lumutpuff may be accepted for men even in central aristocracy.

I use a lot of sugar in Lumutupu and because I need high alcohol, if I explain about that, it seems to be relatively easy to accept.

Cuttle curl with honey was well received by teachers. It seems that sweetness is good enough.

In Ehrenfest, katarukaru with honey liked sweet-like children, but adults liked those with carved ferritines or tea leaves. It seems that there are pretty much different preferences.

"Even so, how beautiful your hair is, is not it the color of the night's color as if it was blessed by the god of darkness?"

"Egrandine's hair seems to have received the blessing of the goddess of light, it is very beautiful as light shines and glittering."

"Oh, that's good, but there is no gloss like Rosemain-sama's hair. What on earth are you using?"

The teachers also got full strength with the topic that Egrantine waved.

"Well, at the end of the advancement ceremony, the girls from Ehrenfest gathered all their hair."

"Is there any secret in Ehrenfest?"

The atmosphere of the tea ceremony today is more similar to that of the mothers' tea ceremony than those with Sorange. The way teachers of the same age as my mother looked at me and waited for an answer became familiar with Ehrenfest.

"I am using Lincian when washing my hair and it is going to sell it as a special product of Ehrenfest in the future."

Egrantine sighs apologetically, sorry to be sold in the future.

"Sell a little ahead"

"What? ..."

..... What should I answer at such times? Even if you answer yes, I do not know how much it is a little, and it is a problem for the exchange of money to happen!

If money interaction occurs, the chief priest is severely checked. Even if you give it free, if you promise at a public place called a tea ceremony by teachers, it will be a form of donation to the royal family. Naturally, we need a certain amount of quality and quantity. I can not afford to pass the wearing as "If it is OK with this". If you do such a thing, it is frightening just to think what I am told.

"Well, I can not reply at all with my own being, as money interaction occurs, at least, I would like to obtain permission from Abu Ehrenfest"

"Anastigiusus, I do not mean impossible for newcomers, is not it decided that trading was done through the lord conference?"

It seems that it is decided that it is decided not to forcibly buy or pick up the top person.

"But, do you want that one for the graduation ceremony?"

In the words of Anastasius, Egranthine became a little disgusting face. Apparently it was a star. As Egrantine wishes to use Lincian in his graduation ceremony which is also an adult ceremony, he seems to have thought about getting Anastasis.

"..... If it's okay with what I am using, it will be a bit easier for Egranthine, so it's not because I have not brought so much, so it's really only a little."

In my words Egrantine shined his face, Anastigius became a grumpy look to understand at a glance.

"Small of Ehrenfest, on the other hand, the answer to me and the answer to Egrantine are quite different"

"Mr. Egrantine will give away only one Lincian on the way of use and selling Lincian in the request of Prince Anastigius is absolutely not a separate thing. When you sell it to the royal family or give away, quality and quantity What I have to do is nothing to do with my own being. "

"..... On the other hand, the contents are suitable for small form of habit"

What is it like in my opinion in Anastasis?

"It can not be helped if Linyi Shan is not ready, Rosemain, make a song devoted to the goddess of light before the graduation ceremony"

".....Huh?"

"Then I will buy it"

..... I wonder what, this unreasonable swing. I do not know the reason.

What is the relationship between composing and composing not being able to prepare Lincian? Tilt my head Teachers looking at me compare me with anastasis as if I had trouble frightening.

"I think it is difficult to create new songs until the graduation ceremony, Prince Anastigius"

"If it is a saint of Ehrenfest, who is good at sacrificing songs to God, you should be able to do that much, is not it?"

You can say that, Anastasegeus' gray eyes gaze at me.

... .. a song dedicated to the goddess of light, hey.

I looked at Eglantine looking at me carefully. In me, the image of the goddess of light is currently fixed in Egranthine. If it is a song that looks good on Egrantine, there may be something like that.

..... Hymns are like that?

"My teacher, may I borrow your table?"

"Well, I do not mind ... .."

"Philene, please prepare paper and ink on that table, please Rosina, write down."

"Certainly yes!"

It seems that the sidewalkers who have seen my composition scenery immediately seemed to know what to do. Moving the chair of the rosina and helping with the preparation of the Philiarine will immediately arrange the place.

"Since you do not have to arrange, please write down only the main melody"

"Certainly yes"

"La la la la ~"

I sing the main melody and Rosina will pick up the sounds at Fespiel and write down a few bars each. Since it is not so long, if it does not arrange it will end soon.

"How about with this kind of feeling? As I arrange it so that it gets more ornate when playing with Fespiel, I will make a song that is suitable for the goddess of light, so it will take some more time."

"Rosemain, that person ... .."

Unlike Anastajususu who is doing Pokan, Egrantine praised with letting go of being "wonderful".

"What a beautiful song, my heart will be transparent, I will be able to feel the existence of the gods"

"This song was made with the thought of Egranthine, and since I saw the practice of dedication mai ever since, the goddess of light is like Egranthine"

Too much praised, I talked a little bit of embarrassed selection criteria on selection criteria, then this time I dyed my cheeks a bit like Egerrant was shivering.

"It was nice that Rosemain was not Hiton, I would have been deprived of my mind if I could devote myself improvised making a wonderful song like this."

Anagramage rushed quietly to the words of couscous and laughing Egranthine.

"Rosemain"

"Yes"

"Dedicate the song to Egrandine, I do not need it, I am reborn."

That said, Anastasis leaves. I felt hurtful at one stroke. If it was said that it was made and made a song, it was said to be fun.

..... What to do, my socialization, a big failure!

"I made Prince Anastigius angry"

When I muttered while staring at the door where Anastase Usus went out, I smiled like Egrantine was in trouble.

"That is a bit different, because I will take care of it, Rosemain says it is relieved. Teacher, I am very sorry, but I will excuse myself"

"Well, Egrandine, thank you for your consideration."

Egrantine and his aides will leave the room following the anastasis. I apologized while teachers who were drinking tea, "That is a troubled prince" turned pale blue.

"Teachers, I'm sorry I messed up tea ceremony"

"That's good, that attitude of Prince Anastigius was just a little religious about how Rosemain and Egrantine are making friends."

"Rosemain is not what you like to do, let's hear more fespiel than that."

"But ... ...."

When I compare doors with teachers, my teacher lightly shrugged my shoulders.

"Egrantine chase, so it's okay, Prince Anastasius always wants to draw attention to Egrandine, rather, I'd rather thank Rosemain for now, right? "

"Although it may still be early for Rosemain-sama, it's a little bargain."

Teachers taught us only as a story here, Egrantine was the youngest daughter of the Third Prince who died in political change, adopted with grandfather, the lord of Klostenburg, the large territory, and became a candidate for a lord. He seems to be a former princess. Since I moved to my grandfather before the baptismal ceremony, many people do not know they are former princesses.

The current king won the political change because Aub Klasseburg was sided, because he was a son and his adopted daughter, if he shoots the former princess Egranthine, it surely approaches the throne. Anastigius and his older brother Daiichi Prince seem to be desperate trying to turn Egrantine somehow.

"... .. I think that desperate desire of Prince Anastigius is not only a feeling that aimed at the throne, but when I look at the prince, I remember the era of Aub Ehrenfest"

"He was an effort, was not he?"

I heard the word for the first time that my adopted father is a man of effort. When I have rounded eyes, my teachers smile happily, narrowing their eyes to miss the old days.

"In order to escort the current first wife at the graduation ceremony, it was nothing else ... it was ..."

"I was smiling with looking at me"

"Because the two-year-old difference in the era is great."

..... What, that's more!

It seems that it was almost simultaneous that I aimed at myself and that the aides were going to teachers with curious eyes. After the teachers looked at their faces, they laughed in a mischievous manner.

"If you talk too much, would not it be hard for Aub Ehrenfest to be ahead of the time, so let's stop around here. If you talk about Ehrenfest, is not it better for you to talk about Ferdinand?"

"Yeah, there was not one who thought that it was regrettable that much,"

After listening to the adoptive past's story for a moment, the topic shifted to the priest's chief legend and the tea ceremony ended.

Chapter 306: Measurements of Blackfin and Weiss

Today is the day of measuring the Schwarzs and Weiss. When the third bell rings, head towards the library and bring Schwarz and Vice to the dormitory.

The girls who were desperately trying to finish the lecture until today had a little room from the end of my lecture, so it seems that everyone has finished their lecture. Coupled with the enjoyment of the measurement of Schwarzz and Weiss and the sense of liberation from schooling, it is a very good smile.

"Just because the Black Forest and Weiss come to the Ehrenfest dorm, the mind blows."

As bride practice, girls with higher girls' ability to make embroidery, small items, relatives babies and pets, are supposed to take measurements today. I have not practiced brides training on a bowl, so I can not say that sewing relationships are good at it.

..... I did not skimp. I could not be helped because I slept for two years. I would rather read books than to spend time on bride study.

To be honest, I do not know where and how to measure. If you are a human being, your opponent is a big schmir. I would like to leave it to everyone with higher girls' ability.

"Rosemain, I know what's worrisome, but please concentrate a bit more"

In the multipurpose hall, I was practicing Fespiel, preparing for measuring with a smile that the Rizera and the girls were exhilarated.

There are also figures of Hill Sur and civilian apprentices preparing writing instruments to make a moment to write down the magic team who is said to be in the stomach part of Schwarzs and Weiss. It seems that there are lots of romance and secrets in magical tools made by ancient royalty and without recipe. It seems to be a very exciting event for civilian apprentices who are good at making magical tools, and it is clear that they are exciting regardless of the faction.

"At any rate, if there is such a paper, is it OK not to tell me earlier?"

When we offered vegetable paper to write about what I learned about Schwarz and Vice, Hill suruward said that while looking at the back and touching.

It seems to me that other teachers and students thought that students of Ehrenfest were reported to be using unfamiliar papers, and then confirmed when entering the dormitory.

"If Mr. Hill Sur was in the dormitory as a dorm office, I do not like it even though I do not like it, because Rosemain uses paper on a daily basis."

In order for the first year students to finish the lecture, we prepare materials that summarize the weaknesses of each student, or if we discuss something we will record, so if it is an ordinary dormitory monitor, we should have seen it before a while Civilian apprentices told each other.

"While Rosemain is enrolled in the House of Lords, it may be better to think about living in the dormitory, and various things are going to happen in the future"

"Yeah, I think it would be better to raise a report more frequently to my father rather than once a week. In just one week, Rosemain gets a lot of things to do, so it can be reported daily."

Wilfried said so towards Hill Sur. I do not mean to do so many things, so I would like the report to be kept as low as possible.

Knight apprentices were a bit far away and had a serious look at the meeting on escorts. Escort Knights who are closely watching Blackwater and Weiss as my escort know better than I than how much they are worth to Schwarz and Weiss.

"Even manastones that are attached to the vest have value, but Schwarz and Weiss are relics' relics, so you can think that there are multiple people aiming at the time of leaving the library."

"I have also confirmed the existence of a lord of a lord who is persistently saying to give Scholz and Vice to Sorangju sensei."

"Rosemain says he will protect Black Forest and Weiss, so the upper rank will not retreat even if he is the other."

I also want to mix with the excitement and fun atmosphere that I am preparing before the festival. Fidgeting, watching me looking around, Rosina was coughing with Kohon.

"Since teachers praised at the tea ceremony, please make efforts to play the songs you made yourself"

"... .. I will do my best"

Rosina is praised by Fespiel's skill at a tea ceremony with teachers of music and is motivated to ask me to extend my composing ability. I said I would like to increase my practice time more, but I dismissed it. Securing reading time is top priority from Fespiel's practice time.

While practicing while paying attention to the rosina, 3 bell rang. I immediately take my hand off from Fespiel. While reflecting the sigh of a rosinna as though it was amazed at the edge of sight, I got up with a gaze full of the surrounding expectations.

"It's 3 bells! Let's go to the library!"

"Who heads to Rosemain and the library, those who are ready to accept, here are all the meetings, as Schwarz and Weiss are valuable magical tools, so be careful enough."

Depending on the command of Villefried, I am leaving for the library, forming a row as determined. Walking through the top is Hill Sur, the dormitory supervisor, I will walk around in a state that everyone is surrounded and buried.

"Sorangju sensei, good morning"

"Good morning, Rosemain, Oh, that's a lot to come today."

"It's an escort of Black Forest and Weiss, something is troubling if there is something"

When I went to the reading room of the library, Sorange turned my eyes to the appearance of the Ehrenfest.

Although I thought that at first it was exaggerating, but if I heard that from the apprenticeship of civilizations about the scarcity of Schwarz and Vice and heard from other nobles from the knight apprentice how much sense of crisis is enough I have been told that there is no idea I also changed the idea that preparation is necessary to protect Schwartz and Vice.

"Dear, you came"

"Good morning, Princess"

Schwarz and Vice come and walk shortly. That figure disappointed that Rieseleiter "is pretty cute". It seems that Schwarz and Weiss compensate for the loneliness that I can not meet with my schmir. I can understand the feeling that I want a substitute to fill loneliness.

"I am going to make measurements to make costumes today, I will go to my room from now on," Schwarz, Vice.

"I understand."

"A lot of weakness"

Schwarz and Weiss, who have already taken over the Lord with everyone already and have received new costumes each time, seems to know about the measurements. I crawled next to me like I jumped around Pyokopiko.

"Rosemain, Schwarz and Weiss can not leave the library unless they act with the Lord, please join hands with them and act together"

I told Sorangee, Black forest on the right hand and Vice and hand on the left hand.

"Take a look, we are connecting hands with Schwarz and Vice."

"Were not we not to touch it?"

There seemed to be girls studying for Schwarzs and Weiss certainly in the library, I was surprised to see that I was watching here.

If touched without permission, I heard from Hill Sur if I can play with magical power. It seems that the first time I tried it, but it seems that the ability to play it increases when I become persistent.

"Then, I will bring you back after the measurements are over"

"Certainly yes"

I will walk hand in hand with Black Foot and Weiss.

Also at the time of returning, Hill Sur, the head of the dormitory, walks, and I, Schwarz and Vice are in the middle of the organization. The surroundings of us are surrounded by girls who started with hands and around them surrounding civilian apprenticeships, the knight apprentices are stiffening the outer circumference and walking. Perhaps we think that we are surrounded and can not see.

However, Hirschle who is told that he will rarely leave his / her room other than lecture walks at the head with a joyous face, and it seems that the eloquence of the knights stiffens the surroundings. A conversation that is exchanged with a whisper around me jumps into my ears.

"Is not that Schmir of the library? Why is Ehrenfest?"

"Can you leave the library?"

"I heard that you touched by magical power when you touch it ... .."

I was excited that something would happen, I came back to the Ehrenfest dormitory. As I entered the dorm, I breathed out as Villefried who lent me half of the escort knight rest assured.

"It seems there was nothing wrong, so we will do the measurements, are you ready?"

"Yes!"

In the multipurpose hall, all the students who did not have a lecture were gathered this morning. Everyone seems to be interested in Schwarz and Weiss.

I do not mind seeing it with a little distance, but it is only my side that I can touch.

"Well, once you can take off your clothes, it is the three of us who will give permission to touch Schwarz and the Weiss, Rieselaire, Richarda, and Brünhild."

"I understood, only Mr."

"Can touch"

Rizerator and Brunhildde take off their clothes and measure their size one after another with major. It is the girls who volunteer to volunteer to stay close to Schwarz and Vice even a bit to write down their sizes. Richard is a supervisor to keep people from inadvertently touching.

"Rosemain, I can not see it"

I do not touch it, but surrounded by the girls I want to see as close as possible, Black Forest and Weiss can not be seen from a desk a little away. Hill sur was moving his head to the left and right trying to see the stomach of Schwarz and Weiss, but it seemed to make no sense at all.

I stare at the best and one piece of Black Footsteps and Weiss. As Hill Sur said, you can see a complex magic team in the stomach part.

"... Please wait a little more. When I take measurements, I will send out Schwarz and Vice. Besides that, I would like to see Mr. Hirschle here."

I pick up the clothes I got off with Rieselter and Brunhild and take it to Hill sur. Richard watches over and girls keep distance while checking each other, so it will not be a problem to take your eyes off.

I spread out the costume I had on a desk surrounded by civilian apprentices.

"It is only Hirschleur, Hartmut and Philiane that you can touch this, please just look at others."

Unlike the civilian apprentices who got into the head soon, Hirschle quickly picked it up and began to gaze slowly.

"I think that the pattern of the hem of one piece and the pattern of this vest resemble the magic team. I have not seen so much so much that I do not know what magic team is ...."

When the best embroidered with various colors also traces the same color thread, there are some parts visible to the magic team. I do not know clearly in my eyes, but if Hill suru, I do not know.

"Well, this is certainly a magic team, even if it's the same color, we're just using the thread of the same color to mislead the appearance, and this is a magic team that has no choice but to make sense. It is well connected and it is effective ... ...."

Hill suru narrows his eyes and follows the magic team with gaze and hands draw characters and patterns one after another on paper.

Seems that a number of magic teams are being sewn into the best complex embroidery.

"Do you know what magic line?"

"Yeah, it's a magic team to protect Black Forest and Weiss, does this button use magic stones? If you put the magical power of the Lord in this button, then Schwarz and Vice will be protected. It is very delicate and sophisticated magic to be able to sew this complex magic team as embroidery and activate it, how beautiful!

Listening to the words of Hirsur who looks at the best in excitement, I turn my eyes to Blackwood and Vice's clothes with cold sweat.

"..... Um, Hirschle, maybe you need embroidery and magic stone buttons in the same way even when you make new costumes?"

"Of course, it would be better for you to be able to fully protect Schwarz and Vice."

Hirschle tells us easily that, of course it is natural, but I can not think that I can handle it at the Gilberta Shokai including embroidery of such magic team.

"How do I embroider?" I do not understand at all, but .... "

"Let's make a magic team that I further improved, this is the arm rings, not what I can not lose to the past"

The surrounding civilian apprentices saw Hill Sur with the eyes filled with expectations. Following that gaze, Hill Sur raises purple eyes, he laughs, hehehe.

"Hartmut, write the design of this hem as it is, do not make a single line of faults clear"

Hill suru pours an exhilarating sigh and gives instructions to Hartmut. Hirsch himself is writing the best design.

While Hartmut traced the hem of Schwarz One Piece with his fingers, while filing the embroidery design, Philline began copying the design with a difficult face in hand with Vice's dress in hand.

"No, it's not, it's easy to make mistakes."

However, it seems to be difficult for Phyllene who have not yet studied the magic team at all. I am frustrated that the surrounding civil application apprentice "If you let me write ...".

"Phyllene, spread out the costume to make it appear to other civilian apprentices, will everyone else write down on behalf of Philiene?"

"Let me take care of that!"

While Philline dropped a little shoulder, she carefully spread out the costume to make it look like civil apprentices. I sharply tap the shoulder of Phylline that is bashful.

"Phyline, I do not know about the magic team at all, I will study together through this costume making"

"Yes, Rosemain sama"

The civilian apprentices are copying, saying "Do you really activate with such a combination?" Raising a surprised voice each time.

While glancing at the situation, Hill Sur reversed, trimmed embroidery parts with fingers carefully, and began to check the material as well.

"If you think that this magic team will work, it is necessary to prepare the thread dyed with magical power, and there are some things you have to compose to make costumes, Rosemain sama like you are not familiar with the magic team yet It would be impossible for me to embroider alone. Even though I thought of being asleep for two years, I would not have mastered the bride. "

I sometimes embroidered the magic team so I felt frustrated by Hirsch's word that embroidery would be essential as an aristocratic woman's bride practice.

..... I have had such a meaning to the bride study I had been looking lightly until now! I am never dexterous, what shall I do! Is it?

"This costume creation seems to be a challenge that Ehrenfest has to work together as a whole, it will be a good opportunity to study magic teams and magical tools."

Schwarz and Weiss are magical tools made by the royal princess, and it seems that high-quality materials are abundantly used not only in advanced technology but also in costumes prepared by successive lords to protect it.

"I'd like to say that I have to start from where I gather materials ... but it would be good to leave it to Ferdinand ... There should be a lot of good quality material. Rosemain's guardian is Ferdinand It was saved by I was worried if I tried to collect materials from scratch. "

Hill suru is easy to say, if I ask you a ward officer, Hirshur will say it easily, but the chief priest is not merit and it is not a person who moves so easily.

"..... I do not think that Ferdinand will give you so much."

"If you say that you are making costumes for Schwarz and Vice, you can use as much flexibility in the sideways flow of the magical team you wrote down. It is not the one who misses the material and money for magical tools that I do not know You are my mistake, so I will tell you. "

..... Wow, I have a great persuasive power. Especially the neighborhood that makes us flexible by the sideways flow of the magic team.

"Rosemain, the measurements of Black Foot and Weiss has ended"

The voice of the Reiserator was applied and I quickly turned my eyes towards a group of girls who mainly focused on Schwarz and Vice.

"Hirschle teacher, it seems it ended"

"May I call this place? If there is no place to write, I am in trouble."

When I call Schwarz and Vice, I move while moving my head and head.

While I was wearing clothes, I could see the living Sumil as it was, but when I take off my clothes, I can see that it is divided into parts with head, limbs and body like a stuffed animal. That part of the torso was embroidered with crowded gold threads.

"Well, really the stomach is full of magic teams,"

"Please sit Richarda, Schwarz and Weiss on the desk and you can not copy it as it is"

Richarda raises Schwarz, Lisera and Brünnhild lift the weigh and let him sit on the desk.

"Sure, Rosemain-sama"

It is a bit scary where Hill suru seems to devour and its eyes glitter gently. Of course, there are magic teams on both the back and the buttocks. It seems quite complicated. While asking me to stand on the way and getting my hands up, while writing 4 bells rang.

"Lunch time. Let's take a break and eat lunch, Schwarz and Weiss should act with me"

It is said that you should never take your eyes. I asked Black Forest and Weiss to dress and we went to the dining room connecting hands. Hill sur le also has lunch together today. I have my seat next to me.

"Would it be that much costly to make costumes?"

"Well, this is a challenge that Ehrenfest has to work together, as it was originally done by a central senior aristocrat"

Hill suru tells Wilfried that it is better for Aub Ehrenfest to have help. Vilfried nods "I understand", picks up the cutlery, and Hill Sur also gets a cutlery.

"... Rosemain-sama"

"What, Professor Hill Sur?"

"What is this meal?"

"Is it lunch?"

I saw a meal made by cooks, including Fugo and Ella. Today is a very delicious cream stew. It is a pleasant menu in the cold winter.

"... ... Has the taste of Ehrenfest's dish been tasted like this before?"

"About two or three years ago,"

"I did not know,"

"Because we are not in the dormitory,"

I have not eaten in the dorm for many years, so I just do not know. All the students know.

Hirschle, who kept silent for a while and ate stew, suddenly lifted his face.

"I will live as much as possible at Ehrenfest dormitory from now."

Hill surprised the surrounding by proclaiming what it is natural for others to live in the dormitory, and the lunch ended.

The copying of the magic team continues from the afternoon. Schwarz and Weiss will have their clothes taken off and write again, but the magic team of the girder seems quite difficult, so it seems that even the apprentices of the civil servants of the costumes who could read the magic team of costumes are in a state of being upset. Only Hirschle copies his eyes shining.

"I thought that it was a strange teacher, but excellence is real. This is also an excellent one, but I can not understand it at all."

Hartmut lightly shrugged his shoulders and said so. It seems that they do not know because the magic team is too old.

"I understand briefly that it is a magic team on the attributes of light and darkness, perhaps it can not be used without being a candidate for a lord or a royal family member"

Even if I understand it, Hartmut has insufficient attributes, so it seems that it can not be the Lord of Schwarz and Weiss.

"Rosemain has both attributes, is not it?"

"Because you became the Lord of Black Forest and Weiss, you are right"

After finishing writing the magic of the entire torso, Hill sur sculpts wrinkles between the eyebrows and compares the written papers.

"..... That alone is not enough. There are plenty of holes."

"You do not know who you are going to touch anything You can not say everything on the surface?"

"Because I also conceal it"

While ordering Richarda to dress Schwarz and Vice, Hill Sur and civilian apprentices tried to look at the paper and looking at their papers.

"After all, there seems to be a lot of things you do not understand until trying to disassemble ..."

"Please do not approach Schwarz and Vice any more by Professor Hill Sur."

The girls' eyes became acute with the harsh words of decomposition. Hirschle who was stared at the same time with swordy eyes gently shrugged and stood up.

"I will consider whether I can improve the defense magic team better, everyone please return Black Forest and Weiss to the library"

As Hill Sur remained so, he jumped out and went back to his room of a special building with his own studio.

"Schwarz, Weiss, Good tiredness"

"It is not tied"

"Daughter, Hime-sama"

I strok the forehead mana stone, pour the magical power and connect the hands.

"Let's go back to the library."

At the moment I said so, the door of the entrance opened, Angelica who finished lecture jumped in. To allow you to swallow at any time, look around the people gathering at the entrance hall with a hand on the magic sword Stin rook.

"Mr. Rosemain, please give me maximum warning, as the teacher Mr. Hirsch jumped out, it is known to the surroundings that the measurements are over, I saw the appearance of a waiting-for candidate lord"

"Angelica!?"

"There is a high possibility that you can come by force, so prepare and be prepared for fighting anytime!"

A sense of tension ran immediately in the report of Angelica.

Wilfried looks around his escort knight.

"Rosemain, take my escort knight! Let's keep Rosemains and others! Let me wait here so as not to be daunted by my feet!"

In the direction of Villefried, another escort knight joins the party leaving one escort knight.

"Civilian and female students without the ability to fight will remain, they will disturb the escort, instead they will put the apprenticeship of the high school knights in a row"

"The apprenticeship of the lower grade knights is an escort in the dorms, I can not come in, but do not neglect watch alone!"

"The side that can touch Schwarzs and the Weiss and has some ability to fight ... ...."

In order to reduce the escort target to the least extent, the party heading for the library in a hurry will be reviewed. The sidewalk was attached only with Richarda who can carry me, Schwarz and Vice, and others were to be staying.

"Well, let's go!"

"please wait!"

Hurry Cornelius elder brother. I looked around everyone who watched what happened.

"Everyone kneel, I will grant the protection of the mighty Angry Five."

Although the Knights have given a couple of times of protection, the apprentices seems to have not understood the meaning I am saying. I'm tilting my neck.

Angelica who was at the beginning of the rank came immediately to the center where I was and kneeling, I gently drooped my head.

"Thank you, Rosemain sama"

Looking at the state of Angelica, Brother Cornelius, my escort knight, Wielfried's escort knight is kneeling steadily. Because I was forming a formation mainly around me, my surroundings were surrounded by kneeling knights apprentice.

I put magical power on my right hand and I put out Stapp which is most easy to handle with my magical power. Hold the right hand and put magical power in as usual.

"May God bless the angel of the army of whom the Leiden Shaft of God of fire belongs to everyone."

The blue light is released from the staple and it pours down to everyone. Just like seeing blessings for the first time, the knights apprentices were blinking.

Chapter 307: Conflict between Black Foot and Weiss

"Because I gave blessings, you should be able to fight easier than usual, but from here you should never set up a battlefield. We only protect Schwarz and Vice entrusted to Mr. Sorangju of the library. Ehrenfest is only protecting the entrusted fellows, not fighting to fight. "Are you sure?"

The fact that we do not put out hands from here is important when we later excuse excuses. As my surroundings nods in my words, the angelica and the shoulder of the traogot who were about to jump out quickly come down.

"Rosemain, is it OK if I can attack you?"

"It is forbidden to jump out arbitrarily, it is the primary objective to protect Schwarz and the Weiss and return it safely to the library, so if it can not do it ... .. it is scolded by Mr. Bonifatius, incompetence that could not keep what we should protect Think of it as acting and asking for it. "

"Wow ... .. I got it to you"

I heard that my grandfather trained the escort knight who could not protect the escort subject thoroughly for the two years I was asleep. It was probably being scolded on a daily basis, the moment when I got his name, Angelica and Traugot tightened facial expressions.

"Hime-sama, I do not get it"

"Marikaku"

"... Well ... I should have poured it a little,"

When I remembered my actions, I felt stroked, Black Forest and Weiss stroked my belly.

"Different."

"Mamoru, fighting"

I stroked the best button as I said, and poured magical power on each button. The magic team that was sewn into the best emerged one after another and disappeared.

"I'm getting stuck"

"Princess, Mamoru"

.....Huh?

It is extremely confusing when told to protect me. It is the treasure treasure of Schwarz and Weiss that we must protect.

"Let's go ahead, do not be alarmed"

I got out of the dormitory with everyone standing up to the point where I could start the Stap at any time. To be able to negotiate when facing the enemy, it is a senior aristocrat, with Cornelius older brother somewhat faster in head rotation and Leonore headed. Angelica and Traugot are likely to jump out and it is near me near the center. Surrounded by apprentices who have been nervous around the circumference, I walk with Blackberts and Vice and hands connected.

"It is like a treasure steal ditters, while keeping Schwarz and the Weiss, go into the library, not defeating the enemy, but defend it, please do not misunderstand it"

There is no such thing as an attack. With that thought, I passed through the central part of the main building with auditorium. It turns to the south and goes to the corridor heading for the library. As soon as I saw many colors of cloaks.

..... It is not one territory! Is it?

Four cloaks cling. Approximately 100 people seem to be entering Ehrenfest without thirty people. The color of the cloak that is in the forefront is blue, Dunkel Ferger. In addition to having multiple opponents waiting, I narrowed my eyes to the fact that the large territory came out, and I will emphasize the hand that holds tightly Schwarz and Vice.

Brother Cornelius stopped his feet a while at a distance and left a step ahead.

"Dear Lusty Lout, what kind of intention do you close the corridor?"

It is the restraint of the lord candidate who is petrified somewhat behind. I am doing a physique that a knight apprentice seems to suit you rather than a lord of a lord. Restraint only narrows his eyes to look away from him, and he does not answer anything.

Instead, it was the people of the small and medium squirrels that are behind Dunkel Ferger who raised their voices.

"What you want to ask is here!"

"What a disgraceful attempt to make magical tools left by the royalty of the past mine!"

"Take back those big Sumils from Ehrenfest!"

For me, they are bad guys trying to steal Blackbert and Weiss, but for them they seem to be the bad guys who robbed the royal magical tool.

When seeing the knight apprentice of Ehrenfest who was slightly upset with the size of the voice and the other's words, Restzurau raised the end of his lips.

"That's right, that is a relic of the old royalty, the property of the library of the House of Lords, possessed by the lord of the thirteenth rank, is not a good thing to take away from the library and take away! Royal witchcraft Take back! "

Oh! And before the numerous enemies who raise voice, I found out that the knight apprentice at Ehrenfest was frightened. As a cheek I raise an objection.

"I am disrespectful! I have not taken away! I am the Lord of Schwarz and Weiss from the process, but today I took my dormitory to fulfill my duty. We do! "

The momentum of the opponent was cut at the moment when I said that I had permission to bring it out of the library.

"Do you have permission?"

"You have not robbed us?"

Although the number of people is large, the other party seems to be unable to share information properly. It seems that the small-fashioned territory where the Ehrenfest was to be hit, along with the justified name that Dunkel Ferger, a large territory, would hit. Because I am frightened if there is no justification, it is a lower rank than Ehrenfest.

Restraint broke his hands as if spreading the bow and cloak so as to eliminate the upsets that ran to the ally.

"Despite being a property of the royal family, it is nothing to be arrogant in itself to become the Lord, even if it is possessed by the royal family, I took him to the Ehrenfest dormitory !? Hirschle leaves our lecture and is enthusiastic Even though thinking about it, the danger of the magic tool being broken down and being destroyed should have been very high. Even by exposing it to such a danger, one who is short of sense of crisis is largely disqualified ! "

..... Mr. Hill Sur!

Apparently, it seems that I took an afternoon lecture. Restraint is inclined to include it too. It is perfectly brilliant.

"If Ehrenfest of 13th can be the predominant, the better Dunkel Ferger is mostly suitable, admit obediently to the change of the Lord and pass on Schmir, then steal the royal magical tool I will not let you appeal that I took it, you do not want to be charged with treason. "

I misunderstood that the knights apprentices around me are "rebellion". I can not hesitate to see their eyes. It is too severe as a nobleman to be sued as royal treacherous crime.

"Well, I'm in trouble to be charged with treason, and if I'm dealing with Schwarz and Vice correctly, I do not care about transferring anything."

As I say so, I will see Restylau.

If there was a librarian of a senior aristocrat, I did not become a Lord. Originally the best thing is for a librarian to be a librarian who works in a library.

"Rosemain Mr."

I shake the neck wieldingly and shout at Angelica 's voice to blame, and I look at Restillaut.

Schwarz and Weiss are equipment of the library, a magic tool for help. In the place where it became main, it can not be used for your own convenience just by giving magical power.

I think that if you have a member of a self-descriptive library committee who will give you magical power for the library more than me and help Sorangju, I can give up on the position of the Lord altogether. I have to go back to Ehrenfest at the dedication ceremony, so it is encouraging that there is someone to trust.

However, the man who stands in front is clearly a muscular physical education system, it does not look like a type that he wants to be a very self-describing book committee member.

"If you transfer Schwarz and Vice, there is something you have to ask. What do you do as the Lord?"

"What is ... .., what is it?"

Restraint bows the eyebrows as if you do not know the intent of the question.

"If you have difficulty in answering, let's change the question. How many times do you go to the library in the week? Please describe the frequency with which you visited the library so far and the number of books you borrowed"

"There is no such thing as a candidate lords going to the library. The book is borrowed to order an apprentice of the civilization. What on the other is said?

I will not go to the library. At that time it was disqualified as the Lord of Schwarz and Weiss. It can not be entrusted to Restistau.

I shake my head and refuse the offer of Lestilout.

"You are disqualified principally of Schwarzs and Weiss, and those who do not go to the library can not be the Lord of Schwarz and Weiss."

"What is disqualification? What is selfish ... .."

Schwarz and Weiss need the magical power of the Lord. It is better to visit once in a few days, and if you can not carry it, you need to pour much magical power so that Sorange will not be troubled during that period.

You can not serve as the Lord for those who never go to the library.

"We are in the process of returning the custody of Schwarz and Vice to the library. I have an obligation to mainly protect Schwarz and Vice. It deprives those who do not use library magic tools for libraries You will not be disturbed and you will be questioned by treason that will try to rob us of us! "

"Do not make a cheeky mouth!"

I shout at a barking restless outrage.

"I will protect Schwarzs and Weiss and eventually the Library of the House of Lords! Even if it is said that it is cheeky, even if the opponent is a candidate for a lord of the large territory, forgiveness is imposed on those who intend to deprive Schwarz and Vice from the library I will not!"

In my words, apprentices of Knights of Ehrenfest glare at the group with eyes that set enemies.

Even though there was a big difference in the number of people, even though there was a large gap in the rankings, they showed a posture that did not yield, so that the hostages of small and medium-sized territory were upset and began opportunistic.

"Which one is wrong with this, do not you understand?"

"I am sorry for being charged with treason."

"Let's ask the prince to make an arbitrage"

Lots of small and medium-sized people will leave as they complied. It is only Dunkel Ferger 's blue cloak that blocks the way to the library without destroying hostile intentions.

"Please leave that place, I will return Schwarz and Vice to the library"

"I will not go through. The Lord of it is I. Before you feel painful, give over"

As I said so, Restistau took out Stap and changed it into a sword shape. Looking at it, the knights of the Ehrenfest apprentices also keep Stap at once.

"The Lord of Schwarz and Weiss will not serve you as we refuse."

"Capture Sumiru with a cheeky little one!"

When Bun and Lestilau sway the staple, a mass of magical power comes up. Brother Cornelius advocated "Gettiel", produced a shield and instantly repelled.

"Angelica, traogot, leave the way to two people! The others keep a shield and go to the library while preventing the attack!"

"Ha!"

At the moment that I left the way to the two people with lots of blood, Angelica grabbed the monster Stin rook and jumped out. The traumigot also follows it with a joyful look.

Angelica who is using body strengthening is a light movement, jumping over the knights of apprentices of Ehrenfest who holds a shield, and jumped to the beginning.

"This is awesome!" Let's go, St. Luke! "

A large amount of magical power is hidden in Stin Luke who has greatly expanded the blade. Angelica wielded the devil Stuart Luke and beat the enemy quickly.

To be honest, I can not see it well. I understand that Angelica is moving with Steinruk, but I can not understand what he is doing. Unlike Angelica I know, it seems that my body was strengthened. Angelica's movements are obviously faster than the surrounding enemies.

"Princess, I will excuse you"

When Richard, with his knees in front, lifted me up, Schwarz and Vice, as they held hands, hit the back of Richarda and swayed in a swinging manner.

"Please be careful not to let go of the princess, Black Forest and Vice"

"Yes!"

When the knights apprentices centering on Richarda began running for the purpose of breakthrough in the center, the enemies who changed the Stap to a bow fired at the same time toward here. Arrow of light comes down. It was an amount that can not be prevented only by the shields the knights set up.

Bread! Sounds like something can be played, at the same time, the opponent who shot the bow collapses on the spot.

"What, what's up !?"

"Princess, Mamoru"

"I will return it to my future"

The golden eyes of Schwartz and Weiss shaking on the back of Ricarda shine with magical power, and the buttons of clothes also shine.

"Great?"

"Princess, praise"

"I want to compliment, but I will not go away now, so please wait until the library"

..... Defense of Schwarz and Weiss is amazing.

Perhaps it can cope with multiple enemies at once, it may be more amazing than the amulet of the priest. The chief priest had told me to wear more amulets so that we could cope with multiple enemies.

... Well, is it the same as Schwartz and Weiss wearing multiple amulets?

I remembered that there were several buttons of manastones, I nodded one.

"Is it the defense of royalty relics?"

"I'm out of now, to the library!"

While going into a mixed war state, we head for the library. When the door began to look closer, a big sound came down from overhead.

"Stop it! Both sides hold weapons!"

I saw Anastasiusus and his aides aboard the cowgirl, and those in the small and medium-sized provinces that probably informed.

Everyone gains kneeling weapons all together at the appearance of the royal family. Before the door to the library, I was knocked down as well.

"I heard that a riot is occurring at the aristocratic hospital, but what on earth is he making?"

I assert that while Lestyraut hangs his head, to a cranky voice of Anastasis.

Eleenfest stole the magical tool which is a relic relic and should be placed in the library. It was about to get it back.

"Relics of the royal family? ..... That schmir? Ehrenfest, is there no objection?"

"There"

This is taken out with the permission of Soranju to fulfill the principal obligation of Schwarz and Weiss. Even though I have to return it to the library, there are those who try to rob him. It was that he protected the royal magician.

"Dunkel Ferger, Ehrenfest, call the dormitories of both parties and listen in a small hall for details"

"Prince Anastigius, excuse me, may I return Schwarz and Vice to the library before heading to the small hall? They are from the library"

Whatever the discussion after this, if you send Schwarz and Weiss safely to the library, I can win.

"It is reasonable to return library magic tools to the library, please return it."

"I am sorry"

I accompanied Black Forest and Weiss, and entered the library with Richarda and the escort knight.

"Sorangju sensei, I came to return Black Weather and Weiss"

"Well, Rosemain-sama, I was quick."

"Because I am called by Prince Anastigius, I must go at once, I will excuse you."

Give me power by stroking the forehead "Thank you for protecting me" forehead of Schwarz and Weiss. Although I devoted magical power even during lunch, it has decreased a lot. Perhaps he used magical powers to protect it.

Safely returned Schwarz and Vice, I left the library and sigh. Since what I have to do is over, I honestly do not want to go and talk later.

"Princess, you must not be such a tired face, your opponent is a candidate for a lord of the large territory. If you care and put your eyes on each other, you will be there as expected."

"..... Even if it is said to be what I expected, I do not quite understand what he meant for Schwarz and Vice, thinking of what he was thinking."

As I sigh while sighing, Richarda and other people began to be surprised that everyone was "I do not understand!"

"It was not touched without an admission and forgiveness of the Lord, the Lord's approval was necessary for the transfer, and the Lord of the freshmen who is the thirteenth place of the magical tool which can not be taken out from the library became a lord of the freshmen."

"Is it unusual for me to want to become the Lord if I can do it?"

"... .. Are there so many people who would like to cooperate for the library?"

When I thought that it was reliable, I denied denying that my surroundings were "different" shaking their heads.

"It is wrong! To be recognized primarily as a royal magical tool is to be entrusted with the administration of the relics' relics, it is an honor."

"It is thought that royal remembrance will be reworked"

I can not afford to give up the Lord for that reason.

"Princess, please give us your words after thinking carefully that there is a deep groove in your perception"

".....Yes"

When we arrived at the small hall, blue cloaks were kneeling side by side in front of Anastasius. And Ruffen is standing next to Anastigius. Apparently it seems that Dunkel Ferger 's dorms supervisor was Ruffen. When it sorted side by side, it was a combination that was very nice.

When we were kneeling in front of the prince in the same way, we came in with a troubled face that Anastasezu 's aides seemed to have been flying Ordonants.

"Hirschle teacher seems to be unable to come because research is busy right now"

"Ehrenfest seems to have been abandoned by the dormitory supervisor"

Restzurau rang with Hun and a nose and said so. I am stupid, but I do not get angry. Because it is a fact. We have to look down and shoulder our shoulders.

"..... Hirschle teacher is unlikely to see himself in the dormitory, so this is normal in Ehrenfest."

"what!?"

"It might be good if there is another dormitory office,"

It may be better for students to have a more serious dormitory supervisor. When I murmured, Anastasis shook his head lightly.

"If you wish to change the dormitories, put the right persons in the center and you can not replace because there is no personnel who can become a central official from Ehrenfest."

"... I think that Mr. Hirschle will serve as a dormitor for a while for a while"

The talent shortage of Ehrenfest is serious. The owner of the ability to be able to go to the center, rather, I would like to use it in Ehrenfest.

"But it is a problem for the dormitory supervisor not to come in. Rosemain, why can not you call it?"

"If you want to call, you can call Richarda, Ordonants."

Richarda will give Ordonants. I spoke to Aldanants that Richarda made.

"Mr. Hill Sur, Rosemain, please come in a small hall in a hurry and if you do not have a dormitory supervisor, you will move the Lord of Schwarz and Weiss to another territory and you will not be able to continue your research."

When I saw Richarda flying Aldanants, I smiled at Anastasiusus, "I think it will fly soon".

"We arrived at the Eleenfest Dorms Supervisor, did you have anything?"

Perhaps it was flying with a beast. As I expected, Hill Sur revealed in the small hall and surprised comment from the students came up, "Hirschle's teacher voluntarily came out of the laboratory!"

"... .. Let's listen to the magician that is the starting point of this uproar. Rosemain, why is it the main? It surely was a magical tool that can not be touched without the Lord. It became "

"There is only a word and there is no word, please do not hesitate to Sorangju for details. You can trust me more than my words."

If you pray to God for joy of library registration, you can not believe that magical power is blessed and you can believe that Schwarz and Vice started to move. It seems to be said that "Do not say anything suitable" to Restistau.

"Hmm, that's true."

"Prince Anastigius, Ehrenfest took the royal magician into the dormitory and tried to make it ours."

Anastusgeus lightly raises one eyebrow to the words of Restistau. I seemed to say that Gray's eyes explain, I nodded lightly.

"I do not intend to make Black Forest and Weiss our own objects, and if there is a suitable person, we will give over to the seat of the Lord immediately"

"Do not lie!"

"Restraint, shut up. I am listening to Rosemain's opinion now."

Anastigeus shakes lightly and silences Restrainau. Because it is a big opportunity, I raised my face and asked for the existence of a new Lord in Anastasiusus.

"Prince Anastigius, returning the senior aristocrat who can become the Lord of Schwarzz and Weiss to the librarian, could not be the Lord with Mr. Sorangju, an intermediate aristocrat. It is hard to do the job of the library by yourself, I am only cooperating as a temporary principal, please dispatch personnel from the center, I think that is the most correct way of doing it. "

In my words that he wanted to give the seat of the Lord to the librarian dispatched from the center, Anastigius nodded with a complex expression.

"..... That's right, although the terms are okay, but it is difficult to do so at once, if there is a temporary lord and the magician moves without deficiency, is not it good?"

It seems there is a reason for not being able to return the librarian soon. When saying that Anastasiusus may be in this state, the restylut came out long ago.

"If you are Prince Anastigius, please do not hesitate to tell me the temporary lord, I think that I am better than Ehrenfest, 13th."

"It is not necessary for Schwarz and Vice such as the Lord who does not reach the library, at least it is not good unless it is a person who can go to the library once in three days"

When I was staring at the Lestirauut, Ruffen suggested towards Anastasius with a hot smile that seems refreshing at first sight.

"How about choosing the right Lord with Ditta, Prince Anastigius"

Ruffen began to speak enthusiastically about the usefulness of determining the Lord with a Ditta.

If there is no power to protect the magical tool which is the relic relic, it will not be left to Ehrenfest. Dunkel Ferger shows his ability when he can win against Ehrenfest, and it is fine to take over the seat of the Lord.

"Is not it advantageous for Dunkel Ferger who is always winning?"

"So we only protect Ehrenfest, there is no need to attack here."

It is not necessary to attack Dunkel Ferger, he says, just to protect it is right. I do not know if that is really the right setting of difficulty.

"It is certainly not a problem for Ehren Fest to have no power to protect ... .. It will be a good idea to do a doctor at a stadium in the expert building of a knight apprentice and decide the wizard of the magical tool by the winner"

Once Anastasium decides, we have no choice but to obey. I stand up to head to the stadium.

"Hun, we had defenders of magical tools a while ago, but this time not, do not think we can win"

Resistraut mutters as he goes through. I looked down at the eyes that looked downstairs quietly.

"Rosemain, definitely do not defeat"

Hill suru lifted his eyes and grasped my shoulder in desperate fashion. It is too honest about important research subjects to mention. The brain must have thought of only the magic team of Schwartz and Weiss.

"..... I will not lose, I do not have anything to do with those who are not considering the library, such as Schwarz and Vice."

Besides, if it is an amulet of witchcraft, I have a lot of fault with Schwarz and Weiss, right?

Chapter 308: Treasure stealer Ditters Part 1

---

Move to the special building of the knight apprentice. In the meantime, he seemed to have thought of various things. Ruffen raised his face as if he did it.

"Well, this time I will compete with treasure steal ditters! Recently I just compete for speed, I'm very excited because I do not have treasure trouble, so when I was young teacher ..."

Ruffen seems to be very tense, but it is not about trying to win Dunkel Ferger but just looking like just wanting to do a purely dittered.

Even if it seems to have not thought at first glance though it seems to be a dormitorial supervisor of the large territory, is there a doubt reserved? Or perhaps you do not think that Dankel Ferger loses at all?

Hill surged lightly on my misunderstanding.

"Ruffen is probably wondering how to want a ditter with Ferdinand-san's disciple Rosemain, and I was surprised by the weakness between the back, but if it is a treasure stealer, you see the skill of the soldier I think that I would like to confirm whether Ehrenfest will pose a threat or not in this year's competition against the territory. "

It seems that Ruffen is burning a great enthusiasm for the victory of Ditter in opposition to the territory. That seems to be wary of me who is supposed to be the disciple of the priest who is making the legend.

"Dr. Ruffen's thought sounds like it has nothing to do with this case?"

"Whether or not Lestylart will become the Lord of the magician of the library is not particularly important to Ruffen, so it is more important to explore the strength of Ehrenfest ... Although there are several people, There are students who are not extraordinary in growth, and every teacher is spectacular about the growth of the results of the lecture this year. "

I see a glimpse of the glance I have a pain in my eyes. I hung on bait a bit and pushed my back, but with regard to the results of lecture, it is their respective efforts. I have nothing to do with it.

Than such a thing, after Ehrenfest wins, the appearance of Ruffen applying for a rematch with the eyes shining vividly makes me feel refreshed and thoughtful.

"If you win this match, Professor Ruffen is going to be very troublesome, but is it okay if I can win?"

"What are you talking about, Rosemain-sama! If you do not win, Blacks and Weiss have been taken by Lestylart!"

..... Hirschur is also getting hot as research is also taking place.

It is good to win but it is better to win than I can not stand out. Knights that blessed only knights should do something, but knights who have never made a strategy like a strategy yet. Will you be able to win such a game as aiming to reverse the opponent like treasure stealing Ditter?

..... Does your opponent behind the game? It is certainly a game that the president is proud of.

Whether there was not any reference in the reference book about the guard officer's soldier, I desperately seek out memory. I arrived at the stadium at the time.

..... Broad!

It was a circular training ground that was supposed to fly over cavalry and it seemed like the baseball field of the Rei period. The sky covered with gray clouds with a flickering snow looks big, so it looks like an outdoor stadium but I can not feel the wind or snow at all. It looks like there is a transparent roof.

The place where I am standing right from the corridor that follows from the main building seems to be a place to watch. It is speculated that the watching parts surrounding the surroundings are not stair-shaped and are not oblique. This is hard to watch. Therefore, it can not be concluded that it is a watching place.

The part to do the competition was lower than Gakun less than the part I am walking. I can see some large circles drawn in it.

Ruffen stops at the watching part and looks back with a lively look. I looked around the knights of apprentices of Dunkel Verger and Ehrenfest and opened their mouths.

"I will explain the treasure thief Ditters, as it is different from the ditters I train all the time, so be careful"

Then it was an explanation about treasure steal Ditter.

First of all, we will hunt ourselves treasure monsters. The monsters weaken to a certain extent so that they do not get done, but we must leave the energies to the extent that they can not be stolen.

If you kill your opponent's demon during the game, it will be a defeat, so the power to the demon will also be a big winner in the treasure stealer.

Put the monster treasured in a determined range with their team. And, while intercepting and defending the enemies who aim at treasure, at the same time, attack to the enemy area, you have to defeat the enemy's demon or steal it.

"We will decide the number of people to attend, we will adapt to the lesser number, but how many are Ehrenfest?"

"25 people"

Cornelius brother replied so immediately. Ruffen nods and instructs to match the number of people of Dunkel Ferger to 25 people.

"If you declare the number of people who can participate, I think that Earnenfest is disadvantageous at the time of appointment, as Dunkel Felger who has many people can select accordingly."

Brother Cornelius shrugged his shoulders in my misunderstanding.

"The method of selecting people is the same also in competition against the territory, so it is not easy to win the small territory with few people, but it is also out of ability to arrange the talent, but the knight apprenticeship that was not chosen as a player in the large territory , While I'm in the House of Lords, there has been no showroom so I can not say which is better. "

Activities and achievements in competition against the territory, as well as usual results, have a major influence on pull out to the center and assignments since adulthood. It seems that it is very troubling that there is no point of view.

"Then, we decide the position, the original treasure stealer Ditters are around each dormitory, but this time it will be good to divide themselves into this stadium right now. The range that calls the 2nd and 4th demons is Let's put the monster treasure as well there. "

In the stadium there are several large drawn lines for making monsters appear at the time of regular training, and Ruffen said, pointing at the end and end circles.

That big circle has become a magic team, it seems that you can stop demons within range. It seems that you can not do things like going out without permission if you let the monster hunted once touch that group.

"In this treasure stealer Ditta set a time limit, if you take away the evil spirit of Ehrenfest's defense or take it away in time, Dunkel Ferger's victory, on the contrary, I will defend Dunkel Ferger's demon, If you take it, it will be the victory of Ehrenfest. Naturally, if we defeat demons they are defeated. "

If you devise a demon you become a manastone. It seems that winning and losing will be decided at that time. To take away is to bring demons from enemy teams to their own team without making them a magic stone, but there is no one who does such a troublesome thing.

"What's your question?"

"Yes!"

I raised my hands and hands.

"Is it good to use manastones and magic tools during the ditters competition? For example, making a barrier with manastones ... .."

"In fact it is natural to use magical tools in the treasure thieves ditters against the former dormitories who had been using all the premises' premises. If you prolong or injure you must use recovery medicine Kana

"I understand. Thank you."

..... The chief priest, I guess it was probably hiding in various ways.

Ruffen lifted his face as I noticed something when I gently hold down the bag of leather that stuck to my waist and confirmed with the touch that the restorative drug and the manastone were contained.

"... Well, wait ... Are you planning to join !? No knight apprentice, a candidate for a freshmen's lord!

Like Ruffen, they seemed to have thought that I would not participate in Ehrenfest's knight apprentices at all. "Since it is dangerous, please stop it!" "Please observe quietly!" "It is our job to fight!"

"This is a battle to determine the Lord of Schwarz and Weiss, is not it natural that I will participate?"

"That spirit and goodness, please join the rest!"

The restraint that seems to be in the mood feeling is pulled out by the voice of Ruffen. I was stared at a terribly disgusting face.

"Then, if the next bell rings, start a game, so that both sides should plan their strategies until then."

"Ha!"

The circle in front is the team of Ehrenfest, the circle at the end is decided as the team of Dunkel Ferger. Those of Dunkel Ferger get on the cud beast and fly to their team. After sending it off, I decided to start a strategy meeting while being scolded by Cornelius elder brother "I am too reckless to participate."

A treasure stealer who must start from hunting demons must begin with the selection of which demons to make their treasure.

With a demon that is too weak, the opponent gets struck by the opponent in no time. However, it is hard for them to catch them if they are strong monsters, and the ally you must defend will be attacked.

"But please, hunt this demon that is not so strong this time"

"To what extent is it not so strong?"

Leonore tipped his head. Definition of strength is certainly difficult. I will explain as much as possible about the demons that I need.

"You can leave it alone if you bind it with a band of light of Stapp, but the demon which is not dead just by binding and leaving it is good. I thank you for being a demon that is not too big."

"Why? Then, like a Dunkel Ferger, it's easy for strong opponents!"

I wrongly denied against the trouble of Traugot by lightly waving her hand.

"It's okay, I will bind up and put it in my cud beast, so I can not easily take it."

Because my cud beast is filled with my magical power, there is something the priesthood president told me is safe as long as he is in a cow beast. Even if the Lesser bus is attacked, it seems that if the magical power of the attacking party does not exceed my magical power, it will not break. I think that there are few knight apprentices who can win with magical power to me who are still lords, still being compressed.

As I told the story, the knights apprentices were stunned.

"What is it ...?"

"Is not it cowardly to put a place where you can not handle it at all?"

"Why? It has been said that we must put demons in our team, but it is not told that our teams should not use cow animals."

"Because Ditt fights with a cowgirl, is not it natural?"

Yes, in Dittor, it is natural that you are riding a beast. There is no reason to be complaining about where he placed treasure in the croak.

"I ride a cowgirl and I am just at my team, even if there are monsters on board together, are there any problems if I do not leave the team?"

I gave a brief sigh to the stupid apprenticeship of the knight.

"What problem are there in protecting the treasure perfectly? It is good to protect the monster without killing it, and maybe the opponent may use the same hand?"

"I definitely will not, I do not think putting a coward to move as a demonic repository, normal."

Before that, it is impossible, as the knight apprentice does not have a type of riding type beast.

"Everyone said that they can not do anything, but when you put the treasure on the Lesser Bus, there is no way to have a strategy at all, because it's not normal, I just can not imagine it."

"Huh?"

Looking around the blinking knights apprentices, I grudged my shoulders. I have to tell this weakness and keep it protected properly. I will give you a hint.

"Do you remember the victory conditions, Angelica?"

"You can defend themselves within the time, beat the enemy's monsters ... were there any other?"

Brother Cornelius raised his face as if I was relieved.

"Do you mean that there is a possibility that you will be robbed of treasure for each cavalry?"

"It is not because there is no possibility that I can be deprived of every beast like me when I was scolded two years ago, because it is a non-ordinary way, I do not know if it will come up immediately or not."

"..... Rosemain-sama's danger is dangerous if the other party comes up."

Cornelius elder brother seemed to be in pain.

"If you are in a lesser bus just by winning and losing, there is no danger on my own, because I was not scared unless I tried to get out of the lender bus that I lay on the side even then."

"Still, I do not want to risk Rosemain again."

I spirited lightly to my brother Cornelius.

"Fighting the other party's is tactics. The only fighting from the front is not a battle. With Dunkel Ferger there is a difference in fighting power at the time of the selection, so do the other side of the opponent steadily to fill the difference. Use what you can use regardless of yourself or your benefactor, trade back, trap, get your opponent and get the best results for you. While just breaking through the front of the force push, I do not get calculated Ferdinand-like computed high belly ... .. Please wait a bit ... I feel like I do not have to get on with it. "

If people like priests increase to the surroundings, I feel like I will be in trouble. When I stopped in a hurry, Brother Cornelius smiled small and said, "When I heard about this planning, Rosemain felt most influenced by Mr. Ferdinand." And the surrounding knights apprentices gather together and nod.

.....Huh? Am I so obscene?

"In other words, if you summarize Rosemain's opinion, is it ok to move treasures as safely as possible in this disaster and take a thorough defense?"

"I think that basic is good"

Since you can win if you defend your defenses, it is the original way to devote yourself to defense. Also, as the apprenticeship of the Knights of Ehrenfest seems to have been just about how to defeat the monsters as thrusting in, it seems just good to be able to practice defense.

"You have not trained to keep defense for only a while, which is competing for speed for a while, but if you become an escort knight, you must be able to fight the defense."

Attack looks to angelica and tragot which embodies the greatest defense.

"When I looked at the result of my previous result, Dunkel Ferger is good at defeating the enemy with a great coordination, probably placing more emphasis on the attack on the speed competition. Especially as we win, we win, so we think that over there will be desperate to break defense. "

"I agree"

"Because the remaining time is decreasing and emphasis on attacks, we will aim at where the opponent's defense is sweet, so please keep defending for a while."

While most of the knights apprentices nodded, Traegot cried out as if he could not bear it.

"It's not a doctor to be totally defensive."

"Traugot?"

"Rosemain, I want to battle with all of the power and fight!"

It seems that the traumatic battle to defend against can not stand patience on traumigots who have attacked demons and compete with the speed of defeating themselves. As it changes suddenly the way it is, it may be better to prepare a viable place.

"... .... If you can endure for a while, I will make a place where I can drive with all my strength."

"Mr. Rosemain, please make it for me too! I also want to devote himself to demons with full power!"

At the moment when I forgave the traumigot, Angelica makes her eyes shine, too.

"I understand ... I will prepare it for Angelica ... .. I will ask Cornelius to assist the two of you."

"... .. I got it to you"

Looking at the two of whom Cornelius brothers are stuck out, it becomes a smart face. There are only Cornelius elder brothers who can take them back to their own teams when they jump out as they will not come back.

"In order to make a crowd ... .. I need someone who is good at throwing ... Is there anyone who can throw objects like stones or short spears towards the enemy team?"

"Yes! I'm good at it, can you please show me what?"

Yudit cheerfully raised his hand when he was good at throwing with a sling. I will lightly nod and decide to adopt Yudit.

"Let's ask Yudit, please be with Yudit and the beast,"

"Yes!"

"It is important to endure for a while because we can win if we can protect the treasure this time, thinking that it is a practice of defense, please think about thinking of preventing opponent's attack ... .. and Even if you only have a shield, you do not have to defend your opponent's attack by reducing the number of enemies with weapons. The essential point is not to disturb the battle line, to go to the enemy land by yourself without permission Do not jump out, please cooperate and fight. "

"Ha!"

By the time we divided the person who goes hunting the demon and the one who remains in the camp, the 5 bell rang. It's the beginning of hunting.

At the same time as the bell rang, the knights hunting monsters from the teams of Ehrenfest and Dunkel Ferger also jumped out of the cowgirl and jumped out. I am an answering machine with Yudit and Leonore.

"Do you think that Rosemain can win Dunkel Ferger?"

Léonore muttered while looking up at the unanimous appearance of the flying beasts.

"I am going to win, do you think that Leonore will lose?"

"... I have never won Dunkel Ferger, so I do not think I can win very much."

"I have never won the ditters who compete for speed because this is a treasure stealer and the opponent is unfamiliar, so I have a win."

In the worst case, I believe that I can win with my trekking with my treasure by earning time with the shield of Schugheria. I am not going to lose. Just want to pretend not to be your own power as much as possible, but to win by the powers of the knights.

"After finishing the hunt, putting the demons in the team, it is the beginning of the competition, how long will it take to hunt demons?"

"Rosemain, the competition has already begun. The previous bell, that is a signal to start, it is already in the competition"

In my question, Yudit shook his head with a laugh.

I was surprised at the answer, I looked around the stadium. You can see several other Knight apprentices and restylots at Dunkel Ferger 's team, but I have not done anything in particular. It is only waiting for the knights to hunt the demons and come back.

"..... If the ditters have already begun, why do not you attack the opponent's team?"

"What if you attack the opponent's team without treasure?"

"Is not it possible to intercept enemies returning by hunting monsters?"

Because they come back with monsters, they have dangerous luggage and they are getting exhausted. Besides, if you are returning to your team, I think that it is easy to defeat because it is out of hand.

"Rosemain, then it will end before competition-like competition starts!"

"Yudith, what are you talking about, have you started already ditters?"

"Well, it was a blind spot."

Leonore blinks several times. Until now, the teacher waited for preparing demons, then there was a signal to start, and we trained only the doctor to attack the demons. Since treasure stealer Ditter included in the competition from preparing monsters never experienced knight apprentices, he did not notice, Leonore says.

"In the reference book on Eckhardt-san Ditter's tactics borrowed from Cornelius, there was a description about the warning method while doing monster hunting, that is, there are obstacles when hunting demons or taking them back to the team. It is normal for treasure stealing Ditters, we just do not know. "

While Yudit is heading head to head, Leonore starts thinking about the attack on the enemy line I said earlier.

"Mr. Rosemain, let's rework the strategy, if you hunt demons and everyone returns, will not you attack the enemy line?"

"... If possible, I'd like to attack the enemy team first, but if the knights who went to demon hunting went back while they were attacking, they would be in trouble if they caught a pinch."

"The strength is down here, even if the number of people left is small, it is a complete lineup."

Since it is not known how long it will take Dunkel Ferguer to hunt monsters, it is a little risky to attack enemy positions after everyone comes back.

Rather than attack enemy battle, let's hit Dunkel Ferger returning by hunting monsters with total power, if you can defeat demons on the spot, there is victory. "

Rather than attacking a position in a state where there is no treasure that will be a victory condition with a risk, the success rate will be higher if you surrender the exhausted knights who have brought demons and come back.

"What if it can not be defeated, what happens?"

Leonore shrugged his shoulders lightly with anxious Yudit.

"There is nothing wrong, it will only be a battle that will strictly defend as planned."

As we decided to treasure monsters that were not as strong as treasure, it was obvious that Knights of Ehrenfest came back earlier.

When it comes back, it is already a winding spiral in the band of light of Stapp, a cat-like monster called Feltze which is one of the top species of Zanze.

"Is not that a small demon okay with treasure? Is not it even though the aftermath of magical power will die?"

While watching the knights apprentices remaining in the team of Dunkel Ferger laughing, I issued my coward.

Have the giant monster throw in the rear seat of the family car size Lesser bus and close the door.

..... OK with this!

"What, what is that!?"

"Is that a rumor beast !?"

I caught a glance at the enemy team where the upsurge runs and looked around his own knights who had a naught expression.

"I changed the strategy, I will surprise the raid at full power where Dunkel Ferger catches demons and comes back."

Following my words, Leonore tells us that his head is solid with the way he talks about the story and the speed of description written in his brother Eckhardt's book, and he is not able to fight Treasure Ditters.

"Is it all right?"

"You do not mind being knocked down, but do not make a surprise attack because the opponent will not be dispersed, move from this place like this to surprise the enemy team with a knockout feeling. It is to ensure safety and make it possible to return immediately if it fails in surprise. "

It is also possible to attack the team during the surprise, so some defense is necessary. I divided a person who is going to attack and a person who remains in defense. Then, we changed Stap to each weapon, pretended to be on crouched alert, and prepared for offense.

Brother Cornelius puts a nail in an exciting traumgot.

"There is a possibility that Dunkel Ferger will not be caught casually, so be sure not to give up."

"know"

"Follow the directions of Angelica, Traugotto, Cornelius and always return, when you are told to return to the team, returning immediately, because there are no places for such activities to those who can not keep it."

While looking at angelica and traagot while saying so, they looked at each other and nodded naked.

I guess he has been hunting for a monster of the theory street with a treasure steal Ditter. It is far apart that the big monsters struggle with stupidity in the glowing net.

"It is not yet.

Dunkel Felger gradually lowered its altitude, and the enemy team heard a voice of joy in the size of the demon that came back.

"Schneefert! Well done! It's perfect!"

The monster called Schnefert hunted by Dunkel Ferger is said to be the most manageable demon in treasure stealer Ditter. It is said that it has a hard skin resisting enemy attack and is a relatively quiet monster. To the end, it is comparatively. From my point of view it's a bit smaller and a hippopotamus hipper.

"Everyone, are you coming down? We are in trouble attacking from behind."

"All right."

Angelica who strengthened his eyes counted the number of knights and nodded.

"Now!"

Chapter 309: Treasure stealer Ditters Part 2

---

An ambushing unit began attacking with Angelica and Elder Cornelius who remembered the body strengthening.

Angelica and Elder Cornelius reluctantly devote magical powers to give out cavalry and fly as if they fly like flying stones like the other cavalry beasts.

Angelica jumped greatly, with a blade of stretched swords in hand, while attacking the knight apprentices of Dunkel Ferger carrying demons while drawing a parabola. The eyes only aim at Schnefert.

"Wow!?"

"What!?"

The Angelica attack that cuts by itself began to hear a panic voice of an enemy who did not think he would have received a surprise attack.

Magic sword Stin Luke tore the light net and Schnefert falls from the net.

"Fall!"

"Help!"

Angelica who gave some damage damages the beast while falling and changes direction. Unlike before, it was easy to put a cowardress without falling completely.

Then I move to the top of Dunkel Ferger and leave it to fall and cut it in Stin Luke.

"Yeah!"

Where Angelica is surprised by Dunkel Ferger, Brother Cornelius immediately cuts in, after which the knights apprentices riding the beast are attacking one after the other. The surprise is a success.

"Confirm enemy team!"

Leonore replies immediately to my words that stood up in the air.

"I'm in shock. Several people from the team guarding the camp, so I took a cowardly bear."

"Yudit is watching the enemy team's appearance, Leonore prepares a bow!"

"Ha!"

It is supposed to release arrows from here for signs of withdrawal to Ehrenfest and for stalemate and intimidation of the enemies that will pursue. Léonore changed Stap to a bow and stared at the battle of the sky while connecting an arrow of magical power.

"If you think that you should withdraw, Leonor leaves the arrow"

"I'll try"

I leave it to Yudit to see the scene of the enemy team, and I also looked up at the top. Dunkel Ferger is inferior to maneuvering power by the amount of a monster, so it is necessary to protect monsters, few people can attack. And Ehrenfest has protection of God Angelfe of the army. Whatever you think, Ehrenfest is an advantage.

"... .. Ehrenfest is strong?"

Because it is downgraded, it probably thought that it would be easy. The Knight apprentices of Dunkel Ferger, who was responding to the surprise attack, raised a startling voice.

..... It will be, it will be.

I was satisfied that the strategy was going well, looking at the situation of Ehrenfest, which is vigorously attacking, and Dunkel Ferger, who was shaken unconsciously in a surprise attack.

However, the advantage of Ehrenfest was only a little.

"Do not be disarranged! Defensive posture! Defend your treasure first!"

Probably, Dunkel Ferger will rebuild the moment with a senior high school student who is always under command. Those who hold shields to prevent attacks, those who rehabilitate the net to carry Schneefert, those turning to counterattack ... .. each seemed to know their role, so the shake quickly disappeared.

"Half aim quickly to the team while defending Schneefer and half will counterattack while joining the team!"

A crispy reply is returned to the voice of the commander, and Dunkel Ferger moves toward the position with a commanded movement.

..... Every year, there is only the championship winning in opposition to the territory.

The surprise attack will be half successful. I made panic of Dunkel Ferger, broke the formation and could do some damage. However, the partner who is strong in cooperation has rebuilt its position with a single anger of the commander.

I breathed a sigh of admiration for the splendid cooperation of Dunkel Ferger. At the same time, I can not hide the sigh of discouragement. At the same time with Dunkel Ferger 's collaboration, the collaboration of Ehrenfest, which enters sight, was surprisingly surprising.

..... There is too much difference.

Ehrenfest is a blessing that even though individual abilities are rising, there is no cooperative cooperation at all. There was no grueling damage given to Dunkel Ferguer who began to give a solid defense in the blink of an eye.

I can only confirm the figure that Angelica who is strengthening the body and Brother Cornelius are struggling, and there is no other special mention.

Although there are conditions to make a number of advantages, there is not enough coordination to do it well.

"Rosemain, there are no enemies coming toward us, but now that treasure is about to join the team, reinforcements will come out one after another!"

Yudit, who was monitoring the enemy team, cried out. Even now while protecting the treasure, if treasure is placed in the team and the shackles are gone, you will see only the future that will be instantly done, even though no damage has been given.

Leonore who heard the voice of Yudit glanced at me and shot an arrow which is also a sign of retreat. Arrows depicting a parabola with Shun are fighting over their heads, bread! Echo the burst sound.

"It is a sign of withdrawal!"

Brother Cornelius's echoes, the knights of Ehrenfest begin to retreat.

"Help the retreat by shooting a bow!"

Several people pull the bow and shoot with Shun and Magical Arrow. Knights go back to each other's team while holding a few meetings.

To break the collaboration, there is Yamabuki's cloak that only one person is persistent in attacking his opponent. It was almost the same time that my parents' eyes narrowed and Cornelius brother's voice rings.

"Traugotto, come back!"

A tornotte came back with an unhappy face.

Those who are injured, those who have reduced magical power drink restorative medicine and try to recover. If I can, I wanted to make an attack like a convolution without giving a gap of recovery over there, but I can not imagine that it is possible for Ehrenfest to take that much cooperation.

"... .. It is weak, is not it?"

"Huh?"

"It's not Dunkel Ferger, Ehrenfest, I have seen the battle of the Order, so I thought vaguely that the Knight apprentice at the House of Lords would do something equivalent to that."

As long as you are seeing the collaboration when defeating the Lord of Winter and the fight at the time of Trombone's suppression, the knight team's collaboration should have been taken properly.

"I did not think there was any coordination so far because I was competing only for the speed of the ditters, but Dunkel Ferger has a linkage. This has to do a new education. The heads of the knights will be serious."

"What does Rosemain say just as protected!?"

"There are things that people who are watching from the outside can understand well, such as traumgot. For example, how can you disrupt collaboration that you can not withdraw immediately even if you signal a retreat?"

In my words traumgot became a stubborn face.

"I still can fight"

"It is natural that the battle will continue, we will be in trouble if we can not fight."

"Then, let me fight"

I am lightly astonished at the danger of the traagot that it should not retreat. I do not know what he is impatient and what he is crazy about, but the desperation of the traagot is idle.

"It is not just a fight to get trapped in a shadow towards the enemy, look closely at the ... .."

"I understand such things!"

"..... If you know .... The enemies will be serious now in the future The Ehrenfest will turn into defense from now on, but please show me the cooperation that deserves repulsion"

As the recovery here has been completed, it seems that the opponent also recovered. Dunkerfelger struck the attitude and Ehrenfest turned into a defensive posture. There is a tense feeling of tightness, and each other makes a difference with each other's movements. There is no gap in Dunkel Ferger who is wary of whether the attack like the surprise attack of the previous time is hidden.

Here it seems to be a collaboration hole with a tra agg that seems to jump out at the moment the fight starts.

"Traegot, you must not leave the team"

"Why !? Why?"

"I should have told you not to disturb the battle line, not to go out alone towards enemy areas by yourself, to fight while cooperating"

Do not you obey the instructions of the Lord, and repeatedly asking, Traegot chews the back teeth gently and nods.

..... I am bad.

Even if God's blessing is there, the formation will be destroyed in no time. I feel that there is only a difference between being struggled and unilaterally trying.

I want to give the experience of defending to Ehrenfest a little, but it seems likely that the second raid strategy part 2 will come on.

"Yudit, Leonore. Click here"

As I rushed with them to my cud beast, I opened the leather bag and took out the manastone stained with my magical power. It was a thin yellow magic stone that was originally shaped like a crystal but turned into a candy ball cut with a blending knife. Besides, I will drop a few special drivers of special battlemakers of the bishop.

"If Yudit, when I signal, please throw this towards Schnefert"

I will give a thin yellow manastone to Yudit who came into the passenger seat of the lesser bus after hesitation. Udit received received a headache.

"What is this?"

"Raid planning strategy part 2, because I signal at the time when the defense of Ehrenfest collapses, please do it."

When the defense begins to collapse, fly to the sky above yourself with a Lesser bus, ask Yudit to switch to your cud beast and have him cast a manastone.

While opening and closing the door of the passenger seat of the Lesser bus, I asked if I could change to a beast and explained the procedure.

"Okay ... .. but if you throw this now, is not it easy to win?"

Yudit tilted his head and Leonore also nods. I gently shrugged my shoulders.

"Perhaps you will win, but it is the worst winning way for Ehrenfest to win over Dunkel Verger with this hole-cooperative alliance without too much hardships with repeated surprise attacks."

"... I do not understand the meaning of Rosemain-sama, what is the worst winning way is it is a good thing to win?"

In fact, you had better lose your way. It is important to analyze calmly what was wrong with ourselves. Those who knew the shortage of cooperation and the sweetness of defense by themselves would be useful for future growth.

To tell the truth, unless this was a fight with Schwarz and Vice, I was sitting on standby without putting out my hands. I want this knitter to win not only the game but also this knight awareness of defeat by this knight.

"Both Yudit and Léonore saw the surprise attack from the outside from now, will you see the fight from now that the battle is reversed in the cowgirl How much difference is the way of defense of Dunkel Ferger and Ehrenfest Please look carefully and think, if you want to become strong, please always think about how you can become strong "

"I'll try"

When the two nodded, the beast began to move, making a note with the buck. Along with the movement of Dunkel Ferger, apprenticeship of the knights of Ehrenfest also starts to move.

Among those staring in the air, a coward of Dunkel Ferger, rising high and high, came out one way to stand a little advantage. As a result of that, the cowgirl of Ehrenfest rises a few horses.

"Oh, you can not go so much to the first cow!"

Yudit raised a hurried voice. As Dunkel Ferger is also allocating personnel for the defense of the position, Ehrenfest, who is the defender in all, exceeds somewhat in number. Still, there is no difference in the number of people so that it can be assigned to several people.

Naturally, the defense of the most populated part became sweet and as soon as the battle started, it began to struggle quickly.

"The main force of attack is not there, return to Cornelius!"

Leonore can only do watching the fight of his peers strangely in the beast, holding a head in the hole of cooperation with the sweetness of defense.

Ehrenfest where conspicuous shortage of defense practice is conspicuous is unilaterally pushed by Dunkel Ferger who is good at attacking by cooperation. It seems that somehow it is holding up by the effect of blessing.

I am desperately defending, but I still have not got cooperation. Collaboration as it is about the brother Cornelius and angelica trained as an escort knight, and the escort knight of Wilfriit.

It seems natural that only seven of twenty-three people, except Yudit waiting for a turn in the bus and waiting for me, and Leonore escorting me, seem to be unable to cooperate with each other, but it is no wonder that they struggle with an elaborate Dunkel Ferger.

"Oh, the traugat, where are you going !?"

"... Rosemain, somewhat why the defense is not going up overall?"

"Well, surely the enemy is aiming at it, perhaps Dunkel Ferger's elbow should come on attacking the ground,"

I pointed to the enemy team. Knights riding the cavalry and defending the team are beginning to take offense, except for a few people to protect the treasure and the restraint.

"Have you learned this kind of tactics in classroom, I have read in books and have seen how it works in Gevinen, but if this is decided, I will definitely be defeated."

"I learned, I learned, but ... ...."

Léonore had a face that seemed to be linked to the first time for classroom and practice. It seems that what you learned in the classroom was not tied to practice at all.

Yudit who has not learned the special course yet is more pale blue than the tactics rather than the immediate game.

"Mr. Rosemain, what are you talking about young people!? Even though you still feel pressed, if you attack next time, you will lose!"

"Well, let's go ahead, Yudit, please do it."

"Yes!"

The enemy's beasts who were watching the battlefield moving to the sky began to run towards here to add further attacks. Where they came near the middle of the team and the team, I rushed over the ground and headed to the edge of the team like enemies.

The enemy who noticed the lesser bus which confronts became a frustrating face.

"Were you noticed?"

"I'm going to do something, hurry back to the team!"

The enemy's reinforcements that were headed for this direction will turn clockwise and turn back with vivid movements to protect the position and treasure.

"It is best to throw you over the head of Yudit, Schnefert, hurry!"

"understood"

When I opened the door of the passenger's seat of the Lesser bus before leaving his own team, Yudit jumped out with a coward like chasing the enemy.

When Yudit jumps over the coward, he flies the manaston vigorously with a sling shot that transforms the staple.

From the cavalry returning to the team, the flying flying stones arrived earlier. A great parabolic manastillary falls over the head of Schnefert as instructed by me.

"Something flew!"

"Prevent!"

"Where is!?"

It is a candle ball size manastone flying at high speed. Even if it was said that the knight who was watching from the place to skip, regardless of suddenly being told to prevent it, it seemed that it was not even known what the knights in the team had been blown.

Snegeh Ferto opened the mouth greatly, whether he found a manastone flying towards himself. In that big mouth, Eudit 's manastone jumps in.

"Rosemain, I've been eaten!"

Were you thinking it failed, Yudit came back with a face that seemed to cry. I smile with Nicolle and deal with Yudith.

"That's fine."

The moment when I said that, Schnefert is going to be many times bigger than a spot. The little hippopotamus caught in the light mesh began to grow huge while watching as he cut off the light net.

"お お お お お お お!"

Eventually it became a hippopotamus like a two-story home, and like a lie what I was quiet up to now, Schnefert began to rampage in a form of agony.

"What, what, what is it !?"

It was simultaneous that the cry of Yudit with a tearful eye and the shout of astonishment came up from enemy team.

"Schnefert got huge!"

"What !?"

Suddenly surprised by Schnefert who began to rampage suddenly, the knights of Dunkelfelger stopped attacking and took them back to their own team. If you can go wrong with Schneefelt as it is, restzluts who are candidates for their lords are also dangerous, and a great deal of damage is given to the knights who protect their own team.

"Rosemain, what is that thing?"

"It is one that dyed the fruit of Ruel with my magical power and it is good for recovering magical powers."

The fruit of purple Ruel collected in the night of Schulea has the effect of magical power amplification. If you include something dyed with your own magical power like a candy in your mouth, magical power recovers. I used quite a magical power to strengthen magical tools of body strengthening, so it is a thing to be given to the priest chief, as I am in trouble if I do not activate the amulet when it is emergency.

"Why did you make it huge?"

"That's because you do not give Dunkel Ferger the leeway of allowance. Even so, Feldinand-sama, as expected, the special monster drug is a devil taste and irritating smell"

Strong and huge enemies are not suitable for treasure of Ditter. It is because it is difficult to get hold of it.

Dunkel Ferger starts attacking in the manner of Ditters who compete for speed, as Schneferr who is huge and rampant.

For the time being, I tried to make it huge so that I could not think about it, but the effect was more than I imagined. It seems that Dunkel Ferger can not afford to care about this.

"Recovery immediately without being absent. Angelica and Cornelius please take this medicine"

In order not to follow a sudden development at all, I instructed the Knights apprentices of Ehrenfest who were staring at the Sceunfaire who was enormous with a stunning face and handed up improving medicine of Angelica and Cornelius to the elder brother It was.

"I want you to recover everything, as I will drive you with all my power."

"Ha! ... Well, do you drink this?"

"It's a Ferdinand-like formulation of a recovery drug, the effect is amazing"

Angelica and Elder Cornelius drunk refuge remedies of the priest chief while frown. When groaning and saying "Hugo!", They close their eyes tightly. She seems to have swallowed. My brother Cornelius turned to tears, shouted at me.

"What, is this !?"

"It's a restorative medicine that is somewhat easier to drink with Feldinand's kindness"

"It is not easy to drink!"

"When you are drinking more amazing, you will be able to understand Feldinand's kindness, but do you want to understand?"

I showed the rest of the intense masuzui drugs I dropped a few drops to the manastone a while ago. Brother Cornelius waving his head in a hurry to fix it, turns his eyes to the enormous Schnee Fert.

"... ... I regained soon very quickly, but what are you trying to do with us?"

Brother Cornelius overlooks me with a guarded face. I laughed and ordered instructions.

"Please change Stap to a sword and accumulate all the power to the point where the spirals and sparks are scattered, and please stab the stop by driving that magical power into the Schnefert weakened by Dunkel Ferger Your father and elder brother can also do Cornelius, can not you? "

"I can not but it is ... ...."

Brother Cornelius said that he had not done much. If you do not do your best, you will not be attacked that much, and if you attack enough to use all the magical powers, it will not be usable until magical power recovers.

"Because I will transfer Feldinand-san's medicine, please do not worry about the later things, do not worry about magic power.If you do not stop here, there is no chance of Ehrenfest"

Did you feel the cooperation with many holes? As I say, Brother Cornelius nodded with a bitter face.

"I'm expecting Cornelius' magical power of growing to the extent that he has grown to line the shoulder, and that attack seems to go up high above the head with a beast and it will be good to release it while falling, both Ferdinand and the chief of the knights It was. "

"... Where did Rosemain see such an attack?"

"I am under the mission of a temple, I will have something to do with the Order a couple of times"

It is not a lie, because I am also watching the Trombone assassination of the blue priestess apprentice era and the attack at the prayer ceremony. Everything is just not true.

"Angelica, from the shock of Cornelius' attack, please defeat the magical power like Cornelius towards Schneferh from the front to protect our team"

"Certainly yes"

Angelica who seems to have recovered from medicine 's badness seized Stin Luke and nodded.

"Rosemain, I will also go!"

"The traumigot is useless."

"Why is it because I am weaker than the two !?"

I mutter in my heart that there is also it. Compared to Angelica and Cornelius, the traughgot is weak by many steps. However, I felt that I should not say at this place to Torugotto sticking to strength.

"It is not right, it is not possible to follow the instructions of the Lord, knights that can not cooperate with the surroundings, not knowing what to raise, it is dangerous and can not be used in important places.Traogot is on standby."

"Well!"

I turn my back on the traumatic gut that opens the blue eyes and I will send Angelica and Elder Cornelius.

"You must successfully match the attacks of the two people, please attack each other carefully"

"Certainly yes"

Cornelius rushed to the higher sky with a cowgirl. I can see that magical power is poured from now on the long sword that transformed Stap.

"If you defend the Lord, the Lord's Lord and the camp, this is where you are not useless, the direction is bad ... It will be OK with this ... Put magical power on standing.

Angelica also follows the instructions of the devil sword Stin rook, keeps the position of this place to protect it with the back, and holds the devil sword.

"Prepare the shield here as well and prepare for the shock coming!"

The Knight apprentices of Ehrenfest changed Stap to a shield.

I grasp the handle of the coward and stomp so that I can endure any shock.

Leonore on the back seat was staring at Cornelius elder brother with a look like a prayer.

Dunkel Ferger is attacking Schneefarth with cooperation like flowing. It is the first fight that you know well that you are winning in a speedy competitor Ditter. However, unlike usual, this Schneider is a treasure of Ditter, so you can not completely defeat it. It has to stop only to weaken the demonic monsters.

Brother Cornelius arrived at the far upper part of Dunkel Ferger attacking while considering that handling. Echoing the sounds played with madness and magical power, Brother Cornelius holds a long sword and thrusts straight in a cowardly beast.

"Do not retreat yeah!"

Dunkel Ferger who was already distracted by the enormous demon noticed Cornelius brother who had already come down to the head after finishing preparation, stopped moving like a frustration.

"Evacuate! Defend yourself and protect Charlesty Laugh!"

Dunkel Ferger, who realized that full attacks will be carried out, will take offensive defense in a hurry.

"I will go from here too!"

While Angelica cried for Dunkel Ferger, he sprang over Stin Luke. Stin Luke whose magical power is poured steadily is timing the timing of releasing the attack with the voice of the priest chief, "still, Lord."

"Ha ha ha!"

"Do it, Lord!"

"Ahhhhhhh!"

If Cornelius elder brother swaying the long sword and setting out big magical power, the huge light slash that I have seen several times falls off from the top of Schnefert. Angelica sways the devil sword greatly with Bun and the slash of the light that jumped out of the sword flew toward Schnefert.

It seems that the timing taken by Stin Luke was perfect. With a slash that Cornelius brother released, a tremendous shock occurs at the same time as a roar, spreading around. Angelica 's slashing also arrived at Schnefert so as to cut its impact.

While Dunkel Ferger, who had taken a defensive posture, desperately tolerated the shock, some of the knights of Ehrenfest apprentices blew off and rolled over. I endured the shock that I came with.

When the shock stopped, there was no Schnefert.

"Rosemain, I took a manastone!"

Bright angelica 's voice echoes, and in his hands a shining demonic stone is held. Ruffen, who was watching the game, raised "Ooooo!" Bullshit.

"Awesome! Ehrenfest's victory!"

Chapter 310: Call from Prince

---

"Well done! Unexpected deployment was very interesting!"

After the competition, the excited rufen came over. "A number of surprises are reminiscent of Ferdinand," I gently hide the line of sight.

"I am afraid, but Ehrenfest could not win without a strange idea. I admirably admired Dunkel Ferger's skill and I have a wonderful knight apprentice."

"Wow?"

Ruffen looked at Dunkel Ferger's knights apprentices. Knight apprentices see me with a surprising look.

I looked up at the knight apprentice I was conducting the whole man and laughed nicely.

"Even if the unexpected situation of receiving a raid during the transportation of a monsters happened, did the commander quickly reconsider with the command of the commander and could move with their respective roles in mind and move? And the massive demon animals and Cornelius In the surprise attack called full power attack, I acted immediately to protect the candidate lords and protected it at that close range, neither can do with Ehrenfest. "

If the collaboration of Ehrenfest was refined as much as Dunkel Ferger, it should have been a success at the first surprise attack.

"We showed really beautiful cooperation. We regretted that we should devise more training of the knights so that we can catch up with Dunkel Ferger even a little. Will continue to be an example of everyone I hope that Dunkel Ferguer will keep on maintaining its skill. "

Dunkel Ferger 's knight apprentice who broke my heart' s words opened my mouth.

"It is extremely honored to give such words of praise from the candidate of lords of another territory, and we are also quite different from Ditters who are opposed to demons, and there is something to get to this time in Dittar I am looking forward to the day when Rosemain's rematch with Ehrenfest where he was trained "

"..... I will only ask the knights president to train the apprenticeship and I will make an effort so that we can raise the ranking in opposition against the territory even though such a disaster is this time."

I plan to cast a knight apprentice training to the knight team, ambiguously laughing, and shed a rematch of Dunkel Ferger's rematch.

"Oh, have you finished, which one won?"

"Ehrenfest, Prince Anastigius"

Because there is a lecture, Anastasiusus who went away without watching it went back. Anastigius shakes lightly by shaking hands, "If there is a result for a while, it is good that Ruffen will begin to describe the content of the battle with excitement. Since the sky seen from the stadium is getting dark, we can not afford to listen to the progress of the match slowly.

"It was decided by the game I mentioned, there is no objection?"

"Yes, I will withdraw more than I am determined by the game"

In the words of Anastasius, Restellau kneeled and declared that he would take hands from Schwarz and Vice.

When I was relieving breathlessly, Restzlaut glanced at me glaringly.

"But, I have confirmed firmly with the eyes that only the badness of the other, the second surprise after the surprise attack, I absolutely will not admit that it is a saint."

So saying, Dunkel Ferger will leave the place.

Anastigius narrowed gray eyes and looked down at me.

"... .. did you do something wrong with Ditter?"

"I think it was a bizarre, but it seems that it depends on who evaluates whether it is bad."

"I see"

As for me, whatever he / she is told in the restylau is OK. It is true that it was impossible to choose the means if it was to be said that it was villainous in order to protect the library, and I never got it from myself as a saint. Even if you say "Do not recognize it as a saint," you can only say "Yes or not", and recently it is overkill, so I feel relieved a bit.

"Because Rosemain, since he was determined to be the Lord of Witchcraft, come to my room tomorrow's 3 bell and have something to talk about with Soranju."

"Certainly yes"

After receiving the call by the prince it quickly broke up, and Hill Sur returned to his lab quickly with a coward.

Watching a ride-on type cuddle for the first time, while looking at the anastasis wondering at astonishment, we return to the dormitory.

"Why was it a game of Ditter !? Explain it, Rosemain!"

As soon as I entered the dormitory and closed the door of the entrance, I was shouted at Vilfriet of watery eyes. On the way there was Aldanants from Richarda, but because there was only one escort knight, he was told not to leave the dormitory because he was unnecessarily overwhelmed, he seems to have kept a caretaker while being frustrated.

I talked about the story of Dunkel Ferger who was waiting in front of the library for the time being and the circumstances and results that resulted in the ditters match and finally it was called from Anastigius.

"Is it a call from the prince? ..... On the other hand, it is not enough to report to the fathers with measurements, raids, ditters, calls in just one day!"

"Well, when reporting to the chief of the knight about the review of the knight apprentice training ..."

"Now we are talking about that, the story of training is good, what is the call from Prince Anastigus?"

I was planning to tell my father about the review of the knight apprentice training, but it was obstructed by Wilfried.

"To relate to Schwarz and Weiss, Prince Anastigius said that we must also talk to Sorangju."

".....Really"

After that, I ate dinner and asked for points of reflection on the knight apprentice who participated in today 's Ditters. There is also a knight apprentice who was simply willing to win against Dunkel Ferguer and there are knight apprentices too embarrassed that it was too different from ordinary ditters. Meanwhile, Ditta was not the center of the fight, everyone was gazing at the words of Leonore and Yudit who were watching from the outside.

"This time I won the Dunkel Verger is that there is a wonderful idea of Rosemain, it is not the ability of us."

Even in Ditters where Leonore competes for speed, he said that he thinks there are probably many improvements, he began talking about collaboration and the weaknesses of the demons summarized so far.

From here onwards, it will be a discussion of knights apprenticeship. I decided to go back to the room, leaving Leonor and brother Cornelius in the discussion place, which can not go up to the third floor. Today there are various things and I got tired, but there is a call from the prince tomorrow as well. I want to go to bed after taking a bath.

"... What is Richarda?"

"I have taken off his seat if there is a little use"

Lisaerator and Burunhilde who were preparing for the bath will help with bathing but there was no Richarda on the spot. It is rare that there is no Richarda. When I tilt my head, Rieselaer tells me with confusing words.

"Since I was with Rosemain san today all day ..."

While I was in the lecture or during my lecture while I was struggling to read at the library with my other side, I told you that I could not have done it today.

..... I am doing it with a flat face, but preparation is difficult for me.

I was convinced that I was going to sleep, and I fell asleep.

The next day is the call from the prince. To Rituala told me that it was possible to bring about as much souvenir as possible to improve my feelings, I told Ella and Fugo early in the morning, two kinds of kettle curls baked with lumutopf into the fabric and baked corkscrew with honey I baked it.

Anastigius seems to like Lumutopf and it is my worry that you can share your honey with Egranthine.

While practicing Rosina and Fespiel until 2 and half bells, arrange the songs dedicated to the goddess of light, then prepare by helping Brunhilde up to the 3 bells, and I am anastasiu I decided to head to the room.

"... By the way, which is the room of Prince Anastigius?"

"I have never entered, but I know how to get there."

Brunehilde said that and left the front door. I go to the corridor leading to the auditorium, but instead of heading towards the auditorium, I walk to the side where the doors to the lower dormitory line up. Despite the number being broken, the doors are continuing at equal intervals. There was a big door to the very end, and a keeper stood before that.

"I am Ehren Festo 13. I am calling Rosemain from Prince Anastigius to today's 3 bell."

"I have heard the story."

The keeper confirmed the color of the mantle and the brooch and opened the door. What I was waiting there was really like a butler. It is already in the abode of Anastasius here, and my grandfather is said to be the leader of Anastasius.

"We were waiting, Rosemain sama"

I was instantly passed through the drawing room.

Upon arrival at the drawing room, Sorangju had already arrived and was drinking tea with an elegant smile that smiled. Anastage is sitting opposite that.

I handed over the souvenir cuttle curl, I completed my greetings and sat down to the recommended seat.

"Person payment"

Aides were kept away, and only three people and anastagus' aides were in this room.

For a while I was talking about tea or sweets, but Anastasezu suddenly tightened facial expression.

"Although it is a story of a magical tool of a library, because Ehrenfest won the battle war, I was allowed to mainly accept Rosemain during my studies at the House of Lords"

"What is a fight? ..... No way with Ahrensbach !?"

As Sorange was surprised, he restrained his mouth. This is surprising to the words coming out of the mouth of Sorange.

"Is it Dunkel Ferger who fought with Ahrensbach Rosemain?"

"Well, was it? Because it was the lady of Ahrensbach who had been asked several times what is necessary to become the Lord of Schwarzs and Weiss, so I did it quickly It seems. "

Sorangju said so shyly, but I felt the back of my heart flirting. I did not expect to hear the name of Ahrensbach in such a place.

"Well, maybe other territories may come out yet ... troublesome ... .... By the way, why did Rosemain become the Lord? I let you investigate a little, but there was no record that the student became main"

"Rosemain-sama's prayers have reached God."

"... ... I do not understand the meaning"

Anastachezu brought his eyebrows to the explanation of Sorange and shook his head.

"When Rosemain was praying for goddess Meztionola wisdom, Black Forest and Weiss started to move, and Rosemain-sama's prayer arrived at the gods."

"Rosemain: Detailed explanation"

In the explanation of Soranju seems to have not understood at all, Anastasium saw me. But I can not say any more.

"Even if it is told to be detailed ... .... I just gave a prayer to God by registering the library and leaving it to the reading room. The magical power jumped out as a blessing and as soon as I noticed Schwarz and Vice He was accredited as the Lord. "

"I do not know what to ask even more"

Anastigius shook his head again and gazed at Solange.

"How was the Lord so far determined, Sorangju?"

"By predecessor nominating, giving permission to touch Schwarzs and Weiss, we have become main due to registering magical power by touching the mana stone of the forehead, without touching the mana of the forehead, only blessing It was the guidance of the wisdom goddess Mestionora that was able to register magical powers with "

"Good enough"

Apparently it seems he abandoned to understand. Perhaps, I did something insane, so I do not think that people who are not watching the scene will not know.

"I was also nominated by my predecessor and registered magical power, but Schwarz and Vice have stopped moving. I am still able to touch Schwarz and Vice and should be able to supply magical powers It seems that it was all I could do by maintaining defense with my magical power. "

Soranju said that Schwarz and Vice had been protecting themselves with magical powers knowing that they would not move so that no other magical tools of the library would be stolen.

"Maybe Mr. Sorangju does not have attributes of light and darkness?" My civil servant told me that both attributes are necessary to become the Lord. "

"Why does Rosemain know such things?"

As you were surprised, Anastaseuz saw me.

"The new Lord of Schwarzs and Weiss has to give new costumes, so I told you so, I took out Schwarzse and Weiss from the library to the dormitory for measurements"

"... Would not it have been better to measure at the library?"

"I thought about it, but I was rejected by Professor Sorangju"

When I looked towards Sorange, Sorange slowly nodded.

"Since Schwarz and Weiss have become costume warped magic tools, we will definitely be defenseless if we take off their costumes and they will definitely be defenseless. The stolen clothes will be stolen or unprotected Black Foot and Vice will be stolen It is serious, so things like measuring and tacking are supposed to be done under the control of the Lord. "

The lord so far had librarians in the library and had their own room in the library, so it did not have to go out of the library. If possible, I wanted to give permission in the library, but it was impossible, Sorangju said.

"Many students hear from the middle class aristocracy who banned entering the room because they lent a room in the library to the measurement, and Rosemain is a candidate for the lord, who is the 13th place Ehrenfest. Given the possibility that Dunkel Felger of 6th and Ahrensbach of 6th are intensely pushing in, we can not give permission to measuring in the library very much. "

In the words of Soranju, Anastasiusu nodded as "I see."

"So, why on earth did you know the attributes?"

"When I tried to remove the costume for measurements, there were many magic teams in the stomach part, it is the magic team that caused Mr. Hirsch leaving the afternoon lecture."

".....Ahh"

While Anastasiusus became a bitter face, he muttered, "That is the first place as a researcher, how about as a teacher?" What I want to say is Ehrenfest, which must be Hill Sur.

"It was like a fairly old magic team that was embroidered on Schwarz and Vice, according to Mr. Hirschle teacher and apprentices of civilian apprentices who saw it, light and darkness could not move without both attributes Is not it? "

According to Hill Sur, because it is full of holes and incomplete magic team, there may be other conditions, but add.

"If you tell it to Restistau first, you may have avoided extra battle, which should have had no attributes of darkness"

"Although conflict may have been avoided, I knew it is information obtained by removing Schwarzs and Weiss' s costumes, and it is information obtained by investigating.If it is information that is kept secret on the library side Because it was not there, it was hard to talk. "

You better not say something unnecessary. It is safe for it to live as a nobleman.

"Besides, as Lesty Lout does not reach the library, he can not be the Lord of Schwarz and Weiss, but he has to supply magical powers about once every three days, but for the sake of honor, not for libraries Those who want royal relics to continue will not continue "

"Oh, Rosemain, if you do not say so, if attributes match, it would have been a pleasure if you could have become another one ..."

Does Sorange will match Ahrensbach's attributes? He said, tilting his neck. Somehow it seems to be troublesome, so people of Ahrensbach think that it is okay for attributes not to match.

Sorangu looked at me anxiously.

"Rosemain, you will have a heavy burden on your own? Because former middle class aristocracy was managed by three people, Schwarz and Weiss are magical tools that truly consume a lot of magical power"

"I thought that it was necessary to supplement magical powers frequently with reason, and it was a lot of magical powers that my predecessor librarians put in a lot of magical powers that I could run Schwarz and Weiss for a year Even though it will accumulate on a daily basis, I have no idea how much magical power was in it. "

When I say so, Sorange will smile gently with a sad smile.

"When three people are delegated, since the magical power was put in so much that the danger to life is contained,"

"... Is it so dangerous to life?"

When I got my eyes full of idiosyncratic words, Anastigius breathed a light breath.

"The predecessor librarian was a person connected to the senior aristocrat who was sided with the first prince and the fourth prince when there was a political change, so I can not return it anymore."

I caught my lips, noticing that the three people who entrusted the magical power that is dangerous to life to Schwarz and Weiss are far higher.

"No matter how much I am applying for personnel replenishment, I do not have permission, so in order to move Schwarz and Vice, there are now only Rosemain's favor to me."

"Such ... .... Even if it says to move the magician which is the relics' relic religion, are not you supplementing the personnel? The relics of the royal family have rare value and are important, are not you?"

When I asked, Anastigius turned with Hun.

"How much is a magical tool that stopped the movement with political change as a machine .... It is not just the library of the lords, there are other more important magic tools"

Will not it be the number of aristocrats where the number of magical tools which stopped movement was lost as it was? The political change that was a distant event for me was very familiar here.

"It would be impossible to dispatch human resources enough to move magicians to the librarian at the House of Lords - if you want to move the magic tool, there will be only magazine poured by that person with just good faith. The story was early, but ... "

Anastaseuus said so and sighed.

If I was not a candidate for a lord, it seems that it was a story that it is a third grader, a cicador apprentice, and finished transferring the census to center in the form of a librarian apprentice.

However, since the candidate lords have their roles in their respective territories, they can not move their nation to the center. It seems that it is decided in ancient times to prevent outstanding successors from flowing out to the center.

"Rosemain is a candidate for a lord, so I will not admit it as an official administrator from here."

If I wanted to make me an official administrator of Schwarz and Vice, I would transfer the management of Schwarz and Weiss to Ehrenfest and it would be the case that candidates who are loudly speaking lords will come out Stagieus said.

"Rosemain is a good collaborator to the last, is it good?"

"Certainly, I will help as much as I can, so that Schwarz and Vice can work vigorously for the operation of the library."

If it is good faith to the library it is overflowing. I do not mind offering magical power. When I promised cooperation, Sorangju smiled happily.

"Thank you, Rosemain sama"

"Sorance can go, rosemain is a little left"

"Yes"

"Well, I will leave first."

After Sorenje kneeled and greeted, he left.

"What are you talking about?"

"... wait a little"

While drinking tea and eating sweets while watching Anastasiusus silent as if searching for words for a while.

..... First of all, it is related to Eglantine-sama.

The face looking for words is not the face of the royal family so far. It is the face of a man who thinks about a child he likes. To be honest, I do not want to love stories with Anastasiusus. I made mistakes at tea ceremonies with teachers of music and I failed. Now that there is no Egrantine to take in, I do not know what will be killed. I thought that I would like to return anymore, Anastasezu tended to hesitate to hesitate.

"..... Rosemain, probably Egrantine seems to invite others to the tea ceremony."

Egrantine is very beautiful like a goddess of light, the atmosphere is soft, the dance is good, even if you are talking, it is comfortable. It is obviously nice to have an tea party at tea party.

Besides, because it is a candidate for the lord of Klassenburg, the influential powerhouse of Ahrensbach, the profit is also great for Ehrenfest and it is not the opponent you are scolded by the guardians even if you deepen your relationship. Recently, projects that are likely to get angry are accumulating, so we need projects that can cancel it.

"Egrantine's invitation is very happy, is not it?"

"So, then, will you ask for that intention of Egrantine?"

Well, I looked at Anastasiusus who raised my face as I said, I tilted my head.

"What is your intention?"

"What, what is it?"

Anastigius wandered the line of sight like it was upset. I feel that this degree is being appealed by the gaze because I do not know why, but if I do not make it clear, I will be getting more angry when bringing an uncommon answer.

"..... I am asleep for two years and I am ashamed about shamefully that socializing is inadequate and I can not ask you later ... because there is not my aides in this place ..."

"It is useless useless! We are paying attention not to be known to the aides!"

"So, please do not tell me what kind of intention you should ask. I have a lot of embarrassment as I have to expose my immaturity to royals more than anything else."

It can not be done, it is a misfortune as a nobleman. It seems that people who are embarrassed are mutually aware of each other.

While holding a head to saying that I should bother to do such a thing, Anastasiusus stares at me with a shining face.

"... Please ask your intention for future prospects, especially the graduation escort"

Speaking of which, I feel like I've heard that two prince are fighting to get Egranthine's heart to approach the throne.

..... Egrantine is in trouble to have such a heavy choice.

"You did not ask the other person who is more convincing?"

Then, when I muttered in my mind that they did not shame each other, Anastigius narrowed his eyes, saying "Do you think you did not ask?" But Egrantine's answer seemed to be the same no matter who asked.

"I have been told not to let me think a little, but until now I am graduating this year, if that is the case I am young and I like egrantines quite a bit at a tea party. It seems like it seems, so I may feel a little relaxed. "

Egranthine which is a candidate of lords of the large territory can not relax with a young appearance degree. The man in love is too much to think for himself conveniently.

"..... If any answer is okay, I will only ask questions."

"Well, I beg you to do my best."

..... Although I can not refuse Prince's request, I have undergone troublesome things.

Chapter 311: Richard's rage

Two days passed since the call of Anastasis. It was said that there would be an invitation from tea ceremony from Egrantine, but it seems to be the previous story and no contact will be made in particular. Perhaps it is a story after the lecture is over and it has entered the social season.

I spent a lot of time going to the library, keeping it at ease, reading magical powers to Schwarz and Vice, and reading books from the library one after another.

Today 's accompanying are Brunhild, Phyllene, Yudit, Leonore and Elder Cornelius. The treasure stolen Brother Reonore and Elder Cornelius are talking about how to reconsider the coordination of the knight apprentices through through the disorder and how to do so in order to beat the monsters a little easier. Not only does it compete for speed, it seems that I got stained about how much difference is due to fighting face to face exactly.

It seems that it is difficult for Yudit who has not taken the knight course yet in the second grader to talk about the law. For that reason, the escort at the library where there are few signs of people is left to Yudit and Elderre and Cornelius are copying books at Charles near me or consulting with them. Looking from the side it is the atmosphere of the library date.

While supporting secretly Leonore in my heart, I will read books one after another. Philene was copying manually at the next Charles.

The light showing the closing shined, the surface of the book he was reading was illuminated in various colors. I close the book with Brünhild, "Closing it, Rosemain-sama" and I breathe out lightly.

"Hime, today is the end"

"Hime-sama, I'm hungry"

"I know, I'd like to rent out this book for Schwarz, Brühnhild, I'm returning Keith 's key, Vice."

After reading the book to the last minute of closing time, after having done the loaning procedure to read the rest, I will bring the book to Brunhild and return to the dormitory. It is a brilliant happy everyday life that I got after finishing all lectures.

"Rosemain, today I finished copying the demons."

If there are demons found unexpected weaknesses, Leonore tells us with a happy smile on his way back to the dormitory. Brother Cornelius nodded, opened his mouth.

"Since information on monsters gathered, I would like to read the reference book borrowed on Eckhart's older brother for collaboration, then listen to the talk about collaboration when going home and defeating strong monsters at the knights captain I wanted to see it. "

"If you finish the lecture, you will be able to return, you must finish the lecture as soon as possible for that,"

Father, the head of the knight, as an escort knight, I have to go around the socialization of the lords and I will be busy because there is a big work to beat the winter lord. Still, all the aristocrats are gathering in winter social circles. I think that it would be very meaningful if we could listen to the story from the generation's knight who was doing the treasure stealer and the education staff who started to collaborate with newcomer education.

I nodded that my word would make Leonore fierce.

"..... I did not think that the lecture of the lecture that I thought as useful as what is useful so far has not directly linked to cooperation. When I was doing a treasure steal ditter in opposition to the territory, perhaps everyone I think that I felt desperate to learn about tactics and how I thought about rebuilding the enemy with my head. "

Even though Ditters who compete for speed can be defeated by all the members, Brother Cornelius said that there was no need to think specifically about collaboration and tactics. It seems fun to think variously now. It seems to be glad that Leonore smiling at the face also feels the same way.

... .. Yeah yeah, is not it okay?

While I was smiling with my brother Cornelius while watching Leonore, Brünhild was quietly heard as he noticed.

"Does Rosemain support the Leonore?"

"No, I will not do anything, as Brother Cornelius seems to be pretty popular, I do not intend to make extraordinary waves."

I am a lord candidate student and also a sister When I stand out and support Léonore, it seems as if I am deciding. I have not confirmed the rumor that Angelica is still married to some of my older brothers, and I do not even know the feelings of Brother Cornelius. It is better not to do extra things.

"Is that so? I am a little relieved, in such a way that such a favor of the Lord is not good"

Brunehilde said so and laughed small.

Certainly, the favor is not good. I confirmed rumors to my family, I intended to support Léonore, but it seems better to keep it down.

"Please do not go wrong, a traogot!"

As soon as I entered the dormitory, Richarda's anger sounded to the entrance hall. I heard it from above, so it is probably being preached in the room of the traumigot. But it was the first time that Richarda made such a loud voice, and I looked down on face with Brünhild.

"... What did you do with the trogot?"

"I do not understand. When I go up to the room, I will clean up and change clothes for dinner and we will ask if Haltmut does not know the circumstances after supper."

It is difficult for Brunhild to enter the second floor where boys' rooms lined up. Even if a lecture is given in the afternoon, it should finish earlier than the closing time of the library. In Hartmut, you know something.

"Well, later as you listen to the circumstances in Hartmut, Cornelius, have you ever watched it wait, will you report back to Richarda?"

"..... Rosemain says to me that you can enter that anger?"

Cornelius brother pointed at the second floor with a disgusting face. I can not catch clearly and what I am saying, but Richarda's sermon still continues. It certainly needs a lot of courage to enter into that.

"You do not have to force yourself in, but if it's time for meal, can you ask for knocking on the door?"

"If it was about ... ...."

And Angelica, who is suffering from finishing lecture at dinner seat, has offered an invitation letter. It seems to be an invitation from a tea ceremony from Egrantine. It seems that Egrantine 's side has brought it at the time of lecture.

"Thank you, Angelica, could you please ask Brühn Hilde for your reply?"

"Of course. Of course, if it was an Egranthine tea party, we need to prepare Lincian."

When Brühnhild begins to think about the souvenir, preparing for the tea party, Brother Cornelius begins to think about who will escort. Angelica, which had not finished schooling, was excluded from the beginning.

"Rosemain, I'd also like to escort you"

"I also want escort as soon as possible, I hope Angelica will show us a wonderful activity like a treasure-stealing Ditta even in the classroom."

"Wow ...."

Angelica drops his shoulders. Brother Cornelius who was watching the situation smiled small.

"About one-third has passed the exam of the school, so we are doing quite well, and again there is a difference in efficiency considerably whether or not the Lord is watching."

It seems that I am trying hard all the time compared to the two years while I am sleeping. It seems that all of the knight courses are stroking the chest in an effort harder than expected.

"How big is your father and mother to know that his sister has finished one-third of the seat at the time as of now, even if you appreciate Rosemain, it is enough Wow! "

Liselaer made the eyes full of excitement, he said so.

But for Angelica, where two-thirds still remain, finishing the lecture is a very long way to go. It is a prohibition of carelessness.

"Well ... ... If Angelica could finish all the lectures before returning to Ehrenfest at the dedication ceremony, would you teach me a way to compress magical powers one more time?"

"Is it one more step !?"

Angelica and Brother Cornelius were amazed at their surprises.

"Because I succeeded in compressing all four stages, receiving a lecture on magical compression"

"What was it!? It was not in three stages! I have not heard that I could do it again!"

Not to mention Wilfried, surprised voices came up as "unbelievable" everywhere in the dining room.

"Why, my parents are former Veronica factions ... when is it myself to be able to choose factions?"

There was a knight apprentice holding a head that the difference was opened more than ever before I understood that it was visible that the faction would be much more disadvantageous just because it was different. Obviously if you see the people whose magical power is growing, it is obvious that it is clear that it will be put in other people as well.

"Since the former Veronica school was mainstream until a couple of years ago, even if you blame your parents, there is no point in lamenting that children before an adult are considered to be the same faction as parents. However, if you say that you choose a faction by your own will, I would like to cooperate as much as possible. "

"Huh!?"

"Rosemain, what do you mean !?"

For the children of the former Veronica who raised their eyes with their eyes rounded up, I will smile as seemingly as possible. This is a big opportunity to capture the generation of children.

"When I teach about magical compression, I do contract magic, but I would like to talk with Aub Ehrenfest whether I can change my content to some extent so that I can teach magical compression to those who want it Immediately, it may be difficult, but I will do my best so that it can be realized as soon as possible, so please do not stumble everyone. "

"Yes!"

Was it because the target was seen, the face of old Veronica children shone. It is worrisome that Hartmut is laughing satisfyingly at the edge of sight, but well, it is okay.

"Wilfried's older brothers are in mind this year, so please do not be afraid to start socializing as we are doing well so far."

"Well, I will not do the same mistake anymore."

"Well, Wilfried-sama, we are also working hard, I hope to admit to Rosemain."

Angelica raised his face and looked at me with his fingers in front of his chest, as Arielle 's close aides with cohesion smiled and smiled.

"Rosemain, I will do it! Let me challenge you!"

Unlike earlier that I had not been studying if I wanted to learn, Angelica 's blue eyes shimmely shining, I am excited to excite my cheeks for excitement. Without the word "If there is magical power, the body can be strengthened by that much, and Stin Luke can become stronger", it is a look of a maiden who is in love.

No, if it is for Stin Luke, keep it carefully, encourage students who are not good at it, and will solemnly devote magical power, rather Angelica can not be said to be a maiden who is in love with the devil Stuttrooke.

... It's too bad.

"Rosemain, do you teach Angelica a new way of compressing magical power, can you tell me, my true brother?"

Brother Cornelius gave me a light shoulder to a displeasing face.

"If Angelica finishes lecturing before returning at the dedication ceremony, it's about, probably impossible."

As I said to motivate Angelica, there are not three weeks before I return at the dedication ceremony. It is quite unreasonable for Angelica who has finished one third in three weeks.

However, Brother Cornelius shook his head loose.

"Thinking that you can not really do by looking at Angelica's appearance, it looks exactly like Rosemain, who was in front of the library,"

While comparing me and Angelica, Brother Cornelius said, "If you are going to fulfill your purpose, it is a master-slave that looks very much like to rush without waving the side eyes." Among Cornelius's elder brothers, Angelica seems to be sure to achieve the goal.

"Wow ... .. Then, acceptance of Angelica until the dedication ceremony ... .. If I could raise the score in competition against the competition which was 15th place last year to the 12th place, I would like to teach my aides."

Alright! And the traogot grabbed a fist with a full smile, Hartmut lightly raised his eyebrows.

"If you are not an escort knight but an aide, you must cooperate with me as an apprentice civilian so that a knight apprentice can make a score. Cornelius, please come to my room later. Although it is only the upper part, such as how to defeat the monsters and the defeat in the fight against the territory of the territory, it is summarized, it will be useful somewhat. "

"Thank you, Hartmut"

"We have to overcome wisdom for a side apprentice against the territory competition, I'm looking forward to this year's competition against the territory."

Brühnhild shined candy eyes and the mealtime ended.

"Rosemain Princess, I have a story with folding in. May I have time after dinner?"

Richarda said that with a look that does not feel emotion at all. I scolded the traogot when I returned to the dormitory, so I thought I was getting tired of the meal where Tora Gott was present, but it was not so.

In Richarda, emotional changeover is done perfectly. That is why I did not have any particular doubts, I nodded.

"Of course, thanks, may I be in the room?"

"No, I have secured a room on the first floor and I would like the princess's aides to listen together if possible."

When I looked around everyone on the same table, everyone except the traogot nodded. The traugot has its eyes open and gathered alone.

"My grandmother, I am ... ...."

"Well, let's go ahead."

As I looked at the traumot with a gaze without warning, Richarda started walking at the top. While traveling roughly, the sense of urgency drifting between Richarda and the tragot is transmitted here as well.

I pulled a little lightly on the cloak of Hartmut who is walking at my oblique front, in a loud voice.

"Do you know what Hartmut is?"

"Richarda is angry three days ago, of course, I know."

I feel that the emotions of thinness and anger are visible from Hartmut who narrows my eyes and laughs. From the eyes to see Richarda and the traogot, it seems to be a friend of Richarda rather.

..... Traugot, what did you do?

A small room like a conference room located a little far from the multipurpose hall is for students who are out of bounds to discuss the opposite sex.

Although it seems that rooms used for factions are decided in each year in general, this year everyone gathered in multipurpose halls often to work, so it was not decided in particular and was supposed to use the vacant room.

Entering the room, I sit in a chair recommended by Richarda. And the left and right sides of the Rizeraer and Brunhild 's side line side by side, with escort knights side by side on both sides. Haltmut took out wooden cards and inks, sat on the meeting record, and sat next to it.

I will not be allowed to line up in the row of escort knights in front of me and Rigida pulling on Rigida and rigida holding the arms of the traogot stand.

Rigida looking around the crosstie and the aides opened his mouth with a severe expression.

"Rosemain Princess, Please dismiss the traumigot from the aide"

"Huh!?"

The side by side with me besides a sudden word. However, the surrounding escort knights have a bit of a feeling, they are bitter expressions such as "Norihiro", and there are few expressions of surprise. Perhaps he held the information firmly Hartmut had not changed his expression at all.

And it was the traumatic thing that became a desperate look like blood drawn to the word of dismissal. I have no idea that I never thought that such words would come out of my grandmother.

That would be so.

It is disgraceful for the aristocrat saved as an aide that it is dismissed that it is not necessary from the Lord. It is disgraceful for families that someone will be dismissed from the aides. I could not think that Richarda wanted such a disgraceful thing for my grandchild, I inclined my head.

"... Richarda, what on earth were you?"

"There is no such thing as it is. With Risemaerin Princess in the situation that I am angry and it is not surprising that he will offer dismissal, she should have been present a little more carefully to see the surroundings and to speak to his aides Please light your eyes. "

"Yes! I will be careful!

The rage of Richarda came toward here. I stretched my spine and reply instantly.

"Traegot is not suitable for the princess' s aide, immediately dismiss it"

Richarda said that the behavior of Traugot in treasure stealer is completely disqualified as an aides. I thought that I was not in good attitude, but for Richarda it seems that it was an unforgivable violence.

"But, Trauggott is my grandchild which Richarda recommended, it is dismissal etc. ..."

"Well, I have recommended, of course there is a grandmother's attitude towards traogot, but I am the principal side of the princess, no need for an aide to benefit the Lord is necessary."

Richardd said he told the traumig to reprimand his treasure trouble at Ditter and to resign himself as his grandmother because of his grandmother's feelings. It is better for me to resign from myself than to be rescued by being stamped primarily with an aideside disqualification.

"There is a difference depending on who you serve and what kind of motives you will serve, so even if you chose to serve Rosemain Princess for a purpose of compressing magical powers for me I did not put the mouth on that, the important thing is the attitude towards work. "

Since Brühn Hilde wanted to transmit a fashion, he wanted to serve me who had several trends. Rijserer saved his sister Angelica from the fall, avoided lowering the reputation of the family, and decided to serve as a repayment to me who was heavily used as an escort knight and gave honor.

Hartmut is concentrating on the work of his aides to accelerate my saint legend, and Philene is to gather stories together.

Richarda and angelica were orders from the top and Broder Cornelius wanted my escort knight as my sister as my family became an escort knight of the lord's family. The reasons for becoming a close aides are each.

I do not care for any reason to serve. It seems that Richarda's opinion is that it is good if it can move for the Lord with the Lord.

"But there is no attitude of those who serve in the traumgot. The attitude of the followers to the Lord has not been taken. It is not possible for me in the lead side to claim an aide like that."

It seems that the trogot is despising me. Richarda said that the body is weak, originally the daughter of Karstedd, the relationship between a cousin and a sister.

"Even my brothers and sisters are overly overpowered, in front of Cornelius who has a public and private distinction!"

Three days have passed since Rijarda said that it is not possible to feel more attitude or loyalty as an aides to the traumgot, so please raise it before it can cause more problems and quit.

However, the traogot does not have any sign of movement. It seems that he scolded today, saying, "Please quit yourself before being dismissed from Rosemain Princess." It seems that Richard's anger when it came back was it.

However, Tora Gogot, who was scolded as "to quit" to the point where he was scolded, tried to appreciate that benefit as my aides as it normally would when the story of four stages of magical compression went out at the seat of today's dinner. Richarda was furious with that attitude, and he decided to offer dismissal instead of resignation.

"There is nothing extravagant, such as trying to serve you, trying to get only your own profits, etc. There is no need for any further warmth even with real grandchildren. To serve the lord's family and protect Ehrenfest aristocratic way of life, what did their parents taught and how they raised so far, really sad things! "

Dismissal, dismissal and Richarda say, but I decide it. I turned my eyes towards the traumaticot which is pale in Richarda's words.

"Does traogot feel like serving me?"

"Yes, please let me serve you like this!"

Riyarda lifted his eyes in a traumat calling in desperate form, Hartmut's smiling smile in orange eyes.

"I will serve Rosemain sama until I can tell you how to compress magical powers, but after that I'm going to resign promptly."

"Hartmut!?"

I saw Hartmut as the traumigg was frustrating. Richard is exaggerating in the words of Hartmut. Hartmut slowly looked around all the aides, kept smiling and repeated words.

"I've heard that we do not want to serve the ecstatic lord who rushes to the library without frustrating the surrounding annoyance, on frail weather falling asleep with a snowball, or going to bed soon. If you can have it, I wanted to serve Virfriit. "

"Hartmut, sister!"

Although Torugotto feels bad, "Do not say unnecessary things!", Hartmut laughs it off with Hu and nose.

"Since I am an aides of Rosemain, is not it obvious that it is a matter of course to deliver information to be judged?"

While Trauggot and Hartmut were staring at each other, Richard set up a blue line and revealed his anger.

"Traugot, what you say ... it is a matter before the aides! Please straighten to there!"

While watching the rage of Richarda, I narrow my eyes.

I understood the reason why I wanted to dismiss Traugot from my aides. But I do not know what the traogot thinks and I'm looking for a way to compress the magical power to that extent. I do not want to serve You want me to serve me. I can not think that it is good to dismiss it this place.

"... .... Everyone, I'd like to talk to the traumigot, could we please ask for payment?"

My words that I thought would be difficult to talk with when there was other people were immediately rejected by Richarda.

"Do not become! Do not put an escort at the time of talking about dismissal! The princess should look carefully at the situation"

When looking around well, the escort knights approached Richard and nodded.

"But maybe you can not talk with other people?"

"To that end there is a magical tool to prevent eavesdropping, even if you can not hear it, can not you talk with keeping an escort with this?"

Rikhyda puts a witchcraft to prevent eavesdropping on the front of me and Kotri in front of the traogot while stalking my sweetness as "I will dismiss it quickly without listening to circumstances."

"I'd like to hear the words of the tragogot. If you plan to talk with me, please take that magical tool."

".....Yes"

The traumgot picked up a magical tool to prevent eavesdropping with a steep expression.

Chapter 312: The sign of Traugot

---

"Why does a traegog want so much magical compression?"

When I asked, the traughgot stole his mouth and did not say anything.

"As I have been told to judge things after having detailed the circumstances of everyone, I will not listen to the opinions of Rajada or Hartmut but just disagree with the opinion of Traugot. However, if you do not have an opinion on Traugot, you can do so if you say so. "

It is only to adopt the opinion of Richarda and Hartmut, and I said, the traumigot raised his face.

"I want to know how to compress spells because I want to be strong"

The trauma that has become a face, such as not asking for obvious things, severe circumference of the surroundings where the conversation should not be heard became severe. I noticed that the surrounding atmosphere was sharp, I gently sigh.

"..... Tragot, if you do not care about the expression, I will be afraid of the anger of Richard later."

The breathtaking traumgot was breathtaking and suddenly became a serious face. I tighten facial expressions and face the trousers.

It is not just a traumatic one that everyone has severe eyes. It is seen by the aides of me, mainly how I handle the traumog.

..... In the meantime, after hearing the opinion of Traugot, we have to decide on that ...
....

To be honest, as for me, whether tra aggets will remain as an aides, whether you quit, or nothing else. We spent less time contacting with a heterosexual escort knight, and Cornelius brothers are more accustomed and trustworthy.

It's grandchild of Richarda, I was recommended by the aides, but I have not had too much contact, nor have a good impression. As Richarda and his grandson are the only grandchildren, it is only a recognition that we want to make a disposition to the extent that it does not come. I do not think much about having to be kind to the traumat itself.

..... I do not want to hear it because it does not matter.

When I saw the traumig, I gazed at the eyes that searched the traumigot, then opened my mouth.

"I will ask you again, why do you want to get strong?"

"Because Cornelius and Angelica became strong, knowing Rosemain's magical compression"

"Do you want to win Cornelius and Angelica?"

".....That's right"

As I recalled, Tora Gogot was conscious of Angelica and Elder Cornellis. Why do you adhere to these two people?

"Why does Traegot want to be strong? Angelica and Cornelius regret that I had dangerous eyes, I hoped for strength, as it is suitable for my escort knight. What do you want ahead of strength? Do you want to serve Virfriit's older brother as Hartmut said? "

Wilfried's aides serve after Wilfriit has canceled his job offer as the next lord, and he is very unified. Newly entering people are also careful about factions. Because I quit my aide, I do not think it will be easy to put it in.

When I said that, I found that the traumigot was tightly bitten in the back teeth.

"..... I do not want to serve anyone, I would like to be the head of a knight like an old man."

"My grandfather is Bonifatius, is not it?"

Right now I am lightly eye-witted, not Karstedd, the head of the knight, but the head of the knight like Boniface. Considering from the age of traumgot, I think that I have not seen so much that I saw the old man who works as the head of the knight.

Or ... Is it intense impression that I saw when I was small, is it getting more and more beautiful?

For the time being, I found out that the goal for Traugot is unusual. I feel that the blood of the brain muscle family who is seeking strength is concentrating.

"I would like to lead the knight team like an old man to hunt dangerous monsters and become the head of the knight to protect the territory so I would like to be stronger than anyone in the territory."

"If you want to be the knights, you definitely need strength."

While affirming the words of Traugot for the moment, is that? I tilted my head. The Knights of Ehrenfest are to protect the lords and their families, and Ehrenfest. As a result, the chief of the knight should basically work as an escort knight of the lord.

"It is impossible for Tora Gotto to become the Knight Head, without serving anyone? The Knight Grandmaster is supposed to play the lord's escort knight."

"My grandfather did not serve anyone, I served as the chief of the knight, I would like to do that as well."

..... It was because the grandfather did not serve anyone but reigned as the head of the knight was a child of the lord.

I heard the old story of my grandfather's eyebrow at the dinner party when I was just getting up from Jureve. There were various episodes, but if that is all true, it is a staggering life with a different meaning from the chief priest. As the place where you can fully appreciate the strength of such an old man was an Order, it should have belonged to the Order as a Knight Head, while assisting the lord of the previous generation.

Although he was the head of the knight, there was also a work as an assistant lord for his grandfather, so he did not work as an escort knight of the lord. I heard that it was the same when the chief priest kept his seat at the Order. The child of the lord can not be an aides.

Naturally, it can not be applied to senior aristocratic troigots.

"That, Tora Gogot ... that is ..."

"Rosemain may be impossible, but if Cornelius and myself were me, it was stronger in my old days, and my grandfather said that I have a genius. I know how to compress magical powers If it is, in fact, I should be stronger! "

I said so, Tora got grasped his fist in a chaotic way.

But I will head to the words of Traugot. Even though older brother Cornelius is close to the year, the two-year-old is away. The second year of my childhood is big, and before I knew how to compress my magical powers, Broder Cornelius should have been strong to the extent that he was chosen at least as an escort knight.

... .. Maybe I planned to plant a competitive spirit, "Well, yes, you have a genius for the traumigot," did you take the word of the old man like that? Anyway, was it really stronger than Cornelius elder brother?

I can not believe that the traumigot was stronger then. It seems that the person who thinks that Cornelius elder brother got out of trouble at the time of training is right answer.

I found out that the interest in traumig is getting faded among myself steadily.

..... Oh, I already have to round up the story at the right place and I want to read the book I borrowed from the library.

I wanted to finish talking early, but Torauggot seemed to be feeling sick in the environment where I could say what I wanted to say, my mouth became faster.

"Although I was stronger, as soon as I knew Rosemain-sama's way of compressing magical powers, only those people became strong and strong, my grandfather was keen to train only escort knights of the lord's family, I He did not train me. "

The speech is blaming with that way of saying. The traumigot which my favorite grandfather seems to be unable to get caught may be poor, but there is no way to think about the situation.

A poker pushed into the owner's house with a nobleman's guide, Charlotte was scared, I fell asleep as he was poisoned. It was urgent to train the escort knight of the lord's family. If it is a grandson who is a child of the lord and the grandmaster who is the head of the knight, I can not imagine breaking the crisis of Ehrenfest and training one of my grandchildren.

"In my grandchild always I was the closest to my grandfather, but Angelica became to be called a disciple like an old man, the most magical power among my grandchildren is getting stronger and stronger It is now said that Cornelius is the "

Originally, Mr. Traugot mutters that he was supposed to be in that position.

Escort Knight must be strong so that the lord 's family can be protected, it is the escort knight of the Lord' s family who focused on strengthening it, and he seems to stop looking otherwise.

"That would be the case, Bonifatius retires the Order, is not it the job of the upper division of the Order to train other knights?"

"So, I wanted to be an escort knight!"

I do not think the traumigot only to be recognized like a grandfather. That is why I did not want to be an aide of Wilfriit who received cancellation of the job offer as the next lord.

"Why did you choose my escort knight? If you became an escort knight of Charlotte, you could have been trained like an escort knight of a lord's family while I sleep."

"Because Charlotte is a woman, there are many female escort knights, the opposite sex escort knights are inevitably few, and I have a weak connection."

Despite being the same faction, Charlotte's sideways and nanny and tragot were not so much related to each other, and it seemed that the traumigot who was more excited with Vilfriet and played rather than Charlotte was judged not to fit Charlotte. It is.

As a result, I stayed asleep for two years and aimed at my aides that Aiko candidates once broke up. There is also a relationship that the head side is Richarda and Grandfather's grandchildren are friends. Also, as my escort knight, there seems to be a calculation that, after waking up, you can tell me the way to compress magical powers first.

"My father, who praised us ago, began to say only tough things after Cornelius became strong, I want to raise myself quickly, I want to be strong."

"Your father of traagot is your father, oh, oh, oh, you are the brother of Karstedd, are not you?"

According to Richarda's information, the father of Trauggott was surely a girlfriend 's second daughter' s son. And I heard that he married Ricarda's daughter.

"That's right"

According to the content he told me, the trauma father seems to have grown up compared with Karstedd. I think that there are parts where mothers were competing with each other. I do not know in detail what kind of emotion he was seeing his father who was the first lady's grandfather and became the head of the knight.

But what he said that Bonifaceius who trained the two of Cornelius and Trauggott of the year said that Tora Gogot had a talent was outrageous to the father of Toruggot. In hopes of liking Bonifaceius, I asked for the strength to Torugotto. It seemed that the result was connected to the current situation.

"A lower knight like Damuel can extend magical power by that much, if I can extend it more,"

What is it?

As Ira in the words of Draguel neglecting the efforts of Damuel, the sympathy for the growing traumigot disappeared in a blink of an eye.

Certainly Damuel is a low-ranking knight, always lamenting the small amount of magical power, so it was in such a condition that I could not see it as a target by whom I liked.

However, the importance for me is not comparable with the traumot. It is my most esoteric escort knight who can be trusted most because of my old relationship. Even after I realized that I was a commoner, I tried to protect it from Shikikoza, and since I became an escort to be sent to the temple, I guarded it from the Count Vindebart to life.

Even after I knew the magical compression method, I worked diligently with my hard work and increased the magical power, and I thought about how to fight efficiently if I fight, I have been thinking for a long time, I can praise Oi like about magical handling There. Damuel can fight with his head, unlike the current knights apprentices who just thrust by magical power and physical strength.

"Damuel's magical power growth is due to his efforts, although the traogot is more advantageous as it is a senior aristocrat in the growing season, there are not quite those who strive hard for that much."

"High is known at a place where a lower aristocrat made a serious effort."

..... Huh? Oh so.

When laughing with a serious effort of Damuel with a nose, I decided to truncate the trap in me. I do not want to become an atmosphere that escort knights took to be a giggis, and I do not need anyone who can not respect each other.

I do not want to leave a traumatic glove that makes a low-ranking aristocrat surprising around me, without seeing excellence.

... ... It is best to let me resign.

In dismissal, there is a fear that not only the person himself but also the relatives will be injured. I want to avoid Richarda and the old man suffering disadvantage for the traumat.

Besides, it is troublesome to get a grudge against strangers, so I want to keep the situation that Traggott wants himself to quit.

"I want to understand the claim of Traugg for the time being. I want to be like a grandfather, I want a praise from my father. I want to look stronger than Cornelius and want to see everyone. So I want to know my ways of compressing magical powers. There is no choice. "

It is a child whose shape is quite bigger than me but who seeks parents affection. I am not seeing the surroundings much because I am seeking strength for my parents affection. Even though I knew it, I could not feel the love that I thought about trying to think that I could become a grown up so that the trarugg can grow.

"Traegot, please do not resign from your aides right away. Instead, I will tell you how to compress magical powers."

"really!?"

The face shone with joy, the traumigot watched over his eyes.

"Well, let's teach them at the same time when teaching to everyone at the end of winter, but please keep in mind that you earn money by themselves and do not cause problem behavior. This is to the aideside faction and faction. There is no relation at all, it's basic. "

To say that it is to protect my aides, as well as those of Wilfried's aides, Trauggott got big nods. I am trembling with the joy my wish has come true.

"Then, please put a magician and declare it in front of everyone"

When I put a magician that I was holding in my hand with Cotri, the traugat also placed a magician. And, with a clear face, I look around everyone in the aides and declare it to be high.

"I, the traogot will resign Rosemain's escort knight"

I resigned from being told that it was dismissed. I felt a gaze like accusing me. Especially the gaze from the same escort knight is severe. It was Rigida 's gaze though the rage was filled with the most anger.

As I gazed at those lines of sight, I tilted my head.

"As for Richarda, there is something like proceedings with regard to resignation?"

"Princess"

Unlike Richarda, who gave a blaspheming voice, Hartmut gave me the ink and the ink.

"Mr. Rosemain, is not it okay to write that I leave this wood basket?"

"Thank you, Hartmut. Please write that you are going to quit Traugot, my escort knight here with my own will, so it's over."

Traugot writes happily on a wood bid.

I saw the letters written in ink, I nodded one.

"This is a good thing, now Traegot is not one of the knights apprentice, my escort knight."

"Yes"

"Please allow the traoggt to come back to the room and I will explain later."

When I say so, the traugot goes out of the room with the awkwardness so that it escapes from Rigida 's stinging sharp gaze.

The moment the traumgot went out, the rage of Richard exploded.

"Princess, what kind of intention do you have?" As far as looking at the expression on the traumgot, you promised to teach how to compress the magic, would not it be impossible for him to resign easily? "

"That's right"

My aides beside myself for my answer. A question of "Why is it a method of compressing magical powers?" Is raised, and Richarda's eyes are hung on triangles.

"Princess, if you do such a sweet response to a traumatog that is making a misfortune, other aides will be dissatisfied!"

"... It's sweet, I thought it was the best way to get everything to fit round."

"Where is it !?"

I tilted my head as everyone, including Richarda, arranged their voices.

"First of all, the first thing I have to say is that I heard about the circumstances of the traumgot, but I did not think I wanted to be totally at all, I want you to grow or somehow rehabilitate that kind of thing I could not feel sad. "

"If it was you, more severe ... ...."

"That's why I thought that I do not want to be tormented by any more troubles."

My aides blinked at my words. Hartmut is looking at me in an interesting way. I looked around and I expressed my opinion.

"It is easy to dismiss a traogot, because there is a reason for that, but if you dismiss it, the honor of Richarda and Bonifatius might get hurt as well. However, I do not want to get scratches on people around me, if it is sweet it is sweet for Richarda. "

"Princess....."

Richarda is not the only one. I do not want to eat punishment until the father, who is the head of the knight, like the shikozosa, because the education of the knight apprentice is not done. I wanted to resign as much as possible to individuals as much as possible, since I do not know where I will be affected by disposing the traogot as dismissal.

"So why did you decide to teach magical compression methods, did not you tell only trustworthy people?"

Brother Cornelius makes the eyes of jet black which is very similar to his mother steep. I look back at the eyes straight and look back.

"What do you think will happen to the traumatic thing that resigned? I do not think it will be an escort knight of Virfriit's elder brother, because I could not come while I was asleep, I can not become an escort knight of Charlotte. If Richarda reports this story, I will not be an Mercier's escort knight "

"Well, I guess that degree is reasonable, as I was forced to resign from my dismissed position."

"Now that the line of sight is directed only to the immediate magical compression method, you can see the reality soon, the future perspective will become darker and the life here will be tough mentally? "

In my words Hartmut slowly nodded while stroking his chin.

"Even if I look at the current situation, I do not think Rosemain's aides will be in close contact with the resigning traumigot, and Wilfriit's aide, former Veronica, other than that, already in the past few weeks It is a settlement, and I think that it is difficult for a traumatic going in there. "

It nodded, it was easy for everyone to imagine. The life of the traughgot from now on is never comfortable. It seems that it is a common perception.

"There may be a possibility that information is flowing in other areas ..... Ahrensbach etc. There may be a possibility that information may flow, too Because there is a possibility that it may be subjected to a strange contrition to ask for strength. So, I teach compression methods. "

"I can not understand the meaning well, why does it lead to teaching magical compression methods?"

Brünhild tilted his neck with a mysterious look.

"So, we need immediate bait, in order to obtain a method of compressing magical powers, traogot will keep trying to keep myself in mind until the end of the aristocracy. To earn money by oneself, to not cause problem behavior is to teach It's a basic condition "

When I laughed at him, Hartmut shone the orange eyes and saw me.

"It is highly likely that you will return your palm after you get it, but how do you think about it?"

"I'm going to teach people turning to their enemies a way to compress magical powers, so for that reason, it is supposed to link contract magic with items that have items that do not turn to enemies before teaching."

And Cornelius brother seems to have noticed my purpose soon.

"In other words, is that teaching how to compress spells to bind trajagot with contract magic?"

"That's right, I do not want to teach you how to compress spells, I want to bind you with contract magic so that the traumigot can not turn to enemies."

By making it resign, it will not hurt besides the traogot. By teaching the magical compression method, you can restrict the anti-grudge and hostile behavior of the traogot. It is desirable for Ehrenfest itself itself to increase magical powerful aristocracy. If it does not hostile, it is still more.

Traegot knows the compression method I wanted to know, and I can quit my aide that I did not want to serve.

"I think that everything fits well very well,"

"Princess, then there is no punishment for traumgot!"

Richard shook his head with a tough face. However, now it is better not to hunt the traogot so much. The atmosphere in the aristocratic society which is showing a certain degree of beyond factions is broken.

"Knowing how to compress the magic, strengthening and wanting to become the leader of the knight, how much did you hope for the effort of the tragogot, will not it come to punishment? Do you have a way to the future with your own hands Considering despair when I learned that I had shut it up, I think that it is no more punishment. "

The punishment of the traumigot is not now but it is on the back.

In my words Richard says punishment that others can understand.

"It may be better for you to deprive the place as a nobility and to reflect it in the temple as well"

"... Is Richarda so angry with me?"

When I saw Ricarda in a mood that I wanted to cry, Richarda made my eyes round like I was surprised.

"I think that correspondence is sweet, but it is not because I am angry with the princess"

"Please do not forget to send the temple only, the temple is the area of the temple, the temple of the temple, thought to have taken care of the traumigot sent as a blue priest though he made him resign from his aides at the most I do not want it. "

My absolutely disgusted head broke, Brother Cornelius smiled small.

It is not a laughing matter. The temple is my territory. I do not know what attitude would be if a traumigot who disdain such a daniel as a lower aristocrat against that gray priest or gray shrine maiden. If you are to be brought to the temple by eight hits, the gray priest servants will not be poor.

"And, for education as a blue priest, will I be deprived of Ferdinand's time? There is no time to waste like going through a traogat to Ferdinand and I. If you want to educate, Do not you think that Richarda and the old man should do in a range not to hurt, as I do not have anything to do with it, please do not point the traogat to here. "

In my words Richarda says, "It is just like it is," he said.

"Although it seems to be a sweet correspondence to the outside, it truncated spectacularly, its cleanliness is wonderful."

Hartmut laughed happily. It is a satisfying smile like I thought it was.

Looking at that smile, I narrowed my eyes a little. I am not completely dissatisfied with Hartmut.

"Because it is this case, I will tell you, Hartmut"

"What is it?"

I looked at the plentiful Hartmut, I opened my mouth.

"If you say that it is obligatory to provide information to me, please first come and tell me the information I knew before publishing it without permission."

"Do you like Rosemain?"

"I do not care as to where I got information from, but I think the skill to get such information is wonderful, but the civil servants I know reported all the information I got to my boss My boss had left me to decide how to use the information inside. "

Compared to Justoks' way of doing everything to the chief priest, Hartmut will deal with information that does not endure my wishes.

"If I say that Haltmut is the information I got for me, I will decide the handling of information as well as the timing of disclosure. If Haltmuth will only publish information that is convenient for him to his / her convenience, my We do not use words such as reasons or obligations as an aides. "

Hartmut, who looked like a relieved man, stood up once, kneeling on the spot and hanging his head.

"I will bear in mind"

In this way, the aides decreased by one person, the reading time after my meal was reduced sharply, the discussion ended.

Chapter 313: Tea party with Egrantine

---

For the fourth stage of the magical compression method, angelica began to devote himself to study as the form changed. It seems that he wants to stretch his magical power so much that he can devote himself to the devil sword Stin Luke.

"Rosemain's way of compressing is amazing, I admire Rosemain Mr. who will come up one after another."

When you find a goal it is the older brother of Cornelius who is going to be associated with Angelica going straight in. It is qualified from the fact that he has already taught Angelica for many years as "Angelica's scorer with the Daniel" and has finished the lecture to the highest grade student to teach Angelica.

Brother Cornelius has already finished his lecture and has only occasionally gone to lectures on practical skills so that I can go with my library. In addition to going to my library now, after breakfast and after dinner I am working as a teacher of Angelica and knight apprentices who are studying at multipurpose hall.

"Cornelius, Angelica's teacher is serious, is it okay?"

"If you do not go to Rosemain's library, you will be more comfortable, will you not go to the library once every two days?"

I was laughed at with a smile and I made a ridiculous proposal. I smiled with a smile, shook my head, I decided to encourage Cornelius my brother to the utmost.

"Three weeks before I return to Ehrenfest, I believe that Cornelius will be fine, so please do your best."

"You do not feel like weight, do you?"

Brother Cornelius lightly shrugs his shoulders like no action. It is a face that says to say anything but knows useless things.

When I listened to my weight, I put my hands on my cheeks and tilted my head and tilted.

"..... It is self-weight, there is a slight memory that I threw away quite a long time ago."

"Self-weight is not like throwing away! Please pick up"

In the words Cornelius brother who returned immediately, I remembered Beno's fist and felt a little nostalgic.

Ah, I should tell Beno that I'm going to need lots of Lincian and vegetable paper. We need to talk about whether or not to sell the manufacturing method.

When thinking that I should tell you as soon as possible when I returned for the dedication ceremony, my older brother Cornelius was cheeked with both hands and was pushed with muscle.

"Do not get absorbed in thinking suddenly along the way, please listen to the story of the person till the end, Rosemain Mr."

"Let's have a fairy tale!"

Although I grasped Cornelius elder brother's wrist, I can not remove the hand of Elder Cornelius who is an apprentice of the knight. The cute face will be destroyed at this rate.

When I managed to struggle to peel my hand somehow, the eyes of Brother Cornerius who was angry at first gets turned into something that is gradually and interesting.

"Cornelius and Rosemain are very friendly brothers and sisters,"

Léonore laughed with couscous, brother Cornelius breathed lightly and withdrew as if in a panic. And I compare me with Leonore as I was in trouble.

"It came to Rothemain-sama like this since I came to the lords, because we live together only during the educational period before baptismal expression."

"It is a good place for the lords to be able to exchange such a little with Cornelius"

In the castle you get rebuke from the surroundings unless you are closer enough. It was because we came to the House of Peers because the escort knight and the lord who had only been dating as an adopted daughter were able to shorten the distance. Still, though it is not perfectly related to brothers and sisters.

Interestingly Leonore peeked in, so I decided to shake a little love story to Cornelius elder brother.

"Well, apparently, we need an escort in the graduation ceremony of the aristocracy? Women asked if someone from their relatives would attend if there were no other parties, but what about men? If you are Cornelius elder brothers, Do you have a mother? "

Leonore shimmer with the eyes of the indigo blue as I say, while turning his eyes to angelica where there is a rumor that my brothers of mine will be married.

Brother Cornelius blinks his eyes on a sudden topic, but still gives an answer rulingly.

"... ... Well, I will escort you who is a mother, an aunt, or a person who knows that it is not eligible at first sight.If you ask a sister who is close to the year, you are misunderstood from the surroundings and echoes in the marriage From

"It is common for both men and women to ask relatives, so who does Escort Cornelius escort?"

"What do you mean by sudden !?"

Look around and it is dismayed that Cornelius elder brother can understand at a glance.

"Maybe you can not find it yet in a year? Should Cornelius be popular? Should I pretend that someone will do it?"

"Do not worry about Rosemain san! Apply for yourself"

... ... Do you recognize the other party?

In the neighbor where I and I nodded, Leonore felt uneasy.

A few days after I kept going to the library with a busy Cornelius meeting, tea ceremony tea ceremony came from Egrantine.

"Do you understand in the afternoon three days later?"

As an invitation from Kozenburgh in the Okinawa Prefecture, Akimono proudly began to move for preparations while proudly making his face frustrate.

Bruhn Hilde and the Rizerator confirm immediately whether their lectures are not included in the afternoon three days later and see if they can accompany.

Since it is a tea party between women, it is decided that Leonore and Yudit will be escorted. Angelica seems to study for magical power acquisition. Once I decide I will concentrate without swaying my side looks refreshing.

Philene also shone the eyes like young leaves and jumped out of the dormitory as "I will gather information about the majorland Klassenburg."

Among such overbearing aides, it was most amazing to keep the emphasis on trendy outgoing Brühn Hilde.

"Mr. Rosemain, would you like to take Lincian in small pieces and have you promised such as Egrandine at a tea party with music teachers?"

"Well, I guess you can bring it as much as you can, would you divide it into small bottles?"

"Certainly yes"

Beginning with the selection of a small bottle, we select seriously which one of the three kinds of Lincian's to bring, the scent that Egrantine does not fight with the aroma that it gathers, carefully packing it. I do not remember at all what kind of scent the Egrantine was dressed. I remember being a good smell.

"Is the homemade cactus curd, is it still honey?"

I thought a bit about the question of the Rizerator. Teachers' tea ceremonies, calls of Anastasiusus, and already honey taste kettle curls may have been appreciated twice by Egranthine.

"Does not it seem that there is no art at the same souvenir every time, or is it better to take the same thing as this is a push of Ehrenfest in order to transmit a fashion? Is not it a feeling?"

In my words, Brühn Hilde also thought a little, and as I thought, I raised my head.

"How about preparing two of the honey taste and the taste of Philippine? If there is a thing that Eglantine like your favorite things and a thing that changed a little bit, the impression of the same thing is always I do not think so. "

If you bring a taste that is not a plain you brought to Soranju or Lumutopf that you brought to Anastadisus, the colorfulness of the katarukaru will also be transmitted. From the taste of tea and the taste of fragrance, Brühnhild suggested that Catholics with Philijine are the best.

For me who can not think of other people 's taste from tea or fragrance is upset. While surprised by the ability of Brühnhild, you can only give it permission by nodding.

When I nodded, "The Raezerer laughed nicely," I will arrange like that ".

After I saw off the Rizerator heading to the kitchen, Brunhild looked to the Rosina. Rosina, a musical instructor, has to take him to a tea party, so he is present at the discussion place.

"Is the song dedicated to Rosina, the goddess of light complete?"

"I'd like to spend a little more time, so I will give it as much as we want, so I'd like to finish a little better song, and would not it be nice if you asked Prince Anastigius, the client, once again?"

I was saying to dedicate to Eglantine with a momentum, but the first thing I asked was Anastasiusus. Certainly it seems better to visit once. However, it is better to ask the Anastasisus "Lyrics?", Since love is likely to runaway, it is a place to worry if you should make it here.

And, on the day of the tea ceremony, I headed to the room where the tea ceremony of the highland Klassenburg will take place.

Several tables and corresponding chairs seem to be prepared in the room for the tea ceremony, but today I use only one table, so most are placed behind the scenes with a large picture painted spaces Are delimited.

Buildings of Ehrenfest are often decorated with cloths such as tapestries while leaving the white part, and wooden things are used for the majority of furniture.

However, the interior of Klassenburg was crowded with complicated patterns and cloth embroidered like a wallpaper, and the paintings were decorated with a lot of paintings like a proof of wealth. Marble-like stones such as marble are used for furniture in many parts, and it turns out that there is a cultural difference for each province.

"I was waiting, Rosemain sama"

Egrantine greeted me with a soft narrowing of the bright orange eyes.

Today 's Egrantine is decorated with a delicate race, complicating the undulating blond hair that is convincing to be compared to the goddess of light, making it half up. It's a fashionable and complex knitting race.

This hair-decorating race is a thing made as part of bride training, it is the beginning that you decorate your arms to show them to whom you like, so that the love affair of that girl has been fulfilled, so in a blink of an eye It seems that it was prevalent in the lords.

..... Egrantine is amazing, unlike me. It is similar to the original Turi.

By the way, my hair ornament is left to Tully. Early I had been making, but since the level is completely different completely, I can not add my own hair ornament.

"Thank you for inviting me, Egrandine,"

"If true, it would be better for me to invite my friends and introduce them, but today there is something I want to talk about and I will introduce friends again later Please do it. "

"I think it is a bad word."

Expanding exchanges is a tea ceremony at the House of Lords, but I do not have any problems as the small number of people get settled down.

In the side of Egrantine, Brünhildt hands over the handicraft, and the crockery is arranged in two kinds of tables.

Me and Egrantine drink tea that each prepared, eat sweets and recommend it.

"Rosemain, does this katarukaru have a variety of tastes? The other day the taste of the cottle curl received from Prince Anastigius will have a different taste ...."

It seems that Anastasiusus had firmly tied to Egrantine. Were you able to earn points a little?

"There is Cattle curl with lumutopf in there, here is Philippine, so how is Egrantine still like to have honey?"

"I also like to have honey, but I also like those with this filigine, which is refreshing and has a flavor spreading in my mouth is wonderful."

For Egrantine it seems to be good to receive a Catholic curl with Philippine. I could see Brunhild looking at the end of the lips with a delightfully little choice of Catratcard with Philijine.

"Then, this will be a lincian to make the hair glossy.The leiserer of my side will teach you how to use it."

When I handed out a small bottle to Egrantine, Egrantine opened the lid and enjoyed the scent slowly. I narrowed my eyes satisfiedly that "It is a very good scent," and hand the small bottle to my side.

Leisurer leaves room to teach how to use to Egrantine's side. Egrantine who smiled and looked at it looked round me and me.

"Mr. Rosemain fought with Dunkel Ferger and Dittor to become the master of the magician of the library? I heard from Prince Anastigius. I am very surprised."

Anastigius seems to use me for the conversation story with Egrantine. Egrantine knew little of the story about Schwarzs and Weiss. It is a terrible information volume.

"As for the magic tool, it is progressing, and the winner of the ditters is also not a proficient one that made use of a strange strategy, so it was not possible to win against Dunkel Ferguer, so the apprenticeship of the knight of Dunkel Ferger is very brilliant That's it. "

"Oh, Mr. Ruffen also praised Rosemain-sama for the first time in battle, and I want to rematch again."

..... I will try not to approach Mr. Ruffen.

"Rosemain was also very good at dedicating Mai"

"Is not it just because I am small, if I really danced well, it was because I was watching an Egrantine-like lesson closely. I want to dance like an Egranthine, I danced That's it. "

"..... I think that Rosemain was not a gentleman, I think that I was really good. As I was staring at the eyes filled with heat as I would like to practice, I got such a compliment, It seems to be leaning "

Egrantine said so, as she blushed. It is not unusual to be able to praise Mai that "you are good," but it seems that it was the first time to be told that "I want to dance in the same way."

... ... Should I tell Prince Anastigius? Why can anyone get angry?

"Besides, Rosemain has already finished all the lectures already, I was surprised very much when I consulted about the schedule of the tea ceremony from the side."

"Since lectures in lower grades are not so difficult, I have heard from my guardian that there are many people who will finish early,"

..... Although it is said that it will end sooner, it would have thought that the priest president did not think that it would finish all in the first two weeks and be able to go to the library.

With that in mind, I remembered that the dedication ceremony was approaching. It is approaching to break up with a nice life to be drawn by the library all day. It's melancholic.

"Because I have a requirement to return to Ehrenfest on the way, I had to finish my lecture in a hurry."

"Because Rosemain is the temple of Ehrenfest, is not it?"

"Yeah, that's right, there is a dedication ceremony."

The aristocrats entering and exiting the temple tend to be disgusted, but there is no disgust with the eyes of orange of Egrantine. Rather, it looks interesting. Would it be my imagination to look at a little serious look like interest?

"What kind of things do you do at the dedication ceremony? Mayor Mai dance?"

"There is no dance, it is a ceremony that puts magical power in the small sacred cup so that you can fill the territory of the land with magical power in the spring. If there is no magical power, there will be a big difference in the amount of harvest of the territory, It is an important ceremony to satisfy with. "

"As the temple's son is the temple, filling the land with magical power, the old method has been succeedingly passed down at Ehrenfest, I admire it."

Egrantine fell off his eyes once I felt an eye on my unexpected words that I thought that it would be said that it was insufficient to turn the temple's son into a temple.

"I think I mentioned that Rosemain has a story, could you use this?"

"Well, I do not mind."

Egrantine took out was a witchcraft to prevent eavesdropping. I will take the magician put in front of me.

"Because it will be a complicated story, I do not want to hear too much about the side work."

The expression of Egrantine who said so while laughing appeared to be embarrassing to me. Even though I thought about it from the neighborhood where I caught up with the topic of the temple event, Egranthine must have invited me to a tea ceremony because I want to talk about the temple.

"What kind of work do you do at Rosemain in the temple?"

"In order to compensate for the lack of magical power, I was ordered to enter the temple from Aub Ehrenfest, so it is my important job to do ceremonies. Honestly, the other jobs are other I am asking for the state. "

There is no need to answer frankly, saying that he is concurrently serving as an orphanage chief and a workshop chief. Egrantine who heard while nodding my words answering while thinking such a thing shines the eyes of Orange.

"To compensate for the lack of magical power .... If so, will you also put me in the temple?"

"Is Egranthine in the temple?"

The temple is being challenged among the aristocrats, it is judged that there is no money and can not prepare magical tools, there is a shortage in the magical power of the house, it is judged that it can not be used, or it is isolated from aristocratic society A child thought to be thrown in.

It is strange to say that I am the temple of the temple, but it is unusual for Egranthine to want to enter the temple.

"How did you think you wanted to enter the temple? Do you know what the temple is like?"

"Of course, I know what the temple is treated among the nobles."

While saying that, Egrantine crowded his finger cautiously in front of his own chest.

"Do you know Rosemain, are you my character ...?"

"It's only the simple things the teachers of music taught me."

"I have lost my family as a result of power struggle. While I am courting from Prince Sigismwald who thought that I would approach the throne now if I took power, now I also court from Prince Anastigius to control it There was an offer ... Although I do not want to see any more power fighting anymore, it may be that such a disaster may also occur by my choice, I want to avoid becoming a seed of conflict "

I heard that Egrantine was the daughter of the Third Prince at the time of political change. In the lecture of the priest who I received, although I won once, the third prince was supposed to have been killed by the assassin who Prince First Prince released.

Then, he heard that political change has intensified by the rage of Kozenburg, the large Prince of the Third Prince, furious and now he embarked on the fifth prince, and he who was on the side of Prince I was the fourth prince ing.

Egrantine, who was in the midst of political change, knows painfully how he wants to avoid further political change.

"Egrantine knows the feeling that you can not choose either because you want to avoid power fight, but since Aub Klassenburg knows that Eglantine wants to enter the temple to avoid fighting Is it? "

"..... I've told you that I have been dismissed as a nobleman enters the temple."

That is why it seems that I wanted to hear what I was doing the temple. It seems that he wanted a persuasive material to enter something. Unfortunately, I do not have the persuasive material that Egrantine wants.

"I believe it is natural for Abu · Klassenburg to oppose it, because we also know that the temple is being despised by aristocrats, and that from now on entering the temple means to avoid marriage itself Is not it? "

I entered the temple to compensate for the current shortage of magical power. The circumstances are different from the large dominance Klassenburg which was the winner of political change. Besides, I am supposed to leave the temple so that I can get married when I become an adult. It is the opposite of Egrantine 's wish to enter the temple to avoid marriage.

Now that the number of aristocrats is decreasing, I think that there is no way to be accepted such as entering the temple of Egrantine, which is more likely to have magical babies.

"If I become an adult, I am going to quit myself by quitting the temple of the temple, I do not think it will be helpful for me"

"... Well ... I thought that it could be a good idea to use magical power for the territory and escape from power fighting"

Egrantine sadly turned down his eyes and gently sigh.

"In addition to entering the temple, do not marry the royal family, do not have any position to not marry?"

I will tilt my head. Egrantine does not want to enter the temple, only to avoid becoming a seed of power fighting. In that case, I think that it is better to look for ways other than entering the temple.

"I can avoid it if I become Aub Klassenburg, but already my cousin .... No, my nephew is to succeed in connection"

Although I thought about marrying to other territory, if I kick the offer from the royal family and marry to another territory, my heartfelt worse from the royal family, and I will also trouble Aub Klassenburg.

"My grandfather, no, the adoptive father seems to have regretted a little about what I adopted to protect me, I robbed my position as a royal family. Therefore, I married to the royal family, We want you to regain your status. "

Egrantine muttered that he wanted more peace than such a thing.

"So, does Egranthine ask the relative of the graduation ceremony escort, neither can you choose in the current state?"

"... Well, unless there is a command from the king or Aub Klassenburg, we are planning to ask relatives."

Egrantine smiled lonesome and said so.

... .... Aya, Prince Anastigius, it looks useless.

"Rosemain, it is a secret that I am aiming for entering the temple"

"I think that nobody believes in the place I told her."

I do not believe even if I hear that Klostenburg's lords candidate wants to convince his relatives and enter the temple. If it is Anastasiusus, it seems to get angry that "Are you planning to defeat Eglantine like that?"

After a serious consultation, I talked about the epidemic of Ehrenfest. As well as music, Lincian and hair accessories seemed to be very concerned, there was an offer to take in Klassenburg.

"I will report it to Aub Ehrenfest when I return at the dedication ceremony. Should I have a secret Lynxian secretly at that time? ..... This is a commodity, so it is charged."

"Well, Rosemain-sama, if Prince Anasutasuji asked, I will reluctantly."

With that laughing laughing happily, Egrantine put up his forefinger a little.

"... If you secretly, please only one, please get along well, Rosemain sama"

Chapter 314: Report to the Prince

---

After the tea party with Egrantine was over, I also continued the happy libraries' passing days. This happy day will last for about two more weeks. I have to read and read spiritually before returning for a dedication ceremony.

"Hey"

I heard someone calling out to someone. In the library quietly, thinking, I flip through the page in parallel.

"Hey, what is the small of Ehrenfest"

"Rosemain, Prince Anastigius has arrived!"

I closed my books with a van and a reaper raider who looked like a panic from sideways, and I lifted my face as a crap. It seems that it was Anastasiusus who was noisy from a little while ago.

In principle, candidate lords and royalttes asked Dunkel Verger 's Restistau that they would go to take the necessary books for their aides and they would not go to the library on their own. But why is Anastasisus in the library? Perhaps, Anastasisus also likes the space of a library and wonders whether he goes.

..... The likability to the Prince rose a little.

"If you need something, if you have the necessary books, I will search it as soon as you ask Professor Sorangju, and I know Schwarz and Weiss well for books and materials on the second floor."

When I pointed towards a smiley smile like usual three times, Anastasiusus turned into a face like a crushing bittern.

"Do you need something, do not you have a tea party with Eglantine over three days ago? Why do not you come to the report why the letter of the visiting request is missing You will not say? "

..... That's it. Did not it be a book you like books? Sorry.

The likelihood of just rising falls at a stroke. I breathed a breath of ha and disappointment.

The letter of the visitation request is missing, it is a common complaint of the excuse "I deal properly, but the civil service seemed to be neglecting ... ...." When a great man did bad things, it is similar to excusing that "everything the secretary did with its own duty".

Stared at an irritated gray eyes, I twisted his head several times while blinking his eyes.

"I have not promised never to come closer to Prince Anastigius from me, because I can not change my promise with the royal family, I have waited quietly to be called"

..... It's a prime name. Actually, I thought that I was going to get annoyed when Prince Anastasezu contacted him, so I thought that the promise would be left untouched until called by the shield.

"From here we will be at a loss what to do before we promised not to contact,"

"I was convinced of reading, to the extent I called it directly, did not it?"

Hun and Anastasis were ringing their nose, but I pretended to know that I had a chance to report, "I'm relieved," and turns a smile.

Since discussions with Anastasius were done with a paying attention, nobody knew that a tea ceremony report with Egrantine is necessary. Therefore, now everyone is pure blue.

"Now, call me now. Report immediately."

"I can not prepare any souvenirs, but ...."

I thought that I wanted to change the date, but it seems that Anastasis is quite saddened. "Do not hesitate, hurry up" and turn the cloak and black cloak to the exit of the reading room.

I got off the chair and reached for a book on the desk. If reports to Anastasis are lengthened, there is a possibility that they will not be able to return to the library. I need to borrow procedures before leaving the library.

"Lending this book ... ...."

"I will leave it in place, I will return the key of Carrel, so Rosemain will not let me report to Prince Anastigius first"

".....Yes"

The book was picked up by the Rizerator at once, and urged Richarda to "Princess, as soon as possible". Forcibly pulled away from the book I leave the library with a feeling of being haircut.

..... Oh, I failed.

I accompany Richarda, Hartmut, Cornelius and Leonore, I will walk behind the Anastigius.

When I was called by the prince, I ended up walking behind the scenes. Now that the number of students who gradually have free time of lecture has increased, I feel that I am tremendously conspicuous to be brought to the prince.

..... I should have asked for a visitation quietly. My stupid thing!

I felt like to be crazy, but from the outside I kept my chest up and looked like a smile and moved my legs, Anastaseuz stopped and looked back.

"Slow, too late, Rosemain"

"I am sorry, Prince Anastigius does not care about me, please come back first."

It can not be helped me to walk slowly. It is different physique from Anastigius. I am trying hard enough that I'm already out of breath. If I try harder any more, I will expose a strange figure. It should have become healthy, but I do not have physical strength yet.

..... If you walk at this speed, you will collapse before you reach!

I do not walk anything other than the library roundtrip recently, so it seems I have no physical strength at all. By the way, I have not done radio exercise recently. It might get angry if it is known to the priest.

... Well, is it okay? There are plenty of story that everything gets angry, so even if you increase it by one more, it will not change much, do you?

"Rosemain, I will excuse you."

"... Richarda"

Richarda refused a word and hugged me quite well.

Hotly, as I leaned to Richard unexpectedly, I felt the eyes of Anastigius at the next moment, I woke up a little.

"What are you doing?"

"Rosemain principally has weak body and no physical strength. The complexion has become worse and it seems likely to lose consciousness soon, so I would like to carry it like this"

"I lost consciousness? I heard the story from Ruffen, was it true?"

It seems that I was listening to the story that I went down while I went to the end of the staple to obtain Stap, Anastigius had rounded eyes.

Anyway, is not Leuven a bit too mouthful? Maybe it is also a role to pass information to royalty and higher ranked candidate students? I feel that my circumstances have been overwhelmed by Ruffen.

"Even this has become stronger than before, but impossible for the princess is impossible."

I will emphasize the arms that Rishard holds like to protect me. Looking at it, Anastigius narrowed his eyes cheeky.

"If this distance does not seem to be able to walk, is not it possible to move through the castle?"

"As regards the movement in the castle and the dorm, we obtain permission from Aub Ehrenfest and the princess uses the cowgirl, so we can not use it in the aristocratic hospital that you do not have permission. From Without permission of the royal family, you can not ride around a cuddle in the room.

"Well, you can leave it as it is."

Anastaseuz started to walk quickly as I said so with a sigh.

I will be moving while being lifted up by Richarda. I noticed that gaze began to gather more than before, I wanted to wear cloaks off my head and want to escape from my surrounding gaze. If you really do such a thing, I will not be able to do it, because more gaze will be gathered.

"Is not it okay, Princess. The color of your face is pretty bad"

While moving forward straight ahead, Richard asks with a small voice whispering. It seems that I tried a little hard. I was lifted up by Richarda, and I felt somewhat disgusted at the moment when I felt relaxed, my head got cranky.

"... It is disgusting to the extent that Feldinand's kindness is wanted."

It is rare to say that I would like to take medicine from me. Richard once closed his eyes tightly and gently breathed.

"Please sit here, Rosemain sama"

The old man of the Anasutazuusu who suggested such a seat and looks at me that is not so good, directs his gaze at a glance to Anastasiusus. It seems I do not look pale as long as people who hardly face each other frown brows.

However, Anastasiusus lightly shrugged his shoulders, shed it, waved his hand.

"Rosemain, let's make people pay"

"Can not you use a magical tool to prevent eavesdropping? I did it at the tea party like Egrantine, though,"

I thought that I do not want to release Ricarda holding medicine from the side now, but I tried to propose it, but I was immediately rejected.

"Denulla, because some of the civilian apprentices know how to read lipics, witchcraft to prevent eavesdropping is useless."

I thought it would be troublesome, but Anatisteusus knows the site where people who can use the reading lip are in the surroundings and the site where the magic tool is useless is useless. And it is necessary for the royalty to be cautious enough to be wary of children's opponents like me.

Since I can not help it, I got medicine from Richarda, and after having drunk, I kept away the aides.

In a room where only the aideside of Anastasis remains, I recommend tea and confectionery, and gradually speak. Immediately after the formal exchange was over, Anastasiusu entered the subject. Apparently it seems to have been quite waiting for the report.

"How was Rosemain, how was Egrantine's answer? Who are the escorts of the graduation ceremony?"

"I'd like to ask relatives to escort the graduation ceremony"

"Is not it the same as the answer of others? It is not helpful"

In Answer to my answer, Anastasis shakes his head lightly, and "It is the answer that made me wait for only this," and it stares at the eyes of Gray. Even if you are stared at, there are no other answers.

"I am sorry I did not serve Prince Anastigius, but it is true that Egrantine said that neither can be chosen."

Then, when I try to raise the story with this ..., Anastasisus gently raises his hand and controls me.

"Wait, Rosemain. What are you saying now?"

"Yes?"

"What do you mean you can not choose either? Is it that Egrantine has a thoughtless person not neither an older brother nor me?"

..... How come so! Is it?

I thought of the trouble of Egranthine, I wanted to hold my head. Egrantine was suffering quite seriously, including the past political change, unlike in the brain that stained with the love affair of Anastigius. Yes, so that the candidate of the lord of the large territory intends to enter the temple as a blue shrine maiden.

"Egrantine is not in a situation where it is possible to create memories, etc. Do you know well Prince Anastigius?"

In a situation where two princes are married, if you say "I have a feeling person", the situation becomes more complicated. When I gently lightly sigh, Anastasis widely narrowed my eyes.

When Anastasisus becomes a serious look, she is scared just because her face is in good shape. I take breath and breathe, I correct the spine. I am worried about throbbing and dull pain around temple, but it is not a place or an atmosphere that can keep it steady.

"What do you know about that? What did you hear from Egrandine?"

Because Egrantine is the daughter of the Third Prince and losing her family due to political change, I do not want to become a species that causes conflict of power. Regardless of being aiming at entering the temple, that extent is more important than the one I've never talked to in the face only twice, so that the person of Anastasiusus who is exchanging so many times close I should be familiar with it.

"If you are Prince Anastigius, you think that you know ... but ..."

"I judge whether I know it or not, talk."

I am speaking with the atmosphere that makes it obey without saying the presence or not, whether I say the permanent of those who stand above, I opened my mouth. Apart from being aiming for entering the temple, there should be no problem speaking.

"Is Egranthine lost his family with political change?"

"Oh, that's right."

"So, I told you that you do not want to choose, Even if you follow instructions from the King or Aub Klassenburg, you may follow it but you can not choose either prince, Egrandine himself Everyone seems to think that it is disgusting to become a seed of power fight, but anyone knows about this? "

When I heard about the reaction of Anastigius I fearfully, Anastasiusus had become a surprised expression.

"Is Egranthine wanting to return to the royal family? I heard that, but ..."

An unexpected word came out from Anastasiusus. I also amazed my eyes at amazement.

"From whom did you come in? I heard that you want to return Egrandine to the royal family is a grandpa who regret that you adopted Egranthine and took away the status of the royal family But "

As I tilted his head and said so, Mr. Anastigius murmured as "a predecessor" and gazed lightly.

"... ... then does not Egrantine himself want to become a royal family?"

"As far as I heard, Egrantine wants peace."

"Peace ... ..?"

Whether it is aristocrat to do a roundabout way of speaking, because I try to ask opinions through people, I do not understand what the only knowledge I have just met the face is already in agreement with Egranthine Anastage isus is twisted.

"Because this is a solitary phrase, I would appreciate it if you could hear it from the children's speech, but before the escortes, Prince Anastigius and Egranthine first talked about what each other wants without going through other people Is not it good, it seems that each other's feelings and desires do not communicate at all? "

"What does it mean that you do not understand?"

Although Anastasiusus frown like a muffle, one who seems to be able to communicate in this condition would be funny.

"Egrantine said that the proposal of the two prince is to approach the throne"

"No, I have an aeglantine ... .."

"Beyond that point, it is not unrelated, but rather please tell the party directly, Egrandine."

I do not want to hear other words such as the word of love to other people in such a bad condition. Rather, I want to go home soon.

"As I saw it, Prince Anastigius's thought seems to have been distorted and distorted to Egrantine, hindered by the wall of power fighting, how do you start with asking Egrantine's wishes? "

Whether anything to say is thought to get a throne, the shock was the fact that it was shocking, Anastasiusus is visible and is falling off his shoulders.

Truly, against the royal family "Because I am mistaken for this, I wish for the happiness of Egranthine, can not you give up and give up quickly?"

"Egrantine had been looking for a way to leave power fighting and not to marry the royalty, I was looking for a way to say I wish I could be Aub Klassenburg, but to Aub Classenburg If so, can you truly avoid getting married with royalty? "

"... It will be impossible to marry at least, because women are less likely to become aubu, in that case they will take a son-in-law."

Even men and women who are engaged are likely to abandon their engagement if a woman suddenly succeeds Aub after sudden death. It is because the opponent's man must be a candidate for a lord who is able to join.

On the contrary, a younger brother who was supposed to be the awesome will be able to become a successor and sometimes abandon her engagement. That is the relationship between Georgine and Jilvester.

"I do not know at all whether I will give priority to the feelings of Egranthine, to give priority to the throne, I do not think there is any idea that I do not think, but I will try to select the future from anastage I think it is Prince Ushu. "

I am not very familiar with royal circumstances, so I do not know at all what I can do to get on to the throne, I can get out of now, or what I need to get around to the surroundings.

"... It may be difficult in the position of Egrantine, who is involved in the royal power fight, but I think that Egrantine would be able to spend peacefully and peaceful days even a bit."

Anastigius murmured, "I think so," and raised the end of the lip with the nipple what had come up with.

"Rosemain, it was unexpectedly good information"

"I am sorry"

If you look at the face of motivated anastigius, you will see well that you do not feel like giving up feelings to Egrantine.

I do not know how to do it, but I think that you have to work hard until you give decisive guidance. If that makes Egranthine happy, that is fine.

"Prince Anastigius, this is extra information and it is very rude and it will be a tough opinion, do you want to ask?"

"lets listen"

Raise your chin up quickly so that Anastasisus who gave a little eyebrow urges you. I slowly opened my mouth with my hands on my cheeks to support my blurred head.

"I understand if you look at the lesson, but Egrantine is very active in dedication and dancing Mr. Anastigius thinks that it would be better to practice dedication more seriously, considering the equilibrium. Dancing will cause Prince Anastigius to be worse. "

"What?"

Regardless of the anastistic usus which frowns offily unpleasantly, I keep going ahead.

"Also, I will tell you the song of love that fainted from Ehrenfest, so why do not you try practicing? If you are confident in Fespiel, that will be the story ... .. Egranthine Knowledge of art is profound, so why not try attacking from there? "

When praising, it is better not to just say "good" but rather to praise what you thought was good. Egrantine probably has a higher degree of tokimee if it is said that "I like the voice of Egrantine" rather than "the voice of Egrantine is beautiful."

When I heard my words, Anastajusus, who became a face like crushing bitches, pulled my mouth.

"Rosemain, that person, I told you all you want to say a good deal, I will not say that to my aides"

"I'm sorry, please do not hesitate"

I already told what I thought was better to teach. It is irrelevant to me whether Anastasium executes it or not.

Anastigius hits the armrest of the chair with frustration and taitong and fingertips.

"Rosemain, I will give advice to you as well, I should hide my emotions a bit more, I will not be able to give out information and I should lift my information and the value of bringing that information in. I see it at my feet It will be handled lightly "

It makes me frustrating, but it is definitely a warning from the real mind. I am conscious of the social first of myself, so I appreciate it and accept that advice.

"Excuse me, I will devote myself from now, please excuse me to leave. The head got caught up in the earlier and consciousness ..."

Although I felt somewhat frustrated by taking medicine, a dull headache has been continuing for a long time and furious drowsiness is attacking instead.

"Osvin! Aide of Rosemain!"

"Immediately!"

Lastly, I made the appearance of Anasutasususu who is standing up and the head side Ousvin headed by early foot to the waiting room where Richarda waits, Finally, I lost consciousness so as to lean against the armrest of the chair.

When I woke up I knew that my condition was bad from Anastasis, but an apology that forced me to report was arrived. Because there was a message of sympathy from Egrantine together, I think that it probably was scolded by Egrantine and wrote it.

... ... Has there been some progress? I hope so.

I saw the names of the two lined up and I smiled small.

Chapter 315: Return order to Ehrenfest

---

Finally my physical condition has recovered. I wonder if tiredness was accumulating unexpectedly. I wonder if my strength is gone at all. It took me three days to recover this time.

"I got really relieved as the fever went down, and these three days was very hard."

Richarda taught me the riot of three days, saying "I should not leave the bed today."

First of all, it seems that I lost consciousness during the meeting and made Anastasium and his aides very frustrating. While knew that it was frail, he was let me report and collapsed in the bad physical condition, so it seems that the top side of Anastasius was very frustrated.

Besides, newcomers who rarely saw me falling down in front of me also seemed to be in a panic and did not become usable. It seems it was hard for Richarda to embrace me and to exit from Anastasiusus.

And after returning to the dormitory my consciousness did not come back and there was no reply at all, and my condition seemed to have reminded me of two years ago when I fell asleep, and my brother Cornelius and Wilfried It seems that I made my brother a deep blue.

"It seems better to apologize to Virfriit's older brothers"

"It is ahead of returning to my physical condition, and those who feel sick while I apologize are in trouble."

"Yes....."

Instead of keeping me quiet in bed, I got permission to read books borrowed from the library, making it a grueling day.

"Is it okay to go to the library today?"

"Well, it is."

I got permission to go to the library from Ricarda, I am pleased to get out of bed that it is fully recovered.

"I heard a lot about Rosemain-sama's weakness, but when I see the moment of actually losing consciousness, my head will turn white and I do not know what to do."

It strokes my chest like Leonore standing inside the room escortingly and relieved, opening the door to head for breakfast.

Knight apprentice who loses mind during training is often seen, but it seems that he saw it for the first time that a person who did not do anything suddenly loses consciousness. Because I do not know the cause of collapse, I did not know how to deal with it, he said he was going down and forth.

"Good morning, Rosemain"

When I got off to the second floor, Hartmut and Elder Cornelius were waiting. They both look at my face and loosen their expression as if they were relieved.

"Hartmut also seems to have surprised it, is not it?"

"The liver has gone cold, the one who spent together in the children's room in the year Rosemain showed off, seems to have seen Rosemain falling with a snowball, but I was the first one."

I heard only the story from my mother Otilie, but still he said, he was surprised. When we arrived at the breakfast seat, Vilfried saw Richarda with a suspicious eyes that "Rosemain really moves around."

"I did not get much fever yesterday, because I was reading a book, my physical condition seems to have returned."

"If so, then return to Ehrenfest"

"Yes, what is it?"

As I tilted his head, Wilfried slowly breathed out and said, "I will explain after meals." I do not understand why I have to return to Ehrenfest, I end the breakfast with my head tilted. After that, Wilfriit and his aides, me and their aides were gathered in a room.

"It arrived, it is an order to return to that one"

Wilfried presented to us by letters from the adoptive father and the chief priest.

As a rough content, "If you have already finished the lecture, please come back quickly." "Rosemain, which causes unexpected things one after another, is better once you get away from the aristocrat" "Do not explain There will be a lot of things that will have to be done, it is not understood at all with the report alone "... ... etc.

I leave it to Wilfried to socialize at the lords in the future from here, and I heard that an inquiry meeting will be held by parents at Ehrenfest.

"I do not say that it is good to the dedication ceremony, there are about ten days yet! I will go to the library until the end of the day!"

My library life, which has been scarce even now, has been reduced by four days due to poor physical condition. I definitely want to prevent further declines.

"Rosemain, this is an order from Aub Ehrenfest"

"Well, I can not return to Ehrenfest because of poor health until the dedication ceremony, I will draw to the library seeking mental stability and recovery of energy"

"You know what's confusing you can see but what on earth are you saying?"

Wilfried sighed as if he was amazed.

"Well, is not it too suddenly?"

"Yes! It's too sudden!"

Angelica is the one who agreed with me in a loud voice that hates returning.

"Rosemain will not return! I will reserve the last exam three days later! So I will pass on the fourth stage of magical compression, please do not leave yet Rosemain, do not leave! , Three more days! Three days are not good! "

I will not return, and I am hugged by Angelica and I firmly hold on to Angelica. Valuable supporters must take care.

"Yes, we do promise to deliver music to Prince Anastigius, as well as the Angelica test, and we must also thank our Egrandines for a sympathy. If you return over a long period of time to Schwarz and Vice There is something to prepare for magical power supply, there is also here, I can not return immediately. "

Richardar said, "Yes, I understand, it is important to make arrangements during my absence" when I arrange what I have to finish before I return.

"To let Prince Anastigius and Egrantine know that Princess will be absent so that the remaining Wilfried Baby will not be troubled, we will have to inform you."

"I definitely will not be bothered if I do not have the royal relationship closed."

We can not disclose the contents of the talks made without excluding the aides. Wilfried will be asked for coping without knowing anything after I return.

It seems that Wilfried began to show the attitude of concession, so the apprenticeship of the knight who has been drawn to Angelica's study and the fourth stage of the magical compression to the passing of Angelica are all together nod.

"I'd like you to wait until Angelica's exam is over"

"It is a division of fate whether angelica can graduate or whether to give off from Ehrenfest"

"Three days, three days is OK, please do it as preparation period"

Angelica's loss of motivation when the bait of magical compression is gone is sure to become something that wants to cover your eyes. It is clear that a single subject is not over. Knight apprentices who knew the condition of last year wanted to end Angaurika 's lecture as it is and stayed together.

"Angelica, is the bad grades as they are graduated?"

"Yes! Everything in the school is to pass this as well"

..... Do not be proud of it, Angelica.

I am excited to be good at this year that I am doing my best to compress magical powers, but my good-looking face further accentuates Angelica's regret.

"After Wilfried-san, Angelica's exam, I will let Rosemain return to Ehrenfest soon, as soon as my aides will take responsibility and separate it from the book, I will return home ... please ... I will give you the grace of the day. "

"Cornelius, somehow my treatment is terrible!"

It seems that everyone's desperate wish has passed. Wilfried thought he raised his face.

"Okay, I will tell my father to set up a preparatory period of three days, so please finish what I have to do during the meantime and I will return to the next soil day." Good, Rosemain "

When looking around and Wilfried says so, the surroundings are good! I nodded with a spirited face like that.

I am dissatisfied with the quick return of about one week, but it is useless to say anything alone, as long as the surroundings are convinced. While referring to the cuckoo, I nodded in a reluctant manner.

".....understood"

Compared with the magic team that moves objects, in order to move the magic team that moves people, it requires a lot of magical power, so the report to Ehrenfest is basically done through the exchange of wooden cards and letters.

In the room with the magic team there is a knight for watchdogs, they receive Ordonants from Hill Sur, they write a report and are sending them.

It seems recently that Wilfried wrote what I was doing and sent a wooden bill like every day. Therefore, it seems that a return order was issued.

... ... Wilfried brother-sama!

To prepare for the return, I wrote to the letter for Ehrenfest, "I will bring Ella at the dedication ceremony, please send an alternative cooker" and send it to me.

To return to the temple for the dedication ceremony, it is too hard to let Nikola cook a dish. If you consider which of the exclusive chefs to take home, there is only one answer. You can not leave Ella at the House of Lords, with no one to defend, taking Fugo back.

"Will Villefried's older brother, may I take the rosina and return?"

"If you can, I would like you to leave me. What among the musical instruments I have, the Rosina 's arms are the best and the teachers of music also praised us? It is necessary for socializing from now on."

Wilfried said it was a musical instructor who must accompany the tea ceremony. A variety of new songs that are popular in Ehrenfest are played and many musicians who are making new songs even after they came to the lords. If that skill is recognized by teachers and Egranthines, he says that Eolenfest is necessary for sustaining even a little better.

"Then, please ask Wilfried's older brother about the rosina, please be careful so that the rosina does not get bad or get out of pulling out"

"I know, Rosemain's important musical instructor, I will not handle it crudely."

As Villefried undertook the contract, I decided to leave the rosina.

If you do not go home together, there are many things you have to ask the Rosina to set aside.

"..... That's why, for Rosina, we will remain in the House of Lords for socializing though there is a score you want me to write in a hurry, is it good or not? The songs dedicated to the goddess of light and the songs devoted to the goddess of wisdom It is a song dedicated to the goddess of the earth. "

The songs devoted to the goddess of light and the songs dedicated to the goddess of wisdom are mood for the priest. There is a pleasant expectation that if there is a new song, a little will loosen the question of interrogation.

"I think I will show Ferdinand how to sacrifice the goddess of light."

"If you are Ferdinand, please do not hesitate to ask us how you arrange them."

And the song dedicated to the goddess of the earth is a love song from which an example fainting person comes out. I have to give it to Anastasiusus.

Since I have decided not to put the printed matter to the House of Peers yet, I ask the Rosina to write the music score by handwriting, and send me a letter of thanks, an absentee contact and a musical score to Anastasiusus.

..... I think the lyrics match.

I want to know your happiness, I do not want to end without knowing I think the lyrics are perfect for anastasisus now. If you practice and sing well, you will feel that the heart of Egrantine is a bit close-up, even if you do not fain.

I made a lot of rude thing to Anastasis, so I want to earn points as well. I thought it wrong and added postscript to the absent contact letter. "If you tell me the flowers and colors you like of Egrantine by the day of the soil on which I return, you can order hair decorations. How would you give a hair ornament to the graduation ceremony?"

At the same time, please give a thank - you letter of thanks and an absence notice to Egrantine. I will write "I will buy Lincian," I sent it.

The next day when I asked Brünhild to have my letter handed over, an oddness with fever came flying from Anastasius.

"It's wonderful, Rosemain. This song is really good! And I heard that the costume of Egrantine is red, my favorite flower is Corralieri, my hair decorations are ....."

The important thing is that Eglantine likes Corralieri, which resembles a lily, and only the first part of wearing a red costume. After that, compliments to Egrantine continued all the while, I was seriously sick of being told three times.

Then I answered "I understand" to Anastasis, then headed to the library. Reading is also important, but the primary objective is to supply magical power to Schwarz and Vice. I do not feel like returning immediately soon after the dedication ceremony, so it would be better to put as much as possible.

"Sorangju sensei"

"Oh, Rosemain, I have been worried because I have not seen him for a while, but I'm relieved to be fine."

Finally, as I was taken to Anastasius, I was worried very much because I was out of the library from the opening to closing every day since I came out of the library.

"I was worried somewhat because I was somewhat sick. Today I've been in contact with Shiratsu and Weiss to supply magical power to her absence for a while"

"Thank you for coming"

She looked up at me with the golden eyes that Blackberry and Weiss got called by Sorange.

"Dear Mr. frog?"

"Hime, are you no longer here?"

"Because I have an important use, I will return to Ehrenfest once, but I will come back to the aristocrat by another game against the territory."

As I say so, I will hold my hand to the manastone of the forehead of Black Forest and Weiss. I poured magical power as much as possible, and I breathed out lightly with huh.

"I think this will be fine for a while"

"Though we need a lot of magical power as a lord of career candidate, thank you for supplying magical power for Schwarz and Weiss, Rosemain sama"

I was going to enjoy the last reading slowly at the library, but Aldonants flew away from Hill Sur and was blocked.

"Rosemain, if you are returning to Ehrenfest, you will be in trouble if you do not get in touch with us, please come back to the dorm soon"

It is a call from the dorm guard. It can not be ignored. Hill Sur definitely gets into the library. Considering the troubles to the surroundings, I closed the crying book.

"... Let's go back before troubling the library, so please help yourself, Mr. Sorangeu and Vice."

"Okay, thanks,"

"Make a backup"

When I finished my greeting and returned to the dormitory, I could see Hirschle waiting with a large bundle of paper and a wooden box.

"If you are going back to Ehrenfest, please give this to Ferdinand. I have summarized my consideration with the magic teams embroidered on the clothes and belly of Schwarz and Weiss. Please get Ferdinand's view, and this is the magic tool that Ferdinand had previously created, as I am in a bad shape and I hope you will fix it. "

Some stacked boxes are all handed over to the chief priest. The contact was stopped because the president of the priesthood entered the temple once and it seems that there are lots of deliveries because my contact came by my admission.

Because of their arrangement and packing, all the Akari guys became busy, so I could not go to the library with my accompanying absentee, and the final day before returning was lazy, organizing and preparing the information that everyone gathered

I was devising measures to calculate money and measures for parents' questioning meetings.

Angelica, who had taught me all together with my aides who were also subject to our magical compression to pass the Angelica and a knight apprentice that I did not want to eliminate my efforts so far, I was in the examination.

Angelica has won the qualification in a trial that is devoted with full power to fulfill everyone's expectations and his purpose. It seems to be proud that he has already accepted it because he still has a term and dropped the teacher ... .. who cried out, and won the passing.

"With this I, I finished all the lectures!"

Although the practical skill will pass quickly to the acceptance level, angelica where the lecture always pulls its feet is a bright face, declaring the end of all lectures.

"You can tell me the fourth stage of magical compression and you finally get to the escort mission."

Angelica says so much with a smiling face.

It is Richarda who is the leader's side, Elder Brother Cornelius who finished all the lectures, Angelica and Leonore. Yudit, Brünhild and Rieselter still have lectures on practical skills and civil servants want to keep in the House of Lords for information gathering.

"Philline, Hartmut, full-fledged socialization will start in the aristocrat, and various kinds of information will flutter. Please give me the information collection."

"Certainly yes"

"It is only me that I have not finished all lectures with a knight apprentice ..."

Yudit mourn away that he wanted to go with him, but something that has not ended is no use. Yudit is getting a bit more due to the average score that the weak player is not biased toward practical skill and schooling. Yudit is not a child who can not. It is normal to think that the nobleman is not in social season.

"If you have Wilfried's older brother going to the tea ceremony, please advise the elder brother's side," Riseller and Brunhild.

"Certainly yes"

I finished greeting to the aides and entrusted Wilfriit later, and I went into the room with the transition team.

"It seems that everyone is looking forward to Rosemain's return home over there. Today alone we have already received three cards from Auer Ehrenfest."

The knight who is doing the number showed a bamboo briefly written as "Are you still?" With a bitter smile. I felt indescribable irritability in that hit stroke, and the neck got hooked.

Only three people can move in the transition team. Me, Richarda and Elder Cornelius first enter the transition team.

The magical team for the transition is filled with magical power, and shot the light of black and gold. At the same time, the manastone set in the brooch glows. The space before my eyes fluttered swayingly, and I felt like a dizzying stance for a moment.

When I blinked, my nostalgic face was lined all along the next moment. It was Charlotte who ran up to the top. I anxiously lowered my eyebrows and looked into me with lavish eyes.

"Welcome back, my sister, I heard that the fever did not come down for three days after falling down, is it OK to adjust again?"

"I'm back, Charlotte ... yeah, it's okay now"

We will leave the magic line to leave a place for Angelica and Leonore to come back next and move to the waiting room.

"Rosemain, it looks fine and what's more"

"Grandpa"

"Huh, this way, Damuel was also trained."

Somehow scars are increasing a lot, but the body is getting stronger and the feeling like a childish childish feeling seems to be slightly fearless.

"... ... It seems to have been difficult, but it seems to be a little strong."

"I'm glad you returned home ... ... really."

When I smiled a little to the word that I had realized, my father walked with a big stomach.

"I was worried, Rosemain, I did not feel alive when I heard that I participated in the treasure thief"

"father....."

While worried, it seems that your father's eyes say they want to hear a detailed story. My mother appeared before me to control it.

"I thought if I heard that story, I was wondering if I would lose much of the surprise, why did not you be an apprentice of the knight Why did you come to participate in the ditters? Cornelius of the escort knight did not stop ? "

Grinning Cornelius brother was stared and I hurriedly stopped my mother.

"Mother, Cornelius elder brother is not bad, I said that I will participate."

"I stopped but did not stop, Professor Ruffen gladly accepted participation, so I could not do anything."

In the words of Cornelius's brother, "Ruffen will be interesting," foster mother breathed lightly. It seems that the reason why Duncel Ferger's getting stronger was strengthened by Ruffen. During Ruffen 's school days, sorry for anything that could not be said leaked from the surroundings to the foster mother' s words watching Dunkel Ferger becoming stronger and stronger.

"You won Dunkel Ferger? Rufen will be applying for re-election many times in the future"

"... .... That's why I work hard because I am a knight apprentice, so I will not participate anymore."

The adoptive mother said, "I wish it was good, but ... .." he gave me the words that made me really uneasy. It seems that there is persistence that you do not leave as you lean, if you think it is a good hand.

..... I did not want to know such information.

It was very adoptive adoptive father who grabbed my right shoulder that dropped my shoulders and shoulder. My cheek draws on a smile with no dark green eyes laughing at all.

"I was late for a long time, Rosemain. I was looking forward to returning to you."

"... .. Did something seem to be waiting for your adopted father?"

"Oh, it is probably good to say that it is unprecedented abnormal situation, so that reports and questions will arrive one after another from the House of Lords who received the report that there is no special mention only once a week in a week It is noisy even if it reaches the conclusion that it is best to hear from him if it got to become meaningless report from Wilfried like every day. "

Wilfried seems to have sent a report quite often, but if the meaning is unknown, is not the meaning of the report meaningful?

"Is not it better for you to instruct Wilfried's brother how to write a report, not calling me?"

"Wilfried's report can not be read! Their actions are unknown! Rosemain goes to register at the library and becomes the Lord of royal magical tools, so it will not be understood if there is no connection at all Let me explain everything, so that I will come to my office from now on. "

..... After all I think Wilfried's way of writing is bad.

If I write carefully one by one, I think that I have not done anything that makes the meaning unknown.

When I thought that it was awful, I was caught by the shoulder of my father or something opposite. As I raised my face, there was a face of the priest who was smiling with a smile there. Again golden eyes are not laughing at all.

"Welcome back, Rosemain. It was a very late return"

"I am back now, Mr. Ferdinand, because there is still a day before the dedication ceremony, it is a much earlier return than my schedule ..."

When I looked up to the chief priest, if the grudge that picked up the library was deep, the priest chief wrinkled the brow.

"I surely ended the exam as soon as possible and should have said that it will definitely come back before doing unnecessary things."

"I remembered that I was banned from the library until I finished all the lectures, but I do not remember such words."

After having smiled with Huhu Hu, Ho ho ho, the chief priest kept his eyes narrow with a slight smile.

"There are so many things I would like to ask you, What happened to you, you decided to have a private tea party with Koosseburg and the second prince in the highlands? Depending on the content and way of getting along, Ehrenfest It will not be neutral, but will enter the faction of the second prince, but without any idea without any thought, would not it be said that he was having a tea party? "

.....I'm sorry! This prince, it is troublesome. I thought only to read books in the library!

"Well, let's go, we still have plenty of time to listen to your story by the dedication ceremony."

"... Hahaha"

In this way, I was kidnapped by the guardian threesome to the office of the lords as soon as returning.

Side Story: Vilfried's elegant and inept living life

---

I was worried very much about what I was doing now.

It can not be helped. By feeding the library, she showed her motivation. It is not surprising that you think about trying to pass all of the first-year students because it's so painful.

However, it seems that it was bad that he grew. Rosemain was now a stricter teacher than my uncle.

I abandoned my sleeping hours, gave me the materials that summarized the weaknesses of each, and I am amazed with a smile to make sure I passed one.

I felt sympathy with the former Veronika Rodelich who should be hostile, and when I knocked Rosemain out of excess, Rosemain tilted his head with a blank face.

"Since I wanted to pursue and hunt down, I wanted to pass all of them fastest, so I thought that all first-year students passed the conditions, I should have said that I will start with full effort."

... ... It is useless. I will not stop.

"How do you do, Wilfried-sama? If you do not stop Rosemain, first-year students are truly poor"

I do not have to bother to say such things without being told by the aides.

I started holding a runaway looking for a way to stop Rosemain, holding my head, wrote that I wanted to tell the situation and how to stop Rosemain in my wood destined for my uncle, sent it to the knight in the transition team's room received.

"Mr. Villefried, Ferdinand sent you a reply"

"Please show me soon"

In the content of the wooden bull read in a hurry, I wanted to hold a head further.

"What was written?"

"... Is there no apprentice at the other side of the aide of the crowd, or does not know the format of the inquiry? Study for a while, and you should be able to write in your own way about the inquiry about yourself"

"Huh?"

At the end of the beautiful letters of laziness lined up are: "The library is also very toxic to medicine. The extent to which a library is given to Rosemain is as difficult as medication, If it is touched carelessly the damage will be enormous. If the library is not engaged it would have been able to distract himself by giving a book, but in this case the thing is bad. The first grade die There was nothing to do with mind, it was not a big amount of money, such as an academic examination for the first year students, "which was utterly useless advice.

"It is not an amount that you can remember at a stretch, even if you say that it's not a big deal."

"... .. Because my uncle was drowning in Rosemain who had been sleeping for two years, the standard is Rosemain."

"Rosemain and Ferdinand do seriously think they can pass,"

"Ahh"

Rosemain's pursuit was successful, some first-graders stuffed with tears were outrageous, but all were able to pass.

Although I was noticed that Ehrenfest was awesome as he got one pass for the first year student, there was nothing to be proud of, relief and exhaustion came.

After that, Rosemain did various things.

Rumors say that hit the teacher with a coward beeps and will not return if you go to pick up the will of God and you become the Lord of the magical tool when you register the library and pass the fastest and best results for all lectures If you start going to the library, you will not come back when you go to the library and you will be able to get a fight from other territories if you do the measurements, worry about winning with Ditter if you are watching, receiving a call from the Prince, I had an exchange and I was supposed to have gone to the library but I was called by the prince and I got lost consciousness and returned.

I asked Ehrenfest about each one I do not know why. Although the lecture is over except for the way of using Stap, it does not feel like having escaped studying at all from the study due to the correction which is corrected and returned. Rather than passing the lecture, it is very hard to make a report that your uncle is satisfied with. I have written a report on Rosemain, although my senior cousin's sister has not finished lecturing yet and I only thought that my tea ceremony was far away.

"I did it, Wilfried-sama!"

An aide of civilian apprentice who always writes the report together shines with a shining smile and brought back the wood basket. It seems that he got a regular flight from the knight in the transition team's room on the way.

"Have you had any useful answers !?"

When I went to the library, I sent a question about Rosemain's report on Rosemain who was taken away by the second prince and lost consciousness during the meeting where she dismissed her aides, and how to deal with the prince, but something good answer came back I guess.

When I handed it out, the apprenticeship of the civil mischaracterized as "A", and as I was in trouble, I turned my eyes away.

"What?"

"No, there was no correction from Ferdinand, so it was quite right about the format of the report, so it's delightful, just ..."

"What about the crucial answer?"

I felt happy to be accepted on my uncle, I felt complicated like being hit by weak feeling that it was not that I was aiming, I looked through the wooden bull.

As the civil apprentice suggested, there was a sentence saying "As soon as he recovers from physical condition, he instantly returns Rosemain to Ehrenfest" after wording praising about the form with his handwriting on his uncle.

"... .. I got a return order to Rosemain"

"You can write a report well enough, you will not write that there are no subjects to report"

While sighing in the apprenticeship civil servants who have shifted feelings, I review the wooden bulls again. There is no doubt that a return order is issued.

..... If Rosemain returns, can I use the time for myself for myself as well?

The time to prepare the report must be available for hobbies and socializing.

I felt that the elegant aristocratic life I had thought before admission was approaching, I stood up.

It is still earlier to know that Rosemain's scratching scandal has been challenged and the lord's life after returning is never elegant.

Side Story: Hannaore's wail

---

I am Hannorore. It is a freshman of a lord who is enrolled as a candidate for a lord of Dunkel Ferger.

..... Everything is all my fault.

Although I am suitable for Dunkel Ferger 's Lord Candidate only for me, I am always scolded that there is nothing wrong with anything and that my ideas and behavior do not seem to be candidate lords for my family. I am scolded all the time, so I am not confident and I can not like my older brother.

..... Although I am planning to spend as much as possible not to inconvenience the surroundings, I do not think that it will be such a thing.

It was a rumor in the lords immediately that the great Sumiru magician in the library started helping Professor Sorangju and that the Lord was a candidate for the lord of Ehrenfest. Mr. Ruffen, a dormitorial supervisor, said that the magic tool of the royal family is a relic relic, losing the Lord by purging the previous political change, and it did not move for a while.

I like Sumil, so I heard the rumor and went to the library to see it all at once. It is a little relieved that many girls who heard rumors of big Sumir in the same way as me are found in the library and there are many colleagues.

The appearance that a large white and black big schmir is helping with Mr. Sorangju is very pretty, I returned to the dormitory very satisfied.

I misunderstood Cordura of the side who always follows, "What a lovely thing, I'd like to be such a Lord of Schmir." It was my intention to talk to himself. Indeed, if it is usual there is no problem at all, it would have been words flushed "by the way, Princess" by Cordura.

However, I was asked by the aide of Lesty Lout brother that muttering to the wrong thing. And he said he reported to his brother, "Hannalee seems to want to be the Lord of Sumir".

"As Princess can be the Lord of that big Sumer, Lestilut says to Ehrenfest that if you become the master of a magical tool that is a relic relic, you can increase the authority of Princess Hanneriore It seems to have been thought. "

One day, when I returned from the lecture, I heard such words from Cordura who was in trouble, I widely opened my eyes wide.

I was not confident in myself, too bad, and I was pointed out in court lecture that there is no dignity as a lord of the large territory. In my lecture of court practice, in order to attach a foil, Sumir I have never thought of getting the seat of the Lord's. Rather, attracting such attention will make you known about yourself who is not suitable for the lord of the large territory.

..... Brother, what a trouble to Ehrenfest!

"Immediately stop the Lesty Lout brother!"

"... .... Ordonants arrived from Prince Anastigius a while ago, Professor Ruffen was invoked, it seems that it is not the situation that can be found in the hands of the princess"

Stopped by Cordura, I occasionally hugged my head. He already led the knight apprenticeship of Dunkel Ferger and he was said to be able to leave the restyrut brother. If I passed the examination in the last lecture instead of today, I could have talked and stopped properly.

"Princess Hannareol, as usual, the interval was bad"

"Cordura, it will not be any consolation."

I was thinking of what it was, but the Dormitories have already been invoked by Prince Anastigius. I can not get along with a challenge.

I was awfully awaiting the return of everyone. Dinner was close to the time that I came back. I was told that the detailed story was at the dinner seat, headed for dinner while holding down my uneasy chest.

As Ehrenfest refused that he could not give the position of the Lord to Dunkel Ferger, the prince arrived where he tried to be a big battle. The residence watchdog was called, and according to Professor Ruffen 's proposal, it seems that it was decided to judge the Lord of the schmir by the doctor. Mr. Ruffen 's love for ditters is useful as well.

As a result, Ehrenfest won the Dunkel Ferger who is victorious in regard to Ditter and the position of the Lord seems to have been determined to be Rosemain-sama like before. I did not get to pick up the rights from Ehrenfest and I was really relieved.

"Such a cowardly man asks the saint <sup>Where</sup> Absurdity It is rich. "

Rosemain says to be driven out by Ditta in a single word, seems to have lost handsome, restless but brother is irritated, but both Professor Ruffen and the apprenticeship of the knights are excitedly talking about a game.

"Rosemain is not cowardly, Mr. Lestilaut. The treasure steal Ditter uses every kind of hand to take away victory, compared with Ferdinand's strange idea, is not it a cute surprise cuddle full of countermeasures yet?"

Ruffen delightedly talked about today 's Ditters game and talked about a strategist named Ferdinand who defeated Dunkel Ferger in the past and started planning for the training from tomorrow.

Knight apprentices exchange information with themselves about a number of Ferdinand 's strategies that they heard from their seniors and relatives. Now that you win, no matter what kind of measures, the knight apprentices felt even harder the bonds are getting harder than usual.

"I have to train with this and have to apply for a rematch to Ehrenfest"

"..., ... Professor Ruffen, please stop stopping me any more Ehrenfest"

"There is no inconvenience, Hannaore says, it's a ditting match"

For Professor Ruffen it is a matter of hope that the winner of the ditters is what they want, but I think that there are very few people who are happy to be pleased when a women's lords proposal candidate pleads for a dit game.

..... Even so, Rosemain is a very good lord of interest, unlike me.

Rosemain passed all of the lecture on the first day and he said that the Prince was victorious to Dunkel Ferger and became the principal of the relics' relic, so the lord who has been the most noteworthy this year It must be a candidate.

I have been told poisoned by attacks, been soaked in Yureeve for about two years and not growing up, so I heard rumors that I might not be able to come to the House of Lords, but I can not see such a situation very much. It looks just like finishing the baptismal ceremony, so it looks even better.

Rosemain is a young but beautifully appointed figure, with the eyes of gold 's eyes like the moon' s sky hair and surprisingly glossy, and always inserts hair decorations that I have not seen elsewhere.

Among the female students of Dunkel Ferger, there seem to be a lot of people who can not afford to get informed, so I'm in a situation where silent stress is put on my side as soon as I finish my lecture and start socializing.

... ... I have to acquire acquaintance and invite Mr. Rosemain to the tea ceremony, but I must apologize to my brother's business before the tea ceremony. You will have been bad for you this time, so you have to pay close attention to how to invite.

It is not graceful to steam the things that have already settled again and again, but in my word I made a great inconvenience to Ehrenfest. I do not feel as long as I apologize.

..... But how should I meet Rosemain?

Since it is freshman students, you should be able to match your face in the lecture if it is originally. However, since Rosemain has finished lecture quickly, there is no opportunity to match face.

..... Wilfried says nothing but a lecture on how to use Stape. Even though the ranking is 13th, the lord of Ehrenfest lords is too excellent.

Fortunately tomorrow we have a lecture on how to use Stap, so we can meet Virfriit. I would like to ask if there is opportunity to meet Rosemain.

In the lecture on how to use Stap, it is now popular to make a staple with her own crest emblem. It is because everyone wanted to imitate Wilfried sama.

If it comes with a coat of arms, it will be a different staple from the others, and it can be imagined as being a clear emblem as it is the coat of arms of your home. The studs with coat of arms are spreading to the students who think to make a little different strap from others.

"Is not Hannelore like Dunkel Ferger so it is not a hawk, does Mr. Hannaore have no coat of arms?"

"Stap with Virfriit's ideal coat of arms is wonderful but I am married to another territory, so I am not planning to attach a coat of arms to Stap."

It is a prime building. I have little experience in handling magical powers, not dexterous, so it is difficult to keep shape even with simple stapes. It can not enter coat of arms etc.

"Indeed, do you have such a problem, I want to twist a little more because the coat of arms does not differ from others?"

Put out your own staple and Vilfried narrows his dark green eyes. I do not want to finish the lecture as soon as possible, but Villefried does not seem to be convinced of his own Stap. Is not it wonderful that ambition is overflowing?

"Well, Wilfried-san, how about Rosemain sama? Is not it inconvenient for me to invite you to tea? Because it seems that my brother has been disrespected, once invited to a tea party to hold I want to do it. "

As for my question, Villefried responded by thinking a little bit.

"Rosemain has been living in the library everyday since finishing the lecture, so it seems to have tea with teachers and Klassenburg in the meantime, so it should not be a nuisance. I am honored to invite you to Dunkel Verger."

When I breathed a relieved breath for a pleasant reply, Ms. Villefried clouded his expression a little.

"..... However, since Rosemain is determined to return to Ehrenfest because of votive ceremonies, I think that I can not afford it much."

Before Rosemain returned to the dedication ceremony, I thought that only an apology, I found a free time and went to the library. A few days after I got information from Wilfried sama, unlike Rosemain, I still have a lot of lectures and I do not have much free time.

I went round the library, and I breathed a sigh. Rosemain's appearance was not seen.

"It seems that today was a tea party with Klostenburg's Egranthine, I received such a report from civilian apprenticeship."

"Okay, when will I go to the library next time?"

"Three days later, if Hanenero finishes lecturing sooner, free time will increase."

Regardless of the class, he is not very good at practical skills. I still can not make a shape of a schmir well for a cow beast.

Three days later I finally got free time and I headed to the library again. However, on the way I found Rosemain headed to Prince Anastigius and headed somewhere, I inadvertently dropped my shoulders.

..... Oh, I could not apologize again today. May this time Goddess Drettfan Goa's blessings be there.

When looking at Rosemain-sama's appearance walking while being little by little separated from Prince Anastigius when the face color was not so good, I immediately understood that it was a call in an unwilling form. Just imagining the situation of receiving royal invocation, I will get stuck up to here.

I went to the library the next day, but I could not see Rosemain sama. I heard that when I gathered information on civil apprenticeship, I am lying.

"Mr. Hannero, it is better for you to give up an invitation to the tea ceremony, not to meet directly, it is too bad."

Even if you said that you had a lecture with us, unlike other lordlist candidates who gradually became acquainted little by little, I never talked to Rosemain-sama and I was totally bothered by just bothering me It is equal to nothing.

At least, I wanted to invite him to a tea ceremony once I got acquainted with it properly, but I have no choice. In this way I can not apologize and Rosemain will be returned to Ehrenfest.

"... Please give an invitation letter of tea ceremony to Cordura and Ehrenfest. It is not personally acquainted with me, so please do so to the lord of lords of Ehrenfest."

"Certainly yes"

Leaving Cordura a setting of tea ceremony, I was studying while praying for Rosemain's recovery. I wanted to make free time even a bit.

"Hannale, it seems that Rosemain appears in the library"

"Let's go shortly"

I headed for the library as soon as I cleared the book. Candidate candidates usually do not go to the library much, as they will walk with side-by-side, civil apprentice apprenticeships, escort knights apprenticeships and so on.

..... Why does Rosemain read books in the library?

If a candidate lords ginseng to the library, it will be a problem for the lower rank aristocrat who wants to borrow Carrel as well. I also have lectures at the aides, so I think it is hard to accompany every day to Rosemain's library.

Perhaps Rosemain's aides are all finished lecturing like Rosemain. Or is it also a rule that you have to spend a certain amount of time in the library when becoming the Lord of that big Sumil?

When thinking carefully, since the Lord of the schmirs was a librarian of the middle advanced aristocracy so far, it may be necessary to have time in the library.

..... The Lord was unreasonable for me.

I arrived at the library thinking about such a thing, but I could not find Rosemain sama. When I looked around the library, Professor Sorangju was approaching here.

"Mr. Hannalole of Dankel Ferger, are you looking for something?"

"I heard that Ehrenfest's Rosemain is coming."

"Rosemain has already returned, I heard that I had to return to Ehrenfest earlier than planned because I lost my physical condition"

"... Well, that's right ... .. Thank you very much for letting me know."

... What is that! Is it? I will return home before apologizing! I may be totally disliked by the goddess Drejung Goa of time.

I came back to the dormitory, suppressing the feeling of getting caught on the spot. When I am crowded with my own room, Cordura slowly shakes his head saying "There is no choice".

"The interval was bad, Princess"

"Cordura, I will not be comforting at all"

..... Really, the badness between me, is not it manageable?

There were many times before the fall that I would fall further.

First of all, it is time for Mr. Villefried to invite Mr. Rosemain's invitation to a tea ceremony. I am invited by Dunkel Ferger 's Lord Candidate and can not refuse Ehrenfest.

I wish I could refuse from here, but I was not able to do a small mind, such as stopping the tea ceremony while receiving the expectation of the girls students who are interested in the epidemic of Ehrenfest.

..... Sorry, Virfriit-sama!

Since then, I also declined when I learned that Virfriit had to join the other tea ceremony because I joined the tea party.

It seemed uncomfortable for a tea party with only females, but I apologized to Mr. Wilfried who did not forget to smile and accepting it without awkwardness.

..... I did not think that it would be such a thing, Mr. Villefried!

When I was told that Mr. Ruffen, who did not know that Rosemain returned home, informed Ehrenfest that he was requesting a rematter rematch, he felt distant.

..... Sorry, Wilfried-sama!

I am good with a little.

It is enough for a little, so I would like to have the protection of the goddess Dr. van Gogh of the time.

Chapter 316: A painful report of a quiet headache

Jill Vester POV

I am waiting for Rosemain, who is now Aub Ehrenfest, who is supposed to return home from the House of Lords. Ever since that went to the House of Peers, it got to receive meaningless and unrestrained reports one after another.

In the usual year, since the wooden bill "There is nothing special to mention" is only delivered, we are not particularly concerned about the trend of the lords, but this year it was different.

..... It's the first lord conference since you want to have such a head! Come home quickly, problem child!

The first report from the House of Peers had arrived even on Saturday, even if the promotion ceremony had not yet begun. Wilfried informed me of Rosemain 's aideside decision not decided before departure.

I'm planning on delegate control to Villefriit, who still wants to make the next lord the villfleet. In the next year, it is said that to take advantage of a little advantageous position in the period until Charlotte admits. Cooperating with Rosemain should not be that difficult.

..... Mum, I guess I'm doing my best.

I look over the first report. There is a place I write as it comes up, but I do not understand the content.

Regarding the aides, as the selection was done to some extent from the time when there was informed that Rosemain 's awakening was near, it was on schedule except for apprenticeships of the lower aristocrats and knights of the intermediate noblemen.

"Although the aides of Charlotte and Rosemain were decided, do you know what kind of person is Phyllene and Yudit?"

When I had dinner that day, I asked Charlotte who wants to hear about my brother 's sister in the lords. It was thought that Charlotte who is striving to supervise the winter kids room might know.

"Yudit is an apprentice of a knight who is longing for her sister's escort knight Angelica, I inquired about my escort knight, if possible, I was told that I wanted to serve my sister just like Angelica There is "

Charlotte narrowed his eyes, did he become an escort knight as you wanted. And Phyllie is intrigued by making the picture book of Rosemain among the winter 's children' s room most, he is struggling to gather stories for Rosemain sleeping, he seems to be an apprentice apprentice waiting for awakening.

"Philene has made a pledge of allegiance at the beginning of this winter, my sister did not understand well, Philene looked just like to express a commitment, Because I was strict, I thought that no lower aristocrat would be picked up by the aides, but my sister gave Fyline a close association. "

Apparently, both seem to have loyalty on Rosemain. I breathed a sigh of relief that there was no concern about my aides.

But my relief was only a fleeting thing. A regular report sent from Hill Sur on Saturday the week after was a series of concise and meaningless items were lined up.

"All the female students of Ehrenfest in the promotion ceremony attracted attention to Rosemain Mr. of Young appearance inserting hair ornaments which have all been surprisingly found in the hair and have not seen it"

"All of the first grade passed one examination to the classroom.The teachers are rumored about what kind of study method is being taken at Ehrenfest"

"It seems that music composed by Rosemain stayed in the eyes of the teachers and received an invitation to the tea ceremony."

"When Rosemain made a crocodile of Grun in the creation of a cowgirl, she told me that the teacher in charge was attacked with a cowardly beast"

"Please tell me also how to compress Rosemain's magical powers"

"Rosemain has become the Lord of the magician of the library, it seems to be the guidance of the gods"

"Rosemain fell to the ground in the depth of collecting the will of God, and a search group by teacher was issued"

A little interested in Hill Sur's "I can not say anything else" other than that, after a while, what is Rosemain doing! Is it? I felt that I wanted to hold a head for the majority.

..... Every item is all about Rosemain!

Most of it comes out of fashion outgoing and improved grades, so you can understand. It can be said that there is no choice but to have a teacher looking at the crown of Grun. As for magical compression, I was able to conjecture that Hill suru might have made a miscarriage well, and when I think of the physical strength of sickness, I can see the fallen appearance.

However, it is unknown only that Rosemain became the Lord of the magician of the library by the guidance of the gods. what is this! Is it?

"Such a report arrived from Ferdinand, a lordsmaster, but what do you think Rosemain did in the library?

In the case of Ferdinand, I thought that I could decipher the cryptic text of my master, and when I called, I gave out the wooden card that arrived. Ferdinand roughly glanced over her shoulders.

"... Hill Sur's report is pretty concise, the Wilfriit report that arrives to me seems more detailed"

"Wilfried's report!" I have not heard it. "

"Because it was a questionnaire addressed to me"

Ferdinand's words that do not destroy the public attitude before the civilian officials are concise, circle the meaning unknown and frustration. I lightly hit the desk.

"Leave the room except Ferdinand and Karstedd"

Faced with paying attention to "Wilfried's questionnaire?", Ferdinand raised one eyebrow a little.

"Questionnaire and report on the treatment of Rosemain It was somewhat troublesome that the report of incompleteness was delivered like everyday and the days of pointing continued, but compared with Hill Sur's report, Was it easy to understand? "

After that, I got a copy of the report that Ferdinand brought from my office, and I kept a glimpse of the eyebrows. "I went to register at the library and Rosemain became the Lord of the royal magical tool", I do not understand at all.

However, I understand that Wilfried is writing the questionnaire to Ferdinand very hard. It has been corrected with severe words, but it is amazing to write a report without damaging it at all.

By looking at the report, you can see that the first grade of a first-year student who was leaning with the effort to improve the performance of Ehrenfest was a result of the runaway of Rosemain, which was baited for library registration. No one thinks that it was supposed to be such a thing.

However, Ferdinand gently shrugged as "it is a natural result".

"I figured that Rosemain would be able to finish the lecture before the dedication ceremony and banned the library from entering the library until the end of the lecture, so if there was anything wrong with his or her own efforts, there would have been no problem. Wilfried who had piggybacked on rushing towards rushing towards himself was stupid. The treatment of Rosemain is not so easy. In order to enter the temple library, the commoner sued the former temple, and one large gold coin You do not choose the means to the extent that you give out? "

"... .. I remember hearing such a story, did not he exaggerate or do not do anything?"

People who stepped into the temple for the first time for the baptismal ceremony felt that they were too reckless to listen to fiction, such as consulting on their uncle and apprenticeship as a priestess solely for entering the library. It is quite a headache if I think it is true. I could do such a foolish thing well.

"I did a stupid thing like involving others in the lifting of the library of the same. When Rosemain is stopped by being fed to the library of the lords, there is no way that Rosemain will stop. The first year student who is involved is sorry, but Wilfried is self- Rather, I advised him to apologize deeply to the other freshman. "

..... But, do your best, Villefried. My father is cheering!

"So what's the fact that you went to library registration and became the principal witchcraft? Wilfried's report does not understand it at all ... Is there a magical tool in the library of the lords?"

Rosemain is delighted to go to the library even in this castle, but for me the library was a place to store materials, a place to tell civil servants to pick up the necessary things. The library of the House of Peers also never visited himself, and I do not know well the magician there.

I did something like Hill Sur's assistant during the House of Peers and asked Ferdinand who also passed the legs frequently to the library, and I narrowed my eyes and narrowed my eyes to remember the library at the House of Lords.

Speaking of magic tools in the library, I think that it is Schwarz and Weiss, but that lord should be a senior aristocrat who was assigned from the center. The process by which Rosemain became the main is not well understood by me, Did you take it and deprive it? No, that's impossible. As it can not be rewritten without permission, you should have protected more than the main so that you can not touch it. "

"After all, I'm not sure what happened."

While Karstead was suffering, Ferdinand alone distorted his lips fun.

"I feel that blessing is related from the word of the guidance of the gods, I can not have confidence and even if it is a blessing I do not know why it will become the Lord ..... Really Rosemain is the Lord of Schwarz and Vice If it became, it seems to be able to study that, one more pleasure to return to Rosemain. "

..... If the master is a master, the disciple is also a disciple. This research idiot.

There are things that I do not understand a bit, but considering Hirschle and Wilfried's report, it is no doubt that improvements in grades and new epidemics are going well for the moment.

"It seems that the first grade student passes has passed, and after that Rosemain will only struggle to finish his lecture. After the lecture is over, it will be shut up in the library, so if you keep quiet, It will not cause problems. "

When I was breathing in relief to the words of Ferdinand, a report came heading from Hirschle the next week.

"In the dedication dance Mr. Rosemain touched the second prince, the prince seems to be wary of Rosemain sama called the saint."

"In order to pay a bad rumor about the cowgirl, I took several teachers and became responsible for Rosemain."

Reading the report, I called Ferdinand. It is very bad feeling that there was contact with Rosemain and the royal family.

"I thought that it would manage somehow because I did not get enrolled in the school for only one year and I did not match my face other than dedication, but it seems that he did not have anything, Ferdinand what will you do?"

Instantly paid for it and showed the report, Ferdinand who was watching the report tapped the temple lightly.

"Even if it is told what to do ... Prince seems to only show interest in rosemain's beast, it also seems to give priority to the appointment with others, probably because he was trying Rosemain, the dedication mai also passed However, Prince is no problem unless there is any further contact.The primary problem is rosemain which passed promises with the prince by passing the lecture and forgotten.

"Haa! I forgot to promise with the royalty!"

Before I made my eyes round, I made a copy of Wilfried's report to Ferdinand. If Villefried did not pay attention, it seemed that he was feeling distant, as he was describing the state of Rosemain who was full of feelings to return to the dormitory. Rosemain 's order of priority is strange anything.

"Rosemain will stay as it is until it gets into the library, although there are only good guidance around it, it will be difficult as it took less time to contact, but what I have to worry about as Ehrenfest is rather Wilfried I think that he received an invitation from a tea ceremony from Ahrensbach. "

"what!?"

I opened my eyes on important items that were not reported from Hill Sur. Look for things in the report with several sheets stacked, and look through it.

"It seems that it is a tea ceremony with only Lord Candidate of Friedberg and Fröhrberg and his sister and sister, and it seems that tea ceremony seems to be a tea ceremony unless it is not a kinship, but participation of Rosemain seems to have been refused.In the meantime, carefully selected topics at tea ceremony, He advised me to discuss well with Rosemain. "

The beginning of full-fledged socialization at the House of Lords will be after the mid-winter in which lords and upper aristocrats finish their lectures. After Rosemain returns to Ehrenfest for the dedication ceremony, Wilfried will face a tea party alone. Is it really okay?

"If the tea ceremony between my cousin and his younger brother can not be done, there is no way to become a lord of the next term, etc. There is a sufficient preparation period until socialization of the lords is in. There will be extra hands until there is a question from there. Basically, the aristocrat is a place for children to learn and it is forbidden to withdraw from the territory as much as possible "

"Wilfried-sama is also growing, it has been firmer than Jill Vestar of the time, if you ask the surrounding advice and have ears to hear it, it will be okay."

As Arensbach involved, I felt a worried anxiety, but it seems that the next week was relatively calm.

"I also passed one to the lecture of Stap. Rosemain was able to finish all the lectures with excellent results and it was only two weeks and it is the best candidate for this year's first year student why Magical You are good at handling, are not you? "

"Yesterday, the library librarian and Rosemain seemed to have a personal tea party, I received a question about sweets called katar curl and new paper. Please give me the answer."

"Next week there will be tea ceremonies with teachers of music, it seems that the lords of the lords of Klostenburg will be present at No. 1"

I was looking at the items lining up in the report by Hill Sur, I was amazed at the item that Rosemain had finished lecturing earlier in almost two weeks. Although I have heard that it is excellent, it was only two years ago that he was worried that Rosemain, who had been asleep, might become a strict aristocratic life, but it seems there was not such a thing.

"Is Rosemain already over, but what about the results of Wilfried? Is the report only about Rosemain and nothing else at all?"

"Wow, my daughter is hard to do, as Elvira said it was thanks to Rosemain that Cornelius's results went up, I knew that he was excellent, but he said that he would be the best candidate in the House of Lords"

Compared to other grade, first grade lectures are not so difficult, so no students do so poor grades. However, it is difficult to be chosen the best because of the high average point. If it becomes a candidate for the second week, it is no doubt that he thinks that he is almost perfect in all lectures.

"... .. If you show this report, my father will be very excited about joy."

"If your uncle excites excitement it will not be a bad thing, keep it silent until the end."

"Well, if you are trained in excitement, Damiel is poor"

While squatting with Karstedd, Ferdinand was staring at the wooden bills with only one person looking stern.

"In Wilfried's report, there was no mention of Klostenburg at the teacher's ceremony of a music teacher ... .. Rosemain should be brought back to Ehrenfest soon, I have a bad feeling."

"But what is it supposed to be a tea party with a teacher and what reason will you call back with it? Because Villefried's lecture has not ended, it will not go on to be a major thing of the territory"

If you are absent from the tea ceremony already having a promise, a reasonable reason will be needed. It is a usual way to keep away from the reasons of the territory's majority, but in this case, Wilfried will be involved.

"I'm locked in the room for a few days due to poor physical condition ... It is unlikely that those who banned the library for ambiguous reasons of bad feelings will cause extra problems."

Ferdinand keeps the temple restrained if you ban the library that was just lifted.

"It is also important to have socializing experience on Rosemain, so if you pass the lecture on court practice, you can not make such a big mistake"

It was not Rosemain where the optimistic view of Karstedd passes. It was when I received an undecipherable report at the end of the next week that I regretted that I should listen to Ferdinand's opinion, which is most familiar to Rosemain's treatment.

"At a tea party with teachers of music, we performed crowbar and new songs and were praised for the skill of musical instruments. Rosemain sang on the spot and seemed to have bought the prince's incompetence."

"We made the measurements of Schwarz and Weiss, I was fascinated by a number of strange magic teams, which is worthy of research."

"It was called for a ditting match with Dunkel Ferger, and Ehrenfest won with Rosemain's fantastic strategy."

"Rosemain received a call from the prince, and during my stay at the House of Peers, I will supply magical power to Schwarz and Vice."

In the composition I bought the inconvenience of the prince, I won a strange way to Dan Kel Ferger, who won the ditta, calls from the prince ... a number of items that are too restless, but I do not know the details at all.

Due to Rosemain, every Saturday 's day was a day that had a headache in reporting from the House of Lords. Arrange the reports in a handsome office and crawl with three people in a report that is too brief.

"What was it this week? It's too simple to understand at all, Hill Sur, Ferdinand, there will be a report from Villefried!"

"Although there is no meaning here, Wilfried himself seems to be unaware of details because he did not accompany Rosemain himself, although he seems to have heard the story from Rosemain's aide, but he is being paid off by the prince's call You seem to have it. "

However, Wilfried's report was still more detailed than Hill Sur.

At the tea ceremony, I was asked by the prince to compose, and when Rosemain composed on the spot, I bought Prince 's incompetence. However, regarding the disappearance of the prince, it seems that the music teacher said that it seems that there is no particular problem as Krasnenburk had a takeover.

"There may be no problem with the prince's disappearance, but have not you borrowed Klassenburg?"

"I am expanding Catautar and Lincian, hair ornaments and paper fashions, what is said at the next lord conference. Good luck, Jilvester"

..... Cut, Feldinand! Just imagining the next lord conference, my head has begun to hurt.

"Hill suru is overwhelmingly in the measurement of Schwarzs and Weiss, abandoning the afternoon lecture. I can imagine this somewhat, but when I heard that it is likely to receive an attack from another territory that wanted a magician of a library, Wilfried Were you waiting in the dormitory, Rosemain won the Dunkel Ferger with a strange way and returned home? Rosemain received a call from the prince the next day? What do you mean? "

"Most of them are guesses, but the other territory is Dunkel Ferger, I wonder if Ruffen got a ditch match in order to get raided and end it quietly?"

".....I see"

It seems to me that the path is going through for Ferdinand's words.

"What a hell of Rosemain's plan was, it's not easy to lead the knight apprentice of that skill and win against Dunkel Ferger. Nobody is thinking of only himself to thrust Because there is no cooperation at all "

Echardt, who had been undertaking a rookie education for two years when Rosemain was asleep, was taken to Bonifatius' special special training. The upper part of the Order is appearing to be in trouble with a bad new rookie.

"When Rosemain comes back, I'd like to hear more about the winner of the ditters, so it might be possible for the odd way to make use of the winter leader."

"Do not say sweet things, Karstead! Rosemain is receiving a call from the prince!"

Although Ehrenfest speaks neutrally, it sounds good, but it was not done from the center because of the lack of influence and the predecessor lordship. If the contact with the prince increases like this, it will get caught up in the next throne succession fury.

Honestly I would like you to be cared of Ahrensbach and disturbing air being bothered by the center. It is in my hands.

"However, if there is a conflict in the aristocratic hospital, it would be unavoidable to be called by the prince, was not it better staying at the aristocracy?"

"That is true, but surely Dunkel Verger will be told variously at the next lord conference, Dunkel Ferger in Classeburg, royalty if you do something wrong, I do not want to think about being surrounded by these three people "

".... Will Ahrensbach join that, certainly, I do not want to think it is troublesome."

Ferdinand who is preparing measures in advance about the lord's conference, shook his head with an unfavorable face.

"Recall Rosemain, do not cause further problems, the lord conference is too scary"

As I held my head and said so, Ferdinand shrugged his shoulders as amazed.

"If you do not want to increase the problems at the Lord's Conference further, you will have to go to the Krassenburg tea ceremony, where the connection with the royal family is too strong.If you already have a consultation, Absent"

"Wow, refusing to let go and it will hurt my head, I bet he must do something again."

"Because it's rosemain, let's recall it as soon as possible after the tea party."

I do not want to go to the next lord conference, thinking so, Ferdinand tapped the tenton and the wood tags lightly.

"Rosemain has succeeded in putting magical compression in the fourth stage and has said that it was a reward for one's own aide, is that foolish, are you planning to compress it any more?"

"At the fourth stage?"

As I am stunning, Karstead slowly caresses the chin.

"It is probable that it is not a problem for you to tell those who have already signed up to become an awards committee by yourself, after asking for it, you may ask it. If you compare it with royalty or anything in the great territory, it is trivial That's it. "

Karstedd said that, narrowing his eyes, pointing to the bottom item of the wood basket.

"Mum? What's this?" Torggot resigns? Rosemain is considered sweet, as it is resignation, not dismissal, in the report Richarda was furious, but there is no reason at all It is not written. "

"If Richarda got furious, it was decided that the attitude of work was bad, probably I left room for rehabilitation by resigning, as it is dismissed as a candidate for a lord, there is no point. As usual I am sweet. "

"But it will resign as thought it better to dismiss in the surroundings, is the traumoto really OK?"

"Is not it possible to do something like incompetence like demanding dismissal around?"

Ferdinand did not seem particularly interested, shook his head lightly, but Karstedd seems to be bothered because Tora Gogot is a son of a brother and a younger brother. I was staring at the wood basket with a difficult face.

And the report arrived from Wilfried the day after the tea party with Klostenburg ended and it brought it to Ferdinand.

According to the report, it seems that the tea ceremony ended quite gently. Although he seems to have interchanged one Lincian in the Klostenburg lord candidate, considering what he did to the Prince, it is within the acceptable range. Maybe I could have borrowed somewhat.

It was a while before I stroked my heart that it could be a tea party without causing problems as a rosemain. I wanted to faint like the Rosemain to the report of Wilfriit sent urgently without a cup of tea ceremony.

"Rosemain, who had been going to the library as usual, was carried away by the prince, lost consciousness during the meeting, was taken out, and an apology from the prince arrived! How can I deal with this ?! Return the Rosemain instantly Do not leave it any more at the aristocracy! "

Rosemain has no choice but to reply to the apology from the prince. I asked Wilfried to send an apology to Prince, "Rosemain caused you inconvenience," and ask him to find out how the circumstances of being taken to the prince are received.

"... what ... what in a few days is it in a state that is not caught in and out"

"Who predicted that royalty would be involved so far?"

With the report of Wilfried in front of me, I had to hold my head with three people.

Rosemain came from Wilfried as saying that return will be delayed for three days as it is necessary to return even if returning as soon as physical strength recovers, even if we ordered to go back. Ferdinand nodded satisfyingly that, "If you do not have a letter of repatriation or absence to the prince, you will be able to see ahead a lot for the reason that you will be in trouble, but with that kind of problem Absent.

It was long until Rosemain returned home after issuing a return order. It can be said that it was my first time for such three days.

Sharing the return of Rosemain, Charlotte and his uncle came to meet me happily. While waiting for a period between duplications, lightly tell what Rosemain did at the House of Peers.

"Rosemain is a ditters match! What a dangerous thing!"

"Winning Dunkel Ferger is truly my grandchild!"

"Is it ok to your sister that I fall asleep and get back late?"

In coming and going is such thoughts, I wanted not the Rozemain who has finally returned pregnant to the library, it's dissatisfaction face. Quietly, if give me have pregnant without causing the problem, here also because I finished without getting such feedback instruction, bad is Rozemain.

"There about a mountain that you want to listen to you. What is What happened, a large territory Klassen Petersburg and he was supposed to be the second prince and personal tea party? Ehrenfest depending on its contents and socializing how rather than neutral, but it always will enter in the second prince of the faction, no way without any thought, Mai say and had a tea party? "

Rozemain to Ferdinand of words has changed quickly complexion.

..... It was not anything thinking?

To say that here was having his head every week of the report, before the Rozemain that was causing the problem without thinking, mutually signed a line of sight with three people.

"Well, do we go. Time to listen to your story until the dedication formula is still a lot," and discovered that had been the order of the hair ornaments from the prince to the three days of the return preparation, third and "this fool!" people of angry voice become that are aligned is, was that of immediately after.

Chapter 317: Interrogation

I was talked to you by the guardian, who was taken to the employee's office of the adoptive father and sitting in the chair prepared with Potsun in the middle, I, the three people who surrounded me with the feeling of cold sweat I was looking around at the guardian.

..... Uhhh, I'm surrounded by a scary face.

"I pay attention, only me, Karsted and Ferdinand are good to hear from Rosemain"

"Mr. Zilvester, is not there a person supplementing the things and explanations while the princess was fallen down?"

"After hearing the story of Rosemain, listen if necessary, now go down"

"Certainly yes"

In the same way as the priest chief, the adoptive father who carved wrinkles deeply between the eyebrows ordered my aides to exit. Anxiously looking at me, the Richards are leaving.

... Well, do not leave it!

I was already feeling wanted to cry, looking at the door that was patently and shut down heartlessly. Feeling is a merciless compression interview.

When I searched for an escape route and kept it wandering, the chief priest stole my shoulder and sighed.

"There is nothing it is for you to exclude the aides and talk to the prince that the prince judged that it would be better for him not to hear that it is better to have the Prince's intention as much as possible"

"In other words, do you mean you can talk all the things you talked with Prince Anastigius?"

"Yes, I do not know the guidelines for the actions of Ehrenfest if I do not know that"

Although the adoptive father said so, it is a bit scary to be in love story of Anastigius, which is a quite personal emotional expression, and it is scary to be known to talk.

"Because it's really personal, I think Prince Anastigius dislikes it"

"If you are an ordinary aristocrat, no such interrogation was necessary, but you are always doing something we do not expect. Talk about it all inclusively, or else your future We can not be careful about actions. "

Certainly, it may be better to have cautions and guidelines on future actions. It is highly possible that you are doing something unconscious and out of common sense without your knowledge.

When I nod, my adoptive sitting in my seat. Your father behind the adoptive father, the priest president ordinarily sitting in a seat for the civilian to write and tapping the desk with tappington and fingertips.

"Well, let me tell you the circumstances that the relationship period has become so deeply related to the royal family that the student period should have not overlapped for only one year. As long as the prince omits the side job, he should have deeply talked about it."

"... Well ... deep relationship, is it?"

I am an unexpected word that came out from the mouth of the bishop? I tilted my head. Since I promised not to approach from here, I met only when called, basically I only have a love story about Egrantine and I do not remember having a deep relationship with Anastasis.

"It is force majeure by progression, because it can not resist the order of the royal family, so it went like this if it was shed"

"... ... Huh?"

I answered quite seriously, but my adoptive father got frightened. The fact is fact even if it is frightened.

While the director general tells me that he does not know the reason, he turns several sheets of paper at his hand.

"When was the first contact with the prince?" In the report reaching here it should have been a dedication, but be honest if there is something else to think about. "

"... .... Well, the greetings of the social gathering are the first things, I got a word, it is different from the rumor of the saint,"

When I talked about the greetings of the social gathering, three people gathered heads together. The adoptive father restrains between the brows and gives a groaning voice.

"I have not heard such a story at all, Rosemain. Was he really selling such a fight against the royal family?"

"... only complaints are told, I just made it a little frustrating, I did not sell a fight separately ...."

As I wandered the line of sight while saying so, the chief priest said with a smile like a grueling neck with a quiet voice saying, "There is nothing more than this, the repulsion with sarcasm and irony worked, my head hurts." It was.

The anger of the chief priest who freezes the back muscles When I am breathlessly smiling, my father also shakes his head with a sigh.

"When you said such a thing for the first time, the prince would have been surprised,"

..... Oh no, I wish I could fail from scratch.

"At last I felt that I bought a fight first, so Prince Anastigius was a bit of a sarcastic feeling during dedication."

"Please tell me in detail. There seems to be quite a discrepancy with the report that arrives here."

Asking the priest chief while striking the paper at hand, I talk about the time of dedication. I was suspected that it was a strategy to get close to Anastasis, so I also reported that I made a declaration not to be approached from here.

I will glare at me while my adoptive father stirs and breaks between the eyebrows.

"I will sympathize with the prince, as it has been said that such common sense has not touched people who are different"

..... I do not want to say to whom I want to do whatever you want.

"I did not want to approach troublesome things, or I thought that it would be troublesome for Prince Anastigius and the surrounding people to feel it," I got it. "

"Even if a weak and small territory like Ehrenfest is involved with royalty, it is only a nuisance, so the way of thinking itself is not bad, but you all have bad means."

I was told to use a bit more peaceful and roundabout refusal complaints. It seems that special training on socialization will be held in the spring. Just thinking is melancholic.

"But, why do you get more contacts, even though I'm doing that kind of thing that I can not afford with that?"

"So, it is the course, the next contact was a tea ceremony of teachers of music, Prince Anastigius participated jumping in, as Mr. Egranthine came in. If teachers asked permission from the teacher for the prince to accompany, You can not refuse it as expected? "

"Oh, I will not refuse it and I am right."

The adoptive father restrained the neighborhood of the stomach, he nodded.

And tell the story that Egranthine took out Anastasegeus who Anastageius told me to compose or not to say anything, to be swayed by the royal taste, and to go out cranky.

"Oh, at that time I also told my teachers the story of the adoptive fatherhood of adoptive father. It seems that Jiruvester like Princess Florentia and Prince Anastigius are similar."

"Forget it now!"

To my adoptive father with a different meaning from the past, I shook my head and answered "It is impossible". My associate also came to that Owa Kai. Richarda also heard of it.

"It is impossible to forget, but I will keep it secret to Wilfriit's older brothers and Charlotte."

"Unlike the story of Jill Owner who knows more than a certain age of Ehrenfest, it is quite useful information about the prince, is the second prince concerned with the princess of Klassenburg?"

The chief priest witnessed the golden eyes and saw me. Apparently the natural scenery in the House of Lords does not seem natural for parents. I also disclose the information I heard from the music teacher.

"Well, is this also useful information? Mr. Egranthine is a former princess, I heard from the teachers that it was a daughter of the Third Prince who died in political change and became a daughter like Owha Klassenburg who used to be Awb Krasnenburg "

"What?"

Three people lightly watched eyes.

"The first prince and the second prince are married, drawing on the intention of returning Egrandine to the status of the royal family, and the first prince and the second prince are proposing that the one to which Egrantine was chosen will be much closer to the throne"

"... Rosemain, you are completely addicted to depth, probably it's pretty much information unless you are a nobility close to the royal family. Jill Vestar, let's decide early, where is Rosemain More than that, even if you do not want to get involved "

I saw my adoptive father who became a tough face, and I dropped my shoulders. Because Ehrenfest was neutral, I could escape the last political change. However, this time I say that because of too close to Anastasis, the probability of getting involved has increased.

..... What should I do if my territory becomes rough with me?

"Rosemain, I have not heard about the matter that I received a call from the prince, have not you contacted the tea party only with a tea ceremony?"

"To explain it, you must start with Black Forest and Weiss."

"It was an incident that I went to library registration and became main, I could not understand why I read the report"

As the adoptive father urges us, I nod and gossip and open my mouth.

"Until I got the first grade student's approval, I was told by Wilfried's brother of the registration that I was going to study the first year student frantically so that everyone passed emotions for the pleasure of passing and library registration I think that it is caused by the fact that the control is not done at all and still it is caused by Dappachi and Magical power flowing because I was not accustomed to handling the magical powers that I could solve with Yureeve, but if you devote prayer to God Schwarz and Weiss I became the Lord of the Lord. "

"... It is as you expected, but there must have been the Lord in Schwarzs and Weiss. Have you taken away by the amount of magical powers?

In the words of the priest chief, I learned that there are really few people who know the change of the library of the lords. Those who only graduated from the old lordship thought that Schwarz and Vice were working normally, and now the students did not even know the existence of Schwarz and Vice.

I told the chief priest to announce the fact that pursuing in the center by political change, the senior aristocrat librarians have disappeared and that the intermediate nobility's Sorangi could not primarily devote magical powers.

"It was a detailed librarian, I was well taken care of librarians ... .. is not it?"

"I heard that evils of purge are out there and there, but it seems to be a serious thing to say that no one can get out of the librarian's library."

My adoptive father breathed a deep sigh. Ehrenfest thought from the results so far, because the connection with the center was thin and neutral, it was rare to be invited to the tea ceremony of the higher rank, so it seems that there was not much information coming in.

"If Schwarzska and Weiss are not present, Professor Soranju is serious. I offered to help you, I will supply magical power only while I am in college because I can not shift my nationality to the center as a candidate for a lord. It is said that we can supply magical powers as much as I want with my favor. "

"... It was tough for him to adopt Rosemain as an owner of a lord, was there a possibility that he could be pulled out in the middle during his studies?"

My father said so in a busy tone, and my foster admirably seems to be good at "my decision".

"Even so, it is really out of the standard that you will become the Lord without touching your hands by giving blessings ... .... Well, according to Hirsur's report, it seems that a lot of magic teams were found in the measurements I do not care about it, let me listen carefully later on. "

"Oh, I keep a lot of souvenirs from Dr. Hirschle, I heard that Ferdinand's cooperation is necessary for Schwarz and Weiss, and it seems that the magician Mr. Ferdinand had broken down, it also repaired I want it. "

"HM"

The chief priest raised the end of his lip a little happy. It seems that the mood has improved, so I will also talk about another souvenir.

"As for souvenirs, there are songs dedicated to the goddess of wisdom composed with Rosina and songs of songs dedicated to the goddess of light, I hope you will think about arranging later ... The songs dedicated to the goddess of light are Anastagi Because it is supposed to be awarded to Egrantine via Prince Usu "

"... Rosemain, I have not heard anything like that"

My adopted father narrowed his eyes narrowly, but I inclined my head and head.

"I told you earlier that I was asked to write and I was told that I do not need it, and I bought Prince Anastigius' incompetence .... Unknown behavior is also a behavior of love heart, I am asking Prince Anastigius to ask, so I think that it would be better to give it via Prince. "

When asking if it would be better to give it to Egrantine in the end, the chief priest ousted the temple.

"First of all, check the prince's intentions, so that your movements will not move"
"Well, but I promised not to contact from here, so it's impossible."

I shook my head, I can not break my promise with the royal family.

"Rosemain, that person, no doubt I'm going to leave the request from the royalty for that reason!"

"Please do not tell me that you are being neglected ... I just have to wait ... I just have to wait for the contact from Prince Anastigius, if you remember that it is necessary, Anastargeius The prince will come and pick you up. "

"You are an idiot, the prince will not come"

"I came, because if I was enjoying reading at the library, I was taken to Prince Anastigius"

I was scared of valuable reading time and remembered that I could not go to the library for days because I fell down and when I was angry, I looked at me with three eyes wide open.

"Rosemain! Having been taken to the prince means that you did not call out where you were at the library, but let the Prince pick you up! Do you have insane reasons?"

"Well, but I do not want to come close to it, I promised not to contact you anymore ...
...."

"Rosemain, withdraw its promise. Will not you want to be carried away by the prince all the while? Do you want to make your perception that the prince is coming to pick you up? It is ridiculous rumor and it's boring The number of enemies will increase, it will not be anything to do with reading. "

I was told that it would be over by Ordonants and document interactions, explained that it is a great blow to reading time, I breathed my hands on my cheeks and breathed in, "Hui Iti!"

"I will withdraw immediately as soon as I return to the House of Peers, I do not want to spend more time reading!"

"Ha ... .. If you do only the minimum socialize, you may be safe and secure for everyone to stay in the library"

In the words of the priest who was told with a tired sigh, the liking to the chief priest within me rose sharply. To say that it is okay to stay in the library as much as possible, I would like to have an anniversary today.

Leave yourself up to joy, I get upright and raise both hands as a bag.

"Ah, you can see Ferdinand again to God! To God ... .."

"Prayer is useless, sit down"

".....Yes"

I tried hard to pray, but I was interrupted. It is a shame.

"Rosemain, have you done anything related to the royal family? Please say that I have not done anything any more!"

To my adopting father's cry, I recall my behavior. I was taken to Anastigius, and I fell down with consciousness becoming stunned, taking medicine.

"What on earth did Prince take you with for?"

"It's a runaway in love, it seems I wanted information at the tea party of Egrantine"

And, fearing that Egrantine will become a seed of conflict, I talked that it was impossible to choose either in the escort at the graduation ceremony and that talk that Anastigeus had come up with something.

"In addition to ... .. I taught Prince Anastigius a song to dedicate to the goddess of the soil, when I talked about it quite a rude story when I talked with them, when I made a proposal to give Egranthine a hair ornament, I asked him to do it in a good mood.

"Wait, why did not you talk to the prince before proposing a hair ornament?"

"Huh ... .. because I thought that it would be better to take a good mood while reporting a thank you letter to Prince Anastigiusus and returning the return"

Parents lifted their brows all at once as to whether they were also forced to do for the three days preparing for return.

A cool smile of the priest who got up and came up approached us soon, and both sides caught the cheeks.

"Have you taught that Rosemain, do not imagine immediately,? I have always taught the importance of reporting, contacting and consultation, but was there any way of teaching at all? Did it flow out with magical power while sleeping for two years? "

"Sorry about you!"

When I do not know what to do, I did not act arbitrarily and without permission, I was angered to prepare a questionnaire and send it to me. It seems that Wilfried has sent a questionnaire over and over on how to stop my action.

When I handed over to Pong with such a method, the parents sighed all together, as it seems that education was not enough before departure to the House of Peers.

"I slept for two years, so it seems I have to educate social relations by the next grade."

The result of doing stuffed education with prioritization such as votive ceremonies and grades is now like me.

"Originally, there is no way that first graders of Ehrenfest can be involved in the royal family, and because Rosemain has physical fitness problems, I did not think that the lecture would end soon. When Rosemain finished lecturing, I thought that if I enjoyed the library, I recalled it before I entered the full-fledged social season, let me donkey, return to the aristocrat as soon as possible against the territory competition, we could somewhat mislead the low social skills .... "

"You have exceeded Ferdinand's expectations"

If you adopt your adoptions as fun and said, as soon as you smile, the chief priest chillily saw the adoptive father as "chief executive Aub Ehrenfest towards the lord's conference that struggles beyond expectation."

"Rosemain, that person is truly in this short period, well done all this much, this is in a state that has not entered the social season?"

"Your adoptive father, it can not be helped that I've passed. Let's think more positively."

"This foolish thing is not a thing, the relationship with the royal family and the relationship with the large territory are also greatly involved in the future Ehrenfest"

I was scolded as if I wanted to be crowned, I panicked away in a panic.

"Well, let's talk with Mr. Beno and the guild general of Gustaf of the commercial guild, so that Ehrenfest can be promoted even more advantageously. Lincyan, hair decorations and katarukaru are drawing a lot of attention at the aristocrats. I think that the advertising effect is amazing if it becomes the hair ornament that I gave to a woman inside. "

"It may be so, but dare to say, this idiot! There is a degree without thinking! You should have said that you should not take selfish actions on business and delivered items. ing!?"

As the adoptive father yelled at me, I regret that it was early that I received an order from Anastasiusus.

"... I'm sorry ... Should I refuse even now?"

"I am angry because I can not easily do it because of royal partners' refusal."

"Jill Vester, there is no choice but to make it more beneficial to the territory beyond the end, as long as Klasseburg is going to put a hair ornament at the graduation ceremony, it is true that the publicity effect is high."

The chief priest waved his head without power.

"Well, let's print out and sell two love stories together with hair ornaments, so do not you think that the printed matter will spread at once?"

Although I do not want to put out reference book relation to other areas a little yet in order to keep dominance of lecture, I want to spread printing itself as soon as possible. Royal love story is nothing more than nice story. Gossip is very easy to spread.

If you print on a piece of paper with a touch like a tile plate and sell it, the unit price will be reduced. In addition, if you sell spells like binder and sell every time new information comes out, you think that you can enjoy a variety of people who buy only the parts of interest, people who arrange everything.

"Rosemain, in other words, do you mean that you will attend the second prince in the future?"

"No. No. I will be attached to Egranthine, no matter which prince you choose, it will be a story of a novel that you sell well, and even though you consider the hair ornament and the advertising effect of Lincian, It is best to spread from a high woman."

I think that it is easy for women who are frequent tea ceremonies to spread even for katarukado. Egrantine is high-profile, beautiful, showing interest in Lincian and hair accessories, and it is not much more as an advertisement tower.

My adoptive father shook his head to the condition I placed.

"Rosemain, that man, only thinking of profit as a merchant"

"I do not yet understand the profit as a nobleman yet, is it impossible to attach to Egrantine?"

I seek opinions from the priest. The chief priest who kept thinking quietly fell down and slowly breathed out.

"The choice of Rosemain is not too bad, if you believe in Rosemain's words, the intention of Klasseburg will have a big influence on deciding the next king if you follow the Klassenburg, not the prince It can be said that there is no big mistake. "

Turning his eyes towards adoptive father, saying that it is Aub Ehrenfest that decides. I quickly tilted my head towards the adoptive father who is thinking about the problem that I could not answer.

"I think that it may be postponed at this time, such as sticking to someone or not sticking to it"

"Rosemain?"

"Besides that, it would be better to think about what to do when Lordsan, hair ornaments, vegetable paper, cute cars are asked for trading at the Lord's Council, Prince Anastigius and Egranthine are definitely interested , I think that trading transactions are required first from factions and sayings. "

If Egrantine does not choose it, it will be a parallel line for a while as it is and if you choose it, the throne will easily lean on one side. It is better to clean up the problem that occurs surely in the near future than to not know what will happen with such a choice of others.

"Unlike Plantin Shokai's vegetable paper studio, there is only one Lin Shan studio at Gilberto Shokai at the moment and it takes quite a while to make one hair decoration. When the number of studio is increased and merchants coming to buy Whether to increase the number of people, how to sell the recipe, whether I can not get over contract magician with Benoit, how can I solve the inn at the downtown when the number increases, how can I maintain security? Or .... There are many things to consider in order to sell special products. "

If you want to collect people, it is best to have merchants come to Ehrenfest, but at that moment the customer's heart leaves away without merchandise, the merchant who came from far away will get angry. If there is an increase in the number of outstanding items, competition for shortage of goods occurs, it will easily be disturbed such as security.

Whether it is said that it is not a nobleman's way of thinking, it is only Gilberta trading, Printemps business, gatekeeper and myself involved in fact. In advance, I want to strike a hand to strike.

"I think that it would be better for you to respond to things that surely happen in the spring, than the situation in the middle after years."

"Yeah, call me Benoit and Gustav, we must talk by the Spring Lord's Conference"

Chapter 318: Return to the temple

Although it has to be called up by the Spring Lord Council, it is now mid-winter when the snowstorm that the evening of the winter lord has not ended yet is strengthening. Where I thought of calling a common merchant, I can not call you right away.

"Since we are finishing the suppression of the Lord of Winter, we will invite you to the invitation letter in the name of Aub Ehrenfest, so let Rosemain know in advance to Benoz, I can not be without any preparation Wow? "

The chief priest muttered that the situation at the time of being called to Giebe · Haldenzell was pitiful. Speaking of which, I remember listening to the hardship of having a business negotiation surrounded by senior aristocrats in order to make a workshop at Halden Zell, where my mother 's parents' house is located. It seems that the circumstances seemed to have been forced to sympathize even from the head of the priest.

"And adjust and adjust the number of people going up to Beno and the castle and let the citizens make invitations targeting that number of people."

"Certainly ... .. Although the representative of the adoptive father, Gilberto Shokai has already changed, shall we call on that representative too?"

"Oh, I will leave the adjustment with you, I guess you can relax more by myself, rather than leaving it to another civilian,"

"I am sorry"

"Well, tomorrow we will return to the temple, Rosemain, because we have to adjust before the winter begins to move in full swing"

"understood"

The dinner of that day was the same as the grandfather and the chief priest and it became a group of lords.

As I was asked about Charlotte's place of lords, I talk about the library, Black Forest and Weiss.

"Is it a magical tool in the form of a big schmir that helps libraries? It will be pretty cute."

"Yeah, it is very popular among girls, the new Lord is supposed to give new clothes, everyone is thinking about now, I'm planning to make men look like boys and girls, Absolutely attach the armchair of the library committee, I plan to add all together. "

"I'm looking forward to seeing you walking in the library with my sister, who is yours, next year."

After talking with Charlotte, I was asked a story about a winning butterfly from an exciting appearance. After all, the knight seems to have a great interest in Dittor, and the eyes of his father standing behind the adoptive father is shining a little.

"How did Rosemain win the Dunkel Fergus with a strange idea and what kind of strange idea did you use?"

"It was a bizarre strategy that I was able to use because it was an irregular treasure steal ditter for one time Firstly, treasure monsters are not going to struggle when bound with Stap, and those that are not so big that they will not die even if they are bound I got it done. "

"Then, once attacked it will be killed."

I will reply by stretching my chest like a grandmother who inclines his head.

"So I put it in my cud beast and kept it to not be killed."

"With a cow beast!"

"Yes, unless you exceed my magical powers, you can not steal a beast and you can not take it, so long as I'm on a cowgirl, I will not be defeated easily."

It seems that it was not a kind of strategy that the knight thinks of again from the expression of his father and his grandfather who are stunned. You can see the chief priest nods as if he admired that "There is such a use in that grunge ...".

Then I started talking about surprising the enemies who hunt treasures and come back. The old man who was listening closely turned into a mysterious face again.

"... As long as you hear the story of Rosemain, it sounds just like attacking the opponent who hunted the demon in the stadium, is not it a surprise attack, is not it?"

"There is no knight apprentice who has experienced treasure steal ditters because we are mainstream current competition in the lords of the lords, so no one thinks they will be attacked in the middle of carrying treasure. did not"

That's why when I say, "I'm too lukewarm ... .. too lukewarm" and the old man will make my expression look steep. It seems that it is painful that it is unlikely that a ditters match. Treasure stealing What was the state when the mainstream was Ditter? Just thinking is horrible.

"But the slushing surprise was a half success and half a failure, as Denkel Felger set up instantly as the cooperation of the Knight apprentice at Ehrenfest was not taken at all."

".....Ahh"

As my father caressed, my father nodded while stroking his chin. Because I am a special opportunity, I decided to ask my father to strengthen the apprenticeship training.

"I think that it is better to review the exercise of the knight apprenticeship as well, as it is at the dinner seat like this, because in the last few years it has changed from a treasure stealer to a Ditters competing for speed, at the House of Lords Even though we learned about collaboration and division of roles in the classroom, it seems that there is no connection with practice at all. "

"Well, I wonder why there was a reason for such a sudden decline in quality in recent years, because I was giving priority to those who train the escort knights of the lord's family, education for apprenticeship was postponed, so let's review it quickly."

The upper part of the Order is basically the Escort Knight of the Lord. If they are being forced to take over as a substitute alternate exercise, it may be unavoidable that education downwards will be somewhat frustrating. Since the raids in the castle, from the education for apprentices, special training for escort knights has a higher priority.

"Dunkel Ferger was a splendid cooperation that does not compare with Ehrenfest, whether the education in the territory is solid or whether Dr. Ruffen of the dormitorial supervisor is doing all out effort, and as it is it will raise individual magical power I thought it was difficult for Ehrenfest to win Dittor. "

As I was saying, since I was the only apprentice of escort knight of the lord's family, the grandiose movement was made, the old man who was practicing them had gleamed and gleamed blue eyes.

"Fu, if Rosemain got so depressed, the education of the Escort Knight of the Lord Tribe took shape to a certain extent and will you train your apprenticeship in the future?"

"What did you train Angelica and Cornelius so much, I'm expecting you"

"Mumu, leave it to me!"

My grandfather gave me a trusty smile and the knight party would be able to handle education downwards as my grandfather's special training settled down and probably the future of the apprenticeship I think it will become stronger.

"Rosemain, after all, what has failed on the surprise? What happened then?"

The adoptive father urged the talk of the story, everyone's eyes turned to me.

"I made a surprise attack No. 2"

"What's the second surprise attack?"

"Yes, if you raise a monster of treasure, Dunkel Ferger will also loosen the hand that attacks here, it will not be able to go hand in hand with a strong demonic beast, and it is not easy to hunt monsters I thought, I made the monster massive. "

"Ha !?"

I will tell you what I did to the surroundings where my eyes are open.

"Ferdinand-s kind of intense maze as a fragment of Ruel's fruit containing my magical power .... No, I dropped a few drops of the most effective recovery medicine and I had it thrown by Yudit. If I drop it around, it will starve for magical power I thought that the devil would eat it without permission, but Yudit succeeded in driving into the mouth, is not it? "

When I was proud of the wonderfulness of Yudit, my adoptive father opened up with a face that was quite troublesome for comment.

"... .. Ah ... In other words, did you recover the monster and made it huge and rampage?"

"So, while Dunkel Ferger suddenly responded to the tremendous enormous treasure, my brother Cornelius and Angelica had their magical power recovered and they got motivated by devils with full power and won the victory."

Among all the people who are silenced and silenced, the chief priest only nods several times interestingly.

"In the treasure thief ditters I experienced for the first time, I used quite a funny hand, I am really surprised by your idea"

"It was said that Mr. Ruffen had a fantastic strategy reminiscent of Ferdinand."

What kind of means were you using? I heard that you can see the data on the strategy of Ditter again.

"Well, it might be a funny strange idea, but it can not be used to punish the winter."

"... ... If you use this measure, the winter lord will be much stronger."

I shrugged my shoulders on the words of my father. I regret that I can not help you.

And after dinner, the Othelier welcomed me when I went back to my room in the castle. Othelier is the mother of Hartmut. When I look closely well, I feel that the facial features are similar.

I was already ready for the bath and I had my clothes taken off and I decided to take a bath.

"I will also remove magic tools today"

When Richarda said so, when the magician was removed, the whole body became heavy at once, and it became impossible to move as I expected. Still, considering from the state of full care that I could not move at all, I feel like recovering to about 70% of nursing care. My legs pulled up, but unlike before I could stand by myself.

He is lifted up by Richarda and Othelier and is taken to the bath in a state of care.

"Thank you for adding Ruthemain, Hartmut to your aides, but I do not worry that foolishness is placing a burden on Rosemain." Is that useful?

I swallowed the word "accelerate the legend of the saint", Hartmut gathered the results of the game against the territory, taught how to gather information on civil apprentices including Phyllene, civil servants Let me know that you are doing my best as an apprentice senior student.

"Since that girl is really entering Rosemain, if you think that you are on the right, please stop it soon. For Rosemain-sama, it seems that you are going to move forward, floating and appearing in the eyes, I I can not be anxious. "

I was heard from Otirier in a Hartmut who was kind as a different person who was merciful, humble and loyal to give blessings to the surroundings. I decided to collapse that fantasy early, I thought of Hartmutt 's behavior and tilted my head.

..... Indeed I saw the actual situation in the life of the lords, I want to think that the fantasy was crushed, but I do not feel so much collapsed. I can not understand.

After having finished taking a bath and wearing it in pajamas, Ricarda had promptly pushed him to bed. To be precise, I was laid on the bed without being worn by magic tools.

"There were surrounding eyes in the lords, and we could not remove magic tools, but tonight we should remove magic tools and the princess should know exactly what the condition of your body is like. We do nothing at all. "

I was told in Richarda that it is said that we are going to cool down and that we are seeing. Since he was wearing magical tools all the time at the House of Peers, I was not conscious that my body was not recovering. But when I remove a magician in this way, I know that I have not recovered much, although I am trying to be in February after waking up.

"Please take a good rest today, I will return to the temple tomorrow and will the busy days continue again?"

"I agree"

If you can write a letter to Beno and you can visit if you can talk directly, if possible, there are many good things. I also want to see the state of the orphanage, I want to see the state of the workshop, the dedication ceremony is near, I also decided that there are plenty of help from the priest.

"Because I am going to let you down after I saw the princess go to the temple by myself, the princess who has been busy for a long time will not get worried."

"Richarda has been consistent at the aristocrat, please extend my wings slowly"

"Thanks for your kind words, but the princess, please take care of yourself, unlike the lords, the princess's physical condition is to be given top priority in Ehrenfest"

With such words, the lights were erased, and I got bedtime a little earlier.

The next day, I was told to move to the temple on the occasion of the blizzard weakening, so I was writing a letter to Beno, ready to start at any time.

Because the outbreak was sent out at the House of Peers, it is said that Lincian, hair ornaments, cuttle curls, plant paper are likely to rise to topics at the lord conference, and after a somewhat later snowstorm on the topic is confirmed, the lord will lead the guild general, the Gilberto trading company and the Planetan shokai Let me know that there is a call to.

Since I will be dedicated since the next Saturday, I also wrote that my plan to stay in the temple until that time and I would like to talk to you directly if there is a sunny day.

I wrote similar letter letters to Otto and the guild director.

Enclose an order for hair ornaments to Gilberta Shokai. I wrote that I wanted to make a hair ornament of Corralierier 's flowers based on red for the purpose of attaching to the adult ceremony with the finest yarn.

"OK with this"

I put a letter in my coat pocket and I nod one.

Well, it seems time has gone. When thinking what to read, Richarda took the key of the box, whether I understood what I am thinking. Otilie speaks to Richarda "Please open this place" and have one of the boxes opened.

"Rosemain, Elvira says two books have been awarded.This is a book printed with Halden Zell"

It was said that new books are increasing in the box, and when I peeped in joyfully, I saw two books of knight stories made of vegetable paper side by side. The cover is simple, it is written only as a select knight story collection and a novelist story.

There was a mother's note that the letter was enclosed in the book and it was read only in the room of the castle where the chief priest could not come without the permission of the owner, not to go out of the room .

When I read flowing with Parapara, the first one is a mother collecting his favorite knight story, it seems to be a model modeled on the priest chief only as illustration. Another painter, who is not Vilma, draws an illustration, but I can see at a glance that the model is the priest chief. I do not know whether Vilma drew it from the painting that I gave for rewards of paint, but my mother did not know what it was, but three more extra than the priest who Vilma draws.

Although the collection of carefully selected knights is definitely a story of a knight, all the stories that are biased in love are also collected.

And according to Otellier, the first book was sold secretly at a factional tea party, it seems that it was the second book of a novelist story that made it possible by the momentum that it was excited at that time. It was a short editing of an educational love affair filled with rumors of love at the aristocrat who their mothers knew. Writing seems to be with mothers.

"... I did not know that my mother had such a talent."

"Elvira was a person who was good at writing such a thing since the apprenticeship of civil service. When recently said that he found a fun hobby, he is very lively."

"Otilier is reading this book, too?"

"Well, I'm enjoying it"

I am overwhelmed by the passion that makes from the plant paper studio to the printing studio on the land of my parents' house to make a book of the priest, while turning over the page and the page.

..... If you are a school girl in love room I think that you do not have to make all the men of illustrations as priests leaders, mothers.

I finished reading the story of the knight story and I returned to the temple, I closed the book.

Aides will move together to see me. The priest chief, the elder brother Eckhardt and Justoks were waiting, and as I proceeded towards that, Dharmell and Angelica came out together.

"Are Angelica going to the temple? Are you still adulting, could you attach it to an escort mission other than the castle?"

When I compared the chief priest and angelica, the chief priest overlooked motivated angelica full of motivation, lightly nodded.

"Although the ceremony ceremony has not ended, it has already become 15. The lecture that was worried about the surrounding seems to have ended, and the person himself is going to do, because the situation where there is no woman knight is troublesome.

Unlike when my parents took care of it at the baptismal ceremony, I have already chosen my own aides by myself. If an adult female knight wanted to choose after the dedication ceremony, it was said that he could choose.

"Mr. Rosemain, I, I finally began to escort mission, please do it."

"If you have permission from the knights or your adopted father, I do not care."

When I got out of the Lesser Bus, Ella, who had got used to it earlier, got into the back seat and Angelica got into the front passenger seat as Brigitte had done before.

As I tell you how to fasten the seatbelt, when I hold the steering wheel, the chief priest's work tools are packed steadily into the back seat.

..... It is more than my baggage.

"Rosemain, are you ready?"

Nodding in the words of Damuel, Bach and Damuel raised their hands. The chief priest watches it and turns his eyes to Norbert who is holding by the door.

"Open the door"

A large door was opened by Norbert's order. Although the snowstorm is weakening, snow is falling. The blue cloak and the cloak of the loess prospered into it. I step on the accelerator so as not to lose sight of me.

From behind, I heard a voice saying "Let's go, Rosemain sama."

"Rosemain-sama's beast is comfortable, I was surprised."

"Uh, right? It's cute, it's a useful one that's convenient."

I crawl through the snow into the temple while glancing at the rear seats filled with Ella, cooking utensils, my luggage and workmen's tools.

"Angelica, all of the temple's servants are gray priests and gray shrine maidens, but like me, Damuel and Angelica, they serve my heart with all my heart."

The contempt for the temple of aristocracy is strong. Damiel came to the temple in the form of a backward movement to compensate for his own failure and Brigitte has never made it difficult for the attitude toward obscurity because he became an escort knight with a desire to endure anything for Irukner.

That is why it is very cautious to put a new escort in the temple.

"... I do not understand well, how do you want me like Rosemain?"

"But I'm glad that those who serve me will not obscure disgust."

"Er, hatred? Outright? ..... I feel I got it somehow."

.....does not understand!

"I am glad that Angelica will work as well with the shinto priests and shrine maidservant."

When I told it briefly and caught a glimpse of the state of Angelica, the expression of angelica, a gloomy beauty girl, got brighter.

"Okay, please leave it to me."

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

When returning to the temple, many of the side staff, including Fran and others, have come to meet us. With my side servants who take down my luggage from a lesser bus, my side jobs also move. Vilma helped Ella carry his work tools and Monica began to carry my baggage.

"Rosemain, may we help them?"

Zeam asked for the help of the head of the priest, so I gently lightly nodded. There is a considerable amount, so if you do not pick up your luggage quickly, you can not clean up the cuddling. Furan and Fritz also start to move baggage into the temple for the moment.

"Well, I will help you as well"

"Gil, please wait."

I stopped trying to move just like Zeam, and I gave Gil a pocket letter.

"While the current snowstorm is weakening, please hurry and deliver this to the Plantin shop, please tell me that this is the letter addressed to the guild manager at Gilberto Shokai, and the call from the lords Speaking of it, you can understand the seriousness of things well. "

"I will go immediately"

Gil who is going with Irukner and Haldzell is deeply connected with the most Planetan shops and Gilberto shops. Gil closely watched their hardships and was caught up as a studio representative in the unreasonableness of aristocrat relations, so Gill rushed out with a change of complexion when he got a letter of three.

As everyone cooperated, carrying the luggage to the temple quickly ended, then leave it to the head of the priest, and I took my own side and returned to my room. Nicola who was back on foot ahead prepared tea and candy.

I will introduce Angelica as a knight escorting in the temple instead of Brigitte from now on.

"People who serve Rosemain-sama, I think it would be better if we cooperate with each other."

It looked like Angelica who said so with a crisp look that the francs were slightly devoured. Although he seems to be troubled by Angelica who is not noblemen, he saw where Damuel restrained temple and sigh, and realized that it was not ordinary, distorted his mouth as Fran frown with a bitter smile.

"This is the leading side franc in the temple.I am pleased that Rosemain has an escort knight like Angelica.Please continue your favor.

Damuel and Angelica stand in front of the door and are confirmed variously about the escort work in the temple. Even if you only talk, there are many things Angelica does not understand if you do not actually see or move.

"Fran, please report during absence"

"Certainly yes"

There were several children who caught a cold in an orphanage, but it seems that they finished without problems. Handicrafts and printing in winter at the workshop are also smooth, so there seems to be no problem in particular.

"When the snowstorm stops and spring approaches, Plantin Shokai and Gilberto Shokai are supposed to be called to the castle, so I think that there will be a request to visit during the dedication ceremony. When the snowstorm is weak, I think that it will be done, so please arrange for the orphanage office room so that it will be okay no matter when you have a visit. "

"Certainly yes"

By the time we heard the reports from all of us, Gill came back with snow covered. Listen to the report on the side of the fireplace so that the gill trembling with a tenderness is warm even a little.

"Mr. Beno said that he went on, so he will contact the head of the guild and the Gilberto shooter from now on and he will want to see him when the snowstorm weakens tomorrow."

"Perhaps there is a prelude to Lutz, but Gill also ask for preparation of the orphanage headquarters room"

"Yes"

I went to the orphanage in the afternoon and told everyone to see the situation of the children and the progress of the handicraft and saw Gill.

"Then, Gill is changing her clothes in a hurry, he is going to be busy, but it is hard to catch a cold."

"Certainly yes"

As I proclaimed, I looked around the orphanage after lunch and looked at the growth of children and confirmed to Deria whether there was any problem with Dirk. Dirk seems to be growing quickly without particular problems.

"I'm getting into a lot of days and I'm getting less listening to what I say."

"I listen to what Delia is saying properly, because I am a good boy, Rosemain."

"Morning! Dirk is just a lie!"

While Delia says so with an angry tone, her face is smiling. I seemed to have a good brother-brother relationship and I felt relieved.

The next day, Franc who saw the blizzard weakening in the time zone of 3 bells approaching puts the baggage that I will take to help the priest's officer on the desk and holds a book instead It was.

"Mr. Rosemain, let's move to the orphanage headquarters, I will arrive while reading a book"

As Franc says, Gil will inform you that he will "come from now" by the time he gets to the Orphanage Office.

I began to read books in the orphanage headquarters room that had been warmed so as to be OK whenever it came.

"Welcome home, Rosemain"

Beno, Marc and Lutz from Printemps, Otto, Teo and Leon from the Gilberta Shaman, and two guilds and their assistants walking in the snow, everyone is covered with snow.

I take off my coat, take a hat and go up to the second floor.

"Today I will take your time and I will not be thankful."

I looked around the face that stiffened the tension feeling before the big job which can not fail, I recommended the seat.

Chapter 319: Called merchants

---

"Rosemain, I would like to tell you more about the contents of the letter."

It seemed that the interaction with me was left to the closest Beno, and it was Beno the first thing to look after the old people.

I will explain it as carefully as possible because the guild length is also with me.

"When a nobleman child reaches ten, he will study at the lords in winter, and the children of other aristocrats gather in the same way."

Starting from the explanation of the House of Peers and ranking by influence for each territory and future lord candidate will continue, so that Ehrenfest will send a fashion and increase the ranking, Aubu · Tell you what was ordered by Ehrenfest.

"The epidemic trying to spread from Ehrenfest to other territories through the aristocracy, Lincian, hair ornaments, cooking recipes and utensils, vegetable paper, inks, books ..... All because I was involved, spread to other territories It seems that Aub Ehrenfest thought after I woke up. "

"So, did Rosemain, who decided to go to the House of Peers from this year, have already disseminated it ...?"

I nodded to Beno's words "I am right." Before we leave, Beno 's eyes say, but it does not matter if you are stared at that way.

"Because I was asked about epidemic transmissions just before leaving for the lords, I could not get in touch with everyone, but did not any orders from the civil service?"

"For a while, there was a notice that Lin Shan, hair ornaments, and books should not be put out of the territory ... .. From the notice, thinking that the ban was lifted and spread at a stretch, some preparation I am planning to do it. "

"Truly Beno. A good <sup>Capital</sup> eye Is not it? "

It is indeed Beno to prepare for spreading by notice not to put out outside the territory.

"So, what kind of circumstances is currently in relation to expanding the fashion? Is it that Rosemain's returning to here has already expanded?"

"First of all, I thought that it would be better to spread out little by little during my studies, rather than spreading everything all at once in the first year."

It is to impress that Ehrenfest is not a one-shop owing to keeping out trends and keeping out for a long time.

"Certainly, the merchant will make many visits to places where new things are made each time he visits, and aristocrats in other territories will take their feet to confirm the actual thing Ehrenfest will be a big change as there are few customers from other territories. "

As a pedestrian, Otto who came across various land said while narrowing his eyes a little. Compared to the next Fröbel Turk and Ahrensbach, Ehrenfest has little charm to see other bodies trying to carry their feet, and it seems that there is little access to aristocrats in other territories.

Now it is more likely that the aristocracy in other territory except those who issued the permission in the orders of the lords will not enter.

..... It is said that you have not seen so much aristocracy in other territory?

"In this year I decided to spread at the House of Lords, Lincian, hair ornaments, quilt curls, plant paper, which I normally use and I chose a topical item at the tea party I am going. "

"Can you regard the reputation as being good among the aristocrats of Ehrenfest?

I nodded lightly in the word of the guild's length.

"In addition to that, I thought that it was relatively easy to increase the number of workshops. It is a preceding escape type product that I want to earn as much as possible before the manufacturing method spreads. When similar items are also in other territories I think that it will come out "

Even knowing how to make it is something I could make with me and the Lutz of the poor. It is easy to mimic. That's why I make it a little more and I want to earn as much as possible when I get started.

Otto of Gilberta trading company holding Lincian and hair ornaments caressed their lips and nodded.

"And then we will spread the prints at the time of a little calming of things that other territories might be able to mimic. When it's hard to prepare a printing machine to spread it out, even Ehrenfest I guess it will take a lot of time to spread to other territories. "

If we could keep the way to make a printing machine secret, Beno raised the end of his lip and nodded, as the printing industry could be monopolized for a while with Ehrenfest.

"I'd like to extend books at the House of Lords, with the goal of increasing the number of printing stations in Ehrenfest and manuscripts to be brought in from other territories in the coming years. As for me, I always think that I want to spread ... "

"Rosemain, if it is too hasty, there are many things to miss things, slowly, but surely let's penetrate thoroughly."

Do not rush. Keep it around properly! I heard that Beno's secondary voice was heard. I do not smile a reddish brown eyes in an amiable laugh, so I guess it probably is not wrong.

"In the tea ceremony where I attended, Lincyan, the reputation for hair ornaments is very good, we have earned the reputation that katarukaru is easy to eat while being rustic, it is an evaluation from teachers of Kozenburg and Taishoin in the highland So from now on, I think that the territory that wants to trade will appear more frequently by the lord's conference. "

"... .... Klassenburg? What a big deal this is ..."

It was the guild chief that stared my eyes on my words. Just as we are dealing with commercial transactions, it may be familiar with the names and influences of other territories.

Unlike the guild length, Beno and Otto seemed to be caught in a different place than the name of Klassenburg.

"Rosemain, what does it mean that other territories will come out from now on?"

"The social occasion season of the aristocrat is the second half when all lectures are finished, but I have finished lecturing in a hurry for the dedication ceremony, and returned to here, so we still have teachers and candidates of lords of Klassenburg and I have only had a tea party with the second prince, so I do not know how the absentee lords I will be without. "

"..... Rosemain, now did you say that tea ceremonies are held only with teachers and the major and royal family ?, The client of this hair ornament ... ...."

It was the guild chief that lost his color from his face and turned his eyes toward Otto. For a long time it seems that the guess is good, because I went to a nobleman as a guild manager.

"Well, I would like the Gilberto Shokai to make a hair ornament to be given by the second prince to the adult celebration of the candidate of Klostenburg lord."

"... ... How cool ... ...."

The guild's head and sympathy's gaze is directed to Otto from his followers. However, the expression of Otto did not change very much.

"Well, may I ask the color of the hair of the person wearing it and the color of the costume? Teo, please refrain."

"Certainly yes"

When I explain Eglantine to Otto, Te Theo keeps it down behind Otto.

"It is like a goddess of light, the color of hair is the closest to Lutz.If Glossy comes out with Lincian, it will be more similar color.The costume is said to be Red of Goddruleh of the Earth."

We will decide whether there is a color other than the red Corrallee's flower we want to add, how big it is, how to charge it.

"... Otto, do you understand? It is a devotee to the royal family"

Otto lightly shrugged his shoulders to the guild length frown.

"I understand, is not it such a panic? The royalty liked the hair decorations that Rosemain wears, I can not make it in other territories Now if you make the best thing for the Gilberto trading company right now, I do not have any more ... And also ... "

Otto took a glance at the hair ornament which I am inserting in my hair now. It is one of the hair ornaments Turi had made while sleeping.

"The craftsmen of the Gilberta trading company are constantly evolving as new devices are made each time they make a hair ornament, new flowers are increasing, I am proud of it. Using threads, I think that if the most successful craftworkers make new ornaments by doing the same things as ever, we can meet Rosemain's expectations and eventually meet the expectations of the royal family. "

"But, Klassenburg and the royal family ..."

It seems that it is only the guild length that clearly knows the difference between Ehrenfest and Klassenburg. Beno gently shrugged his shoulders to the guild's length not convinced.

"Guild length, roughly, are not Klassenburg and royalty like something like the same lord family as Rosemain?"

"It's not the same, Beno!"

"From the point of view that it can not fail, there are no big differences between Ellenfest's senior nobility, other territory nobility and other lords, because the other party is a noble who can easily crush us."

Just because you are a nobleman, the reason for unreasonableness goes on to the trading partner of the commoner. Then Beno said that there is not much difference for a merchant in the sense that the lower aristocrat and the royal family of Ehrenfest can not fail.

..... I am reliable as to this hungry placement.

"It is as Otto and Beno said, it is easier for royal partners to feel comfortable by being able to take the form of donation from here,"

Because it is a request from me, the degree of tension will be totally different if we compare to dealing with me and responding to other senior nobility. Besides, the royal family is not directly corresponded by Otto. It is the adoptive father who has a stomach painful feeling.

"Rosemain, how long is the deadline? When is the adult ceremony?"

"The ceremony ceremony for the lords is the end of winter.

"Certainly yes"

After completing the order for hair ornament to Egrantine, I breathed out lightly.

"And then, with regard to vegetable papers, because this material knows the ingredients quickly, we are talking to the lords only with new paper, but this is hard to understand, so we thought that something is necessary for the new name "

"Do you have any candidate? That, like Gutenberg ... .."

Beno's eyes narrowed down, probably not going to give a strange name again.

"No, thinking that it is better to use the name of the person who made it first, I should make it Rutz paper ..."

"If so, I think that Maine is better."

Instantly said Lutz. It says that it is forgiving my face. I thought that Lutz newspaper was a nice name, but it seems not to be good.

..... Main paper? I am hasty rejection. There is no need to leave my name.

Marc who looked sorry for Lutz asked for permission to speak, with a soft smile, opened his mouth.

"How about using the name of the place of origin? In Irkner, a paper that is quite different from Ehrenfest is made, so how about naming it like Irkurner paper or Ehrenfest paper?"

"Then, along with the paper, it seems that the name of Ehrenfest will be able to sell in the middle."

Beno also inferred the place name so as to support Marc.

Certainly, the quality of paper varies greatly depending on the materials you can take. The place name is easier to establish than the person's name, and it also becomes a publicity.

"... Well ... let's make it Ehrenfest paper"

I felt breathed out like Lutz 's relief.

"Rosemain, is that Ehrenfest paper likely to sell?"

"I do not know yet, I use it for libraries, lectures, minutes etc. on a daily basis, but because everyone in Ehrenfest does not use it. For now, the teachers who are apt to be buried in the materials Just attracting attention, I thought students' low recognition. "

In my words the guild chief stroked the jaw "I do not think so".

"If you are a senior aristocrat or higher, you do not have to bother to take the trouble to obtain a new piece of paper but you can get the usual parchment as usual. For lower aristocrats it is somewhat cheaper than parchment, but at a price that you can feel free to use everyday We do not have it. "

"To be sure, it is right, it is given to students who do a manuscript in the library thought that if it seems to be used as easily as possible, we are giving a manuscript with the above command Sometimes it is normal for paper to be given, so it may not be so pleasant or everyday. "

"When there are a lot of materials, unlike the wooden cards, the volume can be quite small, but for the students it will be hard to understand."

The guild manager seems to be changing from a wooden bid to a vegetable paper in order to manage materials with a commercial guild. Said that if the material to be managed becomes paper, it will save a lot of space compared to the wood basket.

Beno, who decided to move to Ircnner and Haldzell for work, took the job, and when considering the amount of baggage carried, she concluded that paper is better than wooden paper.

"It may be better for you to ask Aub Ehrenfest to use it first as a civil servant of Ehrenfest selling paper. When the civilian himself knows that the material will be easier to handle, Does not the enthusiasm of you change? "

"... .. Well, let's propose."

I am in trouble if the lords do not use the special products of my own territory. Let 's make steady use of our adoptive fathers. I am the best professional player of paper paper, the next one is not a temple and a commercial guild. You have to use Gatsuri at the castle and let it penetrate the aristocrat through civil servants.

"Oh yeah, I'd like you to make tools for paper storage, I will also gather Gutenberg this time and talk about it."

There are a number of things you want for office supplies, such as binders, files, boxes for organizing paper. The guild chief who picked up my words saw me with the eyes that he had found prey.

"Mr. Rosemain, let's leave it to other businesses, not just to the Printemps business, there are many people who wish to have a good deed."

I tilted my head slowly into the word of the guild general.

"Because I am using the Plantin Shokai as my exclusive, if you want work, would you rather get a job from the Printemps business? Is it the merchant's way of doing this?"

"That is true ... .."

According to my large order, workload is too skewed, Guild chief said. However, since Gutenberg is busy with everyone, if I can think that it will not be a problem even if I turn it, I think Beno's exclusive woodworking studio will make my job to Ingo. Perhaps it's just not enough trust and quality.

"Because I trust Gutenberg, including Beno, I do not say anything for them to convince them to work, and if they are satisfied with the work I was told, that person I will do as much as possible to give priority to work I'm proud of. "

To be honest, Gutenberg is a gathering of craftsmen and merchants that can meet my demands. Both Johann, Ingo and Heidi were introductions from Beno. And since each work I'm good at was a satisfactory work I was doing, I just sorted out the work after that.

There are also Zacks that have pushed for themselves as being more skilled than Johan, but basically they are greatly appreciated if skilled men help.

"However, as the work from the lords gathers steadily, the other party who causes troubles is in trouble. Let's work from me to a person who is busy and wants to sort out jobs to someone who will be reluctant to work. I do not think so. "

Please stop talking about the guild's proposal, please talk about merchants around here. I do not feel like heading into the conflict between the business.

"Because Beno is somewhat pessimistic, Beno does not monopolize every job?"

Beno slowly nodded when I saw Beno, thinking that I could not hold the whole thing.

"As for paper, we do not increase it arbitrarily because Rosemain's permission is necessary to make a new studio, but since Lynnshan began to become popular among aristocrats in Ehrenfest, he was married to another town I convey the recipe to my sister and relatives, and we are increasing the number of studio. "

..... The studio of Lincian was increasing while I was sleeping.

"At that time, if you purchase oil as a raw material from a food processing studio and you only do the manufacture of Lincian in the workshop held by the Gilberta Shokai, it may be possible to mass produce further. What matters is the material and ratio of the scrub Therefore "

"I see"

Teo and Leon of the Gilberta shop dealing with Lincian lightly watch their eyes and write down my words.

"Is hair decoration possible to mass-produce?"

"Through the sewing association, since last year I asked several workshops as winter handicrafts to make the simplest things for the commoners. Within those, I will send the next flower to those who make good quality While asking, I draw up at the end of the Darlua contract, so I train craftsmen. "

Depending on the degree of difficulty of the request, it seems that some mass production is possible by dividing craftsmen. It seems that mass production was necessary because it was fashionable to put flower ornaments on clothes among the nobles of Ehrenfest.

And from the story that Turi has been holding a lady of a lord in a few years, saying that making a hair ornament well for girls is treated as a way of rapid advancement.

..... If you receive a request from a royal family like this, Turi seems to be a legend. That's amazing, it's amazing, you will want to brag.

I did not put out high-tension in my mind, I looked at Beno and nodded, "I admire the goodness of handling."

"If Lincian and hair decorations are no problem, shall we increase the studio of paper from the next spring?"

"Rosemain, Hald Zell is the destination."

"After that dedication ceremony, I will put together to some extent in the social circle. If you have a missing part in the report from Gill, please submit the materials."

"Certainly yes"

It seems that there is a certain degree of prospect. When applauding in the heart with awesome, Mr. Beno, the guild chief asked, "What kind of treatment will you handle for katarukaru?"

"If Katarukaru is requested, we plan to sell only the basic recipe at the lord conference, a pioneer who has repeatedly devised it will be advantageous, and this is extra information, but the middle man is too sweet I felt Qatar curl with honey taste strong sweetness is most popular because it is too familiar. "

"Ho? Honey taste?"

I did not expect to get such information, as the surprised guild leader rounded his eyes. As the guild chief has to work variously from now on, it seems like you are investing ahead with information.

"After the lord conference is over, you will increase the number of merchants from other territories, so please refer to it"

"I am sorry"

"What I want to ask Gustaf is to arrange for the acceptance of merchants and travelers.If there are more travelers, is not the lack of accommodation? If you accept a lot of merchants, It will not ... .. probably the aristocrat is a part that does not draw much attention, but it is the downtown that the commoner merchants see. "

If you want to collect people, it is best to have merchants come to Ehrenfest, but at that moment there is no product, the customer's heart will be away, and the merchant who came from far away will get angry. If there is an increase in the number of outstanding items, competition for shortage of goods occurs, it will easily be disturbed such as security.

"To maintain security it is necessary to have close contact with soldiers and we need to collaborate with associations involved in inns and restaurants so we want to leave it to the commercial guild."

The guild chief opened his eyes wide as I thought, but I smiled with smile.

"Please turn it on and on and on to the business that said that you wanted work to work"

"Certainly yes"

"People who know only this town may find it difficult to see their faults. I heard that Otto was a journey. When asking various opinions about the beauty and security of the city, there are new discoveries. It might be, is not it? "

"Huh ....."

Looking at the stunned guild chief by his side, Maruk shrugs off Beno who seems to be laughing, even though work is on the rise and it is good.

Beno became a serious face and saw me.

"Rosemain, what is it like with the Lords Conference?"

I was questioned by Beno, but I have not attended the lord's meeting, so I do not understand it at all. For now, I know only that all the lords of Jurgen Schmidt gather and hold a meeting.

"I have never participated since I am not a lord because I am not a lord. I am not sure, but I have heard from Aub Ehrenfest that there is a negotiation between the lords regarding distribution and transactions."

Regarding the Lord Conference, the guild manager knew better than me.

"I will only receive the results, but somewhat familiar as we dispatch merchants to other territories or move journalists by the Lords Council"

Guild chiefs will tell us about some of the changes that have occurred as determined by the Lord's Conference so far. It seems to be a conference that will make a big change in the territory.

"It is supposed to be called from Aub Ehrenfest when the snowstorm ceases in order to make arrangements as to what extent Ehrenfest will make a contract with what territory at that lord conference"

"That is, is that ... .... Rosemain's worried, very much appreciated"

The word of the guild's head, I could not understand well and tilted his head. According to the guild general, usually the lords and nobility do not consider the circumstances of traders of the commoners at all, so it seems that what was decided at the lord conference will arrive as an order form through civil service.

Speaking of aristocratic way of thinking that commoners are not the same human beings, it seems that it is so, it is a way that I do not think it will be very successful.

"The ordinary aristocrat will not meet with us like Rosemain, it is over with a command, and if it fails it is said that all responsibilities are here, so please discuss the place of discussion before the lord conference Even by being able to set up, it is quite a blessing story as here. "

..... It is normal, there is a reasonable amount, and it is convincing that the influence of Ehrenfest is low because it is too much mortification.

It seems that my father and the priest chief did not get caught in the proposal when I suggested it was because I was stunned as "I will give the opinion of the merchant to the lord conference" without having to meet with a merchant.

"With regard to the meeting at the Italian restaurant, too, if you can not listen to this opinion with civilian officials, it is thought that Aub Ehrenfest was considered, so we may be a little easier to do until the next shift "

..... I heard that, it is like a good lord who just wanted to go downtown, just thought of a foster father who just wanted to eat a new dish, listening also to the bottom-down opinion.

I am thinking in a good direction, so I do not need to correct it.

"I will try to make it as much as possible so that discussions with Aub Ehrenfest will be better."

"Sorry, I am really encouraged."

Beno glared at me with a face like saying not to put in my neck very much.

"Are those bringing us to the place of discussion with Aub Ehrenfest a problem with the accompanying person today? We have to decide the number of people and issue invitations."

"In general, if you go to the castle, it is usual that a representative and an attendant are one person."

"I understand, I will tell the civil servants to give me an invitation like that"

Following the words of the guild chief with the most interactions with the nobility, I decided the number of people going to the castle.

Then I cut off my words and I gripped my fist tightly on my knees and turned my eyes to Lutz. I do not want to say it from my mouth, but this is something I must say.

I looked at me, making the face strong, to see what the eyes met Lutz felt. Breathe in slowly, I will open my mouth while careful not to shake my voice.

"... There is a possibility of canceling contract magic in the place of discussion this time"

We must also consider that the contract between Mine and Lutz will expire. Even if you go to the aristocracy, there is a high possibility that the contract magic that Beno had been handling, like to be able to have a connection even a little.

I know that there is no way to increase production, spread fashion, and distribute things. Still, the ties that remained thin disappeared again, and our relationship becomes thinner than before. It must be very sad.

"We will send an invitation card for three people to the Planetan shop, please be sure to accompany Lutz"

When I commanded Lutz to accompany, while I fell a little down, Beno once nodded his head painfully and then he nodded with no help.

"Let's do as you say."

Chapter 320: A priest and priest of Hill sur

---

We decided to do things such as setting up a meeting place after snowstorm stopped to such an extent that a horse-drawn carriage can pass, I accompanying, putting together materials to some extent about the current production amount and its reserve.

"The snowstorm is getting stronger"

With the voice of Gill who was watching outside the window, everyone closes his mouth. If we do not hurry back, the snowstorm will be getting stronger from now on. Beno talked about such things as avoiding being invoked without preparing anything without preparing anything, and meeting of the day was broken up in a hurry.

I gazed lightly from the window, as the snow and the wind are getting stronger, everyone will return quickly.

Today there were plenty of people, I could not even accept Lutz, and when I think of canceling my contract in the future I feel depressed. I drank the remaining tea and I returned to the temple room.

After lunch, we decided to prepare for meeting Giebe · Haldenzell after the summary of today's meeting and donation ceremony.

"Zam, I will have to tell the priest's president what I have decided at today's meeting?" I wonder if you can ask me for an interview request and please ask me to lend you my alternatives. "

"Certainly yes"

"Monica summarizes the content of today's meetings before meeting with the chief priest, Frank brings the document of Hald Zell that Gil put together."

Working on the side workers, I look over the material of Hald Zell that Franc prepared. I have to find out what negotiations I have to do to Gieb Haldenzell, how far Gutenberg is doing work and where it is packed.

Even so, do you know what kind of book your mother is making in Gibe Haldzell? I wonder if there are books made by non-mothers. It became a big concern.

..... Hua, I want to read a book that my mother made.

Even though it is my own thing, I can not help being concerned about the condition that there is a book that I have not read. Those who are in the temple settle down, I just want to go to the castle's room just to read those two books.

When thinking about such a thing, Zam who had held the wooden card of the visiting request to the chief priest's officer came back with a little troubled face.

"Zarm, what happened?"

"The chief priest is going to stay in the workshop, he does not seem to get out, and a side worker says that she has not taken meals for a long time since dinner last night."

Though I thought that I thought that it would come out of the workshop indeed if I headed for help with a bell of three, but it was not headed because of a meeting. Therefore, it seems that it will not come out of the workshop even though it is about time for the 5 bells to ring.

..... There was a souvenir of Professor Hirschle in a lot of baggage brought to the temple, so it must be a good time for research.

"While I was asleep, did not the director general be busy with all my work and would not have liked to like it for a day?"

"One day has passed since I seem to have been able to get back to the temple for the rest of the day yesterday and the chief priest is said to have not taken meals during that time."

As Zarm fogged her face anxiously while looking at the door, Fran fell like a troubled face like Zeam. I always think, Frank, good to be called Zam, the former side of the priest chief likes the chief priest too much.

"Is it better to go to see the state once?"

"It will be a lot of help if you do so, because only the temple Rosemain is ordered by the chief priest."

..... I did not like to listen to it at the place I ordered.

For the time being, I breathed out that it would be good if I could relieve the francs. Together with Zam and Fran, who opens the door at a slow pace, he heads to the chief priest's room.

"Rosemain, well came"

That's why he greeted me with a smile was Eckhardt brother who encourages document work at the office desk of the priest. While looking at the document, I look around the room around and notice that Justoks is not there.

"Ekhart, older brother, Justkus, are you surely pushing your work to Ekhardt's brother, and joining the chief priest and two at the workshop?"

"No, Justkus returned to the castle in the morning when there was little snow, because the work I was asked for has ended."

Although I was looking forward to the souvenir of Hill Sur, the workshop of the priest of the temple is designed not to be disturbed by the adoptive father, if it is not quite a magical power, it can not be inserted. As a result, Yusutsukusu could not enter, seemingly disappointing while watching the workshop, he seems to have returned to the castle as soon as he finishes only the requested work.

"Besides, I work independently, the amount I am doing is not the amount that Ferdinand has ordered."

It seems that Elder brother Eckhardt was helping the document work in advance so that the president could see the research time as much as possible. However, it seems that it is almost impossible.

"In the case of Rosemain, will you put it in Ferdinand's workshop?"

"I can put in, but it is impossible unless the president may open it, because I do not register magical power."

The chief priest is registered freely in my workshop in the temple room of the temple, so the chief priest is freely entering and leaving, but I can not enter because it is not registered in the workshop of the priest.

While dropping shoulder with disappointment, Brother Eckhart turns his eyes to a magical tool to call out to the workshop.

"Will you talk to me for a while? Ferdinand may be able to respond a bit if the guest comes in. Even if I call out, I do not even reply anymore "

Since there was no choice, I briefly touched a magic tool to get in touch with the workshop, and heard a voice.

"The chief priest, Rosemain"

"You, I am busy now, if it is not urgent, do it later."

"In an emergency, please eat meals for your health, the side also worried about Eckhardt brothers!"

"I know, I will eat it if I get to a good cut point, so you should not worry."

As I was briefly told briefly, when I breathed out lightly, I left my magical tool and looked back on Mr. Eckhardt.

"We do not die when we eat a meal two days a day, and the director of the priesthood said that if you go to places where you can cut as much as you can, the priest chief is saying that if it comes out until the votive ceremony, is that okay with that? "

I am immersed in reading in the Reigno period and have a similar experience, I can understand the feelings of the chief priest who can not be rounded up quite easily. Would not it be okay if you do a dedication ceremony that causes great difficulties around you?

When I thought about letting go alone until I felt it, the servant of the priest and the older brother Eckhart kneeled before me.

"Rosemain, Mr. Ferdinand has been the same answer since this morning, but somehow it does not work anyhow, is there anything else that might be interested in Ferdinand's interest?"

With a face like no other something to be saved, my brother Eckhart told me so, I breathlessly breathed. Episode's older brother's appeal seems to continue for a long time unless somehow put off the priest who has drawn in a workshop that no one can open like Amateraiwa of Amaterasu Amami.

"... It is easy to get out quickly, but I think that I will get angry. I do not feel like going forward."

"I do not want to be angry for a while, because I was scolded during this time," and said, "Did Rosemain do something to be scolded by the priest chief?" It was a sad face, and Zeam encouraged me, "Because I am scolded with them".

..... Even if such a thing is told, it is not a bit of a drool from the workshop to drop off the story that is bothering me to bad moon officials.

Brother Eckhart thought for a while, shining Kirari and the eyes of blue and putting his hands on my shoulder, he hid himself to tell secretly a secret story.

"Rhythmmain is a little less mindy if you got mad at early eyes. If you talk to the research results of magical tools now, some anger will be relieved and you will be able to divert your story."

"I understand, let's do it"

The story is another if the minister of the priesthood decreases. As I quickly raised my face, I spoke again to the magician.

"The chief priest, please come out"

"... .. You still have it?"

"Let's have dinner, I thought you had to talk about magical compression, are not you interested in compressing the four levels of magical compression? The chief priest and the escort guards of my ... .. Since there are already only people who know about magical compression, I think that it is not a problem to talk about meals. "

The chief priest's word stopped. Probably, it must be balancing to talk about continuing research and talking about magical compression.

"After that, I have consultation, I would like to teach magical compression to the former Veronika school children and incorporate them into factions ..."

"What on earth are you thinking !?"

Van! And the chief priest came out with a large door open. Sure enough, the effect to pull the priest chief from the workshop was extraordinary, but you can see at a glance that the Vernier is standing. I have a face with lack of sleep, but my eyes were glittering because I am absorbed in my favorite things. Is this an oversight thunder course that left it to anger?

"Because I was scolded that reports, contacts and consultation are important, I thought I'd consult properly.

"... I will have to ask him."

I did not hide the expression of reluctantly, the priest chief sigh.

"Well, if the bell of 6 rings, my direction ..."

"You come to this room, so that you do not disturb any more until dinner"

..... Absolutely I'm planning to research until the last minute of dinner.

With eyes looking at the workshop, you can quickly see what the priest leader thinks. It is the first time that it is easy to understand.

"Certainly, then, if six bells rings, I will come here."

When I laughed nicely, the chief priest returned to the workshop with a dull face. Remove your line of sight from the closed door, I look around the surrounding pillars.

"That's why, please prepare meals for me"

"Sorry, the temple of the temple, the chief priest seems to come to the table for meal, I'm relieved."

As we have to prepare dinner for my part, a part of the side starts to move instantly. To come here for dinner, my side work also has to prepare dishes and something, and the sidewalks followed by the 6 bells and the escort knight finish the early dinner or the late It is necessary to make arrangements such as dividing by time zone.

"Mr. Rosemain, let's go back to the room once"

"Well, my brother Eckhart, I will be here with six bells,"

"Oh, I will be waiting, Perhaps, if Rosemain promised does not speak, Ferdinand will not come out, the side who can move Ferdinand is really my sister,"

Ehrhart brother praised with a smile similar to his father saying "well done", but even if praised for such thing, it is not very happy.

As I returned to the room and talked to the chief priest, while preparing my thoughts about the magical compression comprehensively, preparations were made hurriedly and the 6 bells began to ring.

When I headed back to the chief priest's room again, the chief priest of the dull face came out from the workshop and was waiting.

While preparations are preparing dishes, I have to face a cranky chief priest alone. I am sorry for the cool face of Mr. Eckhart 's brother who stands behind the priest president putting forward what is bad at the front.

"The chief priest, the emotions are not suppressed, the nobles should not show such emotions"

"If anyone else is holding emotions to your opponent, whatever you feel uncomfortable will not be totally transmitted, as long as you are other people?"

It seems that she seems to show a bad mood as I can tell, but I do not need such consideration.

"So what did it all mean to teach the former Veronica school of magical compression? Did not you tell them not to tell them against you?"

"I have no intention of teaching enemies. It has not changed, but I did not understand the size of the faction and the presence or absence of information until I came in contact with the older Veronica school children at the House of Lords It seems"

Because it was the biggest faction, there are many people of the former Veronica. There is no way we can eliminate it all.

"Besides, there was a child who regretted as a result of being told by parents to act with being not given information, as a result of fearing Vilfriit's older brother, it was automatically sorted to the faction to which the parent belongs There are some children suffering as to whether they will be able to choose factions by themselves when they become like. "

"It is not until you have grown up to choose factions for yourself and act."

"Well then you will miss the time when magical power grows the most, right?" When you look closely close to those who grew at a stretch in a few years like Angelica and Elder Cornelius, the magical powers It seems like despairing the situation that I can not get it. "

The chief priest obviously closes his eyes and saying, "While it is certain that you can stretch your magical power the most while you are studying at the lords."

"By changing contract contents of contract magic from those of the same faction, can not we just incorporate our child generation here?"

"Even if it says to change contract contents, it is difficult to set conditions"

"I want to leave to the president of the priest or mother who knows the real faction relations conspicuously, I think that vigilance is necessary, but I can not truncate this number."

The president of the priest who thought that it was huffing glared at me with sharp eyes of gold.

"Is there any other aim? Do it honestly"

"Wow ... .... And, by binding with a contract, if the adoptive fathers can be relieved, I think that I can put the old Veronica's child close to me."

In my words, the chief priest opened his eyes wide open. And, even though I'm near the fireplace, I look at me with a smile like a cold chirp and give out a somewhat low voice.

"Are you really stupid? Do you remember what you did? Even for two years ago for us it has not changed for you season by a minute, was not it different?"

"... ... Although it may be stupid, there are promising human resources for former Veronica schools, so should I grow up and use it as a waste?"

I highly appreciate the ability of Rodderich 's story collecting ability and stories that I do not remember well to make improvisation continuation.

"Also, in the dormitory where dissatisfaction and disappointment spread, it is uncomfortable"

"There are such things as inside a dormitory, it is natural that there is a conflict by factions?"

Hun and the chief priest rang the nose and said so.

"But as a grading committee, we decided to classify each courses for each specialized course in order to pass the classroom, and we decided to reward us according to the speed of passing and the results, so we cooperated well beyond factions That's it. "

At first I thought it was a bit jerky, but as I actively presented my opinions and taught studying to pass, the multipurpose hall where everyone gathers became a friendly atmosphere.

In that report the chief priest watches me, with eyes full and unbelievable.

"... .. were you doing something like that?"

"Yes, I was ordered by the adoptive father to raise the grade ... It is the same as winter's children's room to set rewards and compete and raise the overall performance ... .. that? Wilfried His brother sent a report from the House of Lords, right? "

I thought that I knew long ago, I will tilt my head. Wilfried's older brother thinks that it is better to study how to write a report that I have not reported such important things.

"It is a question about you who has reached me, it seems that various important information is hidden in the information Wilfriit has judged that it is not enough to ask a question."

Suddenly remove the line of sight from the president of the priest who sees it here in a suspicious manner. I wonder if it feels like I feel like being scolded.

"In the meantime, I found out that there was a degree of exchange that allowed us to exchange opinions with the former Veronica children in the dormitory, so let's think about whether or not we can make it into the faction even a bit, by separating the contract contents. If we succeed in taking in, the power picture will change drastically ... .. Of course, caution becomes more important than anything because it leads to embracing the danger.As for this matter, until the clear conclusion comes out Be prepared not to move "

"Yes"

The story while eating dinner is about Hill Sur's souvenir. I asked what kind of magical tool that Hirsur wanted me to fix.

"It's a magic tool used for lectures, I did not think that I still used it, and I thought that he had made a new magic tool indeed ..."

As a result of my interpretation that the chief priest explained, it turned out to be a magical tool like a projector. If you put magical power in a magic stone, during that time, it seems that you can display the letters you wrote on paper on a white cloth like a slide.

"Hill Sur is, as you know, quite troublesome except for research. It seems frustrating that the same explanation has to be done repeatedly in the lecture, but if the students can not hear it, there is no choice but to ask a question. As the grade progresses and the number of procedures increases, it becomes more and more difficult to remember everything, so we have created a magical tool that can be projected so as not to explain the procedure over and over in a lecture on compounding "

Hirsur coming back from the lecture is in bad mood because it was troublesome for the chief priest. It seems that Hill Sur was delighted that once you have written the procedure, it is an excellent item that can be used for many years.

"As far as you hear the story, Hirschle seems to have not changed at all"

"... .. If you say that the chief priest is still feeling bad by magical compression, you surely say the same thing, Mr. Hirschle also said that it was pretty impossible during the time of the aristocracy?"

"I have not imagined it in particular, so what is the fourth stage of magical compression?"

It seems that the old Veronica faction occupied the head and remembered that I had not heard the story about the magical compression which is still the most important, and the chief priest sees me.

When explaining what I did in the practical use of magical compression, the priest wieldingly said, "I can not understand only your thoughts at all". Again, it seems that ordinary people are not thinking about compressing further if they are already compressed.

In the beginning, when the chief priest learned to compress the magical power, he compressed it thinking of Hill Sur's "boil down magical powers", but he seems to have changed the way of compression, noticing that more people stuffing up as folding up.

"Well, I guess it is not a problem to combine, instead of changing the way to do it. You seem to have recompressed after releasing magical powers once, but if you reduce the bulk so as to boil down the stuffed magical power, it will not matter. Why bother me first We are going to increase the first phase to the end.

"... for me it was easiest to imagine"

The third stage in me is a futon compression bag. I just could not imagine boiling down it. If it is not boil down, but water is extracted and it becomes rusty, it may be possible to imagine it.

As I tried to lightly close my eyes and challenge whether magical power can be compressed, I heard a terrible voice from Fran.

"Mr. Rosemain, the chief priest, the hand of meal is stopped. How do you think after a meal with a difficult face?"

It seems that not only me but the chief priest and the escort knight standing behind were also trying to compress magical powers. I crossed my line of sight and lightly shrugged, and I continued to eat.

"Combining the compression methods is a your idea, is this fourth stage to teach everyone?"

"..... I am teaching to my aides, I think it may be good to tell the leaders, but otherwise ... .... I wish to keep it as a trump card"

After restarting the meal, I also asked about the spells of Black Forest and Weiss. When reporting that there was a thing that reflected the attack from the enemy in the defense of the two, the priest chief nodded several times.

"There are objects of similar performance in the defense magic tool that you gave you, but I saw the magic team that returns to multiple for the first time, but since the amount of required magical power is large, it is worthy of research, but your It is not for everyday use "

The president seems to study Schwarz 's defense and strengthen my defense. Apparently, it seems to me to experiment.

"If you do not have extra magical powers, you can not force magical powers on magical tools while receiving a lecture? ... By the way how much did your physical strength and strength recover?"

..... I did not recover so much as reading the books at the library had the highest priority.

In a question full of anger elements, I smile with Nicolle and divert the story as the teacher of Eckhardt's brother.

"Mr. Soranju also said that it would be hard for him to bring magical powers to Schwarzs. I have nothing compared to other people, so I do not know my magical power, but is it quite a lot? "

"..... Compression is done without pain and it is steadily stepping forward and it will not be compared with the same age"

The chief priest said that if the body grows from now on, it will increase more.

"It also seems that Mr. Hirschle did not come close because Schwarz's defense needed magical powers and Mr. Sorangju protected Schwarzs by sending magical powers. When I was measuring, I wrote the magic team with great joy Welcome, but what did you learn from the magic team? Does the priest leader have new discoveries?"

"Oh, it is really interesting"

It seems that diverting the topic has succeeded. The priest leader tells us about the beauty of the magic team who was embroidered on the stomach slightly earlier than usual. It is a fairly complicated magic team and it seems that several attributes are superimposed with exquisite balance.

"You said that Mr. Hill Sur was full of holes? Can the priest leader fill in the hole?"

"I have not done it completely yet, but I'd like to try it. If you are in Ehrenfest, for example, such opportunities to see the research results of individual royalty, I do not have any idea."

There would have been a chance to touch if you could go to the center, but the chief priest murmured. Even if I wanted to go to the center, I understood somehow that the title of a lord candidate student could not get in the way. It is the same as I can not move in the middle and can not find a job at the library of the lords.

..... If so, on this occasion I think that the army should be shaken as the priest chief likes.

"The chief priest, I, the mainstay of Schwarz and Weiss, we have to make new costumes, according to Dr. Hirschle, it seems to be a problem to be addressed by Ehrenfest as a whole not to be embarrassed at the lords. I asked that a lot of valuable materials are needed to add a new magic team of the magic team. Would it be possible to cooperate with the chief priest in order to make costumes that are not embarrassing even if they are placed in the center?"

"..... Hmm ... challenge against the predecessor and posterity, funny"

First of all, from the improvement of the magic team, I start to misunderstand where and how to improve, the priest chief will drip my thought. If you leave it to the chief priest, you may be able to make a wonderful outfit.

Major General, Maji All-purpose! As I praised in my heart, Fran was sighing with a tremendously troubled face.

"Both of us both have their hands stopped, so that we can not eat until the orphanage"

..... Ooo, sorry.

Tentatively, capture the priest who went to the workshop immediately after eating with the elder brother Eckhart.

"If the chief priest, come out by yourself when you are called, register my magical powers and allow them to enter and leave the workshop, choose either, they are begged to call the priest's chief every day like this I'm in trouble. "

"..... Ha, if you go in and out freely, you are better than you. Even so, you are resilient to Rhycida."

"It was pulled out of the library every day at the House of Peers,"

As Richarda did well like putting his hand on his back, when taking a sermon, the chief priest waved his head slowly with a deep sigh.

"Rosemain, not too much trouble for Richarda"

"I will replace that word with my side and I will return it to the president of the president. Please do not take care of the side work too much"

Immediately after that, Damuel stopped smiling a lot by restraining his mouth, and he was stared at by the chief priest.

Lessons of the day, pheasant will not be shaken.

Chapter 321: Votive ceremony and returning to the castle

---

"The chief priest, 3 bells rang, it's time for work."

".....all right"

"I call it once a day, so please do not stare at such a scary eyes"

I was stared at glaringly at a glance at the chief priest who came out from the workshop. I also like it and I am not calling out. When pulling it in the workshop, I will inform the bell only because it will make it impossible to hear the sound of the bell at all.

Brother Eckhardt seems to have been shut out even if I say something because of too many calls, it does not seem to arrive.

"If you do not like being called by me, is it okay if you should make it possible for you to hear the voice of Brother Eckhardt?"

"... .. You come only once a day, but Eckhart calls me all day long, reminiscent of Bonifatius, my friend,"

"Huh? Did you do something?"

When I tilt his head, the chief priest waved his head with a terribly bitter face saying, "I do not want to remember," it was over. Apparently, my grandfather seems to have been doing something that disgusted the chief priest.

After starting the priest 's official from the workshop, it is the start of work. I sat in the usual designated seat and took out the stone board.

"Is Rosemain something like this always in the temple?"

I compare the data that I accumulate with me, with the face that the angelica who saw the work scenery in the temple for the first time saw it can not be believed.

"It is the chief of the shrine who is dealing with the documents of the temple. It is truly the chief of the temple I trust you what I have to do. Is what I can do to help with the calculation, yet Please do not accept the approval of the document. "

"... No, I think it's wonderful to calculate this much."

Angelica, who was not good at schooling and became a knight, sighed exclamation. Meanwhile, the priest chief will allocate work one after another. Work is given to those who are in this room equally.

"Eckhart is this, Damuel over there, Angelica with Darmel ... ...."

"I will preserve this door as an escort knight"

Hit! And breathtaking Angelica sticks to the door. The director general caught a brief sigh, looking at the state that "I finally finished the lecture at the House of Lords ... ...."

"Talking about it, Bonifatius says that a problematic child with a falling crash"

It is a waste of time to try to work incompetently, the priest chief officer cuts off angelica and begins the paper work.

Daniel looked lightly at the angelica's "incompetence" being truncated as being "incompetent" and looked at Angelica worriedly, but the person apparently had a relieved face. It is useless to worry.

While staying in this room, Angelica who did not work as a single person tightened his facial expression and became a gangster in front of the door. Escort The task seems to be perfect.

And while everyone is silently doing papers work, the 4 bells rings and it will be lunch time.

"Please do not forget to go to the workshop after eating lunch properly"

Tidying up the table and preparing to get back to her room while saying so, the chief priest watched me and narrowed his eyes.

"No, I will check your physical condition in the afternoon."

".....Huh?"

"When I see dinner at dinner yesterday, and as I see the movement during the office of the day today, I feel that recovery is very slow due to reliance on magical tools. I did not see the condition at all since I returned from the lords ... ... And are not you in a very bad situation considering your complexion now? "

"Well, there is not such a thing?"

Although I want to misunderstand it somehow, there is no way to make a devastating chief priest who once detached from the research. The eyes of the priest who raise the edge of the lip slightly narrows slowly.

.....Unpalatable. Get angry Things that did not do anything at all end up baling.

I tried asking for help around me, but my eyes were diverted to Damuel and Angelica, and Fran was asked with a smile that feels a bit cooler as "What is a bad situation?" . Brother Eckhardt who is the full ally of the priest chief is not likely to be on my side.

"Fran, to go in the afternoon"

"Certainly, I am waiting for you"

... .. Fran, do not decide on your own! I have not replied yet! Is it?

Nobody has heard even if you refuted in the mind that it is Hey. The head of the priest chairman is pleased that "The research of the priest president has gone astray."

"Then, go to Rosemain. Come back to the room and finish lunch."

While I was looking for my allies, I decided the afternoon schedule without me and was to be consulted by the chief priest.

"The chief priest should do research at the workshop, you see, you have to hurry up for the new costume of Schwarz and Vice ..."

"You should have said that you can make it by the next winter."

..... Ah, oh. It was. My stupid background yesterday!

"Well, yeah, Professor Hill Sur will be waiting for you to fix the magician and please give priority to that."

"I fixed it"

.....Huh? Huh? Already?

"Well, how about arranging music? This is until you return to the House of Peers, so please hurry and I will sing a song for a goddess of light ..."

"Tomorrow afternoon, I will do it with your fespiel training, because I may be thinking of escaping practice now without a musical practitioner"

..... It is boring! Is it?

"There is no such thing ... Ho ho ... .. Ho ... .."

"Rosemain, I have a bad farewell, I decided today's schedule, please come back to the room soon and have lunch so that I will remove the magic tool by the time I head"

".....Yes"

I left the room of the priest's officer and I returned to my room with Tobotobo. After all it was impossible to devastate. If the chief priest is coming in the afternoon, I am sure that even if I do strength training from now on, I will definitely be in time.

"Fran, why did you decide on schedule without permission?"

When I returned to the room and I glared at the flan with a feeling of eight hits, Fran Franca returned a gentle smile.

"There is no schedule for today's afternoon after the meeting with Plantin Shokai is finished and it is better for you to consult as soon as possible. I am also concerned about the condition of Rosemain's body, I will be relieved if you can see the priest.

Because I do not know the state before going to the House of Peers, I will agree with the French words that I want to grasp the current situation, all of my sideways "I will be okay if I leave it to the chief priest" showed that.

My servants are delirious with the chief priest who has made my life and detoxification and managed me for two years. Perhaps, I trust the priest chief rather than me.

It is a complete defeat. I have no choice but to hurt.

"The chief priest takes the trouble of taking time for your own research, Rosemain is worried about that,"

You say things are tough, but Frank says so with respect to respect, as it is a gentleman.

.....No. I'm bad! When I thought, I knew it. Franc has been braintrained by the chief priest!

Even if I was appealed by Ehardt brothers and side-holders, I ought to have the chief priest president in the workshop until my strength and muscle strength recovered. I, a great failure.

..... Ameizo, Cambook!

And after lunch. I asked Otilier to set up an opportunity meeting with Giebe Haldzell in Oldonanz which I borrowed.

Later Monica and Nicolas, the magician was removed. As soon as the body became heavy, I sat down in the chair he had prepared.

"Rosemain-sama! Are you OK?"

"It's all right, there is nothing wrong."

"I do not see anything like that"

While holding a magician in his hand, I wanted to shake hands gently with Nikola and Monica looking into me with a crying face, but I could not do it at once. I concentrate and make magical power all over the body, I will strengthen my body.

"Hey, is not it?"

"... .. It suddenly became a cuckoo, I was surprised, is it really okay?"

"Well, see,"

I stand up and make it move normally. As Nikola and Monica relaxed their facial expressions, they wore clothes as usual, waiting for the chief priest.

"Rosemain, solve the magic of body strengthening"

At the moment I came in, I told my sovereign guard who sighed and disappeared gently. Suddenly it was bald.

"Or is it something you want to take an attack that is unavoidable to unlock your physical strength?"

At the moment I saw that Stap was appearing on the right hand of the priest, quietly said so with a cold expressionless, I quickly lifted body strengthening. At the same time, Angelica holding the magic sword Stinruke breaks in between me and the chief priest.

"The chief priest, suddenly appealing to violence is terrible!"

I accused the chief priest from the back of Angelica, but the chief priest only smiled with Hun and his nose.

"Do not say bad things about people, meaning that you do not put the word out now."
"I have never heard of such nobles' phrases!"

Due to releasing magic of body strengthening, standing standing hard, sitting on the spot saying so, angelica also agrees and nods as cocky.

"Study is insufficient"

As Angelica, who was my shield, made a big eyes on the word of the priest who waved his head as I say good-bye, "I definitely do not study it, I know that's such a meaning I pulled out all the time. "

Wait a minute. Do not leave as much as you can, and look at me who tried to sneak up to Angelica, the priest chief gently shakes his head.

"Eckhartt, you should do some training with Angelica in the square in front of the noble family, and if Angelica is packed in the room all the time will it become dull?"

"Is it OK?"

"The guard here is good if Damuel is present, do not come back till calling with Ordnants"

"Yes!"

Angelica will be glad and go out with Mr. Eckhart. It is necessary to have a female knight in a place to visit, but now, go out and do what.

..... Stupid of angelica! It is too easy to manipulate!

"The chief priest, ... .."

"There seems to be loyalty to the extent that he turns his sword without hesitation, but I do not think about surprisingly, Rosemain, is it really alright with an escort knight?"

"... .. I got the most uneasy so far"

In the direction of the chief priest, I will be lifted up by the france, sit in a chair, and let's move the leg and move the arm as instructed by the chief priest.

"You did not train at the aristocrat at all?"

"... .. Because there were so many things, I was busy every day."

"Were you reporting that you attended the library every day in the second half?"

"The round-trip to the library was my exercise time"

"As long as it is better for you not to show a gap carelessly, there is no crisis of attack here at all, so here it is good to restore firmly while you are in the temple."

I could hardly see my physical strength and my muscular strength recovering, and in addition to Fespiel 's exercise, I was forced to rehabilitate by practicing dedication dance with witchcraft and removing magical tools.

"Since you will use a lot of magical powers when dedicated, it is more efficient to remove magic tools to assist you with body strengthening, so for a little to be able to move on your own "

"If you use body strengthening, it's okay, you got a bit better."

"It's not always okay, you are not used to it"

It was a tough rehabilitation everyday after such examination was over.

My servants, including Fran, are told by the chief priest, "If you leave it here, Rosemain can not survive without a magician for the rest of my life" and is seriously reluctant to rehabilitate myself. I am glad about the worries and love of the students, but I want to say big with big voice.

..... The priest owner just wants his research time, everyone, realize!

According to the menu I made by the priest chief, I took time to remove my magical tool and raise my feet and move my arms and made me various. I have left the magician so far and have not moved to the cheeks, so I am drunk every day.

Besides, not the rosiner, but the chief priest became a teacher of Fespiel, so that the required level has been able to practice with Gun.

"Wow, I'd like to return to the lords as soon as possible, the librarians have libraries, so there were not so many issues and the best environment."

"As you behave as thoughtlessly, the surroundings struggle. You return to the House of Peers is a period of opposition against the territory, unless you learn something of nobility somewhat in winter social circles, it is dangerous I can not return to the lords."

"Such awful, terrible ... .. My library is"

To me who is depressed, the chief priest laughed. "There is also a bit terrible plan".

..... What, that's scary!

I am busy dedicated morning. Purify yourself, wear yourself in the ceremonial costumes of the temple, insert the red and white flower hair ornaments of the winter noble colors, prepare for the preparation.

Today I have already removed magic tools, so I've put myself to strengthen my whole body so I can move.

The image of magic of body strengthening is ARE. A leather that closely covers the whole body like a person riding a motorcycle is wearing ..... What did you say, here it is whole body tights. I am wearing magical whole-body tights right now.

As the chief priest was supposed to be a magical instrument for assisting in strengthening the body, I had been witchcraft for a long time, the body strengthening has improved a little by the extent of sacrificing physical strength and muscle recovery.

What do you do with the dedication ceremony?

It is Damuel that answers such angelica questions. Magical power into the Grail of the Holy Grail, explaining that she will give it to Ehrenfest's Giebe at the spring prayer ceremony. Damuel who raised the results of Angelica and was doing his best at the party is good at explaining the chewed Angelica.

"Damuel is amazing, because it's a knight, I can help you with the task of the priest's president, I never thought that even Rosemain's escort knight would need the computing power."

When Angelica helps the calculation work, it seems that it will be best to help not to help, because in most cases it will be troublesome twice. It is said that my parents told me so.

"Angelica has no hesitation as to protecting Rosemain, I am impressed with it because I could not think of turning the sword to Mr. Ferdinand"

Damuel who instantaneously understood that the priest leader was a kind of usual threat when he issued Stap was also said to be escort disqualified. Because weapons are mainly oriented, it is the role of the escort to protect it.

"Angelica was lured by the training, if it did not leave me, it was a full escort, but ...."
"I will not be misled from next time"

Angelica answered with a crisp face, but it seems that it can easily be caught again after seeing the state of training with Ekhardt brother and the fun way to talk about it.

"The chief of the temple, the chief priest call us"

Called to the gray priest, I went to the ceremony carefully so as not to step on the hem of the costume. Only the priests put in during the ceremony. The escort knight will wait in front of the door. Thanks to Ekhart's older brother, I already saw that the chief priest was there.

When entering between the ceremonies, Campfell, Fritach and other blue priests were already waiting in the hands of manastones dealt to the priest.

"I saw your healthy appearance and I am relieved."

Instead of me, Campbell and Fritach, who had been entrusted with assistance from the chief priest, told me in a voice like a relief. I did not expect the blue priests to be pleased with this awakening, so I am a little surprised and thank you with a smile.

"While I was out, Campbell and Fritac asked them from the side that they worked quite well and it was saved."

I labor the blue priests, I walk towards the altar, kneeling at the foremost, hit both hands against a red cloth laid on the floor.

"... ... Are you ready? Let's get started."

I was inspired by the priest 's voice and breathed lightly.

"I am a person who creates the world and prays and gives thanks to the gods"

When I say the word of prayer, the latter five people repeat and the low voice echoes clearly during the ceremony.

"Supreme God governs the expanse of the sky, the supreme god is governor of the dark and light couple god widely Hirohiro earth, the goddess of the five pillars Ogin water The god of fire Fighting the fire Leiden Shaft style goddess of the earth Shaireia the goddess of the earth Gedululi God of life Give benefit to all the lives that Ariyriea is born, respectful to the gods, reward the benefits of that precious god power. "

While speaking about the complaints of prayer, it seemed as usual that magical powers flowed from within us as usual. It is also a familiar scene that the red cloth that smelled magical power shines glitteringly, and the magical power becomes a wave of light and flows towards the altar.

The waves of light come from one after the other one after another, so that my magical powers are drawn out as if to ride that momentum.

..... — — 0 Take off!

To the sense that magical power is drawn out rapidly, even to the magical power necessary for body strengthening magic worn thinly around him, it is likely to flow together. I kept my eyes open with a sense that the whole body tights were pulled. No matter how much I can endure, the power of magical power flowing steadily from behind is strong, and I can not resist it. Even though I try to use magical powers to strengthen my body even a little, the magical powers that release it will just flow on the red cloth with vigor.

..... Oh, oh, Ahh! Is it? I took off!

The magical power that covered him was peeled off, and it flowed. It's surprising unexpected.

..... Once the ceremony is over, I have to redress magic of body strengthening once more.

While wearing her cheeks on the floor, I was shedding magical powers as I pulled out.

"It will be better, it seems that magical power has flowed quite efficiently"

In the words of the chief priest, I saw that the blue priests breathed out and stood up as I was relieved.

I will force magical power to put on magic of physical strengthening once more. As the magical power shifts from the hand that remains on the red cloth, it flows.

"The ceremony is over"

My body and my body fell down on the spot to the call by the chief priest.

Since he was in a dormant state of kneeling and putting his hands on the floor, he did not have much damage just by rolling sideways. However, the circumference became turbulence as I fell down.

"The temple length!"

"Do not be noisy, not a big deal, I know the cause"

In the quiet and powerful cheek of the priest's chief, he came to Shin during the ceremony.

"Because we will take care of the temple, please leave them,"

"Certainly yes"

The chief priest who kicked out the blue priests and let my servants go to call, overlooking me rolling over, "So it was said that it was difficult for those not familiar with it, they said idiots."

"Do not calmly preach on this condition"

"In order to keep important things and advice in your memory that you will soon forget, it is necessary to have a shocking situation or a strong impression as appropriate. Depending on the situation you can use body strengthening It will be gone, let's assume that extent. "

"Wow ... .. as I told the chief priest, I train properly and properly and give me physical strength and muscular strength, so please help me."

"Did you reflect on?"

"Did"

After having been rescued by the chief priest, I will hand it over to the franc who has changed his blood.

"I was not assuming that the magic of physical strengthening could not be used. It is no different condition in my physical condition. If you put a magician back in the room and you have no problem, do not worry."

"Certainly ... .. Rosemain-sama's okay can not be relied upon at all"

I was told in a tense tone with a frank promise, and I was caught in and out.

It seems that the magical power to fill the Small Holy Grail came up quickly, unexpectedly, because I made magical power steadily increasing for physical strengthening. The schedule of about five days ended in three days.

Although I fell down at the dedication ceremony, I could not do magic of physical strengthening in the state with my hand on the red cloth, so I never felt physical condition unlike usual nor did I get a fever.

I was told the chief priest, "Is not it a little strong," I noticed my change. You aim for a healthy body as it is.

"No, there is nothing wrong with you being stuck up. You can see the future that will overwhelm you by training too much to put on your strength."

The chief priest speaks quite a bit about what it means, as though it is not overriding. I have a memorable day, I was quietly listening to preaching.

"If training can be continued here, it would have been good for the body, but if you do not know something more about socializing, I can not return it to the aristocracy, no choice but to return to the castle."

"Yes"

The chief priest was to prepare to the research set in addition to the work set and moved from the temple to the castle. If you do not make it a slightly larger Lesser bus, there will be no baggage on it.

"More than half is your request, no complaints"

It is said that who is in trouble keeping this in the temple, materials of Schwarz and Weiss, the magic of Hirschle, musical notation and fespiel, I enlarge the Lesser bus.

As the body gets bigger, it will be fucked by a snowstorm and will soak, so it is better to be as compact as possible, but it can not be helped.

"If you are going to fly in an odd direction with a snowstorm, please help me."

"Follow yourself as you manage to manage it even if you run magical power, so that you do not take any further action"

"Ugo will do his best."

..... I want to tell mother this real situation! There is no gentleness or sweetness like the priest chief like a knight story!

While thinking so, I will return to the castle in the heavy snowstorm. When I jumped into the door where Norbert opened it and the lesser bus, the door was quickly closed.

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

As I said that, Norbert took my hand down from the lesser bus and let me down. It seems that instructions have already been given, and people with junior colleagues appear with straw, and carry baggage out of the lesser bus.

"Welcome back. Let's wait, Mr. Rosemain. Let's slowly talk about the printing industry in the room."

It was my mother who met me at the castle.

Chapter 322: Mother and Halden Zell printing industry

---

"Well, let's hurry and change clothes, because Elvira is waiting."

I was wearing various things so as not to be cold, so I changed my clothes so that it would be easy to move in the castle. Then, with a box containing souvenirs for mother's head towards the room where the Otellier was preparing.

Today I talk about a book I should not put out with my mother, so only Otieri served as a sidebar, the escort was only Angelica.

Richarda is a room, I have to clean up the baggage I brought back from the temple. It is because the chief priest said that I should manage the baggage she had from Hirsch.

"Richarda, this is processed, it seems that this is an unprocessed luggage"

"I am OK, Princess. I understand it because it has a tag."

Otellier seems to be a friend who is on good terms with his mother, and he is a friend he met personally. When I came up to the castle, it seems that my mother ordered Otilie to serve.

"Sorry to keep you waiting"

When I arrived, Otirier taught me, "Because I got permission that my family will have time to spare, I do not mind even if my attitude is broken."

Show the tea and confectionery prepared by mouth a piece by piece, and you will enter the main theme where you have tasted tea. When the eyes met, the mother smiled and smiled shone eyes black.

"Rosemain, have you read my book?"

"No, I can not read everything yet - there is only one story of the Knight's story, because there was not a whole day in the castle and it was in your letter that it should be opened only in the room"

I keep appealing to my mother that I keep my promise properly. My mother nodded satisfied.

"It's fine as long as it keeps properly written on the letter, it's a book that should not be put out."

"At first I saw what kind of content, Parapara, but ... I found a good painter, the illustration was amazing."

..... The priest chief is three extra and sparkling.

As I stated so while hiding my voice, my mother glanced her face gladly.

"Huh, is that right? I ordered it, because beautiful pictures match the story of love"

It seems that I became interested in making a knight story collecting only the stories of romance series by having Vilma paint illustrations that I modeled on the priest chief in the knight story.

"But since books made by mothers have to be hidden from Ferdinand, they can not be sold widely? I think that profit will be low, but did Gibe Haldzell grant permission? ? "

"The book I gave to Rosemain is a book for giving special handouts to my friends, showing it to my older brother, selling it as a book by Haldenszel, I'm writing another illustrator for illustrations There is no problem at all from it. "

..... Contents are the same, is not the illustration? Girls, maybe you were urgently asked for a tremendously cumbersome job?

The first printing should have assumed in Rosemain's Studio to adjust opinions with mothers. While not leaving any traces, I received a report saying that all failed work was taken away, but I have not heard that there were two kinds of illustrations and it was a hard work.

"We have not received reports that there were two kinds of illustrations in the report from the workshop."

"I never thought that I should not let it leave it to others. I thought of how far I could protect it, but the Rosemain Studio is excellent."

I have confirmed that Plantin 's firm can secure the secrets of customers firmly, but mothers say that they were relieved though they did not report to the president of the workshop in the temple, but how much secret can be kept.

"If Known to Ferdinand, the printing industry of Hald Zell may be torn down and, in that case, I will be scolded badly by my older brother."

A book whose illustration is not the priest chief is selling so well that it feels good and Gibe Hald Zell is going to push the printing industry as it is.

"I, next time, I'd like to write a story about Ferdinand-sama's lord-of-age family, but when I think that I can notice that when I change the illustration, I noticed that I could see through my eyes, .....

"I think that it will be noticed as expected, too dangerous."

Legend of the priestess priest in the nobleman era has many amazing episodes. However, when it is put together in a book, it will definitely fall to the chief priest.

"As for Ferdinand, there are things that have been talked about at the House of Peers, sometimes going to the topic at the tea party, and on the contrary, there may be people who dislikes making topics, I gathered information, but ... would you like to see it? "

I asked Otieres to bring out the box I brought as "a souvenir for my mother." Among them, there is something Rodderich 's hard work summarizes the legend of the priest who everyone has collected.

My mother took out the contents of the box pleasingly saying "Well, it is a wonderful souvenir," and we will go through the eyes one after another.

..... I also want to read mother's book. You do not have to be the illustrator of the chief priest.

The mother seems to like the information of the priest chief really, "Oh, is collection of materials collected like this?" "Is not not the most important love stories in there? We examine carefully and quickly divide the hand information into the story that I knew and the story I did not know.

"Because Ferdinand's story I know is only information from Eckhart, it is fun to know the story that is being told in other territory in this way,"

It is told that the time has passed since the priest chief enrolled, since it is told by the human race, it seems to be exaggerated reasonably and seems to be just right to make a story of the story.

"It is a first-grader named Rhodderich that summarized this."

"Rodderichi ..... It is a former Veronica school, a child of an intermediate aristocrat who fells Wilfriit like a hunting competition."

"You know well, my mother"

"What are you going to do without remembering dangerous existence?"

"..... It was not bad on Rohdrich, just being told by the parents."

"Well, I guess so, but the most scary thing is the opponent who carries such disadvantage without badness. If you are an opponent who understands clear enemies, malicious intentions, It's easy. "

My mother talks with a face like a troubling, unspeakable child.

"If you realize that this power grows and you are profitable, nature and intermediate aristocrats and lower aristocrats will gather together. In order to protect ourselves, trying to attract those who are even more prejudiced by them I do not mean to condemn its way of life, but I can not trust it for that. "

Even though it is thought from tremendous change due to the difference in status, it is a safe way of life to be rolled up on long objects. It seems that the way of thinking is different from the lord and senior nobility who must become the flag head.

"Rosemain, you have much to judge things by giving priority to your emotions rather than interests, I wonder if you are going to betray you by changing the power chart with your lower-ranking aristocrats close at hand. I will not be worried about it. "

"It is betrayal ..... Damuel and Philiane well serve."

Both of them are not that type. Especially Damuel is an escort knight who protected me for life. If it is a betrayal type, I will not be in this world a long time ago.

I shook my head as I was bored, my mother nods "I know".

"The loyalty of Damuel and Philiane is real, so I have enough materials to judge so."

"Huh?"

It is said that Philene's loyalty that you have appointed to the aides as a gentleman is enough to say that it is a genuine article, and when my eyes are rounded, my mother smiles with a smile.

"Do not look sweet about my information network"

"Rosemain, Elvira was an excellent civilian,"

Otirier said so and laughing, we interfere with our mother.

By seeing how I am struggling with civilian apprentices at the aristocratic center and arranging the information that gathered, by now the tea ceremony gathers information from various places in the place of information gathering I knew the excellence of my mother who can come.

"Rosemain, loyalty of Dharmell and Philine will not be shaken unless you handle it so roughly, but do not assume that it will lead to other intermediate aristocrats or lower aristocrats."

".....understood"

I wanted Rodderich 's luck with the legend of the priest' s chief priest with the best maternal bite, but I wanted to make him a close aide, but I easily got stabbed by the nail that I should trust him and put it in my aides.

"Besides, it is reasonable to raise the remuneration little by little from the 60% of the same faction, Rosemain"

"Huh?"

"While showing fairness to properly pay rewards to those opposing factions, people of my faction will be given preferential treatment, and if you do not think that it is better for you to be on the side, you can not incorporate it into your faction. If the enemies are treated the same, there is no meaning belonging to the faction, and it will not normally feel good as long as they are treated in line with those of the opposition faction. While you are not aware of the factions about factions, If you do not remember it, you will be dissatisfied with your friends. "

".....Yes"

I wonder where I am doing what I say in the House of Lords. There was no such sermon from the adoptive father and the chief priest.

"Since you moved to the temple, Richarda's report came up, as there is almost no Hill Sur of the dormitorial supervisor absent and it is not clear whether there will be another administrator in the dormitory or not "

"A manager, are you?"

Since it is Ehrenfest which had not received much attention from other territory so far, even though it thought to transmit a fashion, it seems that it was predicted that the first year will not spread so much as it will not be invited to the tea ceremony .

However, due to me, an unexpected relationship was born with the royal family and top ranked candidate students, teachers and the most influential place in the House of Lords. Information is necessary to think about where Ehrenfest connects at the Lord 's Conference, but the dormitories who have started studies of Schwarz and Vice are utterly unreliable.

"For that reason, I got an opinion saying that a person who can report the state of the House of Lords and the work of yourselves in detail can be needed from Ferdinand."

..... This is what the chief priest was saying "a bit terrible plan"! Is it? In other words, it is meant to be a manager for me! Is it? It's not a bit, not very! Is it?

In front of me holding a head, the mother dropped a gaze to the legend of the priest who summarized Rodrig and breathed a sigh.

"Even so, Ferdinand-sama's information has remained so much in the House of Lords, I was surprised."

"Well, I was also surprised, according to the people who gathered information, it seems that it was in a state that other regions knew better than Ehrenfest"

There is little to be told about the priest who has entered the temple, and the legend of the priest who appeared now at the aristocratic hesitation first appeared out of hand. In the Ehrenfest dormitory, it is said that more than half will be an exaggeration or a story of another person.

I can not distinguish genuineness, so I guess what it is, is not it?

"Why is there such a difference in information volume?"

"Because Feldinand's grade was too good, I bought Vernerica's anger, and nobody told me at Ehrenfest."

My mother sadly turned down and said so.

Although he is a child of a mistress, the head of the priesthood is a candidate for a lord who was baptized as a child of the lord. By the time the procurator arrived at the House of Lords and advanced to the upper grade where he gains immovable status as an outstanding achievement, the two daughters of Verona are already married to another territory.

There are only two lords who remain in Ehrenfest. If there is something in Gilvestor, the priest chief will automatically arrive at the position of the next lord. Even without it, if you look at the situation where Jilvester is not motivated by Jilvester and not as motivated, as long as he is leaving more than half of his work as an assistant, the sense of crisis will have increased rather unexpectedly.

"From the time of the baptismal ceremony, it was a tough one to hit the Ferdinand, but since the last grade of the aristocratic senior, the lord of the prestigious lord fell ill, the hit becomes steadily worse as it shows excellence I was surprised that there were no hands around me so it was suggested that Mr. Zilvester escaped to the temple."

By the way, since I entered the temple a while ago when my father died, I heard that I could not participate as a relative in the funeral. Considering the chief priest who did not care for my parents' death, Veronica's treatment can be thought so bad.

"If I stayed in the castle a little more, I might have caught my parents' death, so when I think of that, Ferdinand will not feel sorry."

"..... I think probably, I guessed, since it was officially released after Ferdinand's entrance to the temple, in fact it should have been headed far higher a while ago."

It seems that the funeral of the lord will be held after the lord conference. It is said that it was a funeral after a report was made at the lord conference, the next lord was approved and returned to the territory. Neighboring lords and aristocrats will come, so it seems to be done with a margin. Until then, it seems to save the corpse using magic that stops time.

Therefore, there seems to be a difference between the date of actual death and the date of death made public. Even though it was supposed not to be dying publicly, the mother said that he actually did.

..... If it is, that's fine, though.

"Now that Ferdinand is active without hesitation, that alone is enough for me."

"... How do mothers get into Ferdinand so far, is not it hard to express themselves before, right now?"

If it had been spared as much as that, it would have surely been stared at Veronica simply by the priest's chief. I was in trouble, Otirier sadly dismissed my eyes instead of his mother who touched his head with his hand on his cheek.

"Because Elvira was spared out by Veronica"

"Huh?"

"Even if it is a secret, it is nothing special, but my mother was the one who hits a foreign sister for Veronica"

"Heter-elder sister, are you?"

The materials prepared for memorizing the name of the aristocracy were a list and the family tree that I saw was mainly the father's family line, so I did not know at all what the mother's family line was.

"When I say Veronica's sister's brothers, I've heard that he was quite disheartened, but ..."

The temple of the former temple should have had enough fighting to refuse to pick up luggage after his death with his brothers. I did not think that it was my mother 's relatives.

"It is probably the first cause of the uproar now that the Princess of Ahrensbach got married to those who honor my grandfather, the youngest brother of my lord.

It seems that the princess who was low in magical power as a candidate for the lord of Ahrensbach fell in love with being gentle to the younger brother of the previous generation who came to watch the territory opposition game. He seemed to have been crawling in the power of his father, that if he had low influence like Ehrenfest, he would be willing to be a Princess of Arends Bach with low magical power. In a way that pushes back the mother's woman who was already the first wife and had two children to the second wife.

The lord of those days concerned about the occurrence of the riot that the daughter of the Count of Reisegang boasting the greatest power in the territory is dropped to the second wife, it seems that the lord of the time removed the younger brother of the generation from the candidate of the next term lord. And it seems that Bonifatius 's old father was inaugurated earlier and suppressed dissatisfaction with the Earls by letting his daughter be worn from Countess Reisegang to Bonifatius' s grandfather. The Princess of Arends Bach who got married in such a state made a child of three, but he said he wanted to return to Ahrensbach all the time as "It is hard to live in such a country."

..... I drew a family tree, but my head got cranky because it was too complicated. I have a lot of relationships.

And after he made the third child, his fertility after birth was bad, he passed away leaving a young child, and the mother's woman who was pushed by the second wife returned to the first lady .

The one remaining child was a man, and the most magical power among all the children was high, so it was decided to be raised as a trace. The second child was Veronica, and from the richness of the magical power which is outstanding in Ehrenfest, it was decided to be educated so that it can become the first wife of the next lord.

In the bad physical condition, the third child whose Princess was unreasonable made magical power too low. It is said that it was decided that it was decided to send it to the temple without having to ask the maternal relatives Ahrensbach to shoulder back and pick up.

And a few years later, as the first boy died, Veronica took frequent contact with his brother who had been sent to the temple, dating, becoming dependant and growing up.

"By entering it, Veronica who became the lady became harassed to the other-mother brothers, since their children, nephews and nieces, were easier to target than older older siblings My brother and me were struck severely in various ways. "

It was not so obvious usually because it is a child of Giebe · Hartenszell, but it seems that there was a lot of harassment that could not be said anything when invited to tea ceremonies with only women.

"My grandfather was saddened by that condition and I tried to defend it from isolation by marrying me with Karstedd,"

That is why his mother made factions gathering only from those who are outspoken to Veronica, married from Fleebel Tur, defended Florentia, which is pricked by Veronica, and struggled to defend Ferdinand, who is persecuted as a child of a mistress That's it.

"Since the predecessor has gone up to high, the correspondence to Hald Zell, which the elder brothers will govern, became severe.Harden Zell is still in the northernmost of Ehrenfest? Winter is much harder than this neighborhood As the tax rises it will be involved in the life and death of the people. "

Because the whole territory is in a state of ruggedness, I can not afford to exempt only Halden Zell by all means. While the tax on the whole was raised, the damage of Hald Zell was greater than others.

"Thanks to Rosemain, my brother said that I was saved."

Holy cup full of magical powers arrived, plenty of vernica who harassed was dismissed, Hald Zell was breathed out as factions led by foster mothers and mothers became the largest factions.

"Besides, my older brother was selling more than I had expected, and my older brother would like to expand the print with Halden Zell more."

"It's very nice, is not it?"

However, as a matter of course for printing, I need paper. And, although originally planned to make a plant paper studio at the same time, it seems that the studio of vegetable paper has not been made new due to my sleep.

This seems to be the same for other Giebes who wanted to reach out to the paper industry, knowing Irukner's success.

"And are they also bound by selling magic about sales?"

The contract magic of the merchant I tied is a contract only for the town of Ehrenfest, but there is a noble family who buys books is an Ehrenfest with aristocracy, and until I get up, spreading the prints to other territory It was forbidden by the lord.

Although the scope of contract magic is ambiguous, there is no choice but to sell it through the Printemps business as it is not known what conflicts. Anyway, as long as the number of books is small, I will be in trouble in this state all the time. For that, it seems that it is required to solve contract magic.

When I heard that, I grasped the fist tightly on the knees without thinking.

"Rosemain, you seem to have been protected by the edge of a very good person,"

"Huh?"

"The Planetan Shokai was stubborn that I wanted Aub Ehrenfest to contact me for detailed contract details no matter how big your older brother asked."

Even if surrounded by a senior aristocrat, Beno does not say the content of the contract that my past may be revealed.

"It was connected with Rosemain at the time I was in the temple and it seems it was necessary to preserve Rosemain at that time."

".....Yes"

Even though there was something to be taken away by the aristocracy, Beno felt frantically to make an opportunity to face the face, so that even a little relationship would remain. And it is contract magic that Lutz tied up prepared to be aware that my body might be dangerous.

"But, in order to protect you, it's already too small for your contract, is not it necessary to have a new contract that matches you now in order to spread books and prints?"

"... .. Are you a new contract?"

"Yes, even if the contract is gone, the relationship with the Plantin Shokai will not change, so why not sign a new contract tailored to your current lady?"

Where the contract has changed, nothing can be connected. You can redeem your new contract.

That's what the mother says.

..... But that is not a contract between Mine and Lutz anymore.

Instead of words I could not tell anyone, I gently breathed.

Chapter 323: Socialize in winter

---

I was going to slowly look at the state of the children's room at the castle, but the days when I could not afford it started.

Richarda and Otilier, and the guardian priest, the chief priest of the priesthood, have requested visits as much as they have to divide desperately, none of which is a request from a nobleman who wants to be involved in the printing industry and the paper industry.

I will leave the discrimination of a good aristocrat to the chief priests and I will be going to a tea party with my foster mothers and Charlotte while being pulled by my mother.

Even so, I was asked about printing, asked about magical compression, my husband and clan selling came and my eyes seemed to come around.

And, as I have learned for the first time this time, it seems that my mother and foster mother were going through a tea ceremony after the tea ceremony, and I and Charlotte also joined for studying information gathering.

Confirm the topics and rumors that were flying at the tea party and summarize what you want to know in detail.

"Rosemain, Charlotte, who was talking about?"

"I was surprised at the fact that there are many topics of my sisters, which is quite different from the last year ..."

Charlotte replied, but I can not answer quickly even if asked to my foster mother. The name of the face of the aristocrat who was still present does not agree with the name.

"Since your face and your name do not match, I can not explain in detail, but the method of magical compression is quite talked about, there seems to be quite a few people wanted, but it is being adjusted Huh? "

"Well, afterwards there are a number of people who are in good condition with Rosemain's approval, how was the work done at Wilfried and the Aikari in the aides?"

I guess the foster mother is worried about Wilfried again. Let me tell you that I was struggling hard to put together inside the dormitory.

"Regarding Virfriit's older brother, I think that it will be a big difference how the tea ceremony with Arensbach and Lord Turku lords will be like"

"I am worried ... Did you say Dietlinde? The candidate for Arensbach's lord is similar to Georgine and looks like blond hair and green eyes. That is, it is good for Veronica who was pretty with that girl It is that it is similar. "

"Is that so?"

I did not know because I never met Veronica, but it seems to be green eyes on blond hair. When I remember Wilfried's first look with Dietlinde that looks like a nostalgic expression, as the foster mother says, the anxiety becomes bigger.

"I'm sure it's okay, I talked about topics and I seem to be able to write questions to Ferdinand as well so that I can exchange it."

When I said so and comforted my foster mother, my mother sent out a bothersome sigh.

"It is about Lamprecht that I am worried about.I was not allowed to get marriage permission with a senior aristocrat of Ahrensbach? Although it was not a matter of relationship between the territories, Wilfried says it for that matter I hope it does not have to be done. "

It is said that Veronica was alive when it was time for Lamprecht's older brother to be in the House of Lords, and it was recommended that exchanges with Ahrensbach were recommended. It is not unusual for the flow of the times to change, and the fact that permission from the lords did not go down seems to be the most modest way to declare in a relationship crossing the territory. Although it seems to be essential that we should try our best to convince the other person that we do not change our mind.

"Ahrensbach is higher than Ehrenfest and I was told that her parents are not comfortable with her relationship with Lamprecht, so I was surprised that Ahrensbach fell down. The lordship conference seems to be desolating. "

"Since the elder brothers of Fröbel Tak will also ask for cooperation, we have to keep measures from now."

"There is also a discussion on trade between the territories? Rosemain has a high rank to the royal family with exchange ... .. Information is too short"

.....sorry. I did not think there was any information on Ehrenfest and I just spread it because I told you to spread the fashion.

"But it seems that my older sister was awakened, and I heard that the story about magical compression and printing work progressed, I feel that the momentum of factions became stronger at a stretch than last year,"

"As Shallotte says, unless you enter this faction you can not know about magical compression, so middle-class aristocrats and lower aristocrats get together one after another to join factions."

I can not compare because I do not know last year, but the power of the faction seems to be getting bigger.

"It is important to show the delicious taste of your side well, Rosemain"

My mother said so and smiled with smile.

In this way, I was taught at the tea party of the woman who was invited to teach me how to gather information and arrange it, and to give directions to civil servants to gather more detailed information. Charlotte is said to be doing the same way next year at the House of Lords, hearing with a serious face. I will also be inspired if I can not be defeated as my sister.

"Please get as much information as possible at Rosemain, tea ceremony at the House of Lords and report like this, I would like as much information as possible until the lord's conference"

"... .. I heard that I'm on the verge of fighting against the territory, but can I afford a tea party?"

The chief priest said that my social skills are low, so I will not return to the lords until the end. Because the competition against the territory is at the end of the school year, I think that there is no time to afford a tea party for a long time.

"Is it better not to return Rosemain to the early stage for preparing for opposition against the territory?"

"... .. Although Ferdinand showed a difficulty, is it OK?"

Mothers looked away at the same time, holding down the temple. I firmly apologize in my mind to the figure that I am suffering from the treatment of myself.

I'm sorry I have no common sense of nobility. The next will do well!

As soon as I grasped my fist as if my mother taught me that I was going to work hard, I felt that the vice president's voice was heard at the corner of my head saying "There is nothing wrong with you."

And the meeting of the nobility who got permission from the priest chief priest begins. I heard that there are many aristocrats seeking permission to open the studio of the paper industry, but the number that can actually be opened is limited. It is because there are not so many people who can dispatch as teachers.

"Rosemain, how many studio can you make between spring and autumn?"

I was called to the chief priest who seemed to have sorted out the letters of the visitation request to a certain extent, and received a question to increase the workshop.

"Regarding the printing studio, I think that this year it will be impossible, as we have to make all parts of the printing press with Ehrenfest, move Gutenbergs, install them, and provide technology, In spring I am going to Haldzell and I have not asked for Gutenberg to make a new printing machine. "

"HM"

Regarding the printing studio, decide the order of making it from now on, talking with the land beforehand, like Hald Tzel, if you do not prepare for acceptance at the smithing workshop, woodworking studio, commercial guild, etc Nor. What we can do this year is to decide the turn to go.

"As for the things necessary for advance preparations, since you do not know details unless you ask Gieb Haldentzel or Printemps shop, noble who wants to make a printing studio is behind, I would like to meet a nobleman who wants to make a paper making studio earlier."

"Is there a limited number there?"

"It is limited, the number will change according to circumstances,"

In order to make the paper making studio, one person must absolutely dispatch from the Plantin shop to make the Ehrenfest Paper Association on that land, and a teacher role to make actual process is necessary. There are not so many people from Plantin Shokai, and there are not many gray priests who can serve as teachers. Even if you have personnel from Hasse or Ilkner's studio, you will only be able to open a studio in three areas in a year.

"However, as Irkner does not carefully sit down over a year to make a special product, if you only teach how to make paper at a certain ratio, I think that we can increase the number a little more, but I think that Plantin Shokai When considering the movement of teacher roles, we can not increase that much. "

It will take a lot of time if you try to make new paper with the material on that land, but if you just teach the ratio and how to make it now, it will not be too hard. However, there are many nobles that want special products for differentiation of the remaining part.

"You can do it for each research etc."

I shrugged my shoulders against the chief priest who told me that he was enjoyable.

..... Mad scientist may not understand, but everyone does not necessarily like research, right?

"I understand your affair.Let's ask if I can get a role as a teacher from Ilkner as soon as possible to increase the number of workshops.This is top priority."

In one word of the priest chief, it was decided to meet with Giebe · Irukner.

I decided to talk to Dahuel at the time when I met with Giebe Irkner. I borrowed a magician to prevent eavesdropping, face the Damuel while there are other side guards and other escort knights around.

"If it is painful to meet Damuel and Brigitte, today may be a day off for escort work?"

"... .. I will do the work."

"Is not it okay, is not it something unrefined or not?"

When I asked, looking at the face of Brigitte's name stiffened, Damuel lightly opened his eyes.

"Rosemain, Where the hell do you say such words !? ... Women's tea ceremony is scary, is not it?

I did not know it at a tea party separately, but it is good because Damuel is convinced. When I was waiting for the words of Damuel, Damuel opened his mouth with a troubled face.

"There is regrettance rather than being premature"

"Do you regret?"

"I regret to blame Brigitte because I had not thought so much."

I heard that the words heard from the mouth of Dahuel seem to be totally different from simple reports heard from the priest.

"Because I'm in a different status, Ferdinand asked that the marriage between the two people was difficult, but I still do not quite understand what I am doing.

"I did not know well until I was scolded by my older brother, I was not well aware of the difference between the upper part and the surrounding perspective."

Damuel continued the escort knight to the last, and after marrying Brigitte, he intended to live in the aristocracy. I was caught up in the blame and lifted me, as I had raised it, I thought it was natural to keep serving unless I was dismissed from me.

But the surroundings do not always think the same way.

From Daniel's older brother Henrik, it seems that he did not go to Ircnah only to be a foolish act of letting themselves divinely fortune of luck by themselves, which is a lower aristocrat who can interwork with an intermediate aristocrat of land.

"My brother was going to take Miss Brigitte? What a reckless ... .. It was told that I thought that Damuel could prepare Damuel just to satisfy the daughter of a landowner middle class nobleman. I will be an intermediate aristocrat if I go to Irkner for my son-in-law, but if Brigitte becomes my bride, Brigitte will be a lower aristocrat "

Daniel was a lower aristocrat, so I did not think anything about Brigitte becoming a lower aristocrat, but Henrik says that he explained examples with a couple of examples.

If you are an intermediate aristocrat to a lower aristocrat, not only friends who have been evenly equal each other, even family members and relatives, all those who were tied up become nobility members. Brigitte must remember socializing as a lower aristocrat and the child born is also treated as a lower aristocrat.

"... That is a heavy burden on Brigitte,"

I chewed my lips, thinking about the situation that I could get a positional difference with my equivalent family. The family kneels before me, using the polite language, I remember the time when I was told goodbye to another person.

"Besides, Irkuner started with the elimination of Brigitte's engagement, it seems that there was little harassment from former fiancés, and there were few lower noblemen who can be a substitute who both support Irkner at that time. Gibbe · Irkner himself landed I heard that it is in a state of flying around, but I was not sure what kind of situation it is. "

Even without knowing Damuel who did not even dare to go back to the parents house back and forth between the temple and the Knights dormitory, famous story well known to Henrik, civilian, Brigitte returns to Irkner with his marriage and brother It seems that it was considered natural to try to support it.

"Do you think that Miss Brigitte can live as a lower aristocrat in the aristocratic state with difficulty in consulting with the family? It is said that Damuel will quit the escort knight and join in and out, I realized that I did not think at all what Brigitte's life would change. "

Although the escort knight is a proud manager, it is also an excessive position in the lower knight Darmel. Actually, Damuel seems to be telling me about magical compression from me, being jealous by stretching magical power, it seems that the opinion that it is better to replace intermediate knights and senior knights is good.

"Since I know Rosemain from the time of the shrine, I am unlikely to be removed from the escort knight, but only truly limited people know such circumstances, as well as my older brother and Brigitte Because I did not have it, I think that my marriage was considered as a matter of course at the time of my marriage. "

Daniel was able to come down, that the obviousness for each was too different too much.

"..... Differentiation is such a serious thing, as I thought that I loved each other, I thought that it would be somehow."

"I am ashamed, I am also, I thought what would become if you balanced even magical powers, I regret that I was short of ideas. When I apply for marriage, I can not go to Ilkner, I refused it. "

..... How! Was it that Damuel swung? sorry. I was thinking that I was shaken clearly by Brigitte.

"A man looks good in it will also appear in Damuelu"

"Magical power grows so much that Brigitte can procrastinate Brigitte with Rosemain's magical compression, and there are few women who are low class aristocrats and that are likely to equip magical powers, are they still saying so?"

I was quietly diverting my eyes when I saw with my eyes.

"Wow ... .... Eh, um, from now on there will be low-class aristocrats who have increased magical power by magical compression, and young and pretty girls will be annoyed.

"..... Your opponent is too young, and around the age of Rosemain's age, I am in the mid-20s."

It is Damuel which can be caught as a cuckoo, but I heard that it is not uncommon for the nobility that the difference of the year is about that. It will be okay if you do your best. Though I work hard, Damuel.

"By that time increase magical power and save money, somehow with the charm of an adult man ... Please do my best to support me."

"As it is neglected? As if you found a good edge for Brigitte, is not anyone to introduce me?"

I asked my mother if we asked him, "Damuel said" Please do, "please. Next time let's ask the mother.

And on the day of meeting with Gieb-Irkner, I entered the meeting room with the chief priest and the escort knights, including the side-goers and Damiel.

I heard that the couple Gibe-Irkunar and the Brigitte are together. Whether it was due to getting married and becoming a wife, Brigitte 's atmosphere was much softer and feminine than before. I smile with a smile floating in love with happiness.
Brigitte's husband, the only first meeting in this, progressed and knelt before me.

"Rosemain, please forgive me for praying blessings for a rare encounter that has undergone a rigorous screening of the life god AVivive."

"I will forgive you."

"I am Brigitte's husband, I am Victor, I am honored to meet you."

Victoria was a gentle throne, and since I saw it, he was a citizen of civil servants. It would be a necessary person for Ircnner where civilian officials were clearly short. Even if it is in line with Gibe · Irukuna and Brigitte, I feel that the atmosphere is gathered cleanly, so I think that it is a person who fits well.

..... I've found it well. As expected.

When I was impressed with watching Victor, I noticed that Volk was at the back of Gibe-Irkner, holding a writing board. I never thought that we would meet with Forcu of the former gray priest at the castle, so I am amazed at the surprise. In my eyes, Volk responded with a happy smile that looks like nostalgic.

I could not speak to Volk on this occasion, so I moved my eyes to Brigitte.

"I'm blessed you, Rosemain sama"

"Brigitte seems to be fine and I am glad."

"It was only a surprising thing that I could not wait for Rosemain's wake."

As Brigitte, I only wanted to engage only for engagement, waiting for my waking up, I wanted to get married with my blessing, but it seems to have been proposed to mothers to get married as soon as possible and put usable hands into Ilkner.

It seems that it was better to market as much as possible when you do not have rivals, to market as much as possible, and to say that you wanted to make as much paper as possible by Ilkner before printing starts with Halden Zell.

"Although I only got married, I was not in the honeymoon, nothing else from Elvira and the Plantin Shoes, prompting me for goods, Ircnar was having a nice scream."

In Brigitte's words, Victoria relaxes his expression and nods.

"Since Rosemain wakes up and you will be able to do workshops in various places, the advantage will be lost, so we are working hard to develop new paper as well."

"Thanks to Rosemain's sponsorship and papermaking workshops, even lower class aristocrats came back, and the territory management has become quite easy. I sincerely thank you."

Mr. and Mrs. Gibe · Irunner said that and kneeled before me.

"I would like to offer this to Rosemain from Irkuna, it is new paper. In Irkner, it was made from Rinpui, a material that can be taken better than Follin, it may be a raw paper I wanted by the Planetan Shokai Please use this part for research. "

Thin paper stacked on top of the other looking through is enveloped so that it will not crush with the slick hard paper of Irkner specialties. It opened politely and picked up only one piece and lifted it.

It seems that my skill is also rising while I am sleeping. To the finished thin paper, I smile broke.

If you can make raw paper, you will be able to lower the price of raw wrapper paper which used only to use Trombe paper. Naturally, the price of printing is lowered.

..... The book will be a little cheaper! Bon appetit!

"Thank you. I will try to research whether it can be used as a raw wrapper at the workshop immediately"

When I am fluent in new paper as I cheek away, Brigitte called out "Rosemain sama."

"This is information I do not know if it is useful, but the paper made from the devil trees Nansave is like a magical tool"

"... ... When you make paper from a magazine, you may inherit the nature of the magical tree. Did you discover something?"

Because it was difficult for me to say that it was hard to burn with Trombe paper, I brought the words muddy and asked Brigitte.

According to Brigitte, the workshop breaks the failed work, boil down and makes recycled paper. Meanwhile, when I broke the Nansave paper in the same way, it seems that the nonsave paper that went apart moved with a slippery and gathered to the biggest fragments.

"I am not familiar with magical tools and materials much, but I thought that some uses might come to mind when Rosemain and Mr. Ferdinand, so I reported."

"I will buy that paper, is there anything I have brought here now?"

It reacted to the report of Brigitte was the priest president who still has not been frosted with fever. It is a prompt decision without asking price.

"We have brought about 10 pieces for the sample, but regarding trading, we are going to pass through the Plantin Shokai so we can hand it over to the beginning of spring."

"Okay ... .... Plantin Shokai is supposed to be called by Aub Ehrenfest soon, I will negotiate with the Plantin Shokai at that time, I will contact you if the date is decided"

"Certainly yes"

I thought that I could not wait until spring, but Gibe · Ircnor seems to be glad to know that the nonsave paper sells.

The chief priest tightened facial expression and looked at Giebe · Irkner. At the same time, Victora corrects his posture, Volk picks up writing boards and stencils.

"As Gieb-Irkner, Rosemain woke up, we will expand the paper industry to Ehrenfest in the future"

"I am aware."

"Therefore, I'd like three to four engineers to teach how to make paper from Irkunar"

"That is ... a very difficult request, Mr. Ferdinand"

It was Victor, not Gibe-Irkner, that answered. Explain that Irukner is responsible for papermaking and that it is a situation where there is not enough hands for the amount requested and it makes the trouble to cooperate to increase competitors purposely.

"Victor, Irukner has now received knowledge and technology from Rosemain, and there is now. When Rosemain sought cooperation, there is a preparedness to undertake as much as possible. Please tell me the details."

"Well, you know that there is an increase in the number of gibbs wanting to make a papermaking workshop? In order to expand the printing industry from now on, we need a lot of paper. If you want to make the papermaking studio As I dispatched to Irkuna, I am planning to dispatch gray priests from the people of Plantin Shokai and my workshop, but the number is insufficient. "

Brigitte nodded before I saw Gibe Irkner and Rosemain Studio. There are not enough people to be able to dispatch to several land at once. And you also know how long it will take to teach work.

"The teacher 's role from Irkuna teaches in other lands is only how to make paper with folin. Although I plan to have several places to go around from spring to autumn, I do not plan to stay for a long time in one place And I do not need to teach how to make other paper. "

My priest adds to my words.

"We are thinking about increasing the number of papermaking stations as we look forward to dealing with the future center and if we are going to make new paper using the materials of each land we plan to think about each one Irukner's superiority that Victora is concerned is unlikely to shake for a while. "

The expression of Victor was relieved on the word of the priest.

"I understand well how Irukner where a gray priest was dispatched from Rosemain sama for a year was well understood, I will cooperate as much as possible for the future Ehrenfest"

Since it is necessary for people of Printemps Shochō to accompany, in detail they decided to discuss at the time of purchasing Nansave paper.

..... Mr. Beno, is it okay?

When thinking about such a thing, Damuel who was escorting at the door will walk to Richarda with strict expression. It seems there was a message. Richard who heard the words of Damuel gazed lightly and then walked towards the chief priest.

"I will excuse myself during the meeting."

"I do not care. The important story has ended."

"It seems that the knight team contacted us when the Lord of Winter appeared."

In the words of Richarda, the chief priest stood up and the tennis ran away from escort knights other than Damuel.

I recalled the suppression of the winter lord I knew. My father and his brother, and the family went to fight against the winter lord. I would like to give you blessings if it makes it easy a little. I look up to the chief priest.

"Mr. Ferdinand, do you need my blessing?"

"Even if there is nothing, there is no problem, but there is something to help"

"Gibe-Irkunar, this meeting will be over"

"Yes, we can not let you take any more time, we will be sorry."

Giebe · Irukuna and his wife stand up. Victor was lightly hitting the shoulder of Brigitte.

"..... It is a steep face, but Brigitte is not a knight anymore?"

"It seems that I was illusioned by being surrounded by a familiar face."

It seemed that it was relieved by Victor 's words pointing out with a bitter smile, Brigitte was shy and a lonely smile was emanated.

"I will excuse you not to get in the way, I pray for your wartime."

I spontaneously call out to the back of Volk who walks with Gibe Irkuna.

"Volk"

"What is it, Rosemain?"

It seemed that he did not expect to be able to speak, and he turned around with a surprised expression.

"Do you get along with your wife? Or folk was accustomed to happy Irukuna? Watakushi, but that was a concern," folk for me is, it is gray priest went bought into for the first time elsewhere. It is also, rather than as a labor force, is expected as a marriage partner.

Whether the marriage was also happened the way that advanced gray priest that does not know the home is, I can not be helped in the mood. Feeling the priests length of the line of sight, such as blame, if I ask, folk was kneeling in front of me.

"Clenching the like of your words Rozemain, rather than put up also with respect to everything, good discussion, give and take has been piled up Kaya and efforts to allow.

While the Rozemain like it has been stuck in sleep long, also to the child blessed, I learned for the first time the existence of the family. every time you feel every day of small happiness, sincerely we have to thank Rozemain like that he has shown the way to happiness, "

so described face of folk is proudly, rather than the face of the gray priest serve the Lord, it had become the face of the father to support the family.

Chapter 324: The end of the snowstorm and the merchants called

---

"When Damuel is ready for subjugation, he gathers in this room and heads to the training ground of the Order, where Rosemain is waiting here!"

It is only adult knights who are heading for the suppression of the Lord of Winter. You can not take an apprentice. Angelica who was allowed to accompany the temple is also an answering machine this time.

I was ordered to wait with escort knight apprentices and I sat back again in the room where Gibe Irkuna had left. Richarddah quickly goes to pick up my cold weather protection.

"If you take the Knights apprenticeship of the aristocrat as a tour, it will be a good study, but ..."

"Such a dangerous thing, permission is not going down, princess"

"That's right, it's only a burden to everyone of the Order if you have extra baggage."

Although it is study to show the actual knight of the knight to the knights apprentices who are not cooperative, it can not be taken along with an apprentice that can only be an obstacle in that intense fight.

At least, I should have had a video camera, I thought, but I was drinking tea and waiting.

Damuel closely wears armor, comes back with a cloak. Afterwards, the chief priest also comes back with armor and mantle.

"Wait a moment, I will go to the training ground of the Order."

I ridden the Richarda and escort knight apprentice on the Lesser Bus and ran through the blizzard so as not to lose sight of the priest and the cloak of Damuel.

Knights already existed in the train station which arrived already. Your father can see Eckhart brothers and elder brothers Lamprecht also line up. As I was surprised by the appearance of the Lesser bus, I knew I was watching the eyes, I shook my little hand.

"I made you wait"

All the guys kneeled roughly to the word of the priest. I descend from the lesser bus and line up next to the chief priest.

"The saint of Ehrenfest will pray to God and will congratulate us."

Proceeding to the front of the kneeling kneelers, I raised Steap and raised my hand high. I pray to the god of bravery while putting magical power, so that blessings will spread to this number of people.

"May everyone have the protection of the divine Angle Fu who is ruler of the Leading Shaft of Fire"

The familiar blue light jumps out of the staple and falls onto the Order. Because I have a lot of people, I used magical powers more than I thought, but I feel less tired than when I fought against Schneirum last time. After all, it seems that magical power is increasing due to being able to be solved by Jureve.

"Thank you for the blessings of the saints, so as not to leave the north until the end of the subjunctive. Do you observe the apprenticeship of the escort knight well Cornelius, good? Richarda, ask our absence"

"Ha!"

"I am aware, Mr. Ferdinand,"

I was told that I could go back to the castle first, and I got on a lesser bus with Richarda. To get back to the castle there are leaders of escort knight apprentices. When rushed out with Cornelius elder brother, Angelica and Leonor's cloak as marks, behind me a voice called "sortie preparation!"

As the majority of the Order will head down, as the number of escorts decreases, I and Charlotte are to be prohibited from leaving the bounded north until the completion. Because there is no problem for the part that is away from the north, I did reading and teaing with Charlotte ... .. Maybe I was in the most relaxed mood since I woke up.

I still have tea with Charlotte. "Although I went back from the aristocrat as soon as I was going to the temple quickly and I was busy socializing when I came back so I would like to have a tea party with my sister and a couple" If you are told that, you can not refuse.

After thinking carefully, Charlotte and only two tea ceremonies have been disturbed by Wilfried two years ago.

"Since the father and mother are staying in the room for the past several days, I was looking forward to the suppression of the winter lord in the past."

It seems that it was a valuable few days to spend slowly with parents who are busy with socializing. I heard such a memorable story from Charlotte. Although Melchior's story comes out often, although it is a child, there is almost no figure of Wilfried. It was brought up in the east of Veronica 's place of living.

"I am sad that my brother and sister is different"

"..... I did not feel so lonely because it was natural, but I was enviously envious of how strict grandmother's gentle to his brother is."

It seems that Charlotte, which resembles a foster mother, had a stern attitude. My old story is supposed to be raised in the temple, so I can not tell the truth. I do not know the mother 's face, it is supposed to have taken care of the priest by the father' s request.

Even if I say anything, it seems to be boring, and when I answer a few words while remembering the setting, Charlotte who suspected it seems like a painful topic I do not want to remember has changed the subject.

"Please do not tell me the story of the temple next time. What would you do if your sister became the lord more than that?"

"I will not become a lord?"

"..... That's not what I mean, I was asked how I would like to rule over the territory when I become a lord with my task from the teacher, so I asked a little about how my older sister could answer I wanted to see it. "

It seems like they talk about future dreams as "Will it grow up when they grow up?"
Hmm, heard about Charlotte's story, I thought so.

..... If I can rule, what kind of territory to put in is decided!

"If I become the lord, I will make it a full of territories with books. There are many printing studio and the book city which the manuscripts I want to print from various places gather one by one. Every day, every month at a workshop somewhere A new book is created, obligating the donor to the lord, I will get all new books first, as the number of books has increased to expand and build the library steadily, It is my utopia that teaches letters to the citizens, spreads the pleasure of reading to everyone, read the book as everyone likes ... Oh, how wonderful it is!

... .. Ha! Is it? Unpalatable! It was donned!

Charlotte is looking at me with a stupid face. It seems that a little heat has gone too much.

"Well, of course, it's a dream, I do not think that we can realize it soon ... .. I will not neglect my efforts to make it a reality."

"Your sister really likes books, is not it?"

Charlotte 's face laughing with giggle is a lively warm smile with feeling like "my sister unavoidable". An escort knight apprentice and side workers have become a face that seems to be laughing, and Richarda has become a completely disgusted face.

..... Oh yeah, it failed. You ought to have a more cool response! I do not remember cool answers, though! Someone's model answer, Please!

While teaing, I spoke about activities of the grades improvement committee at the lords and listening to the state of the children's room from Charlotte this year.

With Charlotte, I was arranged to do the lace knitting and embroidery exercises as fespriel and bride practice by Richarda who seemed to be surprised by me and I showed good points to Charlotte It was supposed to be surprised.

I feel that somehow it is being manipulated to be good, but it can not be helped. I would like Charlotte to be a wonderful sister. I'd like to think that "your sister is nice."

While thinking about books, I was embroidered with tingling and flowers, I remembered the Life era. "Come on, do it, do it! Close the book!" It is what made embroidery fought. Essentially clothes are things to buy, there are printed fabrics and embroidery can be done with sewing machines, even if something does not bother to do so, the memory that I thought is revived.

..... I thought that something useful as a kaiten art was useful so much.

Elegance and boredom days have continued for a few days, and it seems that the winter summary has been over, so you can see clearly that the clearance is spreading.

A knight who looks exhausted returned home and heard from Cornelius elder brother that a holiday was given in turn, and a few more days passed.

By the time around everyone's returning to normal, I will be able to cooperate with Gieb-Irkner in increasing the paper-making studio so that the printing studio will be made in Halden Zell this year, next year To prepare for Gutenberg so that it can be added to other areas as well, that we want materials for preparations to increase the number of printing studio, let the priest owner want Irukner's Nansave paper Write it and give it to Richarda that he wants the civilian to ask for a letter to be delivered with the invitation letter.

At the same time, I gave my adopted father a report describing the contents of the discussion at the temple and the result of the visit to Gibe-Irukner. I think that the report is being carried out by the head of the priest, but it is told that I should report it, and there is a possibility that my report from the point of view of the priest and the report from the merchant may be different.

Despite being called for discussion, it is unlikely that Beno, the commoner, will be allowed to answer straight. If you can basically order it, you better keep talking to your adoptive father so that you will not overrecord what you can do in advance.

..... If the adoptive father gets overwhelmed with his usual momentum and Mr. Beno fails, it is not a merchant's failure, it will be a failure of Ehrenfest.

It would be better to just insert the neck of the merchant's top who failed, or just crush the shop and leave it to a new place. If you fail against royalty or Klassenburg, the top neck that can be replaced is not a merchant, but a father-in-law.

..... Ohhh, scary, scary.

All the knights returned and the daily life in the castle came back. It was around a week since I gave the Order a blessing to the main building that I was allowed to enter and leave.

As for the report, I was invited to the employee 's office.

"Rosemain, sisterhood, socialize seems to have a head with everyone, but the commercial relationship is really strong"

"Because people have poor hands"

..... It is more easy for people to say pom-pong like a downtown. Nobility socializing, it is difficult.

The phrase is too far around, there are things I still do not understand the meaning or something I received a bit off. I talked with my mothers at the tea ceremony's reflection meeting, and I noticed that there was something chic that I was interpreting diagonally above. Because each other speaks in a roundabout way, even if the interpretation is left off, it is frightening that only the conversation will be established without any discomfort.

"There are two territories that can be contracted as business partners, can not you increase any more?"

"Regarding Lincian and hair decorations, it seems that some studio has been increased by beginning to become popular with the nobility of Ehrenfest, but when contracting with the large territory, you do not know how much customers will increase"

Although it is expected to predict roughly from the ratio of the students of the aristocracy at first, if there are few contracted territory and fundamentally shortage goods, there are many merchants wanting to secure more as a business opportunity.

"There are neither the original nor the child even if you make the item shortage and dissatisfied with the contracted partner. In addition, concerning the vegetable paper, contractor magic is tied up, so the number of the studio has not increased, so the transaction partner If it increases, does not it make a contract between the lords rebounded? "

The voice of my heart that "I think that Aub Ehrenfest will be blamed at the next lord conference" seems to have arrived exactly.

Of course, the cadres who will be accompanying the lord's council nodded, as well as the adoptive father.

"I understand the reasons for carefully selecting the counterparty ... Another thing, here .... Because it is the merchant who actually exchanges things, so that it is better to add downtown to the information gathering place for heading to the lord conference But ... .... "

"Yes"

"I think that it is as it was written in his report, but even if the civilian person does not discuss with a merchant, they will move according to the orders, as far as it is concerned I said that I did not have the information, I am reluctant to gather information from the downtown. "

"... ... the civil servants who prefer to head downtown are quite special,"

As many civil servants as happily heading to downtown, only one person knows a lot of messages. It is smelly and dirty, so I can understand that noble people never want to drop in.

"Although it is certain that it is better to collect information in downtown, I think that it would be better for you to take the maintenance of the downtown at the initiative of the government as soon as possible. I heard stories from merchants entering and exiting Rosemain's Studio, From the viewpoint of the merchants in other territories, the downtown of Festo is dirty, it seems to be a place with little attraction. "

"... ... Are the other downtowns beautiful?"

Downtown is dirty. It can not be helped because it is a place where commoners live. His adoptive father would have attracted his attention. It was the same for civil servants who refrained at the adoptive father.

"I do not know because I do not know the extra, I think that it is not a complete mistake, as it is a story from a journey dealer around a town in the neighborhood."

".....HM"

"Until now it was probably only those who knew the state of Ehrenfest as there were few themselves visited by aristocrats and merchants in other territories, but it seems to me how it would look if the merchants from the center and Klassenburg will see from now on Is it ... .... "

I will appeal that the owner of a lord whose aristocratic area lies down to the evaluation of goods at this point, but it seems that civil servants do not come with pins.

"The downtown and the aristocratic city are different, as it is now, you should not let the nobility be held in the aristocracy, Rosemain."

Unlike the civilian, I knew what I wanted to say to the adoptive father who walked around the actual downtown and had a look around, looked round the civilian while raising the edge of the knee and the lip.

"Even though we are promising a visit, we are not preparing grooming items, we have not prepared sufficient items for promised items, the entrance from the garden, the nobility who has a side to welcome the guests in the corridor with muddy corridors What do you think? If only the room you visit and the main is beautiful, will it be evaluated correctly? Rosemain says so. "

As crippled, the civilian aims his face towards adoptive father.

Those who came from other territory pass through the downtown until they enter the aristocracy. Those in the city call it separated from the aristocratic town and the downtown and think that it is a completely separated place, but it is a city of Ehrenfest all at once when looking from the other part.

In the precise example of adoptive father, the civilian tightened facial expression.

"I understand well, there is a need to prepare it beautifully as soon as possible"

... Yeah yeah.

"Is not there no reason to have to pull out all commoners and rebuild the town?"

.....Huh? What?

"Because the magical power can not afford so much, the rebuilding of the town is tough, so why do not you try designing how to make it?"

.....Dangerous. If you leave it to the adoptive father and the civilian, the maintenance of the town will have something dangerous sign!

"Let's wait, let's start paying for commoners, let them clean up the streets, make municipal washing and water bathing, make your own grooming, or start where you can do it."

"Yeah, as Rosemain says, I do not have enough resources to make a major remodeling for a downtown, it's a problem for meager shortage."

..... No, I have not talked about magical power, do you?

Thanks to the lack of magical power at Ehrenfest, it seems that the talk has stopped in the direction of avoiding the downtown Before after which is dramatic and suddenly excessive, and improving it as quickly as possible.

I breathe a relief of relief. I never thought that a little suggestion would be such a development. It was nearly dangerous of the small temple of Hasse. It is dangerous and dangerous.

Merchants came to the 3rd bell of a few days from the day when it seemed that the civilian persons also seemed to have succeeded in having a consciousness of being Ehrenfest, including downtowns.

By accepting materials from Plantin Shokai in advance and offering that we would like to audit after seeing it, only the Plantin shopping mall is going up to the castle from the morning and the others are coming from the afternoon.

"Several civilian officials are supposed to be present, I heard that you want to see how you are interacting with merchants."

Even though I know that it is necessary to gather information from downtown, I have only ordered so far so it seems I do not know how to deal with it.

"It seems to me that there is meaning to check whether a young man is being manipulated like the merchant's good or not, so I agreed because it is more unnatural to refuse. Please take great care when changing expressions and suppressing emotions "

Downtown relationship is my biggest weak point, the priest chief mutters in a small voice that can not be heard.

"I can not predict how you runaway if you touch it Rosemain does not want to eliminate contract magic with emphasis on the connection with the Printemps business, as Elvira noticed, for you Do not understand the importance ... .. they will be in danger. "

Can you predict what your opponent who has bad feelings knows weak points? I was cocked and I nodded.

"Be sure to suppress emotions until you return to the temple"

".....Yes"

When I and the chief priest took their escort knights and side jobs and entered the room waiting for the three of the Planetan shops, four civil servants had already been lined up. And it seems that Gibe · Irukner and Victora were also called on the spot, I can see sitting in the chair waiting.

After a long greeting, I received the materials I had asked from the Plantin Shokai and looked through. Meanwhile, through the Printemps business, the chief priest had purchased a nonsave paper.

In Beno's material was carefully written the preparations at Haldzell and the arrangements when I opened a workshop. This fine character is from Marc. If you print this and distribute it to the giver, it will prepare the necessary preparation for each land.

"Thanks to the materials of the Plantin Shokai, it seems likely to be decided where to set up the next printing studio and I can clearly see how to prepare the paper making studio.

"Rosemain sir, thank you for your help"

"Movement of Gutenberg to Haldenzell will be done according to spring praying ceremony and we will make the Ehrenfest Paper Association with three teacher craftworkers to the workshop ready for making paper making studio to various places Three people from Irkner, Hasse, the orphanage will serve as teachers, but are the Plantin Shokai okay? "

After the preparation of the workshops and tools, the papermaking studio will send it. It is impossible to make clothespins, arrange tools and craftsmen at once. Probably, after coming back from Halden Zell, it is supposed to head to the paper manufacturing studio.

"It's all right, I'm happy for your consideration"

And I tell you that I asked you to have two contracted territories from the amount that I could produce according to the materials.

While meeting the serious gaze of civil servants, I will meet with Beno. I was able to communicate smoothly because there was something to tell by letter. Until Beno says "Will contract magic be solved?"

"Yes, after all, considering that we have to spread the industry throughout Ehrenfest and sell it to other territories, it will be a contract that does not match the current situation, so Arub-Ehrenfest would like that as well."

I careful not to get my face solid, I smiled with smile.

The contract that I first signed is definitely destroyed. In order to raise it as an industry of the province, my permission is not the establishment of the workshop, but my permission is necessary, and sales seem to have to go through the Lutz-owned Plantin shopping company, many people suffer.

Talk about the amount to be paid instead of contract disposal and how to deal with the future Plantin Shokai.

"I am sorry for the appreciation of Aub Ehrenfest."

"We are looking forward to the future Printemps business"

There is no emotion on the face of Lutz who is waiting behind Beno. I was watching for me with a smile of a merchant's merry wearing it unnoticed.

The discussion from the afternoon when the guild chief and Otto also joined was very easy. Just by having a lord, it is a discussion that only confirms the contents of meetings so far. Merchants who are not allowed to reply are only to listen to the stories of the civil servants as decisions. Still, it seems totally different from what we have been in the past, as we have a meeting earlier and the merchant's opinion is familiar. It is not an impolite sweet peculiar to the aristocracy, but it is an order within the possible range.

"Well, sign here."

Lastly, it was issued parchment to release contract magic. That paper has only brief sentences that contract magic number releases two and it.

Mark the name as you did when you contracted, push the blood test. After Beno and Lutz, only I was given a pen that can be signed with magical power from a civilian, I wrote his name. Rosemain and not Mine when contracting.

When I finish the sign, the parchment is wrapped in a golden flame and burns. The contract between Mine, Lutz and Beno was burning incongruously.

It seems that a narrow connection breaks with a bunch of puffs, as important stuff seems to go away, it shakes in anxiety that my heart can not say anything. "I want to ask Beno and Lutz," The connection will not change, even if the contract is gone. " There is no point in wanting a certain answer that "does not change". Remembering what I was told I told you to hold down my emotions until I returned to the temple and I will put my strength on my belly.

"Hmm, this will not cause the papermaking industry or the printing industry to be widely spread"

"The cause of the stagnation of the establishment of the workshop has disappeared"

The voices of civilians agreeing with the voice of Aub Ehrenfest sounded quite harsh to my ear.

Chapter 325: Place where I will return

---

After our contract magic was resolved, new contract magic had to be exchanged to let Aub Ehrenfest led the spread of paper industry and printing industry led by.

Even if it substitutes, as a lord owner can handle the business related to papermaking and printing, I am contracting as Aub Ehrenfest instead of Jilwester. In the same way, Beno is looking for alternatives and contracts with the Planetan Shokai. I will adopt the lord as a practitioner who will practically expand the printing industry I have a name in the contract under the individual name, and profits are going to be introduced to expand the business, but Dapla of the Planetan Shokai Only Ruts has no name in this contract.

Aub Ehrenfest bought the right to decide the papermaking studio that I had in my new contract and the selling right that Lutz had, so that some of the profits related to papermaking and printing will continue in the future It is a contract that flows. Of course, it is not proportional to the past, and trading can be handled also by other businesses.

"... .... Plantin Shokai, is there no problem with this?"

Beno nodded while staring at the new contract magic paper that was presented.

"Consideration of Aub Ehrenfest and handling of disqualification for the Plantin Shogun, it is a pleasure to be honored"

Beno has expressed appreciation to the new contract content that maximized consideration to the Planetan Shokai and I have been developing business so far.

..... It's a treatment of exception.

At the time Lutz is removed from the new contract, it is nothing to do with me for anything.

After Beno signed and pushed blood tests, I also signed a consent and finally signed by Aub Ehrenfest who received contract magic paper from the civilian.

A new contract was made by contract magic wrapped in a golden flame.

There is no name of Lutz there. My mother said that it would be better to create a new connection with a new contract, but no new connection could be made. Even though I came along forever, I heard that the distance to Lutz was far away so much that I was struck in front of my eyes, my heart began to get colder.

..... I'd like to talk to Lutz.

I want the security that it will not change. I really want something that I can not get by touching, warmth, or becoming a nobleman now.

..... I want to go home.

After the contract magic is over, there is a talk from the civilian about the maintenance of the downtown, making it with creation magic at a stroke quickly, but since there is no reserve capacity to turn that magical power into the downtown, so as to manage it manually, I was told in a bad word.

"There is no such thing as troubling the hands of Aub Ehrenfest, etc. I will do the arrangement as much as I can, so I will do the arrangement as much as possible" in the remark of changing the town at a stretch, the guild director and Beno become pale blue and decline it.

That would be so. The guild chief and Beno are watching how the small temple of Hasse is built by magic. It is frightening just thinking about being hurt by downtown with that condition.

I entered between the civil servants and the merchants and opened my mouth.

"I ordered the civilian officials to arrange the budget for the maintenance of the downtown, but in fact it is the persons of the downtown that will be responsible for Gustav, the commercial guild manager, with big projects If possible, please start around the main street from West Gate to the east gate with many passengers. We will discuss later on how to beautify the city. "

"Leave as Rosemain's command"

Merchants hang their heads on my words. I was relieved.

And it is told to break up, the merchants are taken out of the room by the civilian. There was no hesitancy of the movement going out of the audition room, I was watching everyone's movements, but Lutz never saw this.

When the discussion with the merchants was over, I soon got invited to the owner's office. Surrounded by the leaders and several civilian officials, civil servants report to the president and mothers who were not on the spot about the results of the discussion today.

"As requested, we made maximum consideration to the Planetan shop in a new contract."

It seems that it is common to buy the right and end it. Although it is only a part, it keeps giving profits in the future. To an emerging business that has been done only a few years ago.

I made it to the civilian who told himself to do it, not to make such contract contents unless Rosemain says it is a favorite business. I did not know the hard work of creating new technology, I did not know the number of aid that Beno gave us for which there was not anything, I narrowed my eyes unexpectedly to the manner of being just like a fellowship.

"Rosemain"

As instructed by the crown general manager, lightly move the hand and give instructions. I slowly breathed in, breathed out, I smiled a nice smile.

"Since the agreement with Plantin Shokai earlier is a contract concerning manufacturing and selling related to the paper industry and the printing industry, we do not include technical grants, right?"

"... Rosemain?"

"In the future, I will dispatch teacher roles from Rosemain Studio, asking the establishment of the Ehrenfest Paper Association and Printing Association to the Plantin Shokai, and the workshop will be opened, but as for the technical provision I will pay the amount We decide, we will collect from the gibe of the land, and we will pay a reasonable amount for Irukner who will cooperate as a Plantin Shokai and teacher from the amount collected. "

Everyone rounded my eyes to my sudden remark. My father adopts a blink of an eye for a mystery.

"What's wrong with you suddenly, why such a thing?"

"Thinking from the situation of the discussion so far, it is not likely to pay the corresponding rewards and technical fees even if you move printempsan and craftworkers to and from there for the reason that it is not in the contract content. From spring to autumn I can hardly believe that the aristocratic civilian understands the difficulties of merchants and craftsmen who must participate in a new business that requires a lot of employees to do the same work as before. "

It is not a philanthropic project, it should be a large-scale project ordered by a lord. However, it is impossible to think that Gutenberg will make a situation that can work well, properly allocating that much budget. It is inherent in aristocracy that you can only see the future where precious craftsmen are crushed.

"Because commoners and nobles are different"

It seems that the civil service interpreted my words slightly because my understanding of the project is insufficient so that you can not leave it to you. I stamped the word "complete disqualification" in my heart.

"Well, I can not let my important business undertake to those who do not understand from the edge, and I will nurture civil servants who can engage in the printing industry and the paper industry"

In the declaration of my smile the chief priest stole his eyes.

"Rosemain, calm down a little, it is not your decision to decide on your own"

Because it was a project undertaken by Aub Ehrenfest, my words would be ungrateful at overwhelming power. However, whatever it may be unfortunate, what is happening is that it is unlikely that the Plantin Shokai and Gutenberg will be crushed.

"Who decides, if I do not decide, who is Ferdinand? A civilian who can acquire knowledge about the paper industry and the printing industry, aligned with craftsmen and businesses, and further develop the business that has grown so far How long have you been raised by Ferdinand while I was sleeping for two years, or if Aub Ehrenfest is planning to develop as a new project, you can do so far as to cultivate civil servants I wonder if there is, there is no need for me to grow up. "

..... If you look at the level of civilian officers here, it is easy to tell.

The voice of my heart seems to have been leaked out. Aside from the priest chief for two years, the adoptive father who did not put hands on the paper industry and printing industry diverted his eyes, and the chief priest made a voice that kept the temple restrained.

"... .. In the past two years Justkus should have grasped to some extent"

"Well, we will develop civil servants around Juskus"

Justkus is a weirdo like to live a life in information gathering, but I do not feel a sense of obligation to downtown and I like new things, so the aptitude for new projects may be high. When I nodded with a smile that it might be a surprisingly good manpower, the head of the priest waved "I am useless."

"That is user-friendly and it will be troublesome for you to take"

"Rosemain, Justoks is an aide of Ferdinand, do not use it arbitrarily, you should use the civilian who is here in the project"

It is good to use it as you like, father - in - law said, but refused. Abilities are not necessary. I instantaneously waved my head and refused.

"Aub Ehrenfest, the paper industry and the printing industry are important businesses that I have always involved and cultivated so far. When making paper, printing and making tools for that, It was a job of the commoner, rather it had been done without involvement of aristocrats or anything so far. It is impossible to overlook the situation where the aristocratic people who do not know anything are dealt with and the business or craftsman is crushed. There is no such thing as understanding neither the importance nor the preciousness of the craftsmen, not impolite, impose responsibility, leave it to a civilian who seems to have the only ability to crush "

"Is not that a civilian who is here not usable?"

"Yes, I know a lot of talent shortly, but at the very least I want someone who has a better point"

When I mentioned the qualities necessary for those who do not avoid entering and leaving the temple, those who can talk with the commoners normally, those who are interested in the new business, and my father, my adoptive head was held.

"It has nothing to do with the ability required by civil servants to date"

"Naturally it is impossible to do business with commoners with civil servants so far"

When I say that competence for my adoptive ability and ability for me are different things, my adoptive father nods as "I see."

"... OK, I learned to train human resources related to the paper industry and the printing industry to Rosemain, which is definitely the most detailed in Ehrenfest and the qualities I desire are imperceptible to me"

"I am sorry"

The mother listening to the stare holding his hand on his cheek opened his mouth.

"Is not it okay to raise civil servants of lower aristocrats and intermediate nobles that landowners use as substitutors?"

"Elvira?"

Everyone turned their eyes towards their mother all at once. Most of the people here are aristocrats who were born and raised in aristocracy. It is not a mistake to say that there are no aristocrats with land except for mothers who grew up as daughters of Gieb Haldenzell.

"There are many opportunities to come in contact with the commoner compared to the aristocratic people raised in the aristocracy, and I think that we will learn about the business seriously if we can revitalize our land with a new project."

"... It is a good plan, I will make it a consideration material."

It might be a good idea, but it may be difficult to take money from technology giver from every place. It may be good as a civilian qualification, so it is an essential consideration. Let's consult Beno.

I had a dream that night.

I will walk down the street. It is a dream of walking long on a long, long-awaited flat road. There is a star shining like a North Star, I am walking toward it.

At first it was alone. There are more families there, Lutz has increased, Beno and Marc are also increasing, and it gets louder and lively.

I was taken by Ruts, my father took me a shoulder, I was hugged by Beno and Marc, and I was walking with my late foot. Everyone smiles and talks silly and smiles.

The number of francs and gills increased on the way, and the chief priest also came unnoticed. Around that time, a little grass grew at your feet. It's a soft grass that you can walk on and stepping on. I connect alternative hands to my family and Lutz, but the grass grows steadily and it becomes difficult to walk.

When I looked at the feet while sharpening my lips, it was a disturbing grass, the way was divided with my family and Lutz.

Still, the direction to walk is the same and I can walk while talking with each other, so I will walk aiming at the stars without changing.

..... It's a bit far away.

Although the hands are still connected yet, little by little, the distance goes away little by little, everyone's walking speed gets faster and faster. I am desperate to move my legs while it seems that my grass will be able to take my foot.

.....wait. wait. Do not leave it!

The more you walk, the more the road will go away. Everyone looks happy with a smile, but you do not notice me that I am late. Before I knew it, my hands were away, I was alone.

..... Father, mother, Turi, wait! Lutz, Lutz, do not leave it!

Someone pulled me "Princess" where I grabbed the grass that was about the same as my height, while I was looking for everyone and crying along the way.

"... Richard?"

As I was shaken, I woke up as if I was relieved, and I could see Richarda looking anxiously. It seems I was crying while dreaming. Pillow is cold.

Wake your body slowly and wipe your eyes. I want to shake off the dream scene and shake my head several times. Still, the scene of the dream will not disappear, as it is burning to the mind.

"Princess, I was honestly alright, is it okay?"

..... It's not okay at all.

I feel as if the back of my head is numb and it makes me feel hot as the magical power inside my boils.

"Please tell Richarda, you want to return to Ferdinand."

"... .. I got it to you"

Richard quickly blew Ordonants without worrying early in the morning.

I wash my face and have my clothes changed and I will have breakfast. In the middle of breakfast, the Ordonants come back from the chief priest. The white bird repeated the same content three times with the voice of the priest chief.

"I heard the request from Rosemain, Richarda, but today I have an appointment with Giebe Haldzell and I can bear it till the visit?"

I can not think that I can endure it. Gibe Haldzell is a man who could not make a paper making studio with contract magic while expanding printing business. I am not confident that I can suppress my emotions anymore if I am told that "Contracting magic has been resolved in the present state".

"Rosemain, I will go home alone before causing problems"

As I blew the Aldonants, this time a quick reply from the priest chief got a sighs reply.

"After I declined visiting, I will pick you up. Please do not act selfishly, prepay and wait."

"Certainly yes"

Whether I still have to wait, I grab the back teeth. Richard gently taps with my pimp on my shoulder.

"Let's finish the breakfast in a hurry. And how it comes to Ferdinand Bob's chat, I will pick you up soon, I wonder if I can call him early in the morning and are not ready I do not want to be scolded? "

I was nodding at the story of Ricarda trying to brighten the atmosphere a little, but I reached for breakfast.

Meanwhile, Otilier is preparing me for returning to the temple. I got cold weather items and I saw the evacuation knights in contact with Ordnants.

"Since the color of the face is worse than usual today, is the principal of the temple settled down by the princess? Would you like to be a little slow?"

"Richarda ..."

A little sadly Ricarda laughed.

"Rosemain, are you ready?"

It was as soon as Richarda said that the chief priest came to pick up. I might have been scolded if I was eating breakfast vaguely.

"it's finished"

Even though I say preparation, I have everything in my daily necessities, so I do not have much baggage to move with. This time the Rinpui paper that I got to Gibe Irkner was the biggest baggage.

"Well, let's go."

"Hey, Rosemain Princess"

My priest's bus continues with the head of the priest and head of Eckhardt, and Damuel and Angelica are back guards.

Frank came to pick me up as he rushed to speed to the temple and return to the temple.

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

As soon as I came down from the beast, the chief priest who cleared up his cuddle approached the franc.

"Fran, how about the connection?"

"We have already finished, the other side went to prepare the orphanage room room"

"Oh, it seems to have collected a lot, I omit extra greetings and direct me directly to hidden rooms"

"Certainly yes"

When I came down from the beast, the chief priest owed me a leather bag.

"Rosemain, put hands in this, please devote magical power as much as possible, I do not want to hurt magical powers exploding like emotions?"

"I am sorry"

I have a leather bag kept from the chief priest and head directly to the orphanage office room.

"A letter arrived early in the morning from the priest's chief, all of the workers were really surprised,"

I told Mr. Fran as a bitter smile. You can not use Ordnants for opponents who do not have Stap. It seems that he was ordered to call the Planetan shop with a letter of a magician that flies like a bird.

"Gil watching the letter jumped out in a turbulent event, is not he coming back with Lutz soon?"

I guess the fire just burned. The orphanage headquarters room not usually used was still cold.

"Because it's still cold here, please do not remove the cold weatherproof"

As I told Fran, I will enter the orphanage office room without removing the cold weather. I was relieved half way into the room as it was when I was a blue colored shrine maiden of the commoner, and half of the distance was being shown certainly, and I felt anxious that that dream would be a dream.

"Please wait for Rosemain and Damuel in the hidden room, Angelica will escort you in front of the door"

"Please leave, the commandment of Franc is perfect."

Angelica gladly stood at the door of the orphanage 's office room because it is definite to leave the difficult place to discuss with merchants to Damuel. To Angelica's appeal that "You can not use your head," Franc who resembles the priest chief, thought that he would have a head, but he was not.

For Fran Francophone, she is more friendly than Brigitte, she does not show so much tension, she responds to Angelica.

Ignoring Daniel's going up the stairs while muttering as if "will you see that scene after a long time", I will enter the hidden room. My servants seemed to have been cleaned up in a hurry room that was supposed to get in, and it was already prepared. As Lutz comes in, the door of the hidden room is left open wide, Frank recommends me a chair.

"Mr. Rosemain, how about using a leather bag by the priest chief? Your eyes are unstable in color"

Franan looked at my face anxiously and suggested so. The color of eyes changes when magical power runs away. I thrust my hand into a leather bag in haste received from the chief priest.

I could understand that there are many small round objects in the touch. The magical power is sucked out quickly.

..... What is in it?

When I peeked in the contents of the leather bag, I could see some black manastones and some golden powder. Apparently it seems that I am planning to collect materials while suppressing my runaway. Is there only me who gets angry with the careless waste prepared by this chief priest.

"I brought Lutz!"

Gil said so, he jumped into the orphanage office room. Were you running at full speed, Gill also interrupted the voice at some places.

"Gil, Rosemain is in a hidden room, please show me Lutz here"

"Certainly yes"

I heard footsteps as they come up the stairs. The footsteps of the two people who showed the calm movements recently were quickly disturbed a bit.

"Lutz, Thank you for your hard work early in the morning, thank you for your continued support."

Franan says so, closing the door. I could not wait for it to close completely, and I got upright.

Both Gil and Lutz ran at full speed, moved the shoulder up and down largely, and breathed a rough breath.

I came running out to fly there.

"Lutz, Lutz, Lutz!"

At the moment when he tried to jump, he was caught by the shoulder and was blocked.

"Why are you stopping! Wrong !?"

"No, I still have difficulty breathing. At the very least, forgive me for being bumped into it"

Once I stopped, I let Lutz embrace me and hit my back lightly as "calm down". Anxiety disappears in the accustomed gesture, the body's strength comes off.

I turned my arms around the back of Lutz and breathed out slowly.

"Hey, Lutz ... Even if contract magic is gone, will not it change?"

"Do you change?"

While being struck by the head, I was instantly shaking my head, being questioned in the other way.

"I am also with you, I think that contract magic has disappeared a bit lonely, but what matters to me is that you are the promises that I made, I will not change anything."

"Oh, yes, yes, I'm glad. Today, I had a terrible dream, I just could not stand it and I came back to the temple."

In my words Lutz got exhausted and exhausted sigh.

"C'mon, I was called from an early morning as an emergency due to your bad dreams ... Is not there anything we can do about that?"

"No, this is not the situation, I will add anxiety and work but I do not have anyone to eliminate it"

".....Really"

It looked like the face of Lutz also said that he was relieved somewhere, saying that he was about to be swayed.

Chapter 326: Visit with Gieb Haldenzell

---

"It was already a limit of patience, I am doing my best now with lots of energy and I can work hard again. Thank you."

"I will do it in moderation, I will collapse."

Lutz frown and smacked my forehead with a patch.

Although I can not remove the magic tool yet, the number of times I fall down like consciousness surely decreases. I kept my heart strong.

"It's supposed to be a bit strong, so it will not collapse."

"What is the only word that makes me worried !?"

"I'm still recovering and I am not recovering yet because I'm still recovering. Turi is ?? Turi is okay so it's gonna let me do awesome work."

Both Otto and Beno gave me answers that got hungry, but are Turi actually making it okay? When asked, Lutz imitated the tone of Turi and gave a slightly high voice.

"Everything is too suddenly! Bachabakabaka! ... ...."

"Ooo, sorry, Turi"

"Afterwards, it's a great opportunity and I'm saying I'm waiting because I am absolutely amazing."

While I am angry with my mouth, the tuli that will politely make me even come up to my eyes, and my cheeks are relaxing.

..... After all Turi of Uchi, Maji angel!

"Lutz, Rutz, tell me that I love you too Turi"

"I do not want it."

"why!?"

As I was instantly rejected and my eyes blinked, Lutz became a terribly bitter face.

"While you are learning how to practice at an orphanage, you seem to be seeing Tulei from the surroundings, so I definitely do not want to say such a message,"

"What's wrong with Rutz's turi? You should be happy even with rumors, because it's Turi?"

As I sharpened my lips, Lutz carved wrinkles between the eyebrows and shook his head.

"I do not want it, I do not want to buy extra jealousy"

"Are you buying jealousy? After all Turi is very welcoming! It's my tuli! I'm becoming a beautiful woman I want to see you"

Since I woke up I have never seen the face of my family Tuti.

"You can meet when you can decorate your hair, you know you want to hand it and ask your opinion, Turi said, afterwards, Kamir wants another toy,"

"What kind of toys are good?" There are also new picture books, right? Will it be soon if you learn a letter, is there a cartel? Or will you order a plate for the studio of ingo? Or will you try using Irkner's paper? "

Dilk who was a toddler baby at an orphanage was becoming a child who could be gathered. While I am asleep, Kamir must also be getting bigger.

Lutz pulled my face when I was thinking about a toy that I could enjoy a child about 4 years old.

"... .. Did you mean that you failed? Hey, you think the first thing you think is paper making or printing, just do not make a mistake in priority."

"Well ... Kamil is the number one best?"

"It is determined to be useless!"

"Yeah, I know ... I just told you ... .. I hope you can do such a multiplication.

While smiling with a hesitation, the manastone of the hidden room door shone. It tells us that there is a person who is about to open on the other side. Even if you knock, the sound is completely blocked, so that the manastone is to shine to inform the visitor. I confirmed that I had settled away from Rutz and gil started to open the door. In front of the opened doors were Fran, Beno and Marc.

"Rosemain, Mr. Beno of the Printemps business and Marc arrived."

.....Huh? why?

Looking at me who unintentionally tilted his head, I felt a little bit of my gaze to Fran.

"Because of an emergency situation, I was in a letter of the priest's president to call for the Plantin Shokai, so I made an invitation to the Planetan shop, not Lutz, I'm sorry."

"... .... Yes, because it is not due to Fran, so you do not need to be sick."

I softly gave it down to the franc, and I looked up at Beno and Marc who had heard it as an emergency and changed their complexion.

"What is the emergency situation !?"

As soon as the door closes Beno asks for spiritual flight. I honestly answered while hiding behind Lutz without thinking its momentum. "I wanted to see Rutz because dreaming was bad at where the contract magic went out and I was uneasy."

"Kono ..... Again!"

"I'm gonna do it!"

It is pulled out from the back of Lutz by the lifting eyes Beno, and the head is spinning fast at the head of anger. Of course, there is no indication that it will stop with a voice. There is no one to stop.

"It's an emergency call next day when there was a discussion at the castle! If I think what is wrong, my dream was bad !? It will not be anything in an emergency!"

"I was mentally misdirected! Because magical power seemed to runaway, I contacted the president of the priest as well as an emergency!"

"Oh, by the way, the color of eyes was a bit strange when I arrived."

Beno who heard Lutz 's words stopped the hand that had been spinning his head. Then I looked into my face, pull on the cheeks and puff up exhausted sigh.

"... ... have you calmed down already?"

"Wait a moment, I will tell you, I will call you from early in the morning and I can not just say I'm fine as long as I can amen."

After the audience that Benozzi had come, I will briefly explain the discussion done in the employee's office of the adoptive father. When reporting that I got the right to cultivate civil servants so that Gutenbergs are not crushed by bad blows, Marc darkened the smile "It is saved." It seems that it was very difficult to negotiate with her mother that she could make a printing studio right now.

"Did you do your best? Helpful, please praise!

As soon as I took a chest, I ate a pencil with a pinch from Beno who frown.

"Whoops! ..... Why?"

"Because I felt like going out of control as I praised it"

"Such! If you get angry, you will get angry with a fist, so please praise when praising properly! It's strange to work hard and persevere!"

"Ah, I understand, I understand"

Yoshiyoshi, with a stick reading saying, Beno somewhat strokes with a little strength, it is a trace of the tailpin just before. It hurts to the ground.

Put the cheeks inflated, and complaining "Treatment is awful, Beno san!", Lutz gently breathed out and shrugged his shoulders.

"I'm complaining about my husband, but my face is getting nervous, so why is not it like I can not do such an interaction between aristocrats anyway?"

Lutz was pointed out with a smile and I was stuck in words. That's right. I am pleased to hear that such interaction is nostalgic. He smiled and smiled as Beno and Marc were amazed.

"So, it's about civil servants, how do you train them?"

"Even if you are a person who can talk to a certain extent with commoners, you are in trouble, but I do not have any acquaintances with whom I can leave the job.

When I asked, Beno and Lutz gathered together and said, "Is it OK with Justus like you?" Justus worked so quickly that it was different from Halden Zell's senior nobility, heard the opinions of the Planetan Shokai, and the talk went smoothly so it seems that I could work without problems while I was asleep.

"I wish I could have done it, but since Juistoku is a civil servant civil servant, I was told that I can not lend it."

It is a regret that the permission did not come down from the priest. I thought of asking once again, Marc gently raised his hand and made a statement.

"The guild chiefs who have a lot of acquaintances from aristocrats seem to know the aristocrats that are easy to talk to and the nobility who is not bad for people. It is more horrendous than recommended by the Printemps shop that is jealous of rapid growth Is not it? "

Beno gets bitter smile, saying that sort of thing, she is going to take care of herself to the guild manager. The right material is right, and Maruku shed with Sararito with his usual smile.

"Well then, please ask the guild chief to seek out candidates, ask someone else to turn from that, and this is my mother's suggestion, but the land If you are a nobleman's substitute who has the same, I know the life of the commoner and I was told that I would study hard if I was to live my own land What kind of feeling was it at Halden Zell? Did you belong to a nobleman? "

I have never been to Hald Zell yet, both Lutz and Beno should have been working together with Gutenberg in Hartenszell. How was a man named a lawyer as a civil servant?

"... .. I saw Gibe Haldenzell only with my husband and Damian, we had the people under his guides show me around the city, was he a civilian or not? There are some nobility and commoners' exchanges "

"If you are not a senior aristocrat but an intermediary, no, no less a lower aristocrat, can you talk still ...?"

Irukner was lacking a noble who can be a substitute officer, and it seems that Gibe · Irukner himself entered the paper making studio and confirmed the progress. Ircnar allowed me to work as I liked quite a bit but he seems not to have gone at Hald Zell.

"Halden Zell is a place of extreme cold where people will live a little when the blessings are reduced, because they are living in a way that they will live together, so it is hard to hear opinions Or rather ..... Once you accept it, it was earlier. "

It seems that it took quite a long time to accept new work and new ways. Speaking of land patterns, it seems that it has been troubling for work to not go on quite often.

"... .. When spring comes, I will also make a paper making studio in Halden Zell ...."

While Lutz said that, I groaned arms and groaned.

"what's wrong with you?"

"There are few trees of Halden Zell, compared with Ircnar, I did not know whether there are trees that are suitable for making paper, now I am far from Ehrenfest and Ilkner, so paper Although it gets higher when you buy a few paper making stations north of Ehrenfest, it feels better to try to buy it from there, afterwards we will make a studio south of Halden Zell as much as possible "

"Hmm, I will suggest it to Giebe Haldzell next time"

"Those we propose will be asked rather than we suggest," he asked.

"After that, Beno-san, I am staying in Gutenberg ... ...."

I talked about the family from the printing industry, besides, importantly nothing but anything story I made it clearer I separated from Rutz with a smile back to the temple room.

Three people who got information from me also shrugged their shoulders and said, "I will forgive them because they were not completely wasted," and returned to the Plantin business.

"You said that the chief priest chief could see her in the afternoon."

Returning to the temple room, Zam said so. I was watching the leather bag which was told that the priest owner was worried about Rosemain. With thanks, would it be better to change all of the manastones in this to golden sand?

"Rosemain's complexion seems to have returned, I'm relieved"

"I am sorry for making you worry"

Monica says so, and is preparing for lunch. It seems that he was talking with Rutz more than I thought.

After lunch, it is the room of the priest. From the early morning I will get mad, I will be back to the temple, so I may get angry. While I am afraid, I head to the head of the priest.

While carving deep wrinkles between the eyebrows, I apologized to the chief priest who looked at me staring at once.

"The chief priest, sorry for any inconvenience."

"It's totally ... .. but it seems like I'm in love with you"

"Thanks to you, I have lost a lot of anxiety factors, I've replenished plenty of energy."

"Was it useful?"

I thanked the priest who pointed to the leather bag that I had in hand, I bowed and returned the leather bag.

"Thank you, I was surprised by the delicious preparation of the priest chief."

"... It seems that it is enough .... Anyway, how much we were getting in, how much did I accumulate, I did not want to explode the emotions in the castle, but if I have to think about something I can manage without depending on the Plantin Shokai Nu " "

While watching inside the leather bag, the priest chief pulls her face all the while pulling her face.

"Because I became well, I will try hard in the future to spread the book!"

"When you do your best it is likely to become excessive, so you can move within a certain range"

"... .... Uughou, please tell me the range you have decided."

In the room of the priest chief, I was to hold a meeting for meeting with Gieb Haldzell. Because contract magic has been resolved, permission to open a paper manufacturing studio will come out from Aub Ehrenfest. Therefore, it seems that the meeting is the main time this time.

The reason why I have to talk with Giebe Haldzell is that how long will you let Gutenberg head to Haldzell? I also reported to the president the priest who decided the previous discussion with Beno.

After finishing the meeting with the priest chief, I left Era in the castle, so I return to the castle in the evening. Richarda "I finally got time, so it was okay even if I had been more relaxed," while sharpening his lips with a busy schedule, I greeted him and ate dinner with Charlotte who is concerned about his physical condition .

On the afternoon two days later, it was decided that an interview with Giebe · Hartenszell was held, and he was called by the guardian of the priest who is a guardian, and headed to the room for meeting.

The room to meet the senior aristocrat was a bit luxurious than the room I used for the previous visit. The tapestry is rich in colors, and the furniture looks good with the age. In such a room, Mr. and Mrs. Giebe · Haldzell and his mother were waiting. When me and the chief priest sit down, Mr. and Mrs. Giebe · Hartenszel came to greet.

"Please forgive me for praying for a blessing to a rare encounter that received the severe sorting of the life god AVivive"

"I will forgive you."

..... Mother and Giebe · Haldzell are similar.

It seems that the colors of dark green hair and black eyes are alike. Although I smile that seems to be kind of amiable, the eyesight is sharp and I know I'm gazing at this. People who have a massive atmosphere that knows at a glance that they are kneeling and being greeted, that I will be breathtaking, or if they are powerful, led standing on people .

"I finally got a greeting officially to Rosemain, I always thought that I would like to thank you."

Mr. and Mrs. Giebe · Haldzell came to Karstead 's palm ceremony in my baptismal ceremony, but they retreated by Villefried before giving a greeting and also blessed at the time of the exhibition and quickly dissipated, the next In the winter of the year, it had settled with Wilfried and had been interacting with the former Veronica nobility, so it ended without official contact.

"... .. Even if you told me that you would like to thank you, did I do something?"

"Yes, like Rosemain as the chief of the temple ... No, precisely as the blue shrine maiden became active in the temple, the life of Hald Zell was quite comfortable."

The small Holy Grail filled with plenty of magical power came to reach and the taxation became a little easier as the production of Ehrenfest overall increased. A little of it says that it was very big for Haldzell.

According to what you learned in studying geography within Ehrenfest, Hald Zell is cold enough to freeze the river, people seem to live together. The land itself is vast, but the population is concentrating in the south, and it seems that there are few people in the north. And the most difficult thing is that the probability that the winter lord will appear is high.

"Rosemain's blessing, I have also received reports from the knights heading for the subjugation from Hald-Zell that he is saved by the winter prisoner"

"The color of the flag has also returned."

He smiled at the appearance that Mrs. Giebe Haldszel gave a headache. It seems that the return of the color of the flag in this case stopped the leaders from dying in Ahrensbach.

"In addition, there are many people who are saved by the fact that the winter is long in Hald Zell, so we were able to start printing business."

From there I received a report about the activities of Gutenberg as seen from Halden Zell.

I brought the parts to the workshop which had been prepared as a printing studio, demonstrated the printing machine assembly and printing, but I could not say that the commoners who can read letters at all. Lutz and gray priests taught them how to make metal typography, but the people of Haldzürt seemed to have taken a long time as it was a way to match patterns to form metal prints.

"I was surprised that all Ehrenfest craftsmen could read the letters, which is as much as I can to the utmost as I will still be using the technology taught to Gutenberg this winter, but in the future it seems I have to make letters remembered. I do not want to notice it even if the type is upside down. "

"At my orphanage, I learned while playing with everyone, using carto and picture books, but if it seems difficult to remember immediately, for a while it might be good to change the letter to a lower level civilian or civil apprentice apprentice work I do not think so. "

As books are sold to aristocrats, whether or not there is a mistake in letters is the most concerned in Rosemain's studio.

"We are told that Gutenberg raised by Rosemain is very valued among craftsmen that the owner of a wonderful arm is complete though they are young."

In the ink studio we taught how to make the ink and in the woodworking studio we taught how to make the wood part of the printing machine. In the period of stay from spring to autumn, it seemed possible that inks and woodwork would be managed somehow, and I could print by attaching civil servants for proofreading.

However, I heard that the smithing workshop lacked the technology and did not pass Johann in metal prints and parts. I'm in trouble if I try to print, I will not be able to make metal type letters. Print type prints rubbing or chipping unexpectedly during printing.

"We have received reports that the smith craftworkers are working together in the spring to get passed from Gutenberg"

"In a report I received from Gutenberg, I heard that it was not known whether it was accepted by Hald Zell, but it seemed that it was not so, I was relieved."

I mentioned reports and suggestions from Gutenberg.

At Halden Zell, I heard that the guardian of Gutenberg who went from Ehrenfest was amazing at first. It seems that the response was poor just by listening with a difficult face.

"In Haldenzell there are few residents, new things rarely come into my life, so it seems that there was resistance to craftsmen, but their relationships are very solid, and once accepted they carefully protected People who understand the grace that printing technology brings up will cherish the benefits received from Mr. Rosemain, the technology concerning printing etc. The proposal from Gutenberg is once examined by Halden Zell I would like to give you an answer. "

"Since we will make a workshop and start a new project, please carefully examine Heruden Zell's best ... Anyway, even in Ehrenfest, there are various differences depending on the land pattern"

It seems that there are considerable differences in atmosphere from Irkner. I have traveled around Ehrenfest with a prayer ceremony, but at the moment I gave a blessing I just could not understand the difference in the atmosphere just by getting to the stage of the prayer ceremony.

"We have heard that you can bring your feet to Halden Zell along with Gutenberg in the spring, you can see it at that time. While the environment is severe, even if the environment is severe, the people of Haldenzell boast of patience strong enough to endure it"

In the smile of Giebe Haldenzell who boasts of his people, I also have a smile with nature. I thought it was a good land. I felt that I could see the strong figure of the people centering on Giebe and Giebe trying to protect the people as much as possible from the harsh environment.

"I am looking forward to visiting Haldenzell"

"Giebe Hald Tzel, we can send Gutenberg to Haldenzell from the spring prayer ceremony until the end of the summer"

When the chief priest opened his mouth, Gieb Hald-Zell narrowed his eyes as if to explore the meaning of the remarks there. The priest chief will explain that it is time to extend the printing studio from now on to Ehrenfest, and for that purpose also the preparation period is necessary for Gutenberg.

"There are several places waiting for the dispatch of Gutenberg, I want you to think that dispatching Gutenberg to Halden Zell this time as special treatment"

"I see"

Giebe · Hardenszel lightly closes his eyes so that he can think about it. After a little silence, I slowly opened my eyes and gazed straight at me with the eyes of a jet like black mother.

"Rosemain, I feel very encouraging that you are in the upper part of Ehrenfest, if you are Elvira's daughter, you will not cherish your hometown, do not despair your hometown ... .. I believe so "

"... .... Well, I'm sweet inside, so Ferdinand and my mother told me to fix that."

I heard that it was requested that I should give preferential treatment to my family and I was puzzled and transferred my eyes to the president of the priest and the mother. However, both the priest chief and mother are quietly waiting for the next word by Gieb Haldenzell.

When I looked back again, Giebe · Hardenszel who breathed slowly after saying that it was different gave me the ecstasy of my eyes.

"You can create as many new things as you can. There will be many temptations from other territory in the House of Lords. Still, I am hoping that thought of my hometown, my family and staying at Ehrenfest "

It seems that being in the upper part of Ehrenfest, that it was not not to give preferential treatment to the inside but to go to other territory. It seems that the interpretation of the words was shifted.

I gently breathed a deep breath.

The face of my family who comes to my mind first is the family of the downtown, being told that I think of my family. Among the contacts forbidden under contract magic, as a guard to hair decorations and Hasse, a small slender thin leftover is not realized unless I am in Ehrenfest. As long as I have a family, I do not plan to leave Ehrenfest.

"..... My family is Ehrenfest, unless there is an order from Abu Ehrenfest, here is where I will return"

When I declare so, Giebe · Haldentzel relieves facial expression as he feels relieved. At the same time, it seemed at the edge of sight that the priest chief inscribed a deep wrinkle between the eyebrows.

Chapter 327: Back to the House of Peers

---

After meeting with Giebe · Haldenzell, I will meet with nobility chosen by the chief priest and Richard in winter social circle, gather information at the tea party of mother's faction, collect love affair that mothers like to like. In order to make a book of, I am spending writing stories I remember.

Yesterday I headed to the children's room with Charlotte and talked to Moritz about my first-year studies. I talked about taking in studies about geography and history also in the winter's children's room and handed out a reference book that I summarized for this year's first grader.

Because we did not have the opportunity to see the map and the chronology, we did not like the lower aristocrat as weak, so we asked Moritz to tell us with the materials. I think that it will be very easy to get a lecture if you know even a little.

"Princess Rosemain, today's afternoon, the visit reservation entered from Aub Ehrenfest"

Richarda said so, after breakfast was over. It is unusual for an appointment appointment to enter the afternoon of the day.

"It is quite a sudden, is not it?"

"Oh, I got a report from Wilfried Boy in the morning and I wanted to hear the princess's opinion"

I wonder what happened at the House of Lords. When I accepted the visit from the afternoon, I started writing the continuation of a romance novel that my mother would accept.

In the afternoon, when I headed to the employee's office of the adoptive father after lunch, there was a chief priest in charge and I was reading a report that seems to be a report.

"Did Wilfried's brother receive the report?"

"Oh, yes, it is a petition that I want you to return to Rosemain rather than a report"

Since the adoptive prisoner offered the report on which the priest leader had finished reading, I will also go over it.

Most of Ehrenfest's students finished their lectures, and the lords seem to be in full-fledged social season.

There are many inquiries about trends, and it seems that the number of times the tea ceremony will be invited is nearly doubled compared to last year. After all, it seems that women are interested in hair ornaments and lincian, and Wilfried and his aides are considerably uncomfortable at the tea ceremony surrounded by women.

"If only tea ceremonies for women should dispatch Brunhild or Rizerator, why will Villefried elder brother go?"

"..... If the opponent had intended to direct you for an invitation to a lord of interest, Vilfried has no choice but to go"

"Well, Virfriit's older brother is too hard."

As women are more likely to be invited to a tea party, if I was in the House of Lords, I mean that only I was invited to a tea ceremony. It may have been saved because there was an order to return to Ehrenfest. Wilfried seems to be struggling to that extent, but I guess I have no choice but to persevere.

"This report is about Ditter"

In the wood basket that the priest chief did, there was an application for rematter of Ditter from Dunkel Ferger, and it was written that it was decided that it was not to be accepted without refusing. Although I had a rematch, it seems that my defeat in a blink of an eye quickly failed because there was no my wish and my main star Angelica and Elder Cornelius were not there.

Ruffen after fighting seems to have asked as "Will Rosemain come back?" With a badly disappointing face.

..... Mr. Ruffen absolutely forgets that I am not a knight apprentice, do you?

Apparently it seems that the cousin brothers association between Ahrensbach and Fröbel Tak was over. At the cousin 's younger brother' s society I was asked why Ehrenfest got a sudden result, asked why Lamplecht refused to get married, heard about a new epidemic, and seemed to be in aggressive questions.

"This is because the Spring Lord's Conference seems to be tough"

"..... Yeah, I have to look closely at the movement of Ahrensbach and how the old Veronica school responds."

And it was asked from Fuerberg Tak 's Ryudiger whether or not my boyfriend caught my fiancé, and it was said that Dietlinde was asked about Wilfried's fiancée himself. It seems that Wilfried ended the answer as turbid as to think clearly at the time of the lord's conference.

"... ... Is this possibly a proposal from Fröbel Tak to me?"

Whether it is the first proposal, including the Reigno period. While touching, he reads his wooden bills over and over again, and the chief priest takes up the wooden bill while sighing.

"Obviously it's a prospective marriage, what do you do with pleasure?"

"How many books do you have in the library of Froebel Turke? ... Well, you do not want to accept a marriage separately, just check it for a moment, is there more than Ehrenfest? "

Just worrying about the number of books purely. At the same time, I was concerned about the list of books, and the director general glared at me with doubtful eyes.

"If you print from now, there is only a difference that can easily be turned over"

"Okay, my adoptive father, please refuse it even if the marriage came because we did not have a fringe."

"..... Rosemain, on the other hand, there will be many other things you have to ask when the marriage came!? Judging by number of books!

When the adoptive father inscribed a wrinkle between the eyebrows, the priest chief laughed with Hun and a nose while muttering as "What I am now". It is a little frustrating, but as the president is in charge of. Is it more important than the number of books in the library? No, not.

"About items that you have to see rather than the proposal of Fleevel-Tur would be here"

The chief priest pointing to one point in the report, I showed it to me.

It seems that consultation has arrived from Anastasisus "I wish to open a tea ceremony to introduce to my friends" from Egrantine.

"... I want to do something I did not see"

The reminder of Anastigius is not me, it must be waiting for hair ornaments and new songs, and if it becomes a tea ceremony with a friend of Egrantine, it becomes a tea ceremony gathering the girls of the ranked highlands. Even though it is said that there is no sense of socialization, I do not want to get on to a place that is about to fail any further.

My adoptive father who picked up a misunderstanding that my "I want to leave it to Villefried older brother" is lightly nodded and agreed.

"I know the feeling, but as long as Rosemain has been invited by the name, it seems that I have already refused it because I have not been absent for three times, at least I will refuse Wilfried It will be too hard, when are you going to return Ferdinand and Rosemain? "

In the words of the adoptive father, the chief priest hits taitong and temple lightly.

"It's the next Saturday's day, so it seems that information gathering here has almost ended, so we will have some margin around that time."

"What can I afford?"

"Yustokusu"

".....Yes?"

What is the relationship between Juz and the day when I return to the House of Peers? Tilting his head and looking up at the chief priest, the father standing behind the adoptive father breathed a light breath.

"It was decided to add Jusutx to the side of the traugat"

"..... The side of the traugot? There were other sideways, right? Was it possible for the priest captain to lend Justoks before that?"

If I said that I would not lend it to you, I glared back at the priest 's president "half of you are your fault." Your father broke up and looks over me with a difficult face so as to block the glare of me and the crown president.

"Was Rosemain, a traugot a resignation close to dismissal?"

According to your father, Riyarda who got a holiday because I moved to the temple for the dedication ceremony rushed to the parents of Traggot in a rage. Then, after scolding parents and skipping, the father, who is the head of the knight, who is a great family member, called his grandfather, he seems to have made a clan meeting on the present situation of Torugotto.

"My father who heard a story from Ricarda is very angry .... The traumigot who came back after finishing the lecture the other day was scolded quite severely."

"... .... I, I had my resignation chosen so that the impact would not be exerted as much as possible."

"Compared to dismissal, the influence on the surface is small, but it is not because it is not at all."

Your father slowly caressed my head while saying that.

"Well, Rosemain said, do not let it go to the temple. Do something about it in the family, as a clan's conclusion, attempted to add a family member to the side and to serve the lord's family It was to teach from. "

"... I think that Yusukusu is a civilian, but can you do a side job?"

Civil service and side work require different abilities. I know that Justoks who likes information gathering and gives various kinds of information is capable as a civilian, but can we do jobs of care for care of the Lord?

When I tilted my head, my adoptive fellow laughed smartly and moved my eyes to the chief priest.

"The decision that Ferdinand took to the House of Lords is Justoks."

"Huh!?"

When surprised and looked up at the chief priest, the chief priest nodded "that's right".

"I am using it only as a civil servant now, but Justkus is also my side-work. When I was told by Richard, I became a side apprentice, but it seems that I got a lecture on civilian apprenticeship while my interests were at the aristocracy. It was Yusutokusu who taught us that we can take multiple lectures in parallel. "

..... The priest of the priest The legendary trainee was Justoks.

"Justkus is supposed to combine re-education of traogot, your monitoring, reporting staff, information gathering. If you do not watch closely, it is difficult to collect information but this time Richardal went with you to the lords. It will be okay as it heads off. "

"I am very busy but would you like me to have education on civilian apprenticeship as well?"

"Education of civilian apprenticeship?"

My adoptive eyes look lightly. I nodded slowly.

"It is a story that I develop civil servants related to printing and paper industry. When lower and middle level civilian officials who will actually be involved with commoners will choose from this, but you need a citizen of a senior noble who can oversee them. I wanted to raise from the apprenticeship of the civil servants of Charlotte, my brother Wilfried, I think that it would be better not only for me to be a new project at Ehrenfest, but for a future lord to be involved ? "

Since I do not know who will be yet, after I finished the baptismal ceremony, I would like to include the celadon of Melchior, and after giving permission to say, 'That is a good idea', my adoptive father hid his eyes to think a bit .

"But if you do education at the lords, you will only be apprentices, unless you have another adult advanced civilian, you will not be able to make it out of your way, with the citadel of an advanced aristocrat, with the intention of Rosemain, the aristocracy. Is there anything wrong with those who can adjust with?"

When the adoptive father turns his eyes to the chief priest, he murmurs and wanders his eyes while saying, "It is the most difficult to draw the attention of Rosemain." After a while silence, my father hit the hand with Pon.

"... How about Elvira? I think that if it is a big role to mediate between Rosemain and a senior aristocrat, I think it is qualified."

"While Rosemain was asleep, Elvira showed great interest in the printing industry and was taking the initiative to take it in Haldzell, there would be some knowledge compared to other citizens, it is qualified."

The agreed words of the priest leader overlapped, and the adoptive father made his eyes shine.

"Do you want to consult?"

"Because I was also making books myself, it would be a field of interest, and my kids got bigger so it will not matter if I return to civil service work."

From everyone's point of view, the story began to progress in the direction to let the mother manage the printing industry and the paper industry. I know that my mother is an excellent civilian, so encouraging if it comes to work as a civilian, but in a way, I am worried.

..... If I leave it to my mother, it seems to be an activity of "making the book of the priest chief" rather than printing business ... well, is it okay?

It is your father who suggested, it is the chief priest who approved and the adoptive father issued permission. Let your mother take full advantage of your skills.

"When considering the character of Justoks, there is a bit of anxiety about the education of civilian apprenticeship, but it is certainly now that there is only a period of time that you can lend to nurture your printing-related civilian officials.

As a result of such a discussion, I decided to return to the House of Lords on the next Saturday. The chief priest has returned to the temple and started work, but I have been told to remain in the castle in order to get used to socializing even a little.

..... Even if it says for socializing, she seems to have not met the nobility without the chief priest, and the tea ceremony of the mothers has gone down.

While I went to a winter kids room and embroidered with Charlotte, I spent days before departing for the lords.

"Three more days. If my sister returns to the lords, I will miss him again."

"Next will not be such a long absence, Charlotte"

For the tea party one week, the first year student of the House of Lords will end with the opposition to the territory and the graduation ceremony. There are not two weeks.

"Because I will raise the ranking of Ehrenfest as much as possible for Charlotte next year,"

"Your sister will give top priority to resting your baby, and if you say for me, please leave a place for me to be active for a while."

Charlotte inflated his cheeks, it seems to be totally taken off by both my older brother and my older sister. It is likely that the hurdle of Charlotte who will enter next will become too high if I score too much in a year.

..... Indeed, will you make a point of view for Charlotte? Maybe I never thought about it.

Aldonants flew in the process of practicing embroidery with Charlotte. Ordonant states the same message three times in the voice of the priest.

"I heard that the hair decorations of the example were finished from the Gilberta trading company, I heard that you would like to hear your opinion first, as I told you to bring it tomorrow afternoon, you should go back to the temple once again"

..... I can see Turi!

When I lightly tapped Oldonanz who returned to the Yellow Demon stone, I restrained the voice which I would miss as much as possible and said "I gave you a secret" and skipped Ordonants.

Otirier listening to the information brought by Aldonants heads to a message to prepare to return to the shrine to Ella in the kitchen, Richarda begins preparing for returning to the temple quickly, starting with the cold weather.

"If it is a hair ornament of the Gilberta trading company, you'd better deliver it to the castle"

It seems that the princess is going to take it, Richarda seems dissatisfied, but I think that Turi is still hard to get up to the castle. I would like to see Turli, not the Gilberto Shokai.

"It is a hair ornament that I received a request from a royal family.If you see it before you show it to Aub Ehrenfest, once you have a problem, you have to be reworked immediately."

"The princess carries over work too much"

"Yes, your sister is not doing well yet?"

Charlotte stops the hand of the embroidery and gently stares at me lightly as he passes the tool to the side.

"Thank you for your concern, Charlotte, Richarda, I will return to the castle tomorrow, I will have to return to the aristocrat on the soil Richarda is preparing I have a lot of luggage that I got from Ferdinand? ... .. Maybe I will increase again if I return to the temple. "

There must be a lot of materials and magic tools to deliver to Hill Sur.
Richard shrugged his shoulders lightly, reminiscent of the baggage that the chief priest had brought into the castle so far.

"Well, leave it to me, I'll get ready."

Take escort knights and head for the entrance. I seemed to have been contacted by Richarda I saw Norbert preparing for departure.
I look around the face of my escort knight.

"Cornelius, Leonore, on the day of Saturday we will return to the House of Peers, so please be ready for you too"
"Certainly, Rosemain-sama"

I was led by Damuel and Angelica and returned to the temple.

At last the opportunity to meet with Turi came around, why the priest owner was supposed to be present. Because it is a request of the royal family, can not you just leave it to me?

..... Although I can meet Turli with great pains, the bishop of the priest.

It is serious if Turi feels scared of the priest of the severe expressionless expression. I think that I would like to serve as a breakwater firmly here. With that determination in mind, I glanced at the fearful face as closely as possible to the priest who kept my eyes on the tea of frank in the orphanage room room which was being prepared.

"... What ... is that disgusting face?"

"There are some complaints, but this is a face that has a big determination."

"I feel nothing but caution and hostility, I will say many times, that I can control feeling a little more."

A cheek pinched my cheek, my scary face as screamed as quickly as I could, a half beside it. Unlike Beno, the chief priest is not going to give up, so it hurts seriously. Hiding the cheeks so as not to be twisted further, I heard the voice of Gill that I arrived from the first floor. I heard footsteps going up the stairs and come closer and closer.

"I am delighted to see Rosemain-sama's healthy appearance."

Tuli who came with Otto and Korinna was 12 years old, but it was surprisingly adult atmosphere to be surprised. Hair color and three braids are the same as before but from the girls who wear the apprenticeship clothes of Gilberta Shokai and walk quietly there is no cheerful atmosphere when running around in the forest.

Although I had good growth from a long time, my arms and legs grew smoothly in the two years when I was asleep, and I can see the bulging of my chest. I have a side of facial features, but the childhood has disappeared and resembled my mother. There was no turtle I know, neither behaviors nor wording and thanks to aristocrats.

Torei who raised his face showed me two years blank and was shocked, narrowing the eyes of blue gladly looking nostalgic. "Long time no see, I wanted to see you." The affection that Tøli in the eyes tells eloquently is familiar, and the body's strength is instantly melted.

"This is the item you requested"

Along with Otto's voice, Turi gently opened the wooden box. Unlike two years ago, the movements of fingers that carefully handle items are becoming familiar gestures.

"... .. nice"

Goddess of the earth The white florets surround the warm red collareier that is a noble color of Gedulurie, and the green leaves of young leaves that feel the arrival of spring are flowing like vines. It seems that ingenious efforts have been made from the point of the yarn, and the petals gracefully draw a curve.

Among the works of Turi I had ever made, I could easily imagine where Egranthine decorated, with the best possible result. I will shine well for blond hair.

"Oh, this would be no problem, I did it well, Gilberta Shokai"

The chief priest who had been looking into the box nodded satisfiedly with eyes narrow. A smile of relief and satisfaction extends to the face of Turi.

"It's pretty good, I will be pleased if that's the case, I'm surprised that I raised my arm quite a bit."

"I'm sorry, then I'd like to pay Rosemain like this"

It looks like a hair decoration for the spring that I was making while I was asleep. I will immediately decide to purchase.

"Will you attach?"

Turi nods in my words, gently removes the hair decorations I have on and adds new hair ornaments. It flowed to my back while arranging the hair that was slightly disturbed and hanging on my shoulder with my fingertips.

"Does it suit you?"

"It is a hair ornament I made for Rosemain, very well suited."

There is an eyes that shines like a mischief in the crowded face. I laugh with my gaze with Tully. The priest chief was quietly watching expressionlessly on such interaction.

"Well, I will go there."

"If Rosemain seems to runaway, let it stop at full power."

"Certainly yes"

Escort Knights who were told to go to the House of Lords ahead ahead and I headed to the magic team of the transition together with Richarda.

There are lots of baggage this time, including songs dedicated to goddess of light for Elegantine hair and goddess of Lights, Lincian sharing as a free sample, souvenir to Hill Sur.

"We are going to watch the match against the territory, too much about anything, too carefully, is not it good?"

"I know, it would be better for me to leave room to make a point of view where Charlotte can be active next year, is not it?"

"Rosemain!?"

My adoptive father opened up his eyes wide and gave a nice voice.

"Is that Ally on Charlotte?"

"... .. I do not understand the meaning well, but is it natural that I will stand by Charlotte? Because I am Charlotte's older sister"

Ufupa, putting her heart up, the adoptive father was holding a head for some reason. Lightly tapping on the shoulder of the father-in-law who the priest owes moaning, "It's useless to think about, Rosemain does not think anything" and puts words that will not be comforting.

"It's rude, I do not mean not thinking about anything, so I will be a wonderful sister of Charlotte."

"Oh, I know, you should do your best for Charlotte, do not think about extra things, then have you handed over to Juistoku to collect information and would like to accompany the tea ceremony as much as possible"

There are not many tea ceremonies where you can take the celadon of Hartmut Tatsuo. Tea ceremonies where girls' secret stories are exchanged are often male prohibited.

"... .. accompanied by a tea ceremony to Yusukusu? That is ... .."

"... .. Do not tell everyone. That's right."

She seems to be said to be able to go with her as a dress. Will not I be told that if I walk with Justoks instead of a traumoto, it is said that he is taking an aide with a habit of shemale?

"Hirschule teacher, Justochkusu, does not it seem like Ehrenfest seems to be an unusual gathering, maybe I think that I am a partner, is it okay?"

"... .. It may be a happy thing that there is no consciousness"

"Yes?"

It is told by the priest chief that there is no problem at all, I can go early, and waved lightly.

I got on the team of the transition and standing next to Richarda, I felt the magical power moved.

Chapter 328: Beginning of social week

"Is not it late, Rosemain!"

When I returned to the dormitory of the aristocrat, Villefried was waiting with his hands waisted. When I saw something similar like the adoptive father when I returned to the castle, when I saw similar things, I am strangely impressed that "they are similar parents."

"I am back now, my brother Vilfried ... .. but since Arub Ehrenfest and Ferdinand who have decided the return schedule, I am in trouble even if I get angry at me"

"However, because there is no one else, this was really hard work!"

Entered the full-fledged social season, the invitation of tea ceremony increased to an extent that it did not compare with the usual year, and the upper rank which can not be refused by any means is returned to the opponent's tea ceremony, Vilfried attending uncompromising answer It seems to be.

In addition, it seems that there were many invitations from each class, and the questions gathered in many gatherings in each class and position.

The increase in tea ceremony seemed to have been serious, but the attention from surrounding people increased, seems to have been severe exploration and sarcasm from the ranks in similar rank. It is said that Ehrenfest's apprentices, which had not received much attention so far, did not know how to deal with it, and they were going right.

Originally, the dormitory manager Hill Sul who helped cope with it and give advice came out to the laboratory and did not come out, and even if I sent the questionnaire to Ehrenfest, the time lag before the answer came back There is not so useful. It seems that he felt isolated isolated.

..... But that is not my fault, is it? Is not she your fault, Mr. Hill Sur?

"Because they have exchanges with Prince Anastigius and Klostenburg ... .."

"I did not like to have an exchange like it, do not you just have to head out if you are invited, can you not refuse Virfriit's older brother?"

"I was in trouble because I can not do it!"

Today I will tell you when my return will be, so it seems that socializing with the upper ranks is suspended.

Richard smiles bitterly at Wilfried who desperately tells how hard he was.

"If you talk about Wilfried Baby, how about doing it in your room instead of such a story, is there not a lot of things that everyone else wants to talk to the princess?"

"That's right! I have much to talk to Rosemain."

As an apprentice for the knights of my aides, Yudit who was the only group left behind at the House of Lords came out beforehand as "Welcome back". As soon as I finished the lecture, I was going back to Ehrenfest to try to escort myself, but I was involved in the socialization of the aristocrat as my aide, it seems that Dunkel Ferger was challenged for a rematch of the ditters and it seemed that I could not return .

"I passed it properly! Even so, I did not get permission to return to Ehrenfest and I could not get Rosemain's escorting mission."

Vilfried lightly shrugged his shoulders as she was looking at the desperate appeal of Yudit's appeal that it was not a bad child.

"... ... You say you passed properly, are not all Ehrenfest students already passed?"

The invitation of inquiries and tea ceremonies has increased rapidly, and it seems that Ehrenfest with few people was in a situation that everyone had to deal with the correspondence. Therefore, everyone should finish the lecture as soon as possible, it seems that everyone boldly challenged the examination and finished the lecture so that they can be hurried.

"Hey, please do a long story at the multipurpose hall, if you do not think about the physical condition of the principal, it will be even more difficult if you collapse, because I am going to organize my luggage."

As Richard pushes Vilfried's back, it will head towards organizing luggage. I walked behind Wilfried along with my aides.

When I was watching the Richarda going up the stairs somehow, I found someone coming down as I passed Ricarda. The brown eyes are lively and it is a really fun expression of Justoks. There is also a fluffy tragogot in a state like being dragged in the middle.

"I've been out of time, Rosemain Princess"

"I heard that Justozuku was taken care of by the planetan shopping company, I heard that I broke the bones in various ways while I was sleeping. Sorry thank you in the future "

"I will always give the princess an incomprehensible experience and let us make efforts to meet expectations."

While I was talking with Justoks, I wandered the line of sight with a facial expression like I do not know what to say, eventually the eyes fell down. The facial expression that seemed full of confidence was completely sunk. It seems that he was scolded considerably from his relatives at Ehrenfest.

When I thought of what he called, Justkus struck a tragogot with his elbow. In addition to being a quick movement, it seems that it entered a considerably painful point to see from the mouth of the traughgot "Kugu" and the voice leaked out.

Justice narrowed his eyes and gazed at the traumigg as if he did not notice anything like that.

"There will be something we have to tell to Tora Gogot, that one, Princess. What is it blurry?"

I chewed the back teeth, stabbed the side of the flank, and the knife gently kneeled in front of me.

"..... With my shallow thought, I'm very sorry for Rosemain, I am really sorry, I sincerely apologize."

As soon as I opened my mouth to accept the apology of Trauggut, Justkus narrowed my brown eyes and restrained me.

"There is no need for forgiveness in traogot, Rosemain Princess, I did something that should not be allowed easily"

In the words of Yusutukusu nodded by my aides who were around me. I reflexively said "I'm fine" I thank Justoks who stopped and stopped in mind.

"Well, Princess, I was asked to do ceremonial education from Ferdinand the other day, but what kind of education would you like to do?"

"I want to nurture talent who will be responsible for the printing industry from now on. For that, I need a person who can come in contact with the commoner, but I will take care in negotiations with the commoner and how to do business. Whether to go ... .. before that, I want you to see whether the apprentices can be used as civil servants."

While I talked about civilian education to Jusukkusu, I went into a multipurpose hall. Yusutokusu as a side story talked to me and a tragogot comes behind it, so the master and slave are completely reversed.

Because it is attached as a supervisor, traumigot will not complain. Or it may be after complaining already and being dented already.

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

"I am waiting for your return from my heart"

When entering the multipurpose hall, students in the dormitory greeted their facial expressions and greeted us. As Wilfried said, socializing this year seems to be very difficult.

"I came back home now, everyone told my brother Wilfried that it was serious, will you tell me what kind of things happened since I returned to Ehrenfest?"

I like to listen to the reports of the servants at the temple, and regardless of the grade or the faction, I will listen to them in turn.

"In fact, we have not yet held a tea ceremony to invite candidates for lords of other territory, there is no other way because there is no other candidate for a lord who has to return to the territory for the votive ceremony ... .."

Even though there is a lady candidate who is a woman named me, it seems that a senior aristocrat who opens a tea ceremony and invites candidates for lords of another territory will be lightly distrusting other territory. Last year when the lord's candidate was absent, the senior aristocratic girls' students had a tea party organized by Ehrenfest, but because they could not do that, socializing with the candidate for the lord seems to be stalled.

"... Would not it be good if Mr. Villefriit had held a tea ceremony?"

"Since opening a tea ceremony is basically a woman's job, I am not familiar with it, and I had socializing with men. I just had the utmost to participate in the tea ceremony held in the higher rank where I was invited."

It seems that men manage to hold small hunting tournaments, hold games tournaments held between aristocrats such as Gevinenen, and exchange information by talking about their own abilities. Even there, tea and confectionery will be a topic if provided, but unlike many female tea ceremonies, it is said to be an additive to the last.

Wilfried, who had to face herself in socializing while participating in tea ceremonies held only by women of upper ranks who could not be invited, seemed to have been in trouble.

"Everyone was serious, so we have to do socializing from now. The first thing I have to do .... First I go to the library and supply magical power to Schwarz and Vice By doing that, next ... "

When I heard everyone's story, when I said so, the surroundings opened my mouth all at once with sharp eyes.

"Wait, why is that?" An appointment with Prince Anastigius is top priority. "

"It is said that you want Kurashseburg to inform you of the return and there are many inquiries from other upper ranks."

"Mr. Ruffen, who knew that Rosemain is coming back, has been offered a remitter rematch."

"Ehrenfest hosts a tea ceremony at the same time that we invite candidates for lords of other territories."

I arranged the things to do before heading to the library one by one, and I felt I got distant. I think that it is too overcrowded schedule to finish all of this until the day when the territory fight and the graduation ceremony are held.

I looked back to consult Richarda and remembered what I was doing to clean up my luggage. I looked around the multipurpose hall, but there is only Justoks who I'm likely to consult immediately.

..... I'm a bit worried, but at the aide of the chief priest, Lutz and Mr. Beno were saying excellent. Even if you advise me, is not it?

"Yusukkusu"

"What, Princess"

When Yusutokusu standing behind the traogot lightly opened his eyes, and proceeded before me, he kneeled.

"Which thing do I have to do first? How about Ferdinand, do you think it will clean up?"

"May I speak?"

"There is no dormitory officer to rely on, can not you advise as Ferdinand's civil servant, not aside from the traumigot?"

Yusutokus acknowledged immediately. Then, look into "schedule of civilian apprenticeship, future plans" and Halmut's schedule, think lightly with their eyes turned down and think for a while.

"What we have to confirm beforehand is how many people can be mobilized in socializing in the future. Are we preparing for the game against the territory?"

I turned around the gaze to the surroundings. Wilfried and his aides and Hartmut in the immediate vicinity of Justoks move the eyebrows as troubled.

"... No, to be honest, it was not so much"

"Although I was somewhat advanced, it is not in a situation where it can be said that we are still preparing."

In answering that, Justus broke his fingers and counted the number of days and muttered as "quite time-hard".

"Let's make preparations for the opposition fight against which the other territories of Awb will see also top priority to those other than the princess and the aide. Wilfriit-sama and his aides are the center, preparing for the fight against the territory Proceed, please"

"Well"

Just watching me watching Wilfried and his aides greatly nodded.

"Princess says the most important thing is socializing that we have stayed so far, first ask the Prince for an interview, then skip over the alternatives that inform the higher rank where we had inquiries and let us know the holding of the tea ceremony. As soon as the visiting date is decided, we will decide the schedule of the tea ceremony held by Ehrenfest and will send out an invitation letter to all the territories. By having as many participants as possible participate in the tea ceremony, Let's finish most of socializing. "

Let me finish it all together, it became quite easy to relax, being told. If this is the case, you should have time to go to the library a little.

"Looking at the interval, the princess goes to supply the magical power to the library. Naturally, there is no reading time just by supplying the magical power to the magical tool."

"Wow ... .."

"Even if we decide to hold a tea ceremony, there may be calls from the upper ranks, and even if we consider the number of people who are prepared to prepare for opposing territorial warfare, we will take as many people as possible to the library I can not afford it in Ehrenfest, do you understand? "

".....Yes"

If I want to go to the library, I will become a large household acting with a lot of associates. It is impossible for me to go alone easily with a single person.

Villefried looks round with the eyes of Justoks who easily banned the library. And I saw me with an uneasy face that he said "Are you OK?" As expected it can be enough to endure libraries in this difficult situation.

..... I'm fine as I have a book to read in the dormitory. I wanted to pick up the library.

"What will you do about applying rematch from Justoks, Dunkel Ferger?"

"Such things are not worth considering.

Justkus lightly raised his one eyebrows to the word of Wilfried and said so.

"Mr. Ruffen has thought about only Ditter since I was a student, but have you misunderstood something like applying to Rosemain sama? Unlike Ferdinand, the princess is not a knight apprentice, Originally it is a freshman who can not go to a dittorishment, because it is a knight apprentice competition, you should refuse it. Fortunately there is a fight against the territory immediately. "

Ruffen and his generation Yusutokusu said with a rush "I do not need a rematch etc." I think that the argument is quite true, but refusing to offer from the higher rank should have been serious.

"It's an offer from Dunkel Ferger, how do you refuse?"

"I will leave it to Mr. Hill Sur, it is a dormitory monitor for that, so that he is accustomed to refusing Rufen's offer since Ferdinand's student, so there is no problem."

By the way, you said that Justoks was a servant of the president.

"But how do you ask Dr. Justoz Hirschle? I do not get out of the lab at all."

"If you ask a souvenir from Ferdinand as a condition for dispensing while asking while dispensing, I will work a lot because Professor Hirschle has the ability to put it in the center, so depending on how it is used it is a very capable person."

Even during the student's age of priests, there was an application for repeated ditters, and it seems that a refusal battle was being held between Hill Sur who wanted to use the priest chief as research assistant and Rufen wanting to do a doctor. It seems that there is no problem if you leave it to Hill Sur.

"... .. somewhat Justkus looks very reliable"

"Oh, how was the evaluation so far?"

..... I thought that it was a weirdo who rushed as I was interested and gathered information even though I wear a girlfriend.

Just as I could hear the voice of my heart, Jusukkus shrugged his shoulders with a deranged expression and muttered, "Information collection is my work."

Justkus' information gathering is also a job, but I thought it was a perfect hobby. It is surprising for honest competence. Any strange person was licking the fact that Justoks was heavily used as an aide to the chief priest.

"Then, the Princess reserves an appointment to the Prince in a separate room, please talk about the tea ceremony organized, future social planning etc."

In the words of Justoks, the Rizerator went out of the multipurpose hall to hold down the room for discussion.

"Please discuss with other people about Knight, civil servants, and side work around the village of Virfriit, and discuss preparations for opposing territory, so that you do not waste time and think well and act"

In accordance with the directions of Justoks who concluded with words like the priest chief, everyone starts to move roughly. I did not think that it is so encouraging that there are adults who clearly give instructions.

When the room was ready and the Rizera came to call, discussions of opposition fighting had begun, divided into knight apprentice, apprentice apprentice, side apprentice. As I exit the multipurpose hall while watching the excitement like preparing for the cultural festival and athletic festival, I will move to a nearby discourse room.

And while Richarda finished arranging the luggage, we were talking about preparing a tea ceremony with a bigger scale.

"Because I invite all the territories at once, I think that it will be quite large, and I think that it would be tough with just Rosemain who is not acquainted with other students unless we also help Virfriit sama "

"If you help only on the day you will underwrite,"

When Richarda who finished tidying up the package entered the room, consulted whether the royal family was not rude, and informed Anastasiusus that he wanted to make an appointment to report for return and delivery of hair accessories I flew Aldanants.

While waiting for a reply, I tell Hartmut and Philine that I and the mother will focus on the printing business which is a new business of Ehrenfest. For that reason Justks told us that he is supposed to train civilian apprentices.

"As it is a new business, so that the next generation of Aubu will be involved, Brother Wilfried, Charlotte, Melchior, and the apprenticeship of the civil servants of my association with civil servants and commoners sent from Gibe until now We decided to proceed with all the civil servants together. "

"... Rosemain, do I involve such big projects?"

A minor aristocrat Phyllene who heard a story with a pale face gave out a fearful voice. Green eyes like young leaves are shaking in anxiety. By the way, Damuel became my escort knight while being a lower aristocrat, saying that magical power is growing and that there are many jealousy from the surroundings. Phyllene will also have a hard time in the same way.

"If you are afraid of being involved in the printing industry, you may ask us to arrange other departments."

"... No, I decided to make a book with Rosemain, I will never do things that would disobey my own vow."

The fist that I grasped quietly still shaking little by little worried. But Philline said that with a clear tone. The face unexpectedly relaxes to the figure that he is determined to do his best.

"Hartmut, I will be careful, but please pay attention to Phyllines so that they do not feel so disgusting among the civiliances"

"Certainly yes"

Hartmut and Philiane are raising themselves as a confinement for expanding the printing industry from now on, when it is said that it is also a short period, but to tell them to learn civil service work from Justoks, the Ordonants will come back It was.

Come to the bell of 5 tomorrow, and the voice of Anastasius tells you three times, and Ordnant returns to the yellow manastone. It seems that he wants to give hair decorations to Egrandine as soon as possible.

I sent a reply of acknowledgment, I turned my eyes towards Brunhild and Rieserator, which in turn sent Ordnants to tell the ladder candidate who was inquired about the return.

"If the meeting with Prince Anastigius is tomorrow, when will a tea party be held? Do I have to invite you to attend to it?"

"It is possible on the fifth day, four days later, I think it would be better for you to finish the tea party as soon as possible, as well as for our customers as well as preparations for competing against the territory. .... And Angelica is preparing for the graduation ceremony?"

When Brunhild looked at Angelica, the Rizerzer nodded big enough to agree. However, the principal of the graduation merely strangled himself curiously.

"I brought the costume, so I do not think we need any further preparation."

In Angelica 's answer, Brünhild lifted his eyes.

"For the sunny stage, what will you do without polishing even a bit from now? Because Angelica is making a beautiful appearance by all means, you must spread the epidemic of Ehrenfest beautifully with Lincian and hair ornaments Hmm"

"My older sister, I heard from my father and mother that there are plenty of things I have not decided on not only costumes, but also about hair style and makeup.Did you escape from the discussion with the escort mission at the temple?"

Angelica had a sad face on the remarks of Rieselaire and fell a little to his eyes. The long eyelashes shadowed the eyes and become a painting surface of a badly damaged girl, but this is a very troublesome face. I have become quite distinct from each other. Naturally, the sister Rieseresa also seemed to notice the expression of Angelica, and spewed a disgusting sigh.

"As for my hairstyle, etc., I will decide what will become your sister, so at least, please leave yourself quiet on the day."

"There is no choice if the Rizerator tells that much, I will quiet on the day."

Angelica nodded with a really sad expression. Like a princess who entrusts himself to a marriage that does not strike a meaning, he has a depressing face, but he is simply being troubled.

By the way, although formal wear is troublesome, I'm thrusting my best to strengthen the knight costumes I'm wearing as an escort knight with magic stones, or to embroider the magic team in the mantle.

"I know that my sister does not like to decorate herself for purposes other than strengthening my strength, but if the appearance of the graduation ceremony is wrong, is not it a shame to the opponent who escorts him?"

I blinked my eyes several times in the word of an escort partner, and saw Angelica. The fact that it was not the word "father" or "uncle" means that someone has a proper opponent.

"Who is the opponent of Angelica? If it is Relysetter's way of saying, you are not a relative, do you?"

"Huh? You do not know Rosemain, do you ... .. are your sisters reporting?"

"I have not heard, but ..."

Rieselator looks me and Angelica, and the surroundings. When seeing Angelica tilted his head with a face like other people's affairs, Rieselaer smiled as if he lowered his eyebrows as he was troubled.

"Since you do not seem to know anyone yet, let's look forward to the day"

..... Who is the opponent of Angelica? I am worried very much.

Chapter 329: Discussion of opposing territory and Justoks' s dress

---

"Today, I have heard that Justoks will accompany Jesus to the princess, but how much are you, just like Jill Vester and Mr. Ferdinand Bobby's instructions, is the princess really good?"

As I got up in the morning Richarda asked me such a question with a very steep face. If it is said that my son is dressed as a side disposition, I think that her mother Richarda is very painful.

"There is a bit of anxiety, but since there seems to be not enough in the information from my brother Wilfried brother, there is no choice but because Justkus is Ferdinand's recommendation, I do not believe it will fail."

..... It is bad for Richarda who is worried about tremendously, but I'm interested in Justoks' s wearing clothes whether I saw a bit scary.

Today I will go to the library in the morning and supply magical power to Schwarz and Vice, and from the afternoon I will meet with Anastasis. Justus is dressing up there, accompanying me as my side.

Today is the day to change the side stalls, Richarda will work as a side of the tragogot.

"Since Jusutxu gives priority to his favorite job, I think that I will surely take care of the traumigot the most late, and if I can not keep my eyes on what kind of work Justoks is doing as a side job"

I guess checking like poking the corner of the box. Ricarda shone a black eyes.

After breakfast, until the opening hours of the library, it is a multipurpose hall discussion against the territory competition.

If you think in the Lego period, it is a cultural festival and it is like a sports festival. The central royal family, the other Arubs, and the guardian of the students come to see it, so the students make efforts and appeal their favorite things.

There are teachers who show good points to the parents of lovers and somehow spin around trying to get permission to get married or even a place for students to appeal but there are also teachers who make themselves a place to present their research and various happenings every year It seems certain.

First of all, for the knight apprentices it is a place for ditters to compete. Compete to defeat the monsters that the teacher gives out in magic as quickly as possible. This shows the win and loss at a glance, because it is easy to understand its success, and it is flashy, it is also a flower shape against the territory.

The capabilities are quite different from the very beginning in the highland that holds a large number of players and the small areas where everyone will participate, but that is also the strength of the territory.

Ehrenfest is rather a middle territory that is close to the subspecial territory, and the land is small but the population is small, and you have to compensate for the lack of people with your ability.

However, as far as the knights apprentices are concerned, their ability is still subtle ... and there is plenty of room for growth. From now on you will be able to raise your rank by extending magical powers by magical compression, studying demons and training and formulation and collaboration.

"This year we will attack with Angelica and I as the center under the direction of Leonore who studied demon weaknesses and past achievements, etc. Embarrassedly, we can not move as much as we can say collaboration yet "

Angelica nodded in Cornelius' s words. Although I fought against Dunkel Ferger and knew the importance of collaboration, I heard that the practice has just begun. Since spring I said that the old man will work hard, so next year will be pretty good.

"I am going to give God's blessing of curse to the apprentices of the knights before Dittor, is this treated as cowardly?"

"... Rosemain's blessing is a priceless strategy that Ehrenfest can use, and if you pray for a winning Ditter in the dormitory before departing, there is no more encouragement anymore."

From the words of Leonore, you should not wish to be seen in other territory? It seems like a sneaky trick of a gray level close to black.

And for civilian apprentices, the competition against the territory becomes a place to present their research results such as improvement of magical tools and drugs and inventions. It seems that they will sell their own technology to the center, with hand-crafted real products and materials summarizing research results in hand.

It seems that the chief priest has announced his own magical tool here and bought it in the center and bought it. It seems that it has been a place for Hirsch 's research presentation for many years since graduating from the priest.

"Does Hartmut send something?"

"I am doing Rosemain-sama's research, but I do not have enough conclusion to announce it yet."

..... I feel I could hear something horrible words now, is it the sky?

"To be precise, it is a study about the difference between the blessing and the protection that is used by the magic and Rosemain learning at the aristocrat. At the aristocrat he gained God's will and got Stap, I will be able to deal with protection, Rosemain was able to handle God's protection even without Stap? "

"Does not blessing treat greetings?"

Even if you do not have Stap, everyone will be blessed if you receive a magic stone to release magical powers in a baptismal ceremony. Hartmut was lightly watching over my words.

"It is not a blessing to give off magical power but to pray under the name of God to obtain effective protection, for me that two are different things for me, but for Rosemain it is the same thing."

Hartmut says it is a new discovery, but it was also a new discovery for me. For me all gave prayers to God. Both greetings, blessings in the temple and God 's protection altogether release God' s name and release magical powers.

..... Oh, but maybe there are various differences between when it comes to feeling that magical power is arbitrarily drawn out and when you do your best to put on your magical power. Because I do not understand well, I think that it is Yameyame.

"In the meantime, Hartmut should do a more meaningful research a little more."

"Well, I will do a research that can be announced next year, because Rosemain's research is not likely to be completed even if it takes a lifetime, I will decide to start something after graduation."

.....stop! Do not make such a life work!

"This year's research presents the main research of Schwarz and Vice, Rosemain-sama"

Philline said to me with a head. In order to make a new outfit, various studies are necessary and Ehrenfest has to work together as a whole, so Hirsur seems to have given it to the main research.

"To that end I guessed Ferdinand-san's materials as soon as possible, and I was surprised by Professor Hill Sur of yesterday."

I remember the appearance of yesterday in the keenness of Phylie.

Hill sur learned of my return by Aldonants jumped into the dormitory on the afternoon yesterday afternoon, with a complex feeling approaching the priestly president's souvenir.

It was Justoks who corresponded to Hill Sur. In exchange for research materials on Schwarz and Weiss, Dunkel Ferger asked for refusal of the ditters rematch, and from then on, he decided to have a nail stabbed so as not to apply for a rematch for me.

When delivering the materials, Hirschle said that he acted immediately, according to Yusutsusu saying, "If you can confirm that the request has ended, I will give you another half." I came to get the other half before supper that day.

When I came like a storm and touched a bunch of materials, I saw Hill sur leaving like a storm and said, "I did not think it would finish negotiating without spending a single minute of time. It was Hartmut who said that Mr. Sur was the first to have a competent side other than research.

..... Even so, my father and father, Mr. Hill Sur Mr., Ehrenfest may be a land pattern that people at the top can only move with their own interests. It is troubling.

And for apprentice side struggle against the territory becomes a place of hospitality and fashionable dissemination of guests.

It seems that almost no customers have visited Ehrenfest so far except for parents of their own territory.

Without new things, nothing to be noticed, customers from other territory naturally do not approach. Since the time to fight against the territory is not so long, it will head to the place where you are interested in nature and where people are gathering attention.

Even parents and Aus Ewenfest and Mr. and Mrs. Aeb Ehrenfest immediately point their attention to other places in order to have exchanges with other territories. Even if you wait, no one comes, so you have to go.

It seems that it was very regretful that Brunn Hilde had no place to harness it even if he brushed his arms.

This year there are lots of things to appeal to Lincian, hair ornaments, katarukaru, vegetable paper, and Ehrenfest has attracted considerable attention also during the socializing period so far, so Brühnhild declares all the hair like I am surprised to polish with Lincian.

Rieselter said "I do not know how many visitors there are, I will not be anxious." There seems to be Justoks saying that there are two candidate lords named me and Wilfried, that a new epidemic is born, and unlike so far, Juistoku feels it will not be ready no matter how much preparation it is.

Happening within the range that can be accommodated by our skill is fine, but it seems that there is a possibility that results may be worse than last year if things get out of hand.

"... Oh, who is this?"

An unfamiliar woman came into the multipurpose hall. It looks like a look similar to Richarda, but the real Richarda is behind me. It is a different person.

At the moment when I thought it would be, I saw a trayegot covering my face as much as to say I was caught. When I looked up and looked back, Richarda was frown very disgustingly.

The woman slowly advanced, kneeling in front of me with an elegant gesture, sewing among everyone who was carefully watching.

..... This is Justkus who girls clothed! It looks like a wonderful aunt who seems elegant!

Being in front of me was not a familiar Justocus but a middle-aged woman that looked like Richarda just looking at the skin feeling youthful. Because it is cold in winter, because everyone is wearing clothes that are packed with neck, throat Buddha is completely hidden and gloves are tightly fitted, so the only exposed skin is face. Originally Justkus had a neutral appearance, so make up and shine. Whether it is doing a variety of stuffing as well, although it looks a little bit wider than Ricarda, I feel scared that there is no discomfort in the feeling I have seen. The hair color is not dyed, it is not gray hair, it is brownish in color.

"I kept you waiting so long, how about you, Princess?"

"... ... Can Juistus change his voice?"

"You only have to change the way you speak a bit."

It seems that when I change the place where the voice can be echoed, I hear a feminine voice. Whether the gesture is observing a woman firmly, or is he practicing firmly by himself, whether he is accustomed to dressing from everyday or very feminine. What is that, like kabuki and Noh, the female figure researches and trains a feminine movement and resembles a movement more like a female than an ordinary woman around there.

"If there seems to be no problem with this, I would like to participate in the tea ceremony for women as well in this way."

"If it seems there is no problem today, I do not mind."

"Well then, please call me my guardian when I see you"

"... ... Goody?"

It was almost the same time that I scooped his head and screamed the tragogot.

"On your uncle, please do not give me your mother's name on that figure! Do not have a woman name close to your name like Justina or Justine!"

"Well, I do not want you, Torauggot ... distracted like that ... ... and also because I only have a shallowness that can only be thought of using a name that connects to my identity like that, it fails "

It seems that the girlfriend's appearance of JuSTOK who smiled fairly resembles mother Goodrun of Tora Gogot. Not only are they taken afraid, are the students who have severely complex faces know Guardrone?

In the appearance that a tra aggot attached as a serving uncle as a servant is crying face and holding a head saying "Please really forgive me", the eyes of everyone who had been criticized or contemptuous gradually became sympathy It changes to a living warm one. It is a gaze that you can hear the voice "poorly .....".

..... Maybe, is it also a purpose to collect sympathy for the traumigot? No, I do not think so at all.

I saw me with a troubled face that Hartmut was unfaithfully wearing in the women's clothing of Justoks who never loses femininity even when talking to the disturbing traumigot.

"... Rosemain-sama, Um, is this skill necessary as a civil servant as an aide? It is very unfriendly, but I do not have such technology Rosemain says that you like to wear Once I do it, I am willing to work with integrity and sincerity. "

I told you to learn civil service work from Yusuku, but I do not remember saying that I should wear girls skill. I shook my head in a panic.

"Hartmut does not have to be able to do women's clothes etc. I do not want such things.I like educating female civil servants so that I can get the information I want, There is a way to do this.This girlfriend is Justoks's hobby and it is not the ability I am seeking in Hartmut. "

In my words the apprentices of the surrounding civilian officials became a clearly relieved face, and on the contrary Justkus became a slightly frustrating face.

"There is no hobby, Princess is the most efficient way to get information.If you want to obtain reliable information with your eyes and ears, is not it a reliable and convenient technology?"

"... Is it an efficient way?"

"Hartmut, do not get discouraged!"

I felt dangerous things in Hartmut who started thinking with a subtle look, I stopped in a hurry. Justus stops me with such a smile. As well as Hartmut, he began to talk about the usefulness of the women's clothing towards the students who are there.

"Princess is not to be swept, but to be chosen by the person himself, rather than other people's information, if you think that your information is more reliable, women's clothing is divided into skills and ... .."

"Bullshit, Justoks! I do not drag the bright son of a bright Othelie into a strange way!"

Thunder of mother Richarda fell, and Justoks shrugged his shoulders like "I got it." It seems that I endured it as far as my side work, but at last it seems that my patience has ended. Rhytha's anger sermon began.

Justkx's appearance looks very much like Richarda, it looks like there are two Richardas, but one is a mother's face and the other is a facial expression of angry son and a little mischievous.

"Because it is an order of Ferdinand Bobby or Aub Ehrenfest, I will attach the other party unavoidably to the Princess! I am unwillingly unwillingly! When I do something that drops Ehrenfest's reputation in that way, I will keep the authority to dispose of it, so do not forget it! "

"... .... We are consciously aware, mothers"

Richarda stopped the runaway of Justoks, finally heading to the library.

I was sent off to a worried Richarda and a traumigot holding down the stomach, and I took the Yudoku Guardroon and the aides to the library. It has been a while since I met Schwarz and Weiss.

"Dear, you came"

"Welcome back, Princess"

Schwarz and Vice, who found my appearance, come close and come around and go around 'Welcome back, Welcome back'. I am glad if you are so welcome.

While stroking Black Mana Stones of Black Forest and Weiss's forehead, I got magical powers and looked round the library. There are many gaps in the bookshelf, which is faint.

"Sorangju, you are feeling lonesome about bookshelves for quite some time"

"Welcome back, Mr. Rosemain, since the final exam has come close, everyone is desperate. Although there are many gaps in the bookshelf recently, the character is full of people."

As Sorangje says, unlike the earlier libraries I know, there are quite a lot of users today. I do not have a word, but the sounds that each one makes is constantly heard like ripples. And, there is no relaxed atmosphere, it seems that the tension which is peculiar before the exam is visible.

There is a dispute with securing reference books and Charles, and it seems that they are feeling impatience with classmates who finish lectures more and more.

"If you are reading today, you may as well do better in your room"

"In fact, I have decided on socializing until the graduation ceremony because the time I was returning to Ehrenfest is too long, I really want to read slowly in the library ..."

"Fairly well ..."

Sorangju who smiled with couscous encourages "Socialization is an important place to study at the House of Lords, Rosemain says it's okay."

I put my hands on my cheeks and tilted my neck so that Guardrone looking at it looks a bit.

"After finishing socializing decided on a day, you do not mind reading on a break, let's borrow one book and return."

"Good luck, are you OK !?"

..... Yustoks is a weirdo but it is a capable and good person!

As you know that the popularity gradually rises, Guardrone gets a lot of attention to make a bitter smile.

"In the case of the princess, those who have a little reward will get motivated."

"I got out, let's quickly find a book."

"We do not have that time." Schwarz, Weiss, I would like to ask you to borrow one book borrowing procedure that the principal never hired borrowed "

I will catch as a guardrone holds my shoulders and says not to escape. Even if you put on your gloves and make it feminine, the power to hold my shoulder down is male. It is different from Richarda in power.

While I was surprised by the feeling of unexpected rugged hands, Black Forest and Weiss started to move.

"I understand."

"Continue cranking"

And I got a book that I finished the loaning process with Guardrun and started walking back to the dormitory with a feeling of floating. I was watching the appearance of Guardrun who was walking feminine like a breath and remembered the word I heard before.

"Where is Goudroon, an archive that can not be opened, did you tell us when it was?"

Accurately it is the information that told me about sleepiness on the night of Schulea. There were changes in the number of librarians and number of libraries, but there would be no change in the existence of an archive that could not be opened. Perhaps, it may be a library that opened a library that did not open, but that change is problematic for me.

"I have never heard of such a story, are we talking about the lords?"

Akimoni also directed curious eyes to Guardrone in the word "archive without opening" to make the mystery feel anything. Goudroon shakes its head slowly with a gentle smile.

"I do not know the location, the librarian of the time said during my studies, there are archives that can not be opened by anyone other than the royal family"

"..... Eh? If we can not open it other than the royal family, do not you put in it!"

As I expected, what made me wonder, like I was surprised by Guardrone as I cheeked up.

"Eh? It's a library that will not open, was the princess planning to enter?"

"If there is a book there, it is natural to think that you want to read"

"... How many people have the same idea as the princess?"

He told me that he was heading to Guardrun and I felt badly unfamiliar. It's a bit annoying to have a face like a downtown if there is information there, even though you can praise a girlfriend perfectly, I am a common sense.

"Does Guoodloon want to know what books are inside and what is written?"

"... .... I think I would like to know for sure, but I will give up at the time that I can not open anything other than the royal family.

He waved his head and said, "It is different from a tea ceremony that will manage somehow. I will glance a little bit of Goudruon who suddenly said things like ordinary people.

"Good road, is not it such a way that I am not as ordinary as it is"

"Princess, maybe there is absolutely no conscience?"

"... Well, there is a little"

That was good, Goudruon stroked his chest, saying, "Is it a bit?" Older Cornelius surprised the sounds surprised.

.....Huh? Is not it a little?

Side Story: A close friend's uncle

---

Discussion of territorial opposition fights and Justoks 'daughter' s wearing Vilfried perspective.

---

On the same day Rosemain came back, Justkus came as a new side of the traumgot. With Justoks' commandment, all the socializing work that wanted to have a stagnant head moved towards Rosemain and I was ready for a fighting competition against the territory. Even so, I would like to appreciate Justoks.

Justkus gave me advice as to preparation for the game against the territory. In the apprenticeship of the knights, I give Justoks the things that Justoks wrote down a wealth of monsters such as devils and devils that my uncle gathered on collecting materials and materials of the way of attack,

"The important thing in group battles is to put a person who can look at the battle and look at the battle, put a person who can give instructions, and that everyone can listen to it properly. It will be gone. "

While saying that, Justoks gazed at the tragogot. Traegot is an apprentice who resigned as an escort knight of Rosemain.

According to the escort knight of my aides, there seemed to be a scene where he was not listening to the Lord at all, as a result of a discontent with Dunkel Ferger, which was a violation of orders from Rosemain. Many people have heard voices raging in the dormitory, and there is a strong view that it will resign near dismissal.

Traegot is Bonifatius' s grandchild, quite strong for his / her year and I inquired whether I will become an escort knight, but I have been refused. Although I was saying that he would like to become an escort knight of Rosemain it was unexpected to be honest that he would resign.

After Rosemain returned to Ehrenfest, there was an application for rematch from Dunkel Ferger, and it was decided to be competitive without fail.

At that time, the traumigot was the first to jump out towards the enemy. Looking at the situation, I thought that I am brave and motivated, but from the words and gaze of Jusutukus now it seems that the traumigot had moved all the way.

Rosemain seems to have won with a strange strategy, but there were no measures, Cornelius and Angelica, which are key to attack power, were killed in seconds by Dunkel Ferguer and were completely defeated.

Mr. Rufen, a disappointing face, was comforted by Dunkel Ferger 's knight apprentices. "If Rosemain is returned, is not it good to apply again?"

... .. Do not say anything extra!

After such a ditters match, the traumigot was recalled to Ehrenfest.

And today I came back to the dormitory with Rosemain, but the side was Justoks and the principal was stupid, he must have been scolded by his relatives about resigning from Rosemain's escort knight. Speaking of Traegot's relatives, Bonifatius comes to mind the most. When I scold, I heard that Tekken of anger explodes.

..... It seems that the traugot has not died, nothing more.

By the way, Rosemain says that Justkus is given a lot of work as a civil servant from his father and uncle. While taking care of the traumgot, I think it is very hard to make him work as civilian. However, since Mr. Hill Sur is a dormitorial supervisor, I want to rely on it.

"Justkus, Mr. Hirschle seems to make a research presentation on the big Sumil in the library in opposition to the territory, is there no problem?"

The big Sumir in the library is a relic of the old royal family. Thinking about the riots that happened around that, I will become cautious.

When I became the Lord of that Sumil, if I could say, I wanted to say to Rosemain "I have managed to do something even if I have not moved so far, give up the position of the Lord."

However, looking at the memories of Rosemain's library and the pleasure of Mr. Sorangju, I could not say such a thing and I decided to abandon the easiest way to prevent a disturbance.

..... The result is that. I think that all my hardships started from that schmir.

As the work of the new Lord, we will carry out the measurements, Mr. Hirschle 's runaway, we will set things with Dunkel Ferger, which leads to getting into a Ditters match and having an exchange with the Prince. Next time I want to go cautiously.

In my question Yusutukus slowly thinks while stroking the chin.

"... It seems that there is no big problem, but as the princess seems to meet with the prince tomorrow, I ask you to ask a question at that time. If you have the permission of the prince, Mr. Villefriit-sama Anxiety will be resolved. "

"Well, I beg you."

It is only necessary to delete at least one anxiety factor. I became involved with Rosemain and I learned it. Advance is important. In general, what Rosemain does is excessively frantic, it fails because it can not run ahead of time.

"The hardest thing in this year's defense against the territory is a side apprenticeship"

"Is it so? Every year, I heard that there is no job at all and it's inconvenient, but ..."

"Huge, I'm old - fashioned, the same year that Ferdinand was entering, the side apprentice had seen painful eyes"

I narrowed my eyes and laughed a little so that Justoku would miss the old days.

"... What is painful eyes, what on earth did your uncle do?"

"Ferdinand is as usual, I just got the best record with a cool face."

When my uncle entered the House of Lords, it seems that my father was in the final grade and two lords of candidates were enrolled. My father was good at raising the atmosphere of everyone, allocating the work while drawing motivation, checking the progress and incompleteness of the actual preparations seemed to be good on my uncle and seemed to be engaged well.

"The fact that Ferdinand was excellent, the thing that Zillvestre was hugging to invite Florentia, ... there were various reasons intertwined, and Ehrenfest showed a crowd more than usual during the game against the territory of that year "

After saying that, Justkus fogged his expression.

"The number of visitors increased sharply beyond our expectation, and it became in such a state that we could not handle handling by Ehrenfest's side apprentice alone."

"What?"

Although I got into a great confusion, the side which had been concerned about the students was mobilized, but still tea and confectionery became insufficient, saying that the apprenticeship of the side apprentices had become the lowest .

"This year there are Wilfriit-sama and Rosemain, and more confusion beyond that time is expected, such as outbreaks, attention from the upper ranks, involvement with the prince,"

The apprentices side by side with the words of Yusutsuku changed their complexion.

"We must prepare tea and sweets three times as much as we are supposed to do, and we have to keep students' side jobs on standby so that they can come out at any time."
"... ... What if triple?"

I narrowed my eyes by comparing Justoks who stiffly told us that it is so much necessary to appreciate the side-by-side apprenticeship of a face that is suspected to be "Wilfried-sama to judge whether to listen."

"Keep it as Justkus said, even if you see the confusion while Rosemain does not exist, it is obvious that experience ever used is useless this year, it would be better for you to listen to experienced advice"
"Yes"

A side apprentice became a serious face and began redoing the meeting. I am listening to Yusutokusu who is the leader.

The next day I learned that the aides of my uncle who relying on this girlfriend were happily wearing clothes, and instead of Richarda, I was walking around in the House of Lords as a side of Rosemain.

And it took so much time for sympathy gaze to gather to the traumigot who gave way to such an oddball.

Justochuku is called Rosemain, and my uncle may like to put a capable oddball around. It is an unusual hobby.

.....Really. Is your uncle also changed?

The moment I hit my hand with Pong, I felt as if the neck had been uncomfortable.

Chapter 330: Visit with Prince

---

When the bell of 5 rings, it is an opportunity to meet Anastasiusus. After lunch we leave with a number of souvenirs Richarda had prepared. Of course, carrying is the work of the side staff and civilian officials, it is my job to walk hard. Be gracefully beautiful and do not forget your distribution of physical strength. It is quite a difficult task for me to walk in the House of Lords.

"Hey, Goody Ruin. Were you also invited royalty as a student to the Ferdinand?"

"... .. Well ... I have attended several times ... Ferdinand was not only the prince but the invitation of the princess and was showing off Fespiel."

Goodyroon tells us that he was invited to a tea ceremony meeting by professors of music and liked by the princess and was invited. He said he wanted to be an exclusive musician unless he was a candidate for a lord.

"Everyone has a similar experience, is not it?"

"Princess, you seem to have been misunderstood, so I will correct it, but being invited to the royal family's room is not like anyone would experience."

Goodyroon said that with a shaky face, but I and the chief priest also have been invited, and in the way that Anastaseus said that Egranthine has been invited again and again, I think that it is not so rare .

"Because I am lucky, let's ask the Prince Anastigius to open a library that is not open today."

"Princess?"

"If you know the place, you may open it."

If it is a library that can only be opened to the royal family, if I say a wonderful idea that it is not good to ask the royal family, Guardrun has stopped me with a faint face.

"Please stop asking such questions, Princess"

"..... Why? If it is a library that can only be opened by royalty, is it the earliest to listen to the royal family?"

When I tilt his head, Guardrone sighed deeply.

"Princess Rosemain, an archive that is not open is one of the wonder stories of the aristocracy, a lie or true or even a source of rumors that the sources are unknown, not a story to be heard in the royal family."

"... .. that is it like the Seven Wonders of the House of Lords?"

"Why is it seven wonders? What is the other six wonders?"

The wonder of the school is seven wonders because the market is decided. I do not know the reason or the other six wonders.

"I do not know but Guardrun knows else"

"There are twenty strange stories of the nobleman who I remember"

"Twenty wonders ... .... There are many,"

"Students are increasingly interesting and increasing similarities are integrated, modified and changing shape more and more, not just in the open archives, but in the night of the graduation ceremony, when the statue of God dances Goddess's mischievous toy shop, Givinnen who starts a doctor's match ... .. Have you heard of several things? "

On the wonderful story that Guardrone counts, the older brothers Cornelius looked away, then slowly shook his head. It may not be a topic that is often spoken that older brothers Cornelius of upper grades do not know.

Good morning Eugler murmured, "It may be that the influence of political change may also appear in such a place".

"Rosemain, Welcome ... .. Today it seems that your face color is fine and I'm relieved."

Grandpa of Anasutasuji's top side, Osvin looked at me and relaxed his cheeks as if he was relieved. By the way, after I fell down here earlier, I did not show my face once, and I reported back to Ehrenfest at the same time as replying to my sympathy.

I ordered a return order as soon as I got a lot of trouble, but if I do not understand such circumstances, it seems like I returned to Ehrenfest because I was called by the prince and lost physical condition. Osvin would have been worried for a long time.

"It's okay as it is a common thing, not only Prince Anastigius but also worried about everyone."

Guided by Osvin, it is guided to the room where Anastasium is waiting. Sitting on a chair to hold visitors, Anastasez who was waiting advised her seat.

.....that? Somehow the Prince is sparkling?

Originally blond hair of Anastasisus was luxurious, but gloss increased. Maybe I had a little Lincian divided from Egrantine. It is glossy enough to do such a distraction. Besides, not only it looks, but unlike when I was called before, it seemed full of confidence whether the impatient and irritated feeling was completely wiped out and I was standing solid. Even the calm atmosphere is visible, the atmosphere is different enough to think for a moment as if it is a different person on the same face.

"It was quite a long return, I could not wait for you"

"I'm sorry, but thankful that the hair decorations dedicated to Egrandines made good items"

"Really"

If you think that you should show it now, Anastigius delightfully narrowed down the gray eyes and only saw that the souvenirs had begun to interact with each other.

"Did something happen while I was out?"

"What is something?"

"No, since the atmosphere seemed quite awesome, I thought that there was a change in relationship with Eglantine"

The boys' plenty of attitude has collapsed at the next moment when the word men's head turned around, if you miss a boy's meeting, if you meet him, look.

"What? <sup>Become</sup> form Even if I are young, women really like stories of romantic love. ... .. That's right. Because the thing started moving at a stretch of information that we brought, you can tell me about a bit. "

..... It seems to be too long, so it's fine.

I wanted to say so, but I could not put it out. Anastigius shines glitteringly gray eyes and it pushed pressurelessly saying "Wish to listen" now. At the same time, I will send you a warning saying, "I want to ask, Princess" until Goodeoln. I had no choice but to read the air.

"I am very curious. Ho ho ... ...."

"Well, let me tell you, it is only the part that can be taught even if I say so, because there are many places I can not say in detail"

While laughing proudly, Anastigeus opens her mouth. I have a face that I wanted to say to someone and there was no choice.

"After talking to that one, I talked with Egrantine, listening to their advice and asking what Egrantine wants, to confirm what I want, without going through a person We talked properly. "

I heard that Egrantine asked himself why he suddenly said such a thing. My appearance taken from the library seems to have been seen by many students, it seems that Egrantine already knew my involvement.

There is no use to spite a lie, so Anastasisus told me that I talked to him honestly. It was pointed out that the heart passes through people and that the mind is not communicated.

Then he heard about Egrantine 's wishes, moved around to the royal castle and Klassenburg, leisurely for the Egranthine, using the leisure time made after finishing the lectures and the previous Saturday day and the lecture .

"I have not announced yet, so I can not say detailed things but Egrantine's happy face was seen. This is the beauty that I misunderstand as the goddess of light with the smile that I see for the first time."

While saying that, Anastigius dismisses facial expressions. With a gentle smile that I have never seen before, my love for the Egrantine from the whole body is leaked out. I was honest and I could not bear it. I do not want to hear any further craziness.

"In other words, thanks to the effort, Prince Anastigius got a spectacular view of Eggrantine's escort?"

"Yes, it was the hardest trying to persuade the former Aub Klassenburg ... I have to visit with Egrantine many times ... oh, sorry ... I can not say detailed things."

..... I do not want to hear any more.

Anastigiusus seems unlikely to want to talk to someone, but if you can do an escort of Egranthine, that's fine. The hair ornament was not wasted, and if these two were successful, there will be no damage to Ehrenfest.

"Let's see the hair ornaments we prepared for Eglantine, it is the best masterpiece my exclusive work made with my arms."

Forcibly stop talking and ask me to watch for Gooderoon and bring hair ornaments. Gently gently open the box of the wood placed on the table with care so as not to make a noise, I extended the direction of the box so that the hair ornament can be seen better from Anastasiusus.

"This is a hair ornament, I think that it was finished in an atmosphere that looks good to Egranthine, but how about you?"

It is a flower decoration similar to Egrandine's favorite Corralierie like a lily. The green leaves that make you feel the visit of spring are colored with large flowers, and the race decorating the surroundings adds subtle glitter.

I heard that the costume worn by Egrantine on Graduation Day is red in Gedululich, so it is a color that matches it. The place near the flower core is somewhat orangey red, and it is elaborate hair ornament that it gets red as heading to the petal.

Take out the hair ornament from the box and inspect it while Anastasius narrows his eyes. The gray eyes take serious light and look at the hair ornaments from various angles.

Whether it fits royal glasses, I swallowed tightness and tightness, I waited for the word of appreciation.

"It is quite luxurious than the decoration I'm having"

"My hair ornament is a thing of everyday use, it is different from the one tailored to the formal dress that decorates it in the graduation ceremony to welcome adults."

Besides, with the hair ornaments now, the flowers of Corralieri are gorgeous and too big to lose absolutely. This is a decorative suits Egrantine.

"How do you like it?"

"Ah, that would be nice, this decoration would be a wonderful boost to the beauty of Eglantine"

Anastaseuz gratefully nodded. I could not help thinking that the word "wonderful" came out of the royal family's mouth.

.....Yay! Turi, I said to the Prince that it is wonderful! My turry is amazing! Oh, I want to brag about everyone.

Grasping the fist at the bottom of the table and holding up the excitement that springs up, Anastageuus told me to hold down the expression. I hurriedly hold down my cheeks, but the mouth that I am going up does not return.

Oswin put her hair ornament back in the box, carefully lid and replace it with taking it away, Guardrun put music score before me. When I saw that I narrowed my eyes to instruct "Switch my head", the excitement finally came.

"Prague Anastigius, how about songs dedicated to the goddess of light? After all, I think that it would be better for you to be dedicated to Egranthine from Prince Anastigius, not me."

"Yes, as I said at the beginning, I will buy it." Osvin "

Osvin will come forward and begin interacting with Guoodrone. Meanwhile, Anastigius looked through the score and nodded satisfyingly. The chief priest and rosina are arranged and rebuilt them spectacularly. I think there is no problem.

After that, we tried to end the meeting by exchanging the cuteness of Egrantine and trivial everyday talks at the House of Peers .... They cleared the cough by Goody Loon.

... ... Have you had anything yet?

Guardroon made his hands into a shape like a hide, hiding it in a skirt at an angle invisible to the prince. Then move your fingers twitching.

..... Schwarz and Vice!

By the way, before being departed, it was said that "Please do not ask the prince whether you can present a research on the magic ware of the library in opposition to the territory." I completely forgot.

"Oh, Prince Anastigius, I would like to call on you at the end, but it seems that civil servants of Ehrenfest will make a research presentation on the magician of the library, Schwarz and Vice in opposition to the territory, hit the relics of the royal family Is it possible to announce it? "

"Ah, I do not have any problems, have you found something new?"

In the words of Anastasius, I opened my mouth as "I do not know", and once I snapped, I slowly tilted his head.

"For details, I would like to ask Professor Hirschle, because I'm still returning from Ehrenfest and still having a short day, so it is not because I am showing everything ..."

"Also Hill Sur, Ehrenfest is not a dormitorial supervisor, it's better to increase the number of students' exhibits"

You are told so amazed, I have no words.

"I will do my utmost to make students do a surprising research announcement next year"

"... ... I will not wait so much and wait for you"

I was instructed to go down from Anastasis, I ended the visit.

"It was an interview that Ferdinand's mind who attached the princess to me was well understood"

As soon as I got back to the dormitory, Guoodrun slowly breathed out and said so.

"Huh?"

"It is quite unexpected whether I will reply to the prince with respect to the prince, how to reply, and it seems that I forgot that I should have made arrangements in advance, and I was very happy. I'm currently biting the words of Ferdinand, who said that the princess wanted to keep quarantined as much as possible without socializing.

I was extremely uneasy with the voice of Goudruon that the word saying that it was good to finish safely.

"..... Goodyroun, is my socialization so bad?"

"The place that seemingly seems to be able to do normally is the most troubling, although most of the answers are OK, trying to talk about the archive without opening to the royal family, accidentally forgetting a preliminary meeting, the princess's I think that failure to make leads to a fatal one, I need to be very careful about the aides, I will also tell Ferdinand about the education of the aides. "

Knight apprentices may receive an education of the grandfather, and civil apprentices may become educated by the president of the bishop. A close associate who knew the legend of the priest who is spreading to the nobunior has drawn a lot of expression.

From now on, Guardrone replaces Richarda and says to write a report for Ehrenfest.

"Welcome back, Princess Reply has returned to the invitation letter of the tea ceremony hosted by Ehrenfest"

It was an invitation letter that was replaced by Richarda who was replaced. A room for discussion has already been prepared, and we immediately started checking the reply.

It seemed to be a tea party with all participants. Because of the size of the room, the participants were limited to one representative of each territory, but since the side staff and the escort knight are together, it becomes a serious number.

"Is this really enough?"

When Cornelius elder brothers out a worried voice, Brünhirde shines candy colored eyes bullishly.

"It is good to think that it is an outpost against the territory competition, since it is confined to one territory per person, it will be much easier from the day. It will be the Arub and Mrs. or the nobility on the day, perhaps more visitors There may be no mistake, no matter how much preparation you are, as Justkus said. "

"There is a limit to the number that can be made in this kitchen, what shall I do?"

I thought of it as a huge word to the words of the Rizerator.

"Send a request form to Ehrenfest and order the Otomar shop selling Cuttle Curtain, of course, at the castle's kitchen the day before the territory competition, and send it to the lords as a luggage."

If we do not put out a request to the adoptive fathers of Ehrenfest at an early stage, it is not enough for the goods that are sent to the House of Lords even if they think about it. I leave the calculation of the number of orders and the amount to the side, and I decided to think about how to handle a large number of people.

There was also a call from Egrantine until such a large tea party. If you are told that you want to tell us how to put on Ehrenfest's hair ornaments you've received by Anastasisus, you have to head over.

Egrantine is male prohibited. Hartmut and Elder Cornelius are an answering machine, but it seems that Justkus comes along as a guardrone. Hartmut 's eyes were very bothersome when I learned that Guderoun would accompany.

..... Hartmut may not go on a strange way.

"I am sorry to call you while I am busy, but I have to ask you before the graduation ceremony."

Egrantine greeted me with a shining smile. It is not Anastasiususu but it is a beauty that really tricks out the goddess of light. Even though she was a beautiful girl, she is in a state of invincibility due to the addition of a maiden in love or a girlfriend that is loved by a woman who is loved.

"I got such a wonderful hair ornament, I was very happy, but I was worried that Prince Anastigius was unreasonable."

It seems that the gentle Egrantine was worried about whether it was an unreasonable swing of Anastasiusus. I smile with my nik and shake my head.

"I suggested it because I thought that it would suit you like Egranthine ... .."

"Well ... .. may I tell you how to put it on?"

It was decided to wear the costume of the day purposely to lecture on how to put hair ornaments. It seems that Egrantine himself wanted to see whether or not the color of the hair decoration fitted.

"I wonder?"

"It is very beautiful, even if you are not Prince Anastigius, you must be deprived of your heart."

Red costumes complemented the white skin around the neck, which made rich blonde like an adult. While rocking the long sleeve with gorgeous embroidery, Egrantine reaches for mind as if you care about the neck without hair unlike ordinary.

"Is this embroidery a crest of Krussenburg?"

"Yeah, the design of the embroidery is like a grandfather, no, the adoptive father caught my mouth quite a lot"

"It is a granddaughter and an adult costume of the age of the youngest Egrantine who became the youngest daughter. It has a feeling. The beauty of the Egrantine like luxurious embroidery is not lost. It is very well suited."

I am praising the costume of Egrantine while hearing that my sidework teaches how to insert hair ornaments on the side of Egranthine.

The hair decorations were inserted as the side of Eglantine was taught. A large flower of red flowers are blooming blond with blond hair brought out by Lincian. Several kinds of green leaves that made me feel spring visit were swaying around it. Both colors make Egrantine blonde more luxurious.

"Well, how wonderful it is"

"It matches very well, Princess Egrantine"

The reactions of the side staffs are good. If so, graduation ceremony will not have any problem. After being praised gladly, after saying "Thank you", I touched my hair ornament with my fingers and Egrantine tilted my head a little.

"Rosemain, can you dance with this hair accessory?"

"If you are going to get out of the way or get in the way of dancing, you will have to change the insertion position or think about how to tie your hair. I always feel like putting it from the top So, it does not matter so much, but if it is inserted next to it, there is a possibility of falling on the way of dancing. "

Egrantine lifted his arms slowly and started dance on the spot. I dance while holding a small melody.

If it turns round, the trailing hair glows faintly to shine the Egrantine, and the long sleeve danced like dancing like a long sleeve hanging air and holding will with the soft movement.

From the small smile floating in my mouth I can understand how Egrantine cares about Mai.

"... ... There seems to be no problem with this"

Egrantine smiled happily and said so. I was very glad that I could see the dance of Egrantine in an unexpected place. I am a fan of Eglintine's dedication dance.

If you are willing to make hair decorations and sell a souvenir lincy chin secretly, the things you should do in this visit are over. Egrantine came out witchcraft to prevent eavesdropping when I was holding a fist that I was able to do what I was told without properly remembering.

"Is it okay to talk a little bit with this?"

"of course"

I am excited about what he is said to be, I grasp the magical tool to prevent eavesdropping.

"It is because of Rosemain sama that I became able to receive Prince Anastigius Escort at the graduation ceremony."

"I heard that Prince Anastigius did a very good job."

"... There is no mistake There is no mistake, Prince Anastigius really tried hard, Prince Sigiswald, Prince Sigiswald, then repeated many words to my grandfather, I pushed words over. From the words of love 's love, that figure took away my mind. "

... ... Are you passionate about using wiretapping prevention magic tools?

Apparently, Eglantine seems to have caught up in the appearance of Anastigius who persuaded the former Aub Klassenburg seriously, like the old man who is adopted. Egrantine moisturizingly blushing her cheeks and enchantingly is full of loveable maidens' aura, very lovely and charming.

But my imagination is probably due to poverty, I only can not imagine the appearance of Anastasius, who desperately says Grandpa. It is disappointing.

..... Oh, you are a beautiful beautiful woman, you can not become a heartbroken love scene.

But, Egranthine is laughing with happiness, so it is fine. It is much nicer than the expression when I thought that I might become a seed of political fighting.

"After our graduation, since it will be officially announced at the Lord's Council of Spring, I could not give you a detailed thing until then, but the chance of the situation improved was Rosemain, I really appreciate it It's there. "

"Egrandines looks happy, I am also happy"

As I laughed and said so, Egranthine fogged a little bit of a smile.

"Rosemain sama ... .. If we go away from the throne, will they bless like that?"

"Of course I am deciding to take an Egranthine ally, there is absolutely no problem in going away from the throne"

When I remembered that I was convenient if I could leave the throne when I remembered that I was scolded as being too close to the problem surrounding the throne, Egranthine smiled like I was seriously surprised.

"... Mr. Egranthine, what is it?"

"No. No, I was surprised, because I did not think that such an answer would come back, why can not you scold by Aub Ehrenfest later? Who decides the policy of the territory is better to approach the throne Is not it? "

"Since Ehrenfest originally is a neutral territory that does not belong anywhere, rather, if you approach too closely you will be scolded."

"Well!"

From the expression of Egranthine laughing with coudous clouds were wiped away and it was a gentle smile.

"Rosemain is really a saint of Ehrenfest, I feel I was saved a bit."

"I would be honored if it helped me with something."

.....that? Did I do something?

I do not understand well, I heard a lot of excitement and the tea party with Egranthine was over.

"It is too dangerous to put out the princess for socializing"

Yusutokususu seems to have knowledge of lip reading, as he returned to the dormitory, he held his head. Today also says that he must write a report to the chief priest.

"Did I do something wrong?"

"Education shortage, difference in recognition ..... It is a surrounding problem more than the princess himself. It was the most terrible feeling that there is no consciousness that you are crossing the dangerous bridge. I have to do something quickly Hmm"

Justoks said that with a tremendously tired face. Other aides without knowledge of lip reading are tilting their heads so that they do not know well.

..... I do not understand it somewhat, but I'm sorry.

Chapter 331: Tea party of the whole territory Part 1

---

"We gathered attendees, Rosemain says, please remember the names and territories of all."

The Liselaer has presented a list of candidates for lord who attend the tea party hosted by Ehrenfest, or a list of senior nobility on behalf of the agent.

The name of the territory, the name of the participant and the appearance features, and the personal preference that is likely to be raised in the topic are written.

... .. Uh い, do you remember all this?

Since there are no pictures, it is hard to find a face at all. I was breathed carefully as I was given the document.

"Here we summarize the features and specialties of each of the territories, will they help us a little?"

Philline said so and put the materials on top. It seems that he gathered information obtained at the tea ceremony where they attended together with Hartmut. I can not dismiss the favor of the Filines.

"I will remember hard."

"Because Rosemain returned home without socializing, it is hard work."

"I'm still saved on that day as I can help the older brother Wilfriit, if I was alone, I really would have been in trouble."

Since I call out to all the territory, this organizer is a group name of me and Wilfriit. Due to knowing that Wilfried is going to participate, candidates for lords of men seemed to be easy to express and participate, and it was supposed that men would participate by any number of people.

I managed to glance at the list and learn how I managed to remember about invited guests.

..... Well, Classeburg is like Egrandine. Dunkel Ferger ... .. that? It is not Restzlaut. Hannaore, senior. Yaba. I can not think of a face at all though it is the same grade. What kind of boy? Is not Dreve Engel a first year student, a sister of a fifth grade comes? Ho Ho!

It may have been because I finished the lecture quickly, but I do not remember even the candidate of lords of the same grade at all. Candidate candidate who remembers a little bit has older brother 's son, and it is supposed to be there. Perhaps Dunkel Ferger is not his older brother, Lestylau, but comes out first-year student Hannorore because I am disliked by Restillaut.

..... I hope to have a friendly relationship with Mr. Hannaore. Oh, but Hannaore likes Ditter as well. If it became friendly, I wonder if Ditters and Ditters are noisy again? Well.

"Rosemain, Wilfried-sama, Ehrenfest came in. I heard that it is impossible to get the goods so far because of territorial opposition.

Justkus came into the multipurpose hall with a response from Ehrenfest. I was asking for the reinforcement of supplies for the fight against the territory, but it seems that the limit has been indicated and I have returned.

"What do you mean by what ?!"?

Although Vilfried's older brother lifted his eyes and was angry, I embraced the impression that I am trying hard to help out in a surprising way.

There is a game against territory every year. Since the budget prepared for the House of Lords should be decided, it can not be increased so much. Probably, in anticipation of the future business and the lord conference, it must have increased the number of times.

"Have not you tried harder than you expected, it is useless, you should try it originally, is not it?"

"Rosemain? That's not enough at all"

"... Because there is still a high sugar level, I can not help it, so if I can not easily increase my budget, I'm doing my best I can only do something about it later."

In the two years in which I am sleeping, although it is getting somewhat circulated among aristocrats, it is still expensive, and it is rather easy to be short-lived items. It is natural that it is impossible to do everything for defense against territory.

"But, then you can not satisfy customers with opposing territorial warfare"

"Wilfried's older brother, do you know how many people will see the royal family?"

"It is certain that Ignats had been looking at it"

I am turning to Villefried, reflecting that Wilfriit's civilian fishing begins to fish the material at the edge of sight.

"If there is a kettle curl for holding royalty and Ausbia and his wife, let's treat it for the moment.

"If it is limited to royalty and Ausb and Mrs and Mrs and Mrs and Mrs Andrews, what shall we do, but what about other nobles?"

"... ... It is first come first serve"

"Wow?"

"It is finished in a first-come-first-served basis, where it is gone"

Vilfried opened his eyes as if I was frightened by the words.

"What is it that such things are allowed?"

"Whether it will be forgiven or not will not be allowed, the sleeves can not swing, only the royalty and the awes and wives will have it, only if the royalty and the couple are alone, if there are seats for the other aristocrats, cattle curls Just take home the souvenirs. When it goes away, I'm waiting again next year, please come back. "

"Rosemain Princess, indeed so excuse me for other nobles"

It was also dismissed from Justoks. It is good to have the royalty and the awesome wife in the order of identification, but it is unlikely to ignore the entire aristocracy in other territories. Since graduates 'lovers' parents come along, it seems that they have to accept to a certain extent.

"Well, how about royalties and Ausbos and their wife getting entertained to the adoptive father and the foster mother, and how is it that we and the willyfried elder brother entertain the nobles? The one whose lover's parents can predict in advance such as parents I think that acceptance is possible if you reserve seats on application, let's win first prize for aristocrats who stop by on the day. "

"If so, a bit ... ...."

"Fortunately, there is a little tea party organized by me and a little room for social budget because the tea party involving Wilfriit's brother was undoubtedly the minimum. Of course, You can not prepare everything, even if you turn it into a fight against the territory. "

"Nuu ....."

Wilfried who made her face shine for a moment only as budget increases will also make it a difficult face.

"I have to think about what you do best with what you do in a limited way, you will be satisfied with the customer. I like my brother Wilfried as I am not socializing among aristocrats Though, "

"What?"

"As long as there are limitations on the number of people accepted, I can only think of refusing it. Of course we will distribute the priority right next year, we will cut off some cottage curls that will become souvenirs, we will add something But .... "

"I see. Let's think about a bit."

With that kind of feeling, it was on the day of the tea ceremony, while preparing for the large tea ceremony and the fight against the territory in parallel.

The room for tea ceremony given to Ehrenfest is in the room on the first floor, which is close to the stairs to the kitchen on the basement floor. It is for easy preparation of tea and confectionery.

The door where the customer enters is connected to the central building of the House of Lords and anyone can enter it, but the door of the one connected to the dormitory is the same as the entrance door, so that it is not allowed to enter unless it is a dormitory student.

I entered the tea party room prepared by the students and checked and confirmed whether there is no incompleteness or whether tea and confectionery are sufficiently prepared.

And we will consult with Mr. Wilfried to share with you. Since I sent an invitation to all the territory in one stroke, so many customers come. I alone can not pass tea ceremonies.

"Klassenburg and its alumni will be left to Rosemain, I will give priority to those who are familiar with male customers and first grade lectures, then those who have become familiar with some of the tea ceremonies that presented their face"

"Very helpful, Wilfried brother"

Three bells began to ring while I was checking the list with the information that the civil apprentices summarized. From now on, everyone comes out of the dormitory, so we have to wait. Everyone starts with each placement.

It seems that the customer came earlier than the bell finished ringing. A side job apprentice waiting to open the door in a small bell ringing behind the door looked back over with an amazing face.

"Arends Bach 's Dietlinde came."

The door can be opened in front of everyone who is in a position with quick ear. Although preparations were completed, Dietlinde who looked round the inside wrapped his face a little and shyly shrieked, gently putting his hands on his cheeks.

"Did not you end up looking forward to it? It sounds like it was a little too early, it's embarrassing, it's embarrassing, if I were you, who is the one you've been improving?"

Should it be fun as it was and how should I receive it obediently, is not it time for me to be promised? It is a very troubling look whether to accept it as a disgusting impression.

"No, Dear Linde, I'm pleased to be looking forward to hearing you sooner than the bell ring. Welcome you."

"Well, I'm looking forward to seeing Villefried,"

..... Oh, it sounds like a disgust.

In the smile that is directed to me, only the eyes of the dark green are not smiling. In a way it is a very easy-to-understand person.

"Dietlinde says he wanted to see Virfriit's older brother"

"Since we celebrated the tea party organized by Villefried, a tea ceremony between my cousin's brother and Dunkel Ferger"

"I am happy to see you too"

"Oh, it is an attitude that I fear a lot today, I'd like to say that I am anxious like this one, but there are a lot of people today."

Deitlinde's opponent left it to Villefried as he wanted, and I instructed the students to prepare tea and confectionery. Wilfried escorts Dietlinde to a prepared seat and takes him and recommends his seat.

While Dietlinde's side preparing tableware and cutlery, Mr. Villefried eaten tea and confectionery prepared in front of himself one by one.

"Dietlinde, this is Cuttlefield, now sweets are prevalent in Ehrenfest, three kinds are prepared today."

Three types of honey and ferritinettes, rumutopf entered were prepared. Of course, besides crockery, some preparations of sweets as usual are prepared.

"This was invented by Rosemain"

"Well, why is the sweets served at the temple? It is a simple appearance, but the taste is very good, is not it?"

"I am glad that you like it."

..... Well, I'm pretty good at laughing, but that is said to be somewhat disgusting among the compliments that poor sweets that I think are raised by the temple. I do not notice, Mr. Villefried elder brother.

Would not it be a serious condition just because Wilfriit had heard about it, or that he did not notice the disgust and intentions as well as the tea party of my cousin and his brother who said Vil Fried's brother ended very peacefully. I am getting worried very much.

After guiding Dietlinde to the seat, customers began to arrive one after another. Wilfriit and two of us stood near the entrance and greeted, and we will leave the guidance for the seats after this to the side workers.

"Mr. Ryder, welcome to come"

"I'm glad you invited me, Mr. Rosemain, I wanted to speak slowly once."

Ehrenfest and Fröbel Tak are in good relations, we also want to get along as our cousin 's sister relationship, he smiled. It is familiar if it is so told so that it looks like Wilfried. At the same time, I am trying to fit my line of sight by bending my body, which is basically overlooked and the point is high.

"I am an adopted daughter, but do you admit Ryudiger as a cousin?"

"I want to make friends as much as I can"

If you are a foster parent, I would like to make friends as much as possible with Froebel Turk. Wilfriit was greeted by another guest next to laughingly laughing.

"Hannero, welcome you"

"Thank you for inviting me, Mr. Villefried. I am really looking forward to today, Rosemain ... .. I'm busy, so I will greet you again later."

While talking to Ryudiger, as far as a glimpse, Hannorore was a girl who seemed quiet that could not be thought of as a younger sister of Restyrat suddenly attacked. Both pale pink and yellow are tied in two colors that seems to be purple as well. It seemed like a rabbit that the naked eye, the red eyes looking round the circumference.

"Mr. Rosemain, thank you for your invitation. Please let me introduce my friends today."

More than half of the seats were buried when Egrantine ran roaringly with friends. I received greetings by Egrantine, I was introduced to my friend, and surrounded by my sister.

I will leave customers who come later to Villefried and recommend seating for Egrantine and his alumni. Because it is a friend of the highest grade Egrantine, there are many people of the upper grade. However, unlike expectations, there were more friends in small and medium-sized regions than in the large territory. The large territory is about 5th grade of Durevanhel 3rd place.

"Have you been sleeping in Yereve for two years after being touched by serious poison, but still you heard a story from his brother that Rosemain is very good. Today as well, today the first year students are coming, I wanted to, but I wanted to see Rosemain sanctually by all means "

"Rosemain-sama is really small, when you see it in close proximity"

Their eyes surrounding me seem to resemble the nori who says "cute" looking at little children. Of course, because it is a candidate for a lord, I wonder if she thinks of various things behind that smile.

I wonder if it is friendly because of its small appearance. Because it was introduced as a friend of Egrantine, is it friendly? I was thinking about how to deal with them.

As social occasion season is about to end, senior nobility who seems to be a candidate for lords and attending as a substitute seems to be familiar with, and when all the people gathered, a conversation has already begun. I will be surrounded by Egranthine and its alumni, and nature and Wilfried will head towards where I am familiar.

"Ehrenfest's Cattle Curl is simple but it's very tasty, I also like Prince Anastigius."

When Egrantine introduced the kettle curl, several people shimmered their face as if waiting.

"I got a little at the tea party of the afternoon at Egrantine, and the flavor of Filiginee was good."

"That cattle car was the one that Rosemain brought with you the other day, and my hairdress of my graduation ceremony was created by Prince Anastigius asking Ehrenfest to make it very delicately of"

..... Egrantine, I had already spread it to my friends. Maji Goddess.

I am better at influencing than I will spread the fashion. I think that I want to follow an apprentice, but it seems to be quite difficult.

"What is the effect of Ehrenfest on the beauty of Egrantine's hair and beautiful? Today the hair of Ehrenfest's women is shining more than usual"

Yes, today as well as a promotion ceremony for Lincian appeal, I used Lincian in everyone. The hair of the side-by-side doors hanging on the hill is glossy.

"Rosemain's hair is exquisite. Would you mind let me touch a little?"

"Oh, please."

Instead of being touched by alternate hair, being praised for luster, envied, you are asking for Lin Shan 's deal. But in this place I was supposed to say nothing.

"Unfortunately, we do not have anything to say about AuB Ehrenfest in terms of trading, so why not just say a sample or just a little if you can divide it a little?"

"Well, are you OK?"

"Because there are limits, it will be your friends' priority, but ..."

I can not say I am a friend in my life by fishing with things, but I can not tell a friend of myself, but it is natural that interests will be involved if the lords are candidates. Since Ehrenfest is a weak territory, if there is no merit of becoming a friend, it will not come closer. As long as there is an influential Egrantine, I have to bear friendship with others as much as possible.

"I will prepare for my side, then I will greet other people."

"Tea ceremony where all of these people gather together is serious, please do your best."

I received an ale of Eglantine and that alumnus, and I came out of that group. Then, watch out for Bryn Hilde, send a signal to prepare Lintian 's sample, greet and speak to the people who greeted them first.

"I was thinking that I wanted to be with you early, but since I had to return to Ehrenfest, I am sorry to have a tea party in such a period. I am pleased to have taken a visit. "

"Mr. Rosemain was brought up in the temple before becoming an admirer of the lord? I still have to participate in the ritual of the temple. I have never entered a foot such as a temple, I do not know how much work I am, but it is very hard. "

The words of Dietlinde who said so with a worried look grudgingly felt squirming around her. Even though I knew that I was an admirer of the lord, it seems that there were not many people who knew that I grew up in the temple and I still do the temple of the temple.

I heard a voice called "Growing up a temple?" There are some people who have eyes that are contemptuous in that sound and find elephants that can attack.

..... Is it inconvenient for you to worry about your living being revealed? Feeling bad.

I will return home every year from the dedication ceremony. It is a troublesome thing to keep weak points of "growing up the temple" as it is. In this way you only have to stand.

I looked around and went nicely and laughed.

"Well, as you mentioned by Dietlinde, I grew up in the shrine because of the circumstances of my family. While I am at the request of Aub Ehrenfest that I am participating in the ordinance of the temple now. Ehrenfest is in need of magical power to tailor a child to a saint and perform a ceremony. I am envious of Arensbach in the large territory where there is nothing to be troubled with magical power .. Hey, Wilfried brother Mr"

"Well ... I am also participating in the temple event and filling the territory with magical power, it is serious but filling the magical power into the territory is an important job as a family lord and there is worth it.Of course, Even if the candidate students do not move, there is also a feeling of envying the large territory full of magical power. "

Following the boost of Villefried, I will direct the envy's eyes to Dietlinde, "I'd like you to divide a lot of magical powers." It seems that the irony to Ahrensbach, which is losing ranking while in the large territory, seemed to have passed. Dietlinde narrowed his eyes darker than I felt.

"Because there are many tough places in the small and medium-sized territories, I feel envious of the large territory"

Rudiger said that with a gentle smile.

"In a situation that was so painful, Ehrenfest was helping the troubled Fröbel Turk, Fröbel Tak very grateful to the Eleenfest's saint."

"I am glad that you thought like that, Ryu Diguer"

"I'd like to help each other with Ehrenfest"

..... Is that what you want from now on? Or is it a word that leads to a marriage talk rejected among parents?

The idea of Fröbel Tak is not clear yet. I understood that I am being thankful, but I do not know what I am asking from now.

Avoid expressions in Rudiger's words, I decided to smile with Nicolle.

Chapter 332: Tea party of the whole territory Part 2

---

"Every territory is serious now, is not it?"

From the small and medium-sized territory, such agreed words rose. I was not bored at all at all, but most of the nobles actually suffered from political change and dramatically changed their lives, or they remarkably felt the change remarkably close to the center.

It seems that everywhere is influenced more than anything else, compared with Ehrenfest where only the number of people has decreased, as Justice says that his appearance has changed a lot.

"Rosemain says that you are in need of magical power, but Ehrenfest has also raised its grades, and is not there a new epidemic spreading?"

"First of all I thought of trying hard from where I do not need magical powers, of course, I have to work hard to bring up magical powers, though,"

The result of Ehrenfest graduated with Gun was a lecture that does not require magical power, and it was not a new magical tool, etc. that made it popular, but sweets and accessories. When I explained that it is trying to compete with another thing if magical power is not enough, a convincing voice rose.

"I thought that Rosemain's hair ornament was very nice, so there is something I can do for the territory other than magical power as such"

At the same time, if someone took an embarrassment and thought about it a little, the voice saying "Are not you trying hard to use magical powers?" When I look to that side, the eyes of a senior aristocratic male who is absent and participates instead instead of the candidate lords are turned on.

"My first sister's sister was making a ride-on-type coward, but it seems that Rosemain was also considered here. How did you think of such a coward?"

"I always thought that I would be able to move so that my body is weak and not as hurting as possible as possible"

It is bad for the people who are impressed with the reasons for repairing, but it is a lie. It was only a car type to think of it as being said to be a vehicle.

"It can be particularly useful for women because we can ride a cowardly beast without changing clothes for cow beasts and can load luggage, but because it is hard to use weapons, it is suitable for knights Otherwise my escort knight has said that. "

Ho, I got a voice that I admired.

"I think that the idea is wonderful, but it is rumored that Rosemain-sama's beast model imitates a monster, and that it hit my Ahrensbach's dormitorial supervisor with that beast came Although it seems that it was a misunderstanding in the long run, it should have been caused by mimicking the figure of the monster, did not the surrounding people stop making that shape, or Rosemain Do you like such terrible things? "

The surrounding gaze gathers again in the word of Dietrinde. Wherever you say "Lesser you are cute", maybe you do not understand anyone.

When thinking what to do, Wilfried shrugged his shoulders.

"Because Rosemain's cavalry aims at strength, it has become such a demon, because Rosemain's weakness is longing for strong ones and likes, even in man, the knight's head Bonifatius, Ferdinand and Karstedd ... .... "

.....Huh? I am planning to follow, but it is not. Something's wrong, Brother Wilfried! I said when I liked a strong person! Is it?

Although I do not know where I felt in such a follow-up, I do not know whether it's acting, but Dietlinde aimed me with a filled eye of mercy that I was worrying about terribly worried.

"That was right ... .. It is quite understandable that a weak one asks for strength, but since it is a woman, you better ask for love than strength."

Some are nodding in the words of Dietrinde, others follow me.

"If Rosemain sought strength, does not it seem to get along with Dunkel Ferger, do not you think so, do you like Hannallore? ... Oh, what about Dan Kel Ferger's Hannallore?"
"It seems that we are out of seats a while ago because of your water."

..... It seems like Mr. Hannerer did not like to greet another again. Something's wrong with me today, I.

"Ready, Rosemain sama"

A small voice was spoken to Brünhild and I went back to the people with Egratines while watching the vacant seats. From now on, we will give Lintian 's free samples to your friends.

When I returned to the table, I was surrounded by exciting eyes that I felt excited. I saw the gloss of the hair of the female members of Ehrenfest and I saw that there are many women who are interested in Lincian, witnessing that the gloss of Egrantine's hair is increasing.

With a bitter smile, when I got a small jar from Brunhild, I saw the appearance that Hannaore returned to the edge of sight. It is completely missing. I'd like to exchange words somehow by the time it is over.

Thinking that way, I will distribute the small bottle to the friends who introduced me by Egranthine, taking care that the ranks are not mistaken in the fifth grade of Dorevankel.

"Please go ahead and let me explain how to use it later"

"Well, thank you."

When he was giving out, I saw that his line of sight was also pointed out by the people Wilfriit was facing. However, I advise you not to say anything to the people who have become your friends.

"Does it smell very nice and I like it very much."

In the words of Egranthine, those who enjoyed the fragrance by opening a lid like a cork of a small bottle raised an admiration voice. There will be preference for each, but this time I do not know who will be going to distribute to anyone, so I make it all the same fragrant lincian as Egranthine.

"Bruhn Hilde, teach us how to use it for everyone's hands"

"Certainly, Rosemain-sama"

When Brunhild was gathering the friends' handling and beginning to teach how to use Lincian, it came out towards us as to say that those who did not receive the sample were unable to endure.

"Rosemain, what is that? It will smell very good"

"Lintian is said to be used to make the hair glossy, as there are a limited number, I thought to distribute it to my friends this time,"

"Oh, you do not distribute to friends like Villefriit? It is a candidate for the lord of the same Ehrenfest ... ...."

Dietlinde lightly watched Wilfried. Wilfried who was looking at from the surroundings shrugs his shoulders with a small laugh.

"It is Rosemain that invented Lincian, and unlike women, I am not interested in the gloss of hair so much, so I basically leave things related to such beauty to Rosemain."

Some of the male customers smiled bitterly at the place where I was not interested in the gloss of the hair. You must be thinking that you can not understand the lady who changes the color of eyes to Lin Shan just like Wilfried.

"That's right ... .. Rosemain, can you do it for me?"

"Dear Linde, sir?"

.....Yes? Why do you think you can receive so much confidence?

Perhaps it is ordered from the candidate of the lord of the large territory that "Please also move here". I am inclined to an unexpected development and I am puzzled without knowing how to deal with it.

"I do not want to say, Mr. Dietlinde, did not you mention that Rosemain will be distributed to your own friends, I think that your behavior from the way you were not too much for your friends"

Egrantine, the first lord of the Klostenburg lord, blamed the child with a soft smile, and a friend named Lincian earlier agreed with it as if he agreed.

..... Oh, in order to get protected from domineering power like this, intermediate and lower aristocrats belong to a strong faction even a little and can flock.

Ehrenfest must obey, if Ahrensbach is ordered, but if a higher position Klassenburg stops, then Arendsbach has to withdraw.

For the first time I realized the position of intermediate and lower aristocrat because I was caught by Egrandine who is not my parents or guardian. At the same time, I learned what they wanted at the top of my faction.

..... I, at the House of Lords, I have to give myself to be able to become friends as much as possible as a high-ranking territory, and when I return to Ehrenfest, I have to defend my faction's intermediate and lower aristocracy as a top group of factions .

However, even if Egrantine was caught in the mouth, Dietlinde did not give up. As I was surprised, I opened my eyes of the dark green once and blinked a couple of times, after seeing it, I felt sadly shaking my eyelashes, saying, "It is not my mind to watch it like that from everyone."

"I am always worried about Rosemain sama, it is an important cousin who made a hard feeling asleep for two years"

.....Huh? Huh? An important cousin? Who's who?

"Perhaps, it may have been a bit talky to someone else but it is a love of ours, Rosemain says he knows Rosez Mine, is not he?"

.....I do not know. This is not the case.

Too much brilliantly returned the palm, I was listening to Dietlinde's spirit while keeping it warm, but I hurriedly deny the words of Dietlinde. If you do not deny it exactly by yourself, all Dietlinde's words go through.

"..... I was a cousin of Dietlinde, I heard that for the first time like that"

"I hate it, I was misunderstood by Rosemain, too,"

What a sad thing, and with a long time the appearance of Diem Linde is in place, the surroundings, especially the men's team, distracts his eyes gently.

... .. It's not misunderstanding, I think it's understanding. What shall I do, this farce. How can I keep it?

"Rosemain, all misunderstood, are not you my precious cousin?"

Dietlinde seems to push through this farce, even though eyes that are whitened from Egranthine and its surroundings are aimed.

"Princess, how about if you give Lincyan to the cousin's Dietlinde?"

While Goudruon is smiling with a smile, hold a small bottle held by Brünhild and gently give it to my hand. At the same time, I could see a paper saying "Buy the position as a cousin of the lord of Ahrensbach in the presence of the public."

I decided to distribute Lincian to my friends for protection. It may not be bad to buy the position of a cousin, as the words of Guoodrun.

..... It's very stupid because it's been said that you wanted me to tell you the truth.

"I did not think that Dietlinde thought of me as an important cousin. Please do get along with me as a cousin from now on"

If you declare a candidate for the lords of all the territory before, it will be difficult to handle insolent. I smile with my smile and hand out the small bottle of Lincian. Dietlinde gladly smiled at receiving the small bottle.

"Well, let's get along well, Rosemain sama"

By giving a sample to Dietlinde, I also wanted other samples from other women. After counting the number of people, now it seems that the women who are flocking can manage to make it.

After distributing samples and explaining how to use it, the story will change about how Egrantine gets graduation ceremony and receives anastusgeus escort.

"It was because Rosemain helped me to receive an escort from Prince Anastigius"

"Did you do so? Please let me know in detail."

The story of who the royal family escorts seems to be politically very important, not only women but male customers are listening to the story of Egranthine.

"Even so, Rosemain was already returning to Ehrenfest during the time socialization began, but there was an exchange with Egrantine."

"The first tea ceremony was when I was invited by teachers of music and then invited me to a tea ceremony before returning. The time to be in the lords is limited, I made friends with Egrandine, I really felt strongly. "

The surroundings have become surprising expressions, they started socializing very much early, but Dietlinde became a worrying expression to sympathize.

"Because Egrantine is already graduated, is not she so shaky?"

"Well, really, Dietlinde is worried. Even if you do not worry so much, you promised me that Rosemain and I will continue to make friends from now on."

Egrantine smiles against me while checking Dietlinde. I smiled at such smile of a goddess.

"Oh, Rosemain-sama ..."

A small trembling voice hit me, and when I turned there, I grasped my hand tightly in front of my chest and Dan Kel Ferger's Hannale was standing with a face like a big decision.

"Mr. Hannalole"

"I wanted to say to Rosemain, ... ...."

.....Was good. Finally I can say hello.

I had him get down from the chair and stood in front of Hannaore. If anything, Hannaore is a small person, but it is definitely bigger than me. When I looked up, I saw that the red eyes like a rabbit were swaying and shaken.

"I thought that I had to say properly, something that I did somewhat misunderstood"

I will greet another time. Then, after Hannore saw me as if he was puzzled, he greeted me to tune up.

.....that? Mr. Hannaret did not come to greetings? Did I fail?

I become uneasy Hannaore also looks at my surroundings looking uneasy. I found out that curious eyes are heading for us, as to what will begin.

"I had a story about my brother in Rosemain, but it is not something to say in such a place. Let's do it again."

What is it? Is there any impossible difficult problem relating to Les Tiluts?

He won with a strange idea at Ditter, Dunkel Ferger dismissed the request to become the Lord of Schwarz and refused the rematch request through the dormitories. Perhaps, it may be impossible to put a ridiculous impossible problem that people can not talk to in public.

"Not only that, I thought that I would be friends with that, ... ...."

Hannorore said so with a grueling mistake. I turn to paltry after turning his eyes to Brunhild.

..... It was seriously difficult for me! Unpalatable! There is no free sample anymore! Mr. Hannaret had been talking with Virfriit's older brothers for a long time, so I thought that Lincian was not interested. What should I do?

Perhaps it had to be brought here from the large territory. It is troubled even if it is told that "I want a sample" in the large territory after having distributed all the sample products. It is what I want you to assert for the first time as a highland estate. While suffering a sudden impossible task, I hold a head, I will speak frankly.

"Hannalee, I'm very sorry, but I have already handed out samples."

".....Huh?"

The eyes that have been opened once in astonishment are fell down, and the head is shaken slowly several times. It may be that some expressions have disappeared from other people because of a slight depression, but from me that is shorter than Hannerro, the face I'm disappointed with so seemingly to cry is visible.

..... Oh! I was really disappointed! What should I do? Help him, Justks!

When I looked back to Guderoun unexpectedly, Goody Ruin smiled and smiled came quietly and stood behind me.

"Mr. Rosemain, Mr. Hannerre of Dunkel Ferger is in the library and I heard from Professor Sorangju. How about lending a book of a princess as a proof of your friend?"

Guttruern said so gently while holding down my shoulder. I opened my eyes wide and looked back to Guoodrun, I nodded one by one as if it was no mistake. The question of whether we got such information from Sorange for a while but it was over my head only for a moment but was immediately filled with important information.

"Well! Does Mr. Hannero like books?"

"... Well, yeah, that's true, I do not dislike it"

Hannorore who raised his face nodded. Although there are few candidates for lords who visit the library, Hannero often seems to go to the library. If I started reading at the library since I finished the lecture, it seems that Hannero has been appearing in the library since I came back to Ehrenfest. If it were not such a mistake, I should have been getting along well sooner.

..... Ooooo! Princess likes this book, I found it! I want to make friends. I definitely want to get along. This must be the guidance of the wisdom goddess Mestionora! Hoo!

I felt the tension went up so that I could pray to God anymore on the spot and I felt that magical powers running around inside the body, but indeed while there were so many candidates for lords, I was badly told that the temple was raised It is hesitant to offer prayers immediately afterwards, and I will endure it.

"Mr. Hannalole, I have a few knight stories, which is your favorite, which is the story that placed emphasis on battle and the story that focused on love? Because you are a candidate for a lord of Dunkel Ferger, you still have to fight Do you prefer a story that emphasizes on you? "

"I prefer a story centered on love rather than"

After thinking for a while, Hannaore said in a mouthful mouth. Just imagine the shy-looking Hannorore enjoying the love story, it gets better.

..... Hannale is like both, but I like the love story. Hmph.

Then, lend a story of the knight of love centered by mother, listen to the impressions and explore the preferences. Why, you may make a book together. The dream seems to infinitely inflate.

"Well, I will let you know soon, I am very pleased to have friends who like books,"

As I felt a smile full of smiles, Hinnallore also had a modest and lovable smile as if I was relieved. Then, after that, I struck my hands as if I had done it.

"Well, I will lend you some books instead, even from me, what kind of book do you like Rosemain?"

Well, what shall I do. Mr. Hannaore may be an angel. A valuable angel who will lend me a book. An angel of wisdom goddess Mestionora. Oh, my friend!

The moment I left my hand to excitement and joy, the moment I raised my hand to devote my prayers to God this time, the power of Guardrone on my shoulder gave me great power. It is said that "hold down" is understood by the power of the hand. I managed to look up at Hannaore while holding down the magical power that spun round and round in the body seeking an exit.

"I can do anything if it's a book, but I would like to read it if there are knight stories and love stories that could be transmitted to Dunkel Ferger if possible."

"I understand I will let you deliver it as soon as possible. Please do not get along, Rosemain sama"

Hannorore who smiled happily happily grabbed my hand with his hands halfway up halfway to give a prayer, tightly grasped.

..... What, this princess! It's really cute! I like cute books. What shall I do, I have found the best friend!

I love you too much for my lovely gesture of Hannaore.

"Please do not miss it, please, Hannaore's ... .."

So my consciousness ceased.

I noticed that I was in bed. I feel sigh in a sense familiar from long ago.

"... .. I did it after a long absence"

Apparently I seem to be too excited by my new good friends. Without giving prayer and without transferring magical power to the magic stone, the amount of magical power circulating in the body seems to have exceeded Papaun with the permissible amount which should have been enlarged and enlarged by Yrieve.

... ... When you recover, you have to go to apologize to Mr. Hannorore with a book.

Side Story: Ehrenfest's Tea Party

---

Episode 331 - 332 Episode of Hannorore in front of the tea ceremony of the whole territory and the second part.

---

I am Hannorore. I am enrolled as a candidate for a lord of Dunkel Ferger in a freshman of the House of Lords.

Today there is a large tea ceremony where Ehrenfest invites all the territories.

Because there was a female lord of a lord, the senior aristocrat reached the invitation immediately after Rosenmine returned to the aristocrat from Ehrenfest who could not hold a tea ceremony inviting candidates for other lords.

"It is quite annoying, the child who deceives that saint refused the offer of Dunkel Ferger, there is no need for Hanenerol to join the tea ceremony, too"

"No, I'd like to get acquainted with my older brother, Rosemain, once."

According to Lesty Loart's older brother, until now Ehrenfest opened a tea ceremony, but since he joined only the middle or lower territory, there is no need for Dunkel Ferger to participate.

However, I think that this is the guidance of the goddess Drettan Goa of time. I must have given the opportunity to apologize to Rosemain, who passed by all the while.

"Mr. Hannalole, Hancarole, please give Rosemain a rematch of Ditter by all means at the tea party"

Through Dr. Hirschle's teacher, "I responded primarily to the Dunkel Ferger of the library's Schmirs, but Rosemain is not a knight apprentice and I can not afford a rematch because I am a first grade student without entry qualification." Mr. Ruffen who refused Ditters saw me with eyes like a squint.

However, I think that the direction of Professor Hirschle is right.

"Because Rosemain had a long absence period, I heard from civil apprentices as busy as socializing, is not it that I can not afford to be very ditters?"

I declined to Ehrenfest whether I could open a tea party personally, but I was refused that Prince Anastigius and Eglantine of Klassenburg had already been invited.

Although it seems that it is thought that it wishes to connect with Ehrenfest who created the most varied epidemic of this year in other territories, though "It is a tea ceremony held by Ehrenfest, please participate in it" that everything was refused. There was a report from civil apprenticeship. I do not seem to be disliked.

"Well then, I will go, my older brother"

"I do not know what kind of means will be used by the partner, so that it is a tea ceremony, so as not to be distracted by anything, Hannaore, Cordura, also pay close attention to his side."

Lesty Lout Your older brother is worried. I was thinking for a long time as to whether I could manage to go to the invitation card of Ehrenfest, "I will ask participants by themselves to invite all the territory."

From the story of Mr. Rosemain who came from Wilfried sama, I do not think such a dangerous one. Dunkel Ferger's knights apprentices said, "Even though we tried to solve our own disadvantages and tried to win, we never got arrogated, despite the victory, staring at our weak points and the beauty of the partner calmly I have eyes that can be breathed "and have been praised for letting go.

..... Originally Dunkel Ferger is a land that emphasizes strength. I hope Rosemain is not disgusted with Mr. Ruffin 's request for rematch of Ditter, though.

I went out to the tea ceremony room at Ehrenfest with carefully not to be too early, as fast as possible, as soon as the 3 bell rang and leave the dormitory.

Cordura touches the magic stone attached to the door with 13 tags, and gently lights the bell that informs of the visit. It was Wilfried-sama who opened the door slowly and greeted me.

"Hannero, welcome you"

"Thank you for inviting me, Mr. Villefried. I am really looking forward to today."

Although I should have come early, I saw Dietlinde who has already arrived. And Rosemain is talking with Ruudiger of Fröbel Tak.

"I am an adopted daughter, but do you admit Ryudiger as a cousin?"

"I want to make friends as much as I can"

..... It is enviable that Mr. Rudiger is easy to talk to Rosemain sama like that.

"Rosemain seems to be busy ... .. I will greet you again later."

In retrospect of our bad side, I gently breathed out.

Dear Wilfried, we got a seat, and when we arrived at the house, Dietrinde smiled and smiled. Dietrinde is a candidate for a lord of Arensbach in the highland, I have been invited to the tea ceremony several times this year for the Lesty Loough brother and classmate.

It is a beautiful older sister who has fluffy gold hair and dark green eyes and is coming as a son-in-law to Ahrensbach, he seems to be in trouble because there is no gentleman who balances magical power with a good turning circle.

..... Those who have to aim for the next lord owner seem to have trouble.

I have never thought of becoming the lord of Dunkel Ferger, and would be bound to those of the right territory to support your older brother. In the badness and confidence between me, my fathers said it was difficult to marry to the royal family. To be honest, I am a little relieved.

When we talked a bit with Dietlinde, customers are coming in one after another, and Egrandine of Krusselsburg also came.

"Mr. Rosemain, thank you for your invitation. Please let me introduce my friends today."

Egrantine apparently seems to be interacting with Rosemain. Rosemain says she is expressing her greeting with a smart smile.

I caught a glimpse of Rosemain, who was introduced to my friend Egrantine and surrounded by my sister. If there is an exchange with Krussenburg's Egranthine, I may not get along with me.

In the former political change, both Klostenburg and Dunkel Verger attached to the 5th Prince, but with the use of the former principal Egrandine who holds Egrandine, the territories are a bit tense. is.

..... Ehrenfest was neutral, so there is still hope. Wilfried-sama does not challenge me, so it seems to be on good terms with Ahrensbach, so I'm surely okay.

Thinking that far, I made it happy. Ehrenfest is neutral. Rosemain is in charge of socializing with Klostenburg and there may be social relations with Dunkel Ferger and Ahrensbach like Vilfried.

..... I do not know how bad the connection is.

I was caught crackling and I stretched out my spine in a hurry. You can not show the depressed figure at the tea party.

"Cordura, I want to remove a little seat."

I devote myself to your hands and I will remove my seat once. And I got nervous and depressed in a single room, I sighed a lot.

... ... Do not get depressed. The tea ceremony has just begun.

Dunkel Fergus also learns of Ehrenfest and I can socialize with Ahrensbach and others as usual so that I can do socializing with the neutral territory like Ehrenfest.

..... I decided to apologize to Rosemain today.

When I regained my feelings and returned to my seat, I saw that Rosemain was giving out small bottles to my friends.

When returning to the seat, one of the side apprentices who had seen the state of the tea ceremony sighed to Cordura somehow, and Cordura closed his eyes tightly once.

"Did you have something?"

"It seems that a bit was wrong, and Rosemain got a greeting while the princess is unseating her seat."

..... I, perhaps it is truly spoiled by the goddess Dreppan Goa of time.

I feel like I'm breaking up again.

"Rosemain, what is that? It will smell very good"

"Lintian is said to be used to make the hair glossy, as there are a limited number, I thought to distribute it to my friends this time,"

"Oh, you do not distribute to friends like Villefriit? It is a candidate for the lord of the same Ehrenfest ... ...."

Dietrinde gazed lightly and turned his eyes to Wilfried. Wilfriit-sama who was looking from the surroundings grazed his shoulders with a small laugh.

"It is Rosemain that invented Lincian, and unlike women, I am not interested in the gloss of hair so much, so I basically leave things related to such beauty to Rosemain."

I heard that Wynfried says that Lincian is fashionable to make the hair shiny at Ehrenfest. I realized that I was listening to the students' story about being spread around Rosemain. However, I first heard that Rosemain was invented.

..... Rosemain is not only studying and doctor but also the idea of Lincian! Is it?

I was stunned by the difference between myself who was desperately doing the position of candidate of lords of the large territory desperately.

While I am staggering, Dietlinde begins Linchein 's request for Rosemain.

"Rosemain, can you do it for me?"

"I do not want to say, Mr. Dietlinde, did not you mention that Rosemain will be distributed to your own friends, I think that your behavior from the way you were not too much for your friends"

Like Rosemain blinking like being embarrassed, Egranthine is blamed with a soft smile, and friends nodding ginshin earnestly agree with it.

Apparently, while I was out of the seat, Dietlinde seemed to have been told to be unable to think like a friend.

Then Dietrinde's self-defense began and appealed Rosemain as an important cousin.

"I did not think that Dietlinde thought of me as an important cousin. Please do get along with me as a cousin from now on"

Rosemain says he smiles with a smile and hands out a small bottle of Lincian. Dietrinde received a small bottle and smiled happily. Obviously Rosemain says that he gave up, and I was impressed with the unprecedented response.

When Dietlinde gets Lincyan, I will also gather women around me.

"Is Mr. Hannalole OK?"

"..... I think that I want to make friends with Rosemain, regardless of Lincian, and I will come to greet you after the topic of Lincian."

I do not want to be thought of as an object, I waited for the topic of Lincian to end. Even if my brother apologizes after receiving Lincian, I do not think he will reach my heart.

The topic moves from Egrantine 's hair ornament to graduation ceremony. Thinking that as a great opportunity, I headed to Rosemain.

..... Goddess of time Dolphin Goa may have protection.

Tightly hold my hand in front of my chest, I will take a deep breath once and then speak to Rosemain.

"Oh, Rosemain-sama ..."

"Mr. Hannalole"

"I wanted to say to Rosemain, ... ...."

When I looked towards Rosemain san who was handed down from the chair, it was natural, but I noticed that my spine was much shorter than me. I was often told that it was smaller than the age, and I met a classmate who was smaller than me for the first time.

Because I thought that Dunkel Ferger was disliked by my brother and Ditter, I felt a little relieved that Rosemain looked up at me slightly and smiled happily .

... ... I apologize for my brother's deed. And to your friends ... ....

It was at the same time that I opened my mouth with the power in my holding hand, and Rosemain opened my mouth.

"I thought that I had to say properly, something that I did somewhat misunderstood"

..... I was about to apologize without saying hello to Rosemain!

Although I did not do bad things that would make me want to hold my head, when I saw Rosemain singing well received, he said, "I am not suitable for a candidate for a lord" I want to get it.

Although I felt depressed, somehow I corrected the spot and gave a proper greeting. However, Rosemain sama looks like a worried face.

... .. Maybe, did Rosemain notice that Mr. Rosezain was about to completely forget the greeting?

I was worried that something had failed and looked around. I find out that curious eyes are heading for us as to what will start, and the blood will draw slowly. While attracting such a lot of attention, I can not apologize by explaining my brother's failure. I want to apologize, and my older brother does not officially apologize, so I must apologize to Rosemain sneakily secretly.

"I had a story about my brother in Rosemain, but it is not something to say in such a place. Let's do it again."

..... Will I really apologize?

As for your brother's work, it is good to apologize "I am sorry at that time". I am friends with Rosemain.

... .. Will you be friends with us?

While throbbing, I asked Rosemain sama.

"Not only that, I thought that I would be friends with that, ... .."

"Hannalee, I'm very sorry, but I have already handed out samples."

".....Huh?"

When I blink your eyes on unexpected reply, Rosemain says his eyes are looking down on my side as if it is really frustrating.

It seems that I thought that I did not want to be thought of as an objective.

..... I got a form that imposed an impossible task, as if I passed on missing things. I did not plan to do that. What should I do? I just wanted to get along with Rosemain somewhat.

I can not restrain my face from falling down, and I will slowly head a few times with a slight depression and saying "I am different."

"Mr. Rosemain, Mr. Hannerre of Dunkel Ferger is in the library and I heard from Professor Sorangju. How about lending a book of a princess as a proof of your friend?"

As I told you in a gentle speaking voice, when I raised my face as a crap, Rosemain - sama 's side suggested so.

"Well! Does Mr. Hannerro like books?"

Ruzemain looked up at me, as the embarrassed face of the past turned into a smiling face that shined brightly. Here we can not say that "I am going for the library to see Sumir and for searching for Rosemain, especially I do not like books."

"... Well, yeah, that's true, I do not dislike it"

As I answered, it was glad that Rosemain dyed his cheeks rose and golden eyes shined. It looks like Rosemain says how you like books at a glance.

"Mr. Hannalole, I have a few knight stories, which is your favorite, which is the story that placed emphasis on battle and the story that focused on love? Because you are a candidate for a lord of Dunkel Ferger, you still have to fight Do you prefer a story that emphasizes on you? "

..... I do not like either of them, but if anything, the story that centered on love is reading and less pain.

"I prefer a story centered on love rather than"

"Well, I will let you know soon, I am very pleased to have friends who like books,"

I was told so with a pretty lovely smile to Rosemain sama smaller than myself, I felt like I was a little older sister.

..... It seems that somehow my favorite friend has been accredited, but somehow it seems that Rosemain and I became friends. If you borrow a book as a testimony of your friend, is not it better to borrow from here?

The book is very expensive. Because it says to lend it, Rosemain says that I trust here. I must offer things that deserve it.

"Well, I will lend you some books instead, even from me, what kind of book do you like Rosemain?"

"I can do anything if it's a book, but I would like to read it if there are knight stories and love stories that could be transmitted to Dunkel Ferger if possible."

While Rosemain says so, he smiled like a melancholy smile. I understand well that I am happy and it can not be helped. It was much more frustrating than when I was handling tea ceremony and it looked like a smile for the year.

"I understand I will let you deliver it as soon as possible. Please do not get along, Rosemain sama"

I took a small hand like Rosemain and put a little effort, I gripped Rosemain again.

"Please do not miss it, please, Hannaore's ... .."

While saying that with a smile, Rosemain fell down on the spot.

I fell to the place like a puppet whose string fell at the moment I grasped my hand and I was sitting on the spot without being able to understand what was happening with that momentum.

"... .. Eh, Kyaaaaaaaaaaa!"

"Rosemain!"

"Wilfried, please do not take this place. I will bring the princess to the room."

Rosemain's sideboarding says "It is a common thing" while holding Rosemain sama and returning to the dormitory.

While the surroundings are becoming turbulent, Wilfriit-sama and Ehrenfest dormitories say that "Rosemain is weak and can often collapse."

"Well, because I held my hand?"

"Different, Mr. Hannalole, Rosemain is really infirm"

"I do not think that it will be such a thing ... .. just wanting to make friends with Rosemain sama ... .."

"There is not really a big deal this time, for example when I first meet ... .."

Talking about things that took serious trouble by running a hand on the day of Rosemain's baptism, losing consciousness by putting several snowballs and turning the knight into a deep blue, "I will comfort you.

Still, Rosemain-sama's appearance that fell on the spot with the momentum and force came out is burned out and does not go away.

Wilfried sent to the dormitory and I will explain to Mr. Ruffen what happened at the tea party. And I apologized for surprising me and was able to return.

"What is it?" Hannaore squeezed her hand and said he had defeated that saint? I did it well! Is not there anything like Dunkel Ferger's candidate for lords?

..... I, I would like to exchange Wilfriit like my brother.

Chapter 333: Battle against territory

---

After compressing and tidying up the magical powers in the body properly, after becoming able to move normally, I reach for the bell of the side table at the bedside. Ridhalda came into the tent before ringing the bell, whether he noticed a moving sound and a moving sound.

"Finally I noticed, Princess, I did not wake up for two days, I was really worried, I asked Ferdinand Big, who was heavy back, and I was finally here to come But .... "

When I reported that Justoks was too excited to be destroyed, after pressing the magical stones of the sky, I could leave the magical power inside the body until it calmed down, the president officer said to Richarda. Still, they seemed to have been asleep for the last two days There is no choice but to be amazed at themselves by their own excitement.

At the same time, when I was invited many times and the chief priest came to me, I thought what would happen if I was already awake. The imminent face of the priest's head is thoughtful, I can imagine a storm of small words, and the blood is pulling slowly.

"Richarda, I want to lose consciousness again, preferably if Ferdinand is here"

"What are you talking about, Princess, everyone is worried, if magical power is calm, it seems there is no problem so let's go to the dining room for dinner."

When I headed to the table for dinner, everyone looked back at me all at once.

"Rosemain-sama!"

"I finally woke up, I answered that my uncle does not need to worry, but I was worried about it"

"What happened to the tea ceremony?"

While eating dinner, I asked about after I fell down.

Ruhida was not in the tea ceremony room because it had a guardrune, so he was giving instructions on the other side. When Richard ordered the sidewalkers to add sweets, when Goudruon came with me who had lost consciousness and handed me over, Guardrone took it back after the tea ceremony, so it was inside He said he did not know how he was.

"Even though the one who is the organizer has fallen down, there is no reason to be able to enjoy tea and talk as it is."

I heard that my weakness revealed to the candidate lords I attended, planted the recognition that if I accidentally touch it, I planted a ceremony that the collapse would collapse and the tea ceremony was instantly dissolved.

"It was Mr. Hannallee that was the most difficult thing, please apologize firmly later, I desperately deserved but I was crying"

It seems that Hannorore who collapsed when grasping his hand was in a panic state which does not understand why it is good anymore. Likewise it seems that Wilfried who has memorized the trauma about me and has memorized it desperately consoled Hannaore and his aides.

In the baptismal ceremony I ran hands in the first meeting, and my consciousness broke off on my way, dragged on, dropped on bloody and made me die, and I felt a few snowballs in snowball fighting He said that he lost and said that all the knights who were alerted to alumni and surroundings turned pale. "It is a common thing for Rosemain, it's really shocking to the surrounding people, but I want you to not mind if you feel uncomfortable, as there is nothing wrong when consciousness returns."

Akari neighbor also saw the place where I suddenly lose consciousness, so everyone strongly nods at Wilfried's words and said that he did not like "Because it is not Hannorore's responsibility."

Still, it is still saying "It might be my fault", so I sent it to the dormitory of Dunkel Ferger, explained the incident of today and seemed to have apologized graciously that I surprised Hannellore.

"We have inconvenienced you very much."

"That person did not regain consciousness for two days, and tomorrow it will compete against the territory .... Even so, why was this fall collapse at all this time? I think that I did not do anything in particular ..."

In trying to answer "I am excited too much for pretty lovely and cute Hannaore says" to Wilfried's question, I just noticed.

..... If I say this as it is, is not it my perversion? Perhaps it is better to take a bit of corrections. Well, excited about being friends? No, I am too happy that I became friends?

As I was worried about what sounds better to hear, the lowest loud voice that the spine frozen fell down from the upper side.

"I would like you to tell me more about why you fell down."

"Fa, Ferdinand!"

Unexpectedly the voice turned inside out, surprised enough that the heart was shrunk, looking backwards, the priest president narrowed his eyes that frustrated and overlooked me. Behind it there was also Mr. Eckhart. The god 's eyes of the crown prince tells eloquently that "What on earth have you done while you are busy?"

"Rice-mae, if you come back to Richarda many times if you do not wake up for the second day, it seems quite healthy if you try again,"

"The princess has just woken up before dinner."

In the words of Richarda, the priest director breathed lightly and pointed at the door.

"Because I will hear a detailed story for the time being, come on."

"Well, but Ferdinand, tomorrow is against the territory, I have a lot of preparation ...
...."

When refusing to go around in a circle that you would like to postpone the lesson, the priest chief crawled around the cafeteria and shrugged his shoulders.

"There is no need to worry - you are determined to be absent."

".....Huh?"

"Rosemain will not go out against the territory competition, this is the decision of Aub Ehrenfest, we will talk about it as well, as Richarda and Justoks are the only side that the aide of Rosemain will prepare for opposing battle "

I was stunned by the declaration of the priest, heading for a private room to discuss with Richarda so that my back would be pushed. Brother Eckhart stood in front of the door, and I and the chief priest and four people, Justoks and Richarda, entered the room.

"Please check the condition of the princess before the story, Ferdinand Baby-sama"
"I know, come, Rosemain"

As I walked forward to the chief priest who sat on the chair, the priest chief touched the neck and touched the wrist, and began to investigate variously.

"Magical power seems to have calmed down already, do you understand what happened?" According to Justkus's report, there is speculation that it might have been excited to lend and borrow books "

"... .. It is roughly the same"

I was excited by my first favorite friend. Since this book is originally rare and expensive, there are few people who have customs to read books. I like books, so my family is balanced enough to casually get to know my friends and I do not feel like finding a girl of the same age to come. Hannaore is a friend I should not let go of ahead for me.

"I was excited by my favorite friends, devoted my prayers and stopped by Justozku and I endured it because I thought that prayers and blessings are not good at tea ceremonies. However, the magical power that has already been released at the far side circled round and round in this way, and when it was thought, it was pitchless in front of my eyes. "

"It seems that it has exceeded the allowable amount, as expected, as expected, since the magical power is calming so much, it will not be an issue anymore"

The chief priest spoke sighs that the problem was friendship. I am told what kind of person it is, and I recall Hannaore.

"I am like Dan Kel Ferger's Hannaore, but it is pretty, like a" rabbit ", a princess who likes books.I made a promise to lend and borrow books next time.I can talk about a book with my friends Yo! Oh, I'm having too much fun! "

"I am too excited, this idiot"

He dragged me with a guy, and the chief priest who pressed the manaston on the forehead gently turned into a badly troublingly thing, and immediately changed the manastone into another one.

"Is not it better for you not to be close to that friend? It is likely to lose consciousness."

Apparently it seems quite excited. When I looked at the magic stone that quickly changed the color and said "Ah", Richard shook his head with a sigh as saying "no treatment".

"Maybe Hannorore was very troubled because the princess fell, maybe it would be better for you to refrain for the opponent too much to get closer"

"... As much as possible, I will try not to get excited, please do not say such a terrible thing, it is my first time book favorite friend"

"Did you mean that there were no friends who liked the book until now?"

Although there are different directionality in the Leno period, there are several strange friends who each have a strong hobby, but considering from the moment of becoming a mine, after considering it as Rosemain, there is not. Even for Lutz who is making books forever, books are goods and it is not a thing to enjoy reading.

"This is my first time for my friends who like books to live here. It is too expensive for books, is not it less for people who have novels even in aristocracy?"

Philene also made friends by making books, but lower aristocrats and lordlist candidates are different. It is impossible to talk over the same line of sight and borrow books. It will not be a relationship more than to be incorporated into my side as an aide.

Although Phyline also appreciates me, I am in trouble doing the coarse phase, so I will not come closer than a certain amount while watching the surrounding reactions. I will be making relationships as master and slave to the last.

"But Mr. Hannerore is a candidate for a lord of Dunkel Ferger, it must have a lot of books and I have to make books one after another so that I can lend the same amount to Hannaore."

"It is not likely to settle down for a while for a while, so that the magical powers of Richarda and Rosemain do not overflow, it is good to suck with magic stones each time they get excited."

The shape of a leather bag placed on a desk with a cord and sound makes the shape of a magic stone to stand out. I found three large manastones in it.

"That's right, Ferdinand, why am I missing a competition against the territory? I am already in good physical condition."

"From the report of Justoc, you always judged that it was better to keep quarantined before bringing troubles because you are always in trouble. Of the opposition against the territory is not only Arub of other territory but also the royal family. Only the other day you himself Because it fell overwhelmingly at the held tea ceremony, people who had been asleep are less troublesome for their surroundings. "

If opposition to the territory is said in the school life of the Reina period, it is a sports festival, a cultural festival. In other words, it is like a school festival. It is the biggest event. It is terrible to not attend it. Perhaps my frustration appeared on the face, the priest chief was sighing unlikely to be unavoidable.

"Rosemain, this battle against this territory will also be an outpost against the Lords Council, to be honest, I do not want you to present you who are uneasy about socialization because there are many uncertainties. Since I got a bit more social skills and physical fitness Are you confident that you can talk to Aub in other territory without confusion that you can cope with it without fail? Can you keep consciousness to the end without sudden collapse like a tea ceremony? "

I was breathlessly breathtaking, being quietly looked at with the eyes of the priest's gold. I can not have confidence that I will be able to do it all the time. I have just watched Justoks holding his head in the meantime.

"... Is my socialization so bad?"

"Justice said that it is almost done, but socializing can be done on the surface, but from time to time it is said that words and phrases that wish to say that you can not understand how to head in that direction will pop out, Different common sense, because it will work on the foundation "

It seems that as usual I am out of common sense. But, to be honest, I do not know exactly how it is offset. I can not figure out where I should be careful because I do not know where it is.

"Ferdinando boy, Princess is doing my best with this little body, I've got very good grades, I have dedicated expression and socializing to such an extent that I could not believe that I was immersed in Yerev for two years What more can you ask for the lost princess any more? "

While watching the Ricarda who came out as if shrouded over me, the chief priest opened the mouth with usual expressionless expression.

"It's a rest, Rosemain has gone beyond the place where Aub Ehrenfest was requested before entering the House of Lords." To be honest, it was beyond our expectations, there was no plan to deepen exchanges with the royal family. There was no expectation that this tie could be connected with the upper territory. It is troubled not only with the student against tomorrow's territory competition but also with the royal family and the other territory Aubu with this tune. Therefore, I will ask Rosemain to take a rest from his body as he refuses to come into contact with the royal family and the upper rank of Aub. "

While saying so, the chief priest gives his eyes to me.

"Perhaps it is reported from Justkus that he was tired from preparations and socializing in opposition to the territory enough to collapse at a tea ceremony. When thinking of your physical condition, I brought it, would you like to come out against the territory? "

"Well ... Well, I am not feeling well yet .... I think from the bottom of my heart that it is better to have been quiet at Richarda and the dormitory."

... .. Well! It is forgiveness for reading one day.

"Mr. Ferdinand, I do not mind being absent, but what happens to my aides? Because we are predicted to be undertaken, we would like to attend all the competition against the territory."

"Oh, I will stay in the dormitory as your watchman, so I will not need your aid. If you have Richarda, it will be somehow a day."

.....Huh? With the superintendent's supervision? I do not need it.

I think that it will be a sermon time rather than reading, I think whether I can somehow watch out.

"Did not Ferdinand come to see the fight against the territory, please watch the game regardless of me?"

"This time, as I was a guardian of yours and I planned to watch game against the territory to assist negotiations with the upper ranks, it seems to be pretty troublesome,"

"Yes?"

I was shrouded and I slanted my head and head. I do not know what to tell you about it.

"When a strange legend about me has been completed, Yusutukusu talked about the content that seemed painful in the head, saying that it would be a hard thing if I disappointedly showed up in opposition to the territory I said, what did you do? "

Ah, is Ferdinand legend?

"Please do not blame me for anything. The teacher Ferdinand's doing at the time of my studies has only been told at the aristocrat as Mr. Hirschle said that I was Ferdinand's disciple. In fact alone I do not deny that it is a ridiculous legend mixed with the actions of several people, but I am irrelevant. "

"I hear that it was the princess that caused the story to be talked about because it will be talked about at a tea party ..."

"Yusutsu, Shoot!"

It was nearly simultaneous that I tried to silence in a hurry and I was stared at by the chief priest.

And after I was thunderstruck by the chief priest, as a matter of course Justoks took care of it as a servant of the priest's president, the traumigot was abandoned, checked by the chief priest regarding the preparations for opposing territory, When I thought that it was sweet and thought that the inside of the dormitory was a bit bad, it quickly became bedtime.

The night ended and the day against the territory war. For me it's been a long time for reading.

Everyone has finished breakfast early and is busy preparing for their own. A sweet scent has drifted for several days from the kitchen. A massive set of cuttle curls are prepared.

Most of the luggage that arrives one after another from Ehrenfest was used for the fight against the territory, and there was a sweet smell which looked delicious from the box packed with cactus curls. When the side apprentices check the luggage, they give directions and those of the underwear carry the baggage.

Wilfried is headed towards a stadium where competition against the territory is already underway and seems to be giving instructions at the site.

The civil application apprenticeship was taken down with a serious face, got notice about exhibition presentation at the priest chief priest and Justochs. "I will probably release the announcement and jump into the dormitory to talk about the research, so I do not speak out of my existence to Dr. Hirschur" was the most important precaution of the president.

The knights apprentices also revealed weaknesses and attacking ways of demons, they went out of the dormitory from a door different from the entrance door, and received some lecture from Brother Eckhart who was in charge of newcomers education outside.

Eckhardt brothers were saying satisfyingly that the students who realized that their partnerships were not at all could be easier to handle than the newcomers who had no awareness. Because I can receive teaching obediently, if I can be trained like a grandfather from spring, it seems to grow much in next year.

Where preparations are made with clams and strikers Aub Ehrenfest and her husband and wife, graduates' guardians come along one after another. Wearing gorgeous costumes for social occasions, head towards the stadium where opposing battles are held so that it passes through the dormitory. Because everyone is an alumni graduate, it seems that there is no need for guidance.

"Rosemain, I finally woke up. Please take a day off at the dormitory today.

"Thank you for your concern, thank you, father adopted"

It is pleasant that reading is scheduled, and the complexion is better than usual, but it is bad if Aub Ehrenfest say "Poor complexion". I am on holiday.

"Ask Ferdinand and Rosemain, so that they never leave the dormitory"

"Certainly yes"

As soon as the guests watching the audience went quieter, the knights apprentices came back to the dorm. It seems that we have to move to the stadium.

"Mr. Rosemain, may I bless you?"

"Everyone kneel, I will grant the protection of the mighty Angry Five."

When the apprentices kneeling kneel down, they quietly hang their heads.

"Thank you, Rosemain sama"

That is what Anglican of the highest grade student.

I gently lightly nod and put magical power on my right hand, and when I put out Stap, I put up my right hand and put magical power as usual.

"May God bless the angel of the army of whom the Leiden Shaft of God of fire belongs to everyone."

The blue light that jumped out of the staple pours down to the knights apprentices.

"I pray that you can look around and cooperate so that you can get the best results for Ehrenfest so that you can make use of anything you have learned even a bit."

"Ha!"

When everyone goes out, I spend leisurely while reading the book the priest chief offered in the multipurpose hall on the first floor.

It is a quiet thing except that civil apprentices and Justoks go on and off occasionally to seek directions from the chief priest.

The priest chief is looking over the report summarized by Justochs, as well as the apprenticeship of Wilfriit and Charlotte's civil servants and the materials summarized by Hartmut. It seems that there was a problem that was issued through JUSOKUX as civil service education.

The bell of 3 rang and the delicious smell of lunch began to drift from the canteen immediately. After a while, civil servants and side workers come back to pick up an alternative lunch. It seems that we have to take it while taking turns.

"This year it's hard, Rosemain-sama"

"I saw this customer for the first time at Ehrenfest"

The students who came back to lunch tell me how they fight against the territory with excitement. In the research of Schwarzs, the central researchers seem to be getting their eyes shining and Hill Sur explains happily, expecting what is going on in the place where there is still a hole and rising. It seems to be.

In addition, it seems that Sumir type cow animals are also exhibited as new cow animals I thought. It seems that she is attracting the attention of women in the singing phrase that it can ride without changing clothes for cavalry.

"Although I was not there, I felt that Rosemain's name was known to the surroundings."

"There was a chief of the knight of Dunkel Ferger, where is the candidate for a lord who is Feldinand's disciple,"

It seems I was not alone that I thought. The chief priest who was listening to the story became a delicate face with what I thought. Perhaps it is a person of the same generation who made the coatpan by the priest chief in an unscrupulous plan.

"It seems that it was a correct answer without watching it."

"Rosemain's still lying down, Crown Princess of Catherineburg and Dunkel Ferger's lords came together with their guardians to bring in something good, Aub Ehrenfest desperately coped I am. "

..... Wow, adoptive fight, fight!

While doing so, the knights apprentices came in at once. It is said that their fight has ended. Every face except Angelica looked at me with a subtle look far from radiance. I gave you a blessing, but I wonder whether it was useless.

"Brother Cornelius, how was the record of Ditter?"

"It's still as a rank but it was the fastest we could beat compared to the previous simulated warfare."

"It is a face that can not be said to be a brilliant person for that."

My words Cornelius brother sighed slowly after seeing his face with knight apprentices.

"It is Grün who came out as an opponent, and if you think that Rosemain is using it as a cowgirl, a little ... .."

"What kind of monster was it?"

"It was a ferocious and smelly devil"

"... .. Eh smell?"

It seems a bit disgusting, and I also frown with my face, the voice of the priest's echoed.

"If you talk about Grunn this time, after you have finished your lunch, do it as an assistant to the servants. There is a report that there are too many customers and they can not even refuse them."

Knight apprentices began to move as if they were relieved, and they jumped out as soon as lunch was over.

A little dining room has calmed down, so me and the chief priest also have lunch with the service of Richarda. While eating, the priest chief told it.

"... I think I did something wrong with you"

"What is it?"

"It's to forbade to attend today's territory competition, because it will not go into the awards ceremony"

According to the chief priest, it seems that the game competing against the territory itself ends by the 5 bells, and after the 5 bells ring, there are announcements of excellent outstandings of one year.

"The best of the first grader was you in Hirschle letter, originally it was supposed to receive complimentary words directly from the king, and it was supposed to be admired by everyone, but I canceled at the convenience of this That's it. "

"... It was good that I was absent. I can not do it now for the story with the king."

It is frightening just to think what kind of coarse phase this time will be like to have the awes and wives of the whole territory, the royal family attended, being honored as the best, and talking directly to the king.

"I hope to be able to compete against the territory next year, but I am thinking about how to educate you, I do not know how to do what your common sense and thinking base is different from us I have taught so far because of it. "

"Because the princess grew up in the temple, there are places where the nobility's common sense is unfamiliar, but there is nothing left to get used to. The accumulation of years is important."

Rychda who is serving said so while gently laughing.

"After the baptismal ceremony, as a girl's daughter for a year and a half, then, after two years asleep and entering the lords, you are going to enroll in the lords? Considering the time you spend in the temple, the princess as a nobleman Probably the time I spent was probably about a half a year.

The chief priest who remembered the details tightly began counting the number of days spent in the castle as a nobleman.

"Although it seems to be more than half a year, the time spent as a noble indeed is quite short, I did education in the temple, so I did not feel it was so short ..."

"The castle where there are only aristocrats, and strictly speaking, those who are not aristocratic are different. The temple's idea is not acquired in the temple because the aristocracy has only a bow-tale."

"I see"

"Ferdinand Bob will rush to seek results, but it takes time for people to grow up. Please slow them a little more."

Little by little five bells rang, everyone came back. As the priest chief said, I heard that he took first grade first prize. It seems that Wilfriit has come to me instead of me. It was said that Wilfried was also chosen as a superior.

Several outstanding people came out in other grade, but it seems that there were many people who finished the exam because they passed the passing score, and it seems that Ehrenfest told us not only the speed of finishing the lecture but also the score . It is likely to be a challenge for next year.

Chapter 334: Angelica's graduation ceremony

The day after the competition against the territory is the graduation ceremony. The Aubs will stay in their respective rooms, but the other guardians will return to Ehrenfest once.

..... I thought that few people came to watch for reasons.

Because it is hard for me to use magical power to transfer on a daily basis, parents of intermediate and lower aristocrats probably understand that there is a point of view for my child, or if a child who wants to marry is a child of another territory. As long as it does not seem to come in against the territory competition.

Angelica's father seems to want to see the sword fight tomorrow rather than today's Ditters match, and it seems that tomorrow he will get a break. By the way, since Angelica's mother is a foster-mother's side, he seems to have watched a ditto together as he is coming to the House of Lords today. It was said that tomorrow was supposed to get a day off, the Rieselator said.

..... In a truly excellent side family, Angelica is an apprenticeship for knights.

The graduation ceremony begins with 3 bells. In the morning there is a demonstration such as dedication and swordsmanship, and the temple of the temple came from the central temple to give a blessing. Rather, it can be said that the color of the adult ceremony is strong.

And in the afternoon graduation ceremonies which adults got dressed in formal dressing, gathered at the auditorium, and a graduation ceremony is held.

"Is I also an answering machine in the dormitory tomorrow?"

At the multipurpose hall where dinner was over I asked the priest chief so. As the priest chief said that he was staying at the lords, I think that it will be my watchman tomorrow as well.

"The important person who comes to the graduation ceremony is the same as today, there is no meaning when attending ... .. Are you dissatisfied with reading a book in a dormitory?"

"I am happy reading, but I wanted to see Angelica's sword dance and Egrandine's dedication dance"

I know I can not attend only the graduation ceremonies because I missed the competition against the territory, but Angelica's sword dance which I could not see at all because the actual Egrantines and the exercise location are different is very anxious. Even so I know it's only one time.

"At least it was good if there was a" video camera "...."

"What is it?"

"You can see the swordsmanship or dedication dance and you can see it in the video later ... .. Well ... I guess there was a magician used by Mr. Hill Sur's lecture? Would it be easy to understand what is seen with it? "

While I thought about what I explained, when I tell, the chief priest lightly shrugged my shoulders.

"If you are a magician of projection, Hirschle's teacher should have it.I have used something to use for lecture.I use magical powers like idiots when I use it, so I used it once It should have been entered, but if you move your magical power to a magic stone and make it run, it will only manage if swordsmanship and dedication merely are necessary. "

"really!?"

..... Was there already a magic tool equivalent to a video camera!

Oh, while being impressed, when I looked up at the priest chief with expectation, the chief priest became a bitter face and took the Ordonante manastone in his hand.

"The immediate problem is to be known to Dr. Hirschle that I am coming to the House of Lords, but if there is no way to keep you quiet, you must put magical power in this magic stone If you do not have enough, you can cut off on the way. "

That said, the chief cabinet officer skipped that he could borrow the magician of the project on Hill Sur in Ordnants. I am willing to do battery work. Grab a magic stone and put magical power in it.

..... Refuge, a part. You can see sword dance and dedication dance.

If I thought that the answer would come back soon, rather than an answer by Aldonants, Hill Sur person jumped into the dormitory with a bunch of magic tools and materials.

"Mr. Ferdinand, if you are here, why did not you contact us sooner !? I want to talk with the returning materials like mountains!"

"Since I was about to leave the competition against the territory, I did not contact you daringly because I said so, Professor Hill Sur, is this magical tool still usable?"

The chief priest picked up the magical tool that was in the hands of Hill Sur and began teasing.

"How much magical power is needed and what are you going to use the magic wing out?"

"There is a necessity to shoot sword dance and votive dance of tomorrow, so there is no problem because Rosemain provides it ... .... Oh, it moves without problems. As usual it's like keeping magical tools frequently I was impressed and I would like you to raise the report frequently enough. "

The word of the priest chief seemed to have hesitated to hear, Hirschle began spreading the material to the place.

"It is a magic tool of a library, but there are a number of predictions that have appeared discussing with a number of researchers in today's territory competition, some people studying royal magical tools in the center, It seems that there is a magic team about the god of life in this part. It seems like you have seen a similar connection, but the magic team that he remembered did not go well. "

"Fumu, that is interesting, what kind of magic team were you?"

Mad scientist gatherings began to rise, civilizations seem to be interesting, but they are watching them with a face that they can not understand at all.

When I finished putting magical power in a magic stone, I quietly retired from the place. I would like to read a book that the priest director brought us with much more than a story of a magic team who does not know the reason. I return to my room, read a book, I take a bath and go to bed.

And the next morning.

When we finished breakfast and went to the multipurpose hall, the two people were still talking in the same condition as last night, and the materials I wrote was increasing.

His brother Eckhart is standing, leaning against the wall at the frown. It seems that the escort knight of the chief priest must be accompanied by a research talk of all night. Perhaps this was the everyday landscape of the priests of the priests president?

"Good morning, Mr. Ferdinand, Mr. Hirschle, were you still talking to us? Is not it better to eat breakfast?"

"Ah, Rosemain. It's already morning, Mr. Hill Sur, today is a graduation ceremony, I think it would be better to end this much."

"... .. is your graduation ceremony? Your research is likely to proceed better."

The head of the priest who listened to seriously disappointingly Hill Sur was saying shook his head with a look that was amazed.

"Please bear with us today, I was crying before my followers were not there, did you find promising disciples?"

"Yeah ... I could not find it easily, but there are promising students for this year's second grader. It is an intermediate noble who is close to a lower aristocrat and I am sorry that there is less magical power, but that is very good for that improvement."

The chief priest is genius and his point of view is genius and he has produced a lot of magical tools, but since there is a lot of magical power, it seems that there were many magical tools which only us can use. It seems that students who are about to become new disciples seem to be studying whether they can use magical tools of such priests with less magical power.

"I am able to talk with each other like this, get a new disciple, I am spending my days with a nostalgic and pleasant time coming back. Ferdinand says that I will live a boring and depressing life from the day I graduate You told me that it would be, but had a little fun time since I returned to Ehrenfest? "

The expression of Hill Sur became the face of a master worried about his disciples from a research mad scientist. In the words of the master, unusually the priest chief is packed in words for a moment. And I narrowed my eyes to look nostalgic.

"I do not get tired, I am having a time that is far from boring."

"I heard a little about it when I heard that word, because I am waiting for Ferdinand's new magician, research achievement, romantic talk, whatever."

Hill suru gathered all the data after saying so, headed straight to the dining room. I have to eat breakfast and have to hurry to prepare for the graduation ceremony. Then, Justoks came out of the dining room so as to replace Hirschur.

"Hirschle teacher is going to have breakfast, but what about Ferdinand? Will you give priority to nap?"

"Oh, I want two and half bells to wake me up"

"Certainly ... Good night ... .. Is not it better for Eckhart to take a nap and for a while it was hard to get involved with that two?"

I slept tightly as I was on the traumgot, and Justus muttered, so it seemed to grudge Ekhardt's brother glanced at Yusutsu, followed by the chief priest.

"Why did Jusutx come out of the dining room?"

"Oh, when I was serving the traumig, Mr. Hirschle came in, I thought that I finally opened."

"... .. then, is the traagot not left now?"

"Yes, there is no way to think about priorities."

Justkus said so and pushed her shoulders back to the dining room.

"The greatest victim may be a traumatic pot"

Yudit murmured, "I am a bit sad."

When the students who finished breakfast started to gather in the multipurpose hall little by little, the parents of the graduates came in at the transition team. And by the waiting apprentices, they are guided to each child's room. It is because we have to help prepare the graduation ceremony. Is it better to say that you have to check with your parent's eyes whether there are any defects?

"Father, mother"

"Rosemain, I have not heard from you this time ... .."

I kept an eye on me before my daughter, Riseraita, heading straight to this place, I gently shrugged my shoulders to the figure of Angelica's parents trying to say hello.

"A long greetings is fine. Today we have no time. Please show me the angelica quickly to the angelica's room, since Renaisa will surely have troubled herself, Please watch as three people do not pull out your hands, it is an order from me. "

Even though preparations for swordsmanship are perfect, preparations for the formal wear are appropriate, swordsmen decide the hairstyle with highest priority, glittering is not considered at all, Angelica has too much anxiety.

If three excellent members of parents and sister are added, I will not be able to pull out my hands.

"Certainly yes"

The Reiselator said so, going out of the multipurpose hall with her parents. Angelica has no problem.

With this, it nods, and for some reason Dahuel came. I look around the multipurpose hall, and as my eyes meet each other, I came to my place and kneel.

"Rosemain, I'm at the moment."

"Why is Dharmell here?"

"Last night, there was an urgent request from Mr. Ferdinand, because the aides are almost paying off at the graduation ceremony, I will leave the escorting mission"

As it will be discussed with Hill Sur, it seems that it was on schedule for me and my brother Eckhart to take a nap.

"Well, it's okay for everyone to prepare for the graduation ceremony."

I will speak to my escort knight apprentice. Each starts to move for preparation.

"Damuel, has not the castle changed, is your health OK?"

"..... Very, very well, I came in to the Order and I was talking with the Knights executives about the education of the apprentices."

Daniel murmured, thinking that apprenticeship is hard from spring. My grandfather seems to be very motivated and nothing is more important.

When two and half bells rang, it was immediately noticed that Justoks went to woo the priest. Again, the official watchdog is postponed.

"Ricarda, please do not attach anything to the traumigg as anything is poor"

"Rosemain's way, no matter what other side is attached, I can not do it when everyone is about to depart"

I told Richarda, I nodded small. It can not be helped if it is told that it can not be done. Students other than graduates and alumni escort partner went out of the dormitory. It seems to prepare the lecture hall before the entrance of the leading role graduates.

Little by the time the students went out, the chief priest came to the multipurpose hall. Justkus and Eckhart 's older brother are together. However, the former elder brother Ekhart was unfamiliar in formal clothes, and I gazed lightly around his eyes.

"... Today's Ehard brother is an unusual dress in the escort mission, is there something else?"

"You must do an escort of Angelica, can not it be a knight's armor?"

"Wow!? Do you want Escorat of Angelica to be Ekhard's brother !?"

As I was amazed at the surprise, my brother Eckhart kept his eyes as if surprised.

"Did you not know? Who will normally be talking about in the dormitory, who will escort?"

"It seemed like my sister's Relyer knew, but no one seemed to know anything, although there were many people who wondered who the other party would be, but Angelica was just going to head, so maybe It was a reputation of exclusively that it was decided by relatives within a person who did not even know himself. Were you married such a moment unintentionally?"

Yesterday even the brother Eckhart was with the chief priest, but if he did not talk to Angelica parentively differently, he would have never seen a gaze. No matter where I looked it, I could not see it as a lover.

"..... I do not have such a relationship. Since I took Angelica as a disciple my grandfather wanted to marry me with someone in my family, and my opponent has not decided until the last minute It may be that he really does not know Angelica, it seems I have not said anything after telling me that my teacher will leave it to you. "

..... Definitely, after leaving it to my grandfather, I am thinking abandoned.

"It was hard for us this winter because it was a wish for the old man to bring us angelica and ours."

To make it bound with someone in Bonifatius' family, it is extremely disgusting because it can be connected with a family linked to the family, but for Angelica, an intermediate nobleman, it is completely different. Besides, angelica is strong as a knight, but from the perspective of personality and social ability, it is not suitable for the first wife of a senior aristocrat.

Angelica's parents seemed desperately looking for a way to decline. But they did not have the power to overthrow what Bonifatius had decided.

As a result of considering the future of Angelica and those who are in trouble, it is said that the mother said that among the grandchildren of Bonifaceius, it is best to marry as a second wife of a person whose age balances.

Angelica's parents seemed to have begged the third wife as good as possible, but it was not heard by Bonifatius, it seems that the second wife could manage to get along with.

"But who was the second wife was a problem?"

It was said that he was planning to become the second wife of a traogot initially. Angelica has not thought about marriage yet, it is a sorry beauty girl who is thinking only of becoming strong, so it seems that it was thought that younger opponent is better than an older opponent who is required to get married soon.

And because the traumigot was going to be my escort knight, adults discussed it as a good combination.

However, Traggott resigned from my escort knight. It also resulted in buying Bonifatius 's wrath with a resignation close to dismissal, and at the same time it was said that Angelica' s opponent was canceled.

At the clan meeting, not only advancing and retreating of the traumgot, we had to also make a decision on the future partner of Angelica whose graduation ceremony is approaching at hand, said Ekhardt brother.

"Next was the story of who we would like to oppose to our three brothers, Lamprecht and Cornelius if we think about from the year round, but Lamprecht knows not to make a clear opponent until the problem with Ahrensbach is cleared up Cornerius said that he did not want to escort the Angelica because he had an opponent so that he eventually ended up losing his wife and I was qualified. "

I thought that Mr. Eckhart, who had been stuck until I got married until I got married, finally got married and hit the hand with Pon.

"If Angelica who does not want to get married for a while is a partner, there is the advantage that Ekhardt brother can certainly escape from marriage and mother's declaration certainly for a while"

"That's how it is"

Brother Eckhard nodded while smiling withered. I do not intend to get married for several years from now. In a sense, it may be a good combination.

However, Ekhardt brother considers himself thinking and considers the advantage, but Angelica seems not thinking anything, this is worried.

"Thank you for waiting, Mr. Eckhardt"

Angelica's parents came into the multipurpose hall with Angelica who was well prepared. I saw angelica standing in the blue of the Leiden shaft which represents strength. Similar to coward clothes, it looks like a skirt is a costume of culottes. Because it is an adult, the length is long enough to hide the shoes.

I am puzzled for a moment in the hairstyle of an adult female who has tied my hair properly. Angelica which was also thinly cosmetics was beautiful enough to make me astonished at ease as I was used to.

"Oh, this was beautifully finished, I am looking forward to that sword dance."

"I hope to show you the best swordsmanship"

Angelica who grabs Angelica's hands with her little laugh is Angelica, which seemingly depends on a knight who seems to be reluctant and a fragrant princess.

"Is Angelica a good friend for Ekhardt's older brother?"

I asked Angelica who wore a sword dance costume the first time in the opening. Angelica nodded with confidence without hesitation.

"I said that I will leave it to my master, I do not complain at all because I am an introducer of my master, I think that Mr. Eckhart is sorry, but I think that I will continue to serve Rosemain sama If it's possible, anyone else can do it. "

..... How angelic rashy reply.

If you think so, Angelica parents scold Angelica instantly, "Whatever that is good, not rude to Eckhart." And, Ekhart's elder brother appeals, "You may refuse such a girl's escort from now ... ..".

"That is scolded by my grandfather, and my daughter who is not interested in this romantic affair or marriage is convenient for me."

When the bell of 3 rings, Ekhart brother escorts Angelica and leaves the dormitory. Hold a magic stone filled with plenty of magical tools of my projector and my magical power that the chief priest made.

"Please shoot firmly the goddess of Angelica and the dedication of the dedication dance Mr. Egrandine, Brother Eckhart"

I am reading books today as well. Damiel is crowded by the chief priest and is organizing papers.

Everyone comes back in the afternoon and has lunch. Then, the graduate waits for confirmation that the costume is not disturbed to appear in the ceremony. Angelica who showed swordsmans must change to the formal clothes.

I will depart as soon as I change clothes.

"Brother Eckhart, please, show me the sword dance and dedication dance"

When I became idle, Brother Eckhart passed the magical tool to the priest cadre. Magical power is necessary also for shooting, but it seems that a large amount of magical power is needed to display it. Brother Eckhart said that he still can not show it because he still has to escort Angelica and go to the graduation ceremony.

"Will you deposit?"

"No, you do not need the magical power of Eckhart. Rosemain, if you want to see it, you can show it yourself and you can put magical power in this manastone"

"Yes!"

The chief priest played with a magical tool and started preparing for trouble. It seems that preparation is necessary for reflection.

While the president is preparing, graduates will start a pair and one pair for graduation ceremony.

When other students escort, the side seems to be waiting in the tea ceremony room. If the other party's side will inform me of picking up, leave the front door. It seems that someone is waiting there.

"Angelica, congratulations on your graduation"

"It is thanks to Rosemain sama that I can graduate from the House of Lords, I must thank you for my thanks."

Angelica kneeling and hanging around his neck, angelica parents and Rizerzere kneered in the same way.

"For Rosemain, my family, all my family, thank you from the bottom of my heart
Thanks to Rosemain's efforts that Angelica was able to successfully welcome the graduation ceremony today, I am grateful to you "

My parents seem to have emotions that can not be expressed in Angelica's graduation who was prepared to drop out without fail.

"Thank you, Ehrhart brother, Angelica's escort, I think that my followers are great, Angelica's rags will not come out ..."

"It does not matter if you do not worry too much, I will fulfill the role."

As Erichart brother stroked his head lightly so that he might feel secure, he took out Angelica's hand and went out.

Graduates go out, parents and lords and couple go out, and in the dormitory students who are not related to the graduation ceremony are left.

"Ferdinand, are you ready?"

When I returned to the multipurpose hall, the chief priest was lightly nodding. Students who seem to be interested in magic tools are looking at the magician of the projection.

"Reflect on this board so change the position so that it is easier for you to see in this way.

"Yes"

There is a metal plate whose size is about A4 which is like a guild card and has a grain like rainbow when it hits the light and hits the light, adjust the position and instruct the chief priest to flow magical power.

When I gleefully flowed magical power, images began to appear on the metal plate. Oh, and the voice of admiration rises from the surroundings.

"Sword drama, it is amazing"

"I knew for the first time that there was such a magic tool."

"Rosemain, please show me too"

Vilfried came and my two aides came close to me around me.

To be honest, the image of the projector's magic tool is not that good. It is color once, but the resolution is rough, there is no sound attached. It's just video.

Still, I'm very happy to see sword dance and dedication ceremonies that I could not go to see.

"Is this Stu Luke?"

"Yeah, Angelica's sword dance is dancing in Stin rook. The magical power slightly splashes in one swing and the blade glows slightly blue, which is beautiful."

Yudit who respects Angelica and loves it will teach with a happy laugh. It seems that those who handle the magic sword are not so many in the lords. Because magical power is needed to grow and handle, we say that no one has an intermediate aristocrat.

Besides angelica, there are women knights who are participating in swordsmans, but apparently they were conspicuous than others. A beautiful girl who freely swings the Stin Luke whose blades are shining blue has a charm to make eye-catching.

"It is brilliant"

When I was sighing out of ha and admiration, dedication dance began soon. Apparently Mr. Eckhart seemed to try to save magical power as much as possible. I have nothing but a reverberation, but I continue to see the dedication dance.

Egrantine's hand moved loose and dedication dance began. Because donkey mai is also practicing myself, I understand music. While I was squatting, when I saw it, Anastasius appeared with Egrantine.

Was it proper to practice serious dance which I thought would not be balanced with Egrantine, as it is.

..... Prince Anastigius is improving.

I thought it was a couple god, but it was a bit of a mistake, so I'm very happy that I improved and got to be balanced.

Looking at the two who smile a little while looking at the middle of this dance also makes me feel happy and makes me want to bless and bless again.

... .. I will bless them together. Let me keep this happy smile as it is.

"Rosemain, dismiss your hand from a manastone!"

"Yes?"

It was nearly the same time that I raise my face and the priest 's head came running over and changing my face.

Give me the upper priest so that the chief priest grasps my wrist and makes you all ages. At the same time the light of blessings jumped out of the ring and flew away somewhere.

"... What did you think about?"

"Well, I only thought that happiness of Prince Anastigius and Egrandine would last forever, I thought of blessing."

The place of graduation ceremony is decided at the place where the light of the blessing now fly away. I could imagine a picture of the blessing light that flew suddenly falling on Anastasium and Egranthine. I feel that one riot is occurring in the auditorium now.

"... Ferdinand, can you regain blessing?"

"It will be determined by force, idiots"

"Is not it a riot, will it happen?"

"I do not know, but keep asking anything but a strange face .... Everyone here, everything here, the current blessing is the degree of extraorbital law.If you miss out on extra things, you will want to die yourself I will make you an eye. "

Threatened to serious deadpan was Hiyarito does not feel at all like a joke, while Furueagari is almost no acquaintance students and priests length, nodded many times.

"Despite to have been allowed to voice mail, ... quite such a thing will happen," priests length Hold the temple, he threw up a deep, deep sigh.

..... I'm sorry, priests length. But, it's not a purpose.

Chapter 335: First grade closing

---

"I am back now, Have you not changed during my absence?"

The lords and couple who finished the graduation came back to the dormitory. Graduates do not forget to say good-by, they introduce their opponents to their parents, so they still remain in the auditorium.

The adopted face of the adopted face faintly glares at me.

I breathlessly cranked. It must have been something with the light of my blessing without doubt. And to the adoptive father it is said that the criminal is me.

"There was nothing, Aub Ehrenfest"

That's why the chief priest went a step short. I moved hidden little by little, hiding behind the priest chief, good to hide about half of my adoptive eyes.

"Nothing happened, such as what has changed, how was the graduation ceremony? Is it something interesting?"

"... Oh, let me hear, come and visit my room, Rosemain."

"Because I am a girl, it is forbidden to enter the second floor where the rooms of the faces are lined up."

I regret that I tried to escape, but of course I can not forgive you. The adoptive father trembled picci and eyebrows, saying "It is my order" and a low voice, the foster mother who smiled next smiled smile and said, "Because I am also with you, do not worry" . There was no way I could escape.

"... Hahaha"

The adoptive father turns his cloak and cloak and heads to the room. I have to keep my shoulders while dropping my shoulders. Aides are prohibited from entering the room, and in the room there are only the lords and couple and the president officer and me. On the outside of the door there will be fathers who are heads of knights and older brother Eckhart.

"What on earth were you?"

"At the graduation ceremony, the name of Prince Anastigius and Egrandine was called, and the blessing light came flying from nowhere at the moment of entry."

Nobody was watching from where the blessing came flying. When looking at the place where the combination of Prince and Catherineburg's lord candidate enters enthusiastically, it seems that light shines down over the heads of the two.

While doing anything, the temple of the central temple treated as a blessing criminal treated the blessing as if something was done by the temple of the temple, raised his hands and indicated it to calm.

It seems that the head of the temple declared that "It is a blessing from God" where everyone closed their mouths, and they quietly fell down with Shin. It is blessing marriage with an adult of Egrantine.

"Are not you two Egrandines?"

"The amount of light blessed by my eyes was biased, it was the elegante's chosen partner, so it was the impression that Prince Anastigius was blessed together."

I prayed for their happiness, so it is strange that only Egranthines will be blessed. Tilting my neck Looking at me, my foster mother tilted his head as well.

"In the meantime, I may be irrelevant, since Egrandines are loved by the gods, it must have been such a result, surely"

When the conclusion came out in me as it is to leave it as true God's blessing, the chief priest kept the temple and glared at me.

"When you are unconscious, your blessings are heavily influenced by emotion, even if there is bias in the blessings of two people, it is quite not surprising that you think that you practiced how much for Charlotte's baptismal ceremony ing?"

".....Ah"

I was pointed out that I frantically practiced so that there would be no difference in the amount of blessings with other children, and I could not argue. If so, it may be natural that there will be a difference between Egrantine and Anastigius.

"In the meantime, as it is supposed to be a blessing of the gods, never let go out, do not say anything else, are there other witnesses?"

"Oh, I forbid the mouth to the student who was there, even if it says that the temple of the central temple recognized as a blessing of the gods, after it spreads out that it was a blessing of Rosemain later, Just being ridiculous as to whether I need a title of "

He said that he would have established as a blessing from the gods in the next winter unless everyone exits the mouth until they return to the territory, the chief priest said.

"... ... Egrantine seems to have received God's love, but that's fine, but as you have to figure out the situation, talk about the situation before and after. Rosemain, this time I prayed to any god You?

I was urged by the adopted father of a tired voice and I caught a mouth. You can not help being told what god you are stared at by jerking. I do not pray this time.

"I thought that Prince Anastigius and Egrandine should be happy, but I have not prayed to a certain god ... ... I do not even say words of prayer"

Suspectingly, the adoptive father saw me and turned his eyes towards the chief priest.

"No doubt, if Rosemain ordinarily prayed, I should have been stopped before the blessing pops out"

"Well, what on earth did Rosemain do?"

To my foster mother's gentle voice I was somewhat relieved to tell you that I saw Egrandine's dedication dance.

"Ferdinand-sama's magician, Ekhardt brother shot sword dance and dedication dance"

"..... Show me, I have never seen such a magic tool"

"Jill Vester, the discussion has not ended"

"No, there may be some secret in the video"

In a word of adoptive father, the priest chief commander opened the door, misunderstood that "Honno is going ahead," and ordered his brother Eckhardt to bring magical tools. The magical tool which was placed in the room of the priest chief is brought in, and the picture of the dedication dance of the problem is displayed.

"This is amazing"

"Use magical powers like an idiot, it's not something that you can easily feel free."

"Because this dedication is really wonderful, I am very pleased to see you again in this way."

It seems that the foster mother felt this dedication, especially the dance of Egrantine, wonderful. I got pleased and looked up to my foster mother.

"Egrantine is really wonderful, is not it? In particular here ... Pray only for the gods of the great nature, pray, and these two people ... .."

"Rosemain, have you been singing that way like that before?"

"Yes, because there is no sound, the dedicated dance I remember was making a note by myself"

In my reply the chief priest preserved temple.

"Well, that's the cause."

"which one?"

"It is decided as a song of dedication and dance, the song of dedication dance originally dedicated to God. Rosemain was blessed with a song devoted to Leiden Shaft even during the announcement, and it was made as a sacrifice to God in older words Blessing happens based on the song of the dedicated dance performance, it is not particularly strange, although it is an unusual situation in other cases, in your case it can be said that it happens often in your case "

I will turn my eyes towards the priest who ordered this abnormal situation to be ordinary to us nothing.

"How can I stop it?"

"Do not ask me, there's no way I can manage anything when Rosemain wants to bless you."

"... .... Donmen Mai thought that if I told my teacher that I should dance with my heart, I should have taken care, but I did not think that it would be a blessing by singing, even myself I am surprised. "

Everyone at once with my head outside my standards.

"In addition, I noticed the fact that my head hurts. Rosemain has already got the will of God."

"... What is that?"

"Do you remember Jilvester, the other, do you take in the will of God for you and make it a staple?"

"Make it easy to handle your magical powers, make it easier for us to deliver prayers to God, and you have found that we are better ... .. better."

Because I obtained Stap, I heard that prayers have become easier to reach God than before.

"There is no way to come up with solutions such as thinking any further, so let's give priority to what you have to think quickly"

"Do you have something to think about?"

"Ah ... There have already been several inquiries about opponents of Rosemain rumored to be a saint who got excellence by expanding the epidemic with this graduation ceremony and this graduation ceremony, because the present consultation is still in the lower territory so it's easy You can dismiss it, but you need to arrange Rosemain's engagement as soon as possible before applying from the higher rank. "

..... Oh, I, motemote! Is it?

Initial situation of engagement consultation several times, as if a little innerism was floating, the head of the priest confessed with the cotton head.

"Do not be bothered by trouble, a foolish man, so what did you say?"

"Of course, it is decided that we have an opponent in Ehrenfest, I smiled when Wilfried decided in the spring, I answered that I will piggyback on it and announce my engagement at the lord's conference"

"It's a reasonable answer: I can not put Rosemain out there for nothing, I can not believe that I can live not only with magical problems but also in other territories, it is troublesome and emotional instability and easy to runaway magical powers It's a dangerous good. "

"... .... dangerous goods? I think that handling is terrible, Ferdinand!"

Since the contents are roughly wrong, I can not refute it, but firmly protest about the treatment of things.

Looking at me like that, my foster mother laughed and shook his head as he was in trouble.

"Rosemain, please respond to the fact that my engagement is decided first"

"But I was fortunate enough to bring benefits and magical power to Ehrenfest, so it was originally decided to get married, did not I? Well if I could freely go to the library, I was married to whom But it is good. "

"... .. your statement is exactly like Angelica, a horribly similar mastermind."

A small voice came out as "A" in the word of the priest.

.....surely. ....that? Maybe I am too sorry for becoming a beautiful girl?

"Ferdinand is the most influential though considering skillfulness of rosemain's treatment and magical balance ..."

"Do not be silly, Jill Vester"

I spoke into words swiftly saying, "I do not like engagement with me so much. The head of the priest was horribly serious.

"There is no chance that the child will be the next lord, you will not be sorry about the joke"

".....what do you mean?"

When I did not know the meaning and I tipped my head, the chief priest breathed a light breath.

"Currently, there are five people who are regarded as candidates for the next lord in Ehrenfest"

"Er, Wilfried brother, Charlotte, Melchior, I and Ferdinand, are not you?"

"To be exact, Bonifatius is also a candidate for a lord, but Bonifatius is excluded from the successor candidates from the consciousness of the nobles because the year and principal have already declined"

By the way, my grandfather was also a child of the lord. I forgot.

"By entering into the white tower Vilfried with a stain point, Charlotte who must greet the other lord's candidate as his son-in-law, Melchior who has not finished the baptismal ceremony, Veronica, Rosemain, who is the core of printing and various epidemics, accepting magical power and accepting magical power, who is objective, who is suitable for the next lord, maybe obvious?

"But, I ... .."

Because it is a former commoner, he interrupted me and said the priest president.

"Unlike me, Rosemain has parents like Karsted and Elvira from the person who does not know the fact, there is a back shield of relatives."

There are few who know the circumstances that I am a former commoner. In that case, I will become the god of the knights and the son of the correct wife who draws the lord's blood as the grandchild of Bonifatius. There is no problem in the blood line.

"Earl Haldenszel, Icelona Ikkuna, Earl of Greschel, and Count Laisegang are already about Rosemain, even though I think about the relationship between the print business and the parents that will expand from now on Rosemain and Elvira. Earl of Reisegang who was dropped in the status of the second lady, daughter who was the first lady, was made evil for Veronica, continued to be drunk in the blood of Ahrensbach is a blood group, unrelated to Arendsbach's bloodline I will presume Rosemain hard. "

Foster mother changed the complexion. Earl of Reisegang is the home of Bonifatius' s wife and one of the most influential people in Ehrenfest. By the way, my mother's woman seems to be a character of Reisgang Earl. From the other side, I am perfectly a marriage of Count Reisegang.

"It will be clear what will happen if such a Rosemain gets married to me, definitely I will be brought up as the next lord. I did not have a back shield and I will get a back shield through marriage with Rosemain Even after marriage is after Rosemain's adult, Virfriit and Charlotte, which were just newly adults, will not be my opponents. "

Even if it is delicious, it is nothing, it is a fact. I do not think that Virfriit and Charlotte, just freshly adult, can win against the priest who increases old age.

"If you want to devise measures before you can get Rosemain out of the other territory, engage with Virfriit and you will be much more likely to have Wilfriit as your next lord as you wish."

"Well ... .. then, will you engage Ferdinand and Rosemain with Wilfried, who will you engage with Charlotte?"

While saying so clearly in a tone known as a joke, the adoptive father looked up at the priest chief. The chief priest plays a piercing mind with a nonsmoking joke.

"Do not be silly"

"Is not it so poorly that Charlotte is anything poor! When Mr. Charlotte is an adult, Mr. Ferdinand is already a man Unnamed: Like a Ferdinand-sama, I am more meaningful, I am more young and kind and important to Charlotte I will not forgive you unless you are a honorable person! "

"Ho, please try again"

While I agreed with the opinion of the priest, I was pulled to a cheek to the chief priest who raised anger.

"I'm going to eat it!

While being told that it is Hun, when you are crouching on the chepper that you gave me away, the foster mother gently breathes.

"Does Rosemain have no objection to Engagement with Wilfried?"

"If you can like the library of the castle and the library of the temple, there is no problem at all."

"... Will you support Vilfried?"

"I will make an effort as much as I can"

For stable libraries management, the lords must be firm. I should be able to work hard enough to support it.

The chief priest laughed at my decision with such a nose.

"Florentia, it is wrong to wish it for Rosemain, but rather whether Vilfried will be able to grab the rosemain's reins or not is important."

"Is I a ramping horse or something !?"

"Considering the impact on the surroundings, raked horses will be much easier to handle"

The foster mother smiles bitterly looking at our interaction with a badly complex expression.

My adoptive father, who had been thinking for a while, barely raised his face.

"If there is no objection, announce the engagement of Villefriit and Rosemain towards the aristocrat within the territory with a feast for spring and announce it to the whole territory at the lord's conference."

"I understand ... Please also tell the Wilfriit brother properly"

I was urged to leave and as I returned to my room, a gym was sent from Egrantine and Anastasius.

In the letter of Egranthine, it was written that in the graduation ceremony I wanted to bless me because Anastasegeus started as a result of my words and it was the best result for Egrantine.

... .. Maybe they are being blessed about blessing?

Both hair decorations and Lincians are very popular, and it is written that the grandfathers and Aub Klassenburg were also interested and were fun talking with Aub Ehrenfest in the fight against the territory.

..... The adoptive father was in vain, but it was worth the effort if Aubs in the highlands were pleased.

I wrote a reply that I was very sorry because I also wanted to see Egrantine 's dedication dance.

Even from Anastasiusu, is not it weird to break physical condition with such an important ceremony? I received a sympathy with reproach.

In response to that, "I am sorry, I am sorry, I wanted to attend, if possible, at the graduation ceremony, it seems that everyone blessed you, I will also bless them." Leave it

I do not destroy the attitude that that blessing is irrelevant to me.

After writing a reply to two people, I also wrote a letter of apology and thanks to Hannorore who came to visit me in opposition to the territory.

"Will you deliver this letter and book to Dan Kellfelger's Hannallole?"

After finishing the treatment of the visit, I looked around the room which was tidied little by little.

Since the graduation ceremony is over, returning from the beginning will start from tomorrow.

"I need to go to the library to supply magical power to Schwarzs tomorrow, and I will have to return the book I borrowed the other day ..."

"Princess, do not talk to Ferdinand Baby first, Maybe you can leave magical power to Professor Sorangju until the next winter."

The next day, as a result of consulting with the chief priest, it was decided that you could lend me the magic stone that my magical power caught. However, because it is a large manastone and it is very expensive, he says that the priest's officer will make a contract with Soranju to lend and borrow directly.

When I got permission from my adopted father, I attracted my aides together with the president officer and headed for the library.

"I think Sorangju is not a person who does bad things, but ...."

"There is plenty of your magical power in this magic stone of just this size It is natural that you should strike a hand first so that it will not be abused or stolen. You feel a sense of crisis Nobody seems to lend a magic stone or magician to anyone, but move on the premise that the lent thing will not come back. The magical power is not ordinary like lending easily. "

If it is said that it is common sense, you only have to remember it. I nodded with a cock. The chief priest casually lend a magic stone, and although I feel that I also lend magical power, is there a problem with the guardian's frame?

"Dear, you came"

"Hime-sama, are you honest?"

It is greeted by Black Forest and Weiss, and I will return the book that the Risaizer had. Looking at the way Schwarz and Vice walked around the area, I breathed a shocking breath, as the priest chief was surprised.

"... ... You really are the principal,"

"That's right"

"Mr. Rosemain, and Ferdinand, are not you, are you old enough to be fine?"

It seems that Sorenju remembered the priest chief who had frequented in and out of the library to collect Hill Sur's data. The chief priest who was invited by Soranju also narrowed his eyes narrowly.

"Long time no see ... I heard from Rosemain that there are no more librarians I know, there was a person who remembered even one, I was relieved."

Sorangi, who noticed the concern of the priest chief who flung all the way so as not to make a hardship to Soryje laughs softly.

"Mr. Sorangju, I wanted to discuss book supply and magical supply consultation today, is your time, is not it?"

"Well, thank you for distributing your heart"

Because of the day after graduation ceremony, libraries are not popular. I kept a glimpse of how the library shelves as a garan as a garan. When I came before, it was before the final exam, so many students had books in each, so the bookshelf was empty. But what is the meaning of many gaps now?

"Is not this book just yet to return? It is time to return home to each of the other territories ..."

"It's getting worse year by year, it is because my strength does not come ... .."

Soranju grieved over his eyes. Even those who have properly borrowed procedures say that there are people who see Sorangju as an intermediate aristocrat and who does not return. Bring it to Carrel and say that you can not investigate anyone who brought it without permission.

"Is it not possible to investigate? There is no such thing and for what purpose does Schwarz and Vice exist? Did not there previously been a dunning sent based on the record of this Schwarzs and Vice?"

The chief priest lifted his eyes like a change from the library when he was enrolled. However, since Sorange is not the main, it seems that we can not get that information from Schwarz and Vice.

"Because we can not afford to pay Rosemain a further burden"

"No, it's not a burden, since the library's assistance is the job of the library committee, so if you can help us, I will do as much as I can"

If you do help without permission, it will cause annoyance to Soranju so I will do my best as a book committee member if I am allowed to do something just by refraining from activities other than reading in the library.

"Although the library committee does not know anything, Rosemain has motivation and magical power. If you leave such a librarian like this, rather than blessing anyone who treats books poorly, curse Will not it fall down? "

"... .. Do not say anything bad about listening to being a curse, it's the anger of the wisdom goddess"

Because the idle words such as the blood festival jumped out just because they were scattered and destroyed, the clerk muttered that it was better to deal with before the killing occurred at the lords.

"It is your job that is the Lord of the Rosemain, Black Forest and Weiss. Listen to those who did not return the book, those who brought out without permission separately, during the meantime I talked with Soranju about lending and borrowing manastones I will come "

"Certainly yes"

As I told the chief priest, I called Black Forest and Weiss and started to make a list of those who brought books and not returning them by territory. The aides together are also full operation.

"Please teach the names of those who brought books without permission from the library, those who have not returned yet, by region," Schwarz, Vice.

"Ryotoku, Mihodoshokasha ..."

"Ryotoku, Abu Gachi ... ...."

Whispers Schwarz and Vice 's eyes shimmer and names are mentioned from their mouths. Me and the aides will write that name more and more.

As a result of creating the list, I did not need to send dunes to the upper territory and I noticed that lower manners had poor manners to use the library.

"It is not in Ehrenfest,"

"Rosemain will not do any foolish imitation that will annoy you in the library that is just this, as it will take your future to arrest library books."

Brother Cornelius shrugged his shoulders and said that, the surrounding people agree. With the completed list, I headed to the office of Solange.

"Feldinand, Mr. Sorangju, the writing of the name is over"

"Oh, this is the end of the agreement on the loan and borrow of the magic stone. Please show it."

When showing the list, the priest chief inscribed a deep wrinkle between the eyebrows due to the large number of people taking out without permission.

"Sorangju sensei, Aldonants for dunning"

"Do you like Ferdinand?"

"This time I will send a duna. If the dunning will be delivered by the voice of an adult male who has never heard it, the other person will misunderstand it without permission if the center moves."

Indeed, with the voice of Soranje it is still up and there is a possibility that my child's voice will be further licked. However, if the chief priest's harsh voice is shaken it will tremble and you will return the book.

"Sir, thank you, Ferdinand, I did not think Ferdinand would cooperate with the library management." I'm happy. "

When I gratefully appreciated, the chief priest lifted up the edge of his lip nips.

"Rosemain, later show me the stomach of Schwarzse and Weiss, I want to see the real thing, cooperate in the operation of the library, that reward would be acceptable?"

... ... that's the purpose! Is it? I thought for a moment that the crown priest took the trouble to come to the library and cooperate!

I think the merit and disadvantage of having the chief priest owner cooperate.

I have noticed that there is not much problem when I showed it to the president who is already receiving data from Hill Sur. If this makes us cooperative in making costumes for Schwarz and Vice, if the books are properly returned to the library, there will be more benefits for me.

"... If you leave it to Ferdinand, will the book be returned absolutely?"

"Oh, I will send you a dunning not to return books absolutely"

In the low voice of the crown chief who chewed, "The library of the nobunin is a delegated administration to the royal family, whose collection belongs to the royal family, those who do not return until returning home are considered thieves, At the same time, after content including plenty of threats to exercise contract magic by breaking the oath to wisdom goddess Mestionola at the time of library registration ", individuals Dunning Ordonants of the unprecedented fear of being named is blown to the dormitory of each territory.

... ... It is the next day of the graduation ceremony. There are many dormitories where there are still lords? I will get mad.

The library of the day, I students who bring books by changing bloodshedness, Sorange and Schwartz who are being deprived of returning work, and I am happy to help as a library commissioner I, observe Vice 's stomach carefully and write a magic team in the office It was a chaotic space called scattering priest chief.

I was satisfied with the work of the library committee and the director general who seemed to have come up with something staring at the stomach of Weiss returned to Ehrenfest in a good mood.

Side Story: Ehrenfest's book

---

Episode 333 - 335 This is Hannorore's point of view from fighting against the territory to the end of the first year students.

---

I am Hannorore. I am enrolled as a candidate for a lord of Dunkel Ferger in a freshman of the House of Peers.

Mr. Rosemain fell down at the tea party and handed over his wedlock, but there is no report of the shyness, is it really okay, if the day to worry it lasts for about three days, it is against the territory competition.

Battle against territory is the most spectacular event in the aristocrat, where Dunkel Ferger is the most united and flaming day. Even though thinking that most knights come from the territory, you learn the minimum person as a liaison, you will know how much fever is overwhelming. It is very hot.

In the morning of the game against the territory, when I finish breakfast in my room and got down to prepare for the opposition against the territory, the knights who came in at the transition team are wide cafeteria, drinking Vizzate, apprentice Knight I was able to see encouraging.

When I looked down on my eyes unexpectedly that the inside of the canteen had already been smelly, I found a figure of my youthful knight that I could hardly believe in my mid-40s and lost my preference It was.

"Oh, Mr. Hannalole. Good morning. I heard that he destroyed Ferdinand's disciple a few days ago."

"You are a misunderstanding, the chief of the knight, I like that ... ..."

..... It is your older brother who told the knight general that things are outrageous.

As I trembled as I shook my head as much as I could deny, my voice did not arrive at all, or hee hee hee, the nephew of the knights, said, "It is wonderful to beat Ferdinand's disciple."

In that word, the knights of Dunkerfelger begin to raise the voice of joy, "Mr. Hannellore has defeated Ferdinand-sama's disciple." It is ridiculous damaged damage.

"Well, I just wanted to make friends with Rosemain, and Rosemain sama ... .."

High Sizzi nodded deeply as I say, we know that we are weak and we can fall down often.

"Through Ditters, enemies also become best friends, thanks to Hannalee for your understanding."

"... .. It is not so"

As Haisuzze was in the same grade as Ehrenfest's mystery, he is told that he is a senior knight who has overcome all grades since his third grade to participate in Ditta, and is rivaling Ferdinand quite a lot. I write it as a strong enemy and it seems to be reading with my best friend.

..... Is it only me who feels like you are not being opponent?

"My father, on my uncle, Rosemain's fantastic rhetoric of Mr. Ferdinand's fellowship has made us frenzy, so we tried to win Rosemain and praised our cooperation, while winning."

"Wow, that's interesting, Ferdinand-san's disciple, I'm looking forward to the competition against today's territory."

The senior knight apprentice who is the son of the knight 's son wields spirits and speaks about Rosemain - sama' s strange idea, the knights are very listening very interestingly.

Because the knight 's wife and Haisuzze' s wife are older sisters, Knight apprentice and Haisuzze are relationships between my uncle and my nephew, but the relation between cousins. It is also for grasping the reins of the Order that is likely to runaway.

I turned away from the story of Rosemain 's fantastic strategy heard so many times in the sky, and gently quiet the place.

..... I intended to beat Rosemain sama, there was no such thing!

It seems that the head of the knight and Haisuzze were both looking forward but Rosemain was absent from the competition against the territory. Although I got consciousness last night, I do not seem to be able to move yet.

..... Although it is the best of my life, maybe absence, Rosemain may not have much protection from the goddess Drejung Goa of time.

"Being the best, a mysterious wandering house ... .. Is not Rosemain just like a good wife as Lestylart's wife?"

"Muu, for sure"

It seems that the knight captain and Haisuzze are discussing something. Is the idea of the Order of Dunkel Ferger who will ask the owner's spouse to be a strength or a strategist anyhow managed somehow?

"Father, on my uncle, unfortunately, I did not seem to like Lestileau and Rosemain like each other."

'It is fine, if you go through a ditch, you can surely solve it, like me and Ferdinand, '

I heard that Haisuzze handed over Dunkel Ferger's cloak to the proof of defeat. Does the owner of the cloak belong to Ferdinand?

Rosemain was absent from the graduation ceremony the next day, but it seems that he managed to recover. Along with thank you cards for your wedlock, I lent a book by Ehrenfest.

"This book is ... .."

I saw books handed over from handed Cordura, I felt blood draw.

"..... Cordura, maybe you know that Rosemain says that I do not like books too much?"

"Princess, I am thinking too badly, and at the tea party I think that you know Hannaore as your favorite friend of the book, so you do not know."

"Is that so, right?"

To lend me a thin book like this, I think it is thought that a thick book can not be read. I am worried.

"It is better for you to think in the good direction when the princess captures things, because if you think badly you will fall into the usual vicious circle. This book is too thin, so even the princess will read until the end You will be able to do it, and if you read it often, it is not too difficult to make comments on each other. "

"I agree"

Encouraged by Cordura, I took a book that Rosemain lent us. Although it is a book like a content with no cover, the surface has a mysterious paper like a real flower is confined.

"This paper is quite white and quite thin, unlike the paper I usually use, I feel that scent is also different ..."

"Is not it Ehrenfest? I am remembering that the apprenticeship apprenticeship said that Ehrenfest had said that he has new paper."

In Ehrenfest the paper seems to have changed. I turned the paralyze and the book.

"Well!"

"What's the matter, princess?"

"This book, the language is new, it's very easy to read"

Unlike books that take time to understand what is written old and difficult, Rosemain lent me a book that I could read if I also do not like to read.

As I asked for it, the story of a knight, mainly in love stories, is quite different from the story of a knight in Dunkelfelger, lined up with wonderful hearted hearted talks that a bard says.

And it is an illustration that shows the story more nicely. There are beautiful illustrations in scenes where beautiful knights love scenes fighting for the princess and scenes of offering magic stones to procrastinate. Is not it a big difference with books of only letters Dunkel Ferger?

"It's like this way you can have it with one hand, do not need the effort to turn over the book, it's written in new words, easy to read, that it's so fun ... Rosemain knows you like books If I were born in Ehrenfest, I might not have been good at reading. "

I wrote the impression of this book in your letter. And for the first time in my life I wanted to read other books. If it is a book by Ehrenfest, I will be able to read as much as I can.

"It is a pleasure to hear your Princess enjoying reading, but is not he promised to lend a book to Ehrenfest?"

As Cordura told me, I quickly raised my head. That's right. I also have to lend a book to Rosemain. However, I do not know what books are in Dunkel Ferger, on my own.

"What shall I do, Cordura. Is there a book in Dunkelfelger that can lend to Ehrenfest who deals with such books?"

"How about visiting your family?"

Dunkel Ferger who finished the graduation ceremony, but his parents are still in the dormitory. I will return to the territory tomorrow.

I got Rosemain-sama's book so that I could explain "in return of this book", when I left the room, I went downstairs.

Dunkel Ferger's dormitories and castles with good quality vigor are not very decorative and have a white impression anywhere. And, because the blue which is the color of the province is decorated, this dormitory used only in winter has a terribly cold impression.

"..... Dunkel Ferger also had better accessories a little more. However, at least, if there is something like sculpture, or if the color of the province is red, will it look a bit warm?"

"Since there is this building long ago from the era when it began to decorate the building with sculptures, there is no choice but if you like it much, how about if the princess decorates?"

When invited to a tea ceremony in other territory, it is often overwhelmed by the ornament's gorgeousness and it is fun to see decorations in other territories, but what do I decorate and how good it is, It is not well understood. Although I was inspired to decorate my room, I got impressed with a great impression and I could not calm down and returned to the original room three days ago.

"Do you know that I can not do? Cordura is mean."

"It's not a bad thing to try, as you can find a book that the princess can read, you may find a decoration that fits the princess,"

"What's wrong, Hannaore? It's been a good day today."

I saw the father, mother and brother talking about something in the lounge.

My father, who noticed my entrance, beckoned, so I headed there.

"Father, mother, Rosemain of Ehrenfest lent me this book, I am very happy, I want to read Ehrenfest's books elsewhere"

"Well, it is unusual for Hannerer to want to read a book"

"Please also take a look at your mother, it's a very nice knight story"

I held my book in my chest and headed for my mother, my brother frowned at me disgustedly.

"What is the story of the knight of Ehrenfest? Is not that a strange knighthood rich stories?"

"Older brother, it is different, it is the story of a gorgeous knight whose heart is love story"

"What if it is a love story? It's weak ..."

I turned her back to my older brother laughing with Hun and a nose, I showed my mother a book. Like myself, my mother was surprised and I am watching Rosemain's book.

"Is this a book?"

"Well, because Rosemain lent me, I think that it is a mistake in Ehrenfest's book, it's thin and light and very easy to read."

"You can not even cover the cover, Ehrenfest?"

My mother stopped the older brother and started reading parapher and books.

"To be sure, this is easy to read, is not the words new, easy to understand, beautiful illustrations included?"

"Because Ehrenfest is an emerging territory without history, there is no book written in old words, it is pathetic."

"We are talking to Restellaut, now Hannorere, please quiet a bit."

My mother restrained my older brother and laughed nicely.

"You should have asked the manuscript to be a good letter, the handwriting is not graceful, it is good if model Hanenerol is also modeled ... .. Even so, this is quite unusual paper. The touch feels different Although it is "

"Ehrenfest's paper seems to be newly made by Ehrenfest, and I heard that there were civil servants who are using this year at the lords."

Mothers muttering "I am so" and quietly overlooks the book to think something.

"The book of Ehrenfest is new and very nice, I promised to lend a book to Mr. Rosemain, who said that he would like to read the story of a knight transmitted to Dunkel Ferger, What kind of book should I lend to Rosemain? "

When I asked my father, I got a glimmer of distressed brothers.

"Then, please show the real thing to that fake saint, not a lousy book that is just such content, but a genuine book."

"Hmm, if the lord of lords of Ehrenfest likes a book on which the knights are written, there is a good book"

"Is it true, father !?"

Because Dunkel Ferger is a strong land of knights, it seems that the knight story is inevitable. If it is a book recommended by the lord father, there will be no mistake.

The next day, a big book was sent from the father who was returned to the area ahead of the other by a transition team. It is such a big book that it seems tough to even turn the front cover, and I think that Rosemain-sama will be crushed if you do not go well.

"... ... What is your father thinking?"

I compare the old book, a sturdy book that can be said to be the history book of Dunkel Ferger and the book that Rosemain lent us. Cordura takes the wooden note that was placed on the big book, and looks through it.

"If Ehrenfest is to win with newness, Dunkel Ferger has no choice but to win in another history impossible to imitate ..."

"I do not want such as Rosemain and Match, but ...."

..... Why do all of you want me to compete against Rosemain? Do not you understand at a glance that I am lost for anything? Mr. Rosemain is the best. It is not comparable.

While dropping my shoulders and shoulder to the strange excitement of the surroundings, I decided to have Rosemain carry the book.

However, the bad thing is that already at Ehrenfest the return has been over and the door of the dormitory seems to have been completely closed. I ordered the keeper to stay in the dormitory, asked by the civilian officials as to whether or not to send the book to Ehrenfest, and I shook my head. Expensive and valuable books must be handed over to the principal directly, not by keeping it with a keeper.

"Is not it okay to lend this book next year 's lodging house? Because it is Rosemain - sama who lost physical condition, since the book did not reach, the princess will never be criticized Learn more "

"I agree"

"Please do not let go of your attention. I was a little disappointed for a while, Princess"

I breathed a sigh to Cordura's comfort.

..... I told you to lend a book, though I had already gone home. The badness between me is still the same.

I asked Cordura to have a book and a letter in a big wooden box with a key to put valuables.

Next year, my father who was looking for before heading to the Lord's Conference finds books and letters that I put in my valuables box for lending to Rosemain, I lend it to Ehrenfest without permission , I, I had never thought of a dream.

Chapter 336: Acquisition of Information and Filine

---

"Welcome back, my sister!"

When I returned to Ehrenfest with the transfer team, the first thing that came running was Charlotte. Since the students are going to return one after another, we will get out of the transition team early.

"I am back now, Charlotte"

"Your older sister won the first year 's best, is not it?"

Praised by Charlotte, I felt ascended to heaven. "That's wonderful" Everything was rewarded for that word. It is such a feeling.

"I will aim for the best next year, too"

In order to be praised by Charlotte, the word was kept secret in my mind, when I grasped my fist and determined my resolve, after Charlotte opened up my eyes the first time I grabbed my fist as if I imitated it.

"I also aim for the first year student, my sister's sister"

"Let's work hard together"

As we laughed and laughed at the face and looked into the waiting room, the older brothers Vilfried back and their aides were still there and they were in a very cramped state.

"Thank you, Villefried older brother, I'd like to return to the room."

"Sorry, everyone, I will move."

Wilfrid roams Wilfried and his associates. We also started to move before the followers came.

"Rosemain!"

I raised my hand "Yes!" To the voice of the old man who sounded fairly far away. I was surrounded by the aides, thought that I might not be able to see it even though I raised my hand, but I found my grandfather properly.

"I heard that I got the best, I did it well ... Truly my granddaughter!"

"My grandfather, I was also chosen as a superior,"

"Oh, Cornelius too, my grandchild is excellent, it is wonderful."

Along with a cheek, my grandfather grabs Cornelius elder brother from the group and puts his hands on both sides, lifting up and raising it up with a bun.

"Wow!?"

..... The muscles of the old man who can release Cornelius older brother like an adult is amazing.

While watching while admirably, big hands come in beside me.

"The next one is Rosemain, it is high, high!"

"My grandfather, I'm in danger!"

Brother Cornelius who landed quickly jumps up toward me and calls for a stop, but it is already late. I was already thrown away.

The adult is close, the upper back and the weight are also growing My brother Cornelius who is growing up and the child's body type which is about the end of the baptismal ceremony are totally different in weight, the momentum when thrown is different.

"Ha ha ha!"

"Wow!"

My grandfather 's impatient voice rose, I am about to hit the ceiling.

When I raised a voice as dangerous, Cornelius brother who seems to have already jumped up using body strengthening hits the cloak and pulls it. Although I managed to avoid hitting the ceiling somehow, the feeling that my neck was tightened for a moment saw "Cuke" and the pain of the pain leaked out.

..... Death!

By pulling the cloak, my body changes direction slightly and it falls towards Cornelius elder brother this time. I had fallen without any voice anymore.

"Huh!"

It was my father who came back with the lords in the same way that accepted me in a state close to a crash. Lift up and confirmed that there is no rough injury as it is, leave it to Richard who is out of power and stare at my grandfather.

"Father, what do you do suddenly Rosemain !?"

My neighborhood is full of my aides just as I returned from the House of Lords. Because I know that my grandchild's action was the act I wanted to love my granddaughter, I just finished being stared at just for everyone but if another person was doing this, the murder of the lord's family attempted immediately It will have been caught.

After swimming his eyes, my grandfather struck a hand with Pon.

"No, that, that is it. I just tried to see if Cornelius had the ability to protect Rosemain, Cornelius passed, yeah, truly, my grandson"

It is way too much awkward.

"Fathers should not approach Rosemain, they will die."

"Karstedd!?"

"Well, I kept Rosemain well from my father, Cornelius, Rosemain, I was thrown by metastatic sickness. Please take a good rest today."

"Yes, your father"

I turned around, I was lifted up by Richarda and returned to my room. It was a strange feeling that the aides were coming along to return to your room. From now on I will work in the castle even in the aides, so the surroundings will be lively.

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

"I am back now, Otieri"

Othelier waited waiting for the room. I lie down with trolls in the bed I was in. It seems that my eyes are still turning around, I feel a bit bad.

..... Someone, please teach me how to treat you grandfather!

On that day there were such as tidying up my baggage for the aides, so it was from the next day to actually start working. After each self-introduction, the assignment of the escort knights' duties in the castle is thought centered around Damuel, and the apprentices themselves are taught the work in the castle from Richarda and Otilie. As I received convocation from the lords together with civilian apprentices, I decided to discuss it to deal with it.

"... .... With that kind of feeling, last time we sorted the information and bought it in the necessary department, this time too, the upper ranks of the Order and civilian are supposed to be present"

"Let's sort out the information we are gathering"

Have the information gathered at the House of Lords buy information. This time, various information will be needed for the Lord Conference, so it will sell well.

As Hartmut began sorting out information, I turned my eyes to Figine.

"We also have to pay for the amount that everyone in the dormitory manuscripted, who copied it, how much did you use ink and paper?"

"Yes, that's it."

"Thank you, Phylie. Calculate this, you must ask Ferdinand to prepare money."

I started to calculate payment fee for manuscripts with Phylline. It is not only Ehrenfest who did the manuscript, but there seem to be others.

"..... Rosemain's suggested amount was more expensive than the amount obtained by manually copying, so I wanted to have another child who can afford it."

"I taught Phyllie that we can accommodate the manuscript's work if we take an introduction fee."

Hartmut may have a business talent. Phylline seems to have made much of it with its introduction fee. I managed to smile happily that it seemed that the money for magical compression seemed to be accumulated.

After the sorting in the room is over, it will be negotiations with the upper part of the territory from the afternoon. I can not go all the way with all my aides. Richarda and Brunhilde served, Hartmut and Philine as civil servants, and Escort Knights as Daniel, Angelica and Elder Cornelius. Leonore and Yudit are special lessons from the afternoon.

"When will I get to Rosemain sama's escort mission in the castle !?"

"Bonifatius's special training is an important task for the escort knight of the lord's family.

Yudit, who was an answering machine at the House of Lords, revitalizes the eyes of Violet, and puts words that can not be said whether Damuel is comforting or encouraging.

I encouraged Yudit and Leonore to head to special training, and I went to the conference room near the lords office. Villefried and his aides are also called in the same way. It is to get information while I am out.

"Well, let me know what kind of information I got at the House of Peers this year"

The civilian who gathered information mentioned the change of trends, the newly invented magic tool, the alert condition of each area etc. Discussions will progress with the upper part of each department asking questions about each and writing down on progress from last year.

Meanwhile, it was the order Hartmut reported.

"A little information is also included about the inner circumstances of Ahrensbach by the contacts of former Veronica children."

By the report from Hartmut, my adoptive eyes watched over his father. The chief priest is interestingly distorting his lips.

"It seems that there was an order from Aub Ehrenfest so far, even in the aristocrats it was refrained from touching, but as the distance seemed to have shrunk due to Wilfriit's enrollment, I will use it Is this ... a rebellion against Ehrenfest? "

"No, collecting information is important, so contacting from here is more difficult, so collecting information at the lords is very helpful"

According to Hartmut 's report prompted by the chief priest, Arends Bach is said to be rattling inside.

"As a result of joining together the information we got, there are few candidate lords that can be the next lords, the magical power of the clan who supports the lords drastically decreases, and the territory is rough."

"What?"

"Nobody elaborates on the inner circumstances of the devastated territory, so the details are unknown, but there are two candidates who can become the current lord of the next term, one of them is Diethlinde who is the youngest daughter of Mr. Georgine It seems"

It seems that the top part of Ehrenfest was information that I did not know at all. Everyone took their eyes off as I thought.

"There are two candidates for the next term, there must have been the first wife 's child and the second wife' s son there, there must have been three children over her sister. ? "

"It may be related to those that have dropped the ranking of the territory in spite of the large territory. The Dietlinde aims at Aub Ahrensbach and Virufriet with blood of Ahrensbach I do not know yet whether he is approaching or wondering if he is looking for his married partner to avoid becoming Arub Allsbach, but it seems that there is no doubt that it is in a serious condition. "

In the words of Hartmut, the chief priest owed a long breath while holding down the temple. And, interestingly I see Hartmut.

"It was unexpected information ... It is a matter of hand, is it your name?"

"I am Haltmut"

"Would you like to come to me?"

"No, Mr. Ferdinand, Hartmut is my citadel, it's an important confidant to bear the printing industry."

When I suddenly began to pause for a sudden bold withdrawal, Hartmut laughed happily with the drug.

"Although it is a very attractive story, I will refuse it, I will not be able to leave the side for Rosemain-sama's research"

.....Oops. It may be better for you to leave it to the chief priest and release it!

"What is research on Rosemain? What is researching Rosemain indeed? It is certainly a wonderful mass ... .."

Hartmut answered Hakihaki to the chief priest who wrinkles between the eyebrows as if they do not know the reason.

"Because there seems to be a difference from myself in how to give blessings, I'd like to do that research."

"Please show me how far you are going,"

"Please do not hesitate to hear from Ferdinand who knows Rosemain in the Temple era."

.....Dangerous. Something like that makes me feel awfully dirty atmosphere.

Apart from some strange runaway, the information gathered at the House of Lords was priced by its value, and it was decided to distribute each. I will also make payment of money on my manuscript at once.

"Why are you going to pay the money so quickly?"

"Because I handed down to my students to earn money by themselves in order to know my ways of compressing magical powers, they must pay before teaching me how to compress magical powers."

Because I was stingy to earn money for my senior aristocrat by myself, I thought about letting me know the hardships to earn, saying that I would prepare my money while spitting astonished sigh It was.

"By the way, have you decided which partner to teach magical compression?"

"Ay, as for those who gave permission, they have already been informed"

This time, the opponent who teaches magical compression is an aide of the lord family including Villefried, and it is a family of Gibe who got permission by my relatives.

My grandfather, the Reisegang family, the Hald Zell family, and the tragedy I promised. Difficulties have been indicated for the tragedy, but I would like to teach more than I promised. I will not want to buy a strange resentment by breaking the promise here. Life at the House of Peers was even hard at first, so I think that there may be hope of this much.

"What happened to the old Veronica's children?"

"I'd like to think after seeing Arendsbach's attendance at the Lord's Council and the movement of the faction after that. While looking at the situation, I would like to contract the contract magic more strictly or to sign up as an adult Why do you decide factions yourself, how about with the direction to let them choose you? No matter how much you want to separate from your parents, there is absolutely no restriction. "

"... I think that it is good if it is judged that it is reasonable among everyone. I need only be that the way of the old Veronica children is not completely closed"

Although it is poor that it will be useless no matter how much effort it is made, depending on my efforts, I will not complain if I manage to do something. The former Veronica children who knew about the faction rather than me should not think that everything is suddenly acknowledged suddenly.

"We will prepare payment fees in two days ... .. Oh, yes, if you call Rosemain, Printemps and sell books you will need to apply."

"I understand, I'm applying for it"

It was. At the end of winter there are also books sold. I immediately wrote to my letter board and filed for the application of Plantin Shokai.

Then, after applying immediately, it is the payment date of the information fee two days later. The students who gathered information at the House of Lords were gathered in a room and were lined up with exciting faces. My aides are also lining up together. I am sitting with Richarda and Damuel on the paying side.

Just like last year, we will give money along with compliments and encouragement words from great men of each department who purchased information.

"The head of the knight came with pleasure"

"I am sorry"

If I told you so, I gave the money, the son of the noble aristocrat seemed to shine my face to the money earned by myself. A smiley smile is awkward.

"Rosemain, I'm saved"

"You can tell me about magical compression with this,"

"Well, let's see you next in a lecture on magical compression"

When payment is over, the next day is the day to teach the method of magical compression. Until the day of a feasting spring, it is hard to have days.

"Dear Rosemain, will you tell me the fourth stage?"

Angelica's knowledge of how to compress magical powers already is only in the fourth stage. Because it was possible to finish the lecture only for that reason, it may be natural.

"Since Angelica has passed, I will teach it properly, but I will teach only to my aides, so I will only collect the aides of the other people on the other day, only the fourth stage. It is a story after I remember how to compress magical powers. "

While returning to my room, I discussed today's payment and praised my own aides that "everyone worked hard". While everyone smiles, it is Phyllie that seems most happy.

As well as gathering information while being taught by Hartmut, since I was working hard on manuscripts, I was given the amount appropriate for that effort.

"Phyllie is in a good mood"

"Because I can teach you how to compress magical powers in the same way as you are now"

Phyllene dyes his cheeks in a rose color, and narrows his eyes. Originally, Philiane born in the lower aristocracy family who can never say wealthy, and Philline's younger brother seemed to have tolerated without getting what he wanted from a long time ago.

It seems I was very happy that I could earn the necessary price by myself because my parents did not think that my money will be issued for magical compression this time as well.

"Especially since my mother died, since my new mother arrived, it became tough, so ..."

It seems that Phyllie and his brother, the son of the previous wife, were often hit hard. It is an important memories of my childhood when I was having fun talking from my mother and said that he had a strong interest in making books that will keep it in shape.

"It was a pleasure for me that Rosemain says his mother's story will be a book."

However, I fell asleep for two years, the making of books was interrupted, it seems that it was life to write down the story so as not to forget.

"The story I was writing was taken up once, but my father got it back, because the paper I have got was Rosemain sama,"

Treatment of the things given to the daughter of the owner without doing it is impossible to know how it goes around and as a disaster to themselves. That's why he told me that he did not touch the paper he had.

"A new brother was born in the summer, it seems that there is more magical power than my brother, and it seems that she would like to succeed that child. The younger brother was treated to be evil and I went to the lords, I do not worry about how my brother is treated. "

Philene has become my aides, so I can prepare a room in the castle if I wish. However, I can not help my brother who has not finished the baptismal ceremony yet.

"My brother Phylline surely has God's protection"

"I am sorry"

On the next day, Philene was absent from work on teaching magical compression. Ordonants who parents have skipped for contacts if they are in bad condition will deliver Phylline 's voice shouting in the distant people "Please return my money" together.

"I have to go to help Phylline ... ...."

"Rosemain, there are lots of aristocrats gathering to know the magical compression, there is no time to go to Phyllie."

Hartmut restrained my shoulder and said it.

"Then, do you say that you should leave Phylline as it is?"

"I do not say throwing away, I do not think that Rosemain can throw it away, but I should postpone today, but today I know that Rosemain is benevolent, but only one lower aristocrat It is not permissible to throw out promises with many senior nobles in order to do so. "

Other Aides also nodded in the words of Hartmut.

"What will Philline later said to the aristocrats ...?"

"With Rosemain's turn, it will change to Phyllin's evaluation"

"Besides, taking the money alone is not a crisis of life, it's not an emergency."

"If you only teach magical compression, you can teach together when you teach the fourth step to your aides. Please keep it now."

I was told that I should not go to everyone's mouth, and I grabbed the word "I want to help the Filigne even though I still hold the fist."

"I will go to teach aristocrats magical compression"

I am hardened around by the aides so that I will not run away or run away, heading to the room to teach magical compression. There were already many aristocrats in the room. We already taught magical compression to the escort knight of the lord family except for Wilfried, so now, there are many civil servants and side work here. Given the growth of magical power, children grow better. And since it is not cheap, it seems that there are also people who do not receive parents but only children receive lecture, and there are many young people.

The exception is the old man who is at the forefront and the Guybe married couple of the relative frame. I have an old gentleman older than my grandfather, I stripped my eyes. I wonder if I plan to increase magical power from now on.

..... If you strain your body with magical compression, I'm afraid that I'm going to be surprised.

"Please forgive me for praying for a blessing to a rare encounter that received the severe sorting of the life god AVivive"

"I will forgive you."

The nobles who were not acquainted with me come to greet one after another. Thinking about Phylline, it makes me say anything that can not be said in my heart, but I can not put it on the face. I receive greetings with a sticky smile.

The oldest grandpa is jumping out, and it comes forward. I kneel before me in the state where the care giver needed it.

"Please forgive me for praying for a blessing to a rare encounter that received the severe sorting of the life god AVivive"

"I will forgive you."

"Before Giebe · Reisegang. That we could meet Rosemain like this, there will be no regrets when this granddad dies."

..... I'm tears and the sudden greeting is heavy! It is life-threatening.

Saying sadly, according to the information Richarda taught me, my grandpa, who rejoices in tears that I could meet with you, is the grandfather of Karstedd's father, who is an elderly person who is truly sure to die anyway and retires. He seems to be in the hall without having to go out to society anymore.

"It seems that you have said impossibly to the Count of Reisegang, that you are seeing Rosemain Princess who is the great grandchildren at all sight"

..... Oh my God, my grandfather! Is it?

I have never seen such a existence in the Lifegan period. It is a feeling like a miracle that I could live and meet.

"I am very happy to see the great grandfather ... .. Well!"

When I dedicated the light of blessing I gave in greeting, my grandfather closed my eyes and fell as it was. Make a click sound.

The surroundings that made a moment of shinning became turbulent, the husband grandpa hurriedly carried away.

"Because I gave magical power of blessing?"

"Okay, princess, as it is often there"

I have experienced being collapsed by someone for the first time in front of my eyes and sincerely apologized to the surroundings I have planted trauma so far.

Chapter 337: Philline's younger brother

---

Grandpa just caught on to leave. It seems there is no separate article in life. If you compress the magical power, it may have been raised to a far higher place definitely, so comfort a little with yourself that this was good.

.....I was surprised. I thought my heart would stop as well.

After a while since the great-grandfather's leaving, the noise finally fell, and the current Countess Reisegang came to greet.

"Please forgive me for praying for a blessing to a rare encounter that received the severe sorting of the life god AVivive"

"I will forgive you."

"I am very sorry that my grandfather surprised me, I only wanted to see Rosemain sama, because I only need a glance before the invitation of Supreme God, I just wished that, Rosemain, I am pleased to be acquainted with my acquaintance. "

The current Countess Reisegang was young. Even so, it looks a little older than Karstead's father. Is it due to mind that the eyes seem to be burning with ambition? Even though I am a relative, I felt like I could understand why I could not have met you. Perhaps, I think that permission came out because engagement with Wilfried was decided.

"Then I will teach you how to compress magical powers.To do that, first of all, please pay the fee and sign the contract magic."

I said so, I showed civil servants collecting amounts and hand-named parents who manage contract magic that covers the country. The adoptive father is watching where to write the name on contract magic paper. Some people do not agree with their names on face, and I am not individual but to show that they are doing increasing magical powers led by lords.

After collecting fees and signing contract magic from the participants, I will teach Damuel an assistant again how to compress magical powers.

It is three steps to teach this time. It seems that it seems to be easier to imagine by actually doing it, and most people said that it became easy to compress, and it was only people who saw compacting of futon bags for the first time.

"Even if you know how to do it will make a difference in the amount that can be compressed by each mental power eventually ... .... And then, if you raise the magical concentration too rapidly with compression, it will make you magical sickness and feel uncomfortable Please be careful not to hurt your work and increase magical power. "

I also remembered notes. Even if you cause a magic sickness with this, it is the responsibility of the person himself / herself.

"Even adults who have already grown up can increase the magical concentration depending on the ingenuity .... I was impressed ... Knowledge that makes it more advantageous to keep secret within me for the territory I will be tolerant of the forgiveness that I can teach to other lords. "

Gibe Haldenzell said so, gladly narrowing my eyes and leaving.

With difficult face, I found Wilfried and his aides probably walking while compressing magical power, I cried unintentionally.

"Villefried's older brother"

"What's wrong, Rosemain?"

"The escort knights of Virfriit's older brothers are one step behind the escort knights of other lord families, but I think that I will try hard to compress magical powers to catch up, but concentrating on magical compression, as well as magical sickness Please do not be afraid of the escort's duty by doing so, please be careful. "

Please advise that it was better to order the order not to compress magical powers while on duty after reviewing the work style so that magical compression can be easily performed. It is dangerous for everyone to act while compressing magical powers everywhere.

"Well, I see."

Wilfried nodded, and escort knights also seemed to stop compression. I dropped off everyone who was leaving and I ran to the adopting father and the chief priest.

"Can I go for helping my adoptive father, Ferdinand, Phylene?"

"..... That reminds me, there is not one of my aides, but what does it mean to help?"

My adoptive father narrows his eyes and sees me. However, it does not matter if it is told what it is. I understand only one case of Ordonants this morning.

"I do not know, in the morning, Ordonants arrived, behind the woman's voice saying something bad, Philene's voice that appealed that I wanted to return the money a little farther was echoed."

The chief priest who was listening to the story while tapping lightly with the temple lightly gazed at the eyes.

"It rarely jumped out, have you grown a little?"

"Because I was held down by the total in my side ... .. With a little time I got a little head cold."

To be precise, I took all the thought circuits to a grandpa who had fallen in the presence of my eyes.

"How can I respect the position of Phylene and help to avoid annoying?" Phylline's money is money to learn magical compression, because parents will not give out, they must earn by themselves In other words, I gathered information at the aristocratic house, got information on the manuscripts, gathered stories from various places, and Phylline saved hard, so I was pleased to be able to learn magical compression ... "

I never thought of being disturbed by my parents who would like to grow up. Philly did its best by himself because he is poor, has no money, and can not afford to parents.

"Does parents pick up children's money?"

"It is not uncommon for lower class aristocrats to offer money to their homes, especially if they are minors and live in their parents' home," he said.

In the words of Damuel of the same lower aristocracy as Phyllie, Father, and his adoptive father sigh.

"I should have managed that person."

"Maybe so, but I can not say I will keep my money from here, even though I have not been asked, will it be an order?"

In fact, I also thought of taking out the expense of magical compression first from the money I give. The adoptive father also told me that he would be less comfortable with less money to prepare.

However, it is necessary to get yourself a sense of accomplishment by consciously realizing yourself the money you earn by yourself. And by paying as an investment for yourself from among them you can learn much more seriously than rely on parents' money. It seems that it was backfired that I deliberately handed in cash to teach the attitude toward money.

"I do not think that it will intervene in the family problem on the other side"

"Since Philene is my aideside, I must protect you from disadvantage, is not it the role of the Lord? By being protected by Egrandines at the lords I have learned so "

"Hmm, that idea is not wrong"

Although it seems to be causing problems only a little, the priest president is narrowing his eyes.

"But how is it the right answer to defending? I want to make it as peaceful as possible without hurting Fileline."

"It is important if one goes into the problem in the family and it is important if you want to be moderate, should you make money again in the aides and keep the next one?"

The priest chief gave a shrug of his shoulders. For the priest owner, even if the amount of money is not serious, from the lower aristocracy it will be a big money.

Suddenly Hartmut gave a loud voice in the tone of a police actor's story reading when I bit of a lips bitterly when I told you to do it if you wanted to do it gently.

"Oh, it's tough, something that I did with you"

Say so in a very unlikely tone, look around.

"It seems that I got a mistake in giving the money to Philiane, which Philene brought back with money to pay for students in other territory, deposited money for Rilemain like Philine, soon Philene I have to bring money to and replace it. "

There can not be such a thing. Because I have paid all the money, and I also manage the payment to other territories.

When Hartmutter's idea was not well understood and the head was tilted, the chief priest laughed a little.

"Well, that's a problem ... Rosemain, it seems that the aide of the other brought back the amount of money to pay to other territory, but if it is used without permission it will be a problem between the territories. Take it back and get it back right away. "

This time it is said that do not forget to leave out the amount of money used for magical compression, I finally understood I finally got a lot of nods.

"It is hard to develop into territorial problems. I have to go soon and have to apologize for making a mistake,"

"Tell Phyzine's father to tell the reasons to accompany you and return here if you are ready for money."

"Yes!"

As soon as I got a fame going to House of Figline, I immediately jumped into the beast and jumped into my room. Ricarda and Othelier who have declined magical compression round up their eyes and welcome you.

"Richarda, please give money to other territory that you have deposited"

While explaining the flow of things to Richarda and Otilie, I had money handed out. Take out the same amount as the money paid to Philline from that. And I pulled out a small amount of silver money and the amount necessary for the magical compression out of the same amount of money as Phylie. Instead of putting all of the earnings into the house, I thought that it was okay for Philene to have the freedom to make money.

"Is not it better to give the castle room to the princess, Phylie? In families with stepmothers that would make a work rest in a false report like that, even though Phylie himself did not have a fault, It seems to be getting it. "

Richarda said that with an anxious face. Certainly, if you think about only Philiane, that would be the best.

"..... If Philline hopes, I will, but I said that there are younger brothers who have not finished the baptismal ceremony, so I may not like to enter the castle."

I gave Mr. Hartmut money to hand it over to Philline's family and I ordered a coward.

"let's go"

Indeed it is impossible to force all of the aides of lower class aristocrats to approach them. In order to go outside the castle, the escort knights are to take them all, but from civil servants and side workers, we decided to take the Rizerator and Hartmut which are tactful and eye-catching.

"We are waiting for preparing a room of Phyllene for once, so it will be a problem if we do not seem to be prepared when we need it"

"Please, Brühnhild"

Brunhildde, who has worked together as an aide at the House of Lords, is pretty adorable even for senior aristocrats. I was sent off to a candy's eyes that I was worried about, and we went back to the room where the chief priest waited.

"Thank you for waiting, Mr. Ferdinand"

"I explained the circumstances here, Rosemain seems to have passed by mistake, do not inconvenience, Shikaku"

I speak to the lower level civil servants who are excited about being recalled. I apologize for giving money to Phylene's father who changes her complexion and just imposes obedience on himself.

"I did sorry really, something that will become a problem between the territory if the amount is insufficient"

"That, that kind of thing ... .."

It seems I do not know what is going on in the house now because I was busy gathering information related to magical compression and just got back to bed in the winter. Telling that my family is involved in what is likely to be a problem between the territories, when I leave the guide to the sikkak where blood is drawing, each rides a coward and heads home to Figline. The chief priest who is a guardian is also with me to apologize for my failure.

"Over there"

In the south of the aristocracy where the lower aristocratic family gathers there was a house of Philene. Though considering the vastness of the castle, it is not a comparative thing, but it is quite a large and beautiful house compared with the commoner. At the very least you can invite as many people as you can.

"Well, welcome to come"

As he was listening to the second wife, Phyllene 's stepmother was quite a young lady. I am tired from the face because I have a newborn baby in the summer.

"Jonasara, it is a matter of a hurry, it seems that Philene has returned with a lot of money, do you know?"

"... Was that girl something? Yesterday, I thought that I was strange because I took a lie and took away a lot of money and a lower aristocrat was on Rosemain's aides There is no reason to be able to do it. I am not able to look directly at the fact that I declined oath in the children's room and I was spitting out loud.

Jonasara really politely apologized for causing annoyances to me after saying so irritatedly.

"Jonasala, as it seems to be misunderstood, I will correct it, but Phyllin is my aide, I have officially appointed you at the House of Lords"

".....Huh?"

As I could hardly believe it, I looked at Jonasara who opened my eyes and I slowly inclined my head.

"Philene is not vomiting lying, my attendant."

"Such ... .. that should be ... .."

While watching Jonasara looking at her eyes wide and shaking her head lightly, I laugh with her nicely.

"Please do not give me a visit, and explain what is not the responsibility of Philiane and I must have my yesterday's money returned."

"Well, that kind of ... .. Oh, because that girl still lies down, I can not do Rosemain who is not sturdy, because I seem to be in a hurry, I will have money with you right away."

I will change my eyes to the president officer for the first time in a suspicious panic as I see it. The chief priest moved his eyes to Hartmut and raised his jaw a little. I read the intention of going to Hartmut, I nodded small.

"Please go along with Hartmut and Jonasara and make sure that there is no doubt that there is a monetary amount. Releaseerator, please tell me that you will not worry to visit Phylie lying on your behalf instead of me"

"Rosemain-sama ..."

"I am delighted to be worried about my body, Jonasara, but I am here waiting, so it's okay."

I deepened my smile and said so.

If you can not go, you can use your aides. Since I found Jonasara's malice against Phyllie, I am not going to return until I confirm the safety of Phylie.

Hartmut and Rizerator, and daniel and Yudit as two guards. It is better to have multiple eyes than to confirm money.

When I got off going out of the drawing room, a bit of noise and screams were heard from a distance. The priest who stopped reaching under the table stopped me, who I thoughtlessly suspended her buttocks.

At the same time, Angelica and Eckhardt brothers took alert attention with weapons in hand.

"I am very sorry, I will confirm it soon"

It was nearly the same that Dickel's sharp voice called "Please retire" echoed as Sickark says so and goes out of the drawing room.

"Filie!"

In the face of Phyllin who was hugged up wrapped in the cloak of Damuel and entered the drawing room, there was a trace of raised his hand, the eyes like young leaves were wet with despair and tears. And, from behind, he brings a boy who is 4-5 years old to see at a glance that the Risera is not taken care of satisfactorily.

"Phylie, what the hell happened?"

When I called out, Philene saw me slowly and opened her eyes as though I was relieved.

"Rosemain, thank you. Please help my brother, Konrad."

It was a story about brother abuse by stepmother that Philene spoke with tears. It says that Conrad's magical tool was picked up by stepmother. Magical tool is a thing given when I was born as a nobleman child, it is important for sucking out the magical power of a child and collecting it in the magic stone before going to the lords.

Taking out the magic tool, to take out all manastones and magical powers, to cancel the registered Conlat's magical power and initialize it, it is said that it was made a magical tool of a child of stepmother who was born. There is not enough money to prepare the magician of the stepman, so it seems that he had transferred the magical power to the magical stone of the sky so far.

It is busy in society and Philline 's father is absent, it is because it is because Philene does not return from the House of Lords.

"Conrad will die in this way! It's already full of magical power ... ...."

"But this is the situation of one family, not the jurisdiction of Rosemain, the daughter of the lords."

Faster than I opened my mouth, the chief priest said so. Think carefully and say something, and I know that both me and Phyllene are stabbed with nails, I grab the back teeth guts.

"Yeah, that's right, it's a family problem, it's not like Rosemain's ears. Fullinie, no matter how much we were chosen as an aide, I will not think of it.

Jonasara holding my child says that, but stops near the door without entering the room. With precious faces of my child and magical tool, I was watching over us all with an alarming face.

However, even though it is said to be a problem within the family, no matter if there are no magical tools, magical powers overflow and die, nobility and eating are the same. I am familiar with the feeling of death in the heat that is eaten by that fever.

"Mr. Ferdinand, is it wrong to think that I do not want Philene's brother to die?"

"The child who has not finished the baptismal ceremony does not fall within the number"

I close my eyes for the words I've heard a couple of times before. I can not adapt to that idea by any means. It is impossible for me to stay there and not to count living life.

I aimed at Sickark, a party to family problems.

"Since it is a family problem, I will not be able to put in my mouth, but still I can not overlook that a child might die, Sickerk, how about you being in such a state Do you think? "

"... I heard from my wife that I wanted to do so, but I did not think that I'm already doing it."

However, when I consulted that I wanted to do so, I felt it was already concluded that I did not buy a new magical tool. Either one of the children will grow up.

"So what do you do, will you buy a new magic tool?"

"There is no such room in our family, we will prioritize high magical debris."

"father!?"

Phyline raised a screaming voice, but it seems that Sikkirk declared voiced and clearly decided.

If you are a nobleman, it is natural that you give priority to those with higher magical powers. Just sadly dismiss your eyes and no one will tell me anything about me.

Yonasara, who heard the words of Sikkaak, breathed a sense of relief with a sense of relief, holding the magical tools that took away my child from the concert and renewed the magical power carefully. That expression is of a mother who protects my child more important than anything, I feel badly complicated.

For the nobility's child the robotic magic tool was robbed, the father's broken concert was stunned, and Philiane gazed at his younger brother who was sentenced to death while shedding tears of a large grain.

"In such ... .. Conrad is ... .."

"I will have you"

"Do you like Rosemain?"

"If you step up the stairs that leads to far higher height by the guidance of the highest God this way, it would be the same if you live in the house of God."

In my words Sickark and Jonasala distorted their faces as they said they were in trouble.

"Sorry, Rosemain-sama, we can not afford to live a life as a blue priest in our house, so we will be getting more and more in the future ... .. It is an honor to be Rosemain's aides, well-suited for it Even arranging things is not easy, please excuse my decision."

Phyllene who heard the words of Jonasara looks down on her sadness. It was the same as the face when I was giving up the picture book in the winter 's children's room. I wonder how long it endured everything.

"I have an obligation to protect my side, since I give the room of the castle to Philline and I lend things necessary for work, there is no problem. Filine, I live in a castle so as not to put a burden on my family As a matter of fact, I'm not going to let Phalley go, I gather all the personal belongings with the Risaizer. "

Phyllene who shined his face for a moment glanced at the concert and fell on his face as if he fell behind.

"Phyllene, Konrad will be picked up at the temple, we will not die"

"Rosemain says," Let's go on. "

— — — — 2 — — 0

"Conrad, can I heal you?"

"Rosemain sama, such a wasteful thing ..."

"I have not heard of Sikaak."

I crouch as if I look at the conrad. It is a little boy than me who has not been satisfied and has traces of several blows.

"Does not it hurt you?"

That's what I said. At that moment, the face of Conrad was badly stiff and it struggled to escape. Apparently, he seems to have been attacked by Magical Power in Stap. I quickly wiped out the stapes and saw Jonasara.

"It's a family problem, it's a child's discipline"

While she smiled thinly, Jonasala said. It must not have thought that it is a bad thing. I gave up using Stap and slowly put the magical power in the ring.

"The goddess of water The healing goddess of whom Fleet Rene is a healing goddess Rung Sumerle Listen to my prayers Give holy power Give me the power to hurt the babies I will give you the power to heal the child Holy investigation Draw upon the ripple of the supremacy Pure purity I will give you protection. "

Green light comes out of the ring, wraps around the concat and heals the wound. While opening his eyes, Konrad looked at his body and muttered little, saying, "It does not hurt."

"I am the lord of Rosemain, the elder sister of Konrad. There is no magical tool anymore in the concert. What do you want to do now? Would you like to drink in this heat of magical power as it is, or at the orphanage in the shrine Will you live? "

"Rosemain, I have a blue priest at home ..."

At the moment when Jonasala cried out, the concert became brilliant. I lightly move my hand and silence Jonasara.

"I do not remember saying that I will accept Konrad as a blue priest as a single word, I will accept it as a child without a parent, as a gray priest. It is completely irrelevant to this house. Please think that it is really dead No, "

"Well, yes, if it does not exist, I do not mind that."

Suddenly I saw Konrad surprised Jonasara who was in a good mood, and wondered at me strangely.

"If you come to an orphanage, you give rice, clean bed and education, at least, I will not let you live like this terribly, but if you wish to die at home as it is I will accept it, do not you want to eat delicious rice? "

The concert who showed astray for a while and wandered his eyes on and off stopped his eyes and opened his mouth at last.

"... My stomach is vacant."

"Well then, let me finish with Philline, let's go with me."

Chapter 338: Go to the temple for Conrad

---

"Rosemain Mr."

Philline, who finished preparing the package with the Risaizer, came into the drawing room. Looking at me standing in a position to protect Conrad from Jonasara, looking at the expression of relief and resignation complicatedly.

"Phyllie, Konrad goes to the temple with me"

Philene saddenedly shook his eyebrows, he nodded naked and looked up at his father with frustrated and angry eyes.

"My father, the martial art of Conrad is ours mother's, why do you allow Jonasara's such domineering?"

It seems that the magic tool deprived of being given to the stepman was originally used by the mother of Fylynne's fruit. The magical tool of the mother's memento is deprived from the concert, and it is unforgivable that the registration of the magical power is reprimanded, Philiane trembles his lips, and glares at the stepmother who robbed the decision father and the magic tool as much as possible.

"The registration of magical power has already been repainted, there will be no choice ... .. and it is natural that those with strong magical power will be traced"

The attitude of Sikkeru does not change even if she listens to her desperate appeal. Disappointment spreading in the eyes of Phylline who realized that words and feelings did not reach Sikkerk, tears fell downwards. Tightly closing your eyes, Phyllée goes down.

... .. It was a magical tool of the mother's memento that was deprived of the deceased.

I do not want to know why aristocrats want to trace those with strong magical power, but I know. But, I can not understand taking up my mother 's memento from a child.

"Mr. Ferdinand, how much is the magic tool given to the baby?"

"If you think about buying a new one, will you pay five small gold coins? It's high in material, but you can not make it without high magical powers."

I murmured that the priest owner did not know because I never bought it. The priest who is not married can not know the exact price of the magician for babies etc.

"Phyline, I will lend you money, I will just lend it, buy the mother's magic tool with that money, it is an important memento"

"If you are an old magical tool, do not even make three small gold coins"

While the chief priest owes so, she will take out a card that looks similar to the guild card. I put out a rainbow-colored card and turned it towards Sikirk.

"Sickerk, let's sell that magical tool, there are three small gold coins, not dissatisfied"

While slightly spreading his eyes on the head of the priest, Shikkak drew a breath and took out a similar card. When making a click with the click of the card, Sikker reaches for a magical tool of a baby.

"This is a magical tool for this child!"

"I only have to buy another magic tool"

"I do not understand when I can not get it!"

Although Jonasala resisted, Shikkar shook his head, picked up the magical tool and presented it to the chief priest.

Put a magician received by the priest chief in a chotri in front of me. I handed the magic tool to Phyline that it is a memento of Phyline's mother.

"Thank you, Mr. Ferdinand, Rosemain"

Hugging the magician tightly, Phyline cried. Now narrow my eyes pleasingly.

When I was exhaling breath of relief as the smile returned, once Phylline, who went off the eyes and wiped his eyes, lifted his face and looked up at his father and stepmother with a strong eyes.

"My father, Jonasala, I will live in the castle as an aide of Rosemain, I will never come back here without a concert."

The facial expression of a stepmother who breathed out as if relieved with a father who changes his complexion looked contrastive. Phyllene opens his mouth with a split light on the eyes of young leaves.

"There will be no days when the goddess of time Drepphan Goa's spinning threads will overlap, but I wish you a healthy spirit with the gods' protection."

As Philene greeted, he connected hands with Konrad and left his house.

"Rosemain, are you going to take me to the temple today? It's unexpected, absolutely"

At the moment when he got out of the Filynes, the chief priest overlooks me overlookingly. It's like a mother looking like a child picks up a cat who has thrown away and saw that she came back and said "Take me back to where I came from" and make my eyes triangle. If this is the place where there is only a temple or I, it must be said that there is no doubt "Do not pick up anything without thinking".

But I know. Words complain, and gives priority to turning as a nobility, but the chief priest who seems to have various things to oppressing children does not abandon unless there is a good reason.

"I am the chief of the temple and the orphanage director. I saw such a child, I can not leave it, I can not do it very much Can you do Ferdinand?"

"... It can not be helped ... After this, I'd like to say I'm going to the temple ... but your escort knight is a minor, so I have to return it to the castle."

The director general came to my aides with many young people looking at me and said that, Hartmut laughed nicolly.

"Feldinand, the apprenticeship involved in the printing industry is included in the condition that you can enter the temple and discuss it with the merchants of the downtown.

Rather than being enthusiastic about work, is it the feeling that it feels like I'm writing it on the face I would like to go to the temple of the saint? However, if that condition, you can also bring Phili Line.

"Mr. Ferdinand, is not the apprenticeship of the civilian is good? We will have to visit the temple many times in the future ..."

When I asked for approval to civilian apprenticeship, Yudit raised with "Yes!"

"Rosemain, I would like to work with an escort knight with Angelica"

"Regardless of civil apprenticeship, the job scope of escort knight apprenticeship is decided as aristocratic. I will decide in the discussion with Aub Ehrenfest whether to include the temple in the scope of the knight apprentice from now on, but return today"

While wrote a white bird letter that wrote that it will return to the temple from the temple's side, at the same time, accompanying an orphan, the priest chief will glance at Yudit.

I can not go against the orders of the priest. While Yudit regrettably cried out, he ordered a coward to return to the castle.

"Yudith, it may be a shame, but I have never entered the temple until adults"

As Angelica puts out his cuddling beast, "I hope Yudito adults as soon as possible" I will be proud of being a little good at it. While Yudit smiles at Angelica's words, she asked, "Angelica, what is the temple like?"

Angelica who turned up looking a little smiled with Nicolle.

"The temple is a delicious place."

"Huh?"

I gently shrugged my shoulders to utterly yudite. Well then it will not.

"Because there is my exclusive chef, there is the same dish as the temple in the temple's meal, Angelica is saying that,"

"What's wrong with the knight dormitory! What else is ... else ....?"

It seems to be a temple circumstance to know for the first time, Yudit shines the eyes of Violet, and looks up Angelica. Well, Angelica had thought for a while, and hit the hand with Pon.

"The temple is tough"

"Yes?"

Once again Yudit saw me in an unknown word for explanation, but I do not know what it means. Angelica said, watching me waving his head.

"In the temple, everyone is given a job like a civilian work, the training partner is Eckhartt, and I feel confident in anything."

It was amazing criterion to be amazing.

Older Cornelius who has entered the temple shakes her head saying "The temple is not such a thing", and those who have never entered are tilting their heads.

"I am disappointed that I am looking forward to training with my fiancée Eckhart, I am envious."

.....Huh? Lustiness? Is it included in the present time?

Kya, I can not understand Yudit 's criteria to raise a gorgeous voice. Everyone is doing a pokan in a conversation that does not know whether Engelica and Yudit are engaged or not engaged, but there seems to be various differences in that pokan.

Angelica's younger sister, the Risera, has a big eyes wide, and I compare Angelica with me.

"Everyone is a civil service ... .. Does your sister work as a paper job !?"

"No, Rieselator, I am protecting the door, only by one person"

Angelica is saying with a crisp face, but ah, I can not do the job of documenting, I guess the warm gaze of apprentices as convinced. It is because everyone knows the results of Angelica.

"Although my sister thought that not only at the lords, but also in the temple inconveniencing Rosemain sama, I have relieved it has not been handled for document work. From now on, you should never hand out the paperwork, sister. "

"I understand that because the temples are competent, I will not let you do paper work for me."

When Angelica helped the paperwork, the Rizera put out his cuddling while saying things that seemed uneasy about how annoying it is.

"Rosemain, do not talk, prepare as soon as you do, so that you can put the apprenticeship of that child and civil service on your cavalry. The escort subjects need to be summarized."

"understood"

I left the apprentice group back to the castle, and I departed on a lesser bus with Hartmut, Phyllene and Konrad.

A concert that shows the expression of relief to leave the house and Phyllie who tries to cloud his expression uneasily looking at such brother are tied hands tightly. Because Hartmut was not looking at the big size Lesser bus nearby, after getting in, I found out that I was looking around a lot.

"Hartmut, please sit quietly, I will not accept any questions while I move, so I can not concentrate."

"... ... Has anyone asked a question while on the move?"

"Yusutokusu"

Hartmut laughed small whether the situation appeared.

Following the leadership of the priest, leave the lesser bus.

"Wow!"

Konrad who has never caught a beast raised a surprise voice. Running in the sky, surrounded by the escort knight, I headed to the temple.

It is not so far from the house of Phyllyne to the temple in the place near the north gate south of the noble family where the lower aristocratic family gathers. I jumped over the aristocratic gate and arrived at the entrance of the aristocratic area of the temple.

"Welcome back, Temple of the temple, the chief priest"

Besides the servant of the priest, Fran and Monica came to meet me. Vilma is with us as new orphans come.

"I will prepare a document to accept an orphan so you should give me that meal."

"Yes"

As told by the chief priest, I will bring Hartmut, Phyllene and Konrad to the temple room to get me ready.

"Suddenly not bad, thanks, Nicolas"

"As soon as 4 bells ring, it's a good time."

While Nicola is preparing meals, I will introduce the temples of the temple in place to Hartmut and Phyllie.

"Franca, Zam, Monica, Vilma, Vilma who are my aides in the temple is asking for an orphanage. Nicola is preparing for cooking, Gill and Fritz are in the workshop We will introduce it later, and this is Hilmut and Phyllin, apprenticeship at my aides in my castle, from now on we will go in and out of the temple with regard to the printing industry. "

Nicolas brought me a dish while introducing it. I arrange the dishes with cotton cotton.

"Today I baked bacon, fluffy bread and vegetable soup, because Rosemain was not going to be back, so it's a bit more plain and then everyone else is going to hurry this other sweets I made it. "

A crepe wrapped with rumutopf and well-whipped cream whipped out well was issued. When I eat it and show it, everyone starts to eat. Philene and Hartmut have rounded their eyes by eating crepes.

"Is such a sweet going out in the shrine?"

"It's only Rosemain's place, Hartmut. Ferdinand seems not to be interested in sweets so much, how is it?

It is Angelica who elegantly answered while eating crepes. When an escort knight eats it alternates. Everyday I eat Angelica whose class is above.

While holding down his stomach, Damuel was about an escort mission and shrugged his shoulders against Haltmut and Philiane who strikes sweets.

"In the orphanage at this temple I think that the taste is better than the knight dormitory because the rest of the meal of the blue priest is given as the grace of God and the quantity is never too small."

"Is that so?"

Dalmel nodded in the surprisingly fine Fileline.

"In order to be a side job of a blue priest, letters and calculations can be taught so that you can work with making a book at Rosemain's workshop, no one will wield violence by the teachings of God ... .. In that house Life of Conrad will be much better than I am."

"Thank you for saying that, I'm relieved"

In the words of Damuel, I exhaled as Philline was relieved.

"Do you have a little time until Franc, the chief priest's ceremony? Because I write a letter to the Plantin business, please let me deliver it to Gill or Fritz"

"Did you decide the date to sell the book?"

While saying that, Fran is preparing to write a letter. It is said that the workshop is already ready for sale at the castle.

"Rosemain, may I see what letters to write?"

"... .. yeah"

If you can see it in Hartmut, you have to write it in tight and stiff words. Even if I made a mistake, "I took the best at the House of Peers, is amazing, is not it?"

When civil servants came in and out, I thought that writing a letter would be a difficult one, and I wrote a letter to the Plantin business.

By that time the priest chief came up with documents to accept Konrad at the orphanage. Although nobility's son has been deposited as a blue priest for ever before, there is no precedent for entering an orphanage so he wants to keep a record.

At the table, the chief priest and I are lying side by side, sitting side by side with Phyllin and Conrad. Angelica and Hartmut stare behind me and look starkly at the crepe where Damuel is being lowered. She seems to have failed to eat.

"Then, Konrad will be temporarily kept at the orphanage. When Philene saves money, orphans and gray priests can buy, so we can spend them together."

In my words the chief priest waved his head with a severe face.

"Where are you going to live, where are you going to live?" Philline, who is given a room from you and spends himself in the castle, can not spend his brother with him, so that he has to save as much as he can buy a house on his own. Besides, even that much, that child will no longer be able to return to aristocracy "

"Why? It also regained magical tools, and if you can save money back by the year of the baptismal ceremony ..."

The magical tool which is the memory of Phyline's mother was regained. Put a new manastone in that and accumulate magical power, wait for Philey 's pickup. I thought so, but it seems that it was not so easy.

Put a magician that is a keeper of Phyline's mother on the knee and mutitate while saddeningly cursing his eyes.

"Rosemain, money can be saved or borrowed but magical power can not be stored"

"Huh?"

To the one who does not know the meaning and tilt his head, the priest chief lightly sigh.

"You must not think the same as a child of a lower aristocrat who can not become a traceee and you who can become a adopted lady of the lord. Unlike you who were compressing by yourself before the baptismal ceremony, everyone has magical tools like you It is not that you can dye any number of magic stones at the speed you do not need.Prepare many magic stones to use for lectures over the years using magical tools to keep the magical powers of others away from mixing That's it. "

"As Ferdinand says, Conrad will be five years old soon, the manastones that have accumulated so far have also disappeared ... ... From now it will not make it in time for magical tools and magic stones."

"Something like that ..."

Separating from that abusing parent, I thought that if they sponsored, they could live together as an older sister. However, it seems that it can not be done with common sense as a nobleman.

The chief priest who knew that I was planning to return Conrad to the aristocratic society was sighing and shook his head.

"Rosemain, the chief of the temple, you can be the orphanage director, not to guarantee the living as a nobleman by saving the life of a child unnecessary to the parent.Don't misunderstand. It is a problem that it seems that we are only pretending to be alone by one of our aides, so be careful with your behavior as you are the adopted woman of the lords and because you are in charge of the position of the temple, you cross over There is a line which should not be "

As I pointed out, I bit my back teeth. That's right. I can not do the same to everyone, even if there are noble sons who were brought in the same way. It is the same as the former templeor if you are superior or inferior in your own mood.

"Mr. Rosemain, please do not make such a depressed face"

After Philline turned his eyes to Conrad, he laughs with Nikoli.

"I was relieved only by the place where Conrad could live, because I thought that it would rise to a height far as it is. In addition, Rosemain regained my mother's memento I am grateful. "

Philene said, serve hard, pay back as soon as possible.

"And if possible, I want to save money, buy a konrad, and I want to live together even if I'm not a nobility, because I am the only younger brother."

Looking at the smiling face of Philiane, I saw the concert that laughed together and I thought after all. I want you to be alive. Compared with magical superiority or inferiority, it is better not to have a child dying, as he picked up magical tools like that.

"... Mr. Ferdinand, is not it rare for children like Konrad?"

"Magical tools are expensive, are not there other lower-class nobles?"

"Can somehow save the nobility's child who is having the same difficulty?"

In my words I said, including commoners' eating, if possible, not only the chief priest but also Hartmut and Philiane turned into a fascinating face.

"Are you going to reach such a place in addition to the printing industry? It would be foolish, are you?"

"But, is not it anxious, and now, if I can accept such a child at an orphanage with magical deficiency, I think it will change a little ...."

Ehrenfest's magical deficiency is serious. It is the present situation that I want to collect even a little magical power.

"Now that the magical power is insufficient, what would you do if the number of aristocrats were filled? Where unnecessary parts would be scraped off, do not become emotional and think ahead, you are basically just in front of you I will not see it. "

I took a deep breath. There is plenty to say by the chief priest. However, I think that if you have magical power, the scope of work you can do will increase. If you can satisfy the magical power of the land, you only have to find the next job.

..... What can we do?

You can use gray orphans with magical powers not treated as aristocrats for society and make a way to earn money to cover them. Even if you can not live as a nobleman, there are other ways of life. I think it's better than dying.

"Wait, I do not have to think"

"Huh?"

"When you think, in the majority of cases, the situation moves in a ridiculous direction, now do not consider extraneous things and try to finish your work first, such a big issue also needs to be judged by Aub Ehrenfest It will be, please stop thinking. "

"understood"

..... Still, I think!

Grasp the fist at the bottom of the table. At that moment, the chief priest breathed a sigh.

"It's all on your face"

In a hurry and hitting his hand on his cheek, the chief priest glanced at me glaringly.

Chapter 339: Sale and Reflective Meeting

---

"If you have not practiced as a civil apprentice, you can not become a civilian, your hope is a library librarian?"

Before stepping into each household problem, burning through the intercourse, and turning over the social system into a great turmoil, I was admonished by the chief priest, first to clear up my work.

"From the sale meeting in the castle approaching in front of the eyes Is the notification to the Planetan shop ended?"

"I am OK, I have heard from the Franc that the workshop is ready too."

Even though I am asleep, Charlotte and Damuel will talk to the chief priest and the Printemps business seems to have been selling books every year at the castle and it is said to be customary.

Several customers came this year and bought books.

Perhaps the most impressive to everyone's eyes must be Count Earl Raisegang before being in front of the front row of purchase order. It was the resurrection that I fell down with my blessing during this time. Taking care of the nurse, walking around with a stick while walking around, I went to the front of the Plantin Shokai and purchased all kinds of "everything one by one".

It turned out that the Beno watched for a moment that the big money came out from the beginning. Regardless of the time when the number of first items was small, there are no customers who buy all types at once as the number is growing.

"Richarda, my great-grandfather is rich, is not it?"

"For now it seems that she wanted to purchase her own grandchild's book for himself because Princess and Elvira-sama are the authors of the book. Although the process of recovering has finally reached the Count of Reisegang is very worried "

..... Hey, Hi Hi Grandpa, do your best! It will collapse again! Is it?

I was watching while falling asleep when I fell down, I understood the surrounding feelings of watching me well enough.

..... This is bad for the heart. "You should be quiet from now," you ought to get angry. I've got to throw it away, I have to find it.

After that time, the child who finished the baptismal ceremony wants cartoons and cards, and adults who buy books come over. There are many female customers, the most popular story is the romance series knight story that mother wrote.

The love story of the aristocratic family is also popular. This is the thing my mother wrote based on the story heard from the wife of a wide generation at the tea ceremony, so "Is this story that person and that person?" "I've heard this," and my eyes to nostalgia While narrowing down, there seems to be a story that any generation can get excited somehow.

And this year's featured item is "Rosemain Special Collection Recipe Collection", which I sold most among all items. This is the first color book that Ella and Fugo chose ease of making and basic dishes, Nicola wrote the recipe so hard, Vilma painted a picture and made using ink studied by Heidi. Also on the last page is the advertisement of an Italian restaurant.

The first color printing was done with Gully printing. It costs very much time and cost when compared with black one color. I received reports from Gill that the printing staff of the workshop was tight. It seems that it was very difficult to avoid overlapping colors.

It is a thin book with ten kinds of recipes in all, but it is the highest in the past books. Nevertheless, because of the way to make consomme and pasta dishes, the nobles who ate the dishes that the exclusive chefs of the castle made in the winter social are all wanted. By the way, since there is no way to make natural yeast, fluffy bread can still be eaten only in the castle.

Of course, it is quite different from the recipe so far, so I do not know if the chef can really make it accordingly. Ella said that it was necessary to get used to accidents and time.

"Well, tomorrow I will return to the temple once after breakfast, because it is only for visiting with the Printemps business, so please prepare with dinner back to the castle."

"Certainly yes"

We will hold a symposium with the Planetan Chamber of the Temple Orphanage Office and discuss the business trip to the next print and Halden Zell.

We called up an orphanage at the time of the sale meeting and summarized what we would like to talk about on the spot, so we sent letters to family members in the documents we handed in. The preparation for meeting Lutz and Beno after a long absence is perfect.

"I also want to participate in the discussion at the temple, Rosemaine"

Hartmut said so. It was not easy for me to think quickly. Just as I was staring at writing a letter at the temple during this time, I will only be able to do the attitude which I've taken. I wonder if it will be like this for the rest of the years.

..... I want to meet Ruts a lot.

Although I took him to the temple last time, there is no reason to say that this time is not good. If I tried to permanently accompany the bank, the priest waved his head with a difficult face.

"After the meeting with the civilian officials recommended by each place Giebe to be held the day after tomorrow, work on the printing industry officially began. Abu Ehrenfest's permission has not been issued until that time, so this time, Please do not write out the things and procedures necessary to make the paper making studio and printing studio and prepare the documents so that they can be distributed to civil servants. "

"Certainly yes"

The priest chief will say so and dismiss the request by allocating work to Hartmut and Filine. Although it is bad for Hartmut, I feel as if it's really hot, I wanted to pray to the adoptive father who is not doing permission with the priest's president yet and has a little work.

.....All right. I do not really pray. I may have quit a little on my face.

The next day, I will return to the temple with the chief priest. The escort knights are Dharmell and Angelica, minors' escort knights are an absence at the castle. In the meantime special exercises for the apprentices of the old man are supposed to be held.

"Please come back soon for the apprenticeship of Knight, like Rosemain. I do not feel anxious that my grandfather is quite far behind."

Brother Cornelius who received the training like an escort knight as an escort clan of the lord's clan told me that the knights apprentices might die and misled the ominous things.

..... I do not think there is a change in the payment of his grandfathers when I was there.

As soon as arriving at the temple the chief priest came to the room and a preliminary discussion with the Planetan shopping which is done from the 4 bells.

"Question items and offering to the Planetan Shokai is this degree ..."

I answer "I see," while I wrote the word of the chief priest to the board.

"Perhaps there are decisions on the downtown side, such as the maintenance of downtowns and the selection of civil servants, what you are wondering about, there are demands etc, so it is necessary to have an interview with Aub Ehrenfest when the meeting ends think"

"Let's have an appointment booking from now"

Justkus moves quickly to my words.

After finishing the one meeting with the priest chief, the france brought tea and sweets. I was crying that Damuel could not eat last time, so today is crepe. Besides, today is a luxurious crepe that uses parque juice when making dough.

The one who is not good at sweetness is not good at the priest. The chief priest is a cream sparingly lumbered with a lot of rumut puffs, and I have a little more cream mixed with Pulu's pulp. Biting Pulu's flesh will bleed and juice and juice will come out and make you feel happy anything.

It is a sweet and delicious winter sweetness, but since the season when Pulu is already finished, this will be the last Puldu this year.

"... .. Has the new sweets increased again?"

"There are only a few differences in the inside, and crepe itself has been around for a long time."

After eating a little sweets, the priest chief took out Kotori and the wiretapping prevention magician. I hold it in my hand.

He distorted his expression a bit, as the priest chief pityed me.

"Today is the last day we can use the hidden room of the orphanage's head office room"

Since civil servants will be accompanied from now on, it will be impossible to pay the surrounding people and put only certain merchants in the hidden room.

The word of the president who kept so much pressure pushed heavily. It was the same moment I came to mind when I was told to accompany Hartmut. I thought it was impossible anymore.

"... .. because the priest owner stopped Haltmut's accompanying because I was going to give time to part with Lutz?"

"I thought that it would be better to put on my own breaks than to be picked up suddenly."

The chief priest said so in a sigh of breath.

"I decided to separate you that I was supposed to spend with my family until I entered the House of Lords. If I could fill that instability, I have been blinded to this point, but you are already in the House of Lords From now on any council will come with civil servants and it will be hard to raise any more. "

".....I agree"

Until the last minute, the president of the priest had waited for it until the last minute. Knowing that, I could not say anything.

"More than anything, there is also an engagement announcement with Wilfried at the banquet that will soon come close to us.It's very unlikely that a woman with a fiancé to invite a man of a commoner to a concealed man will have a bad external appearance. It gets scratched, is not it your fault? "

".....Yes"

Beno, Lutz, and Gutenberg who are running around in Ehrenfest, desperately trying to enlarge the store while responding to the nobility of the nobles. I can not let them ruin their work.

"Today I will accompany Justozu, Justkus knows your circumstances and I am already connected with the Plantin Shoes, is it a bit more amenable than I accompany?"

Today 's impeachment society talks about what you need to give to the agenda at the meeting where the next civil servants gather, so it seems that no one can head to the civilian.

"Okay, I will take Yusutokusu"

Can you truly separate themselves? It will be accompanied by Yusukusu for confirmation. I nodded with a cock.

By the bell of 4 I moved to the orphanage office room. Today I will speak slowly with lunch.

"It was the chief priest who assigned the time today, is not it rare that it is a bell of four?"

"It's Ferdinand's way of trying to take a long time even a bit."

"The gentleness of the crown priest is awkward and difficult to understand"

"It is not something that began now, Ferdinand is basically spinning and hard to understand"

Yusutsukusu said so and shrugged his shoulders. The side affixed to the priest chief who just finished the baptismal ceremony was only Veronica 's breathtaking, the things that made me feel happy were picked up, it seems that I was forced to do what I thought difficult. The chief priest who spent such a childhood seems to protect himself by acquiring expressionless expression which can not be understood in the surroundings.

"From the point of view of Ferdinand, the princess is simple, empty, no back and front, no back and forth, it is very easy to understand. Besides, when we do a girly phrase like aristocracy, we understand in the direction of the day after tomorrow, so I think that I am taking a very easy-to-understand attitude. "

..... If it's easy to understand, how hard is it for me to understand?

As I had made my lips sharp, people from the Plantin shopping company came. Fura will guide me to the second floor and Nicolas will bring me the food while I greet.

"Let's eat Marc and Lutz together today, because my servants will serve you."

Gil came serving to Rutz who compares Juostus who is present to be confused with me.

"Rosemain's invitation, please do something."

As Ruth replied to Gil's word, he nods and sits with a polite movement. I heard that I was learning how to behave in the temple during the two years I slept, but I really knew how to practice it properly.

It was invited to Beno for lunch for the first time, there was no piece such as manor, and I could not see the appearance of Lutz who had eaten with the dish that was served.

And Gil which is almost adult can say that "It was the biggest baddog in the orphanage and it was a regular member of the reflection room", soon it became a perfect side job unbelievably. I am working well enough to abandon a given task and not link words of reflection room.

I have been busy with clattering all the time since I woke up, so I did not have time to face slowly.

If you look closely, you think that yourself seems to be childishly thinking that growth is remarkable for two people, and you do not want to leave. Unlike me who wants to cry, I must be able to accept it if I state the circumstances that must be separated.

"It was a reasonable sales performance"

Lunch began, while eating appetizers, the story of the sale meeting in the castle began. Since book sale is basically done in the castle, it seems that Planetan chairman, the chairman of the printing association, is supposed to undertake it at the moment for now.

"It seems that the recipe collection seems to be well sold, so it may be good to make new recipe collections of Fugo, Ela, Ilze next time, if you make each and prepare for each and give 10% of the selling as recipe fee, various And the recipe may also increase. "

"But, at Ehrenfest, sales are falling a bit, although there are a lot of reasons why the nobility has spread to some extent ..."

There are not many people who can purchase books. It seems that as a Printemps business, I want to develop new customers soon. However, for that purpose, there is permission of the adoptive father.

While drinking consommé soup, I divided the books I could spread to other territory and the books I did not want to sell in my head.

"I do not sell the scripture picture books and the reference books I will make in the future because I want to maintain good results at the aristocrats. I think also to start selling other knight stories and music notes ... But considering this year's confusion state I think that it will be next year, since I think that it will be impossible to respond if I do not increase the number of printing studio, please put a great emphasis on those who increase the number this year, after that it is a reference book print "

Beno nodded deeply with a difficult face in the word of confusion this year. It seems that the downtown is getting much harder in the state of confusion.

"And then, it seems that books on behavior are hardly sold, but ..."

Most books concerning behavior manners that Turi had devised so much had not been sold. I was slightly disappointed when I was secretly observing sales.

Lutz said, "Oh, there is a different customer base," narrowing his eyes while picking fluffy bread.

"Never sell well is not bad"

"Is that so? Where are you selling?"

"It is sold to lower-level aristocrats who can not hire good teachers, wealthy people who are associated with aristocrats, then town mayors and village chiefs in direct jurisdiction where they are associated with aristocrats."

It is said that there is no demand in the castle where there are only people who have already got ridiculous techniques but they are selling elsewhere.

"In the villages and towns of direct jurisdictions on the way to Halden Zell, we took the events of Hasse town as an example and said that it might be a tough one if you do not know," he solded.

I rarely laughed at Ruzzu 's favorably raising the lip' s edge that he was "very well sold". It will not be bought. Not only Hasse is familiar with the way of the former temple. Because it is not other people's affairs.

"When you look at the sales at the castle, the story accepted by the aristocrats seems to be strong Hald Zell, the story with Rosemain's mother was the best selling."

Marc narrowed his eyes on simmering shin meat sake and said so.

Mother is grabbing the heart of a nobleman woman. Perhaps there will be corrections for factions, but I think that because of aristocracy you can write stories that can be accepted by aristocrats.

"It is the current situation that we lose a little by sales to Hald Zell and I want the taste of Ehrenfest"

Children's scriptures as well as cards and cards toys have been acquired by most children, so the future growth will be small. Looking forward a few years later, I will also make reference books, but I also want items that will benefit quickly.

In Beno's words I cut down the meat and think a bit.

"How about putting efforts into improving stationery?"

"What kind of thing is the stationery related to books and paper?"

"It is something like" file "or" binder "to keep paper together.How about making an order form etc. which prints out the form for the merchant? From now on, merchants from other territories What is going to come a lot, is not it better to decide the format in advance? "

Because it is hard to process the documents that are written in each way of writing, explained Marc nodded many times with a relieved face. It seems to be a pain to write them so that we can handle them easily.

"Well, there are also questions from the chief of the guild.I asked if I confined the territory to trade, but how do I know the merchant who got permission and the merchant who I do not get?"

When the dessert of the pudding appeared, Beno saw me while poking a pudding with a pudding.

We only traded with trading merchants until now, but we will need to sort out from now on. Because there is not enough number for anyone to sell, it will sort out the territory.

"... .. I have to think a bit about that, have you heard your opinion on Otto?"

"It seems that it can only be said to be various according to the territory, more than anything, I do not know the details of the merchants who trade with lives from the lords."

Even Otto and the guild manager, I do not even know about merchants who are not very detailed.

"It may be better for you to examine how other territory is doing for the moment. Or is it better to make a thing unique to Ehrenfest and make it impossible to imitate other territory .....

It came to my mind in my head, it is a vermill ship trade. Is it possible to distinguish if a system that allows only merchants who Au-Ehrenfest to hand over a red seal is made?

However, it is dangerous to decide how much to issue, or whether it is really effective, based on my common sense.

"I will ask Aub Ehrenfest for the time being because there may be arrangements between the lords."

"Thank you"

..... The rice which I eat with someone is delicious.

Embracing such thought, maybe I finished the last lunch to eat with Lutz. Even if there is opportunity for dinner with the Beno of the Printemps business, it is impossible to eat with Lutz. Perhaps it can be done in about ten years, but it feels very far for me.

"Rosemain, this is a material on this sales, this is an opinion on the lower level civilian, this is a summary of the maintenance of townscape"

"I am saved, I will deliver it to Aub Ehrenfest, this is a request from Aub Ehrenfest"

In response to Beno's words, Lutz offered the material. I secretly confirmed that a letter is caught in a bunch of documents, I immediately put a bunch of documents in a sentence box and do a lid.

At the same time, Lutz finds that there is an envelope in the material that I handed to Lutz and narrowed my eyes.

... .. Maybe this is the end of the letter exchange?

Even though I am ready, my heart aches. While holding down the desire to cry, I ordered Fran to open the door of the hidden room.

"Fran, I will go to that room, there is an important story in Beno, Marc, Lutz, the escort knight is Dahuel, the side is Gil and Fran ... .. and the civil service is Justoks"

The moment when the name of Justozu came to the end of the member entering the hidden room, Lutz opened up a bigger eyes like "I can not believe". Marc gently fell off his eyes, and Beno closes his eyes tightly like "Does this day have come?"

Once I saw the other side of the door where the france was opening, I turned my smile on my face to Ruth.

"It's an important story,"

Chapter 340: A promise

---

When I get inside, everyone comes in after that. I sat on my chair where Gill pulled and confirmed that the frange carefully closed the door and looked around everyone slowly.

Damuel, an escort standing behind me at a fixed position, frank at the front of the door, Gill on the right as the right side of the place, but the three of the people at the Plantin Shokai seemed to be unable to determine the standing position I compare me with Justocus.

"There are Lutz, Mr. Beno, Mr. Marc, and Justochs, but sit there as usual, because Juistus knows all the circumstances, so do not worry about it."

"Huh?"

I raised the voice that Lutz was surprised and looked up at Justoks. Justoks lightly shrugs his shoulders and overlooks Lutz.

"It is me who studied Mine in Downtown by Ferdinand's life, so it was for two years I was assigned to the Plantin Shokai and the workshop. It is the order of Ferdinand that I am present today."

Lutz who was on the face that heard disgusting things about the words of Justoks is sitting in front and turns a face that looks anxious to me.

"Dear Rosemain, did the priest chief say something?"

"Lutz, please, talk normally."

"Normal ... ...."

After looking round the circumference, Lutz slowly breathed out, and as I had troubled, I closed my eyes tightly once and then stared straight at me with the green eyes.

"Okay, what happened?"

At the same time as relaxing with the voice and tone familiar to the ear, it is attacked by a sense of loneliness that can not be stopped.

Nature and the back of my eyes got warmer. Lutz and Beno, who tried to extend their hands towards this distorted vision, are reflected.

I grasped the hand that I had put on my knee.

"To use this hidden room is the end of today and that's why, so that we will separate properly ... .. as I said ..."

I fell down with a deep sigh that I could not tell which tears were swaying so much. When I was staring at the tears of grains passing on the fist, Beno's groaning voice came.

"Nothing, regardless of your appearance and consciousness, it is already ten when you look at others. It can be expected that the hidden room can not be used if the nobleman's daughter becomes ten years old."

He opened his eyes as Lutz was surprised at the words of Beno who was bitterly expressive. It was only Rutz who did not anticipate parting, and it seems that Beno and Marc were like this.

"Even in terms of age, Rosemain says that there are really few merchants who are personally referring to each other."

Marc gently laughed like I was in trouble while saying that.

"There is already an opinion that Rosemain is too favorite of the Planetan Shokai and Gilberto Shokai even among the merchants. When rumors like that bringing a man of a commoner to the hidden room of the temple flow, Rosemain As well as of course, the blow to here is also great. "

If all the achievements of Plantin Shokai are thought to be due to my love affair, influence will come out one after another. Beno said, especially concerning the motivation of employees. It is troubled for me to get bad reputation for the Plantin business.

"Ah, you certainly do not want such a bad reputation for the saint?"

"Not only that, there are announcements for engagement soon"

Lutz twinkled his eyes a few times with a poked face. The eyebrow is distorted mysteriously.

".....Whose?"

"My engagement announcement of me and my brother Wilfried son, the lord's son"

As expected it seemed surprised, Beno and Marc also rounded eyes. Lutz tilts his head with an engagement and a face I will not tie at all in my head.

"... .. is that ...? ... Umm, engagement is not that early?"

"Yeah, there are lots of things in the lords, so it was done to avoid the troubles."

Lutz said with an amazed face that you were just making a problem no matter where you go. After that it became a terribly troubled face, and laughingly laughingly, "It is not an issue that I can help with me." I felt that my chest was tightened with that complex smile.

As usual I want to cling to Ruts gently, I can not extend my hand, I gaze with my wrinkle on my skirt while opening and holding my fist on my knees.

The time has come for us to be aware of the fact that there are walls that do not go away even though they want to be squatted, or that they have noticed a distance that they are hesitant to cling to, or that they have been looking at things that have not been seen Or rather, it is very difficult to put words into my feelings.

"..... The woman of the aristocrat who got engaged brings the man of the common man into the hidden room is very bad outing"

"No, the engagement woman brings a man, even if he is not a nobleman, he is bad"

You are pointed out immediately by Lutz, that you do not have enough common sense. When I showed muscular lips with sharpness, Lutz scratched his head and head like Beno's habit had changed.

"Ah, for the time being, I knew it would be impossible to meet here ... .. but you, is that okay so it is okay?"

"... .. It's not okay at all"

Tears have come out with real intention.

It was totally bad at all. Lutz acknowledged my existence and managed to make paper and hair ornaments while doing physical condition, and when I struggled to hit the walls and hit the walls, they thought about a solution together, I was lonely and uneasy

When we did not have it, we stayed together, we brought a letter from the family who had no choice but to leave, so we managed to manage it.

I do not think I can manage it by myself.

"If it's not okay ..."

I put my hands up and restrained the words of Lutz we said.

"Even if it's not okay, it's not good anymore, until I went to the lords, I was blinded, I slept for two years and I was unstable so I forgave you that there is no choice ....., it really was a long way to go away already. "

Ruts looked painfully distorted his face. Beno and Marc fell down, gently gazing away his line of sight.

"I understand why I can not be with you unpleasantly, but I do not know ... I guess I slept for two years why? Why have I slept for two years but have not healed completely? I wonder why I had to leave so suddenly? Even if I was told I was 10 years old, I do not think like that "

The hand of Lutz grows to comfort me.

The hand stopped halfway through it, and it was tightly held in the shape of a fist.

".....Do not cry"

A groanish low voice leaks out of the mouth of Lutz.

Lutz got up and clapped his teeth, looking down at me with a frustrating face.

"Do not cry anymore, Mine!"

Surprised by reprimand from Lutz and the sound of the name "Mine", my tears cease for a moment.

"No matter how much I cry ahead, I will not be able to comfort you, okay ... So do not cry anymore."

With a face that seemed to be desperately painful, saying so as to mourn her helplessness, Lutz resumed again.

As the silent silence went down, I noticed that Yustoks was quietly watching me. It is common to the chief priest and eyes to see the other.

It was at the same time that Lutz calls "I, Mine" to try to go down with my heart wailing my eyes unintentionally. I move my eyes to Lutz 's voice without falling down.

"When was the future dream that I talked about on the way to the forest, do you remember Mine?"

To such a question, I recall the time when I was walking to the forest with my breath, in order to collect the blessings of firewood and forest, with a small backpack. Lutz played the pacemaker, Turi was in the summary role of the children, Ralph was there, there was a face. While heading to the forest with a group of children, it was the last time to arrive, always departing first, with walking slow.

I feel like I was desperately trying to make a clay board that told about my future dream. Lutz said that he wanted to be a journey. At that time, I did not know anything about citizenship and the lives of the traveling merchants, as to how their occupations seemed to be in the surroundings, and I was not aware of anything free and scary to that extent.

"Surely, Lutz said he wanted to be a pedestrian, did not he?"

The cheeks relax slightly to nostalgia. Unlike me who is immersed in nostalgia, Ruth nodded with a serious face.

"Yes, I thought that I would like to go to another city, I thought that I wanted to be a pedestrian and want to leave this town ... .. Now thanks to you, my dream has come true As Gutenberg, I left this town, went to Hasse, went to Ilkner and went to Haldzell. Harden Zell was far away to go by a horse-drawn carriage and also to various towns and villages on the way I am already going to various places, I will go from now on, so I have to make a printing studio "

Green eyes like Lutz 's jade saw me straightly looking at the names of villages and towns where I was headed.

"... .. Do you remember what your dream was?"

Asked by Lutz, I search for memory while blinking over and over.

In those days I was desperate to make a recording medium in the absence of paper and ink, somehow I wanted to leave a character, I had no strength, I was short of my strength, I was short of money, no money was. Just because I wanted to read books, I wanted to read it.

"..... To live surrounded by books, how many books are made in January, I got it all, I want to live and read life ....."

... Ah, that's right. Compared to those days, I am very blessed.

I got a piece of paper. Ink is formed. I got a printing press. I got a foundation for spreading books. I made collaborators who helped with making book making work. There is a library in both the temple and the castle, and because I am in the current status, I can freely go in and out and read the book. I noticed myself that I got what I wanted the neatly.

Look at your hand and return your eyes to Lutz. Lutz nodded once with Kokuri.

"There are still a few books made in Ehrenfest in a year, but if you increase print studio as it is, then the number of books will increase in one month in January and several in January."

"Yup"

Not only at Ehrenfest, but also in Halden Zell was a printing studio. There are other Gibe who wants to start printing. If Gutenberg moves and tells us, the number of printing studio will increase. That is synonymous with the increasing number of books I wanted.

"I will increase it, I will increase books for you more and more"

"... .. why does Rutz do so?"

When I thought that I heard the same thing before, I shrugged my shoulders as he said that Lutz was a matter of course.

"My dream has come true for you, so your dream will come true I will make books for you and deliver it and do not cry, you do not cry. I only have to wait for it to arrive. "

Listening to Lutz's words, I felt a strange feeling "something different" rather than happy.

Lutz who came together all the while said that I should wait for me. It is very pleasant that the book will arrive if you wait, but why does not it look like Lutz? I was relieved, thinking about what I am not surprised with while listening to my brow.

"..... I am useless, are not you?"

"Yup?"

It is natural that it does not work. I have come together with him. Even when making paper and hair ornaments, when saving orphans in the temple, when selling books in the castle, the place is different and the work in charge is different, I have not waited separately just vaguely.

"What I thought is made by Lutz.If Rutz makes a book and delivers it, I open my mouth and I'm not waiting in a minute and I have to do what I can do There's no qualification for me to read the books that Ruth makes, just to wait just for what I can do. "

Lutz smiled nicely in my words.

Beno says, "Oh, that's right, if you have time to cry, work, get going, make profits," and narrow down the reddish brown eyes.

"In order to make Gutenberg work comfortably, cooperate and support so that as many books as you can make ... .. as I promised with my father, I will protect everyone in this city"

"Yes, from now on, the Plantin Shokai and Gutenberg will always be doing work involving aristocrats, only you who have been adopted by the lords can protect us who are weak commoners"

When I nodded and responded to Marc 's encouraging words, Lutz stood up and stood before me. And then hand out the bags and hands.

"Even if we can not meet in this way, I will make a book for you because this promise is always valid."

I also got up and took the hand of Lutz. Put your strength in the hand you've joined, declare it by putting your strength on your stomach.

"Even if I can not meet in this way, I will think about what I can do for Rutz, I promise."

While holding hands, smile with each other.

Lutz 's say, "Well, promise, defend me" and then leave the hidden room. It is Gill to see the gate to the temple.

I was already swollen with eyes, saying "Lutz too," while I took off everyone in the hidden room.

"Yusukkusu"

"What is it, princess?"

"Am I smiling right now? Do you think that Lutz went without worrying?"

Justkus nods quietly with Kokuri.

"I am laughing ... Well, there is still time before I get back to the castle How about using a hidden room in the temple's room? How can I move the sideways with this hidden room From Justkus said that a noble aristocratic woman who should not reveal his feelings will rebuild one's feelings in a hidden room.

"Hime's hidden room was His own family so far, it was a relationship with the merchants of the downtown,"

Justkus's way of example came within me. My family in Downtown was like a hidden room where I could afford my own.

"Well, yes, the hidden room where the family no longer opens the door, Rutz are sleeping beds that will become free a little if they close the tent, or a futon that seems to try hard on the next day when they sleep and wrap them up Shōka "

..... Hidden rooms and sleepers have gone.

From now on, where should I rest? Is it that you must become strong like a knight you can do?

When I was about to return to the temple room, Franc brought the veil and gave me fluff and head. It will be red due to crying When my face can not be seen by other people, I refuse a word saying "Frank will be disrespectful" and hug me up.

"I will leave this clean up to Monika and Nicolas because I will bring Rosemain to the temple room."

Franan left the hidden room and said to Monica and Nicola, and began to walk with freshness. After saying "I can walk by myself", I will lean against the francs as I stumble. It is because it noticed that the franc that does not go beyond the boundary between the Lord and the side is spoiled spirit and skin ship.

..... It is hard to understand with the chief priest as ever.

Damuel and Angelica are followed as escort knights, and it is Justoks walking next door. When you arrive at the temple room, you are lowered in front of the hidden door.

"Princess, I will call you when it's time to return to the castle. Until then, please use the hidden room. Is there anything important in this sentence box?"

Just saying with a talk that seems to know the letter from the family sandwiched between the documents, Justkus hands the sentence box which seems to have brought this far.

"Thank you, Yusukkusu"

I took out a letter from a sentence box in a hidden room of the temple room and expanded it.

It was an answer to the letter that I was leaving to the Plantin business at the time of the sale at the castle. Everyone who read a letter reporting that Tuli's hair decorations received compliments from the prince and first grade pupil at the House of Peers sent us the praise of letting go.

"Mine, I worked hard, did not it seem like it was serious? Be careful not to disturb your physical condition, only worry about it."

"Turi is praised by the prince, Mine is the best among the aristocrats, both of my daughters are amazing, it is our father's pride."

"There are more craftsmen who can make hair ornaments, but Maine's doing my best as I can make it, I do not want to ask other people."

I wanted to cry just by opening a letter.

Tears stopped stopping after reading.

From now on, if a civilian comes with you, it will be impossible even such a trivial exchange.

"Dad, Mother, Turi ..."

I can not put it in my hidden room that was blocked by the door of contract magic with his adoptive father.

"Mr. Beno, Marc, Lutz ... ...."

I do not have any futon that I can cry from now on.

"I will keep promises, but ... It seems impossible not to cry, Lutz"

Chapter 341: Me and the chief priest

---

While my consciousness was sinking deeply, I could hear a voice calling me. I do not want to wake up yet. I want to sink in the sea asleep as it is.
Even if you think so, the voice that calls me will not stop.

"Rosemain, get up."

"Wow ...."

Yoshiyasu and the body are shaken, and I can slowly open my eyes. I feel my eyelids swollen and heavy. Maybe because I was too tired, it seems that the temple is ginzin and I still have fever.

"The chief priest and Justozk and Ekhart brother ... ..?"

I did not know why the people in the field of view were close to me, I looked around and remembered that I was in a hidden room.

Apparently I seem to have fallen asleep reading my letter. While watching the chief priest and the two who are behind it, I slowly raise the body that was still lying on the desk. I felt asleep in a strange position, so it hurts like it gently crumpled.

"Oh ... .."

"What a terrible face indeed,"

As soon as he got up, the priest chief inscribed wrinkles between his brows and said so. "I will be deplorable" will be further chased, I will sharp my lip.

"It's a terrible complaint against girls"

"Is not it true?"

..... It's extra terrible.

"It's crying and swollen, it's probably because I fell asleep in a letter and ink was stuck on my cheeks, it's going to be tough as long as I can read the characters on the face"

Gently touching your cheeks as pointed out by the chief priest, look at the desk where you were sleeping, hi! I breathed away.

"No, a letter has blurred!"

"Manage that miserable face more than the letter that you read"

"A letter is more important than a face!"

I got my head holding a letter that was shabby with shark due to ink tearing with tears, once wet and dry.

"Do not you have a wonderful magician to restore this letter!"

"Do you know if it is a magic tool that removes ink beautifully?"

"It's going to disappear completely!"

When the chief priest nods with "expressionless" with expressionless, he put his hands on his mouth so that Justoks will be able to laugh. The chief priest overlooking me, huh, and I breathe sighingly badly.

"... .. I feel better than I thought."

It is time to prepare for the castle, it seems that I felt asleep, even if the france flashed the magician for communication. The franc concerned that the possibility of collapsing in a hidden room may have contacted the chief priest and the priest who can enter the hidden room came to see the situation.

"When I entered the hidden room, I was surprised because I discovered the unconscious princess who fell on the desk I noticed that I was asleep, I stroked my chest with awareness."

After seeing me after seeing Justoks who added 'Ferdinand says' at last, after gloriously staring at the priest chief as "do not say anything".

"I just remembered one incident in the reflection room, which has no particular meaning."

"Ferdinand, what is one incident in the reflection room? What happened?"

If you want to know, and shine your eyes, lightly raise your hands, the priest leader touches my forehead and touches the neck.

"The fever is not going up, the pulse is normal, the magical power seems to be stable,"

"Anyway, I do not feel well at all, I do not have any energy at all, but I'm going to be lazy, but my goal is fixed, so it's okay, I can do my best for that."

In declaring that I will do my utmost to set up a library and to enhance the collection, the chief priest frown very disgustedly.

"Although it does not look like it does not get well, well, well, let's do something that can not bear in mind for the moment"

"Please do something badly about the priest 's chief priest. <sup>Dangerous</sup> Regret Words are too rich. "

As I complained and turned towards the priest chief, I was told by the chief priest who issued Stap, "Stop breathing".

I do not understand the meaning, as I tilt my head, "Wow?", At the same time the water balls fly away from anywhere, striking my face and striking against it.

"Spoofing !?"

When I realized that it was the magic of washing my father's cloak in the small temple of Hasse before, I drowned in a water ball, and it was gone shortly after.

Although I drank water that I had hit on my face unexpectedly, it is not already wet and there is only a feeling that the water has flowed backwards through the nose.

"Hurray! Hurray! My nose hurts."

"Fool, why did not you hold your breath !?"

I told the chief priest as being surprised, but I would have stopped breath properly if you mentioned the reason not to stop breathing but to use washing magic. While rubbing his back against Justochs, he stares at the priest chief.

"The chief priest is too short to explain"

In my point out, the chief priest played Hun and a nose, and taught "including closing your eyes so as to give healing," this time including the reasons.

Close your eyes as I said, the hand of the chief priest covers my eyes. Together with the mourning "Lung Sumer's Healing" filled with gentle green light, the puffy feeling of the eyes got disappeared for a while.

"Thank you, the chief priest"

"I got to see somewhat in this, really you take a hand."

The line of sight of the priest who told me troublesome stopped with a letter in my hand. I see my eyes narrowed slowly, staring at me. When I thought what was going on, the hand of the priest who widened a little more spreading came.

... ... confiscated! Is it?

I hid in a hurry to hide the letter behind him.

Immediately afterwards, the hand of the chief priest is put on my head and moved as if the head turns around. My head was swayed to the left and right without saying, I endured it for a few seconds, but my eyes came. I make a restraint while making my eyes black and white with the swaying scenery.

"Please wait, what is it !?"

"... ... I thought that I had not praised you."

I wonder if it is the praise expression of the priest chief who wields the head with the enclosure. I came to feel that the chief priest may not be praised.

"Did you do something like praise?"

"I guess I won the best, I thought by looking at your letter, now that I was not praising, while being a guardian of a guardian."

"Did you mean that you were praised when the priest owner took the best?"

My question was frightened with eyes and my face seemed to cherish important memories. I stare at the mysterious mood that there is a feeling of thought like I have never seen before.

By the way, I apologized for not being able to take the awards ceremony. To take best is may be very pleasing and important memories for the chief priest.

"... Who was praised by the priest owner?"

"Father."

The chief priest who was brought to the castle on the occasion of the baptismal ceremony was given a room away from the north from the beginning. Because the place to live is different, it is only dinner time to talk with the father's predecessor lord. At that time, Veronica is present, so the chief priest who wants to refrain from touching even a bit eats silently unless asked. It is said that such life continued until entering the House of Lords.

In the evening when he took the best in the first year student at the House of Lords, the priest chief seems to have been called from the father for the first time to the room. The dormitory of the aristocrat is divided between men and women on the second floor and the third floor, Veronica does not enter because the lords are also different rooms. It seems that I was able to take time for my first father and child.

There was also Jilvester on the spot, and the chief priest was praised for taking the best from the two. Jill Vester reported eloquently that he was a lords of nobility, and his father narrows his eyes with a calm expression and hears it. My father, who usually does not try to look eyes, turned his eyes to himself and listened to the story. He said that it was a precious time told by three other men who do not get in the way.

After that, when the lords and couple came to the House of Lords, they seemed to set up a time to talk a little at night. I wanted to be praised for the time with my father who rarely took, and it is said that Ferdinand legend is the result of thoroughly pitching.

"At that time, did the priest executive praise me from my father like this?"

Think about a bit more compliments, the predecessor! If I thought that, the chief priest swayed headlessly saying, "No, it is not wrong." It seems that praise like eye-turning was unique to the priest. I thought that it was reason and praise that lacked kindness.

"Well then, please praise it as the priest chief did"

"As if I were my father?"

Now, praise! When I opened my hands, the chief priest sat down in the chair where I was sitting. And draw me and lightly hug. I never thought that I would do such things with the parents of the aristocrat.

Without doubt to me who unexpectedly raises the voice of surprise, the priest director gave a gentle voice that I had never heard before.

"Well done, Ferdinand, I've done enough work as a lord of lords of Ehrenfest, I am proud of you."

"... .. Although I understood that the father of the priest was the gentleman, please replace it with Rosemain"

As I swept up, as I praised myself, I gently breathed. I thought it was a clumsy relationship with my family and people, and I was clumsy about human relations, but I think that it is more terrible than expected that it is only a few days a year to interact with his father.

"Well done, Rosemain, I've done enough work as a lord of lords of Ehrenfest, you are my pride."

It praised me properly this time, but it seems that my memorandum correction in the chief priest's head was diminished, it was quite a stick reading compliment and I was tossed as soon as I finished talking.

It is surely the chief priest owner should have been treated like this by his father. Even though he is a guardian, he seems a bit terrible to me.

"... ... The chief priest, I will do my best, so please praise this several times a year"
"I wish that I could win the best"

When I was staring at the height of the hurds that the chief priest asked, Justoks sighed and shook his head.

"Mr. Ferdinand, that much is also necessary for the princess. While the principal also reported, as previously reported, the princess is equal to losing the hidden room and the bed, so it is not the duty of the guardian to prepare the substitute. Since we had thrown the stability of the princess's heart in a downtown, we should take responsibility beyond taking up it. "

The chief priest who was told in a tone very similar to Ricarda became a complicated face that can not be said anything. Seeing me while tapping the temple lightly.

"Even if it is said to be responsible, there will be new family already in Rosemain ... .... Rosemain, if you are a hidden room for the family of the downtown, what is Karstedd and Jilvestor if the Planetan shrine is a couch?"

I was questioned while glaring, I thought that I was going to hurry.

"Your father and your adoptive father are .... It's a door, to prevent the invasion of others from the outside, to protect me and to keep me from going out ..."
"I see"

"It's an interesting example, so what kind of entities are Elvira and my mother?"

Justice gave his eyes bright and enjoyed the following. I try to imitate the furniture in my room, for example.

"Mothers and Richardas are fireplaces, bright and warm, absolutely necessary for life, but they can not lean, but if they approach too much they will get burned."

"Hmm, interesting"

The chief priest is raising the end of the lip a little enjoyably and crowding the surrounding people one after another. I answered it one by one.

"Angelica, Brothers Cornelius, Escort Knight are bookshelves, they protect my precious things ... .. In that case, Damiel is a lockable box, I know my secret Because it keeps the mouth shut. "

"You are more concerned about Damuel than I expected."

"Francs, the side of the temple is an office desk, it is a place to work and a place to spread and read books, both public and private are included and it is a must for my life"

"Is not it just the princess to put public or private me on the office desk?"

Yusutsukusu said so and shrugged his shoulders. It's a place to enjoy reading books on hobbies, so I think that it is not wrong in a private place.

After the names of a number of people came up, the chief cabinet secretary narrowed his eyes a little.

"Rosemain, what you have to rely on is Wilfried to engage but what kind of existence exists for you now?"

"Will Villefriit's older brother? Well .... It is a chair with no backrest, I can sit down and take a breath, but I can not lean back."

I grew up in two years and I think that I am doing my best but I think that there is no sense of security as leaning back, the chief priest lightly raised one eyebrow.

"Do not depend on it certainly, you must educate the back as much as you can"

Raise the hurdle while sending "Yukari" on my heart to Wilfried who is educated by the president of the priest.

"If you can, I'd like to have a sense of security that the arm rest is attached."

"Hmm, let's consider it"

..... Wilfried's older brother-in-law.

"Princess, how are you thinking of Earl Raisegang before?"

"Is he your great-grandfather?"

The name of a person not very familiar comes out from the mouth of Justoks, I slowly tilt his head.

"A fine workmanship placed on a fireplace or a shelf ... If it somewhat, it seems like a collapse if you push a little like it is made of sand. Even just watching from a distance "

Her brother Eckhardt smiled and said, "I certainly think that my great-grandfather should not touch." I am happy to sympathize, I laughed at Ekhart's older brother, and my older brother got a bit stern expression.

"But the brittle work is surprisingly sturdy and dangerous, Rosemain"

Earl of Reisegang was handled without being treated under the daughter who wished to be married and wanted by the candidate for the lord who was regarded as the next lord. Despite being married as the first wife, the princess of Ahrensbach was made a second wife by being worn. Besides, the candidate for the lord was excluded from candidates for the next lord as it caused a disturbance within the territory by forsaking the Princess of Ahrensbach.

At the same time, he told me to marry his youngest daughter to Bonifatius' s grandfather in order to maintain the balance within the territory from the lords of those days, but I let her married, but my grandfather did not care about the status of the lords, I will hand it over.

The correct wife was Veronica, the birthplace of Ahrensbach's princess, until his daughter's son and grandchildren were to be excluded by Veronica.

Even though it is a senior aristocrat who has the greatest land, it only lasts a long time to realize that it is being gradually removed from the center of power, it can only be protected by marrying Elvira's mother with his father, It seems that it was a regrettable life that I feel sorry for not being able to do.

"Rosemain with a magical power and achievement that can become an adopted lady of a lord and has enough magical power and achievement to be a candidate for the next lord will be the light of hope of Reisegang and it seems that it is a gift that the gods gave us at the end of my life"

"..... I have a lot of expectation, it is not a joke, if I say I do not plan to become a lord, I am desperate and dying, but is it okay?"

"The great-grandfather has already moved to be able to become the next lord, with Halden Zell and Greschel, mainly in Raisegang, starting Irkuna who took the paper industry first."

I am not originally like a commoner and a lord. Thinking that he would like me to be a true wife in fact because he was the principal priest and he was not the Vilfriet who he would like to be the next lord, the father whose father-in-law who first tried to get engaged and tied to the territory tied himself It should have been not.

"How do I deal with it? Am I not going to be a lord?"

"I do not intend to make you a lord either, I think that it will fit somewhat by engaging with Villefried, but Count Lizegaung earlier who has lived for many years is old-age, I roll a simple, tasty child like you like in the palm It will be easy as far as possible.

When I heard the priest 's allegiance, the grandpa who seems to be rising far higher still seems like a blackmind. Regardless of Count Raisinggang right now, Hippo Grandpa does not seem to be dangerous.

..... Because my judgment is wrong, I will do it as I was told by the president.

"From now on, relating to the printing industry may increase contact with Earl Raisinggang, but as much as possible to rely on Elvira, you should refrain from appearing on the table, then you may wear it at first. Try to rely on Wilfried, it will be necessary to show the attitude to support the next lord. "

"understood"

Once I nodded, the chief priest hid his mouth after saying "OK". Looking at me after thinking a bit and looking down.

"Rosemain, you are living with a secret, Justkus pointed out that Justoks was not familiar with aristocratic society because of the secret that there are few opponents you can consult with, so that those who know the secret are more I have to help you with a fine hand, "

I was surprised and looked up at Justoks. Justkx lightly sighs.

"It is hard for people to become familiar with common knowledge that they do not know, because it does not misappropriate temporary, but we have to live there, not only ban it but also why we must teach the reason carefully Just Rutz said that way. "

"What did you talk with Lutz?"

"It's one of the story while doing work at the workshop.It's hardly a topic common to me and the workshop, so the princess's topic has only been raised in the topic."

Justoks laughed, that the story of the Temple 's gray priests and the Planetan Shokai and Gutenberg were mixed up and it was very interesting.

"It's a weak constitution that I have been ill for a long time and could not go out, I talked to God in my dream world, I got that knowledge and saved the orphans, so I can not tell this common sense. On the other hand, Lutz said that he was a business opponent who had to point out one by one about what the princess is, how it is different, how it is different and what is the right answer. "

I feel that the saint Legend is pretty big in the end. In the mood of other people's affairs, he was hearing, and the chief priest shrugged his shoulders.

"Since I was told to Justoce, from now on I will look at your actions closely and point out, I think that it is urgent for you to become familiar with aristocratic society, and secrets should be avoided as much as possible"

..... Though I appreciate a lot in knowing common sense, I am totally unhappy as it seems to have been monitored for a long time.

"... Rosemain, I know that living with a secret is not easy But, given the ripples when the secret leaked out, you can understand that you should not easily leak out?"

"Does the priest chief have any secrets?"

I remembered a little stuck in the word of knowing, as I asked, the chief priest glanced at me glaringly.

"Do not listen to what you know that you can not answer because you can not afford to leave easily, foolish people"

"I'm sorry"

... ... Is there a secret itself?

"The inside of the territory will move again with the announcement of engagement with Wilfried, I will move as much as possible to put together the nobility as much as possible. Please take good care of your actions well. Please consult before raising anything .good?"

"Yes"

So the story seems to have ended, and the chief priest has come up and heads for the door saying that it is past the time to go to the castle.

When chasing its back, Justoks called out "Princess."

"What, Yusukus?"

"I compared the various people a while ago, but I remembered what I had not heard about Ferdinand, what is Ferdinand like for the princess?"

I looked up at the chief priest. The chief priest has narrowed his eyes a little and is waiting for my answer.

"..... It's a chaise longue. I can read and relax, but if I leave my body completely and sleep, my body will be sore or catch a cold, I will have a sore eyes I will encounter it. "

Chapter 342: Spring feasting party

---

As soon as I return to the castle, it will be a party to spend spring. The social occasion of winter is over and everyone returns to their respective land and the daily routine from spring comes back.

"Is not this the costumes good for the princess?"

"Because it is a feast for spring, we think that this green is still desirable"

As soon as I came back to my room in the castle, the side workers had to arrange two costumes that they had already picked up and pressed me for a choice. Turn your head tilted looking alternately with the costumes Richarda and Brunhilde spread.

..... I, whichever is good.

A little frightened by the glare of the eyes of two people, the Rizerator came out suddenly hair ornaments from the side. It is the most new hair ornament that I bought from Turi along with Egrantine 's hair ornaments.

"Mr. Rosemain, is this a hair ornament attached to the party?"

"Well, I will use that new one."

When seeing me nods, a reiserator with hair ornament smiled nicely towards Richarda and Brunhild.

"If you match this hair ornaments, I think that the costume that Otellier had chosen for you first suits you. Shall I take it?"

"Well, hair decoration is decided, so please choose the costume accordingly."

As soon as costumes are decided, permission is also required for shoes and accessories. I only see permission as I see everyone going side by side. The basic is left to you.

"Rosemain, what kind of things did you decide at the meeting with the merchant?"

Haltmut will show you the document that we have finished making documents on preparations necessary for engaging in the printing industry.

After passing through it, I handed the minutes of Justocs which summarized what I discussed with Beno and a paper on my opinion to Hartmut.

"This is the minutes of the discussion with the merchant. It might be better to follow Jusutkus other than the special skills of the example. It is very well summarized."

"Is special skills impossible?"

I think it seems quite useful, but I shook my head to Hartmut who murmured.

"Hartmut is useless."

"Why, is not it?"

"Because it does not suit, Justkus is a neutral facial and is slightly small and slender, but Hartmut is rather taller, there is a firm shoulder width, and it is still growing ? "

Hartmut is also growing a little tired during the winter. Perhaps, I think that it will grow still. Whatever you think you are supposed to be a body type that you can wear shemale.

"Girls' wear is not an easy thing, since Yusukkus is a hardcore study that has repeatedly researched research to do as a hobby from olden days, utterances, wordings and gestures are perfect, but the grinding blades are just eerie."

Maybe the president may not be willing to have an adventure with a habitual disposition, but I do not want to.

No more than this is necessary because Hartmut is already quite strange, trying to excite the legend of the saint or make my research a life work.

"Because I will dismiss you if I do a girls wearing Hartmut"

"I am in trouble dismissal"

I breathe out of relief to Hartmut who dropped her shoulders and give up. Otilie and Richarda were facing the same expression of relief behind.

As everyone is busy with each one, I decide to proceed with what I should do. Increase the number of books as promised by Lutz. For that, we must make a manuscript of the book to print from spring.

When reviewing the manuscripts of reference books manuscripted at the House of Lords and writing the continuation of romance novels that had stopped on the way, the Rizerator brought an invitation letter from Charlotte.

"Rosemain, Charlotte received an invitation from the tea ceremony, how about tomorrow afternoon?"

"I do not have any particular schedule, I will come if you can accept a teaser."

There was no particular plan until spring feast. In my words, Riesereser said, "Because Charlotte was waiting for Rosemain's way home forever, I'd be delighted to hear from you, I will reply soon".

Wilfried was also invited to Charlotte 's tea ceremony, and three brothers and sisters got to have a tea party. It is the first time to think about it.

A tea ceremony began with a cherish blossom brought a sweets of a souvenir.

"I would like to decide what to do with the division of the prayer ceremony, so preparation will change accordingly."

The topic I first caught was the prayer ceremony. Charlotte and Wilfried are going to help this year as well, and we will talk about the division in charge while expanding the map.

To the land over which Giebe goes, the blue priest takes a small sacred cup, so we only have jurisdiction over the prayer ceremony. If four people share it, the range becomes very small. Perhaps it will be the end of this year's prayer ceremony soon.

"When I finish the prayer ceremony in the direct jurisdiction, I am going to go to Haldenzell with Gutenberg, and I want to check the appearance of Hasse, so I'm thinking that I want to take charge of the eastern side from Hassee directly But, "

"The people of Hasse were very deeply appreciating their sisters, since those in the small temple will feel secure if you look at the sister's appearance, are not your sisters good on the east side?"

"Well, Rosemain is on the east side"

I will agree to leave the south of the jurisdiction to Charlotte, the west to Villefried, and the north to the chief priest. If you later obtain permission from the bishop, it is a formal decision.

"Anyway, should I really help you head towards the ceremony ceremony, are not they two preparations too hard?"

"Since I already have a costume for a prayer ceremony, I do not mind do not care"

As of last year, Charlotte could not wear my costumes, and he seems to have made a costume for the prayer ceremony at the time I decided to help you from now on. It seems that Villefried's older brother tailored it ahead of time.

"Rosemain's costume was a clothing with a flower pattern embroidered, so after the prayer ceremony, I made it at the time I was told to participate in the autumn harvest festival."

The blue ritual costume I was tailoring is flower embroidery in the flowing water pattern. I'd be dissatisfied with Wilfried, how much I fixed it. Regardless of a suddenly decided prayer ceremony, I do not think that I want to go through sleeves many times afterwards.

"It is hard work on the way, is it okay?"

"The most troublesome thing in a shrine is that medicine, both magical power and physical strength recover but the taste is too bad"

Villefried said that with a terrible disgusting face. Charlotte also agrees with an indescribable face and nods.

"Yeah ... My sister also told me that she took the medicine and went around the praying ceremony and harvest festival from the side of the temple. While your body is weak, while you drink such medicine, you repeat the divine , I thought that my elder sister is not a goddess any more than spinning magical powers for Ehrenfest, and whatever the mouth tastes of that medicine for a while I thought whether it was my uncle's harassment when I first drank it. "

Hua and Charlotte breathed out, and waved his head loosely.

The side of the temple that was attached to Charlotte should have been Fran. I heard that furan prepared medicine was an improved version. While preparing an improved version, I taught the truth while smiling withered by the chief priest who seems to be harassing.

"It is not harassment, the medicine that we drank is Feldinand's concern and gentleness, it has been improved and it's much easier to drink"

"Is that a matter of concern and gentleness?"

Two people who pulled my cheeks and pulled my cheeks and said, "The stock solution is more terrible taste, the effect will not be comparable," he smiled and smiled and smiled and looked at with respect to respect.

"Hey, sister, are you sure that the story of being engaged with your brother is true? I was very surprised to hear from your father in the dinner the other day."

Charlotte asked me so, and I nodded naked.

"Is not Aub Ehrenfest a joke to say such a thing? It is true, it is the best choice for the territory."

It is the best choice for collecting the factions within the territory and ensuring that I acquire a library and make sure that the books made in Ehrenfest are obtained. While Charlotte clouded his face a little, he grabbed a gently cup of tea.

"... .. I was surprised because my sister asked me to make a side of my side."
"I'm your sister in Charlotte, you can always be on your side"

Sharlottte said "Please do not hesitate" or "that kind of thing" If you put your heart in his heart, I gave up a sigh of resignation with expressive expression. Then, once you turn your line of sight to Villefried, you stare at me.

"I do not care about my sister somehow."

.....that? Why are you worried why you said you can rely on it?

"Were not you deceived by your father or your brother about your engagement, even if you are told that you are going to buy a book, do not get hung up?"

I can not say that "I made a promise to get a library" to Charlotte who is concerned about being engaged by a book and getting engaged.

I laughed in spite of misunderstanding, but before I witnessed Vilfried felt as if it felt like I was looking to Charlotte.

"Charlotte, I have not deceived Rosemain, it was the other day that I heard that story, as I heard that Rosemain is a friend of Charlotte, this is also the same as I was surprised. I never thought of agreeing to engage with me. "

When I heard the two parties, I finally realized what "ally" would point. It seems that each showed support for becoming the next lord.

"So, Wilfried's older brother accepted to engage with me?"

"Well, brother and sister and couple are family, they are similar, everyone said, as long as it does not change much now, ... well, whether there is anyone else or not It seems to be different. "

Add a little while looking at Charlotte so it seems a bit lost.

I heard from the president of the priest that the power which is trying to push me up to the next lord mainly centering on Reisegang. Even the most senior aristocracy with Erienfest is moving, Virfriit's aides will know it.

It is rather Wilfriit himself, rather than himself, that he is trying to get the engagement with me in order to avoid the division of the factions and to summarize Ehrenfest and to fill the stigmatism of Wilfried.

"I think that I would be good if it was not swept around, but older brother Wilfried thought well and decided by himself."

"Is that good for you?"

"Well, of course."

The next day when there was a tea ceremony where we heard the words of Wilfried and Charlotte for engagement, a feast for spring was held. Since this party is the end of the winter social circle, basically all the aristocrats are available.

I was told by the chief priest "as much as possible to enter the venue", I entered with Wilfried and Charlotte in a room closest to the hall, for a while and then entered through a signal of Ricarda. Because they each have their own aides, they are quite large organizations.

The positions of the nobles in the hall are decided roughly. Close to the stage, upper class aristocrats in the front and gentle nobles gather in the rear behind the entrance. While many of the nobles are gathering, we are walking towards the front row one by one.

Phyllie has always been behind but this time it was my aides, it came to come before the first aristocratic surrounded for the first time. I am trying to take a resolute attitude by somehow raising my face, but my face is stiff and my feet are trembling.

Similarly the lower aristocrat Darmel changed his standing position slightly bitterly smiling at the state of tensioned Phyllie. It is a position where Phyllie is a little hard to see from surrounding nobles. By the way, at the time of Damuel I remembered that Brigitte had reduced his eyes towards Damuel a little.

"I understand because I also experienced the same, but I only have to get used to it"
".....I will do my best"

After looking back as if Phyllie had been played in the words of Dahuel, he laughed as if he had been a little relieved.

..... Yes, I'm glad that everyone working together is friendly.

The lords and couple have entered the noisy atmosphere of the aristocrats who come near to greet us.

The father adopts a round-roof viewing round the inside of the hall and opens his mouth.

"God of water goddess Frito Rane's pure flow, the god of life's life was swept away, the goddess of the earth goddullyhi was rescued and blessed in snow melting!"

With such words of adopting father, the feast for spring is beginning.

"First of all, we will present presenters of excellent people this year, as many as five students got excellent results"

Oh, the voice of praise went up and clapping happened.

It seems I was the only one who took the best, but Vilfried, Leonore, Elder Cornellis, Hartmut were told to rise to the stage as a superior.

"Well done, Rosemain. This is a souvenir and I hope it will be useful to others in the future"

I received a souvenir from my adoptive father who said so. It is a relatively large magic stone. When watching while thinking that it is amazing, others can see the same mana stone got.

"It is a pleasure to have many people who are responsible for the future Ehrenfest, so that they can work harder and achieve even better results"

The announcement of excellent grades was completed with such words.

I return to the original position, I look around the talented person and spew from the admiration.

"... ... My aides are excellent."

"You can not avoid being excellent."

As Cornelius brother shrugged his shoulders as if he was amazed.

I, the Lord, are the first to finish a lecture and go to the library. Escort Knights and civil servants will be accompanied by those who have free hands. If the library ends in a day, you do not need to be desperate, but if you go to the library all the time at the House of Lords you can not help deceiving the aides so that you can finish the lecture as soon as possible.

"Although Mr. Rosemain is excellent, we can not afford to tell people around us ... .... It will inevitably make an effort."

Hartmut says so and narrows his eyes. Léonore also smiled because "balancing is important."

"It was good that the solidarity of each course was deepened thanks to the grading committee this year and it became an atmosphere that makes it easier to ask questions."

"... ... that remarks, is the winner of the performance improvement committee a good knight course?"

We promised to present a recipe of Qatar curl to the team who was the fastest and all the team passed the exam and the team with the most outstanding people.

It was definitely a first year student who finished the lecture at the fastest speed and I brought out a lot of talented people, because I took the best, I become a first year student. It is a knight course at the next point.

"Is not it good at the knight course? Because the civil service course will be taken next year, I am already ready for reference books."

As I told Hartmut with a cool face, I beat my lips a blunt point.

"Oh, Haltmut. You are ready for the second grade next year, it will be a problem if you think that you can easily win"

"Yes, I did not have enough preparation this year, but next year I will take a side course, preparing my preparations to be good at my side"

Brunhilde of the side course which ended without giving out any superior person, is inspired to next year.

"I am sorry, but unfortunately, I will take the Knight Course next year, as an apprentice by Virfriit-sama escort knight will be doing magical compression and I will receive special training like my grandfather. Above all, Angelica graduated. This is big. "

Mr. Cornelius and his brother whom Hartmut was facing seriously said, "Angelica's graduation hurts," he muttered. By the way, it seems that it was Hartmut that told us to pick up Steinruch from Angelica as a handicap to the knights course.

"I'm looking forward to next year.

As a result of such interaction, the recipe of Katrkar which is the prize from the performance improvement committee was to be distributed to the first grader and the knight course.

After the excellent people are announced, the results of Ehrenfest in the lords will be announced. It seems that it was 11th in the domestic opposition fighting ditters. Considering that it was the 14th place so far, it can be said that it grew considerably.

"From this spring onwards, Bonifaceius will take the initiative in the apprenticeship of the knight so that we can achieve better results with Ditta.

Although the research presentation is of Hirschle, it was stated that the announcement on the relics of the royal family, the same ride-on type cuddle as me and the staple with a crest were gaining attention.

Regarding hospitality, it is stated that Lincian, hair ornaments, Cuttukar are becoming popular at the House of Lords and talks about transactions from lords of other territories.

It seems that the correspondence of the servants also gained a reasonable evaluation. Since it was a situation that few people evaluate in the usual year, we say that we can further improve from now.

The general ranking of Ehrenfest can be taught at the Lords Conference.

"This year I have sent out a number of trends from Ehrenfest, and I am planning to expand the printing little by little from now on, so I will ask for cooperation for that."

Finally, the announcement of new adults who graduated from the House of Peers and their assignment announcement that will be officially working instead of apprenticeship will be held. Angelica also came up to the stage and was announced that it became my escort knight.

In the place where the feast for spring has ended, it is the end of the air, and the adoptive father gave a voice saying "There is a serious announcement related to the future of Ehrenfest".

As soon as the noise spreads to the large hall, the adoptive father on the pallet lightly raises his hand and instructs me to come up to Wilfried.

"Go, Rosemain"

Escorted to Villefried, I slowly go up to the stage. While attracting attention as to what is on earth, I looked around the nobles gathering from the top of the platform.

My grandfather is scared somewhat. I clench my teeth and have a face that looks bleak. My mother made her eyes shining and it looked somewhat ornate. There must be a romance novel by me and Wilfriit in the brain surely.

The chief priest is quietly searching for the surroundings with the expressionless expression as usual. The same is true for Justoks and Eckhardt brothers. There is a Count of Reisegang that was lightly eyed, as if it is impossible to believe in the direction of the head of the priest, and there is Mrs. Dar - dorf 's eyes behind Justus' s eyes.

It is another man who is wary of Mr. Eckhardt's brother. If you look at the costume you are wearing, I think that it is somewhere.

.....Who is it?

When I tried to look closely with eyes, the acclaimed voice of the adoptive father reverberated to the hall.

"Because of the guidance of the highest God darkness and the couple of lights, who supervises the expansive sky, the spinning thread of the goddess Drepphan Goa of the time overlaps here now Pray for the encounter between my child Virfriit and Rosemain Giving thanks and giving us sacred protection "

I am complaining about engagement announcement.

Perhaps it was an unexpected announcement for most aristocrats, the inside of the saloon fluttered all at once. Look around and see the startle expression looking at me and Wilfriit standing side by side from the stage.

As far as walking around the hall, few people are raising the voice of joy. The voice "Why!?" Was rising from here and there.

Earl of Reisegang has a big eyes wide, and the wife Mrs. Daldorf holds his mouth. And, while everyone was surprised, Mr. Eckhart's brother was staring almost without changing his expression. It looks so conspicuous. I felt that my eyes met for a moment.

"You get approval from the king at the Lord's Conference.

I threw a ripple between the aristocrats, and the feast for the spring ended the end.

Chapter 343: Meeting with civil servants

---

When the banquet featuring spring ends, the nobles return to their land sequentially. Before that, we must meet with civil officials involved in the printing industry, and with delegates elected from Giebe concerning the printing industry.

The next day of the party, I was headed for a meeting with ceremony officials involved in the printing industry and the paper industry.

However, due to our engagement announcement that appeared at the end of the feasting spring, it became a fuss that pierced the beehive.

That would be natural as well. It is no wonder that the information gathered during the winter has been scattered for those who were collecting mainly in Reisegang trying to boost me to the next lord during the winter. By engaging, we have to rework how we will change the forces of the future and information.

And for those of us who are old Veronica and who do not feel comfortable with me, the engagement story is like I decided to deeply involve the center, so it will be necessary to talk about how we decide to move Should

By the time we finished breakfast, a large amount of visitation requests written as emergency arrived to me, and the side workers began to go down and forth. I can not respond no matter how many requests from any important person. It is stopped being involved with parents.

"I, I must visit Aub Ehrenfest first, how to deal with it, please refuse all visits regarding the visit"

"Princess, we are not the only people who can easily refuse"

Richard aligned the names of the sender a lot. There are many names of relatives that were referred to as "the Rosemain school" from the head of the priest. Even more, we need a meeting before the visit.

"Ferdinand, what should I do?"

I flew Aldanants and I decided to throw off coping to the chief priest. The answer that came back was that we returned to the temple after we finished meeting with the civilian. Advantageously, a winter adult ceremony and a spring baptismal ceremony will be held. I resurrected in two years, I must do a divine task as the temple.

... ... I do not think I'm lucky to get away from having trouble. Because it is the temple of the temple. It can not be helped. Oh no!

"When I'm done with today's meeting, I will return to the temple and I will not be able to visit them, but I'm really strapped ..."

"Princess, please do a little disappointing face"

Richarda said so, when I left up to the senior aristocracy Brunhild and Otilier to refuse the letter of the visitation request, I began preparing for the meeting with the Risaizer. In any case, it seems that it will be left to the Rizerator to enter the meeting place full of civil servants.

"We heard that many civilian to lower-level aristocrats are involved in the printing industry and the paper industry, as long as there is a boss, if the side of an advanced aristocracy is there, the circumstances are nervous and the work is not successful."

Richarda said so.

By the way, today I am going out as a civil apprentice. If you do not have experience as a civil apprentice, you can not become a civilian. If you can not become a civilian, you can not become a librarian.

To tell the truth, if I was to do the practical training I wanted to work in the library of the castle, I gave hope to the president of the castle, but I was angry with "idiot". While tapping the temple and temple, "What is the responsible person in the business to spread the printing industry saying? Your attendance belongs to the paper industry and the printing industry."

... I promised to Lutz, and I would like to grow the paper industry and printing industry with full power!

"Phyline, let's do our best together"

"Yes, Rosemain sama"

When laughing at Philline, who also became the first officer as a civil servant, Philene nodded with a slightly nervous face. By having a room in the castle, time to be in touch has increased, and I feel that the distance with Phyllin is getting a little closer.

"Since Hartmut was already practicing in a different department, would you become a senior as a civil servant? Please tell me variously."

"Anything if there is anything to be taught ..... But I do not think there is any particular thing that I can tell you about the paper industry and the printing industry, rather I will not be asking for teaching "

Hartmut says so and smiled wryly.

The side goes with Richarda and Rieselator, and the escort knight takes Dharmell and Angelica and Yudit.

I asked Cornelius elder brother and Leonore to gather information during the meeting. Both of them are relatives of Reesegang, so if you leave it in the castle, there is a high possibility that you will come from there.

I moved to the main building with a lesser bus and when I entered the room where the meeting was held, my mother was already here. It is not gorgeous costumes as usual, but emphasis on doing work, and wears a career not so flimsy about sleeping. From the attitude of seeing the document and the glittering atmosphere of that profile, a woman 's aura was drifting, I threw a sigh of admiration.

"mother"

"You must call it Elvira here, Rosemain Mr."

"I'm sorry .. Elvira, are there any changes in the schedule today?"

This time I will explain about the meeting and future plans and discuss the movement of Gutenberg and the timing of the gray priests to teach the paper industry.

"I do not think there are any particular changes"

Citizens of the aristocracy are supposed to talk with the guild director and the Planetan shop including the maintenance of the downtown and civil servants who have been dispatched from each Giebe must prepare for the acceptance of Gutenberg. The civil servant of the club is definitely only pretty busy.

"Do you have any mistakes as we meet with people in downtown in the temple?"

"I think that it is not absolutely necessary to decide as a shrine because it may be better to go in the castle, but for those in the downtown it is a place that is more accessible than the castle and for the civilian town completely downtown I thought that it was a place where I could compromise compared to going down to the road. "

"Once you visit, you will know that it is not a bad place, but that one time will be big."

My mother mutitated, because the impression that there is not much good impression for the nobility, then I took out a piece of paper.

"By the way, Rosemain, what is the introduction of this deposit system?"

"As mentioned there, it is a system that obliges the printing association to deliver the publication to the library of Ehrenfest. I have already received permission from Auben Ehrenfest"

A deposit system that gathers all the printed materials. I think that this is the most important system in expanding the printing industry.

"At that time, the book that largely reflects the life and culture at that time is a treasure that wrote the culture, yea, a valuable asset of Ehrenfest. It is the gathering, sorting and preserving such books that the child of the lord Is not it my duty? "

I saw that Akagi 's face with Pokan was reflected in the assertiveness of heat, but my mouth does not stop. can not stop. It is in trouble for mothers to deny the deposit system or to be dismissed here.

"In any case, I am planning to create a" national bibliography ", and if I introduce it, it will be relatively easy to register" copyright ", and I will not do it However, we will be able to do censorship too, a compulsory deposit system absolutely necessary for comprehensive collection! "

When confidently putting out my heart and saying plenty of confidence, my mother breathes out with a hand on my cheek and breathes lightly, pointing to a part of the document.

"I understand that part, I also acknowledge that it is useful, I do not understand that why it is obligatory not only to the library of Ehrenfest but also to the saints of Ehrenfest That's it. "

... ... To reduce the burden of Lutz.

Lutz told me that it will deliver all the books made to me, but it is impossible for Gibe to take the initiative at the printing laboratory and it is impossible to go to take it one by one and for what reason you go for taking every time I will. Although one book is expensive, it is impossible for me to collect books from my workshop for me.

Then, I should create a system that automatically gather books to Lutz. If you introduce the deposit system, books will automatically gather at the printing association where the Plantin Chamber serves as the association chief. Lutz paid me the book he gathered. I received it and read it.

It is perfect.

"I started printing business to read books, now only my own studio and Halden Zell's workshop, so all books are offered, but as printing begins to spread, lands not to be offered I think that it will come out as well. If it is a book made by the printing industry that I spread out, is not it normal to collect all? "

"Is it normal?"

My mother looked at me in a suspicious manner, but I nodded with a smile. All books made from now should be mine. I will not quit even pushing to get my dreams in the best form.

"It is normal, so I thought that it would be nice to introduce a deposit system to the printing association and automatically gather it at hand, and if you introduce it from the way, you will get a rebound, but introduce it from the beginning. If it is done, will it be accepted as a matter of course? "

"I realized the words of Ferdinand who had a head as if Rosemain's excellence could be used in another direction."

As I talked to my mother, Vilfried and Charlotte also came in with my aides.

"What were you talking about?"

"About the place of discussion with the merchants who are common people and the delivery system, it is likely that discussion will be done in the temple"

The civil servants of the two aides mocked for a moment frown, but Wilfried and Charlotte lightly nodded.

"It is impossible for you to head towards a downtown, but is it not as good as a temple?"

"The temple does not smell funny stuff and delicious sweets come out, so I will not mind."

It seems that it is a place that is somewhat familiar to the two people as it always comes close at the prayer ceremony and harvest festival. The nobles challenged and seemed to be starting to smile a little while on the other side that the lord families had familiarity.

"Well, I will explain the contents of the work to Virfriit and Charlotte,"

I will explain the work that mother leaves to two people.

In Charlotte and his aides, such as improvement points and desires coming up from the downtown, confirm the things compiled by the lower level civilian officials and get permission as to the thing that permission of Aub Ehrenfest is required, such as in the castle I leave the job of.

When Vilfriit and his aides get in touch with the fact that they are ready to start the paper industry and printing industry, have them check their final confirmation to the site.

"... .. Why does your older brother go to final confirmation?"

"Because Wilfried already has a beast, I can not afford to go slowly with a horse-drawn carriage, and I will work seriously if the lord's family confirms."

If it is said that there is no problem with the verification of Vilfriet, I will carry Gutenberg to the locality with a lesser bus.

"Because we can only use Rosemain so far for a large number of people and luggage-carrying beasts, we will leave Rutemaine to move Gutenberg."

"Are you going to bring the commoner to Elvira, that person, Rosemain !?"

As the aides of Wilfried and Charlotte got stuck, I stared my eyes.

"I was surprised, but Rosemain seems to have done it so far. When I emphasize time efficiency, I thought that it would be okay to keep it as it was. I also carried around Gutenberg to print in Ehrenfest Because it is a period until business spreads. "

If the printing industry spreads to some extent, they will be dispatched from nearby land. Gutenberg fly around the territory only in the beginning.

When the third bell began to ring, civil servants came in. A meeting will start soon. There are three civilian citizens in the aristocracy collected on the premise that they can talk with the commoner to a certain extent. Everyone is a recommendation of a guild general. Although only Henrik knew my face, I feel a little relieved that the glowing looks are lined up.

And a civilian who came by Gibe who is interested in the printing industry and the paper industry came. Look at me lined with me, Wilfriit, Charlotte and his aides and draw a face.

Normally it will be a surprising member for those who work with aristocrats who were native to the commoner in rural areas.

"Thank you"

When the mother recommended the seat and everyone got a seat, the start of the printing industry and the paper industry is declared. And self-introduction is done. I write down the names, affiliation and their characteristics, and remember the face of a substitute officer Hald Zell that will meet again at the time of the prayer ceremony.

Mothers explain the preparation prepared by Hartmut for living officers to prepare them before inviting Gutenberg. He added that he had a lot of negotiations with the commoners, and he talked about the aristocratic perspective, adding a small gang which happened in Haldzell, a way to proceed well. It is a trick that I can not do.

"There is also work in the city of Ehrenfest in Rutemain-sama Gutenberg, so do not waste your time, please prepare as thoroughly as possible"

And my mother will talk about lower ranking civil servants who will keep in touch with the downtown, even at the temple. Add that that I and the priest chief who are lords of lords are living, that Wilfriit and Charlotte are coming in and going out with the help of the priests, and reduce the sense of repulsion.

"A lot of merchants in other territories will come and go after the lord's conference, we must also maintain the town so that they will not be misled by other territories. With Gustaf, the guild of the commercial guild, Please leave it in mind that it is not only a problem of downtown but the aristocracy of another territory seems to be insufficient for our maintenance. "

"Please contact the officer who is ready to Charlotte told Charlotte, Charlotte will adjust the order and timing of the contact, and Mr. Wilfried will visit us, so if there is no problem, Rosemain Sama is bringing Gutenberg with a cowgirl. "

I was surprised to carry the commoner with my cud beast who is a child of the lord, but I am not going to stop moving Gutenberg's cuddling.

"There seems to be some indications of carrying the commoner, but it is an urgent task for Ehrenfest to expand the paper industry and printing industry so that it is necessary to raise the efficiency even if I carry it. Everyone I would like you to have strong awareness that it is involved in important new projects by that much. "

When I ended up talking about fueling up, I returned to the room with surroundings surrounded by my aides. Because it moves to the north away, Wilfried and Charlotte are with us.

"Rosemain, the visiting request is coming like a mountain to other places? Is it decided who to meet?"

There are a lot of visiting requests to Wilfried, and it seems that the side work is being chased by the deal.

"A lot of visiting requests have arrived but I have to head to the temple soon after this for the winter adult ceremony and the spring baptismal ceremony. The correspondence to the nobility is like the adoptive father and foster mother, Then I will leave it to my brother Wilfried's older brother. "

"Rosemain!?"

"Please count on me, fiancée"

Charlotte who was watching me throwing to Wilfried caressed his mouth and laughed with couscous.

'I can not afford to interfere with my sister's work in the temple. The older brother, do it firmly '

I would like you to help me, Charlotte smiles like a mischief, Wilfried made a mouth like a muffler.

"Do it yourself"

I am ready to return to the temple as soon as I return to the room. It seems that Otilier and Brünhild have already gathered their luggage and have contacted the chefs and exclusive musical instruments.

"Since I will be back in about a week, please leave home, if you have something please do not leave Ordonants"

"Rosemain, I will also accompany the temple, I will bless you in the ceremony, I want to see it by all means"

Hartmut is saying with orange eyes shining, but unfortunately it will not be possible to enter the worship room, even if you are allowed to accompany the temple.

"There is no entry except for officials related to the temple to the divine, even escort knights can not enter between the prayer room and the ceremony, so you can not enter Hartmut too."

"How do I do ...?"

"I think that you should do your work."

I will keep a lot of work at Hartmut as I am busy and the shock will soften even a bit. I am a very close heart.

Regarding the printing industry, ask a mother who is your boss to hand out a report from the Planetan Shokai and the guild manager, and leave the education of Phylline to the mother.

"Please be prepared for documents that summarized the interests of past paper industry and printing industry so far"

"I, how to write documents yet ..."

"It's okay, Hartmut tells us, is not it?"

Hartmut made a grinning smile, accepting it. Even though I intend to accumulate a lot of work, I can not respect Hartmut who will do it all the time.

After finishing allotting work to civil servants, I looked around the aides.

"I'd like to ask everyone who remains in the castle, but if you can afford, pick up the nobility's voice inside the castle. In the case of adults and children, men and women, side workers, civil servants and knights the information collected separately is different From now. "

"Certainly yes"

Ordinants flying away from the priest chief "Are you ready?" In answering "I am done", I returned to the temple with Daniel and Angelica, Hugo and Ela, then Rosina.

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

Fran and Monica welcome you. Conspiracy It does not go far up to swirling, but it is much easier to chew than to stay in a castle that has been made tepid.

"The chief priest, I'd like to print the novels I wrote from this spring, but would you please confirm that there is no problem?"

I have to check whether my romance novel which imitated my mother 's lord stories story under the story I know is suitable for this common sense. Cinderella was rejected. It will be essential to have it confirmed.

"Oh, let's check it"

I intend to print reference books from spring, but because they do not put out for sale immediately, I need books that are likely to sell soon. I thought that if my mother's romance novel had been received by a nobleman woman, I would also like to piggyback.

When I hand out the manuscript to the president officer, I enter the room and ask the reports of the staff.

"It is a story about the marriage between Fugo and Ela, but you can not make a couple's room in the temple after all"

"Well, you have to stay in a separate room while you are in the temple, or just prepare a room in the downtown and go through."

While laborating the zam who had been investigating what I was asking, I will decide that I have to decide about the marriage of Fugo and Era.

"Mr. Rosemain, the chief priest has come in. There seems to be a story in the matter of the manuscript I handed over"

What a bitter face of the priesthood chief came into the room. In silent place the manuscript on the desk at my desk and put a magician to prevent eavesdropping and buggy next to it.

... ... It was definitely useless.

I understood well only that I got dead even without saying anything. It will be said that it is interested in teaching the reasons thoroughly for being able to take out wiretapping prevention magic tools.

I grasped the magical tool to prevent eavesdropping. The chief of the priest sits on the chair prepared by the franc and sat on me with my eyes.

"Rosemain, there is a degree of disgrace, there is nothing wrong with printing such things in your name!"

"Are you shameful? Where are you !?"

I compare the chief priest and the manuscript I wrote.

Based on the romantic tale of the nobleman who the mother wrote, it is a romance novel that is passed by the difference in position and finally tied. The line of sight glowing and pounding, the hand touched blushing, blushing girls coming out to the opponent's opponent, the heart throbbing, finally the thought passed through and finished with a kiss scene, it should have been finished in a girl-novel-like story. Nevertheless I was called to shame. Because it is a novel by a mistress, it is supposed to be not using extreme expression at all, but I do not know the meaning.

"Scenes where two leading players touch each other, on the whole, I understand why they make obscene expressions like this, did you really refer to Elvira's book?"

"I made a reference, I am based on the novelist story"

I insisted on the story of the nobleman to the chief priest. Incidentally, the illustrations are books of faces other than the chief priest.

The chief priest read the mother's book with flavor and flashed, opened a page and handed over to me.

"Here is what you should refer to"

The page that the priest chief gave was about where poetry honoring God came out over 3 pages. I did not understand the meaning so far, I just read it.

"What is this?"

"If you write the contact between the two, please refer to this"

According to the chief priest who sharply wrinkled between the eyebrows, it seems that all the scenes of little interaction are useless. It seems that the part was a love scene when thinking that poetry honoring God might come out to mother's novel.

..... Indian movies! Is it?

If men and women came out and felt staring at each other, it seemed like a Indian cinema where singing and dance began suddenly as Cold Do of Cum dumped and came out. Even though I can enjoy dancing as a dance, I can not understand the story of an Indian movie.

"What you want to say is that your expression is direct and too lascivious"

I wrote a romance novel for girls and was treated as sensual novel. It is truly regrettable.

"Candidate candidate publications such disgusting stories are speechless"

"I understand well that there is a big gap in common sense, I will stop writing romance novels myself, it seems better to raise a writer."

"Please do so as you destroy it."

There is no way I can write a romance novel that begins to honor God suddenly in the love scene. This seems to have to urgently train authors.

..... But, in a love scene at a girl's novel level, what reaction will it react if you react this genuine sensual novel?

Chapter 344: Living in the temple

---

In the meantime, because common sense is too different, when the writer wrote something certainly the chief priest chief caught a sharp mind and went home.

While answering "Yes", I will put a novel called Shameless into a lockable box and seal it. I was ordered to be destroyed, but perhaps it is time to see the eyes of the day.

"Fran, will you go to the kitchen and call Fugo and Era? I would like to talk about it a while ago."

"Rosemain, when you call out to a chef, I'd like to get a side job."

"I am sorry, Fran. But as it is about marriage, I think it would be better for you to talk directly, and of course Franc, of course there are many things you do not know about here?"

When I said that, Fran felt a sigh. As far as work is concerned, it is no problem to put the Fran Française side by side in between, but when talking about living, such as marriage, it will be frustrating when francs are interposed.

"excuse me"

Ella and Fugo came in despite being excited. To Frank who is nervous Franc explains that I will talk directly to you today, go down one step. Because the commoners talk directly, the escort knights were perfectly behind me.

"Both of us worked at the House of Lords, it was my hard work, so it was hard to make lots of cuisine everyday? All the students were delighted that they were delicious, perhaps I go to the House of Lords I think that we will head towards each other, but thank you for your consideration ... .. So the main issue is about the marriage of the two people .... "

Their faces were tightened. I hear a cock and a breathtaking sound. I laughed as nicely as I could rest assured them.

"There is no problem with the marriage between themselves, I will bless you if done in the summer."

"Thank you!"

"The place to live is a problem, it seems there is a married underwear in the castle, there seems to be a room for married couple. I am applying for a room so that two people can use it in the castle, but in the temple I can not make a couple's room inside while I am in the temple, I think that I will use another room as before or I think that it will be hard to go through, but I borrowed a room in a downtown and lived there. Even if I rent a room, I will keep the room of the temple as it is, so that I can take a nap at the busy time. "

I signaled the franc with a gaze and brought me the money I had prepared and handed it to them. I saw inside the bag where the sound was coming and he stared my eyes as if fugo got stuck.

"This is a wedding celebration from my business trip and a wedding celebration that I worked hard at the aristocrat for the whole winter. Please prepare for marriage preparation"

"... .. so good, is that?"

"Well then, during the prayer ceremony period we will be accompanied by Hugo as usual, so I will take a break from Fugo until the ceremony from tomorrow and I will take a break from Ella during the prayer ceremony. There is no holiday, but please be ready for marriage. If you are true, I would like to have two people take a rest, but I can not afford that, I'm sorry. "

"No, thank you, thank you"

Preparing for marriage is tough. I have to borrow a room and put in household goods. The ceremony of star wedding that is a wedding ceremony is held in the summer because the bride and groom arrange lives by the time of winter preparation. In the summer, I can sleep without the top of the futon, food is plentiful and firewood is not necessary in winter. It takes time to prepare for the winter with two people.

In the case of Ella and Fugo, there are rooms in the temple and the castle, so if you prepare the room with the room of the downtown as if you sleep and it is possible to prepare the bedroom it may be managed somehow. However, preparing cloth products such as bedding sheets and futon is a bride and you must start with weaving cloth with winter manual work. A woman whose marriage has been decided desperately woven cloth during the winter and prepares for a new life. That is why sewing skills are a condition for beautiful women.

"Since Ella worked at the House of Lords, you did not have time to prepare cloths, are you OK?"

"My mother said they would weave you."

It is said that the mother who was worried about the job straight line woven during the winter. It seems that it will be done in the second hand for the missing parts.

..... May I give a gift to my hair with hair decorations matching the noble color of spring? New cookers are likely to be pleased.

Ella was not able to attend the ceremonial ceremony of the temple because he spent time in the aristocracy when he was an adult ceremony. The starring ritual of this time should be the first climax. It's my exclusive, it's a big deal, so it might be a good idea to present a less expensive hair ornament.

"Thanks for such arrangements."

"Excuse me"

After the talk finishes, when the two go down, next time we meet with the fran and the zam with an adult ceremony and a baptismal ceremony. There is about one week between the winter adult ceremony and the spring baptismal ceremony, so it seems that you can relax in the temple during that period.

"How is the state of the orphanage, did you get familiar with Konrad?"

Monika, who frequently comes and goes to the orphanage in the sidewalk, goes ahead and starts reporting, keeping a liaison with Vilma.

"According to Vilma it has been reported that it was showing a state of frustration of people's footsteps for a few days ... .. If you were brought up as a nobleman, there are places where you wear power to the shade like a blue priest in Conrad I did not seem to be relieved to come to an orphanage. "

It seems that the treatment so far was so bad. I remembered that I was frightened by Stap and I sighed lightly.

"If you have a little confidence even if you are feeling a little relieved it has not been better. I want to see Monica, the orphanage and workshop once, so I will tell Vilma and Gill to go around for afternoon tomorrow afternoon Please give me"

"Certainly yes"

Monica nods, I will contact you, I will leave the room.

When I took out my memorandum and looked over what to do at the temple, I offered notepads written about the prayer ceremony to Zam.

"We talked with Wilfriit's older brothers and Charlotte about the sharing when going around the direct jurisdiction at the prayer ceremony, please inform the president of the result of the result and if there is any inconvenience, We need a preparatory period for both of us. "

"Since Rosemain comes this year, we can not afford the france, we will talk about who we are going to be like Charlotte."

"Well, please."

When Zeam leaves room, I go through the letter in the sentence box. A letter has arrived from the Plantin Shokai, the Gilberta Shokai, and the Guild Head.

In the letter from the guild manager, there was written the result of collecting story of the tripmen traveling around the other territory due to problems concerning maintenance of the downtown and struggling to beautify the town.

"It may be better for you to report this to the president of the crown and give the answer as soon as possible. Shall I give you a little time to help tomorrow ... .. Franc, from the Planetan Shokai and the Gilberto Shokai and the commercial guilds Write a letter towards the guild's length, so please ask Gil to deliver it. "

"Rosemain, do not you think it's better to take a break yet?" I can not say that the color of your face is good, so if you are active, I will train you to remove magical tools. "

Franc narrowed his eyes and said so. I thought that I was not feeling bad for myself, as I was pointed out, I am surprised and put my hand on my face.

If I came back to the temple, I lost my physical condition and I could not bless with an adult ceremony, what is said to the president of the priesthood? I decided to quietly accept Fran Fran's proposal.

"Okay, I will take a quiet break, please bring a new book that I could print during the winter"

The next day I will send a living temple life. After getting up and finishing breakfast, practice dedication dance and fespiel and head for the chief priest's room with 3 bells.

"Mr. Rosemain, let's go to the assistant general manager"

Leave care and cleanup of Fespiel to Rosina, and I will head to the chief priest's room with Fran, Zam and Monica. Escort Knights are together.

Angelica keeps sticking to the door as usual, I do the work of a single escort, Damiel tidies up the work instructed by the chief priest.

"The chief priest, this has arrived from the guild of the commercial guild, I thought that it would be better to consult as soon as possible ..."

I offered the letter of the guild director to the president.

The content written there was that things like sewers were installed in areas other than Ehrenfest. Something like a sewer that can be guessed from the information the guild chief heard is a thing commonly used in aristocracy. It seems that they use the sticky in the toilet. It was invented many decades ago, it became popular, dramatic before-after was done in other territory.

If there is no problem in life it may be better to do a dramatic before-after. However, because it becomes magic that only the lord can handle, it was tied with, it may be difficult at Ehrenfest.

"Because it is incorporated in the aristocracy, it seems that only the downtown of Ehrenfest is behind the rest for decades"

"... It seems like that, it would be better for you to turn this case into a castle."

What kind of things you would like us to investigate when the remodeling of the castle was done, whether there is a design document at that time, how much magical power is needed if we do the same thing in downtown, The priest chief will bullet and offer it together with the magic stone for Ordnants.

"Send it to Elvira and Charlotte As regards this matter, I will not do more than assist you as a guardian, the responsible person is Elvira."

I received it and flew Aldonants for my mum and Charlotte. Charlotte and his aides will do their best to find out.

..... I was also good at work in the library in the library. Hey.

I will rethink and help you to the 4 bells. Because I was absent from the temple for a while, the president officer seemed very hard. While I helped as much as I could, the bell rang.

When I returned to my room and finished lunch, I was waiting for the time when the grace of God went to orphanage while writing a letter sent out to various places. Monica returned "I seemed to be ready", so I headed to the orphanage with Monica and Gil and the escort knight.

Beyond the door where Monica and Gil opened wide, there was an orphanage cafeteria and we saw the gray shrine maidens kneeling and waiting.

"Vilma, please report during the winter"

Everyone else says to do their own thing, and I hear reports from Vilma. It seems that there was not a big change until saying Conrad. Some of them had a slight cold, but they seemed to have not become serious, so they seemed to be cured quickly.

"I was also worried about other gray shrine maidens, whether there was a konrad who grew up as an aristocrat in an orphanage, but there was no problematic problem. The first day was tense and my body was hard. But, as Dirk is clearly teaching various things, now it has become to show a smile. "

It seems that Dirk, who had begun to crawl at the end of grabbing and finally only had an apprenticeship who worked at the workshop after finishing the baptismal ceremony, welcomed the annual Conrad which can run around together. Even now it seems to be swaying around and it seems that Delia who chases the two are hard.

"Because I want to see the state of the person himself, please call Conrad and Dirk"

"Certainly yes"

When I turned my eyes toward the gray shrine maiden who was close to Vilma, a gray shrine maiden asked the children who spread the picture book in a corner of the dining room.

Dirk stands up with red-brown hair bouncing, and it sees that it grasps the wrist of the conrad and pulls it. Delia follows from behind the two of us.

"Mr. Rosemain, are you called?"

"Well, I came to see the state of Conrad, how about the Conrad, the orphanage? Is the rice delicious? Do you sleep well?"

My eyes like yellow green, which looks very similar to Figline, got narrowed and smiled, and after looking around, the head of the maid nodded and nodded. I felt that I was abused at a glance, but now my fear of surroundings is diminishing.

"Yes, it's tasty, plus a lot of picture books and toys"

Next to the concert is Dirk. The red tea hair of Dirk is similar to Delia who refrains behind and the pupil of dark brown like black has a fascinating light. It seems to me whether it looks much like the expression of delicious traditional Delia and is similar to growing up as a sister.

"Dirk tells us various things to the concert? Thank you, Dirk. For the two of us, it seems that each other is a good friend, I'm relieved."

After watching Dirk and Konrad laugh with their faces laughing, I will look to Delia who kneeling down behind them. Like Turi, Delia is no longer a child, it was the age of a girl.

"Delia, it will be hard, but please take care of them together."

"Please, leave it to me"

Delia gave me a smile and underwrote it. When I leave the orphanage with confidence, I head for the workshop.

"Gill, please call Fritz when you arrive at the workshop. I have a story about increasing the number of papermaking studio."

"Certainly yes"

They asked Fritz to be told that the paper industry began on some of the lands of Ehrenfest and that they wanted to select people to dispatch to multiple lands at once.

"Are you going to land more than once?"

"Yeah, as we need a number, Irkurner is going to be only teaching how to make paper at a certain percentage rather than making a special product over the course of a year over the course of a year. Irkurner's craftsman It is supposed to be taken out. "

We recall three gray priests from Hasse at the time of the prayer ceremony, so asking if there is a desire to call back from Hasse, putting one experienced business trip to Irkner and making two business trip groups for four I will tell you what I want you to do.

"We will go to the place where we are ready to accept, the move will be done with my cow and the people will be dispatched from the Plantin Shokai for the establishment of the Plant Paper Association and Printing Association So I do not need to worry too much about life. "

"How long will the period be?"

" <sup>One after another</sup> January <sup>The lid</sup> From February So if you can make the basic Folin paper, it will be over and you will be headed to the next workshop. Oh, that's right. Please add Ahim and Egon. I also want to promote Grimm's plan. "

As I am sleeping, the grim plans have stopped because gray priests are not dispatched to the rest of the place. I would like you to collect stories as you spread the paper industry and printing industry.

"We will also prepare money for reward through our story at the Planetan Shokai."

"In order to make a new book, a new story is needed, so it is good to gather as many as possible"

Fritz was bitter smile, affirming my plans to mix the Grimm's plan. Gil lightly shrugged his shoulders and said, "It is good not to be angry with the priest chief."

"Gil, do not say such ominous things.

The next day is an adult ceremony in winter. Preparation began early in the morning, I wear dressed in the ceremonial clothes of the temple, insert a noble hair ornament of winter, headed to the prayer room.

"Keep escort knight wait over there"

Angelica narrowed the blue eyes when pointing to the wall side where Eckhart brother was standing.

"I think that it can not be said that there is no danger in the worship room, and I would like to follow you in the worship room."

Angelica is a discontented face, it is not good to separate the escort from the side. If it is customary it will not be long before it is a rule of the temple.

"Consult with the chief priest and try to verify again whether the rule can be changed. Please give up today."

".....Yes"

Angelica nodded and Damuel nodded stand side by side with Eckhard brother. A little while ago, standing in front of the door, guided by the franc, from the worship room he heard the voice of the priest, "the head of the temple, entrance". At the same time, the doors are opened by gray priests. A blue priest lined with the altar was on the right hand side, and a new adult was seen on the left hand.

I stepped into the prayer room with the scripture passed to Franc. I was greeted with a rumble full of amazing sounds and lots of bells, and I will advance my feet towards the altar.

Because the blue priests are using magical tools to suppress the size of the voice, no matter how much a surprise voice is raised it will only become a whispered voice. Even such a loud voice, if there are similar voices several times it will reach firmly to my ear.

"Oh, it's a little Temple of the Temple"

"The temple where the real blessing is possible is coming back"

"Really small,"

..... Do not say many times! It is because of Jureve. It will get bigger!

While arguing in the mind, walk on the face as if nothing is heard on the surface. Not only is the whispers of new adults small.

"Wow, the nobility really uses the Gilberto tradition's hair accessory"

"It is so gorgeous that we will not be compared with us,"

I heard such whispers of the women who saw my hair ornaments. I was driven by the impulse I wanted to look around, but how hard my hair ornament was prevalent, but I desperately endure. Do as it rises to the altar and the height of the line of sight gets higher.

I step up the stairs carefully not to step on the hem. After placing a scripture on the altar and spreading it, the chief priesthood officer began to read myths with a loud voice. While listening to that voice, I slowly look around in the worship room.

The baptismal ceremony is a costume based on white because it is born as a person, but the costume of an adult ceremony becomes a costume based on the noble color of the season. It is red or white if it is winter. Because white seems to be cold by all means, new adults lined up in front of us have many red costumes.

And I found that most new adult female hair has hair ornaments. In addition to the hair ornaments where the florets gathered, the same as I made for the first time for Turi, there are people who use a little flowers or stuffed things.

Since flowers are not blooming at the end of winter, it is impossible to pick flowers to decorate in the forest. I remembered that Frida said that it was nice to be able to decorate the flowers at the baptismal ceremony. At that time, there are really few people using hair decorations, but it seems that I am fully established while I am asleep.

..... Gilberta Shokai, I'm doing my best.

While I was watching the flow of the two-year monthly day, I was sick of admiring and it became my turn. Blessing new adults.

"Let's pray to God, pray to God!"

Following rough blue priests, new adults prayed. After looking around, I will give magical power to the ring and give blessings.

"Goddess of the soil Geduliche God of the life Aviliebe Listen to my prayers Give blessings to your birth to the birth of new adults and devote themselves to you for giving their thoughts Praying and giving thanks for giving us sacred protection."

If you give a blessing full of red and white light, the shrine ends. The door opens with the word of the priest 's officer "The blessings of those who got blessing will be bright," and the door opens, and new adults come out.

... .. Maybe they are coming?

When I looked towards the door at the expectation, I saw my father and mother there and I was crying. Both of them are getting old for a while. As you can tell that "I am fine, I am fine," if you smile with Nicole, your father nodded greatly.

.....that?

I had a father and a mother, but there were no figures of Turi and Kamir.

.....It would happened to? Perhaps I feel sick?

I was worried that it might be sick, I know later.

The temple is a place where children should not enter. Any child who has the possibility of stealing the parent's eyes and entering into the temple should stay home at home, regardless of the baby that parents can hold for a long time and anyway.

I watched the appearance of Kamir until the Kamir 's baptismal ceremony.

Chapter 345: Schwarz 's costume

---

After the ceremony ceremony, about a week until the spring baptismal ceremony is the daily Temple Life. To be honest, the workers in the temple have a lot of work, but they are comfortable because there is nothing like a conspiracy and surroundings being wrapped in tension.

I am going to read from the afternoon today. While waiting for the bell of 4 while waiting for assistance, the chief priest took a voice.

"Rosemain, are there plans for this afternoon?"

"Yes, I will read."

"Hmm, if you do not have one, just right"

.....No no no! Wait a minute. I have said the schedule properly right now! Is it?

"There is a schedule! It is a schedule of reading. Please listen properly."

"It will not fall within the schedule, the one who talks about the costumes of magical tools in the library will take precedence"

Do not set your priorities on your own! I wanted to cry, but regarding the costumes of Schwarzs, I am asking the chief priest for the position I am asking. I say that you want to give priority to reading, and it is me who is not embarrassed if you are left alone.

As I soaked in the sense of defeat, I can be caught up with cuckoo. I seemed to think that it nodded, the priest chief was "OK" and I muttered a little.

"The place is your workshop, keep the door open as we carry the materials and materials."

"... Hahaha"

When the bell of 4 rings, returns to her room and finishes lunch, I will open the door of the hidden room and put it in at any time, as I was told by the priest.

I breathed a sigh while watching the shelves containing the books I had prepared to read in a stereo manner.

"Ha, I wanted to read."

"It is good to be able to do tomorrow, so we have an opportunity to visit the Gilberto trading day after day."

I am comforted by a bitter smile, and I nodded small. The day after tomorrow I am writing a letter to the Gilberto trading company to bring Turi to order a new hair ornament. Not only hair ornaments, there are other things I'd like to order.

"You say you are not just a hair ornament, what would you order?"

Do you decide the costume while consulting with the castle's side? I was asked with monika with a strange face, I answered with a chest tight.

"Ella's wedding celebration hair ornament and armchair of a library committee member"

"... What kind of thing is an armband?"

"It is such a thing"

In order to show it to Turi I spread the paper pattern of the original written on the paper in full size and show it to Monica. By the way, the part of "library committee" is kanji, lettering in Mincho style. I do not know at all what the surrounding people are written. But I am glad that you will soak in the mood of the library members.

I'm going to ask Turi four different wristlets of different colors. Schwarzz, Weiss, and I, and a new friend, Hanna Lore.

I would like Hannorore to join the book committee together as a favorite group. I will give up if I am hated, but I think that Hannorore, who works with books as a member of the books with all of us, with Schwarzs, is very good.

"When I become a sophomore, I will act as a library committee member at a lodeless with my friends, Uhufupan, have fun ... oh?"

I slipped through the wall and white birds came in. I turn around the room and get down on the bush and the desk.

"Mr. Rosemain, Elvira, I will send you an answer to the recent question that Mr. Charlotte got summarized."

Ordonant said three times in her mother's voice. Immediately afterwards, another white bird flew away and came down as a letter on the desk. Instead of Charlotte, it was an answer to the dramatic before-after gathered up by civilian civil servants. I look over the letter.

It seems to have been around 80 years ago that Durevan Hell announced the creation and use of sewerage as effective use of sticky beans in opposition to the territory. And the owner of Drevecher adopted it in the city of its own, said that the smell of filth was gone, that the processing became easy, at the lord conference, asking the king permission to adopt it in the dormitory of the lords.

The permission of the king went down and in the dormitory of Dreve Hanchel was a sewage passage and a sticky goat that treated sewage. Although it was usual to throw away the waste in the surroundings, it disappears, and the surroundings of Dorevankel dormitory are easy to spend beautiful.

The center confirmed it, bought the right, made the lordship and the capital beautiful at the dramatic before-after and praised Dorevanhel.

Then dramatic before-after begins to become popular in each territory. Since it is done after submitting an application at the Lord's Council, getting money to buy the right and getting permission, you can naturally be able to get time difference by several years to be incorporated into each territory.

Naturally, this trend will also flow from the top down, so at that time, Ehrenfest who entered the five fingers from the bottom in line with the small territory, was also slow to get permission. More than ten years have elapsed since Drewvankl introduced it, it is finally possible to make a dramatic before-after.

However, things will not proceed so easily. The time when permission went down was not good. The Princess of Ahrensbach's married couple was soon after having been given land from the direct jurisdiction and sealed in the Count, in order to prevent disorder within the territory, candidates who were regarded as the next lord.

His children, who were raised as lords of candidates because they were considered excellent lord candidate students, their wives and their next lord, will all come out of the city of Ehrenfest and temporarily lost their magical power It is when it fell with the bang.

Even if the amount of magical power that can be handled decreases, it is important to have a good appearance in aristocratic society. Ehrenfest first dramatically modified the dormitories of the aristocrats seen from other people in dramatic before-after. A few years later the castle of the lord. In a few more years you will find a noble city.

The downtown was left unattended. Anyway, you should fix it when there is a surplus. Unfortunately, Ehrenfest could not afford to spare. It seems that time has passed as it is.

Even the reason why the downtown has not been improved already has been forgotten. Rather, the generation that he knows is gone, so when I consulted with his adoptive father Charlotte's letter was tied.

"There may not be anything to be noticed so it may have been good because there were few merchants coming from other territories, but as we are coming more and more, we have to do something."

..... But even now, you can not afford magical power, do you?

The design drawing of the castle and the aristocratic dramatic before-after is said to be in the librarian's library because of the material belonging to creative magic which only the lord can deal with. She seems to have been confirmed by the adoptive father of the adoptive father.

..... It is reasonable, I did not know the library inventory of the library. I also want permission to enter the data room there.

"Mr. Rosemain, the head of the priesthood came."

"Yes"

As I clean up Charlotte's letter, I ask him to pass the chief priest to the workshop. The servants of the chief priests came in and three wooden boxes were brought into the workshop. The side workers went out, and in the workshop it was the chief priest, Justoks and Elder Eckhart, I, six angels of Angelica and Damuel. Once I am engaged, it is not good to see a single bishop without the aristocratic side or escort.

"When there are so many people, it is a bit narrow, is not it?"

"My workshop is more narrow and there is not any way to go because it is not limited to you because of limitations on the amount of magical power. Besides this is also the minimum number. When you try to formulate in the castle, several civil servants, There will be several people and it will be bigger. "

While talking so lazily, the chief priest widened the cloth with the magic team that I also saw during the making of Jureve, and I take out something like materials something one after another. Justkus was stuffing the chest of wooden boxes with a lot of materials that could be removed casually.

His brother Eckhardt already received the instructions, picked up the material from the text box that he brought in and spread it to the workbench. Apparently it seems to be a document that summarizes the research results of Hill Sur and the President.

"Eckhart brother, can I see?"

"Because you will want to see it later, please dismiss your head, it is in the way"

Eckhart's older brother, who is executing the command of the priest, keeps spreading the data when he drives me away with a losing attitude.

"Mr. Rosemain, when everyone seems to be busy do not get in the way, I hope to step down one step and keep it silent so that you are ready without a doubt"

Angelica taught the parents' words told that it is best to not do anything. Indeed, when Angelica is talking about brain labor relations, it is a step backward and reminds me of a gentle smile that seems to be watching everyone. It seems that when you want to pretend to be irrelevant, you step down one step and smile. For Angelica, strange knowledge has also increased.

"The chief priest, please tell me when you are ready"

I will not do anything in the workshop and will be treated as a disturbance until preparation is ready so I decided to read as planned. Angelica was surprised, "Reading in the waiting time", but while everyone is preparing, only Angelica who was concentrating in the corner of the workshop and secretly trained physical strengthening did not want to be told .

"First of all, look at this."

Pointed to the material on the desk which is used as a workbench, the priest chief said so. I refuse a word of bad behavior, stand on the chair, stand oneself and look into me.

There are ten sheets of complicated magic squares drawn individually and one large piece of paper on which designs are drawn when all the magic teams are superimposed.

"Mr. Ferdinand, can I embroide this magic team also in my cloak !?"

Angelica is shining eyes. Since the improved magic team belongs to those who developed it, it seems that permission is necessary. In Angelica 's request, the chief priest became a face like being defeated.

"... ... Is it possible for the one who can not move the computer to embroider?"

"I can do it, this magic team is so wonderful, please give me permission to embroider my cloak."

Angelica 's eyes are shining and glittering. The figure that we ask you to embroider is a pretty princess who likes sewing.

"If you use it to make costumes, please allow that time. Please help embroidery around here."

"Please leave it to me"

..... Angelica thought that she was a pity, but surprisingly the girls' power was high. I am losing.

I will continue to explain to me who shoulders down what is losing in Angelica.

"The witchcraft of defense was sewn into the complex in the costume of the magician in the library, do you know that?"

"Yes"

"With Hill Sur and my research, I was able to make improvements to the past, from now on, I will make new costumes, we have to arrange the ingredients, formulate them and build up the materials"

In truth, like Hill Sur, I would like to advance the research of Schwarz and Vice itself, but the chief priest muttered that costume making was top priority. I sincerely agree with that. I would like you to study carefully after making costumes. I have finished researching costumes, now I'm in trouble if I can throw out costume making.

"Do you get all the materials and go on a trip for collection?"

"No, there is no problem as I have the material, as long as I take time to collect it, I will not make it in time." To make magical power through, use the magic stone to store the threads and magical power to make it a magic team, We have to make it with your magical power which is the Lord. "

In order to utilize it as a magic squad, it is necessary for my magical team to use my magical power as well as a magic stone to store my magical power.

"... .. Does not the burden of the priest's president get bigger?"

"In exchange for the new outfit, that would be fine if you got the costumes that you have been wearing, since you want the same number of magic stones and want to study yarns and cloth as well."

I realized the reason why the old costumes of Black Forest and Weiss did not come out to the smile of the president who was said to have said that purpose. After surely making a new costume, it must have been disassembled to recover the discharged material and study the magic of the predecessor.

"Can not you just use the magic stone of the button, can not you use the now-ordinary manastone?"

If you can replace just the button at the end of the last, you will not have to use extra material, and no compounding is necessary. Will not it save time and magical power? In my proposal the chief priest waved his head.

"Although it is not impossible to use it, it is better to change to myself if you think about the efficiency of magical power. You can not always go to the House of Peers because you can always make it an efficient manastone a little bit Please "

Is not it a trouble with a magical tool that suddenly stops moving along the way? He said, I nodded. During the spring and autumn several times I will head for reading to say to the librarian of the House of Peers, but I will be late for my going and it will be a problem for the Black Foot to not move. Suddenly Sorange will be saddened by suddenly stopping movement.

"Although it is how to make costumes, I start with preparing threads to embroider the magic team, because you have to embroider the main, will you need time?"

"Yes !? Do you all embroider?"

My head was embroidered, and my head turned white. Hirschle said that it would be an issue to be addressed by Ehrenfest as a whole, so I was planning to ask girls with higher girls' ability to do fine work like embroidery.

"Other people can embroider the magic team around here, it is only this magic team that you embroider."

"Just being ... there are plenty of them!"

I have ten pieces of magic team drawn individually, indicated by fingers, and I am fine. It is impossible to embroider tens of them by the next winter even though even one is fineness that is complicated and disgusting. I have no such time.

"Since there are magic teams integrated at the time of improvement as well, the number is decreasing, and that the magician needs that much protection, it's the role of the Lord, be firm."

"I'm not embroidery, it's useless with dyeing! If you dyed it with magical power, I think it's the same as an effect."

I think that it is better to draw than embroidery. In my argument, the chief priest swings his eyes while shaking his eyes.

"Embroidery can fix the magic team to cloth most certainly, dyeing can not draw detailed design with dye blur, and it will be a waste of magical power than making threads because we need ink with high magical concentration "

"... Well, how about using" glue "so that dye does not blur like" Yuzen "?"

"Yuzen ... What is it with Nori?"

"It's a damping agent ... .."

Because I said Yuzen, what came to mind was <sup>Ruined</sup> Rice glue It is. However, I think that rice glue can not be done here. I need something to be replaced.

..... If rice glue is not good, <sup>Tamanori</sup> Bulky You can not do it, too? Wait a minute. It may not be Yuzen! Is it? Um ... What is there to get here soon? .....Ah! <sup>Braze shaw</sup> Wax taste It might be okay!

Laughing so as not to show how I was fluttering in a panic.

"The easiest to understand, easy to procure, <sup>Wax</sup> wax is not it"

"Wax is used in the light in the temple <sup>A candle</sup> candle Wax? "

In the castle where there are many hands, the light of the magic tool is often used, and so candles are not used much. For me it's a familiar light from the downtown era, but for the priest chief it seems to be used in the temple.

"Draw a line with a melted wax, the wax will solidify when it cools? That wax will prevent dye bleeding"

"Wow, did that wax have such a usage?"

Justice's eyes narrowed happily. It seems that he knew that he would be knowledge of the downtown, and the facial expression moved happily. In this way, you can look for other methods of use and go around the downtown.

..... Yaba! I have to extend it to the Gilberta business as soon as possible!

"I do not have enough embroidery skills, but magical powers will do something if you recover by taking medicine. I will dye it. I do not feel like embroidery can be done by winter."

It is busy with the work of the temple, printing industry. There is no time to do embroidery with Tamachimama.

"Let's do your best thinking as a bride study"

"... .. let's get rid of the engagement, I think if you do not go to the bride you do not have to practice."

"Do you already know that it is not a permissive position? This idiot"

"I understand, I just said"

"It's sometimes scooped up by just saying that, be careful with the words you say."

Yes, I answered, I picked up a piece of paper on which the magic team was drawn.

"... It seems to be difficult to paint with a pen. I think that embroidery is impossible really. I do not think that I can do it in such fine and complicated things. Do you have dye for dyeing with magical power?"

"Hum, it is a dye whose magical power neatly remains ... It may be good to dye with blood"

I murmured that the priest chief was scary expressionless. I recall the commoner era that was bloody at the time of contract magic, and my blood draws at a stretch.

"I do not want being scared of it and it seems painful!"

"It's a joke, clothes of royalty clothed with blood-stained clothing are not so good for both looks and outings"

"The chief priest does not sound quite joking at all"

"But magical power will be necessary to formulate it, such as ink that has enough magical power to compete with blood,"

"I do not care, it's better than embroidery."

"Rosemae-sama's magical power that can say so is enviable"

Damuel gnawed small unless it seemed to reach anything even if the magical compression was done. While shedding the lament of such Dahuel with one hun and nose, the lecture of the president 's formulation begins.

"Materials that can be taken from monsters such as demons and monsters have attributes, green is an attribute of water, and other attributes are the same as the noble colors of the gods. Do you know that?"

"Yes, it was the part that I learned in the first year students' lecture, is not it?"

Green is the attribute of water, blue is the attribute of fire, yellow is the attribute of wind, red is the attribute of earth, white is the attribute of life, black is the attribute of darkness, and gold is the attribute of light. I am a freshman in the House of Lords and will be remembered with the name of God, but since I was reading the scripture, I already knew. This is also relevant to each birthday, so most people knew it.

"Yes, the characteristics as material also leads to the gods."

"It's for second grade, is not it? Because I prepared for preparing reference books, I remember it properly"

If it is an attribute of water, it is effective for healing, washing, change and so on. If it is an attribute of fire, attack, amplification, training etc. If it is an attribute of wind, defense, speed, knowledge and so on. If soil attributes, acceptance, perseverance, diffusion and so on. It seems that effects similar to the characteristics of each god are given.

Attributes of soil are mixed with any other attributes, it is used as a cushioning material when mixing attributes that are not compatible with each other, attributes of life basically repel each other and are difficult to mix, It was written in the reference book.

Besides, as there are people with multiple attributes, even people have objects with multiple attributes in the material, so if you use an attribute that has both attributes at the time of the material, It was easy to do.

"Depending on the quality of the material, the amount of magical energy stored at the time of formulation will change, so if you want to get high quality material, you know you need to collect from high demonic demons?"

"Yes"

I remembered that I fought strong monsters at the time of making Jureeve, and I nodded with a cock. I know that the quality is quite different between a magic stone obtained from a weak demon and a magic stone obtained from a strong monster.

"In order to establish your magical power with the ink you are going to make, you need quality materials that can accept your magical power properly. Ink becomes the magic tool belonging to the goddess of wisdom, so the attribute of wind is the highest We must be of quality. "

While saying so, the chief priesthood began searching for a wooden box. It seems that it is necessary to prepare another formulation that is different from the dyeing thread which was originally scheduled. "I truly complain that you will not go as planned," but it can not be helped. It is impossible for me to embroider all the magic teams.

"Is it necessary to add a red material in order to increase the resistance by adding a blue material for amplifying the effect to the yellow material of the high-quality demon tree?"

I do not understand well the dry root of the tree and the bottles and the powder containing the liquid are lined up. Where I'm lined up, I do not know at all what attribute and what work is done.

"How can you know the attributes of the material?"

Chapter 346: Magician's ink

"Attributes will be examined with this magic tool"

The chief priest brought something like a round tray. There is a dish of metal with a mysterious metal shining in seven colors about 5 cm in diameter at the center, and it is divided into 7 colors radially. Because the lines are drawn at intervals of about 3 cm from the edges of the dish, the feeling that I saw for a moment is a disk similar to a dartboard.

"You can put the material here"

I told you to do it, I tried to break the tip of the root of the dry tree and place it on the dish of the magic tool.

"Wow!"

As soon as I put root fragments on the center plate, the light began to grow long in the yellow part. At the same time, the short blue part shines.

"Is this that the wind's attributes are strong, and there is also a slight fire attribute?"

"Yes, we can measure the quality with this light elongation"

When the light stops in the smallest circle, the quality is bad, it seems that the quality is so good that the light stretches. The roots of this tree have grown so much that they could touch the outer circle, so the quality is quite good.

"It's funny, then, this is ..."

Next I reach out to try to examine the attributes of the powder, and the hand of the priest is grasped by hand and blocked.

"Wait, Rosemain. If you do not wash the dishes once, you can not measure accurately, as you have rough places, be careful, well."

"Yes"

Justkus who issued Stap quickly washed the dishes. A beautiful dish was also centered.

"The chief priest, I also want to memorize the magic of the wash, it's very convenient"

"You should just keep it by your side, you move too much by yourself, not to deprive people around you"

"... When you experiment with experimenting with a studio, is not the priest chief wash themselves by themselves?"

It should have said that Justkus would not enter. Probably inflating the cheeks and protesting, the chief priest waved hands so badly.

"Because the knight knows, please tell Damuel later, the time is regret now."

"Oh, Mr. Ferdinand, do you teach me?"

The chief priest nodded on the obvious face in the puzzled Damuel.

"If there are only two escort knights, if you think which one is good at teaching others, will you get an answer easily?"

"Damuel is amazing, because I taught schoolchooling"

Praise Damuel as Angelica dyed his cheeks a bit and was shy. It is just like a maiden 's face that he had been accustomed to inadvertently, as he taught me to study, but he should not be deceived. Angelica is doing as much work as we can to the best of her ability.

Damuel misled himself as teacher teaching teacher, Angelica 's facial expression is no longer deceived, so she sighs lightly and "I can rest assured that I will not leave it to Angelica".

"Feldinand, what is this liquid, is it?"

When I shook the bottle, it was a liquid that moved smoothly, so I asked somehow. If you have good quality oil, will you be able to pass information to the ink studio? I thought.

"Oh, it's an oil that can be taken from the devil called Cruiseze"

"... ... Is not it a higher species of eyed crop?"

"Yes, but do you know?"

One of the oils used to make color inks was eyed. If it is a top species, quality should have similar properties even if it is bad.

"Is Eze strong in wind attributes, is not it?"

"... ... That's right."

"So, does that mean that linseed oil is an attribute of fire, Mish is an attribute of water, and ped is a strong soil attribute?"

"It is impossible to understand what you are talking about. If you ask a question, explain it so that you can understand"

Stared at the priest chief, I talked about color inks made at Gutenberg's ink studio. It did not become the color that I expected, and I felt that I had some difficulty with some difficulty.

"It is definitely dependent on the attribute, the magical power is high, the thing that can take manastones is called a demon, but for those who live on land filled with magical power, there is a difference in quantity, magical power It is not an exception as a commoner, so it is possible to use contract magic by using the most magical blood."

"Was that so?"

In other words, if there is a magic tool to investigate this attribute in ink studio, ink research will be more successful.

"How much is this magician, the chief priest?"

"It is not for sale, if you want, make it yourself"

"Is this also yourself!? ... ... Please make my minutes"

"It is very difficult to arrange the quality of manastones to respond to a trace amount of magical power, to extract only pure attributes and to prepare for all the attributes, because they teach them how to make them, make themselves."

If the chief priest is to say very seriously, it is really hard. I decided to give up before challenging. Even if it is convenient, ink research is done even if it is not necessary.

..... Sorry, Heidi. I can not afford to make such a big magical tool.

"Even so, although it is only materials with poor quality, the commoners were well able to do the same, so we could research until we were convinced."

"Uh, it's my Gutenberg is excellent."

As I bragged up and was proud of Gutenberg, Justoks gave a small laugh and shrugged his shoulders.

"I heard that the ink for Heidi is the same as the book for Rosemain, and Rutemain's raised Gutenberg is a group of people specializing in each skill."

"I am convinced that there are many Rosemain with different directions."

... ... I was convinced! Is it?

"We will start making inks for useless talks"

"Yes"

"What we will make is ink that contains magical powers, which will be used for contract magic and will slightly change what is sold for common merchants."

The contract magic ink that Beno had had was created with magical powers that removed the creator's magical power once to the magic stone and removed attributes and individual shades so that it responds even with a trace amount of magical power contained in the blood of the commonal. It seems to be.

"It's made with unexpected troublesome steps, is not it?"

Because the aristocrat writes with magical power of magician using a pen of magician, I hesitated when I heard that this ink is not particularly necessary.

"... ... If you draw directly on cloth with magician pen, you do not need to make ink separately?"

"No, I'm going to include your magical power in the cloth, because they both have the same magical power, so they mix up and do not make sense for the magic team"

Although I did not understand well at all, it seems that ink of high viscosity is necessary not to be magical power itself, but to make magic powers not mix. And it seems that it is necessary to raise the magical concentration as well.

"I do not really understand, but I do it as I told you."

It is basically the same as when making Yureev making ink for magical tools. Put the ingredients in turn and keep stirring around as a stick for mixing. What is different from the previous one is where we prepare blending tools with Stap this time.

"Make this small in detail, I have to deform the staple into a knife, do you remember the way?"

I was stared at the priest of the president, that I would not have forgotten what I had done at the House of Peers, I issued Stap.

"Messer"

Deform the staple into a knife and carve the root of the tree finely as it is told. Although I was worried that such a dried root can be cut with a knife, since it cuts with magical power, it cuts even if it can not put much power.

Trying on the condition and choosing it, "It is my first time to prepare, I am quite accustomed," Angelica told me.

"I am not the first time, I've done helping Mr. Ferdinand."

"Were you helping with formulation? It's amazing, is not it?"

..... I made a Jereve, but the choice is a culinary experience of the Reino and Downtown times.

Ufufu, laughing and making a mistake, everyone else who knows that I am from a downtown other than Angelica is sighing all together. I felt I could hear the priest 's voice called "Idiot."

After finishing the finely chopped "Ryuken", cancel the deformation of Stap once. Then we measure the quantity with a balance and when all the ingredients are ready, the preparation is started.

"To put it first is the highest quality, the basic material"

"Yes"

"Today this bowls will be enough."

It was a cooking pot like a small one-pot like what the priest chief issued.

First add the chopped roots to the blender. Then cast 'Baimen' and mix the staple into a rod and transform it. Looking at me who made a mixing stick that exceeded his height with my habit, the chief priest ousted the temple.

"Stupid people, you can not use such a big mixing stick in this little pot, think of a shorter, easy-to-use size"

"Yes"

It is redoing and redoing. Once you cast "Ryuken", after deforming, I chose "baimen" and it matched the size of the pot <sup>A pestle</sup> Pulverized trees To a mixing rod of the size as shown in Fig.

Circling ... Circling ...

"As in the past, should you melt as smoothly as possible, should I put the next one?"

"Ah, put the powder here, put the oil there, put it in the end to raise your magical concentration"

Materials are ordered by the chief priest in order of insertion on the work table. After introducing the basic root, put in the oil of cruisee and let it become familiar. Besides, add powder of blue attribute to increase the magical power contained in the ink and add a little red liquid attribute to fix the ink on the cloth. The last place to put is a golden powder that can be made when putting magical power into a magic stone.

Circling ... Circling ...

Whether it is a matter of quality, or if the mix rod with deformed Stap is more efficient, finely chopped began to unravel quickly.

Put the crude oil in a mild, keep mixing.

Circling ... Circling ...

Put the flour into flavor and mix further. I mixed the liquid with a basha.

I feel a lot of magical power is taken.

Circling ... Circling ...

"The chief priest, I'm getting tired even if I strengthen my body ..."

"You can hurry soon. Because it is you who make ink, be patient."

When the chief priest said so, a blurred liquid surface shone for a moment.

"Have you made it?"

"No, that's it, it's the end of your magical power, the magical concentration will go up."

As I will tell the priest, I will add golden powder and blend it round and round. The surface glowed with a little mixing.

"You can do it, be careful not to let it go, transfer it to this bottle"

I told the chief priest, I transferred the finished ink to a bottle. I created a blue ink similar to contract magic ink I used at Beno.

My tension goes up to my own ink.

"Is it okay if I give you a trial writing, does the chief priest want to grasp how much bleeding comes out?"

When I got out of the workshop, I wanted to write a trial of ink on France, so I asked if there was no need for cloth. Basically there are no unnecessary cloths, but it is good to use cloth like cloth, so if you say that I want one piece, France is brought immediately.

Returning to the workshop, when I spread the cloth on the workbench, I tried drawing a line with fresh blue ink on it. The line can be drawn. A beautiful line was made surprisingly.

It does not blur even if it is looking for a while. Rather, the ink started to rise. It used to be used in the Lian neo but it looks like a pen pen.

"what is this?"

"... .. I will not bleed"

Even without a preservative, there is no sign of bleeding. If this is the case, it is okay if there is no separating agent.

Asked Lutz and asked Lutz to prepare a flexible and difficult to break wax from the result of experimenting when making raw wrapping paper and start with wax making or develop what is likely to replace rice glue Will it continue ... .. what I was thinking in my mind, it will scatter at a stretch.

"It is still too early to rest, if you do not try it with a cloth containing magical powers, I do not know if it will really bleed"

The priest chief inscribed the wrinkle clearly in the glabella with a difficult face, glared at the line of a slightly bulging ink.

"... ... Why are you so dissatisfied?"

"I'm not complaining, it seems that something different from expectation was made, so I'm just confused."

I think that it is successful if new ink can not be removed from the bottle over time, but the president of the priest seems to be completely unconvinced.

"Rosezine, dye this cloth with magical power, I want to test whether it will be like this even with cloth dyed with magical powers"

"The chief priest, I also used magical power to make ink, and I was pretty tired."

It seems that the thought that it is already good is already good. The chief priest who was looking at my complexion just a little anxiously raised one eyebrow lightly.

"Then drink the medicine, you can recover quickly"

"I'll do it"

It is better to forge a bit if you forcibly make a drastic medicine.

Circling ... Circling ...

I kept mixing forever as the priest chief chewed the ingredients one after another into the pot.

The surface glows brightly, and the part of the trial writing is cut off into the completed red liquid, and a half-sized cloth is thrown into the pot. In a moment the cloth sucked up the liquid in the pan.

"Huh?"

The cloth in the pot should have smoked the liquid red, but if the color has not changed, it is not even wet. It looked exactly like a cloth with a trial writing that was left on the workbench.

"I do not seem to be changing at all, but is this stained with magical power?"

"Yes, I can tell by touching it"

I grabbed the cloth and tried to take it out, the whole shone faintly.

"Wow!"

"Because you are dyed with your magical power, I respond most to your magical powers, of course, it reacts to the magical powers of others, so if you dyed it with magical power, you can make magical power easy to communicate when embroidering the magic team The effect will rise. "

"Oh ... ...."

Dyeing cloth itself with magical power itself seems not so difficult. Angelica and Damuel seem to have dyed their cloaks with their own magical powers.

"Try to see if the ink can be used"

"Yes"

I tried using this ink again. The same sense of pulling the line does not change from ordinary cloth, and the place where the time is getting excited is the same.

"... It seems all right"

"Why?"

Inexplicably the priest captain takes the pen I had and draws a line. It seemed that the outline had collapsed a little. There is also little excitement.

"When the chief priest caught a line, it blew me a bit."

"Bleed"

".....why?"

"I do not understand. Eckhart, write it down."

"Ha!"

Brother Eckhard broke the line, it blurred clearly. There is no exciting part at all. Justkus also wanted to write it interesting, so he gave me a pen. The line drawn was blurred. I think that it is spreading more than Eckhart's older brother. The chief priest became a difficult face more and more.

"Angelica, Damuel, please try them and others"

"Yes"

Angelica and Damuel, the bleeding gets worse and worse. Damuel is the worst. There is also a difference between Mamoru pen and Ink juice written on cloth.

"Is this probably a difference in the amount of magical power of the writer?"

"Or, magical attributes and quality ..... I do not know unless I examine it in detail. Rosemain, can I keep this ink?"

It seems that the magic scientist switch of the priest chief came in. The material was the thing of the chief priest, and as long as there is no harm in the everyday life of the temple, no problem is involved in the workshop.

"If you promise to be out of the studio by having a meal and having it in the workshop and by the 3 bells of tomorrow, you do not mind."

Although being troubled as troublesome, it is no use being mobilized only to call the priest chief from the workshop. I definitely want to keep my reading time firm.

"There is no choice, Justus, let me prepare the meal for the side workers, during which I will finish as much work as possible ... .. Damuel, let's clean up here."

"Yes!?"

Leaving the Damuel grudging with a sudden designation, the priest leader got a bottle with ink and took Yusutsukusu and Ekhardt brother to go out.

"... .. Why me?"

"Angelica may be thought to handle tools roughly,"

"Although he was often scolded by Mr. Hill Sur in the House of Lords, why did Ferdinand know that?"

As expected, I could not say that "Who knows if you see Angelica for a while?" I gently shrugged my shoulders.

"It will be like teaching the magic of cleaning"

"Come to think of it, you said like that,"

I was taught the magic of cleaning in Damuel at the workshop as it was. It is not difficult, as it is just to cast Stap and just recite "Washen" with magical power.

"If you do not have the attributes of water you need a lot of magical power, but it's a story that is not related to Rosemain."

Damuel spoke so swiftly shaking his head. Now that magical power has increased by magical compression, it has become better, but it seems that it was not easy to wash before.

"Well then shall I clean the tools around here at once?"

While watching the workbench, I will put magical power in the staple.

"Vasshen!"

As soon as it came down, water like a waterfall came down, filling the entire workshop instantly.

The body floats as if it is caught in a sudden water current so that the body floats and the upper and lower sides do not know either. While my eyes widened my eyes, the water faded away while I was drowning out as a gabbo-bogbo without knowing the reason.

My body which floated in the air falls by gravity and falls. There was Just Damiel. Damuel seems to have been swallowed by the water current, and it is in a state of falling on his back.

"Noga!"

Damuel moaning me with my stomach. While coughing, Damuel who can hear "Do you have an injury?" Is an account of an escort knight.

"Kee! Koh!"

Angelica is coughing while making his eyes black and white with unexpected water bombs. As there is no water already, neither clothes nor hair are wet, but only the feeling of drowning in the water remains. I also experienced this time.

"Rosemain, how much water do you call?"

As I was pressed down, I said so to Damuel who was struggling, gently stared at me, I gently deflected my line of sight.

"I learned for the first time that the amount of water called by the amount of magical power changes so much, I'll be careful after that."

..... Washing magic, I am afraid.

"Rosemain, bad, if you do not have a plan in the afternoon, will you put it in the workshop?"

"Yes?"

The next day, as soon as I headed for help I was told by the chief priest.

Let's experiment with various kinds of ink with the ink brought back to the workshop, and the chief priest who had been staying at the workshop last night, tried writing on various paper, cloth, and wooden cards, and after taking a nap and getting up all the lines are gone It seems to be.

He said he wanted to know what was going on the cloth which remained in my workshop and was waiting. I was impressed that I kept my promises properly and coming out of the workshop, and it faded away.

"Does the ink disappear? It is OK to enter the workshop, but .... If the ink is gone, can not you use it?"

"If you can not use this ink, it's just a matter of embroidering your work calmly without doing anything else - there is no problem."

..... Because I do not want it, I made ink! It is terrible!

Today too much reading time is deprived and it is also a workshop from the afternoon again. I am also worried about what happened to ink, so I headed to the workshop together.

The inside of the workshop that I cleaned up yesterday is beautiful and comes out of the wooden box which Damuel tried and written. The cloth which Damuel lightly watched and stared up was in a state in which nothing was written. I can not find many lines that everyone tried writing and spread.

"It really disappears,"

Ah, the moment when I touched the cloth while dropping my shoulders down with embroidery, the fabric gently shimmered and the line emerged. The lines as you tried and tested yesterday are clearly visible, including bleeding, for all of them.

"what is this?"

As I do not know the reason, I slowly shook my head, spreading the cloth to spread to the priest who narrows my eyes and gazes at the cloth.

"I think that it is impossible for me to know things that the president is not aware of"

I nod to the surroundings to agree. Justoks opened his mouth while looking at the cloth with an expression that looks interesting just like the chief priest.

"The fact that Ferdinand did not change even if it touches it seems to respond to Rosemain's magical power only, so it seems to emerge. Rosemain, could you lend it to me?"

When passing cloth to Justocus, the line disappears. Once I had it again, a line emerged.

"If you are a magical stone with your magical powers, will you respond? If so, you can use it as it is with this ink. If you think of drawing magic team with this ink, there is no doubt that you can not do anything other than you. But ... whatever ... what about .....

"How about having tried your own ink and considering further examination and experiment, is it troublesome to seek cooperation each time?"

Preparing the ingredients of the preparation, it was the priest chief who weighed the amount. Make your own ink and experiment as much as you want. If the magic team works with this ink, it does not matter anything beyond that.

"That's the same, I got in the way"

..... Honesty I can not keep in touch with mad scientists.

I started reading as planned.

Since I remembered Yuzen doggyly, I would like to tell Gilberta Shokai tomorrow. I'd rather end it without using it, but if you can do a new way of dyeing, it might be helpful to a mother a bit.

Chapter 347: Request to Gilberta Shokai

---

The chief priest who got the new research material appears only from the workshop for the time of assistance, but it seems that the rest of the time has been left unattended. As the 4 bell rang, the priest who finished the work went into the workshop.

Eckhart brother is concerned about the chief priest, but I think that he does not die because he seems to eat rice once a day.

"However, if such a way of keeping continues ..."

"Since we will move to the castle after the spring baptism ceremony, will not it be good to do research until then?"

Since work is not stalled, no one will suffer, if you give it a week or so? While saying that, I will clean up the stone and the penis which I brought.

When I thought that I wanted reading time for about a week, my brother Eckhart narrowed my eyes slightly unhappily.

"Rosemain, that person, unexpectedly is not sweet to Ferdinand, is it to give priority to Ferdinand's research desire rather than to my brother my brother's wishes?"

"I am not sweet to the chief priest, I am for the convenience of myself, as the priest president can not do the costume of Schwarz unless he is researching it"

I told my brother Eckhart of anxious nature, I returned to my room. Today is the Gilberta business coming from the afternoon. After lunch, I will move to the orphanage director's office.

"Gill, Fritz, are you ready for what you've asked?"

"Yes, two kinds of high viscosity wax with low flexibility and high flexibility wax, low viscosity and high flexibility wax, Heidi color ink, then hot water boiling pot, brush, brush, cloth attached with fixer , Chopsticks, we have everything. "

Gil and Fritz had the Gilberta Shokai prepared to enter the workshop. Because it is difficult to understand by explanation alone, actually <sup>Braze shaw</sup> Wax taste I am going to show you.

"Thank you, both of us. Please do so again when Gilberta Shokai came."

"Certainly yes"

After a certain meeting, Gil heads to the gate to meet the Gilberto trading company and Fritz returns to the workshop. I checked the items I brought from my room for something left behind, and drank the tea that Franc put in.

After a while, Gill brought the members of the Gilberta business. It is Otto, Corinna, Teo, Leon and Turi who are on the second floor.

For a moment when Tauri gazed at each other, he narrowed his eyes and laughed happily. That makes me feel very happy somewhat. As usual, Turi is my angel.

"Following Otto, Corinna, Turi, Rosemain's gist of the Gilberta Shokai, I went over."

With Otto, Corinna and Turi as opponents to negotiate in the front row, Theo and Leon in positions to assist and kneel in front of me in front of me.

Teo is like Otto's right arm. As Marc assisted Beno's work, he is assisting Otto. I have not seen much since I was taught Frant with Otto to go up to the castle, but I am familiar with this place.

Leon is a daughter of the Gilberto trading company who has a relationship since I was a blue shrine maiden. Although I was acting with Lutz, it has been a while since Leon did not enter and leave the workshop after the division of Gilberto and Shanghai. At that time there were still childish features before and after adults, but they are totally adults.

After finishing a long aristocrat's greeting, I suddenly remembered, putting my right fist on my left palm in front of my chest.

"Bless me for thawing, May the spring goddess bring great grace"

Spring greetings between merchants taught by Beno and Marc. I am planning to negotiate today, so I tried to greet somehow I remembered.

Like Otto surprised his eyes were rounded, then laughed a little and hit the right fist against the left palm just in front of his chest.

"Bless me for thawing, May the spring goddess bring great grace"

The other four people follow the same word after Otto. It is a strange feeling to me that Turi is greeting the merchant as it is natural.

"Thanks to you, there are many things to ask."

I recommend a chair to the Gilberta trading company and have tea put in the France. Otto, Corinna and Turi sit down and Teo and Leon stand behind.

Monika brought sweets when the scent of tea and tea spread out into the room. I eat and show each one individually. Today is a cookie that you can easily eat while talking about business.

I am satisfied, watching Turi who smiled like eating sweet things. Looking at me like that, Corinna relaxed facial expression.

"Rosemain, what kind of request are you asking today, I heard that there are other than hair decorations ... .."

I tell Corinna's words to tilt the head and head, I want to ask for the purchase of Ella's hair ornaments.

"It is decided that my exclusive chef is going to appear in the ceremony of the summer star concert. I want you to take care of the hair ornaments that will be inserted at that time. Ela is a commoner even though it is exclusive to me, I will feel bad when I give it, do not it match the costume? "

"I agree"

Because I took Ela to the aristocracy, I was asked to look for a nice looking hair ornament so that my parents seemed to be in the first cloudy appearance that they did not appear in an adult ceremony.

"Does Tauri know Ella? Would you please take a look at a hair ornament that matches Spring-born Ella?"

"Certainly yes"

In an orphanage, Turi had cooking classes with Ella, and worked together with pork processing in an orphanage 's preparation, so he knows Ela. It will surely showcase what suits you.

"I thought by looking at the altar from the top of the altar, in the winter's adult ceremony the other day, but the type of hair decorations has increased a lot, I was impressed that most women are wearing hair ornaments is"

Turli laughed a little excitingly as saying that the Gilberta trader 's efforts spread quite a bit.

"I am always watching the number of women putting hair ornaments in the march of a shrine increases. It is making hair decorations by examining what kind of hair ornaments are most accepted ... .. The other day I could not see the adult ceremony for my brother 's guard. "

I was worried about the absence of Turi and Kamil. I wonder if it is sick.

"Did something happen to your brother?"

"No, my younger brother is 4 years old this spring, I can not bring him to the temple because my parents have not been holding them all the time, because the temple must not have children before baptism"

Speaking of which, I was told that Tauri's baptismal ceremony was not going to go.

Because Kamir was hugged and came to the door, I had not thought so deeply, but the Temple is supposed to have no children in front of baptism entering it.

In other words, I can not see Kamil's baptismal ceremony. I am disappointed.

"In the winter adult ceremony my parents absolutely wanted to go, so I took care of an answering machine."

Turi smiled bitterly, sorry that the work was saved on the day of the holiday when work was off. Tulli must have kept the lives of Kamir so that my father and mother could see whether I really became healthy.

..... You can not put three or four children alone.

It has become impossible to glance at the growth of Kamil, and it is not easy to put Kamir in the future and come to the temple. Opportunities for seeing the appearance of father and mother when it is a shrine will surely decrease.

When I thought that it was a bit sad, after Tøl opened and closed his mouth several times, I opened my mouth with a comforting expression.

"Oh, Rosemain, ... My father told me that there was a request for an escort mission to Hasse, I am delighted that the escort task of the temple is very popular with the soldiers of the gate. I am also glad to hear from you "

I raised my head as a clue to the words of Turi.

This year I have to hire a soldier because I have to go back with a gray priest from Hasse. Apparently it seems I can meet my father at Hasse. My mood rose a little.

"The soldiers led by Günter will be kind to my gray priestess and gray shrine maiden so we can ask you with peace of mind. Please let me know if you ask me a favor."

"Surely, I received it"

I laugh like Turi was relieved. While I was being healed by the smile, I took out the pattern of the armband and spread it on the table.

"And I would like the Gilberta Shokai to make this,"

Everyone looked into the pattern paper of the armband, and it got together with a mysterious face.

"Rosemain, what is this?"

Although the wording is polite, Tuley's skeptical blue eyes say "Are you starting to do something strange again?" It's not strange, but it's roughly correct. I think that it is an indispensable item to start the job of the library committee seriously.

I wrap patterns on my arms and explain how to use them.

"Please think that the armband is a mark to show that it belongs to the organization, which is attached by the" library committee members "

"... ... It sounds like a cloth at the funeral."

Tulei turned into a somewhat difficult face and said so. Even if it is said to be a funeral cloth, I do not know what it is to me.

"Is it a funeral?"

"Well, those involved in the funeral will wrap a black cloth around their arms, which makes me remember that."

... ... Is it like a funeral? I hear a little auspiciousness? Anyway, if you choose a color other than black, is not it okay?

There is no option to give up on the armband. I just want to be a library committee member just for good reason. I would like to make a complete line with Schwarz and Hannale.

"I do not think that the atmosphere is a funeral because the color is not black and you will also get embroidery. The arm arm is fitted in the arms like this and pinned here ...
... Oh, You have to make it. "

Once I put the paper on, I put out my writing board and write "Order safety pin in Johan". I have to talk with Gutenberg once before going to Haldenzell at the prayer ceremony.

When I was skipping my thoughts, Turi breathed a light breath with a shabby face.

"Rosemain, what is this strange pattern?"

"Ah, that is the sign of the" library committee "I thought about. Since this is the full size, please embroider it as it is"

"Certainly yes"

Then, I choose the color of the cloth and the color of the thread to embroider. There are 4 different arm bands of different colors. In order to be able to choose according to Schwarz 's costumes, I ordered an armband with a color of disjoint so that Hannorore can choose the color of choice.

"Also, I would like to have a new hair ornament for Turi for the summer, which was also a good reputation at the lords. I will leave Turi to decide what kind of hair ornament it is."

"I got it, certainly, please leave it to me"

Turi undertakes with a confident expression. Basically I basically leave the designs and colors to Turi, I believe that if Turi will make things that look good on me.

When I finished ordering my hair decorations, I slowly looked around the people of the Gilberta business. Otto and Turi are looking slightly alarmed as to whether there is still something. It seems that both of us are sensitive as long as we have a long relationship of knowing my source.

"Then, I mentioned in this letter, but thank you very much for giving me the immediate request in the winter. The prince who saw the hair ornaments was also very serious. The princess who attached the hair decoration made by Turi was really beautiful and was the most prominent of the alumni graduates, so many requests will come from now. "

"I am sorry"

I feel like I am suspected to be unreasonable again, but I am not a mistake. I laughed with smile.

"As a reward, I will give a new technology to the Gilberta trading company that I worked hard for."

".....Huh?"

Tuli and Otto saw me with a face that looked like a fiction. Korinna tilts her head and head slowly, its eyes take on the rigor of merchants.

"Thank you for accepting the inconvenience of doing the request of the royal family, but if it is necessary for the Gilberta trading company, I would like to tell it to the dye and woven society ..."

"No, I appreciate it from the bottom of my heart"

It is not a lie to say thank you to the Gilberta trader, but to be honest it is a problem if we do not spread the wax tie dyeing quickly. I would like you to expand from the Gilberto Shokai quickly rather than interacting with strangers.

"Please prepare cloth with new dyeing method to teach from now and prepare for wearing in the social society of the next winter. I want to spread it as a fashion as soon as possible"

Turli lightly watched his eyes as he told me "I'm pretentious". At the same time, Leon, who was standing behind Corinna as assistant until then, slightly shines his eyes and asks for remarks.

"I will allow Leon to speak"

"Excuse me, new technology is not related to hair ornaments, is it related to making a new cloth?"

"Is that ... .. How should it be called a dyeing method?"

As I said so, Leon gladly turned his mouth frankly.

I do not know that Leon is pleased, and when I tilt his head, Otto explains. It is said that Leon's parents store is clothing to the Gilberta trading company, and it seems that there is connection with all dyeing workshops in this town. If cloth is noticed with new dyeing technology, parents' home will be profitable as well.

"Let's go to the workshop, I will show you in practice, let's call Fran, Gil."

When I got up, everyone stood up in the same way.

When we arrive at the workshop guided by Gill, everyone stops hand and welcomes us. I got others to go back to work except Gill and Fritz to have a demonstration. Unlike Otto and Colinna who carelessly look around the studio, Leon nostalgically narrows his eyes and watches the studio. Behind the line of sight is a paper making tool, I found that I remember old days.

"Do you feel familiar with Leon?"

"Well, I used to go in and out forever."

"You may also help us today, because you also need someone who can perform in the dyeing workshop"

While laughing, with laughter, I watched Gil. Gil nods and opens her mouth.

"What I will do from now on is the technique of drawing pictures directly on cloth, as I do not know much about cloths, it might be a technology already known at Gilberto Shokai."

After Gil said that, he saw me as if to confirm. I nodded gill lightly and looked around the Gilberta trading company.

"I see many cloths of beautiful embroidery and weird weave, but I have seen only cloth dyed in one color. The technique of squeezing with a thread to pattern or painting Is there any? "

"... .... There was a long time ago"

Corinna touched her cheek and said her so. There seems to be some clothes left by the first generation of the Gilberta trading company that used tie dye fabrics.

"It has been decades ago, but there was a princess who crawled from Ahrensbach, who seemed to have brought a new culture to Ehrenfest one after another, and new things like Ehren At the time I started to get popular in the fest, a uniformly dyed fabric was requested, the technique of dyeing unevenly increased, the embroidery appeared to be popular, and at the same time there was a statement that the dyeing technique was obsolete "

It is a nobleman to buy a large amount of cloth. If it is said that cloth uniformly dyed in that aristocratic society is the best, the dyeing workshops can be dyed uniformly. It seems that the tie dye which becomes a mottled dye gone quickly. Even though I was watching the recent trends, I could understand that.

"Were there any such circumstances, so if I try to make the dyeing popular again, is there a craftworker?"

"No, I do not believe it anymore."

The literacy rate of craftsmen is equal to zero. As a matter of course, there are many people who do not have a description left, so technology is easy to lose, and it is said that most of the craftworkers at that time are dead.

"Tie dyeing is not so difficult, so may I resurrect soon if I ask, I think it would be better to leave it to the studio about research, but just to avoid that technique being abandoned by the fashion, I would be happy if .... Is it better for you to ask the dye and woven association? "

"Since the association may have some records, I will try talking from here."

Leon took note with Corlinna's words and made a note.

"Besides tie-dyeing, what I was thinking of teaching this time is wax taste, perhaps, it may have existed before, but please let me resurrect if it is lost."

I pointed two pieces of cloth which Vilma lightly drew a flower underlay with a soot pencil. While looking at the cloth which everyone was interestingly spread on the workbench, we paint the wax melted by Gill and Fritz with a brush as we discussed.

"I do not want to dye with candy dyeing, I want to paint where I want to put white in wax like this"

"Does that mean that dye does not enter the wax part?"

I nodded lightly in the words of Leon.

Fritz painted low flexibility wax will crack a bit as it dries. There is no crack in Gil 's cloth.

"This depends on the type of wax, if you do wax tarnish, please cooperate with the wax workshop and create a warm salt plum wine just right"

Leon who knows the mine workshop when he was repeating trial and error variously distorted facial expressions for a moment. It is not easy to incorporate new technology. Just by teaching the way, I am the on-site person who pursues the best.

"Please attach more cracks to Fritz people"

As I told you, Fritz strikes the cloth and creates cracks.

From above it painted the color ink invented by Heidi from above. If you use Goron goron as a roller to be used for gullish printing, the wax will play ink and the whole handkerchief size fabric will quickly become red in color.

"After dyeing in this way, melt the wax, will wax melt when it gets hot? So when you dye it, put it in hot water like this"

Gil put two pieces of cloth pinched in the pot with chopsticks and mixed it into a piece and taken out. Because we are using chopsticks when handling trees and leather in paper making, gray priests at Rosemain's studio can use chopsticks.

When Fritz washed the cloth removed from the boiling water with cold water, and squeezed it and spread it on the workbench, the flowers with sharp flowers remaining white and cracked with flowing mysterious patterns were created.

"I think which one you can use as an expression method, it's your preference, you can use a combination of tie dye and wax dyed, and will it become darker gradually by dyeing many times? So, once you paint and dye the wax in the petals, you can also change the color with the background, leaves and flowers, of course you can also embroider on this. "

"I see....."

Behind the nodding Otto, I can see Teo desperately taking notes. People who assist you are troublesome.

"If you draw carefully with flexible wax you can draw fairly fine pictures and you can paint a wide range of low flexibility waxes and make cracks and enjoy that pattern. I think that it is worthwhile. "

"How does Rosemain want to dye a new cloth?"

In Corinna's words, I thought for a moment. Tie dyeing is also good, and waxing dye is also difficult to throw away.

"I would like you to incorporate as many new technologies as possible. Shall I prepare cloths that incorporate both tie dye and wax dyed red in winter's noble color from the dyeing workshop in Ehrenfest? I will decide which cloth to use from that. "

"... ... that's why the dyeing workshop will be active"

I smiled at Otto who admired me.

"I am glad that you will be glad, since there are other methods of dyeing besides tie dyeing and waxing dyeing, I will respond to business talks again."

Chapter 348: Gutenberg gathering

---

Otto began to think into it, narrowing his eyes as he gave a business talk on a new dyeing method. It is the eyes of a merchant who thinks how much value to attach to it.

I waited for Otto to answer and I looked up at the top, Corinna came out ahead of me.

"For Rosemain, for new dyeing methods, we recommend exchanging directly with the dyeing-and-knitting association after the way of dyeing that is about to spread has expanded."

While Corinna filled me with a gentle smile, he looked straight at me and said so.

"The technique of dyed itself is not a technology that can be monopolized by our own workshop even if it is bought by Gilberta Shokai, and Rosemain's influence is too big."

When I think something to be popular, Corinna said it is difficult to handle in a few workshops dedicated to the Gilberto business as it spreads to aristocratic women at once.

It takes time and money to purchase the right by the Gilberta Shokai, bear the research expenses, and raise the studio to the level suitable for the nobleman's glasses. However, when I try to make it popular, requests from aristocrats concentrate so much that we have to raise craftsmanship by releasing both technology and information. Naturally, it seems that it can be predicted that it will become unable to receive a request.

"If you do not get it even if you want to get on the trend, and you decide to rely on other shops and workshops, there will be no technology or information, it is the aristocrat as well as the opposition of the peers going to the Gilberto trading company It will be "

Even if I bought a new dyeing method, it did not benefit the shop, it seems that Korrina judged so.

Beno securing a new thing that I propose before taking it elsewhere, somehow trying to make a profit, and Corinna who measures whether profits come out in his own field of sewing is totally different even in brothers and sisters . However, the eyes that firmly looked at the profit for me were very similar.

..... Kolinna-san, even if I feel relieved, after all, it's Beno's sister.

I do not understand exchanges between merchants and business in this town, so if you are annoying the Gilberto trading company it may be better to stop giving out this time's technology.

"Is it better to trade directly with the dyeing-and-knitting association on this wax taste?"

"No. No, thank you for Rosemain's reward, so thank you."

Korinna shook his head with a loose head.

"The way of dyeing given as a reward, along with the circumstances, Gilberta Shokai will offer to the dyeing-and-knitting association at a low price, and in the form of a request from Rosemain to the dyeing-and-knitting association, let each workshop make cloths that he mentioned earlier "

In the words of Corinna, Leon, who said that his parents are a large store wholly clothing to the Gilberto business, began to live as vividly as I have never seen before.

"I will tell every dyeing workshop and make cloth, so any dyeing workshop will wield power as it becomes exclusive to Rosemain."

"Ah, in the Ehrenfest, Gutenberg gave a name and he is also active outside the city, there are many craftworkers who think they want the title of Gutenberg"

Otto who muttered so saw me.

"Like Rosemain, a smithing workshop, it is not good to decide exclusively about two? How about giving the title of Gutenberg to the dyeing workshop?"

"It might be a good idea to rank the cloths submitted this time and make a difference in the fee for getting new technology to trade with the dye and wallet association."

..... Even though I thought that we wanted to spread wax tampering to downtown as much as possible before being searched for in various ways by Justochs, I feel that the story is getting bigger somewhat.

It has become an unexpected development. As I was thinking, my eyes met with Turi. Tule is watching here with a face saying "What you do not know".

"Anyway, where did Rosemain know about such old technology?"

Leon asked me curiously, and I smiled with smile.

"Of course it is a book."

"Well, leaving a record is important, is not it?"

..... If you are convinced, that's fine. I also read it in books, but I was familiar with how to do it in home economics class.

During the Rei period, at home economics at junior high school, I also squeezed tie dye with rubber bands and threads and wax tie. At that time an otaku friend surprised the surrounding by painting a picture of a favorite character that was hard for a handkerchief by wax tying. I was surprised that I was wrongly misspelling the name of the character I was professing that it was my favorite.

After all, the Gilberta Shokai sponsored "Competition of old technology to win the title of Gutenberg" competition is to be held. It seems to be scheduled at the end of summer to make it in time for winter social circle.

Looking at where Leon is alive, Leon 's parents' house who received the request of the Gilberta trader will be a big success.

... .. something unexpected things have become big, but well, okay?

After finishing the meeting with the Gilberta trading company, I returned to my room, I wrote the compilation of cloth dyeing in the annual schedule, looking through the minutes that the writing board and franc had refrained from doing.

"After the ceremony of star knotting is over, there is no particular plan to harvest festival right?"

"There is no plan for the temple, is the schedule of the castle okay?"

"... It depends on the result of the lord conference, it may be tough for a large number of merchants to gather"

As of now, there are no particular plans if it falls from late summer. I level the wax on the writing board and erase the letters. Gill came running over with a letter there.

"Rosemain, letter from the Plantin shop"

In addition to the request for the safety pin, in order to know the progress situation of what he had asked, I had to meet Gutenberg once before heading to Halden Zell, at just the right timing, from Beno A letter arrived.

"Thank you, Gil. I will write a reply soon, please wait a bit and wait. It was hard to prepare for the demonstration at the workshop and asked for cleaning again."

I put words of labor on Gill, I will write a letter.

As I read it quickly, it is written with aristocratic modifiers and it seemingly ordinary visitation request sentence, but if you read the line space well, you can read "What did you do? Describe this fool" I did it.

... .. I feel frustrated not to lose to aristocratic expressions, is it due to mind? It is not my imagination, is it?

I sniffed anger that I could not express anything from between the rows, "I would like to meet Gutenberg before I go to Haldzell and want to hear the results for two years." There is no doubt that anger may be deflected for a while if there are other people.

..... Thinking about palliative things, there is a slight possibility that they get angry, but I have to strike a hand to strike.

The time and date of the meeting was decided soon, I wonder whether it was because I had not had much time until the spring baptismal ceremony.

On the day before the baptismal ceremony, the director of the orphanage ceremony at the orphanage's room, three of the people of the Printant trading company, Johan and Zach of the blacksmiths, Ingo of the woodworking craftsman, Heidi of the ink craftsman and Joseph and Gil attended from the workshop of Uchi, Gutenberg It is a meeting.

"When thinking carefully, it is the first time to hold a Gutenberg meeting here,"

Although Johan, Zach, and Ingo entered and exited to make a printing press, I think that Heidi and Josef are the first time to come.

"Franc, Damuel, Angelica. Today a lot of craftsmen in downtown gather, so I think some people are not well behaved, but please do not make a dodger '
"Certainly yes"

As we have more people, we decided to discuss at the first floor hall today. Depending on the number of people I got down the chair from the second floor, prepared the table, the side worked hard and arranged the place.

"Rosemain, everyone at Gutenberg has arrived"

People come in one after another with the guidance of Gill. Three people of the Printemps business coming in quietly because they are used to it, Johan and Zach who seems to be slightly odd after a long absence, Ingo who has entered while looking back like a hurry, Ingo in the back of Ingo Joseph is trying to hold down Heidi with a voice saying "Stop it" with Heidi who was pushing.

"Milady seems to be fine, I'm glad that I was worried that I could not get up for two years!"

Hey guys who looked out of the back of the Ingo in a minute saw me and waved greatly with a smile full throttle. After becoming a favorite merchant who enters and exits the castle, my cheeks relax into nostalgia at the bottom of the downtown where Beno and Lutz also hide except the hidden room.

But that nori is unacceptable here. Damuel, an escort knight, pulls her face, Franc, like the chief priest, kept his eyes away from Heidey. It seems to me to tell myself "Do not get angry, do not get angry."

Joseph, who saw the appearance of Damuel and Franc, turned pale and pulled the head of Heidi and drew him towards him.

"Heidi, this idiot! That man is a temple that can genuine blessings, now it is not a good opponent you call such anymore!"

"That's right, is it a stakeholder in my ink research that is struggling to make books?"

"I am not wrong, but I am too disgusted! You became a mother too, so please calm down a bit!"

In the words of Joseph, my head got pure white. Because Heidi seemed to be almost unchanged because he was an adult from the beginning, he did not think he was indeed a child.

..... It is quite no wonder why Volk got married for two years and even children were made, so even if we were able to have a child with Heidi who was already married. It should not be strange, but it is still wonderful.

"As Joseph says, everything is so uneasy that the civilian citizen will be present at the next meeting, you better modify the attitude or attend Heidi's own attendance itself"

Whether it is lured by Heidi's tension, because today is only a craftworker in a downtown, even though Beno thinks that he can not get through, he said so. Joseph shined his eyes as "it is a good idea." It seems that he decided to keep Heidi in his house when the civilian was present.

"From now on, as civil servants become attached, it seems that it will be Joseph for the face to appear on the meeting."

"If you think that you are going to attend Heidi, if you are just yourself it will be much easier."

Look at the surroundings, looking at Josef, who breathed out, and laughing with couscous. In the words of Joseph Dermael and Franc nodded deeply.

"If the ink is not involved, we will settle a little more, but it seems that I am excited by the reunions with the investors for the first time in several years."

It seems that studying variously, it is becoming possible to constantly make colors. While smiling laughing at Heidy who began publishing research results before hearing, I will write results on the paper in hand. It seems that he could develop a new fixing agent or a drug that protects the ink from over painting and discoloring the ink like a varnish.

And then I talked about the fact that the priest president praised the research results of Heidi's color ink and the attributes of magical powers.

"... It means that ... depending on the attributes of the magical powers contained in the material, if you mix it the color changes."

Hey who listened to my story shook my fist held as Purupuru, I saw Kiki me.

"I have such a useful magic tool to examine attributes .... I also want it, Milady! Please buy it at research expenses!"

"I understand, I thought that I want it, but I can not easily get it. Besides, since it is a witchcraft, I do not know whether it can be used as a commoner."

"Oooh ... .. your lord, it is cunning"

Heidi 's figure exaggerated with his head had a sense of deceit. I seem to be watching myself when I realized that only a nobleman is a book or a librarian.

"I wanted to measure the material that makes the paper and I wanted to find out what kind of paper the magazine feels, but I can not do anything unless I can get the magician of measurement."

"Do not give up, do not miss it! Let's win!"

"... .. If there is time and material, that is the story, now we really can not afford it."

When I shook his head, Heidi moistened his eyes and said, "I can not get it for my daughter, so I can not do anything anyhow," and I was able to get into frown.

"Next ... .. Johann and Zach. What were the outcomes of the smithing workshop?"

When I nominated them, Johan and Zach looked away and shrugged my shoulders. Both of them have totally disappeared in my memory of the freshly adult female boy, and it has become the face of a craftsman who can do a single job.

"I first got a challenge of designing a horse-drawn carriage with little shaking and designing a bed using springs. Here is the design."

"I also saw the design of Zach, but I think that it will be this carriage that has the least shake. With considering mass production, this one is better because the parts are not so difficult."

While looking at the opinions of the two, I looked into the three design drawings. You can see that a hanging carriage is designed.

"Here is the bed you requested. This designed as I mentioned previously. I thought you could not do a better thing but it is quite difficult. But it takes a lot of time to complete , The price will also be high. "

"It's okay for you to earn money, but I was surprised to design it well in a feasible manner."

For Pocket Coil and Bonnekoil only I taught misleading knowledge, but Zach was adopting pocket coils as it was easy to image. When this bed is really completed, my sleeping time will be blissful.

"Let's start making the bed with the size of the adult. If you use a mass-producible one, buy the design drawing from Zach. As for the treatment of the subsequent design drawing, like the pump to the blacksmith association Is it OK to leave it? "

"In order to make a horse-drawn carriage, we have to keep pace with the woodworking association, so please discuss them all together.

Each time you make a carriage a copyright fee is paid on the design drawing.

"I will leave Bangno negotiations with the Blacksmithing Association and the Woodworking Association, though I thought that ingoing would be okay, but Beno who is not related to anyone would be better, Beno."

"... .. I got it to you"

I finished paying to Zac with a guild card that I have as the chief of the studio of Rosemain Studio, and turned to Johann.

"How about Johann? I think that we were asking for increased production of metal prints and popularization of hand pumps ... .."

"Metal prints are steadily increasing ... .. And we are selling from one side that has increased. Halden Zell was quietly sold because there were no craftsmen who could still do the perfect job yet."

To print during the winter basket, if the metal type is lacking it will not be a job. I heard that it had been suggested that it was not made accurately, so it would have been necessary for a lot of reserve.

"It is painful to go many times if you can not make it soon at Halden Zell."

"If you do not do this spring, it's a story with Giebe · Haldzell as you move Halddenzell craftworkers to Ehrenfest, it is this that Johann heads to Halden Zell."

As Johann who raised his face as relieved said "I have to go to another place", I dropped my shoulder with Gakun. Guttenberg watches Johann with an incomprehensible eyes when I'm head tilted with too much head.

"Johan has a perfectionistic sense of work and poor manpower, so it's easy to feel antipathy and teaching on a new land was pretty difficult."

Lutz defends Johan and everyone else nods.

"It seems like it was hard for people of Hald Zell to be introverted, but I heard that Johan's evaluation is quite high among them."

"Huh?"

"It is said that blacksmiths were inspiring when absolutely winning the passing in spring."

Lightly confronting Johann with a surprising face, Zach raises the edge of his lip nicely.

"So you said, you do not enemy, so you're only saying a garger ... Well, whichever you are, you have to put up with it until he gains up, you just have to give up."

"Zach, who's that guy?"

"It is Danilo, a disciple of Johan, so I am sure that it will be Gutenberg and I am battling fighting spirit, so I will push for this meeting within that, surely"

When Zack, who was pushed and entered Gutenberg shook his shoulder and laughed, Johan bent his mouth into a letter.

"The hand pumps are spreading smoothly, starting to sell from craftsmen's streets and north, and finally it has become possible to handle orders from the east"

Requests from workplaces and their relationships and rich north were given priority, and finally it seems that the hand pump began to turn to other areas.

"It's going well, please proceed with this condition. Oh, I almost forgotten, Johan, I would like you to make this."

I gave the design drawing of the safety pin as a new request. Johan looked through the blueprints and turned into a difficult face.

"... ... Is it useless on a regular pin? I think it will not change much."

"Is not it dangerous if this tip of the needle comes out? I do not like pain, and the place where this pin tip is hidden properly is important."

When I tapped the place where the pin of the design drawing is hidden with the fingertips lightly, Johan laughed a little, "I am paying attention to where others do not care at all."

"Mr. Rosemain, can we turn this request to a disciple?"

"If you can make it according to the design drawing, you do not mind."

"I will turn it to Danilo"

If you think that you will be recognized as a disciple of Johan, if you can not do my request, it will not be good.

From Johann who clears the blueprint, I moved my eyes to the Ingo. This is the request of my favorite.

"How about Ingo? Can you have a bookshelf?"

Once you have a shelf-moving book shelf, you are planning to create a collection collection. While exciting, as I looked up, the ingo turned into a slightly difficult face.

"Although it became a thing according to the design drawing that Rosemain brought, ... .."

"Is there something wrong?"

"I think that it probably is too heavy if I put a book,"

".....Huh?"

I opened my eyes and scratched Poly poly and cheek. It moves if it is empty, but it becomes very heavy when stuffing a book. It seems that it did not move in the state of stuffing things. Since the design and improvement of rails and pulleys are outside the jurisdiction of the woodworking studio, it is better to think a little.

"Johann ... .."

"Please turn design to Zach"

Johan shook his work to Zach as to please beyond this work. When I looked towards Zac, he told me "I am not good at fine modifications," and accepted with a face that seemed unlikely.

"By the way, Rosemain, the other day, I heard an interesting story from Corinna"

"Haha?"

I was able to change my talk for a long time by Beno who deepened her smile, and I went up and up.

"I heard that you are reaching for dyeing this time, it is really interesting to revive old technology anything."

It is written on Beno's face that "This fool is to spread hands to dyeing relationship." I gently strike my hands on my cheeks in an atmosphere that could not be disgusted even if I was angry.

"No matter how much things become a source of new trends, I think that it is not my achievement with regard to this time because it is a revival of old technology, I can revive old technology and use it newly Coworker's achievement It is a great opportunity, so dyeing craftsmen will grow up slowly. "

"The meaning of the word Fufu, slowly seems to be quite different between us and aristocrats"

Beno became a shocked face this time. Gutenberg also said, "Is not it that the nobility is slow?"

It seems that I think that it is a person who raises problems with Gangan at high speed to Gutenberg and raises it with Sparta. I think it is the chief priest and I am not. It is out of the world.

I always thought "I wish I could," I gave a job, I do not think "I must do absolutely". Telling that, Zach had a head with "common sense is different".

"Craftsmen who can not meet customer's request can be treated incompetent"

..... Oh, it seems so. .... Something, sorry. However, although I reflect on, I do not take my own weight.

"If the new way of dyeing spreads, ink may be able to sell and I do not think that it is totally useless, but I do not talk about dyeing people who are involved in the Printemps business, I told Corinna that it was better to trade directly with the dyeing fabric association "

"How is dyeing related to the Plantin Shokai?"

..... Ah, I got it. I talked too much. Stencil printing I thought I would keep silent for a while.

Obsession

"There are other methods of dyeing, since this time, after my exclusive dyeing workshop is decided, we will sell the dyeing technology that will be involved in the Printemps business to the dyeing-and-knitting association, It is likely to become "

If you are talking with laughter and laughter, you can see that Beno's mood rises steadily and steadily. The reddish brown eyes that are getting steeper will threaten to report where and how the Printemps business is involved.

"Wow, ... because we use paper and ink, we said that they are also involved in the Printemps business, they will only be able to sell tools, so more information is charged!"

".....understood"

It seems that he was convinced once.

After listening to everyone's story is a discussion about the schedule to Halden Zell. After I have finished the ceremony ceremony, I will state that I will go to Haldzell at once with a cowardly beast. For those who will bring along, everything about contract magic has changed, so Beno and Damian from the Plantin shop for the procedure concerning it, Johann and Zack only the smithmakers.

I already taught how to make a black ink, I bring color inks from Plantin Shokai and just sell it if it is necessary, so Heidi and Josef do not have to go.

Ingo taught how to make the most important printing machine, and it seems that woodworking craftsmen have already passed. I have taught how to print and Hald Tzel has been in touch with the paper industry for a while, so the Rosemain workshop has not moved either.

"Beno, how long will it take for the procedure person?"

"If Rosemain comes with you, I think that it's enough for three days."

Nobility opponents take time to talk a bit, but if I am with them, they say that they will go straight without being caught. If it says in this way, go with Papach and go back with Papach.

"I will do my best with negotiations with civil servants so that I can expand the printing industry as much as I can"

"I think that it is just right to keep it a little."

Lutz pulls her cheeks all the way and said so, but I decided to do my best to realize my dream.

"We have also decided to introduce the deposit system from this time, please let me know exactly with the printing laboratory at the printing association"

I explained explanation of the deposit system and told me to deliver to Ehrenfest and me one by one.

"I understand the gist and will not change so far, so why do not you use it, but why do you need two volumes? Rosemain is always in the castle, is not it?"

I shook his index finger and shook it towards Beno, who said that he would not need two books even though he would not go to the bride. My ambition can not fit in the castle library alone. It is even bigger.

"In any case, I plan to make a huge library that collects books during Jurgen Schmidt, not just Ehrenfest, so I have to collect books for that from now."

If you announce your ambition with a chest tight, "Do you plan on going with it?" Gutenberg gathered himself with a head.

Chapter 349: Disappearing ink and returning to the castle

---

A spring baptism ceremony was held, heading to the altar while watching the children of sizes not much different from myself. It is usual that words are exchanged with watching me. This time it is a baptismal expression, so the children's words are much more straight than when in the adult ceremony.

..... There, do not say "Wow, tiny! I can hear it! Pointing and do not say "Let's see it".

I feel like being a zoo animal and I will walk. When you come up to the altar, there is a story of the priest chief, blessing, the baptism ceremony is over. I came to the adult ceremony during this time, so there was no family member at the door.

..... Turi is also a job, it can not be helped.

"Did it end?"

"Is the chief priest owing to the workshop from now on? I heard from me, Ekhardt's brother and me, that I and the priest's chief are supposed to be in the temple until the Count of Reisegang comes out of the city"

The great-grandfather and the Count of Reisegang seemed to want to marry me and the priest's chief who is supposed to draw blood of Reisegang and make it the next lord and want to reject Ahrensbach's blood even a little.

It is said that I was aiming to become a lord as the priest chief because I was brought under the asylum, I became adopted by the lord, Shinto chief was detained by Verónica and I was officially my guardian He seems to have thought of it.

It seems that the president of the priest who was asked to marry me from Earl of Reisegang crushed the foundation of great grandfathers by engaging with Virfriit. In such a state I was tilted heading as if I could withdraw from visiting, but it is the reason why I decided the next lord who is convenient for them and pray for the aristocrats who make a hypothesis is with the adoptive father who is the lord It seems to be the work of Wilfried who wants to become the next lord.

"If Ferdinand had an ambition, he would have not returned to the temple, he would have stayed in the castle, accepting Lisegang's offer, silence, the shield could be made without permission, the situation would have been set up. By showing a posture to give all of the information to the lords and show all the things after it, it shows the loyalty to the lords and declining, by sharing the information in the temple to show things not related to politics There is nothing more than that "

Brother Eckhard shrugged his shoulders and said that while watching the workshop where the priest chief was holding. In order to show the attitude that "I will do as Arub-Ehrenfest said", I heard that it would be better for you to stay in the temple without getting in touch with it.

"Because you are in the temple stretching out, is not it particularly painful to be in the temple?"

"Well, I do not feel any pain at all, but the chief priest is the same, is not it?"

As the blue priests come to help their work properly and the work that the former temple kept collecting comes to some extent, the priest owner is easier to secure free time in the temple.

If the nobility said "Temple settles down" probably will not work, the mouth did not open, but the priest chief raised the edge of the lip a little and affirmed.

"You may spend some time researching when you are in the temple."

"There is something I have to tell you before I go to the workshop"

"What is it?"

"That is about that ink, after finishing lunch, head for your workshop"

The facial expressions of the priest became severe. I wonder if something went wrong. I heard the schedule for Franc this day and approved it on the spot.

After lunch, the chief priest came with a small bottle containing several inks. I will open the doors of the workshop and welcome the chief priest and eldest brother Eckhardt. Justkus is away for the castle to see the situation of the nobles.

My escort knights Angelica and Damuel came in. The chief priest told the escort knights to go down to the door, and I offered magical tools to prevent eavesdropping.

"I also made the same ink and tried various studies ... ...."

The chief priest makes sounds with Kotonkoto and arranges bottles. Each label was bound with threads. Rosemain, Ferdinand, I looked at the label labeled "minus 1", "minus 2", and my eyes blinked.

"I know the name, but what is this?"

"It's the part that I made by extracting attributes"

The strange ink was created because of the finally added golden powder. Naturally it is because there is no other place to change. It seems that the chief priest made comparisons by making one attribute out of one 's magical powers, one with two attributes removed.

..... What is it? It is small - sized ....

"As a result, it turned out that if you do not have all attributes, it will not swell up or disappear." Rosemain, you try writing with my ink, too. "

I tried writing with the cloth and pen I presented. Unlike inks I made, I started bleeding and started to swell a while with a little bumps.

"If the attributes and magical powers are similar in color and amount, it seems less blurred.If all attributes, there is no mistake even if you use other people's inks."

The chief priest gazes interestingly at the line I drew. It seems that the assumption he had settled has changed into conviction. One yogin to the satisfaction.

I looked at my line and tilted my head. It was because it did not become a beautiful line when using the priest's head ink.

"I think that the chief priest owes more blur than when I used my ink ..."

"It is probably a magical difference, your magical power is lower, is not it the easiest thing to write with ink made with your own magical power on a cloth dyed with your magical powers?"

..... When such a difference comes out, you certainly will make your own magical tool.

If there is such a difference even with just one ink, you will want to make your own magical tool with your own magical powers. I think that it is possible to understand why the priest chief is making his own anything.

"This ink wants to avoid embroidery It is an accidental product made because you wanted ink with high magical concentration to dye cloth"

"I agree"

"This is only used for costume making this time, it keeps the manufacturing method hidden because it is too dangerous"

The chief priest quietly looked at me and said so. Even if the letters disappear, ink that stops magical power there and can activate the magic team can be abused any number of times.

In that word, I nod slowly and agree.

"It will be easy to tamper with contract magic, and you can use it like secretly setting the magic team of offensive system, dangerous is not it, is not it?"

"..... You instantly think of such an unscrupulous way of use You scared me."

"But is the bishop president prohibiting it because he thought of similar things?"

The chief priest nodded while looking bitter, "That's right."

"If you want to use it as a disappearing ink, you can not make it unless you have all the attributes, you have all the attributes, that is, it is part of the royal family, the central senior nobleman, the lords of all the lords. It will lead to circumstances where the country and territory will overturn. "

There is no need to put such dangerous things in the world. You are right as the president is. I hate danger and conflict. I think that there is no problem even if you keep confidential things that are likely to be misused.

"I fully agree, if I can escape even the embroidery of costumes, that's fine."

"Thanks for understanding the danger and agreeing to the seal, but embroidery is essential as an engaged woman, it is not good to avoid ... .. quite"

In keeping with the temple as much as to say that my head hurts, the chief priest spoke sigh.

"Make the embroidery of the magic team in the costumes of the magic tools of the library as before, as it is possible that the succession will not be done properly like this time, so you draw magic clubs first with ink, You should have it embroidered with yarn dyed with your magical power from above. "

Even if others embroider it, the effect falls, but the chief priest said, because it is written with ink first.

"Of course, as well as studying bride and magic team, one must always embroider oneself. ... What is your reply?"

"... Hahaha"

I was shrouded gladly and I was given a challenge of embroidery, I was caught in a mood like a shabby.

..... After all, I could not get away from embroidery.

I went back to the priest who ordered the ink in a wooden box to hold the completed magical tool and told me to return the witchcraft to prevent eavesdropping. The secret story seems to be over.

"Eckhart, Darmel, Angelica"

"Ha!"

"We decided to conceal the recipe for that ink, so it's useless all about things related to ink, is not it good?"

"Ha!"

Angelica responded with chest tightening, as it is not originally remembered. While seeing the creation of magical tools up close, the existence of Angelica who does not feel at all to remember seems to be unable to understand for the priest. Once glancing glance at Angelica, flush it "lightly".

"By the way, Rosemain"

"What is it?"

"The report came from Franc, but he seems to be starting to change things like that with the merchants in the downtown regarding dyeing cloth."

I left the report to the franca, but was there any incompleteness? To tilt my head, the priest chief lightly sigh.

"If you are concerned with a new outbreak, let us talk to Florentia and Elvira, confusion will happen later."

"understood"

Two days before Justkus returned with the news, I spent all afternoon reading a book. It was a time of happiness until I got a call that there is a story from Justozuku.

"At last it seems that Earl of Reisegang left the castle."

It seems that Eisen Reisegang, who was waiting until the end to return to the castle, finally came home to manage somehow.

"The fact that Princess Rosemain declared to the children at the House of Lords that he was not going to be the next lord, and Irknar Brigitte, the former escort knight, said the Princess said that the princess's lack of power is thin. It seems that he played, it seems he gave up for granting the princess to the next lord for the time other than Reisegang. "

It seems that it is in the direction that it is OK with it if it is stopped inside Ehrenfest without putting it to the other territory. It seems there was persuasion and hard work by adoptive father there.

"Let's go back to the castle, we have a meeting about the lord conference, and there is a call from Aub Ehrenfest if we want to hear stories about the maintenance of the downtown"

"Rosemain, I will return to tomorrow."

"Yes ... ...."

"What?"

The priest president narrowed his eyes on my words.

"What would you do for my exclusive chef? I am worried about putting one pre-married woman in the kitchen of the castle,"

Fugo is closed for preparations for marriage until the ceremonial ceremony, but I am concerned about putting Ella alone in the kitchen of the castle. You can not put a young woman who knows all of my recipes by yourself. My priest nods on my words.

"If you become one person, you are not targeted perfectly, the one who left this is safe, thinking about things that may not be married, negotiate with one or two recipes, cast the castle Why do not you borrow one of the chefs as exclusive for a limited time? "

"Can you do something like that?"

"It is up to the praying ceremony, not a long period of time, if the new recipe is available, it will be over there."

I decided to leave Ella in the temple in accordance with the priest's head. The less risk is better.

Tell Ella about the danger in the castle and tell him to stay in the temple and get the francs to prepare the baggage.

"I'm Rosemain, I am looking forward to hearing from you soon."

"I will ask you to prepare a ceremony ceremony"

I ran to the sky with a rossina and luggage bus with luggage and I went back to the castle.

"Welcome back, Princess"

Richarda was the leader and aides gathered together and greeted me. Escort Knight is changed and Damuel and Angelica are on holiday.

"What kind of information is contained? Please tell me what happened in the castle"

Brother Cornelius and Leonore who became relatives sources with religious origin and calls from parents and relatives around Brunehilde seemed to have been asked about various circumstances. However, from the beginning I mentioned that I was declaring "I will not be aiming for the next lord," and by telling my friends that they are not daringly engaged, the nobility who had been ahead of him seemed to have fallen somewhat.

Villefried seems to be depressed because of the deterrent slander that the person who committed a crime is engaged to the saint and become the next lord.

"Comfort me with your depressed boy, please support me." Because the princess became a fiancé "

"Is not it true that Wilfriit committed the inaccessible sin? It is not true for those who can not accept the aristocrats as much as they can take the trouble and take the trouble to look back at the nobles."

Hartmut 's opinion, which has been handling Jilvester all the time and seeing Wilfried, perhaps by a general aristocratic line of sight against Richarda who knows Wilfried from the time of his birth is sharp.

"As long as Rosemain is hurt, efforts are indispensable to stand next to it, and it will not be worse."

"..... Wilfried elder brother how .... Did Count Count Raisinggang give up?"

I asked for information after telling me that I knew that I would like to make me the next lord. Thinking from the fact that it was still in the castle until the last minute, I think that I have not given up yet.

Brunehilde, who was relatives and asked for his great-grandfather, told me about the situation at that time. If after a public talk that would like to know my preference, Vercornica is being persecuted by the adoptive father and foster mother as if he was persecuting the priest chief, and that he is being threatened not to be a next lord I heard she was worried.

"I was extremely moved when I told you that Rosemae is raised in a temple and is not familiar with aristocratic society, so I do not think that I will aim for my next lord."

"... ... impressed, is it?"

Hartmut makes a bitter smile when it is impossible to understand from the image of a nobleman to be touched by the raising of the temple.

"It is said that the princess who has a great magical power, raises only that merit, and has no problem at all in the blood line, is that he is said to have such a title as a saint. ... The legend of the saint seems to be accelerated thanks to Earl Raisegang. "

"It seems that we will support you with full support so that you can go without worrying about breeding etc. Rosemain is not accepting that you do not want to, but because the swinging ears are very good, so how far I heard it, how far I have not heard it ... "

..... Ooo, Hi Hi Grandpa! Is it?

My great-grandfather still seems to be dark in the back so that I can become the next lord.

After talking about the result of the information gathering, Hartmut brought the material.

"Here is a thing that summarizes the materials when modifying the dormitory at the House of Peers, and the material at the time of remodeling the castle and aristocracy is here."

With regard to the maintenance of the downtown, it seems that Mr. Wilfried's civilian officials and Charlotte's civil servants cooperated and gathered past data, mainly of mothers who received contact from me, gathered past data.

"From here, also from me. This is about discussion with Gilberto Shokai, this is a document on the discussion with Gutenberg. Hartmut is responsible for printing and the maintenance of the city, but what about the dyeing is filiale together Please hand in Elvira. "

I will hand out the materials the francs wrote to them. It is written to report to the priest chief, so it is a minutes written a series of flows. I would like you to extract exactly what you need.

Paralipalari and Hartmut who turned the material a little narrowed his eyes.

"Is it the cabinet of the temple that summarized this material?"

"In the temple the side work does the work of a civilian, and before Franz and Zam served me, it was a Ferdinand-san's side, because Feldinand is exercised, the material is well organized, is not it?"

"Well, I did not think that the gray priest of the temple had such ability"

Hartmut begins to turn the material with a serious look.

Philene looked at me in response to the word gray priest of the temple. I know what I'd like to hear from anxious expressions, and I laugh with Nicol for dinner at Phylene.

"Konrad is getting well, smiles have increased and I have eaten rice as well. I went to the orphanage to visit, I became friends with the same age child, taught me letters and calculations I was getting it. "

"Is that so"

Phyllene holding down the chest as I was relieved blinked several times and tilted my neck.

"... Well, Rosemain. What is it that Konrad teaches letters and calculations?"

"My orphanage has cards, cards, picture books, and even before baptisms children can do reading and writing calculations as common, so other orphans are taught by other orphans who can not read and write yet. is"

That being said, Phyline exaggerated and opened his eyes. Haltmut also looked at me like astonished, blinking his eyes.

"Rosemain, then is not the orphan of the temple receiving a better education than the lower aristocracy around there?"

Immediately after finishing the baptismal ceremony, Phyline nodded as cocky as not being able to write letters. I figured out the state of the children in the orphanage and the state of the children's room in the castle.

"I do not know what kind of education an ordinary aristocrat is receiving, but if you compare children immediately after the baptismal ceremony, I think that with the exception of magical powers, the education of the middle class aristocracy child is on. Originally I used cartoons and cards at an orphanage and I got results at an orphanage so I took it in the children's room of the castle. "

Of course, it is difficult to compare because the study time and necessary knowledge after the baptismal ceremony are different, but I will add that.

"If you do not avoid the temple, you can think about keeping the children of the lower aristocracy at lower prices and educating, but it is difficult because the image to the temple is not good. It is a challenge. "

"Is it a shrine room?"

"Everyone is planning to teach reading and writing calculation to the commoners, which is a plan for ten or twenty years"

When I say so and finish talking, I turn my eyes on the materials at hand. At the end of the collected materials, the magical power and time needed to remodel the downtown was calculated.

... .... Although for a few years it becomes slightly magical, it is not possible?

"Oh, Rosemain, what is this dyeing?"

I raised my eyes to the voice of Phyline.

"It seems that it was a way of dyeing cloth that was a former Ehrenfest. When consulting with Gilbertta Shokai thought that not only monochrome but also various cloths are necessary for making costumes of Schwarzs, there is an old technology I was asked to ask the dyeing laboratory whether I can revive the old technology. "

That's what it was when you put it together. I will explain to tie-dyeing and wax-tying to Phyllie, but it seems that it does not come with a pin for Filledge which does not know the real thing. It reacted to Richarda.

"Tie dye and waxy dye, are not you?"

"Do you know Richarda?"

"It was common to have them wearing them before adulthood. If you look for a costume room in your house, there may still be some fabrics left."

It seems that things primarily granted or memorable things are left behind without being thrown away. I would like to see once what kind of dyed fabric was popular around here.

"Please show me this time"

"Well, that's OK."

When making such a promise with Richard, Brünhild made a slightly displeased voice.

"What are you going to do with such old things? Do not make old things, please make a new trend"

"Brunhild, using old things to create new things, whether it works well depends on the choice eye of our craftsmen, not just the craftsmen, we just use the old things as it is, I will create a new dyeing, not just spreading the fashion, will not Brunehilde create a fashion together? "

Brun hilde lightly watched his eyes as though he had done it.

I was thinking about finding good things and just sending epidemics from Ehrenfest, but since there are foster mothers and mothers on ages and factions, it seems that Brünhild was not thinking about making a fashion for myself.

"I trust Burunn Hilde's eyes of choice, you'd have chosen exactly the cactus curls, tea, Lincian scent etc that you would like to give to Egranthine? Among the newly created dyes it seems to be accepted by aristocratic women I think you can choose things. "

In my words, Brünnhild smiled proudly and nodded. The candy colored eyes who gained the goal of creating a new trend get strong light.

"I will pick you the most suitable cloth for Rosemain and I will make a new trend with Rosemain."

Chapter 350: Before the Lord Conference

---

First of all, I advised that it would be better to know what the old technology is and then choose a new one on that, and Brünhild started listening to Richarda carefully about the old costume.

Oteller brings an invitation letter when you look pleasantly that two people who have extraordinary interest in costumes and ornaments are excited.

"Rosemain, 5 bells are calling from Aub Ehrenfest"

He was informing the date and time of returning to the chief priest and the castle with Ordnant, so it was supposed to be held a conference at the time of the break. I knew by Aldonants' exchange, but it seems that the official invitation has arrived in the room.

It is a tea ceremony whose purpose is the discussion towards the Lord Conference. Lord lord family gathers up and talks about printing industry and downtown maintenance, so it seems that mothers are also called.

"I understand Wilfriet-sama and Rosemayin who are in the House of Lords, but Charlotte is also at the same place."

Originally, as an apprentice to start work is from entering the House of Lords. Children who have finished the baptismal ceremony will help the parents' jobs and listen to what relatives and familiar people are doing, while choosing the courses of the aristocrats considering their future.

Charlotte is determined as a candidate for a lord, and he / she wishes to work together, so this time he is also involved in the printing industry.

"Charlotte is working hard, so we have to attend the meeting. If only one person does not understand the circumstances, you will also have trouble with your aides?"

"Rosemain and Charlotte are a bit worried that work is given priority over bride training"

Otirier put his hands on his cheeks and breathed lightly that he was in trouble. Charlotte seems to desperately strive hard to put it in me and Wilfriet as a candidate for a lord. But as England engaged me and Wilfried, it seems like the official of my next lord has made a final decision. It seems that Charlotte's side and Otirie are talking about wanting to take care of the bride practice too.

Of course, the thing that I want to take most care is reading. I can do my best to expand the printing industry to enjoy reading without worrying, but I do not feel like taking seriously the bride training.

..... Sorry, Othelier. I'm still better off working as a busy worker than a bride training.

"Mr. Rosemain, are you going to the meeting room soon?"

The Rieselator who finishes preparation for heading together calls out.

As Hartmut and Philiane raise their faces as if they were relieved, they immediately prepared preparations to accompany the meeting with stationery and materials.

The side to accompany today is Richarda and Rieser, the escort knight is Elder Brother Cornelius, Leonore, Yudit. When I get on the Lesser Bus, I depart for the meeting room on the second floor of the main building.

"I am very nervous that I will be accompanied by a lower aristocrat at the conference where the lords of rulers come together"

"The tension is the same even for a senior aristocrat because I am the first such as a meeting where lord families come together."

Phyline 's hand holding the stationery trembles. Hartmut also had a hard face a little. Lieser laughs with Nicolle with a gaze similar to Angelica.

"I am also nervous, but I can do my work faithfully, because what we are required for is to work reliably"

..... I thought that the resemblance between Rieser and Angelica is only face, but maybe posture to work is similar.

There is a difference in work content between the side and the escort knight, but the posture that it works exactly for your work is very similar. Angelica is totally divorced that his job of using his head is not his job, but he is more serious and enthusiastic than ever for escorts.

Richarda is expecting the enthusiastic training of the leiserer who is educated is awesome and attentive. At first glance it is difficult to understand, but I feel that the necessary items are prepared in the necessary places.

Since there is only one escort knight who can enter the conference room, Elder Cornelius enters and Leonore and Yudit wait in separate rooms. Many people gathered in the conference room already.

Lord and his wife sat on the upper seat, the second seat is Bonifatius, the next is the chief priest. Wilfried, I followed Charlotte. Because there is a civil engineer and an escort knight and a side worker who prepares for tea goes in and out, even a stakeholder of a lord family has quite a few people.

Besides, there were men, upper part of civilian officials, upper part of the Order, on the table of discussion.

"Oh, Rosemain. The shrine seems to have finished safely"

When I was invited by my adopting father to "come here", I headed with Elder Cornelli. Citizen and side work have their own work.

The father-in-law who looked closely at the end of the interview seemed very tired. There is a shadow falling at the eyes, and there is little power to smile. No, it may be said that it seems to be calm. The atmosphere like an elementary school boy has become an atmosphere of an intermediate manager who is struggling with being caught up and down.

"Mr. adoptive father, I can see the tiredness, but ..."

"It was predictable when we decided to engage Wilfried with him, how did you stay in the temple?"

"As usual except for the shrine, we are helping Feldinand in practicing fespiel and votive dance. Other than that, listening to the side what happened during the absence, meeting with the merchants, and orphans I did a tour of the hospital, I made a magician necessary for costumes to give to the royal magic, and I could also read and I had free time for two days. "

When I report that it was a little relaxing this time, my adoptive father looked bitter and muttering that he was not resting at all, I misunderstood that I am overworked, and the foster mother said, "Rosemain is doing my best Gil Vestar will be able to work harder, "he smiled.

"Thanks to collecting the information of the downtown, it seems that they would not be ashamed after the lord's conference, saved, Rosemain"

Petitioned by adoptively stroking his adopted head, he is told to get to his seat. It seems there was meaning to give rest, not just quarantine, that I placed me in the temple. Even though my hair was going to be crushed, it rarely got stroked lightly, but I felt a bit strange.

"Then, we will start urgent discussions on the future of Ehrenfest"

The adoptive proclamation was declared and the meeting began.

While being a middle territory, the influence of Ehrenfest who was wandering the base is getting higher. The result of the winter's children's room came out, the results of the lecture raised, the epidemic which is also applicable at the aristocratic house was disseminated, attention was gathered in the fight against the territory, from now on the generation of the children by the Rosemain type magical compression It is stated that it is expected that magical power will rise greatly, and it is appealed that the time from other territory gathered at Ehrenfest.

"There is a consultation of commerce from various places in the territory competition, we will trade hair ornament and lincian with the center and Klostenburg at the lord conference, which is no longer a decision matter, but it was few to accept the outsiders Ehrenfest is not ready to accept merchants in other territories ... .. Elvira, explanation "

"Certainly yes"

When the mother got up to the point, when I compare it with other territories concerning the maintenance of the downtown with the data as one hand, I began to explain that Ehrenfest was delayed several tens of years. It is a story that everyone already knows, but it is important to confirm and have common recognition.

"Based on the information of the downtown sent from Rosemain, as a result of investigating with Wilfriit and Charlotte, we found that the maintenance of the downtown was left undeveloped due to lack of magic. We need to arrange the form until it increases. "

When my mother's explanation is over, my adoptive nod raises up.

"If there is a way to manage the disaster of the downtown, we have to do something. I also did the inspection actually, but for us the downtown thought that it would be no use dirty as it is where the commoners live. I thought that it was impossible for the commoners who could not use magic tools, but the other territories are not, it seems that the same cityscape as the aristocracy street can be seen in the downtown where the commoners spend. "

Most of the aristocracy living in aristocracy never falls downtown. The merchant is going to call and, even if heading somewhere, if you use a beast, you leave the downtown. When I have to pass by the carriage by all means I just have to wait for passing by while saying "What a terrible place".

In other territories, if you hear that such a downtown is as beautiful as the aristocratic street, you can understand the severity of Ehrenfest. It was not written from the letter of the guild train to the same as the aristocracy, but it was better to say somewhat exaggeratedly in order to convince hard civilian officials.

"We must regain the delay of decades"

Looking around the room with a gleamed dark green eye, the adoptive father asserts.

"After the prayer ceremony and after the time until the lord conference, we will do maintenance of the downtown by Entwickeln, which is a decision item."

"Entwickeln to the maintenance of the downtown?"

"Is magical power enough?"

While the squirrel and the surroundings raised a surprised voice, the lords and mothers gazed at each other for a brief moment and nodded. What is Entwickeln? A momentary doubt fluttered in the head, but I immediately realized it was the official name of dramatic Before after.

Apparently it seems that the dramatic before-after has already been decided among the lords. After the prayer ceremony is over, it seems to do a massive Entwickeln with the momentum that uses all the magical power that has been stored so far.

"Aub Ehrenfest orders the lord family, devote that magical power for Ehrenfest!"

It was the chief priest who first took over the adoptive father's words. Cross the arms in front of the chest, show Yi orders. My grandfather followed it, and I crossed my arms in the same way. Wilfried and Charlotte also crossed the arms, as if they had been delayed by a lap.

I got the approval of all the lords and my nodo nodded slowly.

If it is decided to do Entwickeln, we will have to make a detailed schedule next.

"We have to decide when to do it early, and have to notify downtown as well"

"You will have to kick out the pilgrims from the city for a while"

We are discussing what kind of procedure the civilian officials will do, but it is hard to get all the residents of Shimomachi out of town. I wonder if everyone can bring furniture and food. In the words of civilian officials, I frown with my eyes in mind, thinking of my family carrying large amounts of luggage and going outside the city.

"When you used Entwickeln in the aristocracy, do you kick them all out? Do you have any materials on what furniture etc ...? ..... Bonifatius, if you know about that time, could you tell me ? "

When I asked questions, my grandfather taught me what happened at that time. In order to set up a toilet and a bath in the house, we designed each drawing to submit a design drawing, based on which the design of the town was created, Entwickeln seems to have been done. It seems that it was hard to have furnished furniture in the garden part.

"Since the downtown is not only a white building, but it has expanded arbitrarily, I can not handle the extension part as well."

"... There is not enough power to make all the extension parts a white building. This calculation is about the remodeling of the white building to the last"

My adoptive father narrowed his eyes to the words of the civilian. In other words, it seems that only the lower part from the second floor which was stone could be remodeled, but if you fell underneath, the upper part will collapse. In that case, the place where the upper floors live will be gone.

"A large number of people can not live if the expansion building collapses. There are many shops and workshops in the white building part, many people live in the wooden part. In addition, we now have merchants. Many workshops move to create products. If it is said that the studio can not be used for a long time, the product can not be done. I think that damage is too big. "

Although a merchant from another territory is coming, I think that the outpattern is not good considering that the product is shorted out after issuing a large amount of refugees.

The chief priest who heard my opinion lightly shrugged his shoulders.

"No matter how much you use Entwickeln, you do not need to make the downtown exactly the same as the aristocratic city. Instead of installing toilets and baths in every building, set up some places to throw away the waste. If you do it in the same way as the temple you do, you do not have to mess with the building? "

..... Well, the temple was like that. I knew it for the first time.

As for the life of the temple, I leave everything to the side, so I never even thought about how waste disposal was done. Apparently, there is a place to throw garbage, there is the same sticky as the aristocracy and it seems to be processing dirt.

"If you set up sewage along the road, make a place to throw away the waste and let it go to the collection place instead of throwing away from the window, you can maintain without collapsing the building. I think that it will also save a lot of magical power. "

However, in order to keep it beautiful, as in the temple do the purification thoroughly, and you have to teach the commoners not to scatter garbage, the priest chief said to the adoptive father with a difficult face .

"Since the temple is beautiful, is not it better to do the same?"

"Because you can do it for an orphan, you can do it even if you teach it."

"If you teach it may be possible, but how to teach is a problem, is not it?"

The mother who will be in charge of the project concerning the maintenance of the downtown was sighing as if he was in trouble.

It is easy to make it beautiful using Entwickeln, but it is important to know and thoroughly use it later.

"You should ask Gustaf, which has great influence in the downtown?"

My adoptive father is turning his eyes on me. I am familiar with the circumstances of the downtown most in this place, and it is also me who explodes emotions when treating the downtown roughly. I understand that downtown is said to be able to make a good plan, oooh, thinking while groaning.

"There are rich and big stores in the north side of the downtown, the western side is the market, the east side is a lot of travelers, so I think that it will be fine if there is a proposal from the guild general Gustav."

Everyone should work seriously if there is crackdown on violators who can not register for business relations, get permission to put out a store in the market or get fined every time by report from the surroundings.

"The problem is south, it is unknown whether the influence of the guild of the commercial guild, even if it is the guild chief of the commercial guild, whether thoroughness can be thorough simply because there is a lot of craftworkers, not even the rich man in the same downtown "

How do I make a perfect notification not only about the craftsmen's street and the poor, but also about how to use it and crack down offenders.

... .. Please help me, my father!

"Oh, how about using soldiers?"

When I hit my hands with Pong, everyone's eyes gathered at once. As my adopting father narrows my eyes, I see like searching for me.

"Is it a soldier, is it a gatekeeper's gatekeeper?"

"Well, yes, according to a soldier who is asking for an escort when I head for the small temple of Hasse, the soldiers in the gate seem to be looking around to maintain security besides working as a gatekeeper. Also, since there are many people in the south of the soldiers' residence, I think that if they talk to the soldiers from the knight team, order the order, comprehend and thoroughly, they will look after them. "

Once you say it, it probably will not become a lifestyle. You need someone to tell you again and again, threaten the nobility as an offering. And it will be more effective for people closest to it.

"Does the Order also have a meeting with soldiers? Should I notify the time and date of Entwicklunn on the spot, as it is being housed in an unaffected house, say to the people I think you can do it. "

"... .. Hmm, not bad"

When the adoptive father turned his eyes towards the knight team, the knights nodded one to approve. Civil servants are notified through commercial guilds, and the knights are notified through soldiers.

"Oh, Aub Ehrenfest. If magical power could be saved, is not it just a pipe to throw away the waste, can not you put a pipe that takes water from the river cleanly?

A lot of water is required for paper making and dyeing. A lot of water is necessary to develop the future industry. Fortunately, because there is a big river in the west, I suggested that we can not draw water from there.

"What do you think of the opinion of Ferdinand, Rosemain? Can you use magic tools to purify water in the river?"

"..... Considering the use for a long time, there is too much magical power needed. If you do not improve the magician, it will not be usable, but if the river's water is needed in the future, I wonder if I only have to pass through the pipe? "

The chief priest said, "If you just pass through a pipe, it will not be a heavy burden. The adoptive father gently nods, to re-calculate the magical power necessary for civil servants and order the creation of a design drawing for using Entwickeln.

"And then, there are questions and requests from the commercial guilds, how to distinguish merchants in the territory without the merchants from the territory that issued the permission at the lord conference, apparently even in other territories. It seems there is a huge magical tool that can be used, but it is difficult to create from now until the arrival of a merchant in another territory. Is there any easy and effective way? "

The thing that comes to mind with my poor head, such as the identification of merchants is about the vermark ship trade. I tried to propose whether to issue a red seal.

"... .. Although not bad, things that are unique to Ehrenfest, or things that are hard to imitate are good."

"Then, how about using Nansave paper with that Shujou?"

The chief priest lifted his face slowly and explained to everyone about the newly developed nonsave paper at Ilkner. Nansave paper is a vegetable paper made from magic tree, and there is a habit of going to big fragments. Even though I know the existence of vegetable paper, the celestials who seemed to have not known the existence of paper made from the magic witnessed amazement.

"If you dye to the color of each area, give half to the commercial guild and another half to the business partner, you will immediately know which merchant you are a merchant. It put it in a magical skimless leather bag so that the paper will not move freely Do not you explain to the trading partner so that the merchant will have it? "

If you decide to distribute it to a merchant, you have to cut paper securely, so it should be smaller than half the commercial guild has. If the size of the paper given to the merchant is specified, the priest leader says the merchant will not increase too much.

..... That, it is not a vermillion shape, it is closer to the engagement sign, but well, is it okay?

"It is an Erienfest-like method of discrimination wanting to sell plant paper from now on, is not it good?"

When a foster smiled with a smile, the adoptive father decided to use a nonsave paper.

"OK, buy Nansave paper from Irukner and prepare for the Lord's Conference"

"Father, No, Aub Ehrenfest. It would be better to buy not only Nansave paper but also vegetable paper so that civilian personnel use it at the lord's conference"

Wilfried spoke while watching everyone in the conference room. A little voice is up and I can understand that I am getting nervous to say even from a stiff face.

"Rosemain used plenty of plants for manuscripts and memorandums at the House of Lords, so I heard that there were people of other territories of interest, how about using plant paper at the Lord's Conference? "

Wilfried did not expect it to speak, everyone glanced at his mouth and looked at Wilfried with a slightly surprising expression. Vilfried who received the eyes of everyone was breathtakingly small and tied carefully with her lips.

In a few seconds, Shin and a meeting room calm down, "Hmm" a small voice leaked out. Everyone's gaze moves to that one.

"It will be a bit pricey to have a citadel in the lordsmen meeting, but the luggage will be smaller and smaller than the wooden tags, which makes it easier to write and it will also be a good trend outbreak to other territories is there"

The leader of the priest boosted the opinion of Wilfried. I will relax a little expression as if Wilfried was relieved, whether his opinion would be acceptable or not.

"Well, I must use it from Ehrenfest, which spreads vegetable paper."

"At the same time, as Rosemain did at the House of Lords, those heading for the Lord's Council use Lincian, women should wear hair decorations, they will draw a lot of eyes."

"Wilfried learned a lot at the lords,"

Foster mothers smile and accept proposals from Villefried.

Discussion of other things such as arrangement of recipes which may be spread at the luncheon meeting, trade of recipes of Katokura for those who can not trade, how much customers can be increased next year, Has ended.

Chapter 351: Hasse's praying ceremony

I have been to the castle for a week before the ceremony since the conference was over.

Talk to Wilfriit and Charlotte about the place and prime movers headed by a prayer ceremony and have each get ready. This time, the aides from the temple are supposed to emerge from the servant's head.

"The place where I headed was divided as I discussed before"

"..... Only one of your sisters is quite short on days, is not it?"

"Because I will use a beast,"

My schedule for the ceremony is about half of everyone. The number of turns separately is not small. It is only a short one, because it uses several cavalry and turns several places in a day.

"If so, can I also be shortened?"

"Wilfried's older brother is impossible."

"Wow?"

"My cud beast is a ride-on type and I have been going all the way so far, so I can put gray priests and gray shrine maidens who are also my sideways together, but the wild beasts of Virfriit's older brothers are ordinary one-seater Do you dislike aristocrats grabbing gray priests? "

If we do not have the Holy Grail, we can not hold a prayer ceremony, but we can not shorten the schedule unless we can grab a gray priest who controls that holy grail. Unlike Damuel, who is in and out of the temple and looks at everyday I will put the hands on me, Wilfried's aides will not want to ride the orphan gray priest. Even when I told you to move with Gutenberg, surprised voice came up.

"Besides, there is still no magical power enough to bless Wilfriit's older brother and Charlotte many times a day?"

"Mum ... .. That's right."

Bless you with a magic stone with my magical power. I do not know well because I do not have experience, but using a magical power of another person seems to be tiring than using my magical power.

"Since I have no physical strength more than magical power, I will finish my praying ceremony as soon as possible. After that, I will be resting in the temple for a while until everyone comes back, probably the same as the number of days in the prayer ceremony itself."

It is somewhat rejuvenated at Yureve, but after the prayer ceremony probably sleeps. Wilfriit and Charlotte gathered together in my schedule of my praying ceremony until I fell asleep.

..... But it's important to keep the recovery date on schedule.

The next day we talked about the ceremony ceremony, we had tea party with mothers, foster mothers, Charlotte. As told by the priest chief, we must report on dyeing to foster mothers and mothers who are the faction leaders.

..... I have to show you where I can do without forgetting what I said!

We reported that Gilberta Shoji and Dye Woven Association led the initiative to revive dyes and that the competition was to be held at the end of the summer.

I did not forget the reamship, but when I am stretching out that I am growing a bit, I will look at me while tilting my head and head, as if I do not understand the foster mother who rounded her eyes.

"Rosemain, why did you decide to do such an event? I can not see the connection."

"It is progress, it was such a deployment before unexpectedly"

"Rosemain, please report in detail and accurate"

I was stared at my mother with a tremendous smile, and I was wondering.

"Mr. Rosemain, please here"

Philene, who had kept it behind the scenes, suddenly brought out the material extracted from Dr. Furan on the dyes. It is a well-made civilian.

As I submit it to foster mothers, foster mothers and mothers begin reading materials.

"..... In such a flow, it seems that Gutenberg's leap that became exclusive to me is envied in downtown.If you can revive old technology, I would like you to select the exclusive dyeing workshop and give a title I was told by the Gilberta Shokai. "

"Although it is normal to choose an exclusive one, it is amazing that things are big for anything that your sister does."

According to Charlotte, ordinary nobles are referrals from parents and relatives, they seem to decide exclusively by having friends see things used and introduce them. It seems that we do not do the same assignment at all studio and do not choose the studio of your choice.

The mother who finished looking through the materials returns the material to Phyline and shines the eyes of jet black fun.

"I'd like to see also, so I'd like to see it." If the due date is getting close, I will call the Gilberta trading company and let me talk about where and how to hold it. "

..... When my mother is involved, I feel that things will become even bigger, is it okay?

For the time being, I kept my mouth quietly without doing any obstinate things like saying the words that came into my mind. I grew up.

The day after the tea ceremony that brought about his growth, it is a day to consult with the aides about the design of the costume of Schwarz. I have to decide the design as soon as possible and ask Gilberta Shokai for the fabric.

I talked to everyone at first, but design decisions are made mainly by Liseretor and Brunhilde who are devoting passionate passion to making costumes.

Charlotte also showed interest, so I decided to pick it up. There are girls who were excited with the riser at dormitories of Charlotte, and Brother Cornelius and Hartmut are in the corner of the room if they are a bit uncomfortable.

"Rosemain, I, Schwarz and Weiss are not in the same outfit, I want to make them look like men and women, are not they pretty, are they cute?"

It is the Liselaire that emphasizes a strong light on a dark green eyes, and holds a fist and emphasizes it. There is no usual seductive and humble figure anywhere, and I will appeal how Schmir is cute, and I am looking forward to making costume for Schwarz and Weiss. It is a big welcome as I am happy to embroider it, but I make it a pocane to the difference from my usual.

"I do not mind taking Schwarzs' costumes to each one of men and women, but it's tough because I have to think about how to embroider magic teams on what part of costumes?"

"I do not care, I will do my best."

..... Rieserator is really sister of Angelica. I have the same face as Angelica, which was before magical compression.

While the usual appearance is totally different, I felt the connection of blood that I could not hide and girls gathered various opinions about the design of Schwarz 's costumes, even while I was laughing.

"If the sleeves of Schwarz 's costumes are not short, it will get in the way of work - it is a bit disappointing, at least let's decorate with a race."

"I need to think where to put embroidery in the costume."

I am planning to make the Schwarzs articulate the members of the library committee, so I suggested a sailor suit and a school run. When I showed the design drawing that I painted, Angelica added a lot of patterns to it, "Embroidery of the magic team enters with this feeling" like this.

....., the school run is seen only as a special clothing. Not at all cute.

"When the magic team joins, the atmosphere changes like this, it has become like a totally different thing from my imagination"

"I want to put more lovely costumes on Black Forest and Weiss."

It was dismissed by Brünhild and was nodded nicely by the Relya.

As a second step, I suggested maids and butler clothes. In this case, it was a very simple combination of one piece and apron, shirt and pants and vest so it was not dismissed immediately.

"The basic design is OK here"

"I think that it is lovely to inflate like this because of the shorter sleeve."

"Can we incorporate new dyeing techniques into the costumes of Schwarz?"

"What is the end of summer when the fabric is finished, then will not you make it in time for embroidery?"

"Should new dyes be used for accessories, is not it?"

I sootheless got out of the circle, while listening to the book a while away, I heard the fun voice of the girls. If you leave it to this passion, it will be cute.

"Make costumes with black, which is the color of the center, if aprons and vests are embroidered with magic crowds, we can not change blouses or dresses."

"That's good, let's put a scarf with a newly made dyed cloth and use Ehrenfest's flower decoration for a scarf stop."

"Let's make girls' headband with cloth, not flowers or decorations, do not you think it is lovely like a flower crown, how about boys pinning flower decorations on chest?"

Everyone adopts their own opinion, finally the finished design is just a cute ethnic costume. The impression of the maid and the butler I proposed is nowhere.

..... It's cute, so it's okay.

"Mr. Rosemain, just arrange the yarns and aprons for embroidery and the best fabrics with early eye, do not dyed with magical powers.

"If Rosemain does not pick a fabric before heading towards the prayer ceremony, is it not hard to embroider?"

The Rizerator will summarize the opinions of the girls who express their opinions.

"I'd like to call the Gilberta trading company tomorrow or the day after tomorrow and I would like to select fabrics by everyone, but how about Rosemain?"

"Please count on the goodness of the riser."

"Yes!"

Rieselter, a truly excellent side apprentice, demonstrated its brilliant skills, and on the afternoon of the next day he invited the Gilberto trading company and the selection of fabric started.

Even while I read books, I only issue permission at the end.

"Please carry the cloth and thread you decided today to the temple and my workshop is in the temple."

"Certainly yes"

Colinna who received the order finishes greeting and goes home.

This is one step forward for Schwarz 's costume as well. While watching the girls who are excited that "I'm looking forward to it," while relieving the breath of relief, Otierier shows a gentle smile.

"Because Rosemain and Charlotte are a great opportunity, let's encourage you to practice embroidery."

I looked at Charlotte and gently shrugged my shoulders.

One week before the ceremony ceremony, I am supposed to return to the temple and prepare. However, as most preparations are arranged by Francs, I will only basically check. Selection of companions, preparation of food, arrangements of a horse-drawn carriage, escort arrangements, management of an orphanage in absence ..... Everything was already familiar and already ready.

However, this time we will prepare a carriage for the Plantin Shokai, but we will not accompany people from the Plantin Shokai.

The Plantin Shokai also has to arrange for Gutenberg's heading to Halden Zell and arrangements for Entwickeln after that. There seems to be a delivery from the civil service already, it seems that the downtown is becoming a big fuss. There was a report from Gill.

I additionally noted that Mothers also participated in the competition of dyed goods and the matters decided at the conference of the lords such as the details of Entwickeln and the judgment of the merchant based on the signature mark and the participation of the mothers as a judge, and with the Gilberto Shokai I will write a letter to the Planetan Shokai and a commercial guild.

Even though the civil servants would have heard the story, Beno said that it was better to have more than one information source.

"Rosemain, cloth and thread have arrived from the Gilberto trading company, how can this be done?"

Zam said so while showing cloth and threads being delivered to the temple room. Because I had to dye it with magical power anyway, I was asked to deliver the cloth or thread I ordered to the temple, but I can not dye it unless the chief priest is available to dye it at the workshop. I have no material to use freely.

"Please tell Zam, I would like to dye the material to the chief priest, please give me an invitation request, if possible I would like to dye fabrics and threads until the ceremony."

It takes time for embroidery, so the president of the shrine collaborated with him, so it would be better for him to get up early, dyeing with magical power finished quickly. By the way, I also went to Vashen for cleaning this time, but because I adjusted the amount of magical power, I never drowned.

"Angelica, please deliver this to the Rizerator"

I will pack the dyed fabrics and threads, the bundle of paper with the magic team drawn together, and let them carry it to the castle.

"I will give Angelica a holiday to the prayer ceremony including the preparation period, as Angelica will be with you forever during the prayer ceremony without taking a break."

"Thank you. I also draw a design and prepare threads so that I can embroider my cloak during the prayer ceremony."

... .. When listening to embroidery to kill time is very high girl power, right? Actually it is strengthening armor.

Damuel who was hiding from Angelica who joyfully jumped out of the temple looks somewhat frustratingly over me.

"Rosemain is sweet for girls,"

"Well, but did not Damuel say that vacation is better after a ceremony ceremony?"

I should have listened to the opinion properly, but if I inclined my head, Damuel waved his head as "I am wrong."

"It is not a story of a holiday. I am preaching that Angelica's desire to embroider a cloak is preeminent, is not my marriage partner still determined, are you remembering it, please remember Elvira Have you been able to introduce us at the time of the star knotting ritual? "

"I completely forgotten"

"After all!"

Damuel becomes a face of despair, and it hits the spot. I did not think she wanted so much a marriage partner.

"I am sorry, I will ask my mother next time"

"Do you forget again?"

As a starring ritual approaches, it seems that there is a harsh atmosphere for single people. I have to try not to forget this time.

Before forgetting, I sent Damuel 's lament to my mother in Ordnants, and a few days later I departed for a prayer ceremony.

"Rosemain, I'm relieved to see your healthy appearance."

It was my father who came to a group of security officers heading for Hasse from the early morning by a carriage. A slight wrinkle was made at the eyes, I can see that I am getting old. Still, an unchanging affection came to pass through narrowed eyes, I felt very happy.

I can see that the soldiers who are lined up behind my father are happy to see me.

"I was worried about everyone, I am OK, I will leave the escort to Günter, thank you."

"Please leave it!"

As he brings three gray priests from Hasse, alternative gray priests and apprentices board the carriage. Already Gil and Hugo should get in.

I will prepare for departure towards the afternoon's prayer ceremony when I see everyone as "on the way, please take care."

When I finish lunch, I change into a ceremonial costume, and me and Fran and Monica are acting with a beast as usual. I will leave Darmel and Angelica as escort knights.

"There will be few places to go around this time, so it will end so much with no burden on the body"

I was sent off to the chief priest and I moved the coward. Angelica is on the front passenger seat today. Running in the sky, coming out of the city of Ehrenfest, Angelica smiled happily.

"I am the first escort mission to go outside Ehrenfest, is a strong demon opponent?"
"Going by the prayer ceremony is the winter building where the commoners spend, there is no plans to approach places where strong demons come out"
"... How about collecting materials?"

Although it is bad for Angelica who seems to want to collect materials, if you do something arbitrary without consultation with the chief priest, it will not be a story of being angry.

"Why did you think you would collect materials?"
"Since the magic stone that Damiel tried to give Brigitte was not in the forest of the castle, he thought that he took it when accompanying the shrine at the escort mission. The shinto is just a journey of collecting materials with devastating devils ...
..."

The first half is not a mistake, but the second half is totally different. Shrines are not a journey to collect materials outside the castle.

"It is a shrine to fill the land with magical powers"
"Is that so?"

Small laughter leaked from Frank and Monica sitting on the back seat to the state of Angelica where the tension dropped for a while.

..... It is surprising for the female bred Franca and Monica that it is to shuffle the material with the gods. I understand the feeling of laughing.

"Angelica, that is the town of Hasse, this white building is a small temple and I will stay at the small temple tonight."

Movement to Hasse takes less time. Looking from the sky, you can see that a lot of people are gathering in the big plaza in the winter building.
People avoided and we began to create a large space so that our cud beasts could go down.

"Rosemain-sama!"
"The temple of the temple!"

I was greatly appreciated when I arrived at Hasse. When I get off the lesser bus, Richt of the mayor and the village chiefs of the neighbor come straight. Everyone has changed from what I am in memory. One of the village mayors has a different face.

"I heard from the heart that I heard from the people of the small temple that the temple was awakened."

While nodding in Richt 's greetings, I will be lifted up by the france and headed to the stage. Because the road to the stage is muddy it is to prevent the costume from getting dirty by the muddy. When stepping on the hem and rolling down, you can not be probed.

Let me drop it to the stage, the holy grail is prepared. Meanwhile, I thanked those of Hasse.

"During the two years that I fell asleep, I heard that the people of the small temple have been carefully taken care of by the people of Hasse, I am saved.I am grateful to Hasse."

Oh, after waving to the exciting residents lightly, I raise it up by the fur and rise to the top of the table.

We confirmed that the five village chiefs with a lidded 10 - liter bucket sized tubs rose above the stage, reaching the Holy Grail.

"The twelve goddesses who serve the side of the goddess of water that brings healing and change, the twelve goddesses who serve the side of us, give us the power to foster a new life to the goddess Gedourreeh of the younger soul from the god of life, Avilibe, give it to yourself A delightful song of delight The sacrifice of prayer and appreciation gives us pleasure and pleasingly filling all things in the earth which is broadly Hirohiro, with your precious color. "

Pour the spirit into the Holy Grail and cast prayer, the liquid that glows green emerges from the Holy Grail. Furan tilted the Holy Grail, and poured into the vats of the village chiefs in order.

After finishing the ceremony, I talked about what happened in Richt for the past two years, and as Charlotte's topic came out, I told my sister that she was proud. Although there are talks to be piled up, I stand up when I heard one story.

"It seems that the town of Hasse seems to be recovering, I'm relieved. Since it's been two years since then, I must also face the little temple, so I will excuse myself for today."

"The people of the small temple will be looking forward to it, please do give it a sense of security"

I was sent off to the people of Hasse and I moved to the small temple with a coward. When Fran and Monica open the door, gray priests and gray shrine maidens come out to pick up.

"Rosemain-sama!"

"It's been a long time, everyone"

Nora who were orphans of Hasse was growing much. It is completely familiar with the temple and there is no appearance that it is already depressed.

"Who took Lily's child led by Nola? Because those in orphanages are unknown about birth, they are told that Nora asked for directions and was saved."

"I did not have experience either, Husse women helped a lot and I was really relieved when I was born safely."

"... That child is fine, is it already big?"

Marté seemed to be offended and asked about the state of the baby.

I smile and nod. When I visited an orphanage I was high speed hi-fi at the cafeteria.

"Very recently it began to crawl and Villema said that you can not keep an eye on it, have anything changed in the small temple?"

"Actually, I started the field."

Recently, it seems that in Husse 's small temple it is as big as a family garden, but also the field started. It is said that the surroundings of the small temple are rich in magical power, and it is quite possible to get good fruits. It seems that Tol and Rick are led by teaching the field making.

"It is a good thing to increase the number of things you can do, but please be careful not to disregard the paper making and printing industry"

"of course"

After supplying magical power to the magic stone in the worship room, change in your room and have dinner.

Although dinner at the small temple is divided into tables, neither aristocrats nor gray priests and soldiers eat at the same place.

"For angelica, manners may feel uncomfortable, but please think that it is only tonight, do not you think?"

"Certainly yes"

After finishing meals with Fran and Monica's serving, I headed to the table where the soldiers started to relax after having finished eating. There is something I have to tell the soldiers today.

My father noticed me most and corrected my posture. Fur immediately prepares the chair so that you can sit down.

"Rosemain Mr."

I will sit in the prepared chair, telling the soldiers who kneel on the spot to return to the seat in a hurry.

"Soldiers have a story and a request"

"What is it?"

My fathers trying to raise their bodies and listen to the story, "I think that there was explanation from the knight at the meeting ... ..." I explained Entwickeln from now on.

"That's why remodeling will be done before a merchant from another territory arrives at Ehrenfest."

"I felt it was quite a sudden story, did you have such a reason?"

When I explained the circumstances, my father nodded me as "I see."

Although it was requested from Knights to soldiers that Entwickeln was done and cooperation to thoroughly informed, it seems that there was not sufficient explanation for reason and what kind of remodeling will be done.

"If you can not make it beautiful to the extent that it is not embarrassing to show Ehrenfest to other people by this remodeling, a major remodeling will be done that will turn over all over."

"What is all ...?"

After looking around the soldiers who look like stupid faces, I stare straight at my father.

"We will rebuild all the streets, in that case only the white stone part that we make up with the magical powers of the lord will remain, all the wooden parts where many people live will be gone."

"Well!"

The soldiers disappeared all at once. The wooden parts are their residences. There will be no one to be surprised when it is said that all it will be erased.

"It is easier for you to redesign the downtown as a whole than to modify only the street, but I requested that you do not have any influence on the downtown house, but I thought it was originally There was a plan to change everything. "

It is impossible for the commoner to overthrow what the aristocrat decided. It is not uncommon that everything is done without knowing.

The father who knows the arrogance of aristocracy is dangerous and drowsy with a stiff face.

"This time, it is a remodeling only for the streets, but from now on, efforts of residents will be necessary to protect existing houses, we would like to ask for cooperation including notifying of the danger to everyone."

Be on the day of remodeling go out of town, never leave home. Keep windows and doors tightly closed and do not open windows or doors carelessly until contact is made that remodeling is over. Things to think that things on the street will disappear. After remodeling, throw away any dirt and garbage in the place where you have always decided not to pollute the city. Be careful with your neighbor as you can be careful about each other.

I will mention as far as I can think of. Dad and soldiers took it with a serious look and listened to it.

"It depends on your shoulders to see if the lives of everyone in downtown can be protected, I believe that we will cooperate and protect you."

"Thank you for considering Rosemain like us, I will definitely protect everyone's life."

My father said that and hit the left breast twice with the right fist. Following it, soldiers hit the left chest twice in the same way.

In the same way I returned the soldier's salute and laughed a bit.

Chapter 352: Hald Tzel Part 1

---

The next morning, the carriage carrying the gray priests who act as Gutenberg leaves with the fathers soldiers toward the city of Ehrenfest.

"Günter, everyone, thank you very much."

"I will always tell everyone what Rosemain's words are."

After handing usual business trip expenses to soldiers, I saw the carriage. Soon we must also leave for the next winter building.

"Gil and Hugo please head to the accommodation tonight."

"Yes, Rosemain sama"

When the carriage carrying my baggage departs, I look around the priestess and shrine maiden of the small temple that is going to see me off.

"In the two years that I was asleep, I could cooperate with the residents of Hasse and build a good relationship, which is a wonderful thing that the temple of Ehrenfest has not yet achieved. ... Toll, tell me if delicious vegetables can be harvested, I will come to eat. "

When I look at the direction with the fields, I tell you that Thor is proudly laughing and "I will pick out the most delicious things". I am looking forward to the time of harvest.

While everyone kneeling off to me, I got on a Lesser bus and headed for my next destination.

After that, despite the enthusiastic welcome received at the winter houses in various places, I finished the prayer ceremony without anything in particular. Until now all the direct jurisdictions were traveling with the chief priest, so it was quite easy to quarter.

I just got back to the temple, I came into a state of great growth. This time, I finished with just using two medicines entering the gentleness of the priest, so I do not have the feeling of overworking the body.

"When the range is small, it is very easy, I'd like to thank Charlotte and Mr. Wilfried's older brothers."

"Rosemain, I forget the appreciation to the chief priest"

Glaring at Chirori and Franc, I laugh with smile. I have not forgotten it separately. It was just a little postponement.

"Because I have to do appreciation to the priest who is making medicine an oversized thank you, it is a separate frame."

"Is that so"

Fugo and Gill, who are traveling by the horse-drawn carriage, return to Hasse over a day today and are supposed to return to the temple after staying in the small temple. It will be around noon tomorrow to arrive at the temple.

As we head towards the temple at once in a cow, we will return to the top with the Holy Grail.

"Ordonants"

I inform the schedule of arrival in Ordonants I keep from the chief priest.

"Rosemain, it seems that we can return to the temple for 4 bells, so please contact Charlotte"

There is only one sacred cup, which is a sacred tool, so that the four praying ceremonies turn around in the direct jurisdiction will turn around in turn. I was the best as I need a rest day. Next is Charlotte, Wilfried, the chief priest.

When we arrived at the temple as planned, a row of carriages was made in front of the main entrance, and Charlotte was waiting waiting for a blue ceremonial costume. Next to that there is a chief priest.

"I'm back"

"Welcome back, your sister, how are you feeling?"

"Thanks to the cooperation of Charlotte and Villefried's brother I was able to finish my praying ceremony almost without getting sick and Charlotte is serious, but thank you for your consideration."

I will pass the Holy Grail, a divine tool, with Charlotte to the head of the priest who heads towards the prayer ceremony. Shallotte also departs if you see him carrying an important magician getting into a carriage. Today, I heard that they will perform rituals and stay at the nearest winter building in the south side.

"I am in trouble because it is too late, I will come."

"Well, I'm sorry to have kept you, Charlotte thank you everyone."

I saw a horse-drawn carriage going, and when I tried to go to my room, the chief priest caught me by the arm and got my face up.

"Wow! What is it suddenly?"

"... .. I just returned from the prayer ceremony, but it looks better than expected."

"Since the range was narrow this time, I finished without taking too much medicine, so it is good to have less burden when I go around with everyone."

"Oh, yes, but stay in the afternoon in the afternoon"

As I was told by the chief priest, I stayed with my bed and spent reading books.

The next day is the usual life. In the morning, on the day of the priest 's assistance in the practice of fespiel and votive dance, on special days such as an orphanage and a studio look around in the afternoon, teacher' s teacher 's comprehensive special training became available.

First of all, it is from how to make basic medicines that knights often use. In the end it is thankful that you are able to make your own medicine yourself.

..... Oh, precious free time. Ugou, I want to read a book.

As a result of dispensing such real intention from time to time, as a result, it became possible to create a recovery medicine with the simplest basis for the moment. This medicine seemed to be a medicine taught even at the aristocrats, and it was not bad at all. It is medicine that you can drink normally.

However, it does not work. It is ineffective to me who was accustomed to the special medicine president of the priest. To be precise, the effect is thin, it takes too much time for it to work, and it feels completely useless.

"Do not compare yourself who are compressed too much with stupid power and classmates around you. It is enough for apprentices to this extent, if you sell to the apprentices trained by Bonifatius, you fly I will sell like that "

Because there would be no time to gather and prepare by yourself, the priest chief raised the end of the lip. It seems to be a way to earn effective money at the House of Lords.

"The medicine made by the priest chief is more expensive than such an easy recovery medicine?

"No, it's too expensive to sell. The quality of the material is both valuable and difficulty of making, it's not quite as easy to buy an apprentice"

"..... Eh? I use it on a daily basis, do not you think I have not paid money?"

"Because it has worked accordingly, there is no problem, because magical powers are also offered"

Originally it seems that money will come out to help the priest. Indeed, it seems that they are appearing to the blue priests who came to help.

But I have not got it. I was really in the mood for help, so I was not wondering at all that I was not receiving any money.

... ... that it was calculated as a medicine!

While giving a recovery medicine, there was no choice but to cower to the severe of the priest who wields the medicine firmly.

Charlotte comes back from the prayer ceremony and Wilfried heads. When Wilfried comes back, he is replaced with the priest.

I confirmed the delivery of the Holy Grail, I went to Wilfried and labored Charlotte. I will return to Charlotte to return to the castle, and I will start returning to my room.

"By the way, the priest chief also acts differently from the carriage by using the cowgirl, but why is the schedule almost the same as Vilfried brothers and Charlotte? It is not quite shortened "

"Because it is not the goal to shorten the schedule unlike you that you move with a cowgirl,"

Instead of shortening the schedule over several winter museums a day, when the ritual is over in the morning, it seems that they will collect materials nearby. This year

I will wake up and Vilfried and Charlotte will help the prayer ceremony, so the chief priest seems to have plenty of room for it.

"It's a great opportunity to go out and do not make effective use"

"The chief priest, I wanted you to stop saying it in Angelica"

"... .. collection of materials"

Angelica looks at the chief priest and the eldest brother Eckhart with eyes that seems to be very envious, but they ignore it completely.

"Before I return from the prayer ceremony, are you going to Halden Zell? A letter has arrived from Elvira, please read it later."

"Yes"

In his mother 's letter, members and notes to head to Haldzell were written. Me and Gutenberg, then Vilfriit and Charlotte, the mother of the responsible person are absolutely required to head to show the printing industry.

And since the son of the lord goes so much, it seems that about 10 knights from the Order will follow as the escort, including the father who is the head of the knight.

"The chief priest does not head to go together, I am a guardian of my side, so I thought he was together."

"Although I have parents of Karsted and Elvira, I do not need to accompany them."

"Oh, that's certainly the case .... In order to be a large number of people, each side, civil servant, and exclusive escort knight are each written with one person, so as to bring the same sex as you can sleep in the same room, but Neither side work nor civilian has any single woman adulating to me.

Long-term business trips are difficult for wives who have minors and families. It is also hesitant to bring Richarda out into a tough outing of the cold. The accompanying officer to the House of Lords was decided by the chief priest, but how about abusing just Richarda by age?

"It would be impossible to choose a new aide just for Hald Zell, it's too late to consult Elvira for the moment."

I checked mothers to see if they could be an apprenticeship, and I decided to take the Rizera and Phyllie. Angelica is the only female knight, so it is a decision from the beginning.

Several days have passed since the priest chief came towards the prayer ceremony. Today is the day when I head for Halden Zell.

"Rosemain, this is the small Holy Grail that we pass to Halden Zell, so please refer to it here as we summarize the words when you hand down the Small Holy Grail"

"Thank you, Fran. I am saved."

Frank loaded the Upholstered Box with the Small Holy Grail onto the Lesser Bus. I also hold a prayer ceremony to give the Holy Grail to Halden Zell, so I will head to Halden Zell with ceremonial clothes of the temple.

If it is a ceremonial ceremony, I would like to take Frana or Monica, but abandoning it because it is too hard to take himself into a line of nobles only.

"Good morning, Rosemain"

Today I want to arrive at the castle by the 3 bells, so Beno and Damian of the Printemps business that I told you to come to the temple as early as I arrived at the main entrance with a horse carriage. Because Johan and Zach were on foot, you can see from the back gate that they are being guided by gray priests.

"May I load my luggage?"

"Oh, Rutz, have you been promoted to help?"

"Yes, I have to take a carriage home."

I do not accompany Halden Zell but I laugh a little to the words of Lutz who seems to be driven to help, I open the door of the backseat of the Lesser bus.

"Wow! What is this, is this?"

It was Johan that I shouted with a bit of eyes open though the hole expanded widely. Since everyone else has got on a Lesser bus, I realized that it is such a thing, and I carry the package loudly.

"Rosemain-sama's beast, so please move on to carry your baggage."

Plant paper to sell to Haldenzell, color inks, tools necessary for procedure accompanying changes in contract magic, etc. are loaded onto a lesser bus, and Zach also loads various work tools and loads such as changing clothes.

Johan was eerily looking at the Lesser Bath, but yelled at Zack, "I will be late for a while," and put my baggage on.

"Hey, Johann, I feel comfortable riding more than a horse-drawn carriage, so get on quick and get in the way."

Zach squeezes Johan that is afraid of the lesser bus for the first time and it is departure. Even when it flew away, Jagya and Johan were making noise, but it was a bit interesting that everyone looked like a bitter smile when they were the way they passed.

You have to go to the castle from the temple once and join the party to Halden Zell. It leads back to the castle led by Dahuel. Angelica is a passenger seat. It is useless for the commoner to ride, there is no escort.

Even before the third bell rang, everyone had already finished preparations in front of the castle. More than 20 associations are visible outside. When joining, Damuel got out of escort and the riser came running with Angelica's baggage.

"Well, I will come."

According to the mother's command, the chief executive of the party, cowards were issued and jumped out quickly. You can see that Charlotte is riding in his sidewalking beast. Wilfried was riding his cocky.

You can run to Halden Zell with the Order as surrounded. Unlike the way to the castle, the inside of the Lesser bus became quiet at once.

"Is this Hald Zell from this neighbor?"

"Ehrenfest, the northernmost land"

Beno returned the answer.

Last year, when Gutenberg moved by a horse-drawn carriage, selling books along the way, the road that took a few days, and if you rush with a beast, it will take less than half a day.

There was Hald Zell at the end of jumping over a forest with many coniferous forests. Although there is a forest on the south side, the northern part is the land where the snow still remains, and it seems that there are more shrubs.

There was a white castle big castle in such a wide open land. It is a summer house of Giebe · Haldenzell, it seems that it is also a winter building where the people of Halden Zell spend the winter.

"Welcome to Halden Zell"

Residents such as Giebe · Haldenzell welcomes you. After having a long greetings with the representative mother, I will advance with a small holy grail.

"The goddess of the earth Geduleulhi was given the power to foster a new life by the twelve goddesses who serve the side with the goddess of water that brings healing and change Fluet Rene and all things in the Hirohiro wide ground I am hoping that it will be filled with the precious colors of the water goddess Fleet Lane. "

"Indeed, the goddess of the earth is filled with the magical power of the water goddess Fleet Lane, I pray for snow melting and a blessing for the coming of spring."

When the delivery of the Small Holy Grail is over, my job as my chief temple is over. It was my first time to give a small Holy Grail to a nobleman, so I got a little nervous, but it seems I could do it without problems.

The small sacred cup is handed over to the side of Giebe Haldzell and it is carried to somewhere. Perhaps there is a place to keep it properly.

It is passed through a wide dining hall and acted warm tea. It was a little sweet tea that I had never drunk before, and I felt relieved and the body and mind were warming.

While drinking tea, future plans will be spoken. Since there is no plan to stay so long, I will guide the party to the printing room and smithyard shortly afterwards, and the craftworker will work there. After that, I went to the civil officer who is working for the printing association, and Plantin Shokai decided to contract again.

It is a business trip to have Wilfriit and Charlotte and the aides, as well as mothers see what kind of work is actually done.

In the castle of Haldenzell, the underground was the resident 's residential area, and the top was the residence of the workplace and the Gieves. It looks like a small town.

"Has Ernesta been brought up here?"

"Yes, but I have started printing business in recent years and I have not served as I served Charlotte."

Charlotte's escort knight Ernesta seems to be an intermediate aristocrat from Hald Tzel. While listening to Ernesta's explanation, I will walk through the corridor. From the other side of the dim. Van! And a big sound echoes.

"How big is it, but what is it?"

Vilfried tilted his head to almost evenly spaced sounds that grew steadily as it approached. You can see that the surrounding knights are wary of the sound that reverberates in the corridor.

"The sound of the printing press is moving, only one unit is moving at the moment, but there are more amazing sounds when the three units are moving at the same time."

While Gibe Haldzell is laughing with Hu, say that.

When opening the doors of the printing room, the sound of printing is getting bigger. Don every time a good big guy gets a long stick and puts great power into it! And there is a loud noise.

Perhaps the big men who are hunting during the summer work in a dirty state with black ink. Those who were raised in the aristocratic quarter were staring eyes as if they were surprised.

Meanwhile, civil officials involved in the printing industry began to explain the printing press.

Now, in the printing room of Halden Zell, there are three printing machines and things that the ingos brought in and assembled, those made here while teaching, and those we made with them, It seems that one of them is in operation.

"This is a type case that contains metal type letters, the work of typesetting and proofreading is the work of civil servants so far, I was surprised to hear that Raymasan's workshop is doing gray priests"

"The people of my orphanage are excellent."

The craftsmen take out the printable paper, apply the ink, and set the next paper. I should have worked only about two years, but it is a familiar movement.

"In Halden Zell, printing is a work of winter. In the summer, fields are in the south, hunting becomes the main job in the north, people do not print, so we do not print, it's a long winter job."

Everyone heard that the civilian explains the procedure of printing work, civil servants are taking notes. Since I already knew, I was more interested in the life of Hartenszell than the printing procedure.

"Do you do hunting at Hald Zell?"

In my question Gieb Hald-Zell slowly nods at the face of a man who boasts of his work.

"It is our important role to hunt as many devils as possible"

"If you hunt a little more monsters in the cold regions of the north, the power of the Lord of Winter will weaken."

The father, who is the head of the knight, adds an explanation. The demon in the north gets to eat in search of power, and finally the strongest devil in the end seems to be the winter lord. In order to suppress it even a little, Hald Zell, who is doing monster hunting, seems to be the most knighted land from the old days, so even a common man must be able to defeat a certain amount of devils, so many people are strong.

"We hunt monsters is not just the reason why Karstedd said, it is also to protect our food."

It seems that we have to make sure that valuable food that has sprung up is not destroyed.

Residents in the south of Halden Zell are living in the same way as farmers in the vicinity of Ehrenfest, but the inhabitants of the North are divided into hunting tribes, spending their time running around Halden Zell during the summer and in winter It seems to live in a castle.

"Some of the tribes have already prepared for departure and as we finish our ceremony tonight, we are heading for hunting."

"It is my first time to participate in the praying ceremony of the land the aristocratic rule of me, so I am looking forward to it."

When the explanation of the printing room is over, it is the smithy ground that heads next. There were craftsmen waiting for the arrival of Johan with a nervous face. Face each other with a stiff face. I heard the noise that Johan drew sprinkle and spit.

"Well, let's see the work of winter in Ehrenfest's craftworker"

In the words of Gieb Haldzell, Haldzell's blacksmith advances with a wooden box. Johan received a box filled with metal characters and began screening on the metal table of the recommended table.

There was a feeling of tension tightened with a pin in the space quiet with Shin. Several blacksmiths are looking at the hands of Johan with a rugged face as scary. Whether or not such a state of surroundings is seen in the eyes, Johan was just looking at each single metal type with a serious look. Fear of the Lesser bus, after being surrounded by aristocrats, there is no appearance of Johan that looked around Odoro and his surroundings.

While civil servants explain to Wilfriit and Charlotte how craftsmanships are made and what kinds of parts are being made to make printing presses, Johan was silently looking for metal prints . Kachan and Chalin are making sounds, metal type is being selected.

"I am passing this time, this one is useless, I can not do it as designed, as a failure"

I guess he was working at his best. Johan finished sorting out metal letters and wiped the sweat with a cuff.

Huh, and unlike Johann who finished one work and exhaled, the craftsmen who passed the rejection opened their eyes wide open.

"You probably made it according to the design drawing! What is failing! Do not be silly!"

"What's wrong !?"

"Even if you say what ... so you can not do it as designed, so you can not use it anyway."

"What did you say!?"

Other young craftsmen who repulsively repel and other craftworkers who showed antipathy against Johan.

Suddenly it became a swordy atmosphere, as the nobles surprised and turned around.

Chapter 353: Hald Tzel Part 2

During the winter, with the craftsmen of the Haldanezel who are reluctant to be rejected with the word "not made according to the design drawing" probably desperately made, "Rejection failed no matter what whatsoever said it is rejected" Johan is staring at the stubbornness like a craftsman at such times.

Although neither claim is wrong as an argument, the swordy atmosphere in the presence of many aristocrat you are observing is not very good. In a tense atmosphere, I broke in between me without thinking.

"Johan, please do also show me, since metal prints were originally ordered from me"
"Rosemain-sama ..."

The circumstances including craftsmen and nobleman frown around that I was an adopted daughter of a lord and I was hospitable as a customer as I stuck in the craftsman's territory. But ignoring that wholeness completely, I will go to all four sides of metal screens loaded with about four metal letters of rejected and accepted on the metal table sorted by Johan.

"... Ah, it certainly is not good, is this part?"
"That's right"

Johann nods in the part I showed. If you compare pass and fail like this, you can see that there are slight differences in slope and length though there are only a few. For metal type, this "slightly" is a fatal problem. I remembered that Johan had never had the metal type that I brought for the first time and was surprised again by the height of Johann's technology by comparing it with others.

"As long as there is a tilt, since the letters will be blurred during printing, this can not be used. This part is sweet, and the paper hurts when printing."
"What?"

I will point Hald Tzel's smiths to small metallic prints and explain the parts that are rejected one by one.

The thought came to the expression of the craftsmen as "It's too fine!" Because I am a nobleman, I only end up holding nothing in my mouth.

"Although it may be thought that it is too fine, I ordered Johan for that much finer thing, which is not a sweetness that it is okay about this."

Well, I moved my eyes to Johan from craftsmen who answered without power.

"..... Johan, it tends to be craftsmen, but there is no definitive explanation. In Ehrenfest's workshop it would have been good to have failed according to the design drawing, , The surrounding people know that Johann is a poor person but this is Haldzell. If you are not the first person who makes metal type letters, if you do not teach in detail what part is different, I do not know well "

"But, the plan is ... .."

"Not everyone will be able to read the design drawing, just like Johann, even if you can read the numbers, you may not be able to read detailed notes and orders that require precision like me are unusual Is not it familiar, do not you know how much precision is required? "

I raised my face as Johan suffered.

I think that Johan, who is being asked for precision only, thinks it is natural to make it without any slight blurring according to the design drawing, but Johan's job is special even at Ehrenfest .

"... Rosemain, it looks the same to me, but is there a difference?"

Wilfriit who came behind us unexpectedly was looking at the metal type on the table.

"Well, Wilfried's older brother, I think you will understand if you look like this"

On the table, show four with respect to acceptance, only four rejects side by side, pile up. Wilfried narrows his eyes and looks at it.

"This one of the masses will look a bit low"

"Brother, please show me too"

Wilfried replaced and now Charlotte gazed at the metal print intriguingly.

I carefully tell the printing mechanism for the two people and explain why the slightest difference is troubling, I heard it by Hald Tzel's smithing mysterious faces. Since Johann makes it perfectly, I have never explained so much in detail. The first lack of explanation may be me.

"That's why I can not print unless the height is exactly the same, and it will be a problem if there is a gradient in the metal type. It's a metal type made by Johan so that it will not be totally offset, so it will be perfect and beautiful?"

Even if you do not understand one, if you compare ten or twenty, you will find subtle differences. Things that are not self-sustaining, somewhat wobbling, even 1 millimeter difference, but slightly different height ... ..

Halden Zell 's smiths who confirmed with their own eyes got much strength to the body and stood up.

"... I will start over"

"Half of the pass has passed, so it's a little more. It is almost no smithmaker who can make metal type letters that Johan can still pass in even at Ehrenfest.

"Yes, Danilo also has a hard time with metal type, but I still can not pass it completely"

"That's why, I expect Halden Zell to pay attention to details and win Johan's passing"

Swordy atmosphere disappeared, it became a tense atmosphere. As craftsmen gathered together seriously, we put Zack and Johan in the forge and we leave the forge.

"Next I will head to the printing association of Haldenszel, since there is only me who is in charge of the printing industry, there is no exact department"

While saying so, the civil officer in charge of the printing industry will show us around. The Plantin shop, which is about the nobility's last tail, will be the place to work from now.

In a corner of civil workers' workplace, I got an explanation about the printing association. It will show you the number of documents necessary for trading with commoners.

"It is a license from a commercial guild. Whether this document is made or not, you can tell whether the printing association is made. This is a permission from Aub Ehrenfest, this is a warrant from Giebe. Next time you start printing business in a new place, please check these documents first. "

After the permission comes out, the ceremony officer will explain the flow from arranging the printing studio to printing and selling it. Wonderfully involved, hard work and ingenuity unique to the scene came out everywhere in the story.

Vilfried, who is entrusted with final confirmation, listens with a serious look, and the civil servant desperately takes notes. Charlotte who is informed beforehand that it will be sent to confirmation from next year is also the same.

"Well, I will have a meeting with the Planetan Shokai from tomorrow so please take a break for everyone."

The civilian who completed the explanation beckoned Beno and Damien. Turning back to those who began a meeting to do the work smoothly from tomorrow, we will return to the lord's residence.

"You must have become tired, so it's a prayer ceremony tonight so please do not miss it in the room until then."

When I visited, Countess Haldszel, who had not accompanied me, won the rulers and showed us every room. Already, each side seems to arrange room and luggage.

When entering a room guided with Phyllene and Angelica, the Rizerator prepared the baggage for everyone tightly and was preparing for a bath.

While helping with my bathing, the Risaelator asked, "Costumes participating in the prayer ceremony are for rituals of the temple?"

Because I handed down the small Holy Grail, I can think that it is finished yet, but since it is a prayer expression, the temple of the temple would be better.

"Well, I will participate as the temple of the temple who brought the Holy Grail to Halden Zell's praying ceremony, so I'd like a ceremonial costume."

According to the Liselaer, who is receiving explanations from Mrs. Earl, the prayer ceremony begins at 6 bells, and we are told to gather in the cafeteria as soon as possible so that we can move to the square by 6 bells That's it.

In the ceremonial costume, with spring hair ornaments, I got on the Lesser bus. As I had a lot of fatigue with my visit today, during my stay I got Giebe Hald Tzel permission to move around in the castle with a beast.

"Oh, this is all with us, so let's go over."

It seems I was the last to arrive at the dining room. Giebe · Halden Zell rise up, escort the wife and walk out.

"Originally Wilfried says Rosemain sama ... ...."

Because I am riding a beast, my mother tells me to walk side by side.

Charlotte follows us behind us, behind them are mothers and fathers. I am walking by escorting my mother.

Civil servants and side servants lined up in the order of their backs, escort knights surrounding the surroundings. Wilfried is walking on my right side and Angelica on the left side.

Giebe · Haldenzell and his wife slowly descend the stairs. The prayer ceremony was held not on the hall but on the topic that was said to be a plaza, but if I think about it well, Irkner's harvest festival was also a square. It was a festival celebrated by commoner and Giebe. It will be a party to celebrate Spring together with the commoner even at Hald Zell.

I heard that there are commoner residential districts in the basement, but there was a pure white corridor and doors lining up at equal intervals as the words did. It sounds like a dormitory at the House of Peers. Although it seems that a slightly white wall is emitting light, it is basically dim.

There was a large square in the center, and the commoners had already gathered. It seems that what is similar to the winter building that came at a prayer ceremony is that it is a festival where commoners gather.

At the center of the square there is a round circular and wide stand, an altar is further set up in the center part, and the offerings to God and the small Holy Grail are dedicated.

At Hussei and Irkner's harvest festival seats were made in a form overlooking the commoners from the top of the stage, but in Halden Zell the seats are made so that the round table surrounds the front one where the stage is easiest to see. Then the nobles of Halden Zell had already arrived.

There were several tables where nobody was sitting in the position that would be in front. The chair where Giebe · Haldenzell and Mrs and Wife sit is in a position slightly displaced from the front. I guess we will be seats of the lords.

"Rosemain, click here"

At the moment when Giebe Haldzell pulled the chair, I found that the upset that could not be hidden around ran. I will turn my eyes towards my mother and my father without knowing whether I can get there as it is.

They shook their heads lightly. Perhaps, it is said that you should not sit.

"Would you please show me the seat of Villefried older beforehand? Because I will clean up the beasts."

I refuse to take a leisurely walk and get off the Lesser Bus slowly. Giebe · Haldenzell deepened a little smile, and showed me Ms. Wilfriit the seat. As it is, we recommend seats to Charlotte.

Flu and ambient tension relaxed.

"Here, Rosemain sama"

After finishing putting up the cud beast, Giebe · Hardenszel pulled the chair again. I seemed to have no problem this time, so I sat in that seat. It was a seat for me who was adjusting the height with a cushion.

On the left side is Virfriit's older brother, Charlotte next to it, Gieve Haldszell on the right, Mrs. Mrs next to it, with a father and a mother nearly in front.

It seems that the places around them are decided, and civil servants and side workers also arrive. Only the escort knight is waiting behind. When the prayer ceremony begins, the side work starts to move.

Color collar and six bells ring. To the sound of the bell telling the beginning of the ceremony ceremony, the commoners who had been in trouble until then fell perfectly.

"The temple also asks you to the stage."

Mr. and Mrs. Giebe · Hardenszel said so, headed for the altar. I rushed up and walked behind the two. Suddenly rolled, the inside of the head is spinning.

.....Wait a minute. I have not heard. I have not heard anything other than passing the Small Holy Grail! Is it? Help me, the chief priest! Bring me the camp, Fran. Ooh!

"This is the chief of the temple named Reimen of Ehrenfest, welcome our compatriots who are our daughter Elvira and returned to this place!"

When I was introduced as a mother's daughter from Haldzül, who developed the printing industry and was introduced as the saint of Ehrenfest who brought wealth to Haldzell, the residents were very excited and welcomed greatly. If it is a mother 's daughter, it seems that it will be treated as a family member even for the first time for the residents of Halden Zell.

Giebe · Halden Zell stretched out his right hand and raise it to the position of the shoulder. Shin and the square were settled only by that action.
A low, heavy voice echoes in a quiet square.

"Today, Spring has been brought to Halden Zell by the chief temple of Ehrenfest, and this year also the goddess of water goddess Fleet Lane is pushed away the god AVivive of the life, the goddess of the earth Gedourichi I will be rescued. "

As Gibe Haldzell moves saying that, it shows the small sacred cup on the altar.
Once I cut the words, I slowly looked around and raised my voice.

"Sing, give the voice of prayer to God! Dance, thank God, give thanks! Bless you in snow melding!"

The commoners raise the voice of delight. It was overwhelmed by the voice that the heat of joy of the people who seemed to be waiting for the end of the long winter was directly transmitted.
That was the beginning of Hald Zell's praying ceremony.

I was introduced only to everyone, and I will return to my seat without doing anything special. It seems that songs and dance will be done after this.

Since the Small Holy Grail came, tomorrow, the inhabitants of the southern side moving the field will also move, and the hunting tribe heads north. The prayer ceremony is a festival that rejoices the visit of spring, and at the same time, it is also a place to spare no separation of residents.

Meals were brought in, the nobles began to eat. Meanwhile, the commoners clapping drums, whistling, singing and dancing.

"When the commoners are over, sword dance and songs by the aristocrats will be dedicated next."

Giebe · Hartenszell sitting next to me will tell you so. Villefried and Charlotte have said "I listened to a similar song at the winter building where we go around at a prayer ceremony."

.....that? I have never heard songs at the prayer ceremony?

After thinking carefully, I remembered that I had never participated in a prayer ceremony properly until the end, as giving top priority to give blessings one after another.

Apparently, although I went to various places as many times as this, it seems that I had never participated in a prayer ceremony properly. It is a fact of shock.

"Does Virfriit and Charlotte participate in the prayer ceremony too?"

As Giebe Hald Zell was surprised, his eyes well. Land holding aristocrats will return soon as the feast for spring ends, so it seems that little is known about the trends of Villefried and Charlotte.

Wilfried nodded big and opened his mouth with the natural face.

"Well, my brother and sisters have to help each other, it is strange that only burden is imposed on Rosemain, we are equal children of the lords"

"That's right ... .. that, unless your elder sister's magical power does not exist, it is not useful to us yet, but what we do is important to do from where we can do it, we will increase what we can do little by little."

Charlotte said, "The goal is to be able to bless on your own, even if you do not borrow your sister's magical powers," to shine the indigo eyes.

.....What should I do. My brother and sister is too dazzling. Sorry I'm a child who only thinks of reading books! But, probably, I can not stop. I apologize for it, so please forgive me.

"For Rosemain, are the two of you a good brother?"

"Of course, Gibe Haldzell, for two years when I was sleeping, they worked very hard, are they growing up too so that my uncertainty is not visible?"

My eyes narrowed my eyes as Gieb Hald-Zell thought.

"I am a person who creates the world and prays and gives thanks to the gods"

I heard familiar prayer complaints, I turned my eyes on the stage. Halder Zell 's knights led by the tribe heading for hunting from the north to the north were lined all along the platform.

"End to the deep, deep white world, puncture hard ice that excludes everything and rescue the goddess of our soil ..."

Ah, I know this song.

Accurately I knew the lyrics.

The goddess who was a member of the goddess of the earth is exiled by being separated by the deity god and it is a poem when going to ask the goddess of water to ask for help. Dedicate the power of their goddesses to the goddess of light and the goddess of water and pray for relief of the goddess of the earth.

I heard the song for the first time, but since it repeats the same phrase many times, it is not so difficult.

Singingly singing, I was relieved, sacred scriptures prayers singing poorly. There is a possibility that it will be a strange blessing.

When I had patience with the humming song, Giebe · Hardenszel who seemed to notice it fun with eyes.

"This is a song of Hald Zell that shows joy of spring and the beginning of hunting, singing this, men go out hunting"

"... Is not it a song that invites the goddess of water, wishing for snow melting?"

When I inclined my head unintentionally, Giebe · Hartenszell saw me with a strange face.

"This song has never heard even at the feast of Spring of Ehrenfest, and it is the same also in the aristocratic house. I thought that it is something that can only be sung in Halden Zell ... .. Because you know Rosemain, Is it? "

"Although I heard songs for the first time, the scriptures that were passed on to the temple for generations contained the poems and pictures, which are not listed in other scriptures in the shrine library, so it is really an old poem. According to the picture of the scripture, the goddess of the samant really sings, with such a columnar stage "

When I explained, my father and mom caressed my eyes, including Gieb Haldzell. What is on the columnary stage now is the offering to God and the Small Holy Grail.

"Would you like to sing Rosemain? If the saint of Ehrenfest dedicates prayer, this spring seems to be coming soon."

I was surprised at the proposal by Giebe Haldzell and looked around. It is written on the face of the surrounding aristocrats that it seems interesting, but it is troubled if a strange blessing jumps out of the secrets of the banquet hidden tricks.

"... .... I do not plan to do a shrine here."

"Oh, is not it that part of the divine itself to deliver the small sacred cup of this ceremony?"

"That's right, but ...."

.....What should I do! Is it? Help me, the chief priest!

My mother stood between me and Gieve · Haldenzell as he seriously thought about flying Ordonants.

"Your older brother, you can sing the song you just heard for the first time, it's so cruel that it is not crucial for rosemain, not a woman from Halden Zell to sing. Like a man was singing everyone, this year Let the women sing "

At the moment of my mother's boat, as soon as I stroked my heart chestlessly, aristocrats of Halden Zell, who have already retired, are looking at their mothers and enjoy their eyes.

"Oh, did Elvira sing a song for a long time?"

"Because I am lucky, I would like to listen to Elvira's Fespiel."

After married to Ehrenfest, the mother seemed to have rarely returned to her parents house, and the old men narrowed their eyes to miss the old days.

Giebe · Halden Zell also shifted his eyes from myself to his mother and raised the end of his lip. My older brother is making fun of my sister, but there I could see the feelings for my family including nostalgia.

"Oh, that's nice, Elvira, who is up and can you still sing?"

Eventually, on something like a cylinder it was decided to sing with just women. Every year, men sing, Hald Tzel women also remember the lyrics, everyone can sing.

The surroundings begin to excite around the dedication of songs by jumping in or by women who were supposed to be playing with thought. I could not break the expectations and demands of my surroundings, and my mother took me to the table with Fespiel.

"My father, my mother is because of me ..."

Looking at your father when it is not your mother's true intention, as your father is looking forward to, looking at the mother standing up with a face that is unlikely to be overlooked.

"Do not be afraid, Elvira's skill is quite good."

"... .... Suddenly bragging?"

Because I thought that I was worried, laughter that leaked as if I could not bear with my brother Lamprecht leaked into speechless speech. Also keeping around my mouth, I point my father a lively warm line of sight, like seeing smart things.

"Oh, I am proud of my bride, Is it Karstead?"

My mother overlooked his father with a dazzling full line of sight.

After a breathtaking father looked around, he cleared his throat with Gogh.

"Oh, Rosemain. Keep those things in your heart without mentioning it, are you OK?"

"Yes, I will keep in mind what my father sometimes feverish."

"Please let me know in detail later, Mr. Rosemain"

Immediately after I promised to keep it in my heart, I told my mother to talk.

..... Well, what shall I do?

Chapter 354: Hald Tzel Part 3

---

"I will take Fespiel and your older brother"

My mother said so and smiled nicely with Gieb Haldenzell. On the other hand, Gibe Haldenzell bitterly smiled, saying, "The room is furthest, so hurry up is good".

.....that? Why does my mother take the trouble to go taking a side job?

While seeing a dedication of sword dancing while having a question mark in his head, the Rizerator who was waiting to serve taught me secretly making a sweet tea replacement. My mother said, "I will practice, so please give me some time." Giebe · Haldenzell said "I will do it at the end of the prayer ceremony so please go early".

..... I do not know, that's it!

While I'm screaming in my mind, sword dance progresses. When I saw swordsmen, I remembered my father's sword father who showed me when he was accompanying a prayer ceremony as a blue priest hiding his identity. The swordsmanship between father and father was very beautiful and cool.

In addition, I thought that I would like to see Angelica's sword dance as well. Of course, I will not put it out. With a little thought it can not be confusing Hald Zell's praying ceremony.

"Sorry to keep you waiting"

It was around time that mother died after the sword dance finished sword dance with the festival pier as a side job. When you arrive at your seat and breathe out, the dedication dance ends.

In the usual year, this is a prayer formula that is supposed to end with this, but this year is not over. Giebe · Hartenzell stood up and said, "I will try to devote songs to just the ladies as the old scriptures conveyed to the ordained temple leaders", and saying, "Fespiel's performance is my sister Elvira" Introduced.

The mother goes up to the stand with the feshpiel being prepared in hand. Even though I suddenly played a role as a follower, my mother who is able to rise to the table without being dismayed is cool.

Even if it is said that aristocratic women of Halden Zell are to rise to the base, women who are not in turn at the annual festival wait for those who stand up first, looking at each other. Even if you want to go up to the table, it's like you can not move if the upper one does not move.

Mrs. Giebe Haldzell, who seems to have read such an air, got up and called for women sitting at the surrounding table to go up to the table.

"Elvira will also dedicate Fespiel and let us sing together and pray together."

As a woman at the top of Halden Zell moved, he proceeded towards the table as a nobleman woman invited. Because songs are not good at it, there seemed to be some women who participated in the instrument, so I saw a state of preparing instruments.

"Let's also visit Rosemain"

Mrs. Giebe Haldszel smiled gently and extended his hand toward me. Should I be exempted by my mother playing Fespiel instead? I am surprised to find complaints.

"Because I am not a nobleman of Haldenszel ..."

"Well, Rosemain is Elvira-sama's daughter. When our temple Rosemain celebrates Spring together, people will be encouraged and bravely leave for hunting "

Indeed it is impossible to refuse as "a strange blessing seems to pop out". "Please give us blessings to Hald Zell" Please be returned.

What will I give up if you refuse to say it? I did not understand I had a low level of socialization, and when I turned my eyes towards my father seeking help, my father gently shrugged my shoulders like it seemed unlikely.

"It is important that such sense of solidarity and empathy in ceremonies and feasts are important. Since Rosemain does not know the songs to sing, I do not think I can participate, but I can not do it as long as I stand on the platform as the temple. ? "

It is good to go up to the stage with the face of Giebe · Haldenzell, but my father says it stood standing without doing anything. It is not necessary to destroy the face of Giebe Haldzell here.

I will go back to the stage with Mrs. Giebe Haldszel and the escort knight Angelica so as to be pushed by the feast of the feast.

"Rosemain-sama ..."

The mother lightly watched the eyes when he got up with Mrs. Giebe Haldszel to the table. That would be so. It is ruining my pace. But I want you to complain to your father.

"As a temple chief, we only pray together. I would like to cherish the sense of solidarity with the people of Haldenzell, but I can not sing a song."

My mother gave me a light sigh.

When Mrs. Giebe Haldszel gives instructions to men's songs and instructs where they stand for women, each falls on the table and gently kneels to the place.

"Rosemain sama is here"

The place I was instructed is just before the Small Holy Grail. Because there are ladies who sing around, there is no problem in mouthpaks, it's just a good position to decorate the temple of the temple for the time being. If I am surrounded by an adult woman, I will not be able to see my figure, so I think that it is meaningful for me to participate as a temple of the temple, who is a foster of a lord.

I gently kneel on the spot just like everyone else, and put a hand on the floor.

"I am a person who creates the world and prays and gives thanks to the gods"

I raise my face slowly, the first thing to stand up is those who have instruments in hand. In the middle of the mother, there are ladies who have instruments to frame the table.

A high sound was heard from the pin and one note, mother Fespiel, and the performance began. Fespiel's sound increases, the whistle sounds overlap, and the prelude flows. The singing people stand up slowly and raise their faces according to the prelude. This is the center of Mrs. Giebe Haldzell.

"End to the deep, deep white world, puncture hard ice that excludes everything and rescue the goddess of our soil ..."

.....Oops! A song has begun.

Everyone in Hald Zell knows this song well, so it seems they did not need a meeting, but I do not have any knowledge about this song, but I missed the timing when I completely stand up.

While kneeling, I think desperately when to stand up. If you get up now it is probably noticeable. I do not do anything, I do not know when to start at what timing. It seems to be praying more, so it may be better to keep still while kneeling like this.

I missed the timing to stand up and I was listening to Mother's Fespiel and everyone's songs with the kneeling posture.

"Let's deliver everyone's prayer"

When singing was over, Mrs. Giebe Haldszel said so. This is a pre-swing before devoting prayers to God.

.....here!

I finally found the timing when I get up and rise quickly. I was able to keep up with the behavior everyone raised his hands and devoted prayers.

"Pray to God!"

As soon as I realized that magical powers were pulled out all the time. Whether it was originally drawn on the base of the feet, a big magic team shines green and emerges.

"this is.....?"

Everyone was amazed at the surprise and kept his mouth open lightly, while watching the shining magic team, the magic team slowly went up to the height of about 2 meters beyond the height of adults.

When looking up, she stops moving. Hmm? Immediately after that thought, the magic team was sucked into the small Holy Grail and the pillars of green light rose straight upward from the Small Holy Grail.

At the next moment, several girls who were staringly looking up at the magic crowd just like me in the surroundings, suddenly began to fall and topple. I do not have any premonition, I will hit as many people collapse! Take a breath.

"Kya!"

"What is it !?"

With such a surprise voice coming up, mothers and Mrs. Giebel Haldszel never collapse, looking around. Not only the fallen woman but also the women who sitting with a face with a bad feeling continued and the prayer ceremony was suddenly screamed.

"Rosemain, are there any abnormalities in your body?"

Angelica puts his hand on Stein Luke and asks alarming around me and asks me. While answering "I do not have anything, I am OK", I also looked around like Angelica.

I can see that the knights rushed to change the blood line. My father, who was in the nearest place, is the fastest. As I regretted the trouble of going to the stairs, I jumped to the platform and ran straight to me.

"Rosemain, is it safe?"

"All right, there is nothing"

"I think that magic team is the cause, but do you know what happened?"

I think that the cause of the collapse of the surrounding woman is that magic team, but I did not know well how I fell down and shook my head.

My father is not really abnormal in me, after watching from the top to the bottom, I turn my eyes toward the mother heading to this place.

"Elvira, is there anything else?"

"I do not have anything, but the burden on the lower aristocracy was too big. It seems that magical power is lost to the previous magic team and magical power is gone. Please give recovery medicine soon"

In the voice of mother, the knight team always standing recovery medicine dispatched recovery medicine hurriedly lowering to the waist, and began to let the women who are lost conscious. Those who are conscious, those who have recovery drugs themselves will start drinking immediately. According to mothers, it is the lower aristocrat who collapsed, it seems to be a woman of intermediate noble family who is getting worse.

"Mr. Rosemain, leave this to Harten Zell and return to your room soon."

Mother, Giebe Haldenzell's sister, left copies of this place to Mr. Giebe and bought the task of returning the three children of the lord to the room. Call her father and two knights in an escort and head towards the given room.

"Rosemain, is there anything else?"

"Your older sister, are you all right?"

"It's okay because the reduction in magical power seems to be the reason."

While worrying about Villefried and Charlotte, I returned to the room. While waiting for the riser to open the door of the room, I looked up at the mother.

"I will be absent from my room in the future, but will my mother help Gibe Haldzell?"

"Well, this is the first time I will cooperate with my older brother as much as possible."

"If you help the mother, Giebe Haldzell, please take your medicine and your mother will not be magical powered by the magic team as well."

My mother said "I have a Ferdinand-san's medicine in the room," the mother laughed and said, "Thank you for your thoughtfulness, please slowly rest," and began heading to Charlotte's room.

I saw it wearing the figure of the priest who supervises impossibly saying that the back is "no problem", I grasp the cloak of the father and the father.

"Please do not forget to give your recovery medicine to your father and mother"

"I know, the habit of Elvira to postpone about myself is long ago, so do not forget."

As my father tapped my head lightly, he contracted me, so I decided to leave the rest afterwards.

Go back to the room, take a bath, prepare for bedtime, go up to the bed. After seeing me who was ready to sleep, he turned his eyes toward the gentleness of the priest president who left the table on the table.

"... Rosemain-sama, do not you take medicine?"

"Because of this degree of magical power decrease, Ferdinand-san's medicine is not necessary. It has no physical strength, but I, there is magical power."

When I started drowning in the futon, outside began to hear a grueling and disturbing sound. I heard thunder ringing in the distant awareness.

..... Oh, it's thunder.

It was only a little while I thought so in a dream. As soon as thunder gets fierce, the amazing sounds like breaking the plate door begin to echo. I saw the lightning shine through the gaps of the plate lantern, and when the tent became eerie light, it became not a state of being able to sleep very much.

"Huh!"

..., a little scary! Seriously scared! Awesome light, it sounds amazing!

Even though I'm getting into my futon from my head, I hear the sound. I heard a sound with a bitterness and the awing opened, I cried out, "I will take a belly for lightning!", I concealed the navel with both hands.

"Oh, are you okay, Rosemain?"

"Huh ?? Risa Sel ?, that's OK, it's okay."

It seems that it was Lizetrator and Angelica, not lightning, that opened the awing. The breath of relief, on the other hand, the sound and light of thunder got terrible because I put a face out of the futon and I wanted to cry.

"... Rosemain sama, I'm not good at thunder, so may I join for a while?"

"Of course! It is a good idea to have a Rieserator sleep together here, because I am not afraid of being together."

Come on now. Come on! I opened the futon, but neither the riser nor Angelica will sleep together. However, the Rieserator sat down at the bedside and connected hands.

"My mother often did this when I was young."

"... .... Risellerator, I have no memory of having my mother do such things ..."

Angelica looked down on a complex face while muttering that he was "not being myself". Let's look at Angelica like that while smiling little.

"My sister did not sleep without moving at all, even if the thunder rang, it is a story after my sister slept."

"I did not notice"

It was quite a late time by the time we came together and the thunder flew away and I got to sleep. Because of that, I could hardly get up in the morning and I was wrapped in a futon saying I wanted to sleep until breakfast time.

"Mr. Rosemain, it's tough, so please change your clothes immediately, Gibe Haldzell says she wants to talk urgently"

Someone, a person using it seems to come, as soon as the door opens, the Rizera has come up with the force to repel the tentress away.

"What happened?"

"Spring has come to Hald Zell"

"... ... I have finished the ceremony ceremony,"

In the aristocratic city of Ehrenfest, the spring is regarded as the spring after the feasting of spring, but in the downtown it is decided to be spring from the winter adult ceremony, the rural areas in the direct jurisdiction and Halden Zell are from the prayer ceremony to the spring after .

Hald Zell, who finished the ceremony ceremony, is spring, even if there is snow. Besides, there is no mystery.

As I stood up quietly so I said, the Rieselator shook his head full-flushed.

"It does not mean that kind of thing, it seems that the snow is completely melted overnight"

"Huh!?"

I changed clothes and headed to the place I was told. It is the highest place in the castle of Haldenzell, where there is a tower looking around. There, Mr. and Mrs. Giebe · Hardenszel, Halden Zell's heavyweight, the fathers and mothers and men and knights teams were watching the surroundings with a stunning face.

"Wow, it's a nice landscape, it seems that the goddesses of spring have worked quite well."

Yesterday, when I came to Halden Zell, there was still a lot of snow. The clouds are still thick and the sunlight is weak, the northern side still seems to be white. The snow is completely gone.

The castle 's circumference was slightly shallow, wild leafy green and colorful flowers. You can see the yellow and white flowers are blooming, and the northern whites where the snow remained and white were found to have shrubs and short green in red rocks. The wind stroking the cheeks is still a bit cold but it does not compare with the winds of yesterday where snow remained. Sunlight is also soft, gentle and comfortable.

"It's a sight of early summer, not spring, in Hald Zell, Rosemain."

Gibe Haldenzell said that and shook her head lightly.

"Thunder of last night will be the lightning of the thunder goddess Fair Drenna, which tells us the coming of spring, in Halden Zell, it rings when the snow completely melts away."

For Hald Zell, where the snow remained forever, even though it is said to be the goddess of spring, it seems that it is a lightning indicating the end of spring and a short summer.

"I thought that it was quite a seasonal thunder last night, but what is it supposed to be like this ..."

I look around, next to Giebe · Haldenzell which is narrowing my eyes as though not understood. People came out one after another from the castle, and I saw them scattering all over the grassland full of young leaves.

"A lot of people go out of the castle in a panic situation, are you OK?"

"It is really a panic, as this is the first time for me."

In order to increase the harvest even a little, the south residents hurriedly headed to the rural areas and had to make the fields, residents in the north could not predict when and how long the devils will come out in this climate, It seems that we have to head to the hunting soon.

It seems that Hald Zell is now in a great chaos with the sudden change of the season.

"Is the cause still that magic team?"

"Other than that it is not different from the normal year, so I do not believe it is correct"

"Then, the prayer ceremony may have been such a ceremony to devote magical power to us, pray to God, and truly call spring."

While thinking that God's power here is amazing, Gibe Hald-Zell opened his eyes wide and looked at me.

"Rosemain-sama ..."

"If you do the same ceremony next year, is not it possible to speed up the arrival of spring this way?"

That magic team was originally on the table. If you use that, a lot of magical power is needed, but the same effect may be obtained every year.

"This thaw may be appreciated, but as I saw the ritual last night, the burden on the women became too big, I feel completely unhelpful at my uterus."

"In the temple the magic stone with my magical power is handled by a blue priestess with little magical power to perform dedication and I do not think there is anything that the founder can not cooperate at all ..."

Why do not you put magical power on a magic stone and hand it to a lower aristocratic woman? It seems that we have not thought of assigning magical power to other people like that at all. As everyone around me was surprised to see me.

"No way it was said that such a method was taken at the temple ..... I will consider it here as well."

When Gibe Haldzell said that, the father who was looking around surprised a lot and pointed to afar.

"Gibe Haldzell, what is that?"

I strengthened the body strengthening, raised my eyesight, and my father looked at those who pointed at me. In the distance, I see a golden tree.

"It's a mysterious shade of trees, is it a devil?"

"It is a treasure called Brenleuce, which is a valuable sweetness of Halden Zell. Originally it is forbidden to give it to anyone other than Hartenszell, but bring a true spring to Hald Zell If you dedicate to Rosemain, the residents will not say no. If you do not care, can you take it back for a while? The fact of Brenrey can also be used as a material in making recovery medicines. Very high quality It is expensive. "

Using Brenlee's leaves, tea being brewed seems to be a sweet tea unique to Haldenszel. I got pleased and nodded greatly.

"Thank you, I will, Giebe · Halden Zell"

"Because the escort has an Order, you can collect it without danger"

Hald Zell started hastily, but I can not go back until the work of the Plantin Shokai ends. It is still necessary for several days.

Meanwhile, Giebe · Haldenzell seemed to run around Halden Zell with honor of collecting the fruit of Brenleus dedicated to me, hunting devils.

My father was blurry on the way home when it was used well by Giebe · Haldenzell. She seems to use people in a manner very similar to her mother, and seems to be used if you notice it. As expected it is your mother's brother.

"This is the fruit of Brenreux"

Vilfried, Charlotte and my three girls shone strangely gifts for two souvenirs, leaving Hald Zell.

There seemed to be many things Johan and Zach got from serious interactions with craftsmen, and eventually it was missing a goodbye with a smiley smile and shaking hands. It seems that Plantin 's business has been relieved since I could finish the procedure earlier than planned.

On the way back to Ehrenfest by the Lesser bus, I found the range of blessings granted by the Holy Grail was only Halden Zell, and I was surprised at the surprise.

From the aerial sky, the boundary line could clearly be seen. In the south of Halden Zell, which became the sight of spring, there is a forest where snow still remains.

"... .. It is a very mysterious sight."

"I do not think there is any wonder over Rosemain Mr. who caused this condition"

Angelica of the front passenger said so, Gutenberg of the back seat agreed at once.

Chapter 355: Entwickeln

Everyone else, including Phyline and Rieselator, returned to the castle, but I returned Angelica directly to the temple from Halden Zell, with Angelica on the Lesser Bath. It is no use helping to take Gutenberg to the castle.

When I got off to the main entrance of the temple, a carriage picked up from Plantin Shokai had already arrived. I take down Gutenberg from the coward and face Beno.

"We are ready to accept Gutenberg, and we will contact you again as soon as we have decided where to head next."

"Thanks to Rosemain, this job was really smooth and we are waiting for the next contact."

Compared to last year's move, it seems that both the number of days moved and the time taken for work were wrong. Beno shows a satisfying smile. It seems that Zach and Johan were satisfied that there was something seriously obtained with the craftsmen.

"Next time I will practice to explain the view of the design drawing to the craftsman"

"I will do my best to catch up between Johann and a craftsman a bit more"

When we turned off to Gutenberg and turned towards the temple, there was a figure of the priest who touched the furans sideways and temple.

"Welcome back, Rosemain sama"

"I'm back"

"..... Frequently returned, Rosemain. There are things you have to report to me, Ordonants flying from Giebe Haldzell, Elvira and Karstedd, strangely from you as a party I did not have any contact with him. "

I was breathtakingly stared by the chief priest, and I breathed a lot. As I pointed out that it is a bit different from what is listed in the scriptures, it is the impression that the goddess did her best as a scripture, apparently it was not so for the surroundings. It seems that everyone was reporting in Ordnants.

"When we are done changing clothes, I will call you in my room"

"Yeah, it will be a story related to the scriptures of the temple, so let's make your room better"

When the chief priest owes so, he returns his heel and goes back. I entrusted Zam and Fran to pick up the luggage, returned to my room with Monica, and changed into the temple's clothes. Angelica sends Aldonants to Damuel and requests that it be the escort mission in the temple.

When I left Nikola to prepare sweets and tea, I dropped my shoulders and breathed my breath.

"I am cautious, but please call the priest chief"

"Certainly yes"

Before Zam brought back the chief priest, Franc prepared a scripture on the table that Franc conveyed to the temple. It opens a decorative and large scripture, and I will open the page in question.

"Well, Rosemain. Shall we hear the story?"

"What sort of things should I talk about? The songs sung by men at Hald Zell's praying ceremony pointed out that the saint of the goddess of the earth is singing according to this scripture It's all. "

I show self-defense while showing the scriptures. It was Gibe Haldzell that I decided to sing to a woman, it was my father who raised me to the stage and the goddess who brought spring to Hald Zell was a goddess. I have not done anything in particular this time.

"..... Did you have such a description, the first time I heard that the scriptures of the temple are different from others?"

"Does the priest chief have not read this scripture? I certainly thought that it was the first time that the priest owner had read it ..."

"Because I had forgiveness of the former temple and I was told to read this, I just read it to you. If there is no forgiveness, I can not see the description."

According to the chief priest, the scripture transmitted to the temple is a kind of magical tool. It is said that they are protected by magic stones, not being decorated with jewels. It says that it is linked with the key that the temple keeps hand in hand. The scripture that I read in the first meeting was really only the first part, so it seems there was not a particularly strange description.

"In the process of copying, it is common to rewrite the old wording as easy to understand, to rewrite as to understand unused words, to rewrite a bit with political pressure, or to change content. I do not know. "

"In other words, have you compared carefully?"

"... Because the number of pages clearly differed between the old scripture and the new scripture, we have examined where the difference is."

The scriptures that have been passed down generously to the temple are large and thick. Even though the scriptures in the library exclude jewelry, the thickness of the text is different. It is increasing or decreasing every age.

"It's killing time when the new book did not increase in the blue shrine maiden period. When I said that, then, I also looked into the graffiti of the ceremonial that the man who seemed to be the former temple had written."

"Is it a scribble of a charism?"

"A celebration is written so that it does not have to be memorized. As a result of investigating whether there is anything else, we found that there are many graffiti on pages with differences compared to the scriptures."

"... .. Please submit the research outcome, it's you, a memorandum, and what is left behind?"

It is a bit frustrating that it is fully grasped, but it is true. I have written a couple of points I noticed.

"Does not the priest owner study the scriptures on your own? I will give out if my permission is needed."

"... If time goes on, there are a lot of things that must be studied by someone."

I was stared at him, but I do not know it. If you only know what is needed at that time, you can flush it lightly afterwards, but those who want to think deeply are hard.

"This discovery may save Ehrenfest, if there are praying ceremonies that can bring forward the arrival of spring, there will be many lands that are very helpful."

Ehrenfest is generally cold, severe, snowy and winter long. If the praying ceremony could adjust the visit of spring, there would be many cases that farmers and tax collectors would be saved, he said.

"Well, Gibe Haldzell was very pleased that we brought spring, so we got the fruit of Brenreux as a souvenir."

"Is it true of Brenlece? That is a pretty rare material."

The chief priest widely opened his eyes. It seems that it is a magic tree that rarely can be seen due to the attribute of the land.

"Gibe Hald Zell was saying so, because you got two, how about one?"

When I take out the golden fruit from the baggage I brought back from Halden Zell, the chief priest compares the fruit of Brenlece with me, with eyes to see stinky objects.

"... .. What are you planning?"

"It seems to be a good material for recovery medicine, so I just thought that I could use it to improve my medicine."

"At Entwickeln, Jilvestors will need recovery medicine, so let's use it because it's a big deal."

I did not say that it would be nice to add a little gentleness, but the things I want to say seem to have been transmitted. The chief priest promised drug improvement with fruit of Brenlus.

In order to accumulate the magical power necessary for Entwickeln in the magic of the foundation, the lord families seem to have to put on magical power while becoming medicated in everyone from now on.

"As soon as the medicine has been improved, I will head to the castle, and as far as it is possible for you to accumulate magical powers on manastones as much as possible."

I was given the chief priest to the sky's manastone and healing medicine, and I decided to collect magical powers until the improvement of the medicine was over.

..... Bukkake, it is harder than rituals and dedication ceremonies of dedication!

It seems that drugs could be improved in a few days. The chief priest came out from the workshop and said, "I will head to the castle." I put the improved medicine on my Lesser Bath and head for the castle. There is also a bag full of manastones.

Called immediately to the owner 's office, discussion on Entwickeln.

"There is a lot of unexpected accumulation, in this case, if you accumulate magical powers for another two days, it seems that you can do Entwickeln."

While looking at the magical stone that I brought in, the magical power is accumulating, the adoptive father said so. While the children were going around within the territory with a prayer ceremony, the lords seemed to have accumulated magical powers while forcibly recovering magical power with a powerful Mazu medicine director of the priest.

"Please also inform the downtown about the exact date and time to do Entwickeln.If you contact the soldiers of each gate and the commercial guild, we ask you to talk to the commoners, It will take time for all of us to talk. "

"Well, let's decide to do for the 5 bells in three days, Karstead, ask the soldiers to contact, Elvira contacts the commercial guild."

"Certainly yes"

Later, we headed for supply and decided to put the magical power in the magic of the foundation. As you can drink recovery medicine, bring your own cup and get in between supplies.

A large magic stone floated, and in the corner of the strange room where the magic crown was shining like a celestial spirit like the celestial god, I saw the chief priest laying the jug and preparing his own cup.

Manastones entering the bag of leather are also placed, and Vilfriit and Charlotte are supposed to supply magical power with the use of magic stones.

"First, Wilfried and Charlotte, and Ferdinand and Rosemain, me and Florentia and Bonifacei do it"

Parting with teams with similar magical powers and putting magical powers together is a matter of collecting with the same purpose and releasing magical powers while devouring the same prayer makes it easier for magical power to flow with a synergistic effect, Because those who do not have the risk of getting out of danger.

Once a day, if you supply according to people with little magical power, you do not need such team division, but if you try to put as much magical power as possible, it is more efficient to have the teams separated It seems good.

"I am a person who creates the world and prays and gives thanks to the gods"

Wilfried and Charlotte picked up the magic stone with my magical power in hand, kneel on the team and pray. For the two years I am sleeping, the two who used to supply magic stone during the lord's meeting seemed to get used to.

This is the first time to see a situation where others pray for prayers. I stood at the side of the wall and I was watching the magical power shimmerly thin as the steam rising slightly from their two bodies.

Light green from Villefried, thin red from Charlotte. Is this the same color as the color of a manastone dyed? By the way, Lutz and his family said that when my magical power went a runaway, I could see things like yellowish steam.

"Here it is"

Charlotte's voice rises, the two of them release their hands from the magic stone. Charlotte, who stood up slowly from the spot, came to the wall and breathed a rough breath while moving his shoulder largely. Wilfried still has a little affordable face.

"Both of us have a cup"

The chief priest kept the jug and said that. You must take recovery medicine and let it recover. It was probably because I had drunk at a ceremony ceremony, and they pulled my face and presented the cup. The chief priest gives medicine to that cup. Vilfried was breathtaking and he caught the cup with a face like desperately hardening his resolve.

"... .. quite sweet, in this case it is not painful to drink"

"It improved with fruit of Brenuth, thank you for Rosemain for providing valuable materials"

"Rosemain, it is amazing! Because my uncle gives me Brenlece, please give sweet medicine from next time"

It seems that it was easy to drink. Wilfried had a drink of medicine with a shining smile. Charlotte also puts a mouth in the cup, rounds his eyes and drinks it.

"If this is the case, it seems that you can do your best to supply magical powers."

In the figure of two people who are pleased with the improvement of medicine, adoptive father and foster mother also relaxed expression. It seems that the improvement of the taste was good news even for the two who seemed to have recovered with powerful Masu medicine medicine and put on magical power.

"Rosemain, let's go"

"Yes"

I supplied magical power with the priest chief, and drank upgraded refreshing medicine. The bitter taste of medicine is mixed in the sweetness like the child syrup of the Rei period, but as compared with bitterness and badness which I want to get ridiculous so far, there is no problem at all even if drinking at a stroke It has become.

..... Fruit of Brenreuce, amazing! Thank you Gibe Haldzell!

While I was taking medicine, my adoptive foster and foster mother, then my grandfather started supplying magical power.

Then, while turning round and turning, I will devote magical power. I felt my eyes turn when I finished third magical power supply. I could not stand up to stand up, and when I was sitting down holding my head, the chief priest came out a cup for me.

"I thought it was time to think about your physical strength, so it would be better for you to keep it today."

I nod and drink while drinking medicine. Regardless of magical power, strength does not follow. Wilfried and Charlotte dealing with magic stones are much better.

"Is Rosemain all right, Ferdinand?"

"No problem if you take medicine and rest."

Even if it says that the president is okay, my grandfather looks into me anxiously as if she is frightening.

The chief priest compared the me and the grandfather several times, then picked up the empty cup from me and put it under. And suddenly I thought if I held a princess, I showed him like a lifting eye.

"Mr. Bonifatius, please make this form this hand, I will pass Rosemain"

"None! ... .... Here, is this?"

My grandfather makes his face strong and looks at the shapes of his arms' heads to make a circle. In the arms of such an old man, the chief priest preserves me casually. My grandfather 's arm moves swiftly.

"Mr. Bonifatius, be careful not to move the hands, be careful not to move the hands, please go ahead from the supply side. I have other things to take home, so I will leave Rosemain. If you give it to Richarda It should be fine"

"U, I understand, I will pay close attention, I will go, Rosemain"

I did not get dropped by the movement of the old man moving step by step, I nodded while throbbing.

..., it's okay?

As they came out between supplies, their aides were waiting. Everyone turns astonished eyes to me holding on my grandfather.

"Bonifatius !?"

"Rosemain Princess !?"

He rushed me to Richarda who came at the momentum to push away others. When Richard raised me, she exhaled with a smile filled with a grandfather's feeling as if she finished the big work.

"Ricciarda, Rosemain is not good, I have to take medicine, so Ferdinand had said that I will take a rest in the room now, I will ask you later."

I was excited until I switched to Richarda, but never dropped nor thrown away.

"Mr. Boniface, thank you"

"Mumu, well, please rest"

A grandfather who smiled once with Huang gave a severe face as his cough was cleared, and it came in again during the supply. I am carrying in Richarda, I return to the room and go straight to the bed.

And on the day when Entwickeln was going to be done, enough magical power was gathered, so the adoptive father said at a lunch seat that it would be done with 5 bells as planned.

Towards the 5 bells, with medicine and breaks I will restore my physical strength and magical power properly, and I will head to the lord's office.

"It seems that contacts to soldiers and commercial guilds have been done properly, according to several knights who have seen the appearance of downtown with cavalry, there is no indication of people at a stretch after the bell of 4, tightly to the window of the house It seems that it is in a closed state. "

There was a report of such a father, only the senior aristocrat who draws blood of the lords was sent off to Richarda in the office where entry was permitted, and Florentia, Bonifatius, the priest chief, Vilfriit, Charlotte, and I It is between.

It seems that the father-in-law, the lord, heads to a place where there is foundation magic by itself. He seems to be doing Entwickelnun there. Our role is to supply magical power to the foundation's magic which is almost empty at Entwickeln.

"Are you ready?"

Following the instructions of the foster mother, waiting in a state kneeling on the magic team, the bell that is being lowered to the waist of the foster mother made a cute sound with Lin Linglyin. It is a signal that the adoptive father's preparation is over.

"I am a person who creates the world and prays and gives thanks to the gods"

Following the words of a foster prayer, we also pray. It seems that the magic of foundation is almost empty, you can see that magical power is sucking in and steadily.

"Here it is!"

Everyone stops supplying magical power to all the screams of Charlotte. From now on, it seems that you should put magical power little by little.

When I got out from the supply, a foster-like adoptive father came.

"Thank you for everyone's cooperation, Entwickeln has succeeded, and what the rest of the people do with the rest"

"I'll be fine, it keeps it neatly beautiful"

Today we still have magical power and strength.

"I want to go see the adoptive father, I, the way downtown changed."

"The Order is supposed to head to the gate to get in touch with the end, if you go with it, the escort will be enough."

As the adoptive father drank the medicine president 's medicine, he gave me permission to go out with the knight team.

"You only have to leave the deputy head coach here." Ask Karstead, seeking and escorting Rosemain "

"Certainly yes"

Damuel and Angelica, and with the members of about 10 knights, I immediately started downtown. For the reason that I do not know what to do, the chief priest owe together.

The windows and doors are completely closed, the state of the downtown where no one is there is visible, but it can not be seen that it is very beautiful.

"... ... There seems to be no change at all."

"Because the basement has changed, there are almost no differences in the table. If you look very well you can see the place to throw away the dirt."

If you are told by the chief priest, if you look very well with body strengthening, there is a part with a lid on the end of the road like a manhole. Only that part is white and beautiful.

"It is troubling with this,"

"Was it all to change it ...?"

The chief priest murmured that "this is meaningless". It is troubled if it is judged that all magical power supply so far and collaboration with downtown is also useless. I hurriedly stopped the chief priest.

"No, please wait a moment, we should clean the downtown, right? Let's wash every town."

"... What are you talking about?"

"Here, there is nobody now, like this ... Vashen!"

I put out Steap and dropped a water ball to a part of the downtown. Only that part was cleaned and it became beautiful. Looking at the situation, the priest director turns my eyes to see what I can not believe.

"Rosemain, are you going to wash down every downtown in Wassen? Are you foolish?"

"It is inevitable for all the downtowns to be overturned by re-entrant von Cologne! In that case, I will do my best to wash the city."

Because the soldiers and the commercial guild promised to keep the downtown clean, I will do my utmost to set the balance for that.

When I begin to put magical power on Stap, the priest leader stops saying "Please wait."

"There is much waste in your way"

"Huh?"

"To spread magical power in a wide area, it is more efficient to use the magic team. Receive Karstedd, Arub-Ehrenfest to use magical magic, Rosemain can put magical power into it ... .... Stillo "

The chief priest took out Stap and began to draw a magic team in the air.

Although it has been improved in a long history so that it can do a minimum with short casting, it seems that magical efficiency is better if you use the magic crowd to use great magic in a wide area.

While magical power is poured on the five magic stones handed me, magic teams are drawn by Stap. Because it is a magic stone that is not so big, it does not take much time to dye with magical power.

"Is Rosemain ready for manastones good?"

"Yes"

When I handed the manastone to the chief priest, the chief priest threw a magic stone one after another toward the magic team. Not only 5 dyed by now but 8 more manastones are thrown. The magic stone flew to a specific position of the magic line so that the magnet could attract, and began to shine.

"The twelve goddesses who serve the side of the goddess of water that brings healing and change Fellowships to the side of the goddess who serve the side It is a song of delight to rejoice Let us pray and appreciate to regain the appearance that we should give refuge with sanctification For the flow of cleanliness for this place "

With the priest 's prayer, the magic stone glows and the magic team turns round with a green light. Immediately after, the magic division broke down around 13 demon stones.

Then, 13 magic teams fly over the downtown, and water is released at a stroke from each. Water like a waterfall pours down to the downtown all the time, showing a swell like I think it will cause a flood, and runs through the alley.

However, it was a time less than ten seconds.

The water disappeared and the downtown regained its brilliance. Up to the second floor the white like the aristocratic town is regained, and the dirty dirt that the additionally built wooden part has also disappeared.

"Great, amazing, Mr. Ferdinand!"

"It was your magical power to use"

"But, unless you are Ferdinand, you can not do this!"

While excited about the downtown where I became beautiful, my father smiles bitterly.

"Well, if you think that magical powers are running out at Entwickeln, you have plenty of time to spare"

"Feldinand-san's medicine is amazing, it got easier to drink because of Brenleuce's fruit, it got even better."

"But, I can not do anything about your physical strength, I am excited now, I do not seem to be conscious, but I'd better take a break as soon as possible"

I reported the end of Entwickeln to the soldier of the gate and I went back to the castle. After all, it seems that I made too little effort. As the chief priest said, he fainted the moment he was relieved to return to his room.

It was on the same day that I got permission to revive completely and move around freely, and the lords and wives headed to the lord.

Chapter 356: Life in an answering machine Part 1

Even if the fever went down, I was not allowed to get off the bed at once. According to Richarda, it seems that the president is the director of the bishop. It seems that he keeps a book to keep it quiet for two days after the fever has fallen. "If you do not make it a good boy, the book will be checked" was told.

Of course I am a good girl, stay calmly at bed and spend reading books. It was a book on the foundation of the magic team. Symbols indicating attributes, symbols symbolizing God, feeling that we must learn a new language. It is a dictionary rather than a book. From the handwriting, it is what the priest wrote.

..... Without this kind of dictionary, the chief priest who can paint the skull and magic team in the air is amazing.

"Philene, will not you remember this together?"

"... It's amazing, is not it?"

I called Phyline, who had not yet studied the magic team, at the bedside and enjoyed reading time for a couple of days while studying the signs together.

"Well, Princess, please prepare in a hurry. Maybe you can make it in time for the lord and wife to see you off"

It seems that it is supposed to be confirmed by the president officer whether to move around freely before the lord and his wife see off. I was told to head to the closest meeting room away from the north. In the meeting room the chief priest was waiting. With a difficult face, touch my forehead and neck and breathe in lightly.

"My complexion is not bad. Temperature, magical power, both are stable, it does not seem to be a problem even if I move around. Oh, the lords and couple went to the lord's meeting a while ago, I was worried about you"

It seems that he already left for the lord. I was struggling to see if Richarda could make it to see off to see him off, but he seemed to have been useless.

Everyone who headed for the meeting polished with Lincyan, women gave hair decorations, female citizens got plenty of plants paper, took several of the castle chefs, and they went to the battlefield called the Lords Conference.

"... Does not Mr. Ferdinand stay in the temple? You said that last year you can not leave the temple?"

"I leave it to hands, Kamppel and Fritak this year, I intend to pack it in the office as much as possible during the day, there may be an emergency call from Zilvestor"

This year 's lord' s council said that while the director general lightly looked at me, the anxiety factor was too much. Indeed, I am involved in trends and engagement, but both of us finally decided on adoptive adoption. It is not my fault alone.

The anxiety factor for me is not the adopted father who is accompanied by a number of civil servants who have consulted and is called by the priest chief when in emergency. Rather, he is the chief priest who is called.

"Mr. Ferdinand, are you going to work here during the day, are you going back to the temple at night?"

When I stare at the president officer, how hard I plan to live a life, I ring the nose lightly with Hun.

"You do not have to worry about me, so deepen your relationship with your aides and brothers."

While deepening exchanges, he seems to have to learn common sense of aristocrats and make efforts to have their aides know about my shifts. I misunderstood that if I do not know how far they are from each other, I will not be able to fix it.

"Mr. Ferdinand, how can we deepen exchanges between aristocrats?"

"... It would be better for him to ask Elvira than for me who is heterosexual."

"I understand ... I will ask my mother."

It seems to be my problem this time to deepen interaction with the aideside without losing daily supply of magical power. At dinner it seems that we have to report today's events to the priest. I nodded while thinking that the temple did not do such a thing.

Returning to my room, I skipped my mother an older person. I asked how to deepen the exchange. The answer from mother was "to do things jointly and to have conversation" It was that.

There are things that must be done jointly. Everyone makes costumes for Schwarzs. Charlotte also do this together.

Hartmuts, we have to embroider on the streets that are drawn thinly by the hands of the civilian. A line was drawn by the civilian officials, so the girls are on their way from here. Leave the escort to Damuel and Cornelius elder brother, embroidery including girls who apprentice escort knights.

Both cloth and thread are already dyed with my magical power, and it is said by the priest chief, although it disappears, the magic team draws with this ink. When I touch it, the magic crown glows up and emerges, so it is told by the president officer, not to touch as much as possible. It seems better that the existence of vanishing ink should not be known as much as possible.

"Mr. Rosemain, First grade, Philline, and then Charlotte, since the magic team is still difficult, I'd like you to do this embroidery."

I, Charlotte and Philiane were appointed for the embroidery of the apron's pocket. It is a part of the magic part of the imitation which does not matter even if it makes a mistake a bit. Complex magic teams that should not be mistaken are entrusted to those who are good at fine work. It is the right place for me.

"Earl of Reesegang is the word of Earl Haldenzell and it seems that it will give up once Rosemain will be the next lord. If the situation does not change so much, it seems like it is as it is, did you have something at Halden Zell?"

I told Charlotte when I told her like Brunhild. Tilting my head, "If there is something?" When eyes meet me, Charlotte gently shrugged my shoulders and answered in place of me.

"I think that it is great that I showed my attitude to prioritize and support my older brother. It's a little relieved that my brother and sister are good friends."

..... Ho ho ho, I see.

As I convinced Charlotte's words and nodded, Charlotte gave a light sigh.

"It seems my role is to support your sister in the social direction."

It is the sister of Angelica and Rieselator who are doing the best embroidery. They are doing embroidery with a serious look which is very similar. I love schmir and it is fun to make Schwarzs costumes and it is inevitable It is Angelica who wants to embroider on my cloak after finishing embroidery of norms, so its seriousness has a difference in directionality, Embroidery arms have striking things.

"Both Lisely and Angelica are good at embroidery,"

"Oh, Rosemain is never weak, is not it?"

Although laughing with couscous, the Rizerator does not stop handling embroidery. Because I can make embroidery practice as a bride practice, I say that no women are so poor at aristocratic women. If it becomes the first lady of the next lord the embroidery arm of some extent will become indispensable.

"Does Léonore also embroider the magic team there?"

"Well, since I have a lot of opportunity, I also want to memorize the design, so few opportunities to look at such advanced magic team carefully ....."

As Léonore murmured while doing the embroidery of the magic team, Brunehilde shimmered the candy's eyes.

"Is Leonore scheduled to be given a magic team to someone, or is he promising to embroider on the cloak already?"

As soon as Brühn Hilde said, everyone else except Angelica headed for Bach and Leonore. In the atmosphere that looks forward to its expression and answer, I remember even in the Lifan era. It's a romantic story. I wonder what makes flowers blossom in love stories anywhere.

Léonore where everyone's eyes gathered laughs like a trouble.

"That is, that ... I hope to be in a position where you can embroider on the cloaklet if possible, but there is no special promise, there are people who already are in ... .."

Leonore is beautiful, he is smart, born as a senior aristocrat, and I think he might turn around if he works hard. However, this love affair seems not to be enough with individual feelings alone, so I can not make irresponsible remarks. Stop burning strangely and give priority to the elimination of doubt.

"Is it special to be able to embroider on the cloak?"

"Yes, it is only myself, parents and children, couple who can embroider on the cloak."

It seems that it becomes a confession from women to embroider on a cloth like handkerchief and hand it over to the favorite person. "I can embroider this magic team, I think that you want to embroider your cloak." It seems that it is impossible to do embroidery on a mantel unless it is a couple, whatever it is, it is the wife 's privilege to embroider her husband' s cloak.

..... Oh, I did not understand the crush at the doctor's complaint that I want you to embroider my cloak of the love story of the lords, but was there a meaning equivalent to the word of the proposal? After all the romance novel is difficult.

"In order to embroider Vilfried-sama's cloak like Rosemain, I must brush my arms, and suddenly it may be annoying if I want embroidery of magic teams."

"In the case of Rosemain, it will surely do embroidery of the wonderful magic team, I'm looking forward to it now."

..... No, no matter how much I expected it.

"Eudit is also eagerly embroidered, but who are you someone who thinks anymore?"

"No, I am embroidered on my cloak, learning from Angelica, because I am an intermediate aristocrat and magical power is lower than others, I want to raise even a little, and like a angelica, a monster I want to grow strong and become strong. "

Yudit's ponytail that emphasizes so swaying fluently. Hairstyle is also an imitation of Angelica. As Angelica has grown up, I knit a couple of ponytails and gathered it all together so it's not the same hair style anymore.

"I can not recommend going to your sister much, Yudit. It is better to stare at your good point and stretch it."

When the Reiselator said so, his angelica nodded next to him. Angelica is the result of extending only his good points. All the drawbacks are left behind.

"Why does Yudit admire Angelica?"

"It treats magical sword given magical power from Rosemain sama, it is chosen as swordsmanship of the aristocrat, is said to be a disciple of Mr. Bonifatius, and is engaged to Ekhardt-sama, who is not admired is not strange Or! "

I feel a sense of frustration at the eyes of the violet color of Yudit who asserts so. I inclined my head and looked at Yudit.

"Although Yudit stressed the admiration for Angelica, I feel that the feeling of frustration is stronger. What are you impatient about?"

"Huh?"

After curling his eyes, Yudit smiled like a trouble.

"That ... that ... I will be impatient as I am, middle class knight among many high-ranking knights, Angelica has the magical power as high as an advanced knight, and the lower knight Darmel now has more magical power than I. Because there are so many ... In addition, I left only one person in the lords and I have not been to the escort mission much ... "

Even the same intermediate knight has a big difference with Angelica. Yudit is a sister with a few brothers and sisters, who seems to have the lowest magical power among the escort knights, although they have to do good work for the younger siblings and be recognized. I will grow from now, I guess I can win Damuel in the meantime, but that seems to be useless.

"Damuel is a lower-ranking knight but has been trusted by Rosemain sama from the temple era, has it taught me the first time magical compression, it is growing to the magical power of an intermediate knight, and also to Rosemain and Angelica. The number is trusted. "

"Damuel is very reliable if you try to immerse yourself in the escort mission."

Angelica smiled with Nicolle and said so. I heard a hidden word saying "I can cast a headache job, I can round it," but Yudit does not seem to be able to hear it.

Yudit shimmered the eyes of Violet, grasping his fist and standing up.

"This is trusted only by Angelica, first of all, it is Damuel overthrowing, I will not lose to Damuel!"

The goal that Yudit aims at as an intermediate knight is Angelica, the rival seems to be Damuel. Yudit's rival declaration is funny as if the puppy is barking for a big dog who does not want to fight. "Yeah yeah, do your best" I want to say.

"I, I am with you! I will not lose!"

Suddenly Philine stood up and stood up.

"Although it is a lower aristocrat, but Damuel proved that magical power can be extended as much as an intermediate aristocrat, I do my best, so that I do not feel embarrassed as Rosemain's aides, so that I can earn trust like Damuel Will endeavor"

Look at Yudit and Philiane, which everyone in the surroundings emphasizes, and laughs with couscous. Two people who noticed the surrounding eyes squatted their cheeks as if they were relieved, they sat back with a shy face, and started continuing embroidery.

"All of my aides are hard workers, so it is good to work hard in such a condition, but Yudit can not become strong even if you imitate Angelica, a devil sword is also a waste of magical power probably."

"Huh?"

"Because you are good at not a sword? Because Yudit is good at bowing and throwing, rather than polishing the angelica and polishing the arm of the sword, I think that it would be better for you to aim for one hundred midst of brushing throwing arms "

It was because Yudit 's skill was good that he was allowed to eat the fruit of the Ruel at the time of the ditters match. I think that there is no need to train a sword who is not good at separately.

When I said that, not only Yudit, but other escort knights saw me as if they were surprised. Since the students' knight apprentices basically have swords, they seemed to think that the knight had a sword.

"If you throw your throws, you can throw stones without magic power and concentrate on concentrating on putting magical powers on them, you will concentrate. Stuff sand in leather bags and hit the enemy Even if you can successfully fight, you can take vision if you can go well, only the sword is not a tool of warfare, so let's extend your good points.

In my words Charlotte pulls her cheeks all the time.

"..... Sister, that is not a battle of the knights ... .."

"Oh, Charlotte, escort knights should not be committed to how to fight,"

"Huh?"

"What the escort knights should do is to protect the escort subjects, not things to fight fairly, you should keep everything else."

It is important to defend the escort subjects, whether it is an evil beast or a person. There is no meaning such as a knightish fight when you do not know what kind of means your opponent will use.

"Ferdinand will use whatever it is then at that time. When the arrow was splitting at the time of exterminating the arrow it was a bow that splits, and when we opposed weak but many numerous demon animals it was a throwing net. Of course we also use a sword and of course a sickle. Sometimes I saw a figure with a weapon that I could throw magic stone and make it explode, like Ferdinand, there are few people who can do so many things alone I guess, but I think that we can mainly use weapons other than the sword."

In my words Yudit murmured "I will think about it."

Today I said that I had embroidered Schwarz 's costumes at the dinner table that day, and when I reported that "All of my aides are efforts," Charlotte said, "My sister' s socialization I will do my best to assist you as much as possible."

Of course, it is not just embroidery to do with Akari. I also practice fespier and head for the training grounds of the knights for my rehabilitation.

While the apprentices train, Angelica, with different training time in adults, is observing the training of apprentices while protecting the door.

I take magic tools away, move arms little by little, move legs and rehabilitate. However, because it is hard to move, I feel irritated, I want to strengthen my body.

"Rosemain, trace, but magical power is flowing, please do not reinforce body secretly"

It is Damuel that makes a decision. Damiel always attends rehabilitation because it can sense magical power which is too small.

"Is Rosemain now able to unconsciously strengthen her body?"

My eyes wide open as I was surprised to see the rehab. It is not unconscious. It is conscious trying to jerk. I am gazing at all my eyes.

"How is your grandfather, students? Have you gotten to be able to cooperate for a while?"

"No, I do not have much to think about just attacking, I have not considered any defense, I can not escort at that ... .. I am motivated only by motivation."

If it did not become able to fight while conscious of the escort subject, it is said that the escort knight never picks up it, the old man said. You should not increase the number of knights like tragut which do not properly recognize the object to protect. Even if I am not an escort knight, I will be in trouble if I can not do escort mission as much as I enroll at the same time as I and Wilfried.

"Do you want to see a little training?"

Like my grandfather, I was told to move to a position where I could see the training field without using body strengthening, and I slowly moved and moved to a position where I could see the training field. You can see that the apprentices train from the window. Apprentices riding the cavalry with weapons were flying around.

"Does Rosemain increase the escort knights? I heard from Karstead that it requires an adult woman to head to the temple ..."

"Because Angelica has grown, an adult woman is not necessary. Rather, an escort knight after Cornelius's graduation is needed because the traumigot has resigned."

The escort in the temple is difficult unless it is a person who associates well with the gray priest 's side stuff. For now I think that Angelica and Damuel are enough. All you need is an apprentice of an escort knight at the House of Lords. Now that the traumgot has gone out, I want someone who can complement that part.

"But it's difficult, my escort is on you"

"Is it weak and it is not amusing whenever I fall down?"

"The difference is the most, the knight you trust the most is the daniel, so if you can not get along well with Damuel, you are in trouble."

I narrowed my eyes to think of something in my words.

"Is not Rosemain thinking of dismissal of Damuel? Both Karstead and Ferdinand are shaking their heads ... ...."

Since there is no precedent for appointing the lower knight to the escort knight of the lord family until now, it is persistent opinion that it is better to remove the lower knight and make the upper and intermediate knights escort knights.

"I am the chief of the temple, the orphanage director. It willingly be an escort knight if there is a senior knight who can enter the temple and orphanage and cooperate with the side of the temple, but the reality is difficult Because I have many frown faces as I hear it, because I am raised in the temple, I do not feel a good feeling when I see such a face. For lower aristocrats and middle-class aristocrats who think that it is for the advancement But it's easy to use for me. "

"Really....."

My grandfather slowly exhaled my breath. "It is difficult" I mutter. Even though I grew up in the temple and I was the chief of the temple, I am a cute granddaughter, but there seems to be a sense of objection against the temple.

"Since civil servants will go in and out for a meeting about the printing industry from now on, we intend to negotiate with our adoptive father so that they can enter and leave the temple even if they are apprenticeship escort knights. Knights I can not enter the temple are me We do not need it. "

It is probably because Damuel, Angelica, Elder Cornelius have entered and exited the temple, neither Leonore nor Yiddit will expose aversion to the temple. It is a very good feeling for me. People who break this atmosphere are in trouble.

"So, I am planning to search from an intermediate or lower class knight, and there are other conditions for my escort knight."

"Are you still there?"

"Yes, in the temple we have to help the priest's officer, Ekhardt brother is also helping Angelica gets stuck in the door and will not leave the escort mission, but these two knights I do not need three people, and my escort knight will also do minimal civil service work. "

My grandfather smiled quietly and turned his eyes towards Damuel.

"Is Damuel qualified as meaning civil service work excellence?"

"Well, I'm doing my best for Angelica."

"I am not trying hard to try hard on Angelica's part separately!"

When Damuel insists, my grandfather raises his voice and laughs.

Angelica cautioned that Yudit was seeking entry permission there. When I give you permission, Yudit jumps in with a crying face.

"There is no recovery medicine anymore! Please give permission to go to collection, Rosemain-sama! I can not receive a special lesson in this way!"

It seems that special training to apprentices is becoming very strict due to my grandfather's special training. So, since they use recovery drugs one after another, Yudit seems to have gone away during the lecture at the House of Peers.

I also thought of having other knights sold, but everyone seems to want to keep it for my own use. Now, the Order of Knights has a high demand for recovery drugs. If you do not make yourself, you will appeal that medicine is not available.

It is good to give permission, but I was wondering, it was useless.

"Where is the collection, do not you leave the aristocracy for apprenticeship?"

When I tilt my head, Yudit said "It is a forest of a castle."

An apprentice like Dahuel and Yudit who nurses in aristocracy and does not leave the aristocracy is an aristocratic forest whose people in the forest and downtown in the castle are prohibited from entering the ground, It seems to gather some kind of material.

..... Collection? Sounds good.

The memory of the time when I went to the forest with Lutz and Turi revived, I became irresistibly nostalgic.

I strike my hands and my hands and look up at my grandfather.

"Grandpa, let's practice the escort mission"

"What?"

"I am going to collect them. The knight apprentices collect them while protecting me. If you accompany me as a supervisor, are not you worried about any chance?"

Chapter 357: Life in an answering machine Part 2

---

"Mumu: That's right, you'll need an experience to fight while escorting."

If you invited me to go collecting together, my grandfather accepted it pleasantly. While stroking your chin, start talking about people selection and belongings.

"It seems better to have reported to Feldinand about it, because I have been told not to take arbitrary actions many times."

I sent Ordonants to the chief priest. "I will gather with the escort training in the forest of the castle, since it would be tough if there was a danger, my grandfather will supervise." Please do not worry.

The chief priest came immediately.

"This foolish person, it will be impossible, Bonifatius is much more dangerous than the monster of the forest, even if it is going to help, I will die if you are thrown out. How many times have you had a life crisis so that you do not do extra things like bothering me when you do not know what is at the lodgering conference?"

Because it is an answer by Ordonants, I have been touched three times and my grandfather looks over the face.

"Sorry it is impossible, my grandfather"

"Wooging ... .."

Unlike me who shrugged his shoulders as they had no choice, my grandfather seems to have been full of going already. After biting his back teeth, he took off the permission of the priest, popping out. Whether you are using body strengthening or not, it's so fast.

"My grandfather, have you gone?"

"Your teacher was glad that you asked Rosemain, because you said you had no contacts easily"

When I saw the door opened amazingly, Angelica smiled a little and said it while closing the door. I can only laugh laughingly at my grandfather 's face, with me and Angelica alone, Yudit, who was told that collection is impossible, is a tearful eyes.

"Rosemain, how impossible, what happens to my collection?"

"I will ask Ferdinand if I can not let the escort knight apprentice go to pick up. When it is told that it is impossible, I will divorce the recovery medicine that I made the other day so it's okay."

If you are an apprentice, there is still some restorative medicine that is said to be enough. Anyway, I will not use it, so I can divide it into Yudit.

"Did Rosemain make a healing medicine? You should not have learned yet, do you?"

"I learned to Mr. Ferdinand, I hear that I need to be able to make my own recovery medicine by myself"

"... It is tough, is not it?"

"Now we are reliant on procurement and creation of materials, so I'd like to be able to do medicine as soon as possible by myself."

When talking about that with Yudit, Aldonants flew. White birds speak with the voice of the priest chief who is in a bad mood.

"Do not forget to prepare for recovery medicine, and do not let Cornelius separate from the side, so you can understand Bonifatius exactly as you guarded yourself?"

Three times to say, when Aldonants returned to a yellow manastone, my grandfather came into jump.

"Ferdinand's permission has come! It will be collected tomorrow."

Apparently he seems to forgot permission. I was picked up by a floating grandfather and turned round and round, with my head dull, I was cautioned by repeated remarks by the president of the priest, "Bonifatius is the most dangerous", the collection in the forest is very embarrassing I became worried.

Today is collected in the forest of the castle. When I finished breakfast, I had my dog wears dressed. As the owner of the lord, the costumes that Richarda and Brünhild can forgive was a cavalry outfit. I was planning to make it cool for costumes, but I could not win the momentum of the two. It is ready to lower leather bags and restorative medicine that put objects collected on the leather belt from the top of the cowgirl's clothing.

"Rosemain, I can also prepare."

Philene is also wearing cavalry clothes and tightening the leather belt.

Today 's collection is supposed to go by an adult number. They said that they would not do so because they were busy with preparing the room and embroidery, but since Hartmut and Philiane apprenticeship apprenticeships are needed in lectures at the House of Lords, they wanted to accompany the materials of magical tools It is. It is dangerous when a monster comes out without a knight, so it seems that he usually buys it from a knight apprentice.

"Good morning, Rosemain"

"... ... Wilfriit's older brother is ready too."

"Well, it's my first collection, so I'm looking forward to it."

Vilfried who heard stories about material collection from the escort knight also wanted to accompany himself at dinner seat, "I would like to collect materials for preparation at next year 's House of Lords." The number of people increased as the grand priest who refused that the grandfather could "protect two people" if "you can not bring them both, stop it." Several people are also being escorted to the escort from the Order.

"Well, let's go."

I am leaving with a lesser bus, together with a cheesy grandfather.

It is the first time to enter the castle forest. No, I have never stepped on my own will, but I have been involuntarily entering from the abduction of Charlotte to my attempted abduction.

"Is it okay, is not it safe if you have an old man?"

"Even if monsters come out, most are small items like Zanze or Linto, I do not need to get out."

While saying that, my grandfather walks next to the Lesser bus.

I know Santze and Ai Finto. A demon similar to a cat whose height was as good as an adult's knee when heading toward collection of material for Yurih, and a monster whose size is like a squirrel like a squirrel. Damuel is a monster who can drive away even one person, so if there are so many knights this would be no problem at all.

"Hey, this is an apprentice! Do not break the formation! Escort mission!"

The moment of finding the leaf which is the material of the recovery medicine, the old man scolds off the young apprentices trying to jump to us. Apprentice knights trained exactly like the Knights' knights and lords of the lord who are about to join together are not destroying the formation.

"How do escorts jump into collection! First of all, explore the surrounding dangers and start with safety assurance"

Older brother Cornelius opened his mouth as if the old man had his head in mind as she had to teach from such a place.

"I only practice what I learned in the lecture, if I am over 3rd grade, I should know, understand escort, recite!"

Reflectively the apprentices began to talk about it. I have witnessed both the Wilfried and I have been told in the dormitory at the House of Peers.

"If you understand, move on that exactly, see, it is a hint."

An apprentice trying to jump out and surrender to a single demonic beast was scolded again. Rather than trying to show you the way to go, make sure to secure the escort target.

Even though you know with the head, the apprentices that are completely stained with a style of total attack when you see the monster, it seems difficult for them to change their actions immediately. It may be better for you to practice this repeatedly. Hunting a small demon that comes out from time to time, collection of warmth and collections is under way while my old man's reprimand is falling.

Materials required for lower level students and upper class students are different. And because magical powers are also necessary to formulate, the materials required for advanced, intermediate and lower classes are also different. Since I have seen the real thing more than the second grade who have received a lecture at the House of Peers, I collect it quickly, but since I and Vilfriit and Filine have seen only by illustration of reference books, I do not really understand the real thing.

"Behankruut is necessary to make recovery medicine"

"Oh, it's better to collect this too, because Charlaup has strong wind attributes, it's an affordable material to make Ordonants."

It is better for Darmel and Hartmut to gather good materials. When I leave the Lesser bus, I change the staple to "mesa" and take material.

"Rosemain, look at this! Hey, do not you think it is cool?"

Villefried was proud of his staple. It seems that it is popular among candidates of lords of the first grade and senior nobility, it is a Stap with a crest. However, Villefried's Stap was not only with a coat of arms. The part of the hand has become a three-dimensional lion, and the tip of the staple protrudes from the mouth of the lion which opened wide.

"... It's amazing, is not it?"

"Hurry, is that so?"

Although it is cool to use a coat of arms, it should have taken a considerable amount of time to be able to constantly image this and create a stap. It is amazing to be able to spend such time on cool staples. I gave up as soon as it was a waste of time.

..... It seems that Wilfried brother could afford to speak of saying that I was tough from the House of Peers.

However, at the moment when I heard this cool staple "Messer", it became an ordinary knife shape. It seems that it was difficult to maintain a state that was truly cool.

"... ... Damuel, is this correct?"

"It is similar, but different, this is easy to understand if you look at the root, you see, this is red?"

While nodding next door to PharaLe's commentary on Damuel, I cut leaves with Steap Messer and put it in a leather bag.

"It is good to take Rosemain and Rungopope as well"

My grandfather pointed over the tree and said so. When I looked up, there is a white tree nut on my fingertip.

"Please take, my grandfather, I can not reach you"

"What are you saying?"

Putting hands on both sides, my grandfather lifted me a lot higher. I got a white fruit in front of me with a mesa.

"Bonifatius, I also want the same thing as Rosemain, but how do I ... ...."

"Fu! Well, now it's!"

He also lifted Wilfried, which is larger in size than me. My grandfather is strong.

By the way, my brother Cornelius was also swinging.

"The old man picked up this time, but how do you take the fruit in such a high position? In the forest it is hard to use a cow, is not it?"

My Lesser Bath can go up if there are no people in the surroundings, but everyone who takes the shape to widen the wings will be hard to use in the forest where there are many trees.

"If it is about this height, you can go up quickly with body strengthening, so take it like this, Rosemain."

Brother Cornelius stabs a knife in his trunk and uses it as a foothold to bounce lightly. I grasped the branch at the jumped end with both hands and it came up easily.

"Is there anyone else who needs Rungopope?"

"I also want it"

"I need you."

Some of the knights rose up their voices. It seems to be a material used for making a slightly high quality recovery medicine for senior knights. Cut some and drop the fruit of Rungopope down to Cornelius elder brother.

Brother Cornelius jumped off in a place where it reached a certain extent.

"Leonore, Look here ... .. If you were watching from the top, you seem to have received little of it."

"Thank you, I am Cornelius"

Léonore took delightfully.

Angelica went up to the trees in exchange for my brother Cornelius coming down. This is also a light movement that uses body strengthening. I got some Runguopu, and it got off quickly. I understand that Angelica is careful not to leave me as much as possible.

"On that branch, it's Zantce"

Leonore discovered Zantze watching Vilfrieders walking ahead. There is not a problem even if left unattended because there is a little distance, but it is safe to eliminate it because it is troublesome to attack from behind.

"Yudith, please make a sling shot at Stap this time and try to aim at Zanze."

Pointing to Zanze with a short distance, when I say, Yudit gently lightly nods and transforms it into a sling shot instead of the usual long sword at Stap. Is it easy to understand by describing it as something like a Y - shaped pachinko? I picked up the stone that I picked up and handed over with that sling shot and aimed at Zanze.

Hitting the trickery, Zanze falls. You probably noticed the sound, brother Lamprecht immediately started running with weapons and truncated the falling Zanze. Only the little magic stones remained afterwards.

"If Yudit learns physical strengthening, you will be able to extend the flight distance, and if you raise magical powers you can also magically power things out, you can also fly one after another. I think that it is suitable for you. "

"Well, at this point, this distance will be honored, and if you train and grow, it will likely increase in accuracy considerably"

I nodded as if my grandfather admired, I overlooked Yudit.

"There is a way to attack the enemy without leaving the side of the escort target, it will be the strength of that one.

"Yes!"

Yudit replies in a loud voice in a joyful way.

"Depending on the number and range of enemies and the weather, there was a memorandum of understanding by Ferdinand that it would be very effective if we could successfully drop the powder medicines such as sleeping medicine and numbness medicine towards the opposing team."

"Even how effective it is impossible for me to prepare medicines"

Yudit who won the treasure thief Ditter with my wonderful strategy lamented that he could not do it because he was not cowardly or knightly like the priest executive's way of doing things.

"You need an excellent civilian who can make effective medicines and magical tools,"

"Did you call, Mr. Rosemain?"

Hartmut is coming out quickly. By the way, Hartmut was also excellent.

"I was talking about things things that Yudit throws, not only stones but if you can use sleeping medicine and numbness medicine it is effective for ditters"

"According to Yusukusus, it seems that it was a showroom for the civilian arm to make effective magical tools and lead the victory in the time of treasure stealing Ditta. Most of the magic tools that have been affected extensively, and it affects the audience in the stadium, so it was forbidden to use in the competition, but I think that it can be used in actual warfare. "

I looked up with a respectful eye for Hurtmut's reliable words.

"What matters is a real battle, Hartmut, Yudit throw and think of some effective magic tools, I will buy it."

"Certainly yes"

It seems that he found his way and Yudit is happy to break his own favor.

"I will do my best to compress magical powers, to strengthen my body and to refine my throwing technique, Rosemain."

"We have to prepare things to throw, and we have to thoroughly think and throw which partner, when and which throwing is the most effective, it is important to read the eye and the enemy's line looking at the game situation It will be, so please study hard. "

"Yes!"

... .. Yoshi! You should have avoided the situation that just training your body like Angelica with this!

When he laughed at face to face with Yudit, his grandfather suddenly stopped his leg.

"stop!"

"... .. Do you like old man?"

"The smell of grun goes"

Although I smelled "I do not smell anything", my grandfather moved a little nose and pointed to a tree. It seems that the smell of the grun that insists the territory on the tree is stained.

..... My grandfather looks like a wildlife.

Grün that comes out at this time is hungry for a long time because of child rearing, being hungry, being aware of being a child because of having a child, <sup>Mating</sup> Number Because it is always near, it seems to be a very troublesome partner.

"Collection is over. Organize the punitive team back at once, can you put a civilian on the Rodemain's cavalry? The escort target is better for solidification"

It was simultaneous that voice came up from angelica, saying "My master, I went out," to give instructions so that my grandfather would return instantly.

"... .. Is that Grün?"

"Oh, that's right."

"Not at all like Lesser you! Is not it cute at all!"

With deep green and black stripes, I have a body of cracklingness, with a violent eye, my mouth is splitting largely. Its physique is never big. It is about smaller than Saint Bernard.

As soon as the two Grün opened the mouth wide open mouth, it smelled like a deep thick miso.

"Odor!"

I thought that it was nostalgic and nice smell, I felt a very delicate feeling when I looked at the knight who kept my nose and agonized.

.....I see. This is so smelly.

"Keep escorting subjects, let them escape! Only the knights are fighting!"

A senior knight who came out quickly got out, took out the weapon from the staple, and an intermediate knight stuck behind it. One of the apprentice knights said to not need to fight took weapons at Stap.

"Since we have defeated Grun in opposition to the territory, we can fight!"

"Listen to such a thing! Follow the instructions!"

I instantly enlarged the Lesser Bus and asked me to get on the civil servants. However, the civilian who hardly fights in the battle has a big eyes wide, looking at the grun, it does not move.

I can see the appearance that Lamprecht's older brother who held Villefriet is leaving the battlefield most, as evasive Wilfriit's escort knights apprentice goes on after the beast is issued.

I thrust Hartmut looking up at it and Damuel pushed it into the open lesser bus with a big entrance.

"Do not be afraid! Get on quickly!"

Then I throw Phylie and throw out Yudit. I immediately close the door and grasp the handle so that it can jump out immediately. Brother Cornelius, Leonore and Damuel jumped on a coward and jumped on.

As we flew off quickly, it seems that the grunger has jumped towards us at such a speed that it can not be seen. I knew it because the grandfathered grandfather jumped up in the same way and beat Grun. To tell the truth, I have not watched exactly where I was beaten. I grasped that he thought that the grunge sounded flying in the forest and that he knew that his grandfather swung his arms out and that he would have beaten up.

"I will not go out to Rosemain!"

With the encouraging words and escort knights kept around, I moved the Lesser Bus and returned to the castle.

Daniel issued an instruction to Elder Cornelius "Ordonants to Mr. Ferdinand", watching the broken Lamprecht's cavalry headed towards the knights' training ground. Brother Cornelius jumped through the sky and skipped Ordonants and contacted us and we returned to the castle.

"I think that it will be good if you leave it to the knight team after this. Rosemain, do not you have an injury?"

I nodded to confirm Damuel "I am all right." I was able to collect for a while and thought that it was good, when I got off the lesser bus, Yudit came out from the doorway.

"Damuel, I am not a civilian! Escort Knight apprentice! I can move with a cowgirl and it is not the subject I must protect."

Yudit who was thrown into a Lesser bus with civil servants lifted his eyes of Kiki violet color and glanced at Damuel. It seems that pride as an escort knight apprentice was badly hurt.

"How did you throw me to Rosemain sama like a beast?"

Damuel looked down at Yudit which was a tearful eyes with an inxious eyes. Angelica tilts his head and opens his mouth.

"Because I thought that Yudit was the most suitable person, I thought that Yudit was a good candidate"

"Huh?"

Yudit saw Angelica with a blank eye. But Angelica will not explain further. I have a face whose explanation is over.

Daniel looked at Engelica who had a hard face and Yudit who had a face that he could not understand at all and sighed.

"Oh, sorry ... I can not understand why Yudit is angry, but is it no doubt that you want to know why Yudit was on Rosemain sama?"

"Yes"

I will explain Damuel carefully to Yudit with a hard expression.

"As long as the citizen is on board, one must be accompanied by an escort knight to Rosemain-sama's cowgirl, if it is Yudit who can defeat the enemy with throwing, if Rosemain's permission is given, I thought that it was the most suitable for escorting with a ride-type coward, so I decided to get on Yudit ... "

"Is not because I am not enough as an escort knights apprentice?"

It seems that the complex of Yudit who hardly can escort the escort task grasped Damuel's action distorted. Damuel who seemed to notice it wiggly smiled.

"I do not think that there is a shortage of Yudit recognized by Mr. Bonifatius after throwing that much thing ... .. that it was thought of such a thing as an escort in the beast You forgot the mission? "

Yudit opened up his eyes wide openly, opened and closed his mouth, then turned his ears red and turned down "I am sorry".

After all the escort knight of Uchi was centered around Damuel, it seems that the cohesion is better. After that, I saw Yudit who came to ask a lot about Damuel and I thought so.

Chapter 358: Liaison meeting meeting report meeting

"Was it never ended without anything ....."

For Binifatius, who plagues such a sigh at the dinner table, Bonifatius replied "I was glad that the grunge is a monster that must be torn down at any time. At the same time, I murmured that the problem of collaboration between knight apprentices is so much more problematic than Grün did. Wilfried greatly nodded and agreed with that murmuring.

"I also did not know exactly what is wrong with the knight apprentices until I saw the situation today. I think that coordination of knights apprenticeship is important, as Rosemain says. Practice to protect someone is necessary Is not it? "

"Then, how about going to collection while preserving civil apprenticeships? It can be practicing apprenticeship of knights, you can collect apprenticeships of yourself by themselves, and you can also appreciate some self- I want you to have consciousness of the side protected. "

"What is it, Rosemain?"

I saw me as if the chief priest could not understand well. I will explain the actions of civilian actors when Grunh comes out.

"In civil service officials who are not accustomed to raids too much, they can not do things like preparing cow animals so that they can move quickly, keeping Stap, and at the same time obeying instructions of escort knights, I will be abandoned from an escort knight to protect ... .. I think that familiarity is important "

"Fufu .... Indeed, when Grunn came out, Rosemain could act calmly unexpectedly"

I have been facing the beasts many times by the collection of the material of Jureve. Besides that, I am not happy because I have been attacked several times, but I'm getting used to acting with an escort knight.

"In addition to the knight apprentice, we also train civil apprentices to the extent that they do not become clever enough .... It would also be better to prioritize civil servants of the lord's family"

"Bonifatius may well train a knight apprentice or a civil apprentice, but it would be better for the Order to explore the forest first whether there are demons to be subjugated other than Grün. If you hold hands together, you will be troubled when a strong monster comes out. "

According to the words of the priest chief, the Order was going to explore the forest for a few days, and the apprenticeship training was off for a few days.

After the holidays, the civilian officials decided to interfere with the training, and Phyllene who heard the story was pale. Considering from the attack rate so far, my aides are very likely to get involved, so it is better for Philene to have a means of self-defense. If you are not conscious of escape, you can not do it because it is proved in the forest.

In the few days when training was off, I decided to make a recovery medicine at the castle workshop with my aides. The watcher is the chief priest. At the same time, boil down the pan and show it to the aides, the fourth stage of the magical compression. After all, it seems that aristocratic babies and ladies seemed to have not cooked themselves by themselves and saw the work of boiling down with fire for the first time. Moisture is reduced, <sup>Umbrella</sup> Bulk It seemed interesting to see the phenomenon of decrease.

"Mr. Ferdinand, in a lecture on magical compression, Mr. Hirschle told me to boil down your medicine, but why are you a senior aristocrat and you do not know that high school Hartmut can also boil down?"

"There are medicines that increase efficacy when boiled down, but it is probably because it is not very common."

Apparently putting ingredients in a blender and stirring with magical power, it seems almost impossible to boil down. It seems that it is not within the range taught at least in the lecture.

... ... To teach a first year student how to make a medicine that is not very common as an image of magical compression. No, indeed, it would only have taught me how to do it, if it were helpful.

I taught everyone the fourth stage of magical compression, and at the same time I decided to teach Phylline how to compress magical powers. It is a lower aristocrat because the Phyllene with the lowest basic magical power among the aides needs considerable effort.

There is no problem because money has earned at the lords, but I was a little worried about what to do with contract magic. It is too expensive to use contract magic that ranges all over the country for one Fileline. So, like Damuel, I decided to contract with others when I tell others, next time I decided to have only contractual magic which is effective within Ehrenfest. I do not think Philene speaks verbellar, but it is important to show that I exercised contract magic against others.

With such a feeling, Akari going to receive training for replacement, making restorative medicine including the part of civilian who are trained with the collected materials, practicing Fespiel and putting it in the costume of Schwarz While I was asked various questions about blessing from embroidery with Rieselaer and Brunhild or rehabilitation from Hartmut, the lord's meeting ended.

"welcome back"

"Everyone came to pick you up."

Wilfried and Charlotte, who were waiting in line in front of the room with the transition team, watched me, the foster mother laughed nicely. My father also laughed and said, "The detailed story is tomorrow's report meeting, so they are also attending."

The chief priest was invoked several times until the dormitory of the aristocrat, and it seems that Norbert who is the back of the party was convoked, so I was worried about what kind of lord conference it was, but I do not show tiredness The lords and couple came back with smiling smile.

"Welcome back, Father"

"Oh, I am back now. Rosemain seems to be fine."

When I called out to the father who accompanied me as the head of the knight, my father showed a faint smile at my mouth. My father seems to be tired more than my adopted father. I wonder what happened.

As I was worried and looked up, my father urged me to "leave the room as the escort knight, side workers and civiliances come back quickly."

And the next day, I will head to the meeting room where the meeting will be held with Villefried and Charlotte. Lord families seem to have to attend a meeting meeting at the lord congress from the age to go to the lords. It is because the result of the lord conference will greatly contribute to their living in the lords.

Because I was immersed in Jureve, this time I will participate for the first time this time for me who is not present at the previous meeting and Charlotte, this winter will be the first noble family.

"I wonder if the ranking of this year has been decided? It will be fun."

Wilfried walks with confidence with confidence that it should be "higher than last year". While riding a beast, I answered "It is good to have gone up." Charlotte was a nervous face at the first reporting meeting, walked in a few words and arrived at a meeting room where a meeting was held.

It is a meeting where the lords of the lords and their aides, the knights, and the upper part of the civilian gathered together. In a conference room where many people are gathering, civil servants and side-moves begin to move when they arrive at a fixed seat. After everyone was ready, the lords and couple came in.

"I will report on the Lord's Council." Since there was a big change this year, there are more items to contact than usual, probably the Ehrenfest will become increasingly influential and changing from now on I would like to raise the ranking as much as possible without missing the aircraft.

At the briefing session that began with such adopted father's words, firstly, this year's ranking was announced by the adoptive father of adoptive father. It seems that Ehrenfest is in 10th place. In the next House of Peers the doors and rooms of No. 10 will be used. This seems to be the highest in terms of the ranking of Ehrenfest so far.

"The results at the House of Lords has improved considerably, to be honest, it was a slightly higher rank if only the results of the House of Lords are done."

However, compared with the results of the House of Peers, there are few talented persons who went to the center, and Ehrenfest's influence is still low, as the epidemic began to spread. Therefore, the ranking of the territory seems to have settled to tenth place.

"If we can successfully communicate with other merchants coming from other territories this year, we will be able to raise the ranking next year, not just doing a smooth deal but ending with a transient epidemic, It is important to establish and transmit new trends. "

From the spirit of his adoptive father, I think that some dislikes such as "a transient epidemic such as Ehrenfest's epidemic" was said from some territory. If there is not a popular epidemic so far, there is no point in thinking so. Especially, the territory which is close in rank and the territory which was passed by this year Ehrenfest will want to say so.

However, the word seems to stimulate the adoptive father who has a disadvantage. Looking around the conference room with a smiley face, father adopted a good fist.

"At Ehrenfest, new paper has been developed one after another, preparations for the printing industry are progressing. We will aim for further higher rank with this as a weapon!"

Clapping happened around the adoptive declaration. Ehrenfest, which had been told as a countryside until now, has gradually raised its rankings over the years and has risen from 13th place to 10th place here. The older people who knew Ehrenfest who was always wandering around the bottom gladly faced their faces.

"In order to maintain this ranking, I would like you to make efforts to maintain grades, mainly from lords of lords belonging to the House of Lords. In order to improve grades, At the same time, we need cooperation from our adults, please give us a detailed explanation, Ferdinand "

The chief priest who gazed at the adoptive father nodded once and got up. Then, I turn my eyes to everyone in the conference room.

"When I heard stories about the House of Lords from the Lords Candidates, there seems to be quite a lot of changes in the course of the lecture after many political changes, as many teachers have changed, and in the process of the Knight apprenticeship, It seems that it has changed to a competing ditters the most. "

Taking the part that everyone's eyes to fight against the territory as an example, the priest chief was a change in the course, how the students learned changed, what kind of condition the knights who newly graduated from the aristocrat were in I will explain in detail.

"In order to bridge the difference, the knight team is practicing special training on rookie and knight apprenticeships, so it seems that the distance between the civilian and the knight is considerably far away as it is not related to treasure stealers."

Keeping in mind that the territory was working together as a whole to set up magical tools and create recovery medicine, keep in mind that it was totally different, and the chief priest told us that each department would like to train newcomers.

Citizens also seemed to be aware of the change of the newcomer, and he nods as "I see." Apparently, the treasure stealer Ditter who was abolished due to the shortage of the small territory seems to have been quite important on education.

"We will report on newly decided transactions. The suppliers regarding new trends have decided in central and Klassenburg as we discussed earlier."

A report by the civilian commenced.

Apparently, the appeal of the fashion seems to have succeeded so much even at the lord conference. Hair ornament, Lincian, vegetable paper, new recipe at dinner, and sales of recipe of cuttle curl to the area that can not be traded seemed to be pleased.

"We have handed over the interlocking paper named Rosemain to the two territories and the civil servant handed over half of the interlocking papers to the guild of the commercial guild to ensure proper correspondence with the coming merchants in other territories like"

..... Oh, the nonsave paper said that it was bad because the name of the material comes out front, but eventually it became an interlocking paper.

"There are a lot of territories that I would like to do business next year, so I would like to increase the number of studio and manage to increase the number of trading partners. We also have to talk about the length of the commercial guild and about it."

While the other territories were interested, I caught a bad feeling towards the downtown, cautiously opened my mouth to the civil servant to increase the number of the studio.

"Well, Lincian is not so difficult to manufacture, so if you increase the workshop too much, it will become unnecessary for the workshop to become able to be made in other territory, and the chances are higher that more people will be hit by the job this time. In addition to things, there is something to make fashionable from Ehrenfest so there is no way to increase Lincian's studio alone, there is no way to increase just the hairdresser's studio. In a few years the unemployed will be massive Please be careful and increase your workshop so that it will not increase. "

In my opinion, the civil servant made a strange look.

"If there is something else to make fashionable, if the trends of Lin-shan are over, is it not sufficient for the commoner to make the next one?"

Certainly, if the manufacturing method of Linseiang becomes known to other regions and it can not be sold, it must make other things. However, there is no reason to be able to change work easily so easily.

"Because this job is gone, it's easy to say that you do other work, it's easy to do, as you do not have work of civil servants, so that as a knight work from tomorrow, Is it said that you can work as a knight enough? If it is another work that the civilian is doing, you can not do the job in the field, as the people in the downtown are the same, so increase the workshop Please do. "

"... .. I got it to you"

Regarding the downtown, the civil engineer slowly nodded while watching me deciding to become a breakwater as much as possible.

"Next, on the application that would be most interested in Ehrenfest, about Wilfried and Rosemain's engagement ..."

In the words of the adoptive father, the atmosphere of the meeting room was tightened in an instant. Increasing and decreasing influence among factions, etc. In a sense, it is the problem that comes to our lives most. I understand that everyone else is asking and listening than talking about rank order.

When all the territories had to respond to various things, I felt a sigh of sorrow, whether it was faction faction or not. In the House of Lords, I was able to shift my eyes to competing with other territories rather than factional fighting, so it seems so to the contrary.

..... Just like looking at the aristocrat, somehow look outside and can not get inside the Ehrenfest to a certain extent?

As more than half of the nobles who did not go about the Lord's Campaign swallowed and watched the bosom, the adoptive father opened the mouth while looking around the meeting room with a dark green eye.

"The approval has come down from the king, which means that the engagement has been officially decided, so as to think that the objection is the same as opposing the king's decision"

With this, not only of Raisegang but also some of the former Veronica schools are outstanding and can not complain. Once the engagement is confirmed, it seems that he began thinking about how to move next. I feel that the glare of eyes has changed.

..... I do not think there's no room to compete within Ehrenfest, though.

"There is something we may report about the engagement that the king's approval came down, which is the engagement of Prince Anastigius and Eglantine, who is a candidate for the lord of Klassenburg. Through this engagement, Prince Usu was to be brought under Prince Sigismwald and they are going to rule the central jurisdiction that was expanding as a royalty, working hard to move the magical tool of the royalty who stopped movement "

It seems that Anastigius and Egranthine have been successfully engaged to engagement. By political change, it seems that it will rule over the direct jurisdiction that was absorbed and expanded in the center. I learned to treat the magic tool as a royal family, I understood that it would be treated like a central gibe.

For the moment, I knew that Anastasiusus took a step back from the next throne, but what is the impact on it?

I was thinking carefully, I noticed that the surroundings had expressions that I had not thought at all. Because the trend of the royal family has never had much involvement in our life so far, it seems that surrounding interest is less than our engagement compared to our engagement.

"And then this is also a matter of engagement, a marriage decided by offering from Ahrensbach Lamprecht and Freuden, we will welcome these two brides to Ehrenfest"

The squirrel and the meeting room flirted. Earlsbach 's aristocrat aristocrat Vindebaard entered the town of Ehrenfest without permission, attacked me and the chief priest, and the soldiers possessed by Earl Barthet' s arrogance ramped up, Arends Bach I was thoroughly trying not to have an exchange with. And, because of the lack of magical power, Aub Ehrenfest who had been dismissing the application for marriage so far got married with the aristocrat of Ahrensbach, so surprises would be natural.

"Since the month has passed since the first application, two ladies will arrive from Ahrensbach at the end of this summer as soon as possible to bring the fishermen."

It seemed like the adopted father's eyes were lurking. Perhaps it was probably because Arensbach was pushed back for not having a congratulatory story totally happy. I think that it can not be said that you do not want to accept if you inform the higher rank if two brides are issued.

..... In particular, this year I am refusing to trade.

It will be a foundation looking forward to next year's deal. And, perhaps, it must be an intruder to know the inner circumstances of Ehrenfest. If brother Lamprecht's brother, it will be a position where the information of my sister 's abundance can be obtained because it is the head of the knight, the mother who binds printing industry, Vilfriit, and my sister.

..... Your father who is back has been in vain.

It seems that it has become very difficult situation. Even if Lamprecht brother decides to get married, he looks like he can not be pleased with letting go.

According to the adoptive father, it is marriage carried out by the offer of Aub Ahrensbach, nothing of the bride of Freuden who is an intermediate aristocrat, that the bride of Lamprecht's brother is Ale-Ahrensbach's niece, that between the territories Considering the tension, it seems that each other's relatives and both lord families came to the boundary of the territory, and they decided to give a simple formula on the spot.

"Lamprecht and Freuden, two parents brothers, then the temple and the chief priest prepare them"

Unlike my brother Lamprecht who clouds his face, I saw the face that blew my joy in the surroundings. Those who are connected to the former Veronica school, those who wish to exchange with Ahrensbach. In addition to the fact that the flag head has disappeared, even though the influence of the former Veronica faction was gradually reduced by trends and magical compression, they would also be revitalized by this marriage. The factional faction within Ehrenfest will reignite.

..... I want to raise the ranking of Ehrenfest soon. The pressure from above is troublesome, honesty.

When I thought that the marriage of Lamprecht's brother and the inside of Ehrenfest would be hurting, only a sigh came out.

After the briefing session, awesome will return to the meeting room. There were so many reports that I realized that Ehrenfest was changing drastically. Everyone will leave the facial expressions bright.

"Rosemain, Ferdinand, and others moved to my office, there is a talk to the temple and the chief priest"

Me and the chief priest was called by the adoptive father and moved to the lord's office. The aides come along roughly.

There was a wonderful book in the office of the adoptive father and a letter on it. When I am stolen from the book, my adoptive fellow narrows his eyes narrowly and looks at the book.

"This is a deposit from Dunkel Ferger, a civil apprentice apprentice, treat it graciously and take it back to the room"

..... Hannaore, I love you!

While I trembled with excitement, Hultmut and Philine carefully wrapped the book on the cloth prepared by the civilian.

"From now on I will talk a bit about the rite of star knotting, no need for an aides to the ritual's story, as it is going down a bit."

Human payment was done, not only from my office in the office but also from my adopted father's aide. Only father, father, chief priest and four of us stayed in this place.

Gachari and the door closed, as the footsteps traveling apart became farther away, the adoptive father collapsed a little at the desk.

"Do you like your adopted father?"

"I am tired, Rosemain's the first time such a lordsmen conference is exhausted, it was a lot harder than the first lord conference"

It seems that they had keen dignity and were busy because the ranking of the territory was rising, and it seemed that they did not show tired expression and bitches just before they were inspiring civil servants, but when the aides cease to exist, the switch It seems that it switched.

There was no lying attitude like the former so far, I fell on the desk and began to say "I do not like it anymore".

"To Ferdinand, I was advised to get the engagement approval from the king before deciding a fashionable deal, so it was really good to keep it right. Klassenburg gave Rosemain as the second lady's second wife As I say, I will say, Drevehelle is my daughter and my son are good friends, so I will say I would like to deepen our relationship as it is, Fleeveld Tur said that Ryu Diguer and Rosemain are better in terms of year round, Arlen It seems that Bach was aiming at Wilfried as a son-in-law, and without the approval of the king, I could never beat it. "

It seems that somehow it was in a very tightrope condition.

Through Egranthine, Klassenburg who knows that I am holding a trend and composes it seems to have asked the second lady 's second lady.

"I was forced to think that it was truly a large territory, even if there was hardly any exchange, I was about noticing the specificity of rosemain and trying to capture it ..."

My father also shook his head, standing just behind Jilvester, I was tired. It seems that a fellowship was brought in from the large territory around and around and that the stomach was feeling painful.

"How and when did you get along with Drevehel? I think it was rarely reported to Justice's report, but ..."

"There was hardly any exchange at Drevechel. It was introduced to Egrantine at the tea party organized by this place, and I started to exchange. Egrantine graduated, so as the exchange will increase from next I am thinking. "

It was surely an elder sister, Adolfine. I am thinking that exchanges will increase as it will be an asylum to turn to Egrantine in the future lords.

"Is that so? Will it increase?"

The adoptive father dropped his shoulder and breathed heavily.

"Drevecher is a land where the civilian is excellent and often produces a strange magical tool. Aub Dorevankel and his aides showed interest in the mating paper. The magical response is mild as a magic tool and it is easy for lower aristocrats. It seems to be able to make, and it is said that it is wonderful to use it easily for commoners without problems. "

It seems that it was said that they wanted to give way to whom, who made it, how they made it, and was curious. Since materials are also clarified when examining the mating paper, he says that he has avoided it by saying, "Earren Fest is still rare, so we brought only the amount to pass to Central and Klasseburg this time this time."

"Because we did not get much information at the Lord 's Conference, I think that Durevanhel' s contact will increase at the House of Lords"

"... ... Is it bad to be friends?"

"No, it would be better for you to get along, Krasseenburg, Dunkel Verger, Drevenanger, it is important to get along well with any territory."

Can you do it? When it is said, I can not say that I can say "I can do it" with my own having been told that socializing is anxious. If you can not say "you can not do it" and you are stupid, the chief priest hits the temple with a tapping tongue and a fingertip.

"As two brides come from Ahrensbach and I do not know how Ahrensbach works, now it is better to have more information sources and upper ally's friends, even if you think that they are ally friends ... ... "

In the words of the priest chief, my adoptive nod nodded deeply.

"Rosemain should pay particular attention to Dunkel Ferger, who holds the book, which is the weak point of that one, because Aub Dunkel Ferger had taken the trouble to make a promise to lend a book to Rosemain I came to ask for trading next year with the sharing of the exchange between my daughters who come and borrow valuable books, probably the candidate for lords of Dunkel Ferger is quite a masterpiece. "

If I feed the book, I will know that I can catch it, so I will take care of it, said the adoptive father.

I do not know at all whether such tricks are being devised with Hane Nellore's clever appearance but there is something that can be said certainly.

"I love Mr. Hannaore who is a favorite fellow, I am planning to do library activities together with Mr. Hannaore in the second grader with a matching armband, but how should I be careful?"

When I tilted my head, after adopting my eyes wide open, my adoptive holding moaned with my head.

"Is Rosemain already in hand? ... .. The territory is horrible"

Chapter 359: Private briefing session

---

"At the briefing session, only the results were really reported, but what was the actual situation? I would like you to tell me if there are people or actions you should be careful of at the House of Lords But "

It is said that it is worried about sociability even just by. It is better to keep the preparation as tight as possible. In my words, the priest chief gently shrugged his shoulders.

"In the case of you, it is the most correct that you should be careful with everyone who comes in."

"... It will be so, but what kind of person should pay particular attention to?

"Since Ehrenfest has gone up to tenth place, we are buying envy in the ranks of the ranking a bit lower, since the rankings have been changed since last year, even if taking an attitude towards the top, the actual blowjob will become tough If you do so, the opponent will grow, but if you are too proud, it will get hit harder the next time the rank changes. "

To my adoptive father, the rank has changed before the political change in the past, and the year when it came out in a matter of time was jealous from the territory of the ranking of the surroundings which was attached to the losing group as "More than Ehrenfest" It is said that it was serious.

Until then, Ehrenfest was the base, and in political change he was neutral and did nothing, but only the ranking went up, so I think that it can not be helped even if jealous.

"Even so, I was surprised, because I did not think there was consultation for marriage one after another."

"Was not it so much when fighting against the territory?"

I heard that the fight against the territory is a battle match of the lord. There were several from the lower territory, but you should have heard that there was no upper territory.

"Perhaps it was great that the one was the best and that the ranking of Ehrenfest came up at once, it was good that I was truly grateful to receive the consent of the king. Although a little about the magician of the library I was ... .. "

"About the Black Foot, did the royal family say something?"

It may be the most important report for me. When asked to embark oneself, the adoptive finger shook his head.

"What I said was civil servants of the upper middle class aristocrat, I asked if the costumes of magical tools in the library could be renewed and they kindly taught me a lot."

So I cut off my words and saw the priest chief, I laughed.

"The costumes of magical tools in the library are mainly made up of librarians who are central senior aristocrats, and it will be made up of several people, and they have worried me a lot whether they can make alternative costumes in Ehrenfest in the countryside. It is not even possible to gather materials, and you will be wearing poor costumes. "

"Ho ho ... .."

The facial expressions of the priest chief are becoming pleasant.

"Well, I'm looking forward to the next year's evaluation. Rosemain, do not pull out the hands of embroidery. There is no problem with the magic team that I made, but if the embroidery and the appearance are poor, costumes that give the gap I can not forgive. "

..... Wow, the chief priest has become serious.

"What kind of territory are you to watch out for Jilvester and Rosemain?" Tell us a bit more about marriage proposals "

"We need vigilance, Klassenburg, Dunkel Ferger and Drevenhel, otherwise we do not need much warning."

"..... Eh? There is no Dunkel Ferger, and Mr. Lestyrant hated me saying that he was a fake saint or a villain."

Treasure theft As I mentioned about the interactions before and after Ditter, the chief priest suddenly narrowed his eyes.

"The offer is determined to be due to that treasure steal Ditter, the knight captain of Dunkel Ferger and his nephew must have tougherly punished you. The knight of Dunkel Ferger uses a policeman who uses him well. Lift it up. "

"Have you got something in mind? Is there a similar offer to Ferdinand?"

When I looked up at the chief priest, the chief priest nodded lightly.

"The Order will raise a good person of Ditter and Auve will try to impose marriage to a child of a good turning year. Even though it is best, even though it is the best, he seems to be able to impress candidate lords of the territory near the base. Because it became, it is in the memory if the princess who was married to the royal family as the third wife in the midst of a political change to become a lover to leave Dunker Ferger. "

"... .. that, it is a very behavioral princess, I basically thought that it would be married to the partner's parents."

"It seems to be the color of the territory that you want to win what you want, and it seems that your parents could not afford complaints as they have summarized their marriage with the royal family on their own."

..... Wow, the princess of Dunkel Ferger is strong. Mr. Hanenero did not look like that, but is it really amazing?

Father who heard the story of the priest chief stroked the jaw "Fumo".

"Dunkel Ferger's Lord's Candidate Could be Restylut? If he is seriously disliked, there may be no problem, perhaps only in the surroundings, it might be Durevanhel that is troubling."

"why?"

"Would not Rosemain himself said that it was decided that it would be indebted to my sister during the second year student, who would have a candidate for a lord of a man in the same year?"

I struck a hand with my father in the words of your father. I think that it will be no mistake next year to take care of Adolfie.

"Au Dorevanhel has said that Rosemain is pretty like his younger sister, and there is a strong interest in magic tools over there. There is no reason why anyone Ferdinand taught can not bear eyes "

No, I insisted that it would not be good to be that far, but it seems that it will happen in the second grade as the upper ranks say so.

In response to such an adopting father's anxiety, the chief priest waved his head lightly.

"Drevänchel is defining the cut-off, sitting in the engagement with the approval from the king, not going to dance to solve it, but I'm only persistent about magical tools. Rosemain and Villefried fit It will be enough to ask about paper. "

Derevanche's civil service has a strong desire for research, so it would be fun to talk about it, the chief priest said. I am sorry, but I am not interested in research that is irrelevant to books and libraries. Even though I spoke a lot about magical tools, I think that it is basically a gibberish.

"For the time being, at the Lord's Council, not only Lincian, but also the dishes served at the dinner party had quite a lot of interest in various areas, inviting me to a dinner one after the other from the highlands and getting invited to this, I think that the next House of Lords is too hard. "

"It is quite the same situation that Wilfried's older brother experienced at the lords."

Earren Fest, which had little relationship with the large territory so far, has suddenly had an exchange, and the situation that no one knows that know-how has already been experienced at the House of Lords.

"Calling up to Norbert, the chefs also moved extra, but we responded ... .. The next House of Lords may be better off thinking of the number of chefs and the number of side-by-side recipes a bit more. Regarding recipe collections yet Will not it come out? "

"Since the collection of recipes began to circle at Ehrenfest, it is not amusing to spread out from the hands of merchants who came in the summer, and we intend to extend it to the next aristocrat as well, are not we still printing earlier?"

For me, I'd like to extend cooking recipes and music notes from places that are not related to the results of lectures. In my words, my adoptive father says "I do not care".

"Is it good if it is led by the initiative in consideration of the size of the printing industry? Will others know about the burden on commoners and the scale that can be distributed? "

Putin 'I think. I want to keep working in cooperation with the downtown while nurturing civil servants around here. I need time to think a little.

"Well, it will be tough if we do not increase the number of printing studio a bit more by next summer."

"Be careful not to be too hasty"

"Although it may be a big boost if it changes certainly hurriedly, if Ellenfest has not changed here, Ehrenfest has not been able to get out of the subordinate territory for a long time. How large lands such as Klassenburg, Dunkel Ferger, Drevenanger, etc I think that it is a good opportunity to purchase information as to whether you are going out with a commoner, how to operate the territory, you can not stay the same awareness forever. "

As you can see from this epidemic, if you do not use commoners well, you can not spread fashion and special products. Perhaps, Ehrenfest thinks that how to use the commoner is terribly poor.

"At the very least, it would be good if only faction fighting would be good but ... .. If there are brides of Lamprecht's brothers, there will be people who will make a lot of revitalization."

Factions that had been gathered together with the skill of mother once crushed at the visit of Georginé, punished Wilfriit's blunder, lowered the former Veronika school, was brought together by raids to us and magical compression bait And there was a sideburn from Ahrensbach.

"How come the old Veronica faction will be danced in Ahrensbach so far?"

"The deep-rooted Veronica faction is originally from Ahrensbach,"

"Huh?"

When I raise my face to an unexpected word, the priest chief suppressed the temple
"why do not you understand such simple things?"

"It is a princess of Princess Ahrensbach, you can not come alone, as a matter of course, a side job and an escort knight comes along"

Because I am wary of spies, it is unlikely that accompanying civiliances will be forgiven for mower. But those who take care of themselves and around themselves and the same sex escort knight who protects from danger come. The marriage of such an age is obvious, but the person of Ehrenfest is the opponent.

The princess' s aides and their marriages, of course, became the back shield of the princess and his daughter Veronica. Of course Veronica has become a lady and has taken in more factions to factions, but the center seems to be a close associate from Ahrensbach.

"Well, the trend of the former Veronica school depends on Ahrensbach."

"There are a lot of former Veronica schools who have raised their sisters as the next lord as opposed to me. When I am attached to me, because my lord only draws blood of Ahrensbach, my older sister There are a lot of people who become first wife and are pleased to have influence on Ehrenfest. "

..... There seems to be various troublesome connections to the former Veronica and Georgine.

"There are many aristocrats who have been depressed by older sisters among them, there are many aristocrats in the south. The german Barcelona and Daldorf are sure to be excited by the marriage of Lamprecht this time. In the lord conference we have talked with smiling face with Nikkori As usual, my older sister's smile has poison, just remembering it's about to kill around here. "

My father adopted a sigh while holding down the stomach.

"You could not make a refusal, are not you?"

"I am doing it, I am doing my utmost even this, too."

Aelen Bach seems to have requested transactions in response to his relatives' affection at the Lord's Council. In relatives that seems to be aristocratic, it means that you should not give priority to Arenzbach, a relative in the highlands.

For the adoptive father, I have already determined the counterparty this year, and I dismissed the opinion of Ahrensbach after saying that I would increase dealings with Dunkel Verger and Drevenhel in next year as well That's it.

"Even if you are despised by your relatives, it is natural that you give priority to Klassenburg, the top-ranked player, from the 6th-ranked Ahrensbach. Well, how long was Ahrensbach? "

"The top has not changed in particular, as it is"

On the contrary, when the adoptive father says that the land where the aristocrat who is trying to attack the lord's family attacks is not able to have a good emotion even if there is a foster parent, Aub Ahrensbach talks about the marriage of Lamprecht's brothers I heard that it came out.

"A foolish act of only one aristocrat fell a huge shadow between the two territories and I would like to continue to build intimate relationships with Ehrenfest, who is also my parents home of Georginia. Let's accept the marriage of the group "

As Jürgen Schmidt as a whole marries his own niece and another person, the daughter of an intermediate aristocrat, in the moment of missing magical power, it seems that Abu Ahrensbach has said no complaints.

"Arub-Ahrensbach is really worried about the current situation that the grooves have been formed between the two territories, the current situation that neighbors are too bad and even I can not even go to their parents' house is terribly lonesome. Shou, Jilvester? "

As I said, Georgine seems to have been boosting Auben Arensbach.

When I am not able to say honestly that my sister Georginen is not to be included in Ehrenfest, "I am not so foolish that you can not understand that this is a high-ranking territory here" is not it? It seems that it was done.

At the same time, from Aru Ahrensbach, "My nie embraces my feelings still, but I am mourned, but my son has already changed my mind and there is no new opponent," Father asked his eyes sharply It is said that. It seems that the fathers could only answer "My son is not such a shallow person" because it is a mass of power that pushes down, even if there is an opponent even if there is an opponent.

"I was accompanying as an escort knight, I was stared at directly from Aub of another territory, so it was not a long time ago, my head hurts."

..... Awesome gossip.

In addition, it seems that Florentia was complaining about the girls' tea party about engaging Wilfriit and me.

"It seems they engaged Wilfriit and Rosemain, but ... Rosemain was bred a shrine? It is said to engage such a child ... ..".

Appealing that Wilfried wanted the son-in-law of Deitlinde, while putting a lustrous smile on his lips, Georgeen said he said. "Wilfried is an excellent lord of a candidate who draws blood of Ahrensbach, but it is difficult to become the next lord in Ehrenfest," he said.

That means that Wilfried enters the White Tower and knows that he was a punished Lord Candidate at Ehrenfest.

"I am angry just by listening to the story.If you want to capture Rosemain in Ehrenfest within the Ehrenfest lord candidate, Wilfried is the best for Dietlinde and the year round, or another Whether it would have been okay to have a senior aristocrat decide to borrow it, Florentia to do it around!

I think that a foster mother who smoked the words of Georgine "with what Aub Ehrenfest and the king was decided" with a smile.

"Ruediger of Fröbel Turk is also a candidate for a lord who drew Arensbach's blood? Would not Ryu Diguer match with Dietlinde also?"

When I inclined my head, the adoptive finger gently shrugged my shoulders.

"If Flebel Tak is not in the 15th place, I may have thought about it, but I will not be going to join Ahrensbach in my present rank."

"Ehrenfest is never too expensive, but ...."

The current ranking is tenth. To be honest, I am still in the middle, I can never say that the rank is high. Of course, I plan to raise it from now on.

"By the time Wilfried and the other graduates, it is understood that those who have eyes are more likely to rise"

"Is not it because Jill Vester inspired me to see with my own eyes whether it is a person with eyes to see or whether it is a transient fashion or not?"

My father, acting as an escort knight, shrugged his shoulders and said so. It seems that the fathers who do not like and disappointed have taken over by those who have not changed their rankings as "transient epidemics" "Ehrenfest everywhere".

"... ... Do you raise things, cause problems, or something I said scatteredly, did you sell a fight?"

"I did not sell a fight, rather I bought it because the lord needs attitudes that do not get licked into the subordinate territory"

Hun and his adoptive nose sounded, and the chief priest noted "I am not a mistake, but you can not read the situation absolutely do not imitate me".

"Because I'm basically warm, I will not sell or buy fights, unless the books and other people get tangled"

"When you get involved with a book or family, it runs reckless without thinking about the trail, so in your case it is the most scary."

... ... I'm sorry. But, I think that probably will not be fixed.

I diverted her eyes to the point of the priest, and I pulled back one step.

"In the meantime, Ahrensbach needs the most vigilance, my sister's attitude is different when Auburn Ahrensbach is there, and the behavior of Dietrinde reported from Wilfried and Justozk with parents I do not know what I want to do with Ehrenfest for what purpose, it seems as if each one is moving with a different speculation. "

In the words of his adoptive father, the chief priest nodded.

"Because I probably issued two brides, I think that it will impose impossible difficulties at next year's Lord's Conference, or I think that the role is assigned to the bride and whether the sending itself is the objective ..... I do not understand at this time. "

In any case, it is a marriage story that can not be a very bright mood.

"Lamprecht brother, you decided to be able to get married to whom you like, but you can not be happy in this situation"

"The person himself also knows his position, he was in trouble."

Your father also smiles a bitter smile. He is the niece of Aub Ellens Bach. As a second lady, I can not do something like pushing it apart. Became the first wife of the first guardian of the Villefriet, and will take care of the house. It is a position where information can be easily obtained.

"Rosemain and ramprecht's starring knotting ceremony will be gone by the one who is the temple of the temple and I do not want to put the other side in front of Ahrensbach, The one who is the most high-ranking temple is the tacit understanding that rituals with the highest ordinance of the temple rituals are held for rituals in which the two territories of Aub come together. "

And so that I will not fail by myself, I will appoint the chief priest as an assistant as a sticker.

"Practice giving blessings equally, on the other hand, would you be biased if you give blessings with emotions as they are?"

"... Well, I will do my best."

Certainly, it will be hard if I bless you with emotion. We must consciously give blessings.

"Leave things to the ceremony etc. to them, because there are a lot of things to think about, such as how to protect the castle, moving, while there is no raid during lodging"

"Is there a raid? Is it a mowing?"

Although it was a congratulatory seat, too noisy words came out and I kept an eye out.

"It's time for both Arubs to gather, the castle will be thinner and important people will move quietly, so we need to be vigilant ... .. Rosemain, who can also make armor with magical power You better be there. "

My father suddenly said so. In preparation for sudden raids, it seems that we have to keep the defense firmly. It was told that the armor of the knights made from manastes wore under the ceremonial clothes of the temple like a bulletproof vest.

When I looked up to the chief priest, if I needed such defense, the chief priest nodded slowly and affirmed.

"It will be necessary, if you take that aide, you must be able to have armor. Other than that let's have an answering machine."

"I am going to the temple as ritual, but do I have to take my aides?"

"We have to take them from both so that we can take both positions, both candidate lords and the temple .... I am the same."

It seems that the temple's sidewalk and the aide of the castle will also be taken. If you take the francs, you must also secure the defense of the francs.

"You need a magic stone again"

"I will hand it over if necessary, so firmly defend yourself, the boundary is dangerous, it will be a problem even if you get into a situation like attacking from here, it is crucial to stick to defense."

"Yes, it will be a problem to suddenly attack with magical powers just like in the case of Isetan's raid, so there is a limit to the magic of the lord who defends the boundary."

The adoptive father blurred that it was really hard to strengthen the barrier of the boundary because I made magical power runaway in the assault that took place as a blue priest who accompanied him at the praying ceremony.

"It is very uneasy to teach you the magic of attack, but it seems better to keep myself informed of the magic to defend and protect the surroundings"

If there was a means to protect it, the priest chief said that he would not turn to a so-so attack, and I was taught various magic about defense.

Chapter 360: Apprentices and temples

---

I returned to the room and began to read the letter I got from Hannelore. In the letter it was written that Ehrenfest's book was very easy to read because it is thin and easy to hold and written in recent words. If there is something else, please lend me, and I am tied.

.....Leave it to me! Ask her mother to increase romance novels for Hanna More!

My romance novel was dismissed by the priest chief, so for romance novels, I would like the ladies who like writing with the same faction as my mother to do their best.

... ... Next let's give out the love story of the aristocratic family. Good morning.

I see a book that Hannaore lent us. Because it is thick and decorative is big and big, it is difficult for me to turn the first cover because I alone. I desire seriously a reading desk whose top plate in the library of the temple was diagonally.

Its content is an old story passed on to Dunkel Ferger, the words were also written in obsolete and old words. It feels like reading scriptures and classics. I am good because it's fun.

Although there were several knight stories, it seems like the land pattern of respect for warriors as well, no matter how losing, fighting, fighting, fighting ..... There were many talks to keep fighting until victory.

The first one has a story that leads to the scripture, it is written in a story-like style, but it seems to have one aspect of the history book.

..... If this is truly a part of history books, Dunkel Ferger will exist from the founding of most of the time. I do not even know if it was added conveniently, so I would like to read books from various areas.

After all, the books of other territories are interesting. There are plenty of things I do not know. I would rather copy a story I did not know until now.

"I am busy with the movement of the temple and the castle, but please help me with Phyllene and Hartmut"

"Certainly yes"

As a result of talking with the adoptive father, it became possible to enter and leave apprentices with treating the temple as equivalent to the aristocracy. However, it is another thing that it is now possible to enter and leave, and whether the aides want to enter or leave.

"If you disagree with your family or you feel uncomfortable entering the temple, you do not have to accompany the temple as usual"

"No, I'd like to eat the rice of the temple that Angelica was saying"

It is interesting that Yudit is looking forward to entering the temple for rice. Phyllie asked if he could see his brother's Konrad. I had better contact Vilma beforehand, but I do not think there is any particular problem.

Léonore seemed to be suffering, but it seems that he decided to follow the advice of Elder Cornellius' s advice, "Once you go and see what kind of place you see with your own eyes, decide what to do?"

"There are only two escort knights in the temple where you can use the nobility's aides, so please go through other adult escort knights."

"Certainly yes"

All the escort knights had to visit the temple once. I turn my eyes to the servants.

"How will everyone in the side do?"

"I want to do embroidery now. When I finish making clothes, I'd like to see the environment where Rosemain once grew up ...."

"It's okay, Rieselaire. Because the temple will not go away, now please give Schwarz's costumes top priority"

As I suggested embroidery, the Reiselter reached out to the sewing box while laughing with couscous. It seems that the priest chief is concerned with the costume making, so I want you to work hard for my daughter who has dexterous hands.

"Well, I'm also embroidered in the castle with a riser, since the temple has a sidework of the temple, do not you have anything to do with me even if I go?"

When trying to do something, Brühnhild says it will pick up the work of the work of the temple's side. I did not think until then, but it is true.

"I will devote myself to the work in the castle, but please call me for a meeting about dyes ... etc. Then, the other day my father contacted me, I heard that the printing industry is ready for Grecher. I mentioned that I would like to contact Elvira. "

"It was quite fast, is not it?"

To be honest, since communication with commoners is essential, I thought that preparations to start the printing industry would take more time.

Brunhild looks small and smiles.

"It is a relative to Elvira, and it seems that we got a lot of advice from Giebe Haldzell"

"Then, after the final confirmation of Virfriit's older brother, I will head to Grechell with Gutenberg."

"Please do not accompany me at that time"

In the words of Brünhild, I answered, "Yes, please give me a guide."

Two days after the briefing ceremony two days later, the chief priest who finished the ruling in the castle came to inform that "I will return to the temple after breakfast tomorrow". I will go back to the temple with all the aides.

"There are quite a lot of escort knights"

"Please do not think that today is a shrine visit by apprentices, when there is no schedule for meeting etc., the civil service may be changed, and since two escort knights are usually sufficient, we have enough work today I will only explain the explanation and the inside of the temple, because I will increase the number of assistance, Ferdinand is also happy? "

Naturally, I will bring all of them to help after 3 bells ring. The chief priest nodded as "hmm", looking down at the apprenticeship escort knight apprentices of the mood exhilaration, enjoyed raising the end of the lip.

I put Fugo and Rosina on my cud beast and return to the temple. It is a strange feeling that there are a lot of cavalca of Akari nearby.

When I arrived at the shrine with a large number of people, my eyes were watching as Fran and Monica were surprised. At the same time, some people in the aides will strengthen their faces as the side of gray shrine and gray shrine maiden lined up side by side.

"Franc, Monica, my aides to come in and out of the temple from now on. France. This is the leader's side in the temple. This is Monica. There are different places, those who serve me In the sense that it is the same. "

"Thanks to Franc, I can concentrate on escort missions, gray priests trained by Ferdinand are excellent."

Angelica who is escaping from the difficult place with the commandment of Fran was proudly proud and praised Fran. Kusu, and small laughter leaked, the feeling of tension on the spot became loose.

"Well, I will change my room, so during that time Damiel and Angelica will show me the rooms that the escort knights are using"

"Ha!"

I entered my room with Monica, explaining the circumstances to Zam who was waiting in the room, "From time to time the nobility will come in and out and the days of tension will continue, but please try hard." to call out.

"Rosemain says she is ready to take over as the owner of the lord, so it's okay."

"After this, once you rest, I will assist you with the priest's officer. Of course, my aides will also have my aunt workers experience the life in the temple. As I can do for Damiel and Eckhardt elder brother, everyone can do it Is not it? "

When I laughed and smiled, Frank gave a bitter smile, thinking of the early working aides who arrived at the temple.

"Angelica, as usual, can you guard the door?"

"It is important to show the state of the temple as usual"

Zeam and Fran to head to the kitchen to prepare tea, I will have Monica change clothes.

"Monica, if you are told something obnoxious to the aristocrat who enters and exits the temple or if you feel danger at best, just tiny things or mind may be good, so please let me know, I do not know I do not want people in the temple to hurt in the place. "

"Certainly I will report any trivial matter."

In my words, Monica laughed as if he had a little relief.

I changed clothes of the temple and I invited everyone and recommend Nicola's sweets and frank tea.

"The shrine of the temple has been a long time since I have not eaten it at home."

Cornelius elder brother reached out for happy eating, and eat it. By the Cornelius elder brother, who is the highest in the aides, picked it up, everyone else began to reach out.

"Very delicious, Angelica and Damuel have eaten such delicious things so far, huh? Rosemain, I will escort you in the temple as much as possible"

"If you do not have special training on apprenticeship of the knights, you may safely keep Yudit at the temple"

As the escort of the temple is still sufficient for Damuel and Angelica, the apprenticeship is like an old-fashioned special lesson.

After tea, Damuel explains the escort mission in the temple, including assistance of the priest chief. Meanwhile, I asked Monica to appoint a civilian apprentice teacher to tell about stationery arrangement around the office desk.

With Fran, I look through the letters and wooden bills that were collected during my absence and go through processing. There was a letter from Gilberta Shokai, Printemps Shanghai, Guild Head.

From Gilberta Shokai it is written that hair ornaments for summer and hair ornaments for Ella are being ordered. A question about Vaschen and dyeing competition came from the guild head. From the Plantin Shrine, it is written that you have made a safety pin ordered by Johann, that you want us to tell you in the earliest when Gutenberg's next place to go.

"Frank, after three days we will meet the head of the guild and the representatives of the Plantin Shokai and the Gilberto Shokai, please let me have an invitation letter."

"Certainly yes"

And the third bell rang. Together with Fran and Zam, I will bring my aides, heading to the room of the priest's officer, and I have to help you as usual.

As soon as I entered the chief priest's room, Angelica came in front of the door with a quick move like "I will not give it to anyone." As the escort knights apprentices surprised, they looked at the facial expression with the pokan looking at Damuel, which opened his eyes and started working with his brother Eckhart who is in charge of clerical work.

"We will help you in this way every day at the temple, so thank you for everyone."

"... Is Rosemain always living like this?"

"Yes, Yudith, my hands are stopping."

"If this much more chores are to increase, it seems better to teach a new job to Rosemain"

The chief priest owes so and tells us a new job. From the person who only calculates as it is said, it turns into a staff responsible for keeping the budget of the temple. It is a big step forward.

When the bell of 4 rings, finishing the assistance of the priest, it is lunch. The escort knights took meals in turn, but Philiane and Yudit were impressed by the deliciousness of the rice in the temple. My brother Cornelius eats delicious meal at home, so it seems a bit familiar. However, I am delighted with the menu I never ate. Meanwhile, I noticed that Leonor alone had a floating face.

"Léonore has quite a difficult face, but did not you taste it?"

"No, it was very tasty ... I just thought that it would be difficult to welcome Rosemain and Elvira, who are eating such food everyday."

When we finished lunch, leaving work at Zam remaining in the temple room, I decided to take the aides and head for the orphanage. Phylane has a terribly tense face.

"Conrad is fine and I am not worried."

Philene shows a smile a little to the words of Damuel that always goes to the orphanage for me as well. Beyond the door where Fran and Monica opened wide, gray shrine maiden and children before baptism were kneeling and waiting.

"Everyone, please return to my work. Come and stay here"

When I finish my greetings and I speak out, the gray shrine maidens stand up while bothering the Hartmuts and start moving.

A concert pushed back by Dirk rushed out to Phylline once, noticed the surrounding sight line, came here in haste while walking.

"My older sister"

"Conrad, I am relieved with energy, how is the life of the temple?"

While Philline laughs happily, she embraced the concert in gray clothes. He showed me a smile that made Konrad a relief and began to tell Phylline about his life in an orphanage.

"Everyone is kind, we have delicious food and drink, so I am fine. I ask you from Rosemain when my sister lives in a castle."

"Because I have a group of people who work together, it is okay, I feel lonely that I can not see a concert."

I breathed out a little relief that Phyllie and Conrad were talking about getting along and decided to show the corner of play in one corner for everyone else so that everyone could talk with them.

Several books that Plantin Shokai has made so far are arranged, as well as cards and cards, there are several toys for babies, Brother Cornelius is amazing.

"Do you have such books and toys in an orphanage!"

"Yes, I was surprised when Aub Ehrenfest was inspected, so I used it in an orphanage and sell items that my children were delighted at the castle as a product."

At that time I was dressed as a blue priestess, but the fact that my father-in-law visited me has not changed.

"In my orphanage here I can read all letters except babies, I am proud of my calculation, now I am learning the basic work as a side by 10 years old"

"I was listening to the story but I am surprised to see it actually"

As Hartmut roared and said so, Leonore looked around the dining hall of the orphanage and nodded.

"Besides, it's a pretty beautiful place than I thought by rumors."

"Everyone is clean, so everything inside the temple is beautiful, because education is going on, children are well behaved."

I was boastful of laughing and laughing at orphans, Vilma laughed with a smile of a saint nicely.

"Rosemain has given us the present life, and we are very grateful to Rosemain,"

As soon as Vilma said that, Hartmuth began to learn a little.

"On the other hand, I would like to hear more about what Rosemain did in the temple ... .."

Hirutomut's momentum seemed surprised, and Vilma retired one step. When I look at it, I shy away from Vilma who is not good at men and faces Hartmut.

"Hartmut, I will not forgive him for impossible to Vilma at my orphanage"

When I opened the arms with Vilma behind me, "What is intangible ... .." Hartmut made a face that was distracted. Vilma who was watching such interaction laughs with couscous.

"Talking about the splendor of Mr. Hartmut, Rosemain, it will be very long. It seems that you do not have time today, so I will put it all together."

"Vilma!?"

"Oh, I am looking forward to the legend of the saint against the temple and orphans."

Hartmut began lively with the orange eyes shining.

..... I suppose I should have defended Vilma.

Why will Hartmut and Vilma start talking about the legend of a saint, as Mike spoke. I can not understand.

On the afternoon three days after civil apprenticeship and escort knight apprentice entered and leaves the temple, there are commitments between the Gilberto business, Printemps business and the guild manager. Hartmut, who was allowed to attend the discussion with the downtown, looked pleasant while heading to the orphanage headquarters.

"Rosemain, what kind of story do you speak with the merchant in the downtown?"

"The primary purpose is to listen to the situation of the downtown after the entrance of Caterpillar. In addition to that, we received items ordered from the Gilberta trading company, then Gutenberg and We talk about the place to go, and the guild length is about the acceptance of merchants in other territories. "

As Hartmut makes a note and watching Philine imitate its behavior, I will enter the Orphanage Office. Angelica stands at the door, and the guards inside are Damiel and Elder Cornelius. Leonore and Yudit are absent because of special training days.

When I entered the orphanage headquarters room where Monica and Nicola had prepared in advance, Philine, Cornelius elder brother and Hartmut looked around inside.

Well, Hartmut who looked around as she narrowed her eyes, turned to this place.

"I think that the furniture case does not match Rosemain sama ... ...."

That would be so. I heard that the former orphanage director was equivalent to an intermediate noble family. In other words, the furniture here is something that was in the middle class nobleman. It is too low for me in the commoner era when considering from the standpoint of the present owner of the lord.

"Because it is a room and furniture that I used when I did not know the status of my father, it is not a furniture that is suitable for the adopted lady of the lord, but now I bother to use it only to talk with the people in the downtown, You do not need to replace it? "

"I think that switching furniture is also effective in order to show Rosemain-sama's appearance to the people in the downtown area."

Hartmut says what is suitable as a lady's owner, but where does the money come from? Although I am not a thing to use everyday, I do not want to waste my time to waste it.

"Hartmut, people in the downtown meeting I see here knows my position, and for the common people it is a collective just by being a nobleman. When I change furniture I do not have to change the furniture that I do not use much If there is money, I use it for more important things, different things. "

"More important ..... Another thing, is not it?"

It seems that Hartmut is obsessed with making a room that is well-matched, so that "another thing" does not come to mind.

"If you buy a book, increase the number of printing presses, make it a cost to make a library, make it a development cost for a new bookshelf ... There are a lot of useful uses of money? If you want to make a new trend , It costs money to cultivate talent for research expenses, is not it more important than furniture? "

"Rosemain, it is very important for you to arrange an environment that is suitable for you as a nobility"

Brother Cornelius makes a grinning smile, and covers Hartmut. I nodded, being told that I could create a suitable environment for myself.

"I understand that I will make every effort to save the best and to purchase books one after another so that I can make a library that is appropriate for the owner of my lord"

"No, I have not talked about the library."

When talking to such Cornelius elder brother, Fran was preparing for tea and it came up to the second floor.

"Rosemain, everyone will arrive soon"

An arrival voice comes from Angelica to answer Fran's words, and the door can be opened. Gil rose up with everyone. Guild length, Frida and its side, Beno, Marc and Lutz, Otto, Turi and Teo are visible.

Looking at the number of Hartmut, Philiane and escort knights, the guild chief greeted with particular gratitude. After answering it I recommend a seat. It is only the three guys who sit down, the chief guild, Beno and Otto.

"After the lord conference is over, dealings start with central and Klassenburg as planned, we will give you an interview sheet to distinguish merchants." Hartmut

I call Hartmut and get me half of the mating paper that I gave to the center and Klassenburg. Black in the center and red in the Klassenburg, both of which are in the color of their respective territory. Thanks to Heidi who made the color ink, it was very easy to distinguish.

I cut the end of the fitting paper small and teach how to use.

"There is a nature that small pieces of paper gather on a large piece of paper on the mating paper, so please investigate whether the paper pieces brought in by the merchant are really getting closer, so that the size of the paper given to the merchant is made larger than this board, and Since it designates, it can not be divided into more than 8. naturally the number of merchants should be limited, too Because it is a violation if it is too small a piece of paper, there is no problem even if you do not trade. If there is something, I'll deal with it here. "

"Is it a magic tool that you can also use for commoners, this is saved"

The guild length carefully picks up the mating paper and hands it to the side. While listening at the end of sight, I heard the state of the downtown.

"How about the state of the downtown? Is it possible to maintain a shameful appearance even if a merchant in another territory enters?"

You should have been able to beautify the city with Entwickeln and Washen, but if you do not use the commoners living in ordinary lives carefully, they are the original trees. The guild chief slowly nodded my question.

"I was surprised to see what happens on the day when there was a notice and I was surprised by the commercial guild, looking down the central park from the window, I think suddenly a strange light emerged in the sky. At the next moment water like windows and doors came down. When water came in through the gaps between the windows and the door and leave the window, when you let it move, the water is already there. There was no trace, the street of the downtown and the lower part of the building became white color like the aristocratic city. Well, although we heard it beforehand, we are surely the power of the lord. That's awesome thing. "

..... It was not Veckkelun who did his best in adoptive father but Vachen who the priest executive did?

It seems that the impression was stronger for Vashen, who made the town cleaner at a stroke than Entwickeln who moved the basement which is hardly seen at all, but it is okay, well. It is no difference that the lords of the lords have worked hard to make the downtown clean.

"Since the notice from the commercial guild and the orders from the soldiers spread simultaneously, there were no people in the town, so I have not heard of anything particularly due to magic."

... It was good, I'm glad. It seems that no one drowned in Vashen or the heart stopped.

"Even in downtown, even if the windows and doors were closed, water entered the house, it seems there was also a place where the inside of the room became beautiful."

As Beno turned his eyes to Lutz, he said so. When I look up at Lutz in a curious way, "What happened?", Lutz diverted his eyes as if he was in trouble.

"My mother said that if the window was opened wide, the inside of the house became beautiful."

Aunt Carla opened the window large, a figure waiting for Waschen came to my mind, and I was about to laugh. If there is a sense of stability of Carla aunt, it seems not to be flushed to Vashen.

"Because that magic is a large thing, it is not something you can always do, so you can maintain a beautiful state?"

In my words, Turi narrows his eyes and smiles.

"That is already ... .... Because the soldiers including my father are turning carefully in the city, I can see the beautiful cityscape from the north to the south in the present Ehrenfest"

Apparently, it seems that having been able to talk with his father and soldiers at Hasse was not a waste. My father's hard work and I laugh.

"It was relieved, and what I felt uneasy is that merchants coming to Ehrenfest will increase from the remainder at the same time, but are lodging and meals enough?"

"For inns, it is not something that can be increased suddenly, especially because it is not so necessary to have a high-ranking accommodation so far so it is not enough for Ehrenfest. This year we will be honored at a big store, I am told that it is important to prepare for a merchant to stay at the hotel. "

As the merchant is restricted to some extent, the guild manager says the cooperation of the inn and the merchants seems to manage somehow. And it seems to use an Italian restaurant as a meal to welcome merchants from other territories. It is to extend the new dish of Ehrenfest to other territories at the lord's meeting and it may be just right.

"Mr. Rosemain, if time permits, please do not go to an Italian restaurant. When you can confirm with Rosemain who is a co-investor, whether there is no problem by welcoming merchants in other territory, I can relief. "

Frida, who is engaged in the management of the Italian restaurant, said that with a tone that was haki-haki. At the same time as confirming the new menu, it seems that there will be a lot difference in cooperation posture if there is one word to the main store's store.

"In addition to underwriting merchants in other territories at the same time, we often cooperate with the main shops of the large stores, such as fishing from other territories and dyeing, so it's OK to say a voice. Summer I will be busy after passing the prime, so I will spare time early and let's ask the Italian restaurant. "

"Excuse me, please enjoy the new menu"

Frida smiled happily.

"It will be after the permission of the priest owner took the permission of the priest owner on a detailed day, franc, will you know when you can afford it?"

"From now on until the adult ceremony in spring will be held or from the summer baptismal ceremony to the star ceremonial ritual until the end of the merchant's arrival, I will ask the chief priest to visit. "

"Well then, please do it."

And at the same time request the cooperation of the main our large store in the Italian restaurant, speaking to inspect the appearance of downtown, might be amused father like to come. Now that I thought so, I was with a start.

"Frida, but I think it's very, I also wonder if may ask cook of training? The following Aubu-Ehrenfest and want to increase the court cooks of the castle until the winter of your thoughts. Watakushi of recipes unless you can make a person a, because there is a risk of being pulled out will it be? how many people do not to force, not please grow a successor and who wish to now out of " cook in the lord conference not say no when the adoptive father like enough It was. If the withdrawal of the cook to make my recipes, attached an eye on the Italian restaurant is the best.

"I understand. I will deal with immediately,"

Frida, which tightens the facial expression, written plan immediately open the writing plate.

Chapter 361: Discussion with downtown

---

When I finished talking about the Italian restaurant, I turned my eyes from Frida to the people of Printemps. Perhaps Hartmut and Phyllin standing behind me on my left turned their eyes, Beno, Lutz and Mark correct their spines.

"We are talking about the printing industry at Plantin Shokai, it seems that the printing industry is preparing for Gresche"

"I did not think that Grecher is preparing the printing industry earlier than preparing the paper mill."

Beno gently spotted his eyes by saying so. However, when I say "It seems that Grecher is in close contact with Halden Zell, he seems to have cooperated," he nods several times as convinced.

"Unlike Haldenzell in Greschel, a paper production studio is also scheduled, not only for printing associations but also for the establishment of the Plant Paper Association."

When I told you, Mark and Rutz started writing on the dial.

In order to make time for writing, I look up at Gill standing next to me.

"Since there is a business trip to the paper manufacturing studio, Gil also decides who to put out from Rosemain's Studio, please prepare."

"Since the grouping has been completed as instructed by Rosemain, it is okay when it will be convened."

"Oh, it is truly my side, reliable thing"

When laughing and laughing and praising Gill, Gill raise the edge of her lip with a slightly good feeling. It would be a little more pleasure feeling if it was usual, but it seems to be difficult in this place where aristocrats increased.

"After this, you are going to move Gutenberg after you make the final confirmation by the civilian, whether you are really ready for Grecheel. Talk to Gutenberg as soon as you call it Please prepare .This year's move will also be scheduled to harvest festival."

"Certainly, how can I move this way?"

Beno glanced at me with a reddish brown eyes. I was told that it was difficult to travel the horse-drawn carriage and I was told by complaint that it was tough, so it must be said that "please give me a beast as much as possible". If it takes days to move, the cost will be many times such as food and accommodation expenses. I'd like to broaden the printing industry, so I will do my best to cooperate.

I will head there as Gruchere will be accompanied by Brünhild. There is nothing wrong with taking Gutenberg.

"Movement is done with my cock, please prepare for that."

"Sorry, that is very helpful."

Beno gave an acknowledgment as I was relieved. Then, looking backward, I gave an instruction that "... Lutz, pin prototype".

I nodded to Beno's words and took out the safety pin wrapped in cloth from the box that Lutz had in hand. And I will show it to me with a gracious attitude.

"Rosemain, this is Ansenpin, which was ordered. A work of Johan's disciple, Danilo. When I was satisfied with this prototype, I said that we will arrange the number of orders we ordered."

I picked up the safety pin that Lutz gave me, I looked around and looked around and checked the movements by attaching and removing pins. As I ordered, the safety pin is made up to fine details. It seems that Johan's disciples title is not Date.

"I am doing well, please tell Danilo to align the numbers on this street."

When I murmured, "May I give Danilo the title of Gutenberg?", Lutz slowly shook his head.

"If John got the title of Gutenberg as a disciple of Johan, Johann had said that it would not be a matter unless metal characters could be made."

"Truly original gutenbergs. It is tough to work. Please tell Danilo that you are looking forward to winning the exam as soon as possible"

As I laughed at Lutz and said so, Ruth also narrowed his eyes and nodded.

"Certainly, I will definitely tell you, then, although it is a fixed form of the format currently being created in Rosemain Studio, can this be a problem even if I start using it downtown first?"

It is a document for aligning the format so as not to be confused when a merchant from another territory came. As for usability, I got a report from Gill when I tried it at the Plantin Shokai. As soon as possible incorporate it into the commercial guild, before the other merchants arrive, the staff must get used to that form.

"I will not have any problems, I will buy a little as a sample and negotiate with my adopted father whether I can use it in the castle. What is the feeling I tried using Maruku, Printan Shokai? Did your work ease? "

"Just by completing the form of the document, the job has improved a lot."

When Marc deepened his smile, Ruth also nodded several times next to him. If it became easy at the Printan Shokai, it would be easy to incorporate it in commercial guilds.

"This time I have created a format for the merchants in other territories, but if it gets easier it would be okay to think about making other formats."

"If you use paper like that, I think that you can increase the number of papermaking stations to lower the price."

Beno's eyes can look out that it is better to lower the price as much as possible for them to use conveniently. I say "I am hasty," but I think Beno is quite a hurry when I gain my own benefit.

"Although it is decided that the number of papermaking stations will increase to expand the printing industry, how much you can increase will depend on the number of craftworkers who can dispatch, so it will be difficult to increase immediately."

"As Rosemain says, teaching how to make paper necessarily takes time, husband"

I went to Iranner and Halden Zell and breathed into Lutz 's words that he taught to local people, Beno slightly murmured, "I was so," and breathed out.

After laughing with Kusu, I will look to the people of the Gilberto Shokai from the Plantin Shokai. Otto, Turi and Teo. With a smile that Turi seemed happy about, he lifted the box he was holding a little. I silently lightly nods in a silent complaint saying "There is a hair ornament here."

"We have received contact with the summer's hair decoration, Tulei, will you show me?"

"Here it is, please have a look."

Tully gently takes out the box and opens the lid carefully. It turned out that Philene, who is behind me, took a little bit of interest as he seemed interesting.

In the box, I used two blues, the noble color of the summer, and two eyes caught my eye, two bigger flowers with beautiful gradations that gradually changed towards the petals. The surroundings of the flowers are surrounded by several kinds of leaves, and leaves can be seen which are similar to the yellow green that drips when it decorates. My hair is blue, so it is hard to make flowers based on blue. I can see that Turi thought of various things and invented it.

"How about you, Rosemain?"

It seems that Turi narrowing his eyes saying "You tried hard?" I staggered a little bit and turned my head to Turi.

"Would you try attaching?"

"Certainly yes"

Haltmut and Phyllie take a few steps down the space. Turi brought a hair ornament with a nervous tense face there. It removes the hair decorations that are on now and adds new hair ornaments. I found that the part of the drooping leaf shook faintly at the ear.

"Fine, what do you mean?"

Phyllene is the only woman 's aides in this place. As I talked to Phyllie, Turi tightly combined his hands in front of his chest. As always only I decided and decided to purchase, I found that Turli waiting for Phyllin 's response was terribly strained.

Philene looks into the hair ornaments, laughs softly after seeing from the side and from the side.

"Very beautiful, Rosemain-sama"

It seems that Turi was relieved to that word. I pulled out the power of my shoulders and turned into a happy smile. I had my hair ornament restored and I gently touched a new hair ornament while alternating between Turi and Otto.

"Well, let's buy a summer hair ornament here."

"Sorry, there is a proposal for costumes tailored to this hair ornaments. Turi who makes hair ornaments thought the original plan, how was Corinna a little reworked?"

That's what Otto showed me was the idea of a costume designed by Touil for the first time. Speaking of the luxurious version of the fine clothes that I was wearing in the baptism of my downtown, is it easy to understand?

It is a off-shoulder costume that it was adopted because it was well-reputed for balloon-type skirt that grips the hem, which was made for repairing in winter. The tuck of the chest seems to be using the race, it is a design that treats hair ornament and matching, but a little small flower on the chest. I liked the design with a nostalgic look at a glance.

"We invite you to the castle in the near future so please bring a candidate cloth so that you can order this. I like it, but if you do not listen to the opinions of mothers and side-staffs in order to formally order I will not. "

My costumes are highly likely to influence fashion, so I need to show it to my foster mothers and mothers. And it is also important how Richarda and Brünhild are putting their emphasis on selecting costumes. I'd like to make a prompt decision saying "I will buy it if Tuli's design," but the place I can not do is inconvenient.

"Sorry to keep you waiting."

Otto said so and smiled, Turi was good at laughing. I realized that Turi was desperately studying not only for hair ornaments but also for costumes, I was also very happy.

... ... Hang in there, TURI.

"And then, this is the hair ornaments I chose for Ella, I think that both will suit Ella, but I have never seen a cliff of Ella, do you know Rosemain?"

It was hair decorations of different colors, white and yellow, that Turi came out. It is a hair ornament that shakes a lot of small flowers and green leaves with different colors. To be honest, I have never seen a cloud of Ella. Because I was born in spring, I know only that it is based on the noble color green.

I found that Turei was choosing a diversity of hair decorations in green so that the green costumes in whatever shades would fit, so I chose a yellow flower that would suit Ella 's hair.

"I will do it here."

I will combine my guild card with Otto 's card and finish paying off Ella' s hair ornaments. My hair ornaments and costumes will be paid later as you have to pay the priest chief for the money.

"How about dyeing? Are craftsmen doing their best?"

"It is already ... .. It seems that every workshop wants to finish his usual work as soon as possible and want to make a little research time even a little."

Otto who went around looking at the workshop said so, Tully nodded several times. Dyeing people seem to be lively, especially desperately trying to master the young generation as a new technology.

"Rosemain, I have something to ask a little, is it OK?"

The guild leader opened his mouth after turning his eyes to Otto once.

"There was an offer from the Gilberta trading company to the dyeing-and-knitting association. Although it seems to host a large-scale dyestuff event at the proposal from Rosemain ..."

"Well, yes, I did not say the guild's length, I would rather increase the exclusive." I would like to see the fabric dyed to decide who to dedicate. "

Because I was not exclusive, I was told to decide exclusive other than Gutenberg, so I think if it is motivated by craftsmen, well, I do not mind. It is a dyed competition that has been decided by somehow, but it can not be stopped as mothers and foster mothers, Brunhilde are motivated.

The guild chief who made his remark narrowed his eyes slightly.

"I heard that Rosemain is hoping for a revival of old technology, but what about that?"

"Of course, I hope to be able to resurrect the old technologies that have been obsolete, is not it a single color fabric, is it not good to have various dyeing methods, I want diversity."

Frida standing behind the guild length who mourns as "diversity" while stroking his jaw saw me with a look like a funny child looking at a troubled child.

"I understand what Rosemain says, but the revival of old technology is not an easy thing, in the end of the summer it's not enough time."

"I do not say that I should reproduce the old technology as it is, I am only trying to make this winter costume with cloth using wax tanning. It is informed to the dye and woven association from the Gilberta trading company I think that it is up to the dyeing workshop and craftsman to decide how to use the technology. "

I have not thought that I can fully reproduce the craftsmanship of the past, as expected no more than half a year. Because it gives hints, it is good that they create new technology.

"I think that it is good to review again because there was a lot of technology at Ehrenfest, and if possible, this time the dyeing-and-knitting association thinks that the technique of dyeing is preserved so that it can write down how to dye it I am happy if you give it. "

"Preserve the technology? You also tell us something interesting"

Frida blinks his eyes and the guild's length slowly breathes.

"Well, whatever happens, will you hold it at the end of the summer?"

I know that other merchants come and will not do troublesome events when they may be in a state of confusion never before but I can not do anything about this.

"It's easy to postpone if it's only for my events, but now I am obliged to report on anything, as a result of reporting to the castle about the events related to dyes, I started my foster mother, advanced senior Several aristocrats are interested and it is not easy to stop them. "

A big eyes wide open so that the eye ball seemed to pop out, everyone saw me. I feel like writing "I have not heard" on Beno's face.

"... .... Starting with Mrs. Ladder, there are several senior nobles, what is it, it seems to be unexpected scale"

"I feel that things are getting bigger than my expectations, but I can not stop what I started once."

The guild's head slowly breathed out with a bogey face saying "My head hurts," and Benno who was unreasonably swayed by his mother in printing was a little far away.

"Things have grown, but if you change your viewpoint, it will be a good opportunity for us not only to myself but also to other aristocrats, so that craftsmen will be motivated not to see them alone There are ten preferences if there are ten people. "

If you shape it like a tasting society of Katarukaru to vote for things you like, I think that many craftworkers will be in the limelight and catch exclusives.

"The guild chief who must grasp the trends of various associations will be serious but I think that it would be better for him to do his utmost to deal with the merchants in other territories, leaving some to the dye and wallet association Regarding Yomiuri, we will talk with foster mothers and we will contact the chairman of the guild director and the dye and wallet association through the Gilberto trading company as soon as details are decided, such as the location and timing of the event, "

As long as possible, the guild's length also pushed the work without embracing it, sacrificing, the discussion of this time is over.

I sent off to everyone, and I returned to the temple room. I still have time until the 6 bells of dinner, so I would like to make a manuscript of the book I borrowed to Hannellore. When I asked Fran, I was preparing paper and ink, Hult mouth muttered while watching me.

"Rosemain is quite close to the people of the downtown, all of us possessed a letter board"

"For the commoners who can not use the paper expensive and cheap, the writing board is very useful, so I can also erase it I think that it is spreading from downtown Gutenberg to downtown ... ... who can write letters Although it will be small, the range of spreading will not be so wide, though. "

I gave to the gray priests heading for the small temple of Hasse ... and saying, ... Hartmut's face seems to be very bad.

"If you want a letter board also by Hartmut, would you like to introduce the Plantin Shokai?"

"No, I would like to be given away from Rosemain, if it is a thing given to the temple's side and Gutenberg, is not it like a proof of Rosemain's trust?"

As I told you, I remembered that there was no such thing as this on the noblemen 's aides.

"... I do not know how much there are those who are pleased when they receive a letter board, and another thing might be better if I give them to the aides. Also ask the priest chief and think about something Let's look"

Hartmut's eyes narrow down gladly. Although it is runaway in a strange direction in the legend of a saint, Hartmut is excellent, it is a fact that is saved. As a praise to Gill if you do the work, you will have to praise the aides closely.

If you give a necessary thing to the side streets of the downtown and the temple, or if you praise it with words, you can communicate, but to be honest, the nobles are not well understood.

I looked around my aides in the room.

"How do you feel that aristocrats are praised?"

"I want a magical power of Rosemain sama!"

"Is not that banned by Ferdinand?"

Angelica answered first, but Daniel and Cornelius brother who knew the moment when Stin Luke was born immediately rejected.

"I will decide how much credit and what it is right to give, I will decide after asking the chief priest. When I decide on my own, I will be scolded again."

In my words Cornelius elder brother "is important, because Ferdinand's sermon is long," he laughed.

"I would be delighted with whatever you like Rosemain sama."

I wanted to give anything to Phylina saying such a cute thing.

... Yeah, you must ask the chief priest properly. If you give anything to your mood, you will get angry.

While I was doing such a story, the manuscript seems to be ready. Me and Phyllene will copy the book borrowed by Hannaore from scratch. Phylina remains as the original, while I fix it with the current word.

"..... This book is difficult as a phrase is old, why can Rosemain read like a slurre so much?"

"I was familiar with the original book because it was a scripture and half of the books in the temple was an old phrase, so this manuscript is good for Phylline."

"I will do my best"

In the side of me and Phylline manuscripts, Hartmut, who is writing something by myself, came into my eyes.

"What is Hartmut doing?"

"I'm progressing my research, because new facts have been found in various ways"

... .. Is it, perhaps my research? stop!

When I tried to stop, did you see it, Hartmut put a pen and saw me. Because it was a serious face, I stopped the hand which I stretched unexpectedly.

"Even so, I was surprised that Rosemain did not think that such discussion was with the commoner."

Discussion with the commoner is basically the way the aristocrat orders and ends. For Hartmut who worked as a civilian apprentice with other civilian officials, the commoner came to the audience room and seems to have been silent to listen to the order.

"In the castle it is not even a lower aristocrat to make a listening or reporting like that"
"I am in trouble with that way, I think the aristocrat may be more concerned about the lower one."

Philene of the lower aristocrat looked at me pleasantly, but the senior aristocracy, Hartmut who is fundamentally concerned about has a face like not having a pin. I gently shrugged my shoulders.

"Even aristocrats that produce trends are commoners who produce that product, so if you want to spread the epidemic that you have made to other territories, collaboration with the commoner is indispensable. From there, Ehrenfest will always be a subordinate territory, surely "

"Is that so?"

"If aristocrats are thinking about trends and they are made by commoners, aristocrats are the heads of thinking, the commoners are like arms and legs? If they do not do excessive instruction and crush the commoners, Will not you be able to move yourself this time? "

Hartmut thinks quietly in my words.

"The people who met at today's meeting, including Gutenberg, are like my limbs, unless they were there, they could not plant paper, neither Catholic, Carta nor cards were born. It is also a commoner to cook and make sweets. I am just thinking and it is that they actually went about anything. Therefore it is for me to destroy Gutenberg for other nobles, It is equal to being crushed by limbs. "

..... So, no matter what happens, I will not allow extra handouts.

When I smile with Nicolas with such a meaning, Hartmut seems to have read the meaning securely. "Certainly, I will do my best to keep criminals from crushing Rosemain's hands and feet," and returned a smile.

"If civil servants do not align footprints with the commoner, it would be good if we could know that no significant development could be expected, but it is difficult to change the staring idea."

When I gently sigh, I agree with Hartmut 's surely that's right.

Chapter 362: Let's go to an Italian restaurant

---

The next day, I left a report to the priest concerning the meeting to the franc and stayed in the temple.

After having breakfast and calling Ella, if you give hair ornaments, "I am celebrating my wedding", I was cried so much, I was practicing Rosina and Fespiel, and I was admired by Phyllene who came to the temple, dedicated When I was practicing Mai, Hartmut asked me that "Does not the blessing come out in the donkei dance?" Or as usual, it was a little different time than usual.

When the bell of 3 rings, I will accompany the civil apprentice apprentice and the escort knight and go to the chief priest's office to help. The chief priest who assigned work to the aides other than Angelica who defends in front of the door called me.

"I received a report from Rosemain, Franc. Would you like to go back to the castle to change costumes?"

"Because it's a summer costume, if you do not rush you will end the summer when you are done, and we also have to talk about mothers' dyed events."

"Well, it will be nice, then, to go to an Italian restaurant to speak to the merchants in the downtown ... .. that it is dangerous to let you go uncontrollable, and the downtown after Entwickeln Because I am concerned about the situation, I will accompany it. "

"Do not you just want the chief priest to eat a new menu?"

Through Tod, we do not teach anything other than the recipe that the priest chief purchased. I heard from Zea that it seems that the president chef's exclusive chef is devising various new ideas and challenging the new menu, but the menu of the Italian restaurant must be worrisome.

In my words, the priest chief lightly raised one eyebrow, but did not answer anything, but by not doing so, I can understand the answer.

"It is a matter for me to go, but keep silent on Jilvester, if you let it out for a while, it will definitely come up and it's a big uproar."

"I think that the motivation of the merchants will rise with Gun if the lord himself calls out ...."

"Will you go by the adult ceremony of spring? Because now we are doing a stacked work that is unusual, we should not disturb you."

The chief priest seems to want to stop adoptive father's visit anyway. When the adoptive father comes, things grow big, so basically agree with being silent.

"Whether or not to replace the furniture of the orphanage headquarters room ..."

Franc seems to have reported the words of Mr. Hartmut. When I thought that I do not like wasting money, the priest chief said "The orphanage headquarters should stay as it is".

When calling a civilian from the castle, when meeting, it seems that you will use a room in the aristocratic area which is close to the main entrance. It was the priest's word that it was not possible to call the aristocratic civilian to the orphanage.

"Besides, I do not know what kind of contacts the blue priests will come to the nobles coming to the temple, I will not allow civilian access only to the reach of my eyes."

"If you do not need to change furniture, that's fine."

"Oh, in that room, too, there are furniture left without taking over, which was used by the former temple, so I will use them."

When I was nodding that a mottainai spirit was important, the chief priest lightly shrugged his shoulders.

"However, remember that you must prepare furniture that is appropriate for your case around you as a lady of a lord."

To me who answered, I was told by the chief priest, "I will prepare next time will be at the time of marriage." It is still a story before.

"The chief priest is an additional question, but what should I give to the award to the aideside? I, I give the writing board and the clothes to the side of the temple and Gutenberg When the orphanage staff work hard, they add desserts and try adding one item, but I can not think of things to give to the nobility's aides. "

For girls, hair ornaments of different colors or new work Lincshan may be good, and a new dyed fabric made from now may be good. But I can not think of anything to give to a boy.

"As long as you work for rewards, you will not need rewards as long as you do not make a good deal"

It is said that I am most important to the Lord because I have the honor of the aides of the lords.

But ... I think I can make a lot of difference from the temples' servants.

"What kind of reward will you give if you have succeeded?"

"It is a thing with a coat of arms ... .. It is not something to pass freely, so be sure to consult the surroundings whenever you want to give it."

"understood"

And after helping up to the 4 bells, after finishing lunch I wrote a letter to Futada of Otomar Shokai.

Although I got permission to go to an Italian restaurant, I write down that the guardian of the priest chief accompanying him, accompanying the escort knight with one of the two, the information about other guests sitting together. After returning from the castle, I decided to designate a convenient day for Frida in a period from five days to three days before the adult ceremony of spring, so that it will be fine even if I lose physical condition.

"Gil, please deliver this to Otomar Shokai"

"Certainly yes"

If you ask Gill for a letter, I will return to the castle with my aides.

I told Richarda that Gilberta Shokai is planning to customize costumes, I was delighted with great pleasure.

"Oh well! Is not it the first time the princess tried to customize costumes from himself?"

Regarding costumes, leaving it to the side, basically it is in the state of "anything is OK", so it seems Richarda is glad that I showed interest in costumes.

"Please also speak to Florentia and Elvira, let's customize costumes."

I was sleeping for two years, I changed my skirt length when I was ten years old, even if my body is not growing, I do not have clothes. In order to ask the tailoring at once, in addition to the Gilberto trader, we also called foster mothers and their mothers' exclusive needles.

Two days later, Yoshiko was called and orders for costumes began. It seems that foster mothers, mothers and Charlotte will choose costumes together. When I notice it, I heard that I had to put out my hands on dyes, and I have to monitor well, whether suddenly it will create strange fashions. It seems that it is not enough in the after report.

.....sorry. Just because I came up with a bit of it did not mean I was bad.

On the day, Karinna, a few hands of the Gilberta trading company came, but there is no figure of Turi there. I am trying hard by learning behaviors, but it does not seem to be able to go up to the castle yet.

Regrettably with that, I pointed to the design of Turi that Corinna spread out, appealed to foster mothers that they want this costume. As the balloon of the skirt I used in winter was cute, and as she bothers me, foster mothers, mothers and Charlotte look into the design and start making corrections one after another.

"I want a little more decoration around here, a little lonely feeling"

"This may be a flower decoration on the chest, is not it better to make the flower decoration of the skirt a little big?"

"What color is best for color? It's summer and, in the future, it will be blue."

"I think that light blue is good so that your older sister's hair color will shine. Well let's use a lot of white lace and it will look cool."

Like aristocracy, I decided to use more cloth and lace more, but I breathe a relief with a relief that the basic design passed through. It was good not to be dismissed.

When the order of a cool, light blue costume that Tuuli designed, finished, other side workers began selecting the design. Here Brunhild is very tight, Richarda and the two of us, not ah, there is no such thing seriously choosing the design.

I saw that the Rizerator turning tea to foster mothers did not come close to the costumes, I tilted my head.

"Rieselator does not make much opinion, is not he interested in costumes?"

"I am waiting for tailoring of winter costumes, showing a little connection to Rosemain's costume and Schwarz's costumes."

In the winter, I will not give up, said the Risellerter who smiled happily. Even though it is all with Schwarzs, it is quietly burning the ambition that one clothing that resembles the atmosphere is made, even if it does not go out.

... .. Because it looks like fun, well, is it okay?

By the way, it is a staining event to be held at the end of summer or at the beginning of autumn, but where shall we hold it? "

I turned my eyes toward foster mothers and mothers while drinking the tea that the leisator had brewed. If only I saw the dyed cloth it was quick to call a craftsman to the temple, but at the time the foster mothers and mothers participated, the hostel in the temple disappeared. It is safe to do it at the castle, but it is difficult to put the craftsmen into the castle.

"Because it invites lots of aristocrats, it's a castle, is not it?"

"Do you put craftsmen into the castle?"

When I blinked at the opinion of my foster mother, my eyes watched as my mother surprised me.

"Why is not it possible to put a craftsman into the castle? Because we are holding a tea ceremony while evaluating the cloth of a new trendy dyed fabric, is not it ugly if craftsmen in downtown come and go?"

..... Certainly, even Turi will not be raised to the castle. It is impossible for craftsmen who do not receive any education of behavior manners.

If a craftworker at the dyeing workshop comes, I thought I could meet my mother, but the reality is not so sweet.

As a result of discussing various things, Gilberta Shokai gets clothes from the dyeing workshop. And we decided to decorate the name of each workshop and the dyed fabric at the side of the wall and we decided to vote for your favorite cloth while enjoying the tea ceremony and to nominate my favorite workshop.

After finishing doing at the castle, I will return to the temple. Today there are trainees' training, so only escort knights accompany Darmel and Angelica. Philyne has a blue face from now that civilian civilian civilian exercises are held in the Order after three days. It seems that my grandfather's anger alone will make my head pure white and I can not move it.

"If you actually receive an attack, angry will also fly and attacks from enemies will also fly, so if you are waving up, you are dangerous, because Filines is escaping from danger, please do a firm training "

While talking about such a thing, I will write a letter about the dyeing competition. We have to inform the guild general and the Gilberta business and dye and woven association.

Hartmut watched the letter and narrowed his eyes.

"Rosemain says quite a lot of details to the commoner's opponent,"

"Yeah ... By describing what the aristocratic wanted in an easy-to-understand manner, we reduce the mistakes between the two as much as possible, and if you give the information, you will get around well."

I handed out the letter I wrote to Hartmut and have two letters written in the same sentence. One must be the guild general, one to the Gilberto trading company, one to the dye and woven association.

As Hartmut copied the letter and Philline made a manuscript of Hannellore's book, I looked over the reply from Frida. In the text used to writing to nobles, beautiful letters are found spelled out that they practiced repeatedly.

It's quite a lot of thick letters, along with the name of the customer to accompany, the name of the shop to which they belong, and the store that deals with something. Detailed information was written about those who have the most introductions, frequently used people and recent profits.

It was written the date for the Italian restaurant. Five days later. At the same time, the chief priest and something I can not eat, we do not have any questions. It seems that I'm still glad if I know the taste.

"Do you know anything weak, frank, zam, or priest chief can not eat? Then, if there are things you like to eat, please tell me"

"I do not think anything that I am not good enough to eat, because I will say whatever was put out."

"It seems to like the soup ingested at an Italian restaurant the most, I have heard that the taste of Fugo that the president may desire can not be brought out to the chef's exclusive chef."

They taught us the information obtained on the side-by-side network. I think that, while I note it. I will write a recipe as I am impatient.

I write things and preferences that I do not like Frida, I enclose the recipe of Panna cotta and the gelatin I made when making glue by covering it in paper.

..... When you come to a new recipe, you might want to sell gelatin and make it from now.

"Please ask Zill to Gil to deliver this to Otomar Shokai, and please let us know the date and time to the president officer."

"Certainly yes"

I entrust letters to Frida and ask Zam to inform the chief priest of the date and time to talk about preparations towards an Italian restaurant with Fran.

"Since the escort knight comes out from the temple and enters the downtown, it will be decided by Damuel and Angelica? How will you do the side work? Because it is heading downtown, it is hard to say that it comes to the side of the castle."

"I will accompany you, I have visited once, and I also know what to prepare"

It seems no need to worry if you leave it to the franc. I nodded with Kokuri, I acknowledged.

And that day. By the time the fourth bell rang, a fleet of carriages that took time was sent from Frida to allow him to arrive at the shop. One carriage of a slightly old type and one newest carriage are the latest.

Rojina playing the gray priest 's sidework and instruments, which has tableware and prepares for serving in various ways, got into an old type chariot and headed for an Italian restaurant.

I will see off the carriage with the side and Rosina on departure, and I and Angelica, the chief priest and Justoks will be on the shiny new carriage. The surrounding of the carriage was to be escorted by Damuel and Eckhardt brother.

"Why does Justozkus say that you are going to use the temple's side for serving?"

"This time it's a substitute escort, Rosemain Princess"

According to Justochs, even though the priest leader has been besought, he seems to have not put people in the surroundings much outside the castle. Because there was no escort knight heading for Shimomachi this time, it seems that Justoks is supposed to accompany him to match his head count.

"Justice, because I want to go, I did not contact the knights, and it's different that few knights want to go downtown."

"Because we have few knights who wish to go to the shrine and downtown from the usual day, we made a lot of attention, because we are going to put in stores that we can not enter without any introduction for downtown rich people, we have to take care of this opportunity not"

By refusing a glance, it seems that high - end meal in downtown is not easy to enter even in Justkus. As a senior aristocrat Yusutoku can not head to downtown and when disguised as a downtown disguise without discomfort, this time it was said that association and power will not be enough to be introduced from the store merchants.

... .. It can be a pretty awesome system to refuse Yusukuson from shutting out at first glance.

When I am impressed, the carriage starts to move. The chief priest watched inside the horse-drawn carriage with a little bit of brows.

"Is the shake quite low?"

"This is a carriage that I proposed and the Zach of Gutenberg was a newly designed carriage, it seems that the guild chiefs took in it quickly"

When I am proud of that Zach is amazing, the chief priest became a very difficult face.

"I thought that Gutenberg was a person involved in the printing industry, but would you design a carriage?"

"It is a craftsmen at the smithing workshop, not just in the printing industry, it is Zack who made the pump, have you met the priest chief?"

"... .... Ah, that craftworker, I thought Gutenberg was busy expanding the printing industry, but can not afford to be able to develop this kind of thing?"

I shrugged my shoulders on the word of the priest.

"I can not afford it, but if I do not do other jobs that involve the city, the connection with the patron will end,"

"The craftsman of downtown is also troublesome a lot."

Until now, leaving the gate, the road was dirty and dirty, there was a bad smell, but thanks to Entwickeln and Washen, the downtown was reborn.

Like the aristocracy street there is a white road and a white building is continuing up to the second floor. There is a wooden building on top of it, but it seems that the entire city has been reborn, as it seems to be beautiful at Washen.

"It is amazing, is not it?"

"... If this is the case, it would not be unsightly for the merchants in other territories to see it."

The chief priest also seemed satisfied, looking around the downtown. Depending on the behavior of the residents of the downtown, I was worried that they could soon get dirty, apparently it seems that they are still able to maintain beauty.

It is probably the result of my father's hard work.

The beautiful cityscape looked like a totally different place from the downtown I knew and arrived in front of an Italian restaurant while looking around with a little restless mood.

It seems that everyone is already waiting. When the door was opened by an employee of an Italian restaurant, I saw the owner of a large shop more than twenty strong kneeling kneeling in the hall just passed through the door. There, there are figures of guild director, Beno, Otto.

The guild director says a long greeting to the nobility, and we are guided to the dining room. Square square tables were lined up in rows, and places for eating in large numbers were prepared.

Me and the chief priest seem to be preparing seats at the back, so you can see the francs arriving earlier waiting in the back. Rosina was also in the back, already playing with Fespiel.

"Rosemain is here"

In the soft performance, I received a guide from Frida, I headed to the seat. Daniel protected the door, Angelica was to stand by me. At the head of the priest, Justoks stands in front of the door, and seems to be behind the chief priest Ekhart.

In my seat, the cushion that I love in the temple is already on the chair and I understood it at a glance. While watching the height is being adjusted, I will have you sit down by the franc. Dishes were already prepared on the table.

Me and the chief priest sit with the seat next to the short side of the long rectangle, near the familiar face such as the guild length, Beno, Otto etc. are lined up. The shopkeepers who are contributing to sales at the Italian restaurant and shopkeepers who are in cooperation with the Beno line line up, and the more seats the longer it is, the more I will become the shopkeeper who is not familiar with me.

..... Rather than being surrounded by unknown people, I feel relieved that it is easier for people who have a face to know nearby, so I feel relieved.

I turned my eyes to Beno and Otto and laughed a bit.

"Thank you for gathering today and I'm asking from Frida who is in charge of management that everyone loves this store."

I mentioned the words of gratitude, citing the names of those who frequently use and those who have a lot of referrals. It is appealing to say that you are also putting emphasis on Italian restaurants.

The shopkeepers who seemed to have thought that they would not be appreciated by name were surprised at their eyes and laughed proudly. That being remembered by the owner of the lord is to show others that one step closer to the favorite of the future.

"Because it is because we have asked everyone of the large stores representing Ehrenfest to bother collecting,"

While I say so, I look around everyone. The shopkeeper at the end and the furthest away is hard to see the face, but I found out that I was paying attention to it.

"Ehrenfest is entering a big turning point"

I tell the fact that the epidemic of Ehrenfest has spread to other territory through the aristocrat, although we restrict it for the time being, many merchants from other territory will visit.

"Above-Ehrenfest thinks that he wishes to strengthen the influence on other territories with this, in order to do that, everyone's cooperation is necessary."

In order to welcome the merchants in other territories, I mentioned that large-scale magic was done and explained that keeping that cityscape depends on the commoners of the downtown.

When you look at the glimpse of the bishop, he gently lightly nods "Please continue as it is".

"The city of Ehrenfest, which has never accepted many merchants so far, will be confused by the visits of a large number of merchants. The lack of high-class lodging is already in Gustaf We have been pointed out more. "

Everyone nodded in my words. The shopkeeper 's voice saying "There may be two more lodgings in next year, but this year will not make it in time" also arrives.

"We will ask merchants' hospitality to everyone, please listen to various stories about other cities, you can change the acceptance of merchants by that information. The cooperation of aristocracy If necessary, I will cooperate as much as I can, as long as collecting information to a commercial guild, I will think even here. "

There are many shopkeepers who are surprised because they do not show cooperative attitude from the aristocracy side, but unless you do motivate here, trading with other territory will not be successful, everyone at Ehrenfest will be in trouble . Lords, nobility and commoners are all.

"Then, at the end of the summer, we decided that two brides from Ahrensbach will come, perhaps it will increase the number of hurried work to welcome them."

In order for new furniture tailors and feasts to be held, a lot of ingredients are needed, and more people are looking for costumes and ornaments. Although aristocratic marriage has economic effect, it will be tough as it will increase work as he is busy.

"And at the beginning of autumn a new event is also planned, this is done mainly by Dye Woven Association and Gilberto Shokai, but it will be an event involving a number of senior aristocrats, including the lady lady, I will decide my exclusive duties, equal to printing Gutenberg and will give the craftworker a title on clothing, so I would like people in the stores involved in clothing to cooperate as much as possible. "

Sizzle and the atmosphere inside the store changes. Otto is sitting with a full face while voice rises, "What if it is a new title?"

Frida who caught a break in the story came up and said, "Shall I take a meal?"

Employees carrying meals begin to enter and go out and drinks are poured. It was a juice smelled a little sweet by Fran Français.

After that, the appetizer Furan had served on the plate was a potsey, cheese and herbal capresase and a pottery of flower vegetables such as broccoli and cauliflower. According to Frida's explanation, it seems that flower vegetables are cooked thoroughly with consommé once and then baked with junior. If you eat, you can enjoy a rich flavor of soup.

Waiting for everyone to have drinks and meals, the priest leader stands up.

"God bless us as thousands and tens of thousands of lives as our foods, Supreme God who controls the expanse of the sky, the five great pillars of the Great Earth, widely administering the Hirohiro Earth, appreciation and prayers for the gods, Let's eat"

Chapter 363: Evolution cuisine

---

I decided to eat it from Capdeze, Pome, Cheese and Herb.

I should have taught in Fugo that both slices of pome and cheese are to be pinched, but in this case the contents of a small pome cut in half were hollowed out and carved in a soft cream cheese Herbs are mixed and served in pome.

..... This may be difficult to eat. After putting a knife, the pome seems to collapse.

Be careful not to get soiled and put a knife and I swallowed pork and cheese in my mouth. The taste of a little sweet pome, a little salty cheese complements, the fragrance of herbs smells swiftly in the mouth.

Ah, it's delicious.

The texture when you eat is better than the Caprese sliced in and I am lightly astonished. It seemed to me that the inquisitive spirit of the cook who struggled to make a delicious thing even a little was visible.

Even the chief priest owner eaten it, narrowing his eyes a little.

"I think it looks more delicious than what is served at the temple ... .."

"It will be a difference in inquiry towards cuisine, I think that the ingredients used are the same, but the mouth feel and the texture changes slightly, which makes it a distinctly different taste. In the two years in which I was sleeping , It seems that cooking is progressing, so it is encouraging even if other merchants come. "

Next I put the pottery of flower vegetables in my mouth. Unlike the crisp and crisp surface, the fire is soft and soft inside. When chewing, the soup of the consomme spreads in the mouth. Even though I feel like eating broccoli in soup, it feels strange as a pottery.

... ... Do you like the consommé's favorite priest chief?

When I heard the reaction next door, I was almost blunt, but my eyes were slightly lifted and I saw the lip end rising. From that situation, you can see that you have a sense of taste. It seems that the chief priest pretty much liked it.

"This pottery seems to be applicable not only to flower vegetables but also to other vegetables, it seems to be eating soup in the form of vegetables"

"This is the menu devised by the cook of our house"

The guild chief said so.

I was keen on cooking research, I remembered the existence of Ilsee who seemed to cook dish with Fugo, and I saw the guild manager.

"Is Ilze doing research on cooking? I was surprised to be delicious more than two years ago."

"Yes, once I was defeated by an exclusive chef such as Rosemain, I was inspired and today I am specially in the kitchen, it seems I wanted to eat Rosemain by all means"

While the guild chief said that, he turned his eyes towards the kitchen. It seems that Ilze struggles for me.

Even if I do not pass the recipe quickly, new menus are born one after another due to the trial and error of Fugo, Ela, Nicola and Ilze. For me who wanted to spread delicious things, I am very happy.

"Ilze makes a new recipe immediate as well, so I can have a good impression on that dedicated enthusiasm."

"I received a report that I got a new ingredient and recipe a few days ago from Rosemain's Day, which seems to be unfortunately not in time for the dessert of the day. I thought that we had a rare texture and a good taste. It seems that it was not acceptable for cooks. "

According to the guild length, Panna cotta prototype was made but Ilze seems not to be as good as it could be for today's dinner.

"Mr. Rosemain, what is that new ingredient? Ilze said that I want to get it more, but I do not have any idea what it is like."

When making glue, it is gelatin which cuts out only the part with the highest transparency, cooks it like a consomme, took out scum and lye, and filters it. When making glue, you can do a little if you think to make it. With this, cuisine and sweets will range in width.

"About that, I will sell recipe to Frida this time"

The surrounding shop owner lifted their faces at once. Beno gets a reddish-brown eye on the other side of the guild's head with rounded eyes.

"Do you sell recipe to Frida?"

"Well, for two years when I was sleeping, I kept this Italian restaurant firmly, thus refining the dishes and selling the recipe as a reward ... .. I will teach it for free There is not it "

..... Because even the right to cook can be sold to Mr. Beno, is not it?

It is too busy to have a business trip every year to spread the printing industry and the paper industry with the full work of the Printemps business. I heard that Italian restaurants can not afford to handle almost anything, leaving it to Frida.

I am a co-investor, I got a part of the profit because the customer comes only by name, but to be honest, I give money first and teach the recipe I have not done anything. Regarding recipes, those who hand over to Frida should be able to make effective use.

..... Besides, Otomar Shokai had prepared a lot of kettle curls to compete against the territory, and he was doing a lot of unreasonable pretense for the guild chief. It's good?

I know that it is not good to give recipe at a low price. Even without worrying, I told Beno that I would take a proper price properly, but Beno lowered the end of his lips looking a little unlikely.

When I was inclining my head, what would not you like, "Rosemain" and the chief priest quietly called me.

"It is okay to give a reward to those who have kept Italian restaurants for the past two years as they are sleeping and who have gained further studies, but we should do our utmost to expand the printing industry, Did you give a reward? "

".....Ah"

After waking up, I just wanted to spread it in a hurry, but in the style of reward I taught Gilberto Shokai a new dyeing technique. Since I taught to the dyeing-and-knit association at a low price, there is little profit to enter the Gilberta business as money, but by hosting a dyed competition, I can sell my name to aristocracy and expand influence.

However, Gutenberg started out with the Plantin Shogun, but did not give anything special.

..... I do not have the idea of a new product so I can tell Frida how to make gelatin.

While looking at Marc who served with Beno, I put my hands on my cheek and tilted my head.

"There are a variety of stationery that I would like you to make with paper products, and if you want it, it is good to sell rights and manufacturing methods, but I do not want to sell new rights and product proposals In other words, Planetan Shokai and Gutenberg are reaching out to reach, and they are getting more busy, are they really wanting? "

For a moment, Beno got stuck in words a bit, Marc diverted his eyes. But Beno nods with a smile like a merchant immediately.

"If you are a recipe or right that Rosemain says, I will do whatever it takes"

No matter how busy he is, he seems to get all rights on the printing industry and paper. "It will not be possible to pass on to others, this fool" and the red-brown eyes say. If you want to embrace further work, you do not mind separating, but first of all, business trip to Grechell is ahead.

"Well, let's talk again later ... .. Since my work settled down a bit."

"Thank you for your thoughtfulness"

Once the settlement arrives, the chief priest overlooking me meaningfully, lifting the edge of the nipples and lips.

"Hmm, it seems that a reasonable reward has been given to those who have worked for the two years in which you were sleeping, such as the Plantin Shokai, Gilberta Shokai, Otomar Shokai, and so on"

..... It is also to move to yourself. I understand.

The priest chief is indebted not only during my sleep but now also in many ways. Even if I do not make such a roundabout way of saying I want to say "I want", I usually do not know because I have a face that is not interested at all.

"Because we take care of Mr. Ferdinand very much, if there is something I want, I'm willing to give it up, but is there anything I can give you?"

"It's a recipe that your cooks make, which is increasing a lot?"

There is no doubt that I am indebted to the priest chief, and considering cooperation with the materials of recovery medicine and Schwarzs, I can not imagine that the recipe can be very balanced, but for the priest leader I will There is no problem at all.

"Okay, I will give you the recipe that Fugo knows, but I will sell it as a collection of recipes, so it's a secret to anyone else."

"know"

The soup was brought before the chief priest who seemed to be in a good mood, with the thing you wanted.

Frida will come to the immediate vicinity to explain to me and the chief priest.

..... Frida also got bigger.

It was a meeting across the table, and it was a growing tuli who came with me, so I did not recognize it well, but when I look at Frida who stood by my side, I have grown quite a lot I found out.

When I just met, I could not grow because I was eating, so it was Frida, which was smaller than the average, but it looks like it looks like a year anymore.

I wonder if I will grow soon.

I compare my hands on the table with the hands of Frida who has the paper for explanation, and I gently sigh.

"Today's soup is a double consommé"

It seems that the cook of the temple is slightly inferior to the fugo, but it is delicious, but the president of the priest seems somewhat unsatisfactory. Something that we taught from Zaum and Fran Francophone says that the soup made me a double consommé of my favorite priest.

"We heard that Ferdinand was conscientiously consomme of Hugo, it is a consommé that the chef made carefully carefully and carefully burning fighting spirit, making fugose not to be defeated by Fugo. Please do. "

It seems to be a double consommé of Illse's whole body. It seems that he made politely, politely, that he would not lose to Hugo.

An amber soup is poured into the dish. The smell like throat squeezing from the soup being pouring spreads out around, and it seems that deliciousness spreads in the mouth already just by its smell. It was clear enough to see the bottom, it was not cloudy, the color was dense, I understood at a glance that it was truly carefully made. Put a spoon and drink a bite, the various sorts of vegetables and meat umami are condensed and the confined soup flows into the mouth.

"... Ferdinand, is this consomme beautiful?"

When I asked the chief priest, the chief priest owed a soft smile unusually, not a make-up, to his mouth.

"Oh, it is really beautiful, it is more complex than the taste in my memory, but it has a coherent taste ... .... That's right, just by changing the quality of the material when making a recovery drug It seems that the process has been reviewed, and not only the material to be put in, it can be said that something has changed fundamentally. "

..... Even if such a thing is said, I do not understand.

She told me more about the difficulty of reviewing the course as well as the beauty of when I succeeded and succeeded, but I can not understand it at all.

..... Well, it seems it was delicious.

It would be fine if you were satisfied that the priest chief was beautiful. As I thought, Frida was staring at him as if he was surprised.

"I was surprised, as Ferdinand says, because cooked foods taste a bit, the chefs were desperately thinking about how to catch and filter the lye instead of using egg white. I have no difference I felt it, but I understand to those who understand, cooks will be pleased as well. "

..... The chief priest who senses a slight difference is amazing, but Ilze who made it is too amazing.

Huh, and I sigh of admiration.

Even so, the chief priest owner often has a sensitive tongue, so that he can make medicine that is so tasteless. I am surprised in that sense as well.

"This is Carbonara"

What came out after the soup was carbonara. Egg yolks in rich cream creates a slightly yellowish cream sauce with baked bacon with coloring.

If you wrap it around the fork, extra sauce will come down. While feeling the stickiness and fragrance of the cheese, I was eating hot carbonara with care so as not to fall the sauce.

..... This is also more delicious than Hugo.

Perhaps, consomme is also used. It was much more delicious than the recipe I told you.

"Rosemain, is not it quite different from the recipe you taught to my cook?"

The chief priest who ate the carbonara stared glaringly at me. Even though I was stared at such a thing, I have not eaten such a taste.

"It was the result of the efforts of the cook during the two years in which I was sleeping. It was a lot of research from the recipe I taught. I am surprised, too."

"..... Ho, I want this cook."

A small muttering, gold's eyes are serious. I, of course, Frida and the guild's director will be caught up in the statement of the priest.

"Mr. Ferdinand, do not do something to pick up with power and money, Iruze must have this Italian restaurant served up."

"It is understandable, but if you think that enjoying this taste is a commoner, it is no wonder that there is a place to think a little"

Although it is the research result of Ilze, it certainly feels complicated when thinking that rich people of rich man who go to Italian restaurant more than aristocrats are eating delicious things.

I am watching for you with anxious eyes that the guild length and Frida will take Ilze. A silent appeal that "I want you to manage somehow" is transmitted.

.....all right. I managed to stop the chief priest.

I nod and head nodding towards them. I see Beno and Otto watching us looking at funny sightseeing. It does not seem to me to offer an assistant boat.

"Ortho Bucco is a cooked dish of the calf's shinned meat with Vizza and Pomeza sauce from Dunkel Ferger"

The brown and glossy meat is sprinkled with the source of pome. The gravy may seep out, the surface of the sauce was shining glossy.

This Ortho Bucco seems to be a dish with plenty of Dunkel Ferger's liquor that hardly reaches Ehrenfest. I taught Hugo a recipe that uses alcohol in Ehrenfest, but Ilze is a guild chief and seems to find sake that is more suitable for cooking.

..... Otomaru shoppers who can spare lots of money on Illse's cooking research are amazing, are not they?

I understand that it will be profitable later, but still the research expenses should not be stupid. It would be better for Ilze to cook as you like at the guild's length.
